Cream of the Crop

SPARTANBURG, S.C.—The roster of competitors for the inaugural Denny's All-American High School Championships is now complete with today's announcement by tournament sponsors of an elite group of 29 senior student-athletes chosen to compete in the March event. Denny's, the Professional Bowlers Association and the United States Bowling Congress made their final selections of the participants based on bowling accomplishments, academics and other criteria.

"The USBC is extremely pleased with the many talented candidates who submitted applications for the first Denny's All-American tournament," said Director of USBC High School and Collegiate, Jeanne Klescewski. "The decision making process wasn't easy, but we are confident the 29 student-athletes selected to compete represent the best in terms of bowling skill, academic achievement and citizenship. We look forward to an exceptional competition next month."

The elite field of 29 contains at least one representative from every varsity level state except New Mexico and Iowa. The 15 girls and 14 boys represent the best among student athletes, with a cumulative GPA of 3.67, and significant bowling experience. Twenty-three of the candidates have four years of competitive high school bowling; 21 have been team captain for at least one year; 14 are members of the National Honor Society and 10 have competed in the Junior Gold National Championship at least once. The full roster of participants is listed below.

"This is an exciting and rewarding project for Denny's," said Margaret Jenkins, Denny's Chief Marketing Officer. "We believe this tournament provides a wonderful opportunity to showcase the enormous talent that exists among high school bowlers."

"The high volume of applications we received and the impressive resumes of the 29 participants in the event prove the future of competitive bowling is very, very bright," said PBA Commissioner and CEO Fred Schreyer. "The PBA is thrilled to co-host this inaugural event and we look forward to watching the future stars of the Denny's PBA Tour compete on a national stage."

The Denny's All-American High School Championships is being held in conjunction with the Denny's PBA World Championship, March 24-25 in Grand Rapids, Mich. Immediately following the conclusion of the Denny's World Championship, the high school finalists will take to the lanes to compete for $10,000 in scholarships on a PBA oil pattern and in an arena setting before more than 2,000 spectators.

They also will have a chance to team with professionals Kelly Kulick, the first female PBA exempt bowler, and Tony Reyes, a member of the Denny's PBA Sponsor Competition Team, for a one-game doubles match – girls against boys.

WWPB Kicks Off 2007 As Western Women Premier Bowlers Missy Bellinder Claims First Title Under New Club Name!

by Lori Yamasaki

This past weekend proved to be a milestone for many in the WWPB. Starting with Missy Bellinder – she was named Co-Bowler of the Year for 2006 and she was victorious in our first tournament of 2007. A huge milestone to date however is the changing of our name. The WWPB is now the Western Women Premier Bowlers!

Although Missy was feeling a bit under the weather this weekend due to a cold, her bowling did not suffer at all. She was our leader after 10 games of qualifying on Saturday, averaging over 230. She stayed in the lead all day on Sunday posting a 5-3 match play record, collecting $1,000 for her victory.

Missy wanted to express her thanks to her Mom and Dad who were on hand all weekend (Mr. & Mrs. Bellinder also happened to be celebrating their 39th wedding anniversary on Saturday, February 24). Needless to say it was a happy weekend for the entire Bellinder family. Missy also wanted to thank all of her friends and family for their continued support.

Missy currently serves as a staff member for Brunswick and Turbo 2 n 1. She used her Absolute Inferno over the course of the weekend. She teaches bowling classes at Cal State Long Beach as well as working at Precision Pro Shop at Saddleback Lanes. Upcoming for Missy are PBA regional events along with a stint on the European Bowling Tour this summer where she'll be competing in San Marcos, Barcelona, and Denmark.

Very special thanks to Scott Poddig and his wonderful staff at Harley's Camarillo Bowl. Scott hosted a fun filled pro-am Saturday evening, a Fab 5 event where 4 amateurs teamed with a WWPB player to form a five-man team.

Definitely a good time had by all! Following the Fab 5 pro-am an impromptu match play event took center stage! Scott Poddig bowled against Lani Morris, then Scott took on Dede Davidson, with Scott victorious both times.

THEN.....Scott teamed with D.A. Busby to bowl against Jamie Rovner and Lani Morris, this time the ladies came out on top!

"I just love watching the women bowl, these ladies made a challenging condition look really ok", Scott stated as he reflected upon his event.

Incidentally, Missy bowled for Scott back when Missy was a student and Scott coached the bowling team at Cal State Fullerton. Our thanks to Scott and to Vicki Hanks of Pacific Beverage Company for sponsoring this awesome WWPB event. Pacific Beverage is a distributor of Anheuser-Busch beverages.

Our next WWPB event will be our annual Jim Lee Memorial Mixed Doubles Championship at Yorba Linda Bowl on March 30-April 1. For details on this or any other WWPB event, please visit our website, www.wwpb.com.

Mike Mineman & last year's champ at Emerson Lanes, Sean Rash

Lightning Strikes Twice

PARKERSBURG, W.V.—They say lightning never strikes twice in the same place, but on the Denny's PBA Tour, Emerson Lanes has been hit with a historic lightning bolt two years running.

Mike Mineman became just the second bowler in Tour history to win a title after advancing through the Denny's PBA Tour Qualifying Round, joining Sean Rash who became the first in last year's West Virginia Championship at Emerson Lanes.

Mineman, a 48-year-old journeyman who is a stark contrast to the 24-year-old Rash who won as a virtual unknown on Tour last year, defeated Mike Machuga, 223-202, Sunday to win the 2007 Bayer Classic for his first career title.

Emerson Lanes hosted a PBA Tour event in 1965 and then did not host another Tour stop until last season, when Rash came out of nowhere to win the title. Mineman was appearing in his 41st career Tour event and had never previously advanced past the Round of 16. He earned $25,000 and an exemption for the 2007-08 season with the win.

"It's tough to go through that (Qualifying Round) on Wednesdays, but the gentlemen did it last year and paved the way and proved it could be done," said Mineman (Belleville, Ill.), who didn't even cash at Emerson Lanes last year. "It's just been a magical week. It's everything I ever thought it would be."

The title match came down to the last frame despite Mineman leading throughout as Machuga had a chance to tie the match and send it to a one-ball sudden death roll-off.

Working on a four-bagger while Machuga was working on an open in the 7th, Mineman made a crucial mistake when he chopped the 4-pin off the 2-4-5 to let Machuga back in the match, and he responded with a double in the 8th and 9th.

After a nine-spare, Mineman struck out the 10th, forcing Machuga to strike out to tie. Machuga left the 10-pin with his first shot, however, to give Mineman the win.

Mineman advanced to the title match with a 217-178 win over Dale Traber. Traber led after four frames before splits in the 5th and 7th frames. Mineman took advantage with a double in the 6th and 7th to take the lead, then struck again in the 9th and 10th frames to move on to the title match.

In the first semifinal, Machuga defeated all-time Denny's PBA Tour title leader Walter Ray Williams Jr., 264-223. Machuga (Erie, Pa.) took home $13,000 for second, while Traber (Cedarburg, Wis.) earned $6,500 for third and Williams (Ocala, Fla.) earned $5,500 for fourth.

Next week the Denny's PBA Tour heads to North Brunswick, N.J. for the 64th U.S. Open, the second of four Majors this season, Feb. 26-March 4. The live ESPN-televised finals take place Sunday, March 4 at Noon EST at Brunswick Zone Carolier.

Medications For “Splits R Us” And Other Viruses - Part I

In the December and January issues (which I hope you cut out and saved as I suggested) we discussed the “Triax” Spare System. I published this because it has become extremely successful for those who use it. Since then, however, I’ve had further questions about picking up splits, so we’ll answer those here.

First however, is a subject most bowlers need help with...namely, how best to avoid leaving splits in the first place.

Briefly, the answer is simple and it is this: When adjusting your feet and/or mark for drying lanes, always follow these three rules. 1- Always adjust earlier than necessary. 2- Adjust more often. 3- Always over-adjust slightly on purpose!

Why? Because it’s better to hit the pocket slightly light than too high! High hits cause splits, as you know.

OK – Now to answer those who had questions. By now it is well known to most league and tournament bowlers that statistically, the touring pros who most often make the TV show are the ones who convert the most spares during the week. This fact is so for two primary reasons. First, all top professionals are great strike shooters or they wouldn’t be where they are. Second, even one open frame on the TV show can often mean disaster, so spare conversion becomes increasingly important. So the difference between converting or missing a split or difficult spare often determines success or failure.

CRITICAL MEASUREMENTS

Some time ago we discussed some possible “fine tuning” adjustments for pocket hits based on pin spacing. Let’s briefly borrow from that, just to re-familiarize ourselves. There’s a 6” lateral spacing from center to center of the front V of pins. Let’s add some additional information needed for this technique:

The diameter of a bowling ball averages very slightly above 8½ inches.

The diameter of a pin, at its practical widest point is approximately 4 ¾”. (See the last couple of issues, describing the “Triax” spare system to verify this.

Although there’s no rule requiring any specific number of boards across the width of a lane, 39 is what all current manufacturers are making.

41 to 42 inch width is regulation for all lanes. What all this means to us is that one board will usually be very slightly more than one inch wide. Given the lane and approach geometry based on these figures and assuming you always hit the mark at the arrows target area, the ball’s impact point at the pins will change according to your foot adjustments as follows:

A 1 board foot adjustment = 2 inches at the pins

A 2 board foot adjustment = 4 inches at the pins

THE RADICAL SPLIT ADJUSTMENT

Let’s take wide splits first (not including “unmakeable” splits such as the 7-10, 4-6, etc.). The majority of 200 plus bowlers tell me they adjust their feet one or two boards off their key pin (front pin) foot position for splits like the 4-10, 6-7, 2-10, 3-7, etc. They do this in an effort to hit that key pin off center on the away side, thus hoping to drive it into the far pin of the split.

The trouble is, that won’t work and here’s why:

It is the very EDGE of the key pin which must be hit, not just the side of it (with the edge of the ball of course). Just hitting the side won’t work, because that would drive key pin behind the far pin, instead of into it.

The ‘how’ is simple. In such splits, simply shoot for the pin (standing or not) closest to and outside of the key pin (outside, in this context, means away from center of pin rack). Do this by adjusting the feet three boards instead of one or two, off the position you would use for the key pin itself. Example: for a 4-10 (or 4-7-10, 4-9, 4-7-9 or even 4-7-9-10) forget about adjusting to hit the left side of the 4 pin...your ball deflection angle won’t be sufficient to get that 9 or 10 pin! So...simply adjust your feet to shoot the 7, just as if the split didn’t exist. Sure, accuracy must be pretty deadly to convert such splits, but dead accuracy is needed for splits anyway. For splits such as this, it’s almost impossible to hit the key pin thin enough to convert the far pin, unless you take this bold approach by shooting for that “phantom” pin (the 7 pin, in this case). The beauty of this tactic is that even if you’re using a different spare system, it doesn’t matter, as long as you know which board you ordinarily stand on to shoot for a given pin. This system has proved to consistently outperform the other method mentioned above.

THE REALLY STRAIGHT BALL

This leads us to another rather important point; namely, that a lot of intended “straight” balls thrown at spares, splits included, aren’t really straight! Those that are, like Walter Ray Williams’, are straight not just because of extra speed or reduced revs, but because they actually run end over end, so lane conditions are taken out of the picture. A “straight” ball which hooks half a board or so may make no difference in a single pin spare, it can definitely ruin a split conversion attempt. I mention this because in addition to splits, in most other off center spares (with very few exceptions) a really straight ball is of definite advantage. For those whose straight balls still hook slightly, developing the end over end straight ball may well be worth practicing!

Having said that, let’s mention an exception, the 5-7 split (right handers only). According to the above technique, the 5-7 would require a straight 3 pin shot. However, standing 2 boards left of your strike position and throwing your strike ball to your strike mark will bring uncanny results. For the 5-10, however, the straight 2 pin shot is your best bet.

For left handers it’s just the opposite...for the 5-10, stand 2 boards right of your strike position, throwing your strike ball to your strike mark. For you, the 5-7 is best converted with a straight 3 pin shot as the above system describes.

WASH-OUTS

Here most bowlers will throw a Brooklyn strike shot, which is acceptable, especially if additional pins are standing

BABY, BABY!

Baby splits haven’t been covered here for obvious reasons. We all know that these are converted by shooting for the missing middle pin, (such as the 2 for a 4-5 split or the 3 for a 5-6 split, for example). But this brings up the very common 3-10 and 2-7 splits, because they are considered baby splits even though it’s possible to fit the ball between them. Although many right handers will throw a straight ball at the 3-10, but a hook at the 2-7 (vice versa for left handers), I recommend straight shots for both sides.

Why? Because today’s rampant center-of- the-lane oil variations display a huge lack of respect for hook shots across the middle. So it’s almost impossible to get a hook ball to hold its line, making virtual guesswork out of what should be one of the easiest splits. Taking the above information into consideration, then, the obvious conclusion is, that with the possible exception of the 1-10 and 1-7 wash-outs, 5-7 and 5-10 splits (as described above) all splits become more makeable using straight shots.

No matter how good an overall spare shooter you may be, keeping track of your split conversion rate can be a big eye opener. The phantom pin split conversion system has never, in my experience, failed to increase the success rate. Putting it on paper as you bowl may take a few seconds extra, but is well worth it.

Key pin: The front pin in a multiple pin spare (the closest pin to the bowler in a spare).

Phantom pin: The pin to shoot for to convert a wide split when using the above system; called “phantom” because it may be standing or not.

ARCADIA—Xiao Zhang was not to be denied as he put on a spectacular performance winning his first ABTA title. He finally downed the top seed Christopher Gilbert in the title game to be our latest champion.

Our return to AMF Bowling Square saw 215 entrants enter and produce cut scores of +54 (men) and + 3 for our ladies to make it to the semis. Also added to the semis were Super Seniors Dodie Sajonas, Art Windsor and Wayne Hohenstein.

49 bowlers rolled in the semis. “Red Hot” Chris Gilbert fired a nice +140 to be seeded tops and able to bowl in the title game. In 2nd was Mike Siu who would enter in round two of the single elims (top 16). It took a +55 men to make the sweet 16 single elim finals, and -17 for the three guaranteed women.

The bowlers took to the lanes. In the first round single elims losing were Sierrre Herradura, Tim Austin, George Reams, Scott Vazquez, Danielle Forniss, Demetrius Cash and Calvin Thai. They got checks of $100 in 10-16th places.

In round two being eliminated were Darwin Balding, Mike Siu, Yu Lam and David Quon. They cashed in 6-9th places and received $110 each.

Round three had David Jones best Tony Morgan 229-224. Zhang got to Sujo 210-163. Tony and Phillip were 4th and 5th with fine bowling and $125 each with Xiao and Jones was to bowl Gilbert for the title.

In this game Jones got tapped and Xiao did not in a 210-163-178 win. David was 3rd with Xiao off to the title game vs Christopher Gilbert.

The title game was set and the horses were paid! Xaio paid $64 for everyone who had him at the $5.00 fun bets. We would see who would become the latest Champion. Gilbert elected to lead off. He did, with a strike, spare, and turkey. Xiao also had three in a row. Chris marked in frames 5-7. Xiao made his run to the title with strikes in frames 5-10, a six bagger and won out 246/271 to Gilbert’s fine 212/234. The title was his. Mr. Xiao picked up a nice $1,400 First Place Prize. And of course the Champion’s shirt and Plaque will go to him also. Great Bowling Mr. Zhang.

Great bowling also by Chris Gilbert who is an affable young man and really improved bowler since I met him. He is a gentleman and nice to all. A title will come for him soon.

David Jones, one of our finest bowlers could have been the winner. He is also a fine young gentleman and a title will be in his future.

Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Demetrius Cash +183 for the men and Sierrre Herradura led the ladies at +115. They will get paid entries.

Ca$h again? Yes, he and James Abilar couldn’t eliminate one another in the 3-6-9 rolloff. We go for a sweet $2,300 this week at Keystone Lanes. They shared the $50 Consolation Pot.

The Match Game was matched at 131 by two of our pretty ladies Cynde Forniss and Hazel Castillo. They got 1/2 of the $1,890 pot and $945 each for their fine game. We estimate the Match Game at $ 1,250 this week.

Match Series worth $312 was not matched at a 501 drawn by Cash. We will estimate the series at $650 this week.

Champion Xiao Zhang is from L. A. and used an Ace drilled by Memo at Action Lanes. He is single ladies! He thanks Memo for the fine drilling, Chris, Doug, Connie, Phillip, Ah G. and his parents for support.

Chris Gilbert hails from Azusa and used a New Standard Legend also drilled by Spanky at Action Lanes. He is married to Rosio with two kids, Michael and Korea Marie. He thanks Mom and Dad, Patrick and Rose for support who were on hand to watch. Also Brandon Golden, Talia St. Angelo, Jason, Phillip, Doug, Calvin Thai and David Quon for support.

David Jones is from Monrovia and used a total N V drilled by Leonard Ruiz at West Covina Lanes. He is single but taken by Heidi his #1 fan. He thanks Leonard for the fine drilling, Heidi, Michael and the ABTA for a fine tournament.

New schedules were mailed this week. If you didn’t get one or have a new address let us know and we will get one to you.

It is history folks, as Xiao Zhang enters the archives as our latest Champion!

Make plans for our Two Day event at Keystone Lanes this weekend. On Saturday there will be qualifying at 12:00-1:30-3:00 & 4:45 PM with 1 in 5 making the board on Saturday. Sunday at 10:00 AM there is One Big squad. We will take 1 in 5 there to advance to the semis at 11:45AM!

The following Saturday we are hosted in a One Day Early Event at Chaparral Lanes in San Dimas with qualifying at 12:00-1:00-2:30 & 4:00 PM and Semis at 5:45PM there.

See you all at Keystone for a good one! Until then!

Bring a new member in and bowl for 1/2 price!

Webcams Up and Running at USBC Open Championships

RENO—One of the most popular features on USBC open.com in recent years has been the unique interactive webcams that allow friends and family at home to look right into the United States Bowling Congress Open Championships venue.

After working out some early technical glitches, the webcams are up and running for USBC open.com visitors to view the 2007 Open Championships at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno, Nev. The webcam can be viewed by clicking on the point-and-click camera graphic on the bottom right-hand corner of USBCopen.com.

Unveiled at the 2004 Open Championships in Reno, the webcams are capable of taking live (still) pictures of the tournament action as it happens.

Viewers can manipulate the cameras from home, allowing them to zoom in or out or photograph different parts of the venue.

At the 2006 Open Championships in Corpus Christi, Texas, there was one camera over center desk facing the scoreboards and another on top of the scoreboards facing the bleachers. There also were static cameras on either side of the venue that were not interactive, but did provide a side view of the competition.

In addition to the camera technology, the 2007 Open Championships also features a new scoring system with state-of-the-art graphics, as well as a brand new LED leaderboard.

In recent years, the Internet has become an increasingly valuable tool for the USBC to keep in touch with its nearly three million members.

Through USBCopen.com, one of many informative sub-sites on bowl.com, bowling fans worldwide can find out about the daily happenings at the Open Championships, register for the tournament, check scores, read the history and facts about the event, look up past champions and records, book flights or hotel rooms, make arrangements to ship their equipment to the tournament site or just discuss the different aspects of the tournament in the forum.

“Since the Open Championships is one of the premier bowling events in the world, we want to give our bowlers the best experience possible and provide them with a look at the most up-to-date products in the industry from the scale room to the scoreboards,” said Open Championships Tournament Director Brian Lewis. “The new scoring system is a big hit, and we’ve gotten a lot of inquiries from people who are looking forward to using the webcams again this year.”

USBC Chooses Ford Engineer as Technical Advisor

Data analysis expert will assist with System of Bowling research

GREENDALE — The United States Bowling Congress has selected Ford Motor Co. engineer Scott Sterbenz to be a volunteer technical advisor to the USBC Equipment Specifications and Certification Committee.

As a quality assurance engineer and statistical data analysis expert for the past 12 years at Ford in Dearborn, Mich., Sterbenz has tested vehicle concepts and solved quality issues on Ford vehicles at foreign and domestic assembly plants. Sterbenz holds master black belt status in Six Sigma, a disciplined process issued by the American Society for Quality and used by companies to recommend product improvements based on statistical analysis. He teaches Ford engineers advanced statistical methods and data analysis techniques.

Sterbenz will put that expertise to use with USBC, where he is expected to use his statistical analysis skills on the Equipment Specifications Committee to assist the Specifications and Certification team as it analyzes research data relating to the System of Bowling. The System of Bowling includes components of the sport that affect scoring, such as bowling ball motion studies, bowling ball dynamics, bowling pin testing, lane surface analysis and oil evaluations.

Sterbenz is a USBC member and resident of Brownstown Township, Mich. The right-handed bowler averaged 228 last season in a Detroit USBC league and has one certified 300 game and a 776 high series to his credit.

“We look forward to working with Scott and taking advantage of his expertise in data analysis to help USBC review, organize and plan research to help improve credibility issues in bowling,” said USBC Technical Director Neil Stremmel.

“How often in life do you get a chance to be involved with the governing body of a sport to help maintain and improve integrity in a sport?” said Sterbenz, who earned a B.A. and Masters degree in Mechanical Engineering at Wayne State University in Detroit. “You don’t get opportunities like that often so I jumped on it. I look forward to working with Neil and his team.”

The USBC Equipment Specifications and Certification Committee makes final decisions on matters relating to USBC approval of bowling equipment, developing and modifying specifications governing the use of lane dressing and the equipment used in USBC competitions, regulating bowling center certificates and setting policies and procedures related to equipment specifications and certification.

Cal Bowl No-Tap March 3rd

LAKEWOOD — March 3rd is NO-TAP Day at Cal Bowl this month.

Bowlers are requested to sign-in no later than 4:30 P.M. for the 5:00 P.M. start.

Entry fee is $40 cash. Sidepots are optional. This six-gamer is a fast, fun, friendly event with plenty of friends to cash.

Come on out to Cal Bowl Saturday. Bring your best game, and your Irish luck. The number at Cal Bowl is 562-421-8448. Need directions? Give them a call.

DOWNEY—The final visit to Del Rio this season was a high scoring one , led by Nancy Soto 206-586, Betty Phillips 216-585 and Patti Givechin, 207-580.

Jamie Vallier continued the honor roll with 223-567, Tracy Koolmees 222-565, Teri Hefner 544, Karen Mauricio 205-540, Lucy Turner 238-538, Kathy Parrish 530, Doris Lewis 522, Betty Klemmin 521, Bernice Williams, 203-515, Brenda Johnson 222-513, Cyndie Martin 513, Bert Martinez 512, Cathy Wyatt 506, Ardie Johnson 202-505, Gladyce Perrin and Ann Fedderly had 505 series, Joan Roper 503, Bernice Bennett 503, Rochelle Sanford 214, Jeanie Ruff 211, Alberta Stoute 210 and Wanda Weaver 204.

With only five weeks to go, the top ten teams are being pressured to hold positions and the trailing 6 teams are capable of moving up the ladder. Westminster #2 leads with 52 wins, followed by Cerritos #2, 51; Keystone #1, 45; Cal #5, 41.2; Keystone’s #2 and #3 teams are tied at 40 wins; Del Rio #1, 39, Cal #3, 38.2; Westminster #1 and Cal #4, 38.

Several bowlers asked me about the new bowler on lane 7, but she was not new, she was Jeani Ruff with a curly wig that she wore to keep her head warm! Bowlers are reminded to take recap sheets to Barbara Bishop or Betty Phillips (league sheet service) when they finish bowling. Some still bring them to Alice or leave them at the desk. The scores and standings are reported Monday night to Alice for the weekly Bowling News column Carol Mancini arrived before the bowling session was over and accepted the sponsor invitation to the annual (optional) league awards luncheon at Arnolds, April 9. She also told me the disturbing news that the final CWBA Hall of Fame election for the now USBC-CWBA, will not be Linda Johnson. Hopefully, Linda knows the rank and file of California’s CWBA members would have elected her if they had a vote. The final CWBA president, and one of Southern California’s most dedicated bowling leaders, is still active and working as hard as ever for San Gabriel Valley gals as a USBC representative.

NEXT WEEK: Keystone Lanes 10 a.m. Monday, Mar. 5.

Inland Empire NABI Champion Jeffrey Taino

by Quin
MORENO VALLEY — We want to express our thanks to ABC Moreno Valley Bowl for hosting the Inland Empire NABI tournament last Saturday. We had so much fun!

Our newest champion, Jeffrey Taino, is no stranger to the various bowling clubs. He is a great competitor with a winning personality, besides winning the tournament.

This is Jeffrey’s second win in NABI, who already has an entry into the “Tournament of Champions” in the NABI Nationals coming up in July 2007 at The Orleans in Las Vegas. Jeffrey, who loves to bowl, also loves to dance. He says he dances any style, including ball room (look out Dancing With The Stars). He won this tournament with his Deal Hammer drilled by Chris at Chaparral Lanes in San Dimas. Jeffrey wants to dedicate this win to his wife Cindy and son Justin. Justin is our newest director and while working the tournament, was there to see his dad bowl terrific to win the tournament.

Jeffrey won another champion shirt, along with $1,000 including $400 Optional Upgrade and $100 for wearing his NABI shirt.

Our stepladder started out with Jon Cottingim bowling Louie Baello. Louie bowled a 203 to Jon’s 235. Jon then bowled Kerry Lucka. Kerry bowled a 186 to Jon’s 227. Jon continued to bowl Noli Valdeleon. Noli bowled a 197 to Jon’s 248. Jon then had to meet our high qualifier, Jeffrey Taino. Jon tired a little to bowl a 170 to Jeffrey’s 264.

Thanks to all who came out to bowl our tournament. Our next NABI tournament will be held at AMF Arrowhead Lanes on Saturday, March 3. See ya there. See our ad in this week’s Bowling News.

PINZ SENIORS:

The vote is in, and our winner is; anybody over the age of 60. All of you seniors are bowling great and we can only hope that in your acceptance speeches that you mention us here at Pinz. Try not to let your ego go to your head (Queen Gaffney). Here’s the scores:

Breakfast Club: Nancy Sherwood 181-486, Elayne Klein 175-480, Myrna Schiffman 168-469, Joan Karchem 204-451.

Bowler of the Week: Again we have to give this prestigious award to a second time nominee; Keane Murakami. Let’s think about bowling 6 games in two leagues in a five hour time period. Then consider running around doing sidepots and collecting money. Now picture bowling these games 244, 246, 236, 233, and 226. Ok well it seems impossible but Keane manages to do it every week. Thanks for all the hard work and great bowling.

Sweetness quote of the week: “You are as young as your faith, as old as your doubt; as young as your self confidence, as old as your fear; as young as your hope, as old as your despair”

Ross Packard

2007 Superior Performance Recipient

Stephanie Steiner

2007 Meritorious Service Recipient

by Elaine Van Otten

History will be made on June 3, 2007 at the Town & Country Resort in San Diego as the California USBC hosts its first Annual Meeting and Convention. While we celebrate our new beginning we will honor those members of our bowling family who, by their bowling performance or their service to the sport we all love, will be inducted into our Hall of Fame. They will be the 1st inductees for the new State organization. It is with pride that I announce Ross Packard as our inductee for Superior Performance and Stephanie Steiner for Meritorious Service.

ROSS PACKARD shines with his outstanding bowling achievements. He holds 27 PBA West Coast Regional Titles, 6 PBA Regional Senior Titles, 24 West Coast and 24 North Coast Senior Tour Titles. In addition, Ross is a 3-time champion in the California State Masters Tournament and in the California State BA Championship tournament he has 4 All Events titles and 1 Singles title. Ross has bowled over 50 certified 300 games and over 25 certified 800 series. Clearly, Ross is an outstanding bowler and it is our pleasure to induct him to our Hall of Fame.

STEPHANIE STEINER has dedicated most of her adult life to bowling. In the 60’s Stephanie became a certified AJBC Coach where she taught all divisions of youth bowlers. She has been a member of the 600 club, at both the State and National level, for more than 30 years. She has been Secretary/Treasurer of the California State 600 Club for over 20 years and has been All Cities 600 Club President for 14 years. She served as CWBA Teller for 1 year and WIBC Teller for 5 years. Stephanie is currently serving on the California USBC’s Nominating Committee. Stephanie initiated many 600-club tournaments such as the long-standing doubles tournament held yearly in Las Vegas. The trio’s tournament held in Reno and in 1991 she started the California State Women’s 500/600 doubles tournament. These and many local accomplishments, makes Stephanie an excellent choice for our Hall of Fame.

Rule 400 Revised For Youth Bowling Awards

The United States Bowling Congress Board of Directors has approved the modification of Youth Membership Eligibility Rule 400, effective immediately, to expand the awards deemed acceptable under the terms of USBC Youth membership. In addition to previously allowed symbolic awards, USBC Youth members are now eligible to be awarded bowling equipment, gift certificates, apparel and other merchandise prizes with a total value not greater than $500 in any one event, excluding scholarships.

The modifications also allow for USBC Youth members to compete in singles competition where cash and/or bonds are awarded, as well as merchandise prizes exceeding $500 in total in any one event, but must waive rights to these awards by signing and completing the USBC Prize Waiver form prior to their participation in that competition.

Acceptance of awards of cash or bonds of any amount or any merchandise prizes with a total value higher than $500 per event remain prohibited for youth members under USBC’s revised Rule 400. Violations of the terms of Rule 400 could result in the loss or suspension of youth membership.

There also remains no limit on the value of scholarships that can be awarded in youth competition. The scholarship funds from USBC certified events and leagues will continue to be required to be deposited with USBC’s SMART program. USBC Youth members may be awarded scholarships from singles competition in which cash and/or bonds are awarded.

“The USBC Board determined that the former Rule 400 placed unnecessary restrictions on everyone associated with USBC Youth membership and concluded the best course of action to alleviate this issue was to modify Rule 400 effective immediately,” USBC President Michael Carroll said.

The previous version of Rule 400 intended to protect the current and future interscholastic sports eligibility of USBC Youth members through the most restrictive interpretations and limitations. The USBC Board concluded that placing these restrictions on all USBC Youth members was unnecessary due to the lack of uniform eligibility standards for interscholastic sports nationally.

“The new structure of USBC allows for addressing of significant issues to be handled in an expedited manner,” said USBC Chief Executive Officer Roger Dalkin. “The previous version of Rule 400 placed undue and unintended restrictions on USBC Youth members, league and association coordinators and proprietors. The USBC Board modified Rule 400 to address these restrictions and expand acceptable awards that promote and enhance the participation in youth bowling.”

The USBC Board concluded that compliance with local/state interscholastic eligibility rules and policies is the responsibility of the individual member and his/her legal guardian. However, USBC will continue to educate USBC Youth members and their legal guardians that competing in USBC certified competitions and acceptance of some awards now acceptable under Rule 400 could jeopardize individual member’s interscholastic sports amateur eligibility.

These changes do not affect the USBC Youth High Score Awards program.

“USBC’s Youth membership program, certified tournaments and leagues, as well as USBC’s dedication to the growth of high school and collegiate bowling, offer youth of all ages many choices to be active in the sport of bowling,” said Mitch Mitchell, chairman of the USBC Youth Committee.

For the full wording and/or interpretation of the USBC youth eligibility Rule 400 and more information, contact USBC’s Rules department at (800) 514-BOWL, ext. 3155 or visit bowl.com.

JAT Farm Club

by David Gordon
NORWALK—The JAT Farm Club was on the wood at Keystone Lanes this past Sunday. Twenty-six bowlers took part giving us a match play cut to the top 14. After reading the scores, I know a lot of you wish you had come out.

The tournament high game came in the qualifying round from DeeRonn Booker with a very nice 268. Others with high scoring start with Rafael Ceja 249-231, Darrin Choi 248-222,

A.J. Garcia 247-235-221, Max Slevcove 245, Aaron Williams 220-243, Jerome Jordan 242-234-237, Joey Marino 235-224, Albert Fernandez 222-235, Deanna Carrillo 232-234, James Bael 234, Charlie Hair 231-222-227, Brent Shern 230, Cort McPherson 227-222-226, and Kevin Jones 222. Now that's a good listing. The leader after 5 games was Jordan at plus 77 and 14th to finalize the cut, came in at minus 1.

In match play we had much of the same but not from those you would have expected. The leader board almost did a complete flip-flop with Hair the only consistent one to stay in the top 5. Hair did this behind match play games of 254-244-222. More high scoring came in from Williams 235-256, Slevcove 220-248-237, Arisha Piper 247, Eddie Sayles 235-246-235, Bael 246-222, Garcia 245, Ceja 222-229-243, Booker 227-238, Fernandez 225, and McPherson 225. Making a respectable jump of six positions to get into the final five was newcomer Ceja. But making the most of match play was Sayles with an eleven position jump to take of the tournament lead.

And so the finals started off with 5th seed Slevcove (+211) taking on 4th seed Ceja (+214). In a very tight match that came done to the end it was Ceja 217-214 to advance to meet 3rd seed Hair (+218). Here it looked like eleven games had taken its toll on the new bowler as Hair capture this match 206-128. Then in from the practice wings comes 2nd seed Williams (+263) to take on Hair and keep the higher seed roll alive. Williams did this 223-186 to meet top seed Sayles (+277). And yet the call for the day continued as Sayles took the first two matches 180-161 and 204-200, to capture his third title. Congratulations Eddie.

Our next tournament has been changed to Brunswick Covina Lanes on March 11th. Please pass the word that we are NOT bowling at Shatto 39, yet. Also, remember that we have the Clean "50" pot going, as no one even got close this weekend. Bowlers start working on your spares and let's see if a Farm Club member can capture the pot first. Have a good week or so and I'll see you at Covina Lanes.

SED Jr. Travel

by David Gordon
NORWALK/DOWNEY—The SED Jr. Travel took on an old-fashion double session last Saturday whereby we were at Keystone Lanes for the first one at noon and then traveled over to Del Rio Lanes for the second session. Thank you to both centers' staff and management for making a flash back in time possible.

At Keystone, the shot proved to be normal, tough. The bowlers shot well and close to their averages, but not much overly exciting. Except for two bowlers that opened up our 800 club for the weekend, as Eric Milne starts us off with his 247-216/843 and is joined by Eddie Sayles 203-216-226/838. Way to go gentlemen. Other reportable scoring came in from Felicia Mara 230-216/796 (almost), Michael Gaylor 760, J.D. Pelow 206/750, Bryan Osborne 230/747, Kevin Jones 203-200/740, Darren Pascual 213/739, Max Slevcove 204/734, and teammate Kim Ferdnance 217/727. Very good, all of you.

Then it was the rush in traffic to Del Rio Lanes with a 2:00 start. The bowlers had time calm down from Keystone and now focus in on what Del Rio had to give them. The results, two in the 900 club, starting with Sayles 210-246-268/909 to lead the way. And coming off her second perfect game in her morning house league, followed by water polo practice and eventually joining us for the second session, was Deanna Carrillo with 215-228-214-246/903. Excellent bowling - both of you. Now for the 800 club we have Milne 203-265-213/880, Pelow 225-246-217/876, Gaylor 266-216/854, Delano Ross 224-210-211/830 (welcome aboard), Mara 227-225/806, and Osborne 213-228/805. And rounding off the high scoring we have Max Slevcove 205-215/789, Jones 225-212/785, Sean McKinney 754, Ferdnance 222/752, Pascual 716, Marty McDonald 210/712, and Brandyn Roque 705.

As a reward we have a Bye this coming week for the NLAC City Tournament. Those bowling should be at Jewel City Bowl on Saturday at 12:15, in uniform for your team event. We will return in strength on March 10th at Shatto 39 in Los Angeles. This very unique center will offer some challenges, including us doubling-up to just 6 lanes. Be prepared and I'll see some of you this Saturday and rest of you in a couple of weeks.

Girls Jr. All-Stars

by David Gordon
NORWALK—Keystone Lanes played host to the recent session of the Girls Jr. All-Stars. Once again, we followed the JAT tournament, but this time the conditions held pretty well for us. Thanks go to the staff and management for the entire weekend's accommodations.

For the leader of this session, it was one of those weekends that you would want to remember. Deanna Carrillo had a great sessions on Saturday morning and afternoon and ends the weekend with a 223-266-213/895 set. Nice shooting Deanna. Also making her way into the 800 club was Jillian Gaddison with a very good showing of 204-223/806. Nice bowling, Jillian. We also had Tabetha Reynolds 207-233/791 (close), and Jasmine Morales 213-203/735.

Ladies, we will take a Bye this weekend for our City tournament and return to the lanes on March 11th at Brunswick Covina Lanes. And of course, we'll be following another JAT tournament, but that is what pushes you girls. Have a good week or two and I'll see have of you this weekend and hopefully all of you at Covina Lanes.
