Match One - Ciminelli def. Scroggins, 246-229

Match Two - Williams def. Ciminelli, 258-224

Championship Match - Williams def. Barnes, 290-217

RENO, Nev. - Walter Ray Williams Jr. of Ocala, Fla., won his second United States Bowling Congress Masters title Sunday, defeating top seed Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, 290-217, at the National Bowling Stadium.

The victory was Williams' 47th on the Lumber Liquidators Professional Bowlers Association Tour, extending his record for the most in PBA Tour history, while also moving him up to a tie for second with eight career major titles.

"This is just another little feather, it's just awesome," said Williams, who defeated Barnes, 268-239, to win the January 2004 USBC Masters also at the National Bowling Stadium. "It's hard to explain it better than that. To win any tournament is awesome, and the bigger ones are even better."

Williams is now tied with Pete Weber and Mike Aulby with eight career major titles, but all three players trail USBC and PBA Hall of Famer Earl Anthony, who won 10 majors and 43 total titles.

"I really don't envision that I can get to 10, but I'm not giving up yet," said Williams, who turned 50 in 2009. "I'm going to go out there and plug along as good as I can, and the year that I'm no longer exempt out here, that's when I will have had enough."

In the title match against Barnes, Williams got off to a shaky start, going high on his first shot, breaking up a split and leaving a 7 pin. From there, he was perfect, finishing with 11 consecutive strikes to take home the $50,000 prize and two-year PBA Tour exemption.

Williams said the turning point in the match was when Barnes left a 10 pin in the fourth frame, but he managed to carry a similar shot in the fifth frame.

"Chris left that weak 10 pin after a scout came over and touched it but didn't knock it over, and then I step up and leave a 10 pin but the scout comes over and gets it," Williams said. "That helped me get a little more comfortable, and from that point, every one of my strikes was high flush."

Looking back on the loss, Barnes said he thought he threw the ball well, but it was the way the lanes broke down in practice that had a major impact.

"I lost this one in the practice session," said Barnes, who finished second in the season's second major, losing to Kelly Kulick, 265-195, in the PBA Tournament of Champions three weeks ago. "He played further right than I anticipated. When I broke them down, it made the lanes pretty good for me, but it had no affect on him."

When Williams and Barnes met for the Masters title in 2004, the scenario set up the same way. Barnes was the top seed, while Williams was No. 2.

"The last two Masters here in Reno, I've gone undefeated in match play, I haven't lost a three-game match, yet I haven't won either tournament," said Barnes, who made it through the double-elimination bracket unscathed in both events. "TV is one of the best things the sport has going for it, but it is probably the worst thing I have going for me personally."

To reach the championship match, Williams defeated No. 3 seed Ryan Ciminelli of Buffalo, N.Y., 258-224. Ciminelli advanced with a 246-229 victory over fourth seed Mike Scroggins of Amarillo, Texas, in the opening match.

The 2010 USBC Masters featured a field of 267 of the top professional and amateur bowlers in the world, competing for an overall prize fund of $255,000.

MATT MURTISHAW Rolls 39 Consecutive Strikes!

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA - The son of Anita and Jim (PBA Champion) Murtishaw rolled 39 consecutive strikes in certified league bowling at CAL OAKS BOWL the other night. He finished his 6 PM league with twenty-two strikes, and a third game 300, then started up with seventeen strikes and a leadoff 300 game in his 9 PM league. Matt bowled on a different pair of lanes in each league. Does anyone know if another bowler has bowled more consecutive strikes in certified (sanctioned) league play? Let me know care of the Bowling News.

To some extent, Hall of Fame bowling columnist, DICK EVANS got his wish on Matt's big night. Evans has advocated that a bowler rolling a 900 series should have the opportunity to continue bowling after 36 strikes, to see how many consecutive strikes could be rolled. Then we would know who really bowled the highest score of all-time. Maybe Murtishaw holds the strike record! As Matt continued striking the house was buzzing. Keglers from both leagues were looking on and cheering like crazy. Matt was cool and collected and kept receiving high fives from the crowd, after each strike. Everyone, including myself, thought Murtishaw would rattle off 58 in a row and a 900 series in the late league.

Anyway, back to back perfectos aren't too bad! The perfect games were Matt's eighth and ninth, and all of them in the last two seasons. He just started bowling again, two years ago, after ten years away from the sport.

Matt is just 23 years young. In the early league Matt bowled 204 - 269 - 300 for 773. In the late league he posted games of 300 - 246 - 206 for 752. In practice last season, Matt finished with 34 strikes in a row, for games of 280 - 300 - 300 for 880!

Murtishaw used his Storm Reign ball in his early league and Storm Natural in the late league.

Both were drilled by his dad Jim, the proprietor of the FAST LANES PRO SHOP within Cal Oaks Bowl.

MISSION HILLS—One of my league bowlers came up to me the other day and asked me to sponsor him in a Las Vegas mega bucks tournament. I said no and he seemed a little put off by my rather short, blunt answer. He said he was one of my better customers, which he was, and had heard I sponsored other bowlers in the past and wanted to know why I wouldn't back him. I told him the following story.

I don't remember the year (although I should considering what happened) probably in the early 90's. There was a tournament called the American Dream Classic held in Las Vegas. First place was something like $200,000 and the format seemed easy. It was double elimination and I figured if I sponsored the right bowlers I could win a lot of money.

I decided to take the best right and left handed bowlers in my bowling center and enter NORWALK— After watching the P.B.A events on T.V. - weekly - since it all started, I had become numb to the commercials that ran over and over and over.

I understand how expensive they are, plus the need for them. This year, Parker Bohn III and his wife's comic attack to sell flooring is cute. Everyone needs flooring, and this ad makes us believe the wood is strong enough to bowl on.

Velarde Has A Super Night at Bowling Square

Wins 4th ABTA Title $2,800 • He also hits a Max $3,500 Match Game

ARCADIA—Folks, there was lots going on Saturday night. It was Chinese New Year Celebration and more. But having a celebration on his own was long time ABTA Member who not only picked up his fourth ABTA Title by downing White Hot Ray Josefatz in the title game. Also luckily had his 267 game 3 be drawn for the Match Game and another $3,500. Needless to say he and family were happy to say the least. Greg is deserving and bowls most events in the ABTA that he can and liked by all. Congrats!!

The scoring was quite high this eve and making the cut were Men +113 and the ladies +70 to make the semis. Also added were Super Seniors Lonzell Burnett, Voi Paolucci, and Bobbie Mc Collum.

A fine turnout of 225 bowlers saw 64 Semifinalists cash. A $6,800 Prize fund, Nice Pots, and Brackets and more all day long! The Semifinalists take the floor, of which all would cash and the top 16 to advance to the single elim finals with 3 women min guaranteed to the top 16.

The scoring was contentious with a nice +97 to make the top 16 Single Elim Finals.

The Semis saw Rey Josefatz daylight the field with a humongous +247 topping all by over 100 pins. He would sit out and bowl for the title. Pretty lady Bella Ordon was runner up +146. She will receive a first round bye in the finals and seeded to the top 9.

The first round went and we had Dave Emrich, Vic Hilvano, Vuong Do, William Garrett, David Owens and Natalie Perenishko lose out and they received checks of $100 in 10-16th places.

Round two had Theresa Fiore, Jeff Sargent, Justin Taino and Jhun Tan lose out and get checks of $115 in 6-9th places.

Round three got hot as Greg Velarde edged Richard Lim 202-200. Glen Dantes and Bella Ordon tied and with a 9-10 frame roll-off Glen wins out. So Bella and others losing in round two got checks of $120 in 4-5th places. So Greg and Glen were to meet for the right to bowl Rey for the title. Greg came through in a 207-201 win and Gen was 3rd $205 with Glenn off to the title game.

The title game was on, and Greg led off and did he ever with a turkey, but Rey split then doubled and Greg clean with spares all the way to frame 7. Rey began a nightmare missing the 10 pin and 9 pin in successive frames and again split in the 7th. Greg then doubled in frames 8-9. He wins it going away 221/234 to Rey at 159/195. Great bowling by a very nice man who has been a valued ABTA member over 10 yrs. He had a great night at Bowling Square to be sure! Congrats Greg!

What else can we say about Rey Josefatz, one of the Good Guys and hard workers who is liked by all. He really was on fire til the title game. Nice bowling by Glen Bella and Richard also John Gonzales in third!

ABTA Notes: Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Voung Do +239. Men +228 and Emma Soliman led the gals +162. They will get paid entries for the fine bowling.

The Doubles were headed by Romy Cajucom and Ely Cruz 1598 for $170. Jerry Chang and Don Chung 1538 $150. Bedell Vasquez, Rey Josefatz 1525 and $140. We paid 22 places and $1,660 in the doubles.

The 3-6-9 was NOT Hit as Danny "Panthers" Reese out

Velarde is ABTA Champion at Bowling Square (L—R) Rey Josefatz (runner up) $550 Faye Josefatz ABTA Director Champion Greg Velarde $2,800, Gina Velarde ABTA Director and Glen Dantes 3rd. Velarde was at it again and was lucky enough to have his 267 game drawn for the Match Game for another $3,500. He had a great time at Bowling Square to say the least if not less! With $6,300 in winnings he will have a few more fine times :-)) Greg is most deserving and a long time ABTA Member. The pot again is worth $3,500 this week at West Covina Lanes.

did the field but missed, so we go for a cool $1,900 this week Folks! Danny got $50 Consolation for beer money :-)

The Match Game was matched with a 267, as Greg Velarde happily cashed in. The Match Game is again $3,500 this Saturday at West Covina.

The Match Series worth $378 was Matched by pretty Deborah Martin at 503. Deb is a great gal we are happy for her and for a $2.00 entry, you can't top that!

Greg Velarde is from West Covina used a Hammer drilled by Mike Wahl. He is married to Gina one of our fine directors. He thanks Gina, Daughter Keilana, and family for all the support along with so many friends in fact TOO MANY (he is well liked) to list here!! MANY!! He thanks bowlers who stayed and cheered them on and special thanks to Mike for the fine drilling!

And thanks Faye Mom and Dad and sis Anne for support, also kudos to the ABTA Staff and bracket pals Gen and Bedell. And the drunken Moh Team and Champs and Doble tres.

Glen Dantes is from LA and used a Hammer drilled by Ed Williamson at Bowling Square. He thanks Family, Jewel City Pals and Lucian Bruzzoni for support.

It was great to return to Bowling Square, where everyone has a great time and scores will be lower next time :-)

Special thanks to Cheryl, Tony and the staff. We return there June 6 with lower scores and fair condition. It is History folks as Greg Velarde enters the archives as our latest champion. Many Members could not bowl due to the Chinese New Year. Happy New Year :-)

Drawing winners were Tony Tang, 2 nights in July at South Point, for our event there. LeStar Walker, Bag, and Romy Cajucom, Ball with Connie Ferrer, and James Abilar getting paid entries to any reg ABTA Event. Win Yours! 6 tickets for $5.

National Deaf Bowling News

Malucci Mauls Record 2333 All-Events In SN-CDBA At Canyon Lanes

CABAZON — The much heralded deaf lefthander Carl Malucci who just shot 300/857 two weeks ago in his Las Vegas league, was magnificent again in the So. Nevada-Calif. Deaf Bowling Association tournament at Canyon Lanes in Cabazon. The Mighty Malucci who had three 300s and a couple of 800s in this 25 year SN-CDBA tournament records, added another record with 815 in team, 723 in singles and 795 in doubles for a rare out of the world huge 2333 all-events total.

But his lofty 2333 with zero handicap was good for second place in this handicap tournament. The bowlers should be happy that Malucci only helped his team to first place with record 2976 and left all other first place prizes to others.

Other handicap winners are Andy Lorenzo and Pablo Yoma 1590 in doubles, Francisco Navarro 835 in singles and Thomas Koerwitz 2347 in all-events. The prestigious SD-CDBA Deaf Eliminations had top seeded Phil Sanchez along 3 other average bowlers and Malucci and 212 average Ed Abakumoff in its 6 bowlers stepladder championship finals. Second seeded Phil Hawkins beat Sanchez for the title.

There were no 300s but 290 and 280 by Malucci. A couple of 289s and a 288. All stories about each event in next week's Bowling News.

DeGroff Hits Back To Back 289s At Mission Hills Bowl

MISSION HILLS — Ken DeGroff who had hit a couple back to back 300s in leagues before, almost did it again with back to back 289s in his Wednesday league at Mission Hills Bowl.

Deaf Travel Bowls At Mission Hills Bowl Sunday

MISSION HILLS — The 50th Anniversary So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League will be at Mission Hills Bowl this Sunday bowling at 1:00 P.M. Come early to watch us and also watch the top hearing bowlers of the Pacific Coast Bowlers which will be having their tournament on the other side of the house.

In Loving Memory... Jeanie (Tharp) Noskoff

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM—Our hearts were saddened on Wednesday, January 27th, to learn of the passing of this amazing, energetic and charismatic lady. Jeanie was a dear, dear friend, sister, mother and grandma. She was also a very accomplished and extremely stylish bowler with a high back swing ala Pete Weber. Unfortunately, I have none of Jeanie's stats other than the obvious fact that she was an avid bowler and loved the sport. She even traveled to Japan to compete. She had said of her trip that she learned so much and was amazed at the cultural differences but the bowling was universal. Bowling speaks volumes!

Jeanie was a teammate, doubles partner and traveling companion to many, many state and national conventions and tournaments. No matter where our group traveled, if Jeanie was there, you could always expect a fun time. I know everyone would say that Jeanie never met a stranger! You always knew where you stood: she'd cajole with you, console you or put you in your place - THAT was Jeanie!!

Jeanie worked in the bowling industry most of her life, spending 20 years as manager at Regal Lanes. She was honored as Manager of the year in 1990 by the Orange County Bowling Association. She also was an active OCWBA board member for several years and director at The Concourse. She was on several committees, always diligently completed her assignments and would often offer her services to others.

On Friday, February 5th, friends and family gathered at the Magnolia Baptist Church in Anaheim to celebrate Jeanie's life. A lovely service was conducted and a special slide presentation of Jeanie at various stages of her life was shown on a giant overhead screen. There were a lot of laughs at some of the typical Jeanie antics and also a lot of tears as one could remember her - just like that!!

Jeanie has moved from this earth to Heaven. Her life was such a celebration and we will miss her beyond measure. She was such a vivacious woman who brought a smile and encouragement into each life she touched. It seems all too soon for her to leave us ... it brings us great joy to remember this caring, funny, often inappropriate, loving and loyal friend.

Jeanie will be missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her. Condolences go to her loving family, daughters Darci Tharp, Teri Grimes and granddaughter Patty Lyn.

Please enjoy this little 'Maxine' cartoon quip to Jeanie ... "Let your conscience be your guide ... and you'll never, ever have any fun."

LAS VEGAS TRAVEL LEAGUE
By Alice Meglemre

NORWALK—Keystones's super control deskman, David, opened the doors promptly at 10 a.m. and 16 teams of four-some hopefully attacked the lanes in hope of improving positions. There's only four weeks left this season and it's a battle right down to the wire for the top two teams to claim victory, however, it's also there's a possibility that a couple of teams may close in on them if either Keystone # 2 or Fountain Bowl #2 teams run into trouble. The other team positions finished this week as follows; 54, 50, 47, 46.2, 45, 43, 42, 40, 38.2, 38, 37.2., 35.2, 35, 31, 26.2 and the cellar team, at 17.2 is the only team that can't go higher but they could do damage to teams that they bowl.

Monday's honor roll featured Doris Lewis 204-545, Jamie Vallier 210-538, Sue McGill 535, Margo McClain 210-528, Myrt Owens 527, Cil Moons and Madeline Majick tied on 519, Hedy Schoner 511, Dee Phipps 509, Betty Phillips 508, Roberta McNaught 507, Karen Mauricio 506, Audry Thibodeaux 502 and Aresia McGee 203.

High Game and series prizes are still up for grabs but the leaders are pretty comfortable with their scratch scores. For 155 and under, it's Pris Mauricio 233 and Mary DeFord 578 and for the 156 and over division, it's Jamie Vallier 261 and Doris Lewis 705.

A survey of the 64 league bowlers shows 11 are shooting over entering average and 2 are at their average. Also, out of 25 subs, only 4 are over their averages. Yep! A travel league is a challenge to most bowlers with one exception. Doris Lewis, at 179 entering average, and bowling only in the Travel league for more than 20 years, manages to keep a lofty average at 170 are better. She's currently hitting league high average of 182.

NEXT WEEK: 10:30 A.M. Monday February 22, at Del Rio Lanes and we will again be on the north side from 17-32.

Commercials

a nice change, and for a worthy cause.

Half way thru the show a new commercial popped up! What is this? A ball coming back to the bowler? The Storm name being sanded off? A bowling ball being made? What a great "Learning" Spot! How many bowlers have ever seen the process of making a bowling ball?

As brief as the commercial was, Storm made their point, and I'm sure anyone walking into a Pro Shop will think "Storm" for balls.

That commercial running every week should sell a ton of balls! Thank you Storm and big thanks to all the advertisers that bring us the tour.

This past Sunday I started listing the advertisers. Here is my list. Incomplete I'm sure. Lumber Liquidators, Barbasol, Geico, One A Day, Vice, Dexter, Globe 900, Etonic, Go RVing, USBC, Tony's, Golden Corral, NASCAR, KR Strike Force, PBA Pro Apparel Shop, AMF, Columbia 300, Bayer, ESPN, Direct TV, The Ladies.com, 3 G Stores, and Cialis.

P.S. I attended the T.V. show at Fountain Bowl 3 weeks ago. You wouldn't believe how many people it takes to put on a 1 hour production.

The 3 massive 16 wheelers in the parking lot with pictures on the sides was a cross country rolling commercial!

I think a fast action version would be — trucks driving up, unloading, assembling the T.V. set, the show and re-packing the trucks. What a show that would be!

“Third Round Spot On The Line Monday”

DOWNEY — Just when the final week of the most difficult round looms ahead, 54% of the league this week at least bowled their average or higher.

The “SYSCO” team snatched all five points from Western Pacific, teetering at the top, with a 2 1/2 game lead over J.A.T., their advocates for the final week.

Vernon Adams, anchor for Sysco had a great 674 series, which included a sidepot winning 248 third game.

Western Pacific was 2 men short on their regular roster but welcomed Jeff Seesholtz and Greg Jackson as subs —which outscored the regs.

Damn — Why does work have to interfere with bowling!

Six teams still have an outside chance at winning round three, but the top 4 teams would have to loose all five and either Linder Insurance or Brylaw would have to win all five. What are the odds???

A new lady has joined Melody Garcia on the ladies side of the sheet. Talia St. Angelo knocked out a 629 series — 10th highest of the night. Her 242 game was also the 10th highest game of the night. Way to go, girl! Jon Brandon scooped up a few bucks winning the first sidepot with a 267 and the series pot with 715.

“The Brylaw Pot” — a special pot of its own, sponsored by Bylaw pays off 2nd game highs. This week, Eric Snow slid into the bank for $185, half of the current total. By league's end, someone will be VERY happy! And probably VERY lucky!

The guys on the “Gano Excel Coffee” team currently in last place, are looking forward to round four and a clean win/loss slate. Accidents and illness has plagued this team most of round three. Their 786 team average proves they are contenders, just can't cinch the games with subs picked up on the concourse.

Like any league — Teams that are solid, show up every week, and have team spirit — Come out ahead.

Monday, February 22, will be the final week of round three, should be a good show. Come on down.

The state BVL championship will be held on April 10th, 2010 and hosted by Yorba Linda Bowl. We are looking forward to having all our respective division winners come out to represent Orange County. What an honor.

Volunteers to work the tournament are needed. There will be two squads: noon and 3:30 pm. If anyone is interested in helping with the tournament, please contact chairman Ladine Jones at 714/225-2409 or Office Manager Cheryl Huntington at 714/554-0111.

There was a new “Heroes in Our Midst” board started at this year’s BVL tournament. This bulletin board honors all veterans and will travel to all Orange County tournaments. If you would like to honor anyone you know who is currently serving or has served in any branch of the armed forces, please bring their picture (no larger than 5x7) to share with their name, branch of service, years served and rank.

We thank all of you who came out to support our hospitalized veterans. We also would like to thank Linbrook Bowl for hosting this year’s tournament. A job well done and most appreciated!! Don't forget to come out to support all our winners as they compete in the state championships on April 10th.

Bowlum PBA Challenge #2 This Sunday

$100 PBA Challenge Sweep Bonus Still Alive

James Hefley Takes Tough Cheetah Title

The JAT made their way to the San Gabriel Valley and our annual stop at Brunswick West Covina Lanes. The house put out a modified PBA Cheetah pattern for this JAT stop and although the pattern usually plays tough, it played especially tough and spotty this Sunday. Qualifying leader was DeeRonn Booker at -24 followed closely by James Hefley (who recovered from a 125 first game to get to -33). Daniel Updegraff, Charlie Hair and Melissa Pena rounded out the top-5 while Mark Myers was low-to-qualify at -173. In the Round of 14, Preston Fukumizu d. Jeremy Glover 2-1, Melissa Pena d. Noel Sosa 2-0, Charlie Hair d. Nicole Shepard 2-0, Brandon Pekins d. Randall DeLeon 2-1, Brian Hernandez d. Gary Smith 2-0 and Daniel Updegraff d. Mark Myers 2-0. In the quarterfinals, Preston Fukumizu d. DeeRonn Booker 2-1, Melissa Pena d. Charlie Hair 2-1, James Hefley d. Brandon Pekins 2-0 and Brian Hernandez d. Daniel Updegraff 2-0. In the semifinals, both Fukumizu and Hefley swept their way into the finals. Preston Fukumizu made his way back to the finals after a long absence but it was James Hefley who had the better look and struck his way to a 194-181 and 212-190 sweep and the Open Division title. Congratulations James!

Mason Sherman Debuts To A Title

Ten bowlers in the Senior Division this week to take on the PBA Cheetah pattern at West Covina. Scores were low with Kevin Valmonte leading qualifying at -42 while low-to-qualify was Devin Bidwell at -144. In the quarterfinals, (6) Devin Bidwell took out (3) Marcus Battiest 2-0 while (3) Mason Sherman swept past (8) Martika Cabezas 2-0. The semifinals saw top-seed Kevin Valmonte get past Devin Bidwell 2-1 and Mason Sherman take out the 2-seed Robert Mayo 2-0. In the final match, Kevin Valmonte took game 1 205-196 but Mason Sherman stormed back to take games 2 and 3 for the title and the $220 first place money in his first Senior appearance. Valmonte took home $110 for 2nd place. Nice bowling Seniors!

USBC Youth

12 Year Old Girl Bowls 2 Honor Scores In Two Days

PALMDALE, CA—Ashley N. Dunn, is no stranger to having success on the lanes at an early age. She has been racking up accomplishments well ahead of her age group since she began bowling at 8 years old.

Ashley has now turned 13, but was determined to accomplish as much as possible while she was still 12.

On February 8th while bowling in the final round of the Adult/Youth league, “Monday Family Fun” at Brunswick Vista Lanes in Palmdale Ashley’s team needed just one win to secure the league championship. The evening didn’t begin as well as hoped, all the members of her team had imagined winning the first game and getting the pressure off so they could just enjoy the rest of the evening. Neither Ashley nor any of her team members bowled very well, with Ashley only managing a 179 in the loss of game 1 with splits in the 9th and 10th frames. Ashley began game 2 by leaving a 4 pin on the first ball which she covered to start the game with a spare. Flash forward to the 10th frame of the 3rd game of the match and Ashley now had 20 strikes in a row behind her, had set a new personal best single game of 290, her team had secured the league championship and she was starring down a possible 300 if she could take it off the sheet. The perfect game was not to be that night, a solid 10 pin put an end to that, but she moved one step closer having been at the edge yet once more and gaining the experience of the moment. It was a nice end to a league with a 179-290-279 for a new personal best series of 748 and an ending league average of 201. Not bad for a 12 year old girl.

The next day, it’s February 9th and this time she is bowling for her Youth league “Pinslayers”, also at Brunswick Vista Lanes in Palmdale. Still excited by how well she had bowled the night before she began by throwing the same ball in practice. She wasn’t quite confident with the look she was getting from it now so she tried another. Just a bit better, she liked the move it made at the backend so the change was made. Game 1 was nothing special at 193 with a couple of opens, 1 due to a nasty 6-7-10 split, the other a missed 10 pin conversion. Game 2 began with a 10 pin standing, but this time a conversion to open with a spare. The 8th frame saw yet another 10 pin and a conversion, but all the other frames had been solid strikes for a nice 269. Game 3 began following the solid 4 in a row that had ended game 2, first ball.....strike. Flash forward to the 3rd ball in the 10th frame and Ashley now had 15 strikes in a row behind her and was just 1 ball away from that elusive perfect game. Again the perfect game was not to be had, as she tugged the ball ever so slightly and left a 3-10 for a new personal best single game of 298 and series of 760. Two days, 2 games of 11 in a row, a 748 and 760 series, a 290 and 298 game, a book average of 201 and a league average in session of 205 Not bad for a 12 year old girl!

Southern Los Angeles County Youth Travel League

by Otha Stubblefield

DOWNEY—The Southern Los Angeles County Youth Travel League, uh, traveled, to beautiful Downey, CA, to partake in Squeezy’s pizza and some bowling at Del Rio Lanes. Returning from his excursion into the world of professional bowling, Jeremy Glover showed off his skills by shooting matching 245’s the first set, and then moving to his next pair for an almost symmetrical 204-205. This put him one pin short of 900, but it won him most of his points – more on that later.

Coming in second in series was the hard working Antone Beeks. He shot 217-170 on his first pair, and made a slight improvement on his second pair with a 212 and 210, for a series total of 809. Next, Claudell Redwine put 224 and 206 together for a 739 series. Also gracing us with his presence was Eric Torrence who also posted a 212 high-game.

The girls are coming along with Shirniece Beeks leading over Dementia Redwine 172/625 to 151/572. The top three teams competing for the $200 scholarship prize had widened their gap. Team 5 – RedBeeks is leading with 144.5 points, followed by GLOfton with 138.5 points and Team MerRuiz with 128. I’ve got the point thing down now. Each week there are 12 points possible. 1 point for beating your man and 1 point for winning the game. If the person that you are bowling against is absent or vacant, then you must bowl at least your average – 10 to win the game. On a one-on-one situation, the winning team wins the points for the absent/vacant bowler.

Do you have a headache, yet? Just because Pepsi’s out of the way, doesn’t mean that you should forget the other tournaments. I only had 1 team enter the SLACUSBCA Championship on 2/27 and 3/6. The TNBA Western Regional is April 10-11 (deadline March 27) and State Tournament is coming due in May. Our next stop before the tournament break will be Palos Verdes Bowl in Torrance. After that, we’ll come back on March 20 for the first of our final 5 sessions. See you on Saturday.

JAT Farm Club

by David Gordon

WEST COVINA—Here is the latest from the JAT Farm Club, where our last tournament was held at Brunswick West Covina Lanes. We had a little smaller turnout of 28 bowlers, probably due to the one hour earlier start. The bowlers also faced a modified PBA pattern and once the word got out as to what that pattern (was/should have been), the expectations of the bowlers quickly fell short. This is a good lesson going into our next tournament - play the lane “as is” regardless of how you “think it should be”. All in all though, we had a highly competitive tournament and even though the tournament average was a low 155, it was still enjoyable by most.

In the qualifying round we had Brett Huntoon and Matt Franke tie for the tournament high game with a 236. The leader after five games was Andrew Svoren who put up a 234 and Tristan Beaner made the paper with a 230 game. Svoren led the group at minus

60 while the 14th spot to advance came in at minus 205. There were no reportable scores shot in match play, but the round was still just as exciting. Making the biggest jump where and when needed was Albert Fernandez with a 9 position jump, going from the 14th spot into the finals.

Fernandez (-182) started off those finals against the 4th seed Svoren (-139) and still hot downed him 181-155. However, Fernandez now faced the 3rd seed Huntoon (-120) who had other notions than an early exit. Huntoon took this match 190-178. Now the veteran faced off with 2nd seed Tobias Halladay (-99) and in a whisper of luck (and the big-4 split) got pass the rookie 180-178. The final pairing now faced off Huntoon with tournament leader super vet Wesley Low (-58). Both were going after another title for the season and each wasn’t going to give in too easily. The first game of the best of three was captured by Huntoon 176-168. Low came right back showing his champion status, taking the next game 210-170. Now the two battled in the deciding game with Huntoon taking a slim lead and never looking back 184-177. That gives Huntoon his second Farm Club title (back to back) of the season and third overall. Congratulations Brett.

As mentioned earlier, our next tournament will be bowled on a PBA pattern, in our 2nd of three challenges at The Bowl-ium in Montclair. The pattern used will be announced shortly before the tournament. But whatever the pattern is shouldn’t matter. You all have enough equipment to meet any lane condition and the best of patterns can be affected by a number of variables, such as humidity (hint-hint). Plan on coming with a clear head, ready to make the necessary adjustments quickly. Again that’s The Bowl-ium this Sunday for our 2nd PBA Challenge. Check-in begins at 8:15 with the action scheduled for 9:00. Come one - come all.

BY NICE AND SWEET

STUDIO CITY — What a wild weekend! Not only did we all melt over Valentine's Day, but we rang in the Year of the Tiger with Chinese New Year, oh yeah and it's our beloved President's Day. With all the happenings occurring at once, the bowling seems to be left out in the cold. Not true, we had great scores this past week.

PINZ ADULTS

So we all bought chocolates, flowers, whatever, yet all of our adult leagues did one better. They bowled great games and cherished those not bowling as great as them. Everyone this week had a huge smile and sported Cupid's arrow in their back. They were dazed but realized that bowling strikes was the love of their life. Look at these awestruck scores:

Tavern Guild: David Quam 247/702, Tom Whitaker 234/654, Ed Dusseau 236/622, John Cisneroz 237, Mikey Witt 222.

PINZ JUNIORS

So we enter the Year of the Tiger, grrrrr. Well all you young cubs better realize that to earn your "stripes" you need to continually bowl as great as you did last week. Pee Wee Bumpers: Andrew Parker 73/136.

PINZ SENIORS/LADIES

So President's Day is over but we look to you to remind us what it was like during the Lincoln administration. We are indeed wrapped up in the current political landscape but the necessary changes Lincoln made were nation-shaping. Yet, he never bowled (at least bowled well), and you guys have a leg up on him for the great games you bowled this week. Here's the commander in chiefly scores:

Happy Timers: Art Abell 171/477, Ruth Swick 162/458, Russ Romo 178/452, Yolanda Dragotta 146/384.

Pin Pals: Karen Collier 180/512, Shelly Djergian 199/436, Judy Kautz 168/435, Sharon Brooks 141/410, Diana Bassi 139/368.

Bowler of the Week: Again we acknowledge a bowler that pays his dues, practices with vigor, and bowls with a passion. Terry Wainscott has been bowling here for years but this past week he shot a 245 game and a 717 series. Great bowling Terry, keep practicing for that 900 series.

Niceness Quote of the Week: "For most of us, it's a time for us to get together and talk about our past, present and future. The Chinese New Year is the most important holiday in China. It's very much like Christmas or Thanksgiving in the United States." - Feng Niu
