LAKEWOOD — February 27 was a big night for the “Big Bear” League and one of their special bowlers at Cal Bowl. The concourse was lined with tables of food, cake, balloons and gifts.

That special bowler is VIC MASTERS. What was special? His 100th birthday! Vic was born in Nebraska in 1914, one of 8 brothers! When World War II came along he joined the Army — received the Bronze Star, a Purple Heart and a wife named Virginia. They had 2 children Ken and Joy.

Son Ken and his wife Sandy made the trip to Cal Bowl — from Arkansas — to enjoy the festivities. Ken even subbed on Vic’s team. What a memory to store away!

Vic started bowling at age 45 and has been a regular ever since.

Congrats Vic! See you on the lanes!

Chris Barnes Wins Emir Cup for 17th PBA Tour Title

DOHA, Qatar — Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, defeated woman bowler New Hui Fen of Singapore, 493-483, in the two-game championship match to win the H.H. Emir Cup, a World Tenpin Bowling Association/PBA International Tour tournament, Friday at Qatar Bowling Center.

The victory gave Barnes his 17th PBA Tour title and his second PBA International Tour title. He previously won the Columbia 300 Vienna Open in Oct. of 2012. His last U.S. PBA Tour title came in the PBA Viper Championship during World Series of Bowling V in Las Vegas.

Fen’s scores included an eight handicap pins per game, an equality handicap provided to women in many international events.

Fen got off to an early lead after the first game of the championship match topping Barnes, 275-257, but Barnes overcame the deficit by beating in the second game, 236-208.

In the semifinal matches Fen defeated Bill O’Neill of Langhorne, Pa., 489-397, and Barnes defeated another top international woman player, Shayna Ng of Singapore, 521-445.

Silver Lake Atom Splitters Advance to PBA League Semifinal Round

Chris Barnes and friends just miss sweep over Dallas Strikers in third quarterfinal round match

ALLEN PARK, Mich. — Chris Barnes and his Silver Lake Atom Splitters dominated Norm Duke and the Dallas Strikers to advance to the semifinal round of the Professional Bowlers Association League Elias Cup competition at Thunderbowl Lanes.

Behind a 205-185 victory in the five-man Baker team finale, Silver Lake, presented by Spiceworks, defeated Dallas, presented by the United States Bowling Congress, in a near-sweep, 5-1.

The third in a series of four single-elimination first-round matches in the eight-team PBA League competition aired Sunday on ESPN. One point was awarded to the winner in singles, doubles and trios matches, and three points were awarded to the Baker team winner.

In the singles match, Duke — the only PBA League competitor serving the dual role of team manager and team captain — pulled himself out of his match against Barnes after recording four single-pin spares and one strike in five frames while Barnes started with six strikes for a 52-pin lead. Duke replaced himself with left-hander Rhino Page to give Page more practice on the PBA League lane condition, but it didn’t matter. Barnes ran his string of strikes to nine before losing his bid for a perfect game. He left the 4-6-7 split in the 10th frame, but still won the singles point comfortably, 265-208.

Neither team could generate any momentum in alternate ball doubles. Silver Lake’s Barnes and Bryon Smith took a one-pin lead into the 10th frame where Duke struck and then converted Mike Machuga’s 3-6-9-10 leave. Smith needed a strike to clinch the win for Silver Lake, but left a 10 pin. Barnes converted the spare, but again needing a strike for a one-pin victory, Smith knocked down eight pins to hand Dallas the doubles point, 195-194.

The Atom Splitters, owned by “Nerdist” creator Chris Hardwick, won the Baker trios point, 213-184. Consecutive strikes by Dom Barrett, Wes Malott and Tommy Jones staked Silver Lake to a 31-pin lead after four frames. The Strikers, owned by NFL all-star receiver Terrell Owens, never mounted a threat, recording only three strikes through nine frames.

Dallas continued to struggle in the Baker team finale, failing to record back-to-back strikes until the seventh and eighth frames, but the Strik-

WILL MOSSONTTE Is Nominated For SoCal Proprietor of the Year

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS — Will Mossontte is the Bowling Centers of Southern California (BCSC) nominee for BPAA Proprietor of the Year for SoCal. Tradition holds that such a nomination translates into virtual selection.

The nomination was announced by SCOTT FRAGER, Executive Director of BCSC. The award will be presented at BPAA Bowl Expo in Orlando this summer.

Mr. Mossontte has been proprietor of EMPIRE BOWL since 2008 and has turned a moderately performing center into a power house. It was Mossontte's business acumen and customer service that turned things around.

Taking after his father, BILL MOSSONTTE who owns three centers in SoCal, Will has stepped up to the plate by volunteering to make the bowling business stronger in southern California. Will serves on the BCSC Board of Directors and on its marketing and technology committees.

Of his many achievements one stands out among the rest. Mossontte was instrumental in bringing to light and educating the BCSC membership about important California OSHA laws. Because of his open and honest sharing many BCSC centers are safer and in better compliance with federal and state OSHA regulations. Will has also spent hours of his own time mentoring new BCSC proprietors on best practices for bowling center operations.

Will Mossontte is a credit to the bowling industry proving the benefits of BCSC membership. His leadership is spearheading a movement to improve customer service, increase cost savings and generate income.

Congratulations Will and thanks for being a great friend to myself and my fellow Empire Bowl keggers. We are fortunate to have you as "our" proprietor because you continually demonstrate your interest in providing us with an enjoyable bowling experience. You listen to us and act on our suggestions. We are grateful to the BOWLING NEWS for recognizing a Citrus Belt leader.

Keystone's JAT Sport Juniors Follow Beaten Path to Success

by David Schiada
NORWALK — Following outstanding performances at the Southern LA County USBC Youth Championships singles/doubles event, the JAT Sport Juniors returned to the Beaten Path last Saturday, a 41 foot oil pattern that rewards those who don’t wander off the main road.

We start with great scores from the girls this week, with Sarah Schneider rolling an 810 series for four games, including a high game of 231. Stephanie Zavala was next with a 783 series and a high game of 224. Spencer Van Rijsberyen continued his hot hand with a league high 813 series and high game of 239. Spencer raised his average to 196, taking over top spot in the league. One of the league’s talented younger bowlers, Zach Alayra, rolled a 187, his high game of the season and more than 50 pins above his average.

With the confidence that comes from bowling regularly on challenging sport patterns, JAT Sport Juniors flexed their muscles during the Southern LA County USBC Youth Championships singles and doubles competition. The top of the standings as of February 26 were dominated by JAT Sport Leaguers:

ers still had a chance after Jones left the 2-8-10 split in the 10th frame. Page, anchoring for Dallas, needed three strikes to pull out a one-pin victory, but left a solid 7 pin on his first ball in the final frame.

“We weren’t very happy with how things ended last year,” Barnes said, referring to Silver Lake’s sixth-place finish in the PBAL’s inaugural season. “We didn’t bowl very well. When Mark (Baker) came in (as team manager), we talked about the new rules and made some key additions (former PBA Players of the Year Malott and Jones).

“It’s nothing against the guys we had before,” Barnes continued, “but we went from two really good players to a contending player of the year (Barrett) and two previous players of the year. We like our chances moving forward.”

The final quarterfinal round elimination match will pit actor/comedian Kevin Hart’s Philadelphia Hitmen presented by High 5 Gear, led by team captain Bill O’Neill, against Pittsburgh Steelers all-pro linebacker LaMarr Woodley’s Pittsburgh Jack Rabbits presented by HotelPlanner.com, captained by Finland’s Osku Palermaa, on ESPN on Sunday, March 23, at 1 p.m. ET. The winner of the Hitmen-Jack Rabbits match will bowl the Silver Lake Atom Splitters on ESPN on Sunday, April 6, for right to advance to the Elias Cup finals.

Victorville California Siblings are Leading on and off the Bowling Lanes!

VICTORVILLE – Sister and brother, Lareece (17) and Jonnathein (16) Chambers, led their High School’s Bowling Teams to success – each leading Excelsior’s Varsity Girls and Varsity Boys teams – both winning the first place championship on February 27, 2014 at the Victorville Bowling Center, a certified High School League of the United States Bowling Congress (USBC)!

The Chambers are also members of a historic organization, The National Bowling Association, Inc. (TNBA), Inland Empire Senate, and were recently selected to represent the West Coast Region in leadership roles as Representatives at this year’s National Convention in Detroit, Michigan – this will be the first year of service for a two-year term of leadership commitment. They will work with other youth leaders from across the country to assist in planning future activities within TNBA’s Junior Program, participate in the operation of their local Senate’s Junior Bowling Program and receive mentoring and other service opportunities. This year, the Chambers look forward to celebrating TNBA’s 75th Anniversary!

Lareece’s and Jonnathein’s leadership experience on and off the bowling lanes has prepared them for this opportunity. They are involved in community service activities, serve their high school as associated student body (ASB) members, assist their teachers, tutor other students, and excel in their academics as honor roll students.

These siblings have learned that success is being well-rounded, and they have embraced the TNBA organization’s motto of “Sportsmanship, Fellowship and Friendship.” Though Lareece and Jonnathien have won and placed in a wealth of tournaments, they’ve learned that leading self and others is essential, and “how” you win or succeed on and off the bowling lanes is more important. Games and projects come to an end, but people must still move forward and work well together.

“TNBA Junior Bowlers are given instructions in the basics of everyday living, such as: a sense of fair play in sports and daily habits, respect for others, leadership, responsibility and honesty,” according to the Inland Empire Senate’s Junior Program’s web site content. In addition, Junior Bowlers are encouraged to finish high school and earn a college degree. The TNBA Organization engages in fundraising activities at the local and national levels each year, to support students in higher education through the Junior Program and Scholarship Program, Inc. (JP&SP) -- “Paving the Roads to Their Future!”

TNBA’s Vision
Our vision is that youth bowlers would develop a love for the sport of bowling through sportsmanship, fellowship and friendship through their TNBA (The National Bowling Association, Inc.) certified youth bowling programs and it fuels their desire to continue bowling and supporting TNBA into their adulthood.

TNBA’s Mission Statement
Our mission is to educate, train and encourage youth to become aware, interested and involved in the operation of their local Senate and The National Bowling Association, Inc through active participation and growth.
For more information about TNBA, visit <http://www.inlandempiresenate.com> and <http://www.tnbainc.org> or call the TNBA Inland Empire Senate President, Jacque Downs, at (909) 587-8494 or Junior Program Director, Patton “Spider” Calloway, at (951) 741-7271. THERESE LLOYD Converts Five Consecutive Splits

by Frank Weiler
MURRIETA — Every Friday morning donut lovers congregate at Cal Oaks Bowl to knock down pins and taste a variety of gourmet donuts. They bowl in the Donut Dunker League.

Therese Lloyd is the leagues leading lady with the league high average (177), high series (616) and high game (266). Lloyd is riding high on the lanes but told me that the best thing about the league are the “JELLY BUNS.” She loves jelly buns.

A couple of weeks ago Therese did something very unique. She converted five consecutive splits. The splits weren’t in consecutive frames but converting five consecutive splits any time is impressive. For the record, the splits popped up in two consecutive league games.

Therese’s conversion streak included making the 2-7-8, 3-10, 2-7, 2-4-10, and 3-10 in that order. Her string was snapped by a missed 7-10.

Therese is the best split maker I have ever seen, better than any PBA player. She probably converts about 50% of her splits. The toughest split she has made is a 4-6-7-10. She has never made a 7-10 but surely she will someday.

Great bowling Therese and thanks to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting Citrus Belt women.

The Conversation Went Something Like This...

Ring, Ring—

Deskgirl Heather: “This would be a great day to bowl at Del Rio Lanes. This is Heather, How may I help you?”

Caller: “I would like to arrange a birthday party for my 8 year old daughter.”

Heather: “What day do you have in mind?”

Caller: “This Saturday”.

Heather: “How many people will be bowling?”

Caller: “12 to 15 kids.”

Heather: “Will you want to order your food now?”

More Questions —Then the final bit of information.

Heather: “Can I have your name? Your address?”

Heather: “Sir, I’m not familiar with that street. What city do you live in?”

Caller: “Del Rio.”

Heather: “Sir, I’M at Del Rio Lanes in Downey, Calif.”

Caller: “Well, I’M in Del Rio, Texas so I guess the party’s off!”

Heather: “Thanks for calling.”

BURBANK — I simply cannot say enough about the many, great relationships I’ve formed through bowling. All types, sizes and genders. Some started as first time teammates, others as co workers for the the association and then those outside the doors of the center while having a smoke. I am not currently smoking and hope others can find their way to quitting but I have to say it was an icebreaker. Even at tournaments far from home, I made friends at the outdoor ashtrays.

I have a real passion for this sport and I have found it very easy to commiserate with others who feel the same. The ‘kid’ friends are really phenomenal! So honest, caring and talented. Today I went to the center to see some that I previously coached. One little guy was so happy to see me, I felt honored. I said “I’m so glad to see you again.” His response after giving me a giant hug was “I’m glad to see you too. Did you bring me anything to eat?” You see, I brought the kids treats every week so his question was completely logical. It made me chuckle and feel all fuzzy at the same time. Treasure your bowling friends. Whether young or old, they will be with you until the tenth frame.

ROUND 4 - WEEK 5

by Guess Who?

DOWNEY — Well, look who took over the top spot on the sheet this week! AMATEUR BOWLERS TOUR did a rock'in sock'em number on PINO'S PIZZA, and blanked them 5-0. Each game could have swung either way. 2 marks made the difference. Leonard Ruiz Jr. rolling for PINO's was high man on the pair after being presented his latest 300 ring.

Eddie VanDaniker didn't need a jump start stocking up his 632, throw in a 612 by Spanky Rosales, and whamo... ABT takes the lead.

Seven matches ended 5-0. That's 7 teams hitting the skids and 7 pecking on the adding machine.

The 6 other fivers include FOREST LANES, HEINIKEN, KEYSTONE, HERZOG INSURANCE, J.A.T. and G.J.C. SERVICES. HERZOG actually double/doubled their count for this round.

G.J.C. hopped a couple of places. SYSCO wiggled their way into second with a 4-1 over PRO APPROACH $$.

The "really big show" will be a repeat match-up between A.B.T. and SYSCO. Both teams are currently averaging 808! This might be the "maker/breaker" of Round 4. Monday will be week 6 of seven with five teams in contention.

Sometimes the round winner is a foregone conclusion or at least there was an odds on favorite. Now I hear about speculation, and maneuvering. What COULD happen keeps the pot perking!

Lots of greenbacks changed hands after each game — called "side-pots" if you are from Mars! Game One, Albert Chen stepped up and collected for his 235. Game Two was a little meatier with Andre Rounds slamming a 256. Game Three was a 224 tie between Mikey Villarreal and Justin Ziegler.

Lordy — Eric Snow snapped off Paul Barraco 247 to 246 for the Advisors $$.

But the big winner of the night was "super dad" Matt Mosely depositing $1,000 in the piggy bank for breaking the Strike Pot.

I've always tried to ralley the bottom teams to do better, but bitter is the taste of SKYY VODKA. Maybe you need to soak those Storm spheres in a bucket of vodka. Or send them rocketing thru the SKYY. Get some attitude! Get going! (Not this round, save it for next round.) Check out the next oil pattern, check into the pro shop and check out some new weapons! Meet me at the candy machine for the only PAYDAY in your future!

One more time — let's hear it for the Sponsors. Without them; no shirts, no scores, no enter. Thank all 24 of you!!
