EJ Tackett Wins FireLake PBA Tournament of Champions

Tommy Jones' 10th frame error helps PBA's 2016 Player of the Year collect second major title

SHAWNEE, Okla. – EJ Tackett of Huntington, Ind., had four chances to throw doubles to take the lead, but in the end, he won his second Professional Bowlers Association major title in the 52nd FireLake PBA Tournament of Champions Sunday at FireLake Arena thanks to an unexpected error by his opponent.

Tackett, at age 24, defeated 18-time PBA Tour champion Tommy Jones of Simpsonville, S.C., 208-203, when Jones left and failed to convert the 1-2-4-10 “washout” in the 10th frame.

Tackett, who won the 2016 PBA World Championship in December for his first major, was certain he had lost the TOC title after he failed to double in the 10th frame.

“I knew if I doubled in the 10th, I’d force Tommy to strike on the right lane,” Tackett said. “But I never in a million years expected that. Tommy has been so good in situations like that his entire career, I didn’t think I had a chance. I was in total shock.”

After winning the DHC PBA Japan Invitational to start the year, the TOC victory gives Tackett a very early edge in defending his 2016 PBA Player of the Year title. But, he said, “it’s not even something to think about. It’s way too early and we have way too many tournaments to go.

But Tackett has demonstrated he has the skill and the confidence to stay at the top of the PBA’s elite.

“I do belong out here,” he said. “I feel like I’m going to do it, and you’re going to have to beat me. It’s not arrogance, it’s just a level of confidence I’ve never had.”

In the opening match, Tom Smallwood of Saginaw, Mich., ended Pete Weber’s bid for a PBA-record 11th major championship, 223-203. Tied at 163 after eight frames, Smallwood finished the match first, throwing four strikes and forcing Weber to do the same to tie and force a roll-off. But the 54-year-old Weber, from St. Ann, Mo., left the 1-2-4-10 on his opening shot of the 10th frame to end the match.

England’s Dom Barrett then eliminated Smallwood, 235-202, striking on seven of his first eight shots to build an insurmountable lead after Smallwood left splits he couldn’t convert in the first and fourth frames.

Jones advanced to the title match, defeating Barrett in the semifinal match, 248-216, rolling a late string of six strikes to overcome Barrett’s early eight-pin lead.

PBA players begin competition in the United States Bowling Congress Masters, PBA’s third consecutive major championship in February, on Tuesday at The Orleans Bowling Center in Las Vegas. The Masters qualifying rounds will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday to determine the 63 players who will join defending champion Anthony Simonsen of Austin, Texas, in the three-game, double-elimination match play rounds Friday and Saturday. The stepladder finals will air live on ESPN on Sunday, Feb. 26, at 10 p.m.

All qualifying and match play rounds of the Masters will be live streamed on PBA’s Xtra Frame online bowling channel. Visit extraframe.tv for subscription information. Sunday’s finals also will be live streamed on ESPN3 and the WatchESPN app.

Mark Gerberich, Bryan Goebal, Steve Hoskins & Mike Scroggins Enter PBA Hall of Fame

SHAWNEE, Okla. – The Professional Bowlers Association’s FireLake PBA Tournament of Champions week got off to a memorable when a ballroom filled with players and special guests welcomed former PBA Commissioner Mark Gerberich and standout players Bryan Goebel, Steve Hoskins and Mike Scroggins into the PBA Hall of Fame.

Also recognized during the dinner were 2016 GEICO Chris Schenkel PBA Player of the Year EJ Tackett of Huntington, Ind.; Harry Golden PBA Rookie of the Year Francois Lavoie of Quebec City, Quebec; Steve Nagy Sportsmanship Award winner Tom Smallwood of Saginaw, Mich., & Tony Reyes Community Service Award winner Rhinno Page of Orlando, Fla.

PBA Hall of Famer and long-time ABC-TV color analyst Nelson Burton Jr., who emceed the event, noted millions of people have bowled, trying to be good enough just to qualify for PBA competition, and among the thousands who have joined the PBA, only a handful have ever bowled well enough to earn admission to the hall of fame.

SCOTT LARIVIERE - Southern Tier Bowler of the Month

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA — Scott LaRiviere is my Southern Tier Bowler of the Month for January.

Scores this season have been down in this area. Just about everyone is averaging ten or more pins below last season.

Not Scott LaRiviere. He is still maintaining his normal 225 - 230 average.

In addition to being able to handle the more difficult lane conditions, Scott had several high scratch scores in January.

League secretaries Scott and Sheri Filipi provide me with their scratch league sheets and confirmed that Scott LaRiviere rolled two high seven’s above 750 in January and the only 300 of the month. No scratch bowler has rolled an 800 this season and Scott’s perfect game was only the second this season.

Scott LaRiviere is my Southern Tier Bowler of the Month for January because he rolled our high scores of the month and our only perfect game. Thanks to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting our scratch bowlers.

Mark Gerberich, Bryan Goebal, Steve Hoskins & Mike Scroggins

Come From Behind Finish Gives Chris Paul and Chris Barnes CP3 PBA Celebrity Invitational Win

LOS ANGELES – In a championship match that was decided in the 10th frame, the doubles team of nine-time Los Angeles Clippers All-Star guard Chris Paul and 18-time PBA Tour champion Chris Barnes won the State Farm CP3 PBA Celebrity Invitational at Lucky Strike LA Live in downtown Los Angeles.

Barnes and Paul beat the team of Boston Red Sox All-Star outfielder Mookie Betts and 18-time Tour winner Tommy Jones, 187-179, in the eighth edition of the event which benefits the Chris Paul Family Foundation. The pro/celebrity competition aired Friday night on ESPN.

In a back and forth alternate-frame match, Barnes converted a crucial 2-4-10 split in the eighth frame to maintain a four-pin lead. In the ninth, the Paul/Barnes team lost the lead when Paul left the 3-9 and failed to make the spare. That left the door open for Betts who converted a spare in the ninth to regain a five-pin lead heading into the 10th.

“That made me nervous,” Paul said about the championship match. “When I missed that spare in the ninth frame I knew that was big; it gave the momentum back to them. I thought that might have ended it right there but when Chris (Barnes) said we still had a chance, I had confidence he could do it.”

Jones made a spare and finished with a seven-count on his final ball in his team’s 10th frame, giving Barnes an opportunity to win the match with a double. Barnes took advantage by striking out in his 10th frame to seal the victory.

“That match had everything you could imagine,” Barnes said. “Ups and downs, strikes, spares, opens, splits, you name it. Whenever you bowl in a doubles or team format you don’t want to let the other players down. I felt like we had an opportunity. Just like every situation where I need to strike, I just had to tell myself to breathe.”

For Paul it was his third win after winning in 2010 and 2011 with Jason Belmonte as his partner. It was Barnes’ second title after winning with television personality Chris Hardwick in 2013.

Betts and Jones earned their berth in the final with a 177-153 win over the defending champion team of PBA Hall of Famer Pete Weber and former NFL All-Pro receiver Terrell Owens.

“I’ve wanted to bowl in this for a long time and it was everything I expected it to be,” said Betts. “It was a lot of fun. I’m a little disappointed, but you have to hand it to them. They (Paul and Barnes) did what they needed to do to win.”

The finals began with Jones and Betts beating the team of Grammy-nominated DJ Khaled and 2016 PBA Player of the Year EJ Tackett, 172-147. The Betts/Jones team then beat the team of Denver Broncos running back CJ Anderson and 11-time Tour winner Sean Rash, 201-183, setting up the semifinal match with Weber and Owens.

Preceding the semifinal match was the Celebrity All-Star Clash that also included Paul’s Clippers teammates Austin Rivers and Luc Mbah a Moute as well as Black-ish star Miles Brown and actor JT Jackson. Betts dominated the best-ball competition, where the lowest count on a single shot was eliminated by throwing six consecutive strikes. He outlasted the nine-player field by beating Jackson who left a seven count in the final frame.

L.L. Bean to Sponsor 2017 PBA League Elias Cup at Bayside Bowl

Expanded Portland, Maine center also will host MaineQuarterly.com Roth/Holman Doubles Championship

PORTLAND, Maine - Bayside Bowl and the Professional Bowlers Association announced Wednesday that Bayside Bowl will host the 2017 L.L. Bean PBA League Elias Cup, sponsored by one Maine’s best-known brands, and the MaineQuarterly.com Mark Roth/Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship in April.

“Bayside Bowl is excited to welcome L.L. Bean as the title sponsor of this year’s PBA League Elias Cup. L.L. Bean is Maine’s iconic brand,” said Justin Alford, co-owner of Bayside Bowl. “We are also thrilled to continue our partnership with the Maine Office of Tourism. We couldn’t have picked better partners to showcase the best of Maine to the country.”

“Bayside Bowl and the Portland community can’t wait for the Professional Bowlers Association to come back to town,” said Charlie Mitchell, Bayside Bowl’s managing partner. “The Elias Cup and the Roth/Holman Doubles Championship showcase the world’s best bowlers, most passionate fans and incredible sponsors that realize what a big deal this event is for our state.”

“We’re super excited to be partnering with two great organizations, the PBA and Bayside Bowl, on this fun, unique event,” said Chuck Gannon, L.L. Bean’s corporate advertising manager. “This is a rare opportunity right in our own backyard, so we’re really happy to be involved. Plus, bowling is a great activity for folks of all ages, especially families.”

An expansion of Bayside Bowl from its original 12 lanes to 20 lanes, plus the installation of a mezzanine and bar overlooking the new construction that is currently nearing completion provide the PBA and Bayside Bowl with an opportunity to also bring the Mark Roth/Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship to Maine as part of the 2017 program, which will give more PBA players a chance to bowl in Maine.

“The PBA is fired up to bring the Elias Cup back and to showcase for the first time the Roth/Holman Doubles Championship as part of our program at Bayside Bowl,” said PBA CEO and Commissioner Tom Clark. “Bayside Bowl has the best audience in bowling and our players love Portland.”

The entire event will take place from April 9-16. The MaineQuarterly.com Roth/Holman Doubles Championship will be aired live on ESPN on April 16 at 1 p.m. ET. The L.L. Bean PBA League Elias Cup will air on ESPN on four consecutive Sundays at 1 p.m. following the doubles telecast: April 23 and 30, and May 7 and May 14. ESPN telecasts also live stream on ESPN3 and the WatchESPN app.

In addition to the ESPN telecasts, PBA’s live streaming service, Xtra Frame, will cover a new qualifying round for PBA League teams as well as qualifying rounds for the Roth/Holman Doubles Championship. For Xtra Frame subscription information and broadcast times, visit pba.com or xtraframe.tv.

PBA Founding Member, Long-Time Tournament Host Proprietor Darrell Ducat Dies

The PBA has learned of the death Tuesday of long-time PBA National Championship host Darrell Ducat, the former proprietor of Imperial Lanes in Toledo, Ohio. The 91-year-old patriarch of the well-known Ducat family (at left in photo) was living in Florida where he and son Larry were operators of Spanish Springs Lanes in The Villages, the host center for the upcoming PBA50 UnitedHealthCare Sun Bowl in the Villages, presented by Radical, April 22-25.

Darrell Ducat, a PBA founding member, became the oldest player ever to bowl in a PBA tournament when he competed in the 2013 PBA50 Sun Bowl at Spanish Springs Lanes at age 87.

The Ducat family hosted more than 30 PBA tournaments over the years at bowling centers they owned in Toledo, Detroit, Winter Haven and The Villages. The PBA hadn't appeared in the Villages since 2001 when the Ducats brought the PBA back to The Villages in 2009.

Larry Ducat said he is working with the PBA to host a celebration of Darrell Ducat's life when the PBA50 Tour visits The Villages in April.

Battered ‘Black Beauty’ Shines for 55 Years for Jerry Simmons

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – “Black Beauty” is showing its age and it’s not a pretty sight.

After more than 55 years of devoted service, Jerry Simmons’ prehistoric Brunswick bowling ball has fallen on hard times.

Through the years, the ball has sustained its share of nicks and bruises. But now . . .

“A big chunk came out of it and I don’t know when it happened,” reported Simmons, one of the leading bowlers in Tuesday’s “Comedians” league at Winnetka Bowl.

“For right now, I’m still bowling OK, so I’m not concerned about it.”

Simmons, who averages a solid 173, says Ray Plasse – the anchor on his Jerryiatrics team – has been “pushing me to get a new ball. And I might check it out this summer, but for right now, the ball still works for me.”

Five years ago, Simmons recognized that his ball faced an uncertain future. “I fully expect one day to throw the ball down there and it will split in half,” he said then.

Still, Simmons’ rubber ball has lasted and lasted and lasted.

“I’m just so comfortable with this ball with the weight and the finger spacing. I have a fear that if I got a new ball, they wouldn’t be able to drill holes the same way and it would change my grip and the ball wouldn’t work the way I wanted it,” said the right-handed Simmons, who hooks the ball gently and efficiently.

Here’s a history of Simmons’ bowling ball:

Simmons started using the ball as a Chicago teenager while sharing it with his younger brother, Al. Little did Simmons realize that the ball was riding in the trunk of his convertible Dodge Dart when he drove cross-country to California to attend San Fernando Valley State College (now Cal State Northridge).

When he arrived in California, (“the Promised Land,” says Simmons), he realized “Black Beauty” was in his possession. And it would stay in Simmons’ possession after his brother told him to hang on to it for as long as he had it with him.

The rest is history.

“I’ve used the ball all my life,” Simmons said. “It just worked for me. I used to average 150, then 160, then 170. Each year I seem to learn to pick it [average] up . . . Each year I thought it was the highest it would be and then it would go up.

“A lot of people come in with four balls and hammer

Jerry Simmons’ “Black Beauty” bowling ball has been developing cracks but continues to deliver for its owner. Photo by Fred Eisenhammer and nails . . .and I just have my ‘Black Beauty’ ball and use it all the time.”

Simmons, a Santa Clarita Valley resident, uses a semi-fingertip grip with his index and middle fingers slightly inside the ball.

He has bowled a certified 269 and has recorded a 700-plus series.

Interestingly, Simmons’ brother got his bowling ball second hand and Jerry now treasures all the nicks and scratches on the ball.

Simmons said he has done nothing special through the years to keep the ball going.

“I don’t wash it. I don’t get it de-oiled,” he said. “I don’t put it in a machine that polishes it. I don’t wipe it down and don’t even use a cloth. It is what it is. I don’t do anything to maintain it.”

This isn’t the first time Simmons has kept around one of his favorite things for a long time. He preserved well his Nissan 280z, a snazzy sports car that he purchased new in 1981.

“I had it about 20 years and put in almost 500,000 miles,” Simmons said. “I have a tendency to hold things a

2017 TRUE AMATEUR TOURNAMENT (TAT) AMATEUR NATIONALS HELD ON JANUARY 30-FEBRUARY 5TH AT THE ORLEANS

by Randy Gulley

Congratulations to Donald Jones from Twenty-Nine Palms, CA on winning $20,000 with a 199 game in the TAT Championship match and congratulations to all the other 225 TAT finalists.

Donald was able to keep his ball in play and had a clean game while the rest of the finalists had a few opens while trying to win first. This was Donald’s first time to bowl this tournament, so his win was something extra special to him.

The TAT Finals were held on February 5th at the Orleans and here are the results:

Donald Jones	$20,000	189 & Under Handicap
Jorge Gomez	$10,000	215 & Under Handicap
Kevin Gagnon	$7,500	36-54 Age Division
Terry Leong	$6,000	55 & Over Senior
Bobby Campagnale	$5,000	35 & Under Age Division

Another well run tournament comes to an end. I know the bowlers would like to thank the Tournament Director Jamie McWilliams and Edward Dufek, Wendy McPherson and the rest of the TAT staff for all their hard work during the tournament. Great bowling by the California Bowlers this year as they had three in the finals. Donald Jones, Kevin Gagnon and Bobby Campagnale. I know they are all excited about bowling in the upcoming TAT being held from July 3-9th this year.

Also, the bowlers would like to thank the Roto Grip Staff -Gary Hulsenberg, Chris Schlemer, Lee Upp, and the rest of the gang that came down and sponsored the event. They were always available to answer questions, lay out balls, discuss lane play, or even let you talk their ears off about what was going on. An even bigger thanks for the live streaming of the finals. Great job!

There are six TAT Qualifying Divisions and one bowler from each division (except RNF) is guaranteed to the Top 5 for a shot at $20,000 and earn a minimum of $5,000.

3 Age Divisions for bowlers with an average over 215 during the last three recorded years:

35 Years Old & Under is the Under Division (U); 36 to 54 Years Old is the Middle Division (M); 54 Years and Over is the Senior Division (S)

2 Verified Average Handicap Divisions:
215 Average & Under Division (2);189 & Under Handicap Division (H)

Returning Non-Finalist Division (RNF) (This division is for past TAT Bowlers that didn’t make the main finals in their last two TAT events or for bowlers who only bowled one event and didn’t make the main finals in their division.

TAT (L-R) Chris Schlemer, Terry Gomez, Bobby Campagnale, Donald Jones, Jorge Gomez, Kevin Gagnon, and Jamie McWilliams.

THE PROFESSIONAL APPROACH IMPROVES TO 10-0
GRABBING THE LEAD IN THE BRUNSWICK INVITATIONAL

by Mike Cammarata

DOWNEY — The second week of round #4 in the Brunswick Invitational is in the books, and while there is still plenty of time to go, some teams are feeling excited about the round while others are facing an uphill battle, as the teams start to separate in the standings.

Erickson's Food Supply and The Professional Approach both came in to the night with 5-0 records and were matched up on the first pair of lanes. The Professional Approach got off to a quick start, with a close win in game one, 732-699. Games two and three weren't as close, and The Pro Approach won those as well. They swept all five games from Erickson's, improving to 10-0 and winning totals by over 200 pins. Matt Schermerhorn led the way with a 226/595 series. Juan Zavala pitched in with 211/573 and Herman Ferguson added a couple 200 games as well.

The second pair of lanes was a match between Century 21—My Real Estate and Keystone Lanes. Both had high hopes for the round after big starts last week. Century 21 had their hopes dashed, at least for now, after losing four out of five. Keystone Lanes improves to 8-2, which will help them for overall seeding as they've already won a round. Joe Jimenez led the pair, shooting a 2332-06/607 series for Century 21. Jonathan Huff helped Keystone to the victory though, with his 223/571 set.

Cal Bowl and Herzog Insurance battled it out on the third pair of lanes, and when the dust settle, Cal Bowl had improved to 8-2 for the round by winning the match 4-1. Ramon Torres topped Cal Bowl with a 208-204/593 series. Lee Liu, of Herzog Insurance, was high on the pair with 202-214-203/619, but it was only good enough for one win.

The next match was a contest between DV8 and Crown Royal. DV8, behind a 223-289/699 series from Kurt Arakaki, swept the match. With the sweep, they improved to 9-1 for the round. Kevin Valmonte added 211/559 for DV8, while Dave Schiada topped Crown Royal with a 530 set. With the sweep, DV8 moves all the way up to the first pair to take on The Professional Approach.

Sysco took on Forest Lanes in the next match. Both came in to the match at 3-2, but after taking all five games, Sysco moves to contender status at 8-2. Gabriel Martinez led the way for Sysco on this night with his 215/592 series. Steve Brode was right behind with 212-214/584. Gip Lentine was high for Forest Lanes with 234/588, but he didn't have any help on this night.

Western Pacific and J.A.T. put their 2-3 records against each other on the next pair of lanes. J.A.T. came out of the match with four needed wins to help their chances for the round. A 222/588 series from Katrina Fujikami helped J.A.T. to the wins, along with matching 575's from Larry Campbell and Anthony Santos. Gary Duran was tops for Western Pacific with 211/579.

Parkin's Bowling Supply and Bowlum were both trying to rebound from disappointing 1-4 starts in the next match. Bowlum got back on track, improving to 5-5 with their four wins in the match. Billy Myers Jr. shot a 605 set, with 204 and 211 games, to help Bowlum to the wins. Buddy Lucas led Parkin's with 217-590 to help them to their lone win.

Smirnoff took on Linder's Insurance on the next pair, and the match was all Smirnoff. They won every game, taking totals by 237 pins. Arnold Cheesman had a 222-209/615 series to lead Smirnoff. Brandon Grant bowled well in defeat for Linder's, with 249/596.

Los Altos Trophy swept past Gym W.R.A.T.T. Fitness, improving to 5-5 for the round. Total pins were separated by over 400 pins as the Fitness team just couldn't find a look on this night. Nick Rodriguez of Los Altos was the high scorer on the pair, shooting 231/594 to help his team to victory.

The final pair of lanes saw action between Threadworks and G.J.C. Janitorial. Both came into the match with 0-5 records after being swept on week #1. Threadworks got healthy in a hurry though, winning all five games to get back in the hunt at 5-5. Paul Varela was the star on this pair, shooting a 255/649 set. John Vallin had a nice 203-209/571 for GJC, but it wasn't enough to get them in the winners column.

The first sidepot was a tie between two lefties, and two teammates, as Arnold Cheesman and Vernon Adams split the pot with matching 222 games. The super pot in game #2 went to Paul Varela. He earned $189 for his 255 game. The final sidepot went to Anthony Santos for his 227 game.

Kurt Arakaki earned a nice $200 for his league leading 289 game to win the Financial Advisors Pot. Anthony Santos was second with 227 for $100.

The action is heating up and the tension only builds as we get closer to the end of the season. As we run out of rounds to bowl, the teams feel the pressure to win more and more. The third week of the round will take place at Del Rio Lanes next Monday at 8:30 p.m. Come down and check out the action and cheer on your favorite teams and bowlers.
