Belmonte Ends Three-Year Quest for Second PBA Tour Title, Races Past Rash to Win Chameleon Open

by Bill Vint

LAS VEGAS — Australia's Jason Belmonte ended his nearly three-year quest for his second Professional Bowlers Association title, stringing eight strikes to run away from Sean Rash of Montgomery, Ill., 268-191, in the finals of the Chameleon Open at South Point Casino and Hotel.

The Chameleon Open finals, the second of four PBA "animal pattern" championships contested during the third annual PBA World Series of Bowling, aired Sunday on ESPN.

Belmonte, who came into the Chameleon elimination-format finals as the leading qualifier, barely survived the first two games before finding his groove in the title match.

In the opening game, Belmonte's two-handed rival, Osku Palermaa of Finland, led the four-man field with a 213. Rash was second with a 201, and Belmonte nipped Venezuela's Ildemaro Ruiz, 189-187, to avoid elimination as low man in the round.

In game two, Rash led the survivors with a 226 while Belmonte edged Palermaa, 200-190, to advance to the title match. Belmonte had lost to Palermaa in the only two previous meetings of the two-handed rivals, and barely escaped a third loss. After throwing a strike on his first ball in the 10th to take the lead over Palermaa, Belmonte left the 3-6-9-10 on his next shot to hand a one-pin lead back to the Finn. But Palermaa then left a 10 pin on his first shot in the 10th frame and failed to convert the spare to hand the game back to Belmonte.

In the title match, the Australian kicked in the afterburners. After converting the 6-10 spare in the first frame, the 2008-09 PBA Rookie of the

Year ran off a string of eight consecutive strikes to run away with the $15,000 first prize and a berth in the Round of 36 for the end-of-season

Josh Blanchard and Bryon Smith Win PBA Regional Players Doubles Championship Presented by Hammer

LAS VEGAS — Professional Bowlers Association Tour rookie Josh Blanchard and 2003 United States Bowling Congress Masters champion Bryon Smith teamed up to win the PBA Regional Players Doubles Championship presented by Hammer Saturday at

The Orleans Bowling Center.

With the win, both bowlers earn an Elite Round berth in the PBA Tournament of Champions April 8-15 at Red Rock Lanes in Las Vegas.

Blanchard, of Gilbert, Ariz., and Smith of Roseburg, Ore., had a 4-4 match play record and combined for a 5,629 16-game overall pinfall total which included match play bonus pins. Finishing second 115 pins behind were Andrew Loose of Chicago and Michael Steil of Wheeling, Ill. with 5,514.

Blanchard has been on the comeback trail after taking a hard fall during a delivery in a PBA World Championship Mike Aulby Division final match. But not long after that misfortune, he finished third in the PBA Cheetah Open presented by Ebonite in Orange

Billy Myers Jr. Leads Again Sysco Looks Good Going to Finish

by Aimee Gomez

DOWNEY—Gold Coast Hotel won four from Sysco to help make the race for the round a little closer. Greg Neuer 244-203-257/704 and Kevin Valmonte 209-268/666 led Gold Coast, but Sysco's Paul Barraco led the pair with his 227-300-212/739 set. Charlie Kinstler added a 258-225/671.

Ramon Torres led his Heineken team 203-255-246/704 and got a hand from Bruce Colbert 220-202/601, but they only took the first game from Kegel's Mark Curtis 202-254-246/702 and Kevin Yamauchi 212-222/617. Kegel moves into second for the round with their four points.

ABTA won four from Herzog Insurance in quite the battle. Matt Garcia 224-214-278/716, Ron Peter 211-249-213/673, Mike Villareal 243-226/652 and Darren Garcia 203-214-232/649 led ABTA while Raul Rosales reappeared and shot 253-225-225/703 to lead Herzog, with Steve Gurrieri 220-222-224/666, Gabriel Martinez 246-224/659 and Brian Main 207-259/609 helping out.

Billy Myers Jr. continued his hot streak with his 269-268-227/764 to lead Brylaw Accounting. Myers, along with teammates Tony Burrell 225-278-248/751, Larry Stephens 200-233-228/661 and Thurmond Davis 287-201/645 swept Powerhouse Video. Vernon Adams 247-268-224/739, Harry Wong 214-242/636 and Dave Ferguson 277/603 bowled better than their wins showed.

Clyde's Video Games had Ramiro Garcia 237-247/668 and Gregory Jackson 256-213/658 lead the way to four wins over Tifco Industries, who had a no show and a couple of rough sets. Sam Hitchcock led Tifco to a last game win to avoid the broom, with his 233-246/665.

Bowlum finally scored a sweep, because Arnold Cheesman finally got some help, although he did lead his team 219-257/666. Herbert Jones 215-233/624 and David Cogswell 213-212/614 stayed over par, while Threadworks just had a bad night.

Linder Insurance swept Tri-Star Vending using Jeremy Glover's 204-210/611 to take down Jared Lawrence's 231-212/610.

Erickson Foods won four from Pro Approach using Riley Renny's 225-219/665. Adam McKenzie 220-205/600 helped get his team another point this round in the third game.

Have a great week!

Barbara Bishop Teams Up With Her Friends In Heaven

by Alice Meglemre

LONG BEACH — Barbara Bishop passed away at her home 2 p.m. Friday, February 10, following a hectic week of being in and out of the hospital twice. She succumbed from a heart attack triggered by stomach cancer treatment.

She was released from the hospital Wednesday, to go home with hospice care and died quietly and peacefully on Friday, surrounded by close friends Gail Olson, Kathy Eaton, Vi Wilson and the hospice nurse.

Barbara is now reunited with her life-long friend and partner, Betty Phillips who passed away on September 18. Vi Wilson replaced Betty as Las Vegas Travel league secretary and Barbara became her right hand during Vi's transition from President to the combined offices of secretary-treasurer.

Doris Lewis became president and Bernice Williams was appointed vice-president. Even though Barbara had no official title she performed countless duties and favors for the league bowlers and officers.

Her loss will be more evident when Vegas sweeps comes up in March since she and her computer were going to handle Vegas doubles and sweeps bowling action in March. Vi will announce more details to the league later regarding sweeps slated at The Orleans.

It would be impossible to list all that Barbara has contributed to bowling on and off the lanes. She had bowled countless leagues with lofty averages for more than 50 years, and boasted countless league championships plus city and state titles. She was also elected to the LBWBA Hall Of Fame.

She retired from bowling last summer but was still present for league sessions to coach Betty and to perform any chores for officials, and for bowlers, that was needed.

Although she never accepted official titles in league or USBC league, she performed more duties than most elected officers. Her ability to conduct bowling sweeps was second to none and she was named on hundreds of committee through the years.

She was a co-partner with Betty Phillips in the Type-Ryte Printing Service, until their retirement and then she and Betty joined several leagues. The two of them enjoyed many years of fun and fellowship in leagues and tournaments.

Funeral services are private but a Memorial is scheduled at 1 p.m. Saturday, February 18 at Cal Bowl. You may contact Vi Wilson at 498-7108 for more information.

Carlos Umana 1st ABTA Victory

Laygo & Chung Share Match Series Worth $864

Match Game est. at $2,300 • Godinez Takes Home $1,800 in 3-6-9

3-6-9 will be $500 at Oak Tree and Match Series est. at $300

Next Week: ABTA at Oak Tree for 1 Day "Beat the Board Finals"

Start of our 3 Event Handicap Bonus

WEST COVINA — We returned to West Covina Lanes where we saw 171 entries come out and support the ABTA. We had a semi tough-shot making the cut scores of +57 for the men and +25 for the women. The Super Seniors added to the board (2 men and 1 female) were Leo "Horseman" Tartamella (+51), Mark Anthony Sr (+47), and Sierrre Herradura (+7). Super Seniors are men 63 and over, and for the women you just need to be a young 55. That would give us 47 bowlers making it to the semi-finals.

Our top qualifier for the Men was Dillon Ito with a +123, and for the women it was Sue Okamoto with a +90. They will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event.

Each week our top seed overall draws the Match Series, and this time it was worth $864. Dillon Ito drew a 455. We had two bowlers that bowled this score during the qualifying squads, it was Manuel Laygo and Benjamin Chung, they got $432 each. We will estimate the Match Series at $300 at the Oak Tree event. Last man up in the 3-6-9 roll-off was David Godinez. He needed to get five nine counts or strikes to take home $1,800. Well folks, David did not make the 4 semis, but made this count to the max as he made all 5 shots of nine or better to take home the $1,800. The pot will start out at $500 at Oak Tree.

In our optional doubles, finishing in first were John Phan and Samson Kong with a 1414 for $100. Finishing second was John Wei and John Phan with 1388 for $80. There was a total of $800 paid out in doubles and 18 paid spots with low to cash of 1312.

After the 3 game semi-finals, the leader was Carlos Umana with a +114. He bowled a good second game to jump out in front and then held on during the 3rd game. Finishing in 2nd during the semi-finals was affable John Wei at a +83 to sit out the first round. Our top seed in semi-finals had the honor of drawing the match game worth $1,040. Carlos drew a 119. After a review of all the scores bowled, we had no bowlers who matched that score. We will estimate the pot at 2,200 for Oak Tree.

Now on to the exciting top 16 Match Play finals. In the first round, the seven losers were Mark Fisser, Paolo Dizon, Sarah Magno, John Phan, Wendy SooHoo, Allan Calabio, and Marvin Crowder. They received checks of $100 each. In the second round, the losers were Mary Huynh, Jesse Boquio, Darrow Tiongo and John Wei. They received checks of $105 each. We are now down to the final five bowlers. At this point, our horses would be paying anywhere from a low of $42 (Samson Kong) to a high of $69 (David Dittlinger) depending on who would win. In this round we saw Alan Libao (10th seed) bowling Samson Kong (4th seed) that would go down to the 10th frame to decide this close match. Alan came up in the 10th frame needing a strike on the first ball and he got that, but on his 2nd ball he left the 4-7 split and needed to pick up both pins to win the match and only got one. So Samson would advance with a 228-227 victory. In the other match we saw David Dittlinger (6th seed) bowling Dillon Ito (7th seed). This would be a match where Dillon, who looks a lot like Jason Belmonte who also uses two hands while bowling, lose his shot and David having a great game, 239 to Dillon's 158, advanced to the semi-final match. Both Dillon Ito and Alan Libao finished in 4th and 5th getting checks for $110 each.

Our semi-final match was all set now, and would pit the 6th and 10th seeds from the semis against each other. In the weekly "horses" we would see Samson paying $42 and David paying $69 if they would win their match. In this match we saw another very close match that went to the 7th frame when David caught a split, and it was sealed in the 9th frame when David missed a 4 pin. Samson would go on to win the match with a 173/212 to 168/193 and advance to the title match. Finishing in 3rd place was David Dittlinger this week for $200. For those lucky "investors" that had Samson as a horse, he paid $42.

The title game set now and Carlos, the top qualifier elected to start the match first this week. Carlos would leave the 3-10 split in the first frame and only picked up one pin. Up came Samson, and it appeared he was on a mission this week by starting out with the "ham bone", 4 strikes. It appeared that he was on his way to the title with a 40-pin lead, but in the 5th frame the door started to open for Carlos, as Samson left the 3-6-7-10 split and only picked up two pins. Both bowlers would open in the 7th frame and the lead was down to 29 pins at this point. Both bowlers got a mark in the 8th frame, but Carlos had a strike. In the 9th frame Carlos got another strike, and up came Samson to finish the match first but he left 3-6 on his first ball and only got the 6 pin. In the 10th frame he would spare and get 8 pins on his fill ball to finish with a 184/223. That brought up Carlos needing the first strike and good count to take home the victory. He got the strike on his first ball and then left the 4-9 on his second shot. But it was enough as he would finish with a 189/225 and his first ABTA Championship. He would take home $1,000 for 1st place and $850 for Cash and Carry, $100 for using an 900 Global ball for a total of $1,950. Finishing in 2nd place for $500 was Samson Kong who bowled so well.

Champion Carlos Umana is from Rialto and one of many friends that bowl regularly with the ABTA manily from popular Brunswick Foothill Lanes (Fine People). He used a Missing Link from Global 900 drilled by Marv Sargent. He is married to Naomi and they have two children Christopher and J. J. He would like to thank his family for their support, his friend Emilo Flores, David Pruett for his coaching, the people that bowled with him during the 6 pm squad, the ABTA and its Staff, and last but not least God for all His blessings. Carlos is a gentleman and well-liked by all. Weare proud of his first Championship. Congrats to one of the Good Guys!

Samson Kong (2nd Place) is from Temple City and used a Storm Reign drilled by Ed Williamson. He is single and would like to thank the Mou-Liu league bowlers along with his cheering section that stayed to watch all his matches.

David Dittlinger (3rd Place) is from Hollywood and used a Nomad Pearl. He is married to Mary Ann and would like to thank his wife for her support, his brother-in-law Ted, Isabelle, Niada, and Keren for all their support.

The weekly ball sponsor winner of a 900 Global Ball was Ronnie Stewart. Each time you enter, you get a free ticket for this prize given away by our Sponsor, 900 Global. In our raffle Samson Kong won a 900 Global ball, Art Windsor won an ABTA Free Entry. The rest of the results are in the payoff column in this paper.

For The Love Of Bowling

by Frank Weiler

My father didn’t bowl. It wasn’t because he tried and failed. It wasn’t because he didn’t like the sport or had a bad experience. It was because he had to work. In those days a family man with kids had to work two jobs to get by. He drove a coal truck during the day and an oil truck at night.

Dad was an orphan, raised by an older sister, from the time he was five years old. He never had a chance to play games or sports. Household chores included gathering fire wood, mopping floors, washing dishes, washing windows, laundering clothes, cutting grass and shoveling snow. He had a job by the time he was nine years old. He sold the old DELINEATOR Magazine on street corners, for a nickel. He earned one penny for every ten copies sold.

It was the “great depression” and a penny would buy a loaf of bread.

Pop never finished grammar school and when he got his GED High School diploma, at the age of sixty, the whole family celebrated. Dad passed at the age of sixty-three never having entered a bowling center. Yet, my father loved bowling.

He loved bowling because I loved bowling. He loved bowling because I was a bowler. FOR THE LOVE OF BOWLING my dad took a third job on weekends, so I could bowl. He took a job shoveling coal so I could bowl. He shoveled coal on Saturday so I could bowl on Saturday.

As a kid, I lived for Saturday mornings. I spent those Saturdays at THE PALACE, with other youth bowlers. The Palace was the bowling center close to my home. It was a two story “cathedral” of bowling. Six lanes downstairs and six upstairs. The decor was western, with wooden Indians and cowboys in every corner. Powder blue saddle bags were on the sides of the ball returns. There was a Wall of Fame that every junior bowler wanted to be pictured on. I was no exception. I wish dad could have seen my picture there.

Dad was a poor kid. Because he had nothing, he wanted his kids to have everything. He never had a dog, so my brother and I had several. He never had any toys, so we had a box full. He never had time for sports, so we could play any sport we wanted. Our favorite was bowling. He never had a bowling ball, so we had the bowling ball of our choice.

When I was ten, Santa brought me a new Brunswick Black Beauty. I could see myself in it’s mirror finish. I really liked polishing that ball, and used Simonize floor wax for the best results.

That Black Beauty was a magnificent ball. Maybe the best bowling ball ever manufactured. Surely it was the most beautiful. A surface texture as smooth as a cue ball and pitch black in color. It held it’s luster better than any other ball. It shined no matter how many games it was used. Boy, did it glow when polished.

I still have that ball. It sits among my bowling trophies as a reminder of my dad’s love for me and a testament of his love of bowling.

My father never won a trophy, never received an award. He never won a tournament. When I brought my first bowling trophy home dad was elated. He was the happiest man in the world. He was so proud. His face glowed as my trophy was placed on a small shelf above our radio, next to Grandma Dydula’s portrait. That trophy sat in it’s place of honor for years. It was there when I left home for military service.

Years later Mom told me that dad cherished that plastic statuette. That trophy represented the fruits of his labor. It was there for him when I was a world away. It was there for him when I couldn’t be. Now that trophy is here for me when dad can’t be. He is gone now, and for me that trophy represents his love for me and his love of bowling.

Dad taught me that a life of hard work, a life providing for one’s family, a life serving one’s community, a life being a good citizen is a life well lived. It is a life with true joy and deep meaning. His example showed me that love is extravagant. Love will pay any price, expend any time, and endure any hardship to make a loved one happy. Dad proved you don’t have to be a bowler to love bowling. You don’t have to be a bowler for bowling to make you happy. If bowling makes someone you love happy, it will make you happy.

LAKE FOREST—Everyone is asking to shoot on the flat pattern, even the top average bowlers, in the Junior League. Just goes to prove that bowlers do like a challenge every now and again. # 2012 PBA World Series of Bowling Returns to South Point in Las Vegas

Fourth annual multi-event international competition set for November 2-11

LAS VEGAS (Feb. 9, 2012) – South Point Bowling Center in Las Vegas will host the fourth annual Professional Bowlers Association World Series of Bowling, a multi-event international competition, Nov. 2-11, that will kick off the 2012-13 PBA Tour season, PBA Commissioner Tom Clark announced Thursday.

The 2012 World Series of Bowling, the third consecutive hosted by South Point, will feature four PBA “animal pattern” championships and conclude with the PBA World Championship. The package of events also will include six ESPN television events, plus the 2012 WTBA World Bowling Tour Finals presented by the PBA. Two PBA Regional special events also are in the preliminary planning stage.

“Since its inception in 2009, the PBA World Series has evolved into the true world showcase for bowling that we hoped it would become,” Clark said. “Our newly-adopted relationships with the World Tenpin Bowling Association to expand PBA competition around the world will only enhance the drama that will unfold when we return to South Point in November. World Series IV is going to be fun.”

The World Series, which last year attracted more than 200 players from a record 15 different countries, will get underway with an open practice session on Friday, Nov. 2. Over the next four days, competitors will bowl eight-game qualifying sessions in the Cheetah, Viper, Chameleon and Scorpion Opens, respectively. At the conclusion of each daily qualifying round, the top 16 players will advance to an additional six-game qualifying session to determine the four players who will advance to the ESPN eliminator finals.

Combined 32-game pinfall from the four animal pattern events also will serve as qualifying scores for the PBA World Championship. The top 24 after 32 games will advance to round robin match play on Nov. 7 and 8. After 24 additional games of match play, the top eight players will advance to an eight-player stepladder final.

Television finals for delayed telecast on ESPN will be conducted on specially-installed lanes in an exhibition hall at South Casino and Hotel. The preliminary schedule calls for the WTBA World Bowling Tour Men’s and Women’s Finals, Cheetah Open and Viper Open finals to be conducted on Saturday, Nov. 10, with the Scorpion Open, Chameleon Open and PBA World Championship stepladder finals (in two sessions) to be conducted on Sunday, Nov. 11.

PBA Tournament of Champions. Belmonte won his only previous PBA Tour title in the 2009 Bowling Foundation Long Island Open.

“This feels a million times better than my first title,” Belmonte beamed. “I bowled one of the best games of my life.

“In the second match, I got very lucky,” he added. “When you get a break like that, you have to take it, pardon the expression, in both hands and I was able to do that.”

By winning the Chameleon Open, Belmonte became the third straight international player to win a PBA World Series of Bowling title. In two previous events, Palermmaa captured the PBA World Championship and England’s Stuart Williams won the Bayer Viper Open.

The third “animal pattern” championship, the Scorpion Open, will be settled next Sunday at 3 p.m. ET on ESPN. The finalists will be England’s Dom Barrett; Dave Wodka of Henderson, Nev.; Rash and Patrick Allen of Wesley Chapel, Fla.

PBA CHAMELEON OPEN

Round Two (lowest score eliminated): Rash 226, Belmonte 200, Palermmaa 190 ($4,500).

Championship: Belmonte ($15,000) def. Rash ($7,500), 268-191

County, Calif., in January.

“It feels good to be back on a positive note,” said Blanchard. “I knew the fall at the World Championship was just something I was going to have to shake off. I never felt it was going to be something that I couldn’t come back from.”

Both players were looking for a partner to compete in the RPC doubles when their paths crossed at the World Series of Bowling in November.

“Whenever you’re in a team or doubles format you want a player who matches up with your game,” Smith said. “Josh and I are very compatible because we play similar angles and throw the ball with a similar roll. It made it very easy for us to read the lanes and make the adjustments we needed to make.”

Competition included an eight-game qualifying round after which the top eight teams advanced to an eight-game Baker format doubles match play round.

15 Year Old Bowler Scores a 300 Game and 732 Series!

VICTORVILLE — There is a female bowling dynamite in the high desert, Lareece N. Chambers, honing her skills and preparing for collegiate bowling. At fifteen years young, with a 169 average, she scored a perfect game (300) and high series (732 with scores of 219, 213 and 300, respectively) – wow! “This was the best feeling I ever had... it’ll be in my heart and memory forever,” exclaimed Lareece!

Since 2008, Lareece has been bowling at Victor Bowl. She is the only female, youth to earn the 300-game award. The United States Bowling Congress (USBC) and Victor Bowl plan to honor her with a personal 300-game ring and a hall-of-fame, gold plaque to be displayed at Victor Bowl. When Lareece scored the 300, Jerry Schultze, Manager, shouted with joy to Lareece, “I knew you could do it!”

About Lareece...

While this is the most exciting achievement for Lareece, winning is not new to her. She is Victor Bowl’s Two-Time Thanksgiving No-Tap Champion for 2011 and 2010; her team is currently in first place in the Wednesday Junior’s Bowling Program (at Victor Bowl); she has earned scholarship money for placement in handicap and scratch tournaments, over the last several years at local, regional, state and national bowling tournaments. Youth Director, Helen London, has presented Lareece with the Yolanda Rogers’ Sportsmanship Award for the last two years.

Lareece is a USBC Junior Gold member, participates in JAT, will begin bowling with the JBT club, this spring, and is a member of the Victorville Bowling Center Scholars Program!

Sports and Smarts...

Lareece attends the California Virtual Academy, is on the Dean’s List, and participates in the AP Program! She enjoys writing, fashion and fun! She volunteers within her community, and looks forward to attending college.

GENKA MINED A GEM OF A SERIES

by Roberta McNaught

ANAHEIM—Genka Cabatu, who is a newbie to the league this season, dug deep into her bowling bag of tools and mined out a treasure of a series. For her first game she blasted out a 289, followed up with 220, 190, and 235, she dug up a fantastic 934 series.

Our 900 Club was well represented with four other bowlers who were: Terry Brent with 299 (darn that stubborn 7 pin) 916, E.J. Rogers 277/914, Larry Nordstrom 278/901 and John Conway 269/901.
