Smallwood Wins Barbasol PBA Players Championship

Smallwood defeats Jason Belmonte 259-239 for second major and third career tour title

COLUMBUS. Ohio -Tom Smallwood of Saginaw, Mich., won four consecutive stepladder finals matches, including the title match against defending champion Jason Belmonte of Australia, to win the Barbasol PBA Players Championship at Wayne Webb's Columbus Bowl Sunday for his second major and third career PBA Tour title.

With a 10-pin lead heading into the final frame, the 40-year-old Smallwood struck on his first ball in the 10th to beat Belmonte, 267-239, in the title match for his first tournament win since the 2013 PBA Scorpion Championship.

The victory thwarted Belmonte's attempt for a record-tying 10th major and 17th career tour title. Belmonte was the No. 1 qualifier for the finals, and as top qualifier, needed only to beat Smallwood for the title.

It was an uphill battle for Smallwood for the entire tournament. After finishing 93rd after the first round, he battled back to eventually earn the No. 5 qualifying position for the stepladder finals.

"That's one of the assets of my game to grind through matches and never quit," said Smallwood, whose first major came in the 2009 PBA World Championship. "I'm good with the pressure and if I'm not striking a lot I can hang in there to stay in contention. This tournament was a great example of that."

Smallwood's stepladder journey to the title started with a 237-206 win over Canadian Patrick Girard, trying for his first tour title, who missed the headpin four times in the first match.

Smallwood then edged out No. 3 qualifier Kris Prather of Plainfield, Ill., who was making his first TV finals appearance, 236-235. With both players working on a string of four strikes and tied heading into the 10th frame, Smallwood was able to take the win with a strike on his first ball and nine on his second shot after Prather struck and then left a seven-count Smallwood then moved on to meet four-time tour winner Marshall Kent of Yakima. Wash., who was coming off a runner-up finish in last week's PBA 60th Anniversary Classic. Smallwood again escaped with a one-pin victory, 225-224, when he spared in the 10th frame and threw a nine count on his final ball.

"I just kept telling myself to keep everything slow," said Smallwood. "It continued on page 4

by Tony Lizama

MONTCLAUR - Recently, Bowlium Lanes in Montclair, California had the privilege of honoring one of its top bowlers.

We undoubtedly hear or read about bowlers reaching that magical 300 score. And yet, fewer have bowled a total scratch score of 800; Nicole Rayon did both...in the same game!

At the beginning of the Mega Vegas League, Nicole Rayon was formally presented with her 300 and 800 award rings.

Bowlium Lanes would like to recognize Nicole on her fine accomplishments and wish her continued success in the sport of bowling.

DON JOHNSON'S 299 IS PBA'S MOST MEMORAB

On Saturday, April 4, 1970, eventual PBA Hall of Famer Don Johnson had already locked up the Firestone Tournament of Champions title with his 11th consecutive strike at Riviera Lanes in Fairlawn, Ohio. As opponent Dick Ritger and millions of ABC-TV fans watched, Johnson threw what appeared to be another perfect shot in pursuit of a $10,000 perfect game bonus.

But the 10 pin stood, and Johnson fell to the approach in disbelief and disappointment. That iconic image, captured on black-and-white film by an Akron Beacon-Journal photographer, is arguably the most reproduced photo in bowling history, and it spawned an artistic interpretation by Marc Moon that graced the cover of the 1971 PBA Tour Program.

Johnson's historic 299 also has been selected as the "most memorable moment" in the PBA's 60-year history, as revealed during Sunday's ESPN telecast of the Go Bowling! PBA 60th Anniversary Classic from Woodland Bowl in Indianapolis. That moment along with the other "top 10" moments kicked off the unveiling of all 60 "most memorable moments" that will be revealed, one a day, Monday through Friday, on the PBA's social media outlets beginning next Monday and continuing until all 60 moments are announced.

The top 10 – which were previewed to the more than 300 attendees at the PBA 60th Anniversary Celebration dinner and hall of fame ceremonies - include the following. Note the list actually includes 11 "memorable moments" due to a tie for 10th place. Keep in mind the list, selected by a large group of long-time industry veterans, players, PBA officials, etc., is focused on the "most memorable moments" in PBA history, not necessarily the "greatest" accomplishments:

- Don Johnson's 299 game in championship game of the 1970 Firestone Tournament of Champions. He fell to floor after leaving a 10 pin on his final shot, rising to a standing ovation at Riviera Lanes.
- 2) Eddie Elias' meeting with PBA's 33 founding members in Syracuse, N.Y., in 1958.
- 3) Kelly Kulick becoming the first woman to win a PBA Tour title in the 2010 PBA Tournament of Champions in
- Pete McCordic winning a $100,000 bonus with a nerve-wracked 300 game on ABC-TV in 1987.
- Pete Weber striking in the 10th frame to claim a record fifth U.S. Open title by one pin in 2012, then uttering his famous, "Who Do You Think You Are, I Am!"
- Earl Anthony surpassing the $1 million career earnings milestone for the first time in winning the 1982 PBA National Championship.
- Del Ballard Jr., needing two strikes and 7 pins to win the 1991 Fair Lanes Open over Pete Weber, gets the first two but rolls a gutter ball on last shot to lose.
- Mark Roth becoming the first player to convert the 7-10 split in a 1980 televised PBA final.
- Bob Learn Jr. throws 44 out of a possible 48 strikes, including a 300 game, for a record four-game TV total of 1,129 pins to win the PBA Flagship Open in an arena in his hometown of Erie, Pa., in 1996.
- 10) A tie between the 2011 TOC from Red Rock in Las Vegas where Mika Koivuniemi defeated Tom Daugherty in the biggest margin of victory ever, 299-100 (lowest game ever bowled on TV) and then goes on to win the $250,000 record first prize. It was the PBA's first live telecast on ABC-TV since 1997. The second half of the tie involves Randy Pedersen needing a strike to defeat Ernie Schlegel to win the 1995 Touring Players Championship. But Pedersen's seemingly perfect shot leaves a stone 8 pin, prompting Schlegel to go into a wild celebration.

Belmonte and O'Neill Run Away With Top Qualifier Spot for Roth/Holman Doubles Finals

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Barbasol PBA Players Championship top qualifier Jason Belmonte of Australia and eight-time PBA Tour winner Bill O'Neill of Langhorne, Pa., averaged 236.57 as a team to earn top qualifier honors for the Mark Roth/Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship presented by BowlerX.com stepladder finals.

After each player's 30 games of qualifying during the Players Championship earlier in the week and 16 games of Baker format qualifying Friday, Belmonte and O'Neill led the field with a 17,979 pinfall total at Wayne Webb's Columbus Bowl.

The Doubles Championship will be taped by ESPN Sunday at 2 p.m. after the Barbasol PBA Players Championship live finals which are scheduled for 10:30 a.m. Fans can also catch the livestream of the Roth/Holman Doubles finals on ESPN3.

The Doubles Championship will air on ESPN March 25 at 11 a.m.

Belmonte and O'Neill, looking for their first doubles title, held a commanding 327pin lead over 2016 PBA Player of the Year EJ Tackett of Huntington, Ind., and four-time tour winner Marshall Kent of Yakima, Wash., who finished second with a 17,652 pinfall. Kent also qualified second for the Players Championship finals.

For Belmonte and O'Neill it's their fourth consecutive Doubles Championship finals appearance having finished fourth in their three previous appearances. Kent and Tackett will be hoping to improve on their runner-up finish in 2017.

Qualifying third were Kris Prather of Milton, Fla., who qualified third for the Players Championship finals, and Brandon Novak of Chillicothe, Ohio, with a 17,382 pinfall.

Texans DJ Archer and Shawn Maldonado qualified fourth combining for a 17,316 pinfall. Archer will be trying for his third PBA Tour and Maldonado his first.

Brothers Michael and Darren Tang of San Francisco moved from seventh after the day's first Baker round to take the fifth qualifying spot with a 17,273 pinfall. The Tang's, former collegiate standouts at San Jose State, combined for games of 249, 226, 185, 277, 290, 213, 257 and 205 to beat out two-time doubles champions PBA Hall of Famer Norm Duke and 10-time tour winner Wes Malott who finished sixth with 17,201.

In 2017 Michael, 22, finished second in the United States Bowling Congress Masters, and Darren, 24, finished fourth. Both players will be trying for their first PBA Tour title.

The Baker format requires each player on the team to alternate frames in the game to combine for one score.

SKECHERS JOINS PBA'S ESPN TELECAST ADVERTISING FAMILY

Skechers, one of America's leading footwear manufacturers, has joined the lineup of advertisers participating in the 2018 Go Bowling! PBA Tour telecast series on ESPN.

"Skechers is excited to be a part of the current schedule of PBA Tour telecasts on ESPN. The audience of the PBA Tour fits our demographic profile nicely for our 'wide fit' line promoted by Howie Long and our line of Skechers slip resistant "work" footwear," said Skechers Senior Vice President of Advertising Gary Patrick.

PBA's series of live telecasts in February will be followed by coverage of the Mark Roth-Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship, the USBC Masters and the PBA League Elias Cup series in late March and April, reaching millions of American sports fans.

was important to read what the ball was doing going down the lane and not overthink it. I just concentrated on keeping the ball in play."

"You could say there was more pressure on some shots than others, but in reality, there's pressure on every shot," Smallwood added. "I'm not complaining, this is what I live for."

It marked the second consecutive major that the winner won all four stepladder matches for the title. Matt O'Grady of Rahway, N.J., won the PBA Tournament of Champions on Feb. 11 by sweeping all four finals matches.

I Remember SHIRLEY GARMS - My Senior Inspiration -

HIGHLAND, CA - Shirley Garms passed away recently at the age of 94. She competed as a professional bowler for decades, winning her first professional title in 1962 at the age of 38. She won her fourth and final professional title in 1978 at the age of 54! She also won four WIBC (USBC) women's championship titles.

Shirley was a founding member of the PWBA and a charter member of the organization's Hall of Fame in 1995. She was inducted into the WIBC (USBC) Hall of Fame in 1971. She was also inducted into the World Bowling, Illinois and Chicago Halls of Fame.

Shirley Garms did it all. She won titles, set records and became a Hall of Famer. Shirley Garms is a legend.

Shirley winning a National Title at the age of 54 was and still is a BIG DEAL. As a senior bowler she beat the best bowlers in the world, in their prime. It's a BIG DEAL because a senior winning a National Title is rare. I can't remember any other senior woman to win a National Title. Also, Her win may be a record by making her the oldest woman to win a National Title.

I am a senior bowler. Shirley Garms winning a National Title as a senior is MY INSPIRATION to continue competing against younger strikers.

I saw Shirley bowl in Florida in the early 1980's on the new Ladies Professional Bowlers Tour (LPBT). By then she was in her 60's and still competing against professionals thirty to forty years her junior. Greats like Donna Adamek, Tish Johnson, Robin Romeo, Aleta Sill and Lisa Wagner were rookies back then and learning from Shirley. Other greats like Carolyn Dorin Ballard and Wendy McPherson weren't even on tour yet.

I didn't know Shirley personally but I did watch her compete. I wasn't a friend of hers but I was a fan. I didn't know if Shirley was a nice person but I did know that when I saw her bowl she conducted herself professionally. I REMEMBER SHIRLEY GARMS for her big smile, her class and grace. It's been three and a half decades but I still remember Shirley Garms.

I was a young fella back then while Shirley was a senior. At the time I didn't appreciate what she was doing. Now as a senior bowler myself I am amazed at how she competed against bowlers half her age. She was fearless. That's why Shirley Garms is MY SENIOR INSPIRA-

I REMEMBER SHIRLEY GARMS and salute her for being a great bowler and outstanding example for all se-TION as I compete as a senior bowler.

TEN PIN FUN CENTER IN TURLOCK

TURLOCK - I received work recently from Mike Buzick who is in charge of the desk personnel and leagues this coming year at the new Ten Pin Fun Center in Turlock. He informed me that all leagues would be starting in May and maybe with some short leagues with only 15 weeks. He did say the center would have all leagues with scratch, handicap, seniors, and youth league running 33 to 24 weeks, the normal league schedule.

The fall leagues will start up on August 17 featuring 16 leagues. The word floating around Bellevue Bowl is that the leagues in Turlock would not start until 2020, which it is now wrong. Ten Pin just finished stuccoing the North and West walls last week.

The tentative bowling schedule for the coming fall season that I received will feature five leagues from short season leagues, senior leagues, afternoon leagues, and evening leagues to youth leagues, scratch and handicap. Rod Scott, one of the owners and builder of the new entertainment center that everything is going on schedule. Call Mr. Buzick for more information on his league schedule at 209-541-6381.

MCHENRY BOWL SENIOR NO-TAP: We had several local bowlers from the Merced and Atwater cashing at McHenry Bowl in Modesto last Firday afternoon. In the first high game pot for the ladies, had Linda Roach and T.J. Rowen cashing. In the second high game pot had Yolanda Walsh placing for some cash. In the third high game pot for that gals had Sandy Taylor and Debbie Silva from Black Oak Lanes cashing. On the men's side in the first high game had Ed "Slick" Huddleston and Frank Gasper cashing. In the main prize list had Walsh putting some bucks in her pocket.

HIGH ROLLERS: Frank Gasper 193/533, Jeff Stout 242, Bill Rife 192, Steven Sanchez 214, Gary Molden 221, Mark N. Thompson 696, Janie Schropp 201, Greg Bennett 258, Leo Gonzales 565, Rod Hoofard 212/568, Don Andrino 183, Robert Diamond 194, Linda Roach 212, Bill Hickman 693, Dawn Fernandez 632, Mike Ingram 181, Jarod Fast 214, Patrick O'Bryant 226, Trevor Phillips 236, Sandy Alvara 258/737, Courtney Dahlin 259, Kenny Davis 184, Carol Valenta 208, Jonny Newkirk 202, Diane Sousa 170, and Val Penman 180.

AQUA SCORES FROM LOS BANOS: Tuesday mixed: Stephen Toscano 213/600, Raul Vesquez 200, Cesar Casillas 200, Jana Sousa 202/555, Linda Raw 195/544, Annabel Geer 160. Sednesday mixed: John Lopez 218, Ward Russell 208, Ronald Sferrazzo 184, Candy Jones 205, Jana Sousa 201/562, Debbie Reyes 176. Thursday mixed: Dan Erreca 225, Shane Hogan 208, Jorge Morfin 203, Rena Leferve 197, Denise Pugliese 196, Rachel Mason 175. Friday mixed: Larry Goodger 202/557, Linda Raw 156.

BLACK OAK SENIORS: Don't forget that Black Oak Lanes up in Tuolumne is hosting their 13th Annual Senior 9-pin notap starting this Friday, March 2 and 9. There will be three squads and March 2 is at 1:30 p.m. and on March 9 is two squads with a 10 a.m. and a 1:30 p.m. Entry fee is only $15 which includes your high game pot with divisions for men and women. Final men and women scores will be paid out the week after the tournament. If you want in, contact Jeff Hurley, Tournament Director at 209-928-9437 he can sign you up over the phone.

CHANGES IN BOWLING CENTERS: There was a lot of talk last Friday during McHenry Bowl's senior no-tap among bowlers about the purchase of the Manteca Bowl. Plans are that the center will become Bowlero Manteca in the coming weeks. If you remember Rodeo Lanes in Clovis was owned by AMF has been change to Bowlero Clovis. A few weeks ago I told you about Bowlero Fresno and Bowlero Visalia will open on Sept. 23. AMF Bowlmor owns a large amount of bowling centers in the USA.

REMEMBER WHEN: The 2005 edition of the Commercial Classic league sheet at Bellevue Bowl had the last week's top scores. The men had Allen Beck 268, Ryan Zelenski 257, and Lew Reese 247. On the women's side with their high games and series were Carolyn Drounin 235/640, Joyce Bigham 234/595, and Deanna Cimmino 224/596. Individual high averages were Tom Cardoza 209, Clarence Allen 200, Don Surdich 198 Drouin 187, Cimmino 179, and Bigham 168. Season high scores had Jim Cardoza 279, Tom Cardoza 279, Bill Dills 279, Dennis Kissack 279, and Allen 279.

THE 10TH FRAME: We lost a senior bowlers who was learning the sport of bowling. He was a long time golfer playing in Chowchilla and Madera. Joh Sagain, age 69 passed away last Friday night in Merced. He recently retired from the City of Merced after years as a planner and an architect. His wife, Gayle has bowling in the Bellevue Senior league at Bellevue Bowl in Atwater for years. John wanted to try his hand at the sport of bowling. The first time I saw him on the lanes, I was cracking up. He was wearing a pair of golf shorts I think? We both had a chuckle about it. Later on he wore long pants, some times shorts. He started getting interested in bowling as he purchased his own ball after using the bowling centers balls. I gave him a few tips, just like the rest of us did in the league. Always trying to help new bowlers. He also had Sagin Sportscrds that he ran every Saturday at the market on Childs Avenue for over 20 years. He had a great time bowling. All of us in the senior league will miss him.

Linbrook Bowl

201 S Brookhurst St. Anaheim, CA 92804 (714) 774-2253 by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM - This Friday morning in the 590 Classic saw only one bowler able to break the 900 barrier - Hong Kha powered his ball to produce games of 266-236-190 and 225 to score a league-leading set of 917. Hong has a simple game and he says the one rule he has taught himself is not to think too much; know the mark you plan to hit and just throw the ball! It helps also to be able to throw your ball with considerable speed -- one can dream..

Lefty Terry Brent found the lanes to his liking (he loves a challenge), and stroked 256-221-195 and 215 to close the day at 887.

Dick McKenzie is always in the loop and this morning he found his line on games of 207-243-187 and 247 for a fine 884.

Andrea Fredericks...'girl power' - showed she is a force on the lanes and showed off her "power" on games of 219-204-218 and added a 233 to score 874.

Our league-leading high average recipient, Ryan Sargent turned in games of 235-217-188 and 228 for 868.

Steve Sparks came to the party and tossed 235-2=56-165 and 200 to end with 856.

Chris Hefner had a mediocre day for him but still managed 236-247-189 and 181 to score 853.

The last bowler to score in the 850's - Louie Juarez, performed pretty consistently on games of 221-226-213 and 192 for an 852.

Saturday Sport League Report by Ken Clay

LAKE ELSINORE - After taking last Saturday off, the Saturday Sport league members returned to Pins 'N Pockets ready for their third and final week on the ever-difficult 2012 PBA US Open oil pattern. It was definitely chilly in the center this morning and most everyone spoke of the cold in their bowling balls and muscles. It doesn't seem like ten minutes of warm-up is enough time on cold mornings like that. Nevertheless, the arrows came up and it was time to roll shots for score.

Games Over Average: Mark McLeavy +20, Jasmine Werdel +21, Evelyn Lalas +29 +26, Rody Fetalvo +31, Scott Everson +47, and Steve Lertpaichaiyon +52.

Series Over Average: Rody Fetalvo +54, Scott Everson +58, and Evelyn Lalas +61

Games Over 200: Rody Fetalvo and Scott Everson 202, Ken Clay 214, and Shammon Williams 231.

Bowler of the Week: The above scores tell the partial story of one particular bowler who bowled consistently well for all three games. That bowler had games of +6, +29 and +26 for a very nice over average series of 61 pins. That is an accomplishment to be proud of on this lane condition. Congratulations to the Pins n Pockets Bowler of the Week Evelvn Lalas!

If this sounds like a fun way to challenge your bowling skills, then contact Pins 'N Pockets or go to facebook.com/ groups/PinsSaturdaySport.

Until next time, HAVE FUN AND FILL FRAMES!

RAMON TORRES LAPS THE FIELD WITH HIS 300/790 SERIES - CAL BOWL IMPROVES TO 10-0

by Mike Cammarata

DOWNEY – Heading into the second week of this round in the Brunswick Invitational, only Cal Bowl had a perfect record of 5-0. Six teams were right behind them though at 4-1, and would all be facing each other on Monday night. Even though it's early in the round, every night seems to be a must win situation in the position round every week format, especially with short rounds of seven weeks each.

Keystone Lanes had the most total pins of all the teams at 4-1, so they drew Cal Bowl on the top pair of lanes. It turned out to be a bad draw for them. Ramon Torres started his set with a 212 game, but only missed once in the next two games. He finished with 212-278-300 for a 790 series, leading Cal Bowl to a 5-0 sweep in the match. It was a match that had a few bowlers scoring and a few struggling. Leonard Ruiz Jr. helped Ramon with a 227-235/633 set. For Keystone Lanes, Eddie Van Daniker and Herbert Jones both were over 600. The next highest score on the pair was 505.

Paul Barraco shot a 213/234/625 set to lead Sysco to four wins in their match against Los Altos Trophy. With the four wins, Sysco improves to 8-2, and will move up to the top pair next week to face off against Cal Bowl. Mikey Villarreal recently joined the Los Altos team, and was their top bowler tonight with a 203-221/614 series.

Herzog Insurance improved to 8-2 for the round following a 4-1 win over J.A.T. Danny Wilson topped the pair, leading Herzog to the win. Wilson shot a 224/595, and Gary Duran was right behind him with 232/593. Larry Campbell added a 232/574 set for J.A.T., helping them to win the final game with his big score.

The next pair of lanes saw Linder's Insurance and Three Olives Vodka square off. The first game ended in a tie, giving both teams half a point. After that, it was all Linder's Insurance. Arnold Cheesman topped the pair, leading Linder's with 220/591. He got help from Harry Wong with a 229 game and Vernon Adams with a very consistent 586 set. Michael Montano led Three Olives with 230/569.

The Professional Approach lost the final game in their match against Bowling Guys, but had enough of a lead for totals that they still came out of the night with four wins. Matt Schermerhorn topped the pair, shooting 214-201/603. The other three bowlers on the team were all within a pin of each other (528, 527, 527). Kevin Jones was the high scorer for Bowling Guys, with a 549 set.

Forest Lanes recovered from a tough first week by taking four out of five from the Bowlium team. Jon Diso led the way with a 210/563 series. Eric Espinoza helped out with a 218 game. For Bowlium, Billy Myers Jr. was the top player with 210/589, although it was good for only one win.

Threadworks ran over Tito's Handmade Vodka, sweeping all five games by a total of close to 200 pins. Eric Snow led Threadworks, and the pair, shooting 223/595.

Buddy's Bowling Supply improved to 6-4 following a sweep of Don Julio Tequila. Buddy Lucas led the pair with a 212/588 set, in a match that was very lopsided in total pins.

On the final pair of lanes, DV8 took four out of five from Century 21—My Real Estate. Alex Abieras led the way for DV8 with 256-210/642. He had plenty of help though, as Ashkan Tahvildaran added a 223-226 after a tough first game. Sam Hitchcock had a 227 and Jeff Carr a 221 as well. For Century 21, David Schiada topped the squad with 209/568, leading them to their one victory.

Michael Montano won the first sidepot of the night with his 230 game. The second sidepot was split by Leonard Ruiz Jr. and Sam Hitchcock with their matching 227's. The final game super pot was taken by Herbert Jones. His 238 game earned him $207.

The Financial Advisors Sidepot was won by Ramon Torres, who struck his way to a 278 game. He earned $190. Alex Abieras got $100 for second place, shooting a 256 game.

Two weeks into the round, it appears to be the Cal Bowl show. Sysco will be next up for them, and while they've already won a round, total wins are so important come playoff time, so you can be sure they will be ready for the match. Come on down and watch the action, as the best in the area square off in the Brunswick Invitational at Del Rio Lanes in Downey. The bowling starts at 8:30 p.m.
