Australia's Jason Belmonte Wins First Major Tops Wes Malott in USBC Masters Title Match

by Jason Thomas

NORTH BRUNSWICK, N.J. — Australian two-handed star Jason Belmonte picked up his first major title and became just the second foreign player to win the United States Bowling Congress Masters on Sunday in front of a capacity crowd at Brunswick Zone Carolier.

Belmonte defeated Wes Malott of Pflugerville, Texas, 258-245, to win the $50,000 first-place prize and a major title on the PBA Tour. The victory was his sixth career PBA Tour title.

TOBY LEE BOWLS BACK TO BACK 300s - And Three in Two Weeks

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS — Toby Lee rolled back to back 300s at Empire Bowl a fortnight ago and came right back with another perfect within two weeks. Toby rolled his back to back (B2B) big games the hard way -- in two different leagues!

He finished his Friday Laughlin League with a perfect game and came back Sunday morning to start his Men's Club League with a perfect. I am not sure what Toby's series was Sunday morning, but he had a 786 (243 - 243 - 300) on Friday night.

After his second consecutive perfecto rumor has it that Toby struck two more times to start his second game Sunday morning. If the rumor is true, that would give him a string of 26 consecutive X's. The Citrus Belt record is held by MATT MURTISHAW with 39 consecutive strikes.

I witnessed Matt roll those 39 strikes and was rooting for him to reach forty. Obviously, Matt also rolled B2B 300s and his string of strikes in two different leagues. On his record breaking Thursday night, Matt finished his six o'clock league with eighteen, then started his nine o'clock league with twenty-one X's. I believe the national record is forty-two consecutive strikes.

Toby used his new Roto Grip Defiant Soul to strike-a-lot. The ball was drilled by ZACH JELLSEY of Bowler's Junction Pro Shop. Great bowling Toby, the BOWLING NEWS salutes you and is one hundred percent behind all of our Citrus Belt bowlers.

"This is without a doubt the greatest feeling I've ever had on a pair of the lanes," said Belmonte, who joined Finland's Mika Koivuniemi as the only foreign players to win the Masters. "You come out on the PBA Tour, the hardest tour in the world with the greatest players in the world, and at the top of that tree are the majors. To finally get atop one and check the view out for the first time is golden. It's absolutely beautiful."

The title match was filled with drama in the final frame as Belmonte delivered three strikes, including a heart-stopping second shot in the 10th when a pin darted across to take out the 10 pin at the last second.

Belmonte's perfect 10th frame, capping a string of six strikes in a row, forced Malott to match him with three strikes of his own to take the title by one pin. Malott's first shot barely struck with the 4 pin falling late, but his second shot went high and left the 3-6-10, giving the title to Belmonte.

USBC Masters Champion Jason Belmonte

"Watching that 4 pin fall at first I was like 'oh no,' but then I had an overwhelming feeling that if it was meant to be it would be," said Belmonte, who went undefeated in the double-elimination match-play bracket to earn the top seed for the finals. "It was like the tension just doubled, and there was already a lot of tension. I can assure you the last thing I thought I was going to see was Wes not get the ball to the pocket."

After the loss, Malott said a distraction caught his eye on the second shot in the 10th and caused him to pull the ball left.

"Someone in the crowd caught me in the 11th frame. I don't want to say anything against the fans in New Jersey because they've been great, and it happened to some other guys during the week, but it's a bummer, a heart-breaker," Malott said. "It happened dur-

Barbasol to Sponsor PBA Tournament of Champions

PBA Tour's signature event set for March 27-31 at Woodland Bowl in Indianapolis

SEATTLE — Barbasol, a men's shaving product with a heritage as rich and enduring as the Professional Bowlers Association itself, has been retained as titled sponsor for the Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions which will be held in the city where Barbasol was invented — Indianapolis.

The Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions is scheduled for March 27-31 at Woodland Bowl, and will conclude with a two-hour live stepladder final on ESPN on Sunday, March 31, at 2:30 p.m. ET.

Barbasol, invented by MIT professor Frank Shields in 1919, was the first men's shaving cream that did not have to be worked into a lather by hand. Since its introduction, Barbasol has gone through many refinements and versions, but remains one of the world's most popular shaving creams, easily identified by its red-and-white striped can — designed to mimic a barber's pole. "We are very excited and proud to continue our partnership with the PBA," said Dustin Abels, Vice President-Business Development. "Barbasol's rich legacy of sports sponsorships and strong American heritage are a great fit with the PBA and its loyal fan base."

Owned by Dublin, Ohio-based Perio, Inc., Barbasol has been involved in sponsorships with the Professional Golf Association, National Basketball Association, and Major League Soccer, as well as numerous movie and television placements. During its formative years, product spokesmen included baseball legends Babe Ruth, Rogers Hornsby and Notre Dame coach Knute Rockne.

"Barbasol's longevity and rich history align perfectly with the traditions and history of the PBA Tournament of Champions," said PBA CEO Geoff Reiss. "The fact that the product was created in Indianapolis, a city that has hosted dozens of major PBA championships, makes this new partnership even more special."

The Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions will return to its traditional roots this year, featuring an elite field of 48 PBA Tour champions (plus any past TOC champions who elect to participate).

The 2013 Tournament of Champions will get underway on Wednesday, March 27, with two eight-game qualifying rounds. After a third eight-game round on Thursday, the top 24 players will advance to eight-game match play rounds Thursday evening and Friday.

The top five after 48 games advance to Sunday's ESPN finals. A pro-am program and the PBA Hall of Fame induction dinner, honoring newly-elected hall of famers Doug Kent and Danny Wiseman, will highlight Saturday's schedule.

BOB JONES TOPS DEAF TRAVEL WITH 841 AT AMF CERRITOS LANES

CERRITOS—Bob Jones rolled games of 226-190-214-211 for 841 the only 800 series to lead the 7 men honor roll in scratch Southern California Deaf Traveling League’s stop at AMF Ceritos Lanes. Following Jones were Leroy MacMonagles with a bad start 163 and 187-204-234 for 788, Gorman Low with the day’s high game 253 for 744, Francisco Navarro 729, Ed Abakumoff 203/719, Wesley Kay 235/704 and Gardy Rodgers 208. Celia Salcedo had the women’s day high series 634 and Pat Morford the women’s high game 186.

MacMonagles and Kay helped their league leading OC County to 15-5 win over Navarro’s Covina to stretch its lead to 20 points over 2nd place Whittier. Whittier, which lost 7.5 to 12.5 to Low’s Mid City, gave the league tight 20 points between other 5 teams with Whittier and 8th place Jones’ S F Valley.

The 53 years old So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League thanks the management of AMF Cerritos Lanes for hosting. With most of the bowlers taking part in the tournament at Chaparral Lanes, the league will travel to Jewel City Bowl in Glendale on March 10 with bowling at Noon.

PLEASE NOTE: The results of 29th SN-CDBA Tournaments will be given next week. I apologize for the mistake last week in the Senior Eliminations. It was Don Tousignant as the winner with Ed Abakumoff as the runner up.

ZACH JELLSEY & TIM JONES Score 800 On Same Day, In Same League

by Frank Weiler
REDLANDS — Oh what a night it was in EMPIRE BOWL'S Odds N Ends League.

Both Tim Jones and Zach Jellsey rolled an 800 on the same night. Tim used his new DV8 Brutal Nightmare to roll an 837 (288 - 290 - 259). Tim's new ball was drilled by our other headliner Zach Jellsey! Zach runs the BOWLER'S JUNCTION Pro Shop inside Empire Bowl.

The leagues other big score was rolled by PBA Regional Champion Zach Jellsey. He used his new Roto Grip Defiant Soul to score 827 (258 - 300 - 269). Zach's big score included 31 strikes, 23 in a row.

I didn't have a chance to chat with Tim but did visit with Zach inside his pro shop. He told me that his series was the best he ever bowled.

While he has scored higher (840) this was the first time all his shots were perfect. Zach missed a 900 because of two nine pins, an eight pin and a ten pin.

Is it possible to be disappointed with an 827? Zach says yes, Yes, YES! When you know you should have scored 900 and didn't, you're disappointed.

My thanks to JANELLE JELLSEY for informing me of Tim and Zach's big scores and the BOWLING NEWS for supporting Citrus Belt bowlers.

Bigtime Bowling

by John Baker Sr.

I didn't know that!

With the upcoming summer season of bowling upon us, we would highlight some facts and maybe some little known or discussed facts about bowling. Lets get started on those ‘little known factoids’ because a little knowledge goes a long way to helping you enjoy a better and possibly higher scoring season.

Interesting Factoids

- Art Morin of Taunton, Mass., made 22 spares in 30 frames; he failed to get even one strike and ended with a 3-game score of 465.
- A 292 is the rarest score to get.
- The most damage done to a lane on TV was Marshal Holman in 198?, kicked out a foul light.
- The worst dressed award goes to Guppy Troup, for the most unusual pants collection ever seen.
- Lowest series with a 300 game, 476 Reed Townley, Gadsen, Ala.; 89, 87, 300 on Jan. 18, 1989.
- 1800 lbs/sq. inch is the impact when a ball hits the lane.
- The longest slide down the lane without a foul was Josh Blanchard, 6’3” because he never released the ball.
- The highest and longest flight time was a tie between Fagan and/or Belmonte.

• Fastest Bowling ball speed recorded; 24.85mph by Australia bowler Alan Patterson at Hillwood Strike and Spare. Osku Palermaa, a pro two-handed bowler, has a wicked fast one-handed spare ball. Usually when downing particular spares, like the 10, 6-10, 6, 3-6-10, and most splits, he throws it one-handed. His one-handed shot on average is about 27-28 MPH, not too far away from his 22MPH average strike ball. His fastest on television is about 32 MPH but on his website (oskupalermaa.fi) he claims that his fastest recorded is about 35 MPH.

- Highest Rev Rate. Robert Smith – up to 720 RPM.
- I had trouble finding an all-time highest recorded but on multiple searches his name came up as the one with the highest rev rate.

• HIGHEST SCORING TITLE MATCH ON NATIONAL TV, the total was 579, Mike Aulby with a 300 and David Ozio with a 279 (Wichita, KS, 1993).

- Reno, NV is the home to the only Bowling Stadium in the world.

Bowling center with the most lanes. The Tokyo World Lanes Center boasted 252 lanes of bowling pleasure and held the title as the world’s largest bowling alley but has since closed. According to the Guinness Book of world records; Japan is the home of the largest bowling alley in the world. Inasawa Grand bowling Centre has 116 lanes. That’s a bowling center I’d die to see. Bowling pin Specs. The weight of a standard wood pin or a plastic coated pin is not less than 3 lbs. 6 ounces and not more than 3 lbs. 10 ounces. The average weight pin is about 24% of the weight of a 15 lb. bowling ball. It is easy to understand how a ball will deflect excessively upon contact with a pin if a fairly precise bowling ball angle of entry is not created. Allowing for pin deflection is an important part of the strike and spare alignment systems.

The most commonly used lane surfaces. Brunswick Pro-Anvilane; this is the hardest bowling surface out there to date. It can, but not always, be put directly in over the old wood lanes. Pro-Anvilane tends to have a smoother and even characteristic to it. In addition it will have the range finders on the last 15 foot of the lane. AMF HPL; this is the second most commonly used synthetic lane out there; its characteristics are not as hard as Pro-Anvilane but harder than wood. This is a very high scoring lane surface when it is freshly dressed, it will have more fiction than pro-anvilane. In addition the shot tends break down faster than pro-anvilane but not as fast as wood.

Lane Specifications. The overall length of a regulation lane is 62 feet 10 3/16ths inches measuring from the foul line to the pit (Not including the tail plank). It must be 60 feet from the foul line to the center of the No. 1 pin spot with a tolerance of 1/2 inch permitted. It must be 2 feet 10 3/16ths inches from the center of the No. 1 pin spot to the pit (Not including the tail plank).

Lane Width

The lane shall be between 41 and 42 inches in width. The lane plus the gutters shall not be less than 60 inches nor more than 60 1/4 inches wide. There will be a test so pay attention.

Lane Surface

The surface must be free of all continuous grooves. A maximum 40/1000th inch will be permitted in levelness and depth depression. No test is scheduled for this week.

Lane Approach

Extending back from and exclusive of the foul line there shall be a clear level approach of not less than 15 feet in length. A tolerance of 1/4 inch is permitted on depth depression of grooves. Depression and grooves sounds like the 80’s.

The Pin Deck

the tail plank must be a Maximum of 2 inches in width and the back line of pins are 3 inches further on. Each pin is 12 inches from its neighbor in any direction (as measured from the center of each pin) so the pins are in an equilateral triangle with the head pin 34 and 3/16ths inches from the tail board. Boring but I thought it would help you sound smart to your friends. I hope this helps enlighten you a bit on our wonderful game. Bowling has such a wonderful history it is hard to put it all down here but I thought this was a great start and if you have any interesting facts or factoids please comment and lets us all enjoy it. Oh, when you are frustrated one night in league and nothing seems to be going right just remember this small fact from the PBA:

LOWEST SCORE ON NATIONAL TV

Congrats to Godfrey Galsim & Kristine Soliman on Their Engagement

WEST COVINA — The ABTA Members shoed up at West Covina where we saw a great turnout of 280 entrants and huge last squad with sidepots of $368 per game / 3 places. It was a Fun day for Bowling an action day of bowling. The cut scores were high (new Lane Machine) +88 for the men and +55 for the women, with Super Seniors added to the board (two men and one Woman), Ely Cruz +80, Sun Sundara +77, and Carla Sanchez +54. Super seniors are men 63 and over. For the women you just need to be a young 55. That would give us 66 bowlers to cash in the Semifinals.

A Special Congratulations was in order as two of our finest announced their engagement his past week, Godfrey Galsim proposed to his long time girlfriend, the Pretty Kristine Soliman at Jewel City Bowl and she said yes (=:)). Congrats from the ABTA. A bright future is in store for this fine young couple.

High qualifiers for the tournament were Kmel Cunanan for the men with a +190. For the women it was Deborah Sanders with a +138. They will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Our top seed draws the Match Series, and this time it was worth $478. Kmel drew a 678. We had no bowler that bowled that score. We will estimate the Match Series at $950 at Bowlm Saturday. This week it was Matt Garcia that would shoot for the 3-6-9 pot of $2,600. He missed on his second shot, he will get a $50 consultation. We will go for $2,700 Saturday.

Finishing first in doubles, were Angel Hilvano and Kmel Cunanan with a 1515 for $150.

Finishing in second Deborah Sanders and Steve Brode with a 1492 for $130. There was a total of $2,320 paid out in doubles, and 37 paid spots with low to cash of 1470.

The semis saw Kurt Valmonte with a +143. Finishing in second was Gabriel Martinez at a +128 by a mere 1 pin over the Kurt's older brother Kevin. So he sat out the first round of the elims. Kurt had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $5,000. Kurt drew a 157. After a review of all the scores, we had four bowlers who shot that score. They would split the pot with each getting $1,250, 3 of the bowlers were fully qualified to receive $1,250 each. They were Mike J Moore, Donovan Chung, and Lucky Marina Suos. The fourth bowler was bowling in only his 2nd tournament in the calendar year so he would receive 50% of the $1,250 for a total of $625. We again have $5,000 at Bowlm.

This would bring us to our top 16 Match Play finals. In the first round, the seven losers were Kevin Valmonte, Darrow Tiongco, Tim Lambeth, Angel Hilvano, Veronica Boone, Lord Ferguson, and Kelvin Axel. Each will get $115. In the second round, the four losers were Cecilia Lung, Amy Galsim, Mamerto Jablan, and Gabriel Martinez with each getting checks of $125.

This would get us down to the final five bowlers. The weekly horses are paying a low of $35. Don Quitangon, to a high of $218, Natalie Perenishko. In #one match, the sixteenth seed Natalie Perenishko versus Bedell Vasquez the eleventh seed. This was another of Bedell's good games where he was able to find a way to continue his hot bowling this week, it must have been the extra rest he got before coming to West Covina. He would finish with a 243 to 226 and advance to the next round. In the other match, it was Don Quitangon the seventh seed versus Greg Velarde the fifth seed. This match was a close match that would go down to the final frame. In this match it was Don who would punch out in the tenth to force Greg to get a mark. Greg came up in the tenth frame and left the 4-9 split and was not able to convert it. That would send Don to the next round with a 201 to 198 victory. Greg and Natalie finished in fourth and fifth getting checks for $135 each.

Our semi-final match was set, and would pit the seventh and eleventh seeds. In the weekly "horses", we would see Don paying $35 and Bedell paying $90 if they would win their match. This was again another good match from Don. It was Bedell who would struggle in this match and never seem to find his shot. Bedell would open in the first three frames while Don was able to mark and Don jumped out to a 20 pin lead which he maintained. Don would finish with a 198/233 to Bedell 169/215 to advance to the title match. Bedell would take home $200 for his third place finish. For those lucky "investors" that had Don as a horse, he paid $35.

The title game was set and would be top qualifier Kurt Valmonte vs Don Quitangon. Kurt would start out with a bit of nervousness as he opened the first two frames with splits. Don would open the first frame and mark in the next two frames and miss the 6-10 in the fourth frame. Kurt led by Kurt is the Champ at West Covina — Kurt Valmonte won his second title at West Covina Lanes and $2,800. From the Left are Don Quitangon Runnerup $500, Kurts Beautiful wife, Champ Kurt Valmonte, Bedell Vasquez 3rd $225 and Natalie Perenishko 4th $135.

27 pins after the fourth frame. Marks by both bowlers in the next two frames, but a double by Kurt in the 7th would expand the lead to 39 pins and he would never look back as he would go on to his second championship with a 185/243 to 174/209 victory. He would take home $1,000 for the victory, an additional $1,700 for Cash and Carry, and $100 for wearing his ABTA shirt to give him a total of $2,800. Don would take home $500 for his second place finish.

Champion Kurt Valmonte is from Westminster and used a Playmaker Ebonite drilled by Dave Yamauchi. He is married to Leslie and they have no children. He would like to thank his wife for all her support watching for so many hours, his brother and coach Kevin for all his experience and knowledge, his bowling teammates Su Okamoto and Ryan Managahas, his family, Bobbie his "step mom" the ABTA and its staff. Kurt is a fine Young Gentleman and a deserving Champion. Congrats!

Don Quitangon, Second Place, is from Walnut and used a Columbia drilled by Aarik Torres. He is married, and would like to thank all his friends for staying and cheering.

Bedell Vasquez, Third Place, is from San Gabriel and used a Columbia Messenger drilled by Memo. He is single and would like to thank everyone for their support.

The weekly sponsor ball winner was Mamerto Jablan and he took home a 900 Global Hook.

LOCAL USBC ASSOCIATIONS

LOCAL USBC ASSOCIATIONS

I wish there was a way to count the number of bowlers who quit each year out of sheer frustration, helped along by indifference and neglect.

They end up almost convinced that this sport of ours only masquerades as fun, recreation and competition, that in reality, it's some form of torture.

Too many are told too often how easy it is to bowl. The emphasis should be on the fact that though bowling is one of the easiest sports to learn, it remains one of the most difficult to master, even with the rash of easier conditions and gigantic scores. That makes the newcomers and lower averagers feel worse.

Let it be noted that there are many instructors who should be made aware of the fact that beginning bowlers aren't interested in becoming 200 average bowlers right away, at least not until they learn how to keep the ball out of the gutter more often than not.

Most bowling centers do not provide or make available adequate instruction for beginners, middle range or advanced bowlers, free, or at any cost. Many bowlers would love to take lessons, but this area of the game has been sadly neglected. Some bowlers can't afford much, others are willing to pay almost any price. Neither get too much of anyone's attention.

No particular segment of the sport is at fault, though it would be to the advantage of bowling centers if bowlers stopped quitting, and to the membership organizations, and it would certainly be to the advantage of the pros and others if the teaching of bowling grew to even a portion of the type of instruction offered in tennis and golf.

I don't know of any golf course that doesn't have a pro. And tennis is near that position too. How many bowling centers have a home pro?

Over the years the National Bowling Council and each of the groups in bowling have done some good things in the way of bowling instruction. The PBA also moved in that direction with its member schools. But the ends are loose and there is still a long way to go.

There are many fine teachers across the country, some heralded professional names, others whose names are known only to their students and their close friends.

A knowledge of the sport, an interest in all phases, plenty of patience, and the ability to like and get along with people are among the musts. In golf it's an accepted fact that most teaching pros are just that, teaching pros, instructors first, and golfers second.

There many be too much accent on name pros as teachers. Some of them are fine instructors. But some of the great ones, some of the highest scorers, don't realize what they do, don't really know how they do it, and so it's obvious they don't teach. Others know perfectly well what they do and how they do it, but won't or can't impart the knowledge or can't or won't adjust it to a student's game.

All bowling teachers, like all bowling books, help some. A good teacher first must gain the attention of the student, then the respect. Faith in a teach can do wonders. Never discount any instructor because he or she isn't a super star or even a good bowler. Many so so bowlers love the teaching end and spend their effort and energy helping others, and learning more about the sport.

There will come a day when very few bowlers quit the sport. The day will also come when every bowling center will boast a home pro. I hope I live long enough to see both those days.

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege
follow-up by Carol Mancini

Carol:

Dear readers,

Two weeks ago Steve presented us with a mystery. In a delirium induced by a homemade cold remedy, he dreamt that he was part of a "Peanuts" comic strip. In that dream, Lucy was holding a football for him to kick. In true Charlie Brown fashion, he obliged. At the last moment the football morphed into a sixteen pound bowling ball. That's when he woke up, leaving us to wonder what kind of teammate Lucy would be. Did she pull the ball away or not?

I am happy to report that a small number of you responded to our request for possible answers. Here they are:

- "Attn: Bowling News, The outcome is immaterial. Steve should sue the maker of the "cold remedy" for making a product which interrupts his dream-state and induces psychological distress! I will gladly represent him in this matter." Sincerely, Susan Mei; The Law Offices of, "Mei, Myseff, and Igh."

- "Hey Coach!

The mystery is really, WHAT'S IN THAT STUFF, MAN! I been lookin for a sleepy-time recipe like that all my life! Dude, patent it and gimme a call!"

Your friend, Loopy Louie

Carol: No, Loopy. The mystery is, "Did Lucy pull the bowling ball away or not." Focus, will ya! Moving on.....

- "Dear Ms. Mancini,

As a long-time fan of the "Peanuts" comic strip and an unabashed student of life, I feel eminently qualified to describe for you precisely what transpired in that fateful dream. It is really no mystery at all. Lucy is Lucy. She had never allowed master Brown to make even the slightest contact with said football, so of course she pulled the bowling ball away. This is indisputable in light of the fact that no Peanuts character had ever, or would ever, intentionally cause harm to befall another Peanuts character.

Further, it must be noted that the nature of Peanuts was to entertain, and Charles M. Schulz was a master of his craft. To wit, the following is the most likely scenario for what ensued: Having kicked nothingness with all his might, Charles flies into the air screaming, "ARGHHHHH!" at the top of his lungs. But rather than landing on his back as was customary, he completed a 270 degree loop and landed on his tummy, facing the pins.

Sliding head-first down lane eight with a head shaped like a bowling ball, he became a 'rocket to the pocket' as you Yankees are so fond of saying. Pins flew like bumbershoots in a windstorm and when the dust settled, there stood the dreaded 7-10 split. What else would you expect? After all, Charles Brown is Charles Brown."- Sincerely, Dr. I. M. Fullovit

Carol: If that guy doesn't have a thick British accent, I'll eat my bowling shoes!

Dean: I'll bet Steve sent that one in!

Carol: Maybe I'll call him and find out.

Dean: If you do, GET ME THAT RECIPE!

New Sponsor 'FINANCIAL ADVISORS' is Adding
Money to Super Pots and Sweepers

The Financial Advisors Super Sweeper Sidepot

$10 weekly entry fee per bowler, with half of the money being paid out each week, and the other half going towards the huge payouts on sweeper night at the end of the season.
With 47 entries on Monday, the Financial Advisors sidepot is looking at $235 in the weekly sidepot and $9000 estimated for sweeper night. The top three series will get paid, as well as the top 16 games bowled that night. Bowlers are eligible to cash in each game.
Financial Advisors Super Sweeper Sidepot, will be adding $1,000 to the total collected. If you win 2 Super Pots all season you'll be ahead before we even get to sweepers with the $9000 payout. 100% of all money collected will be paid out for the season.

FOUR TEAMS TIED AT THE TOP
12 TEAMS SCRATCHING FOR WINS

DOWNEY — Well, look who's back on top! It's SYSCO — already a round winner, but still adding numbers to their win column.
GJC SERVICES only took three from THREADWORKS, but that third point knocked Paul, Ryan, Eric and Mikey into fifth place. That extra point for total pins in getting to play a deciding factor in many matches.
HERZOG INSURANCE won 4 from U.H.B.T. The totals — HERZOG 2288, U.H.B.T. 2271. Only 12 pins.
2288 was the number DIFFERENT LOOK CABINETS had to sweep POWER HOUSE VIDEOS.
TIFCO was solid. Their 2321 was put together by Jeff Carr 525, Spanky Rosales 575, Brandon Golden 576 and Memo Rosales 645 kicking KEGEL 4 to 1.
The league as a whole is still averaging 195. Billy Myers Jr. has mastered the lanes but still 3 pins under his 217 entering average. Bobby Campagnale entered at 222 and posting 213. Keith Laing entered at 205 and has a 213 average for 60 games. No wonder Keith hits the side-pot window so often. Like game one Monday night! Paul Varela collected for Game two with his 253. Mikey Villarreal tossed a nice 255 to win #3 pot. The Financial Advisors Pot went into Greg Neuer's pocket. Nice 256.
More "KUDOS" to David Cogswell 255, Dean Griffin 243 and Gabriel Martinez 242.
POWER HOUSE VIDEO GAMES is showing a 0/10 record. Not the lowest averaging team at 746, just the team that never "gets a break". Maybe you need to shake-up the line-up. DO SOMETHING!!!
Mondays match-ups will be fun to watch (not fun to bowl).
The J.A.T. and the A.B.T.A. are tied with 8 wins also and each has a chance to leap into the first position. This week is really a four team race, not two. Maybe the rest of the league should just split points and take a seat on the side-lines. We don't want to miss a shot — a string — a great pick-up — a comment — a WINNER!
