Belmonte Wins GEICO Shark Open for 2nd World Series Title

Australian star wins second World Series of Bowling title, extends international dominance • Barnes Bowls 300

LAS VEGAS — Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, rolled the 22nd nationally-televised 300 game in Professional Bowlers Association history during the GEICO Shark Open finals, but he bowled it one game too soon.

After his perfect effort in the semifinal round, Barnes lost in the GEICO Shark Open title to Australia's Jason Belmonte, 244-213, in a match that extended the international dominance in the PBA World Series of Bowling to five consecutive titles. The finals, conducted at South Point Casino and Hotel, aired Sunday on ESPN.

The title was Belmonte's second in the World Series and the third of his PBA career.

The GEICO Shark Open, the fourth and final PBA "animal pattern" championships contested during the third annual PBA World Series of Bowling, almost got the best of Belmonte, who had struggled in the opening game of three previous elimination-format finals.

In the opening game of the "low man out" Shark finals, Barnes, who led the Shark field in qualifying, posted a 234. Sean Rash of Montgomery, Ill., making his fifth straight final, was next with a 205. Belmonte, with a double in the ninth and 10th frames, finished with a 190 to advance when Mika Koivuniemi of Hartland, Mich., failed to double on his first shot in the 10th, leaving a 2-10 split which he failed to convert for a 172 game.

In game two, Barnes was untouchable on his way to winning a $10,000 perfect game bonus. Belmonte continued to search for strikes, but Rash left splits in the first, third, fifth and seventh frames. Despite converting three of the four, he couldn't throw two strikes in a row and Belmonte survived their battle for the second berth in the title match, 215-182.

In the title match, Bel-

monte almost turned the tables on Barnes, finding his line to the pocket and running off a string of seven strikes to start the game. Barnes started with three strikes, but he then lost his carry. Barnes' 7-10 split on a soft pocket hit in the seventh frame gave the two-handed Australian power player a 51-pin lead. Despite an open frame by Belmonte in his seventh,

Barnes was too far behind to make up the difference.

"I would have liked to have thrown the 300 one game later, but I'll still take it," Barnes said. "I can't blame the last game on a bad start. I got out of the gate okay. But Belmo made a ball change, and moved farther inside. My ball started (hooking) a little quicker.

"The killer shot for me was in the seventh frame. I made the hand position change I thought I needed to make, but all of a sudden my ball was hitting flat like everyone else who has bowled against Belmonte, and I left that 7-10. I was pretty much dead at that point. He forced the action, which is what great bowlers do. That's what happens in one-game matches."

"When someone has just shot 300, you know the next game isn't going to be low," Belmonte said. "It probably won't be 300, but you know it's going to be good. As long as guys don't shoot 300 at me in the title match and there's still a way for me to get the win, they can bowl as many 300s as they want."

Belmonte, who ended a three-year title drought by winning the Chameleon Open earlier in the World Series, said confidence was the key to getting back into the winner's circle.

"My physical game is as sharp as it's ever been," he said. "If I do everything correct, the ball does the work for me. In the past, I was worried about what the ball was going to do rather than just making the shot and letting the ball do the work.

"When I'm bowling in normal competition, I'm always confident and I'm always ready to bowl strikes. But when you

SMITH, ARVANITIS & MANCINI TO BE INDUCTED INTO CUSBC HALL OF FAME

by Phyl Knoll

SACRAMENTO—It is with pride that we prepare for three very deserving members of our bowling family to be inducted into our California U.S.B.C. prestigious Hall of Fame.

The event will take place during our Annual Meeting June 10th, at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel in Sacramento. Honoree for Superior Performance will be Karen L. Smith of San Marcos. In the Meritorious Service category the honorees will be Nancy A Arvanitis of Oceanside and Carol J Mancini of Downey.

Smith has averaged over 200 for some 15 years, reaching as high as 220 at one point in her career. She has to her credit (3) 299 games; (4) 300 games and (2) 800 series (813). As an active member of the North County Association, she supports their annual tournaments. Smith has participated in numerous California State Tournaments, capturing a First Place finish in the "D" Division of the 2006 CWBA Senior Women's Championship Tournament and delights in the memory of when she was the only woman entrant in the SST Senior Tour coming away with a First Place finish.. Clearly, Smith is an all around outstanding accomplished bowler.

Arvanitis was introduced to the sport of bowling in 1956, at age 11 by her mom. Since there were no youth leagues then, her mom, who happened to be a great bowler, tutored Arvanitis for several years while bowling in her mom's league, the Ladies Masters. Showing much potential, Arvanitis drew the attention of Andy Verapapa, who volunteered to give her some lessons. Little did she know then how "famous" he had become. When Arvanitis reached her twenties, she became interested in the administrative aspects of the sport and was elected to a local New York Association Board of Directors. In the years following, Arvanitis and her two sons relocated to Vista, California. The day she arrived in Vista, she went to the local bowl and signed up for a scratch match play league and the following year enrolled her sons, ages 5 & 7, in the youth program at Vista Entertainment Center.

Carol Mancini

They bowled and she became a youth coach and again was "hooked". Arvanitis has served as the Local Secretary and President of North County YABA; Director, Sergeant-at-Arms, Vice-President and President of the Avocado WBA. She was appointed to the position of Secretary-Treasurer (later Executive-Director) of the CA State YABA in 1989 and continued in that position until the CSYABA merged with the CSBA and CWBA in 2006. Arvanitis has served the CUSBC as Second Vice-President.

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

by Connie Marchione

GLENDAL, CA—A Flash News email from Ken DeGroff, “Finally after one year and a surgery removing a cyst from my neck, I bowled a perfect game on Wednesday morning February 29 in Big Mac’s 560 League at Jewel City Bowl. Then that is my 29th career 300 game and my series were 227-209-300 736.”

This writer emailed back, “Congrats, Ken. Been a long time and hope that is just a warm-up to get more soon.” I could not believe my words when I got the following Flash News email from DeGroff on Friday night.

“Another perfect game and my 30th 300 rolled on Friday March 2nd in Linda’s Las Vegas League at Jewel City Bowl. Just bought a new ball Storm Vivid and started hit 300 in first game then 224 and 190 for a 714 series.” Congratulations Ken, for making it again, back-to-back two days apart.

For those who do not know Ken DeGroff. Ken became the first deaf or hearing-impaired bowler to hit back-to-back 300s in the late 1980s and later in 1090.made his name in ABC now USBC record book with another back-to-back 300 as bowler with two of them.

Gold Coast Still Perfect

by Aimee Gomez

DOWNEY—Gold Coast Hotel had a nice outing, with Kevin Valmonte leading the way 216-238/633, followed by Mike Cammarata 225/608 and Andrea Snyder 235/604. Gold Coast used these scores to sweep Linder Insurance.

The surprising third place Erickson Foods faced Heineken USA, and Ramon Torres of Heineken singlehandedly took them down, save for the third game when they tied. Torres shot 204-244-222/670 to lead his team and the pair.

Powerhouse Video had a couple of strong sets by Harry Wong 209-231/635 and Vernon Adams 210-202-221/633, and that was enough to overtake Larry Stephens' 202-224-210/636 series and sweep Brylaw Accounting.

Mike Faraci made a nice recovery from last week in order to lead his Tifco team to a sweep using his 205-214-231/650. The rest of the team also had some well-timed games to help Faraci take down Gregory Jackson 233/619 and Ramiro Garcia 201-213/609 of Clyde's Video Games.

Herzog Insurance got the better end of the split against Sysco, getting 3.5 in one of the many ties of the evening. Brandon Kraye 203-224-215/642 and Lee Liu 238-221/615 led Herzog while Deerronn Booker 201-258/617 and mystery sub Andy 224-215/606 were high for Sysco.

Arnold Cheesman 243-224/639 and Art Jones 211-200-216/627 led their Bowlum team to 3.5 points against ABTA's Matt Garcia 219-233-267/719 who tried really hard, and helped his team snag the second game, and a tie third.

In the battle of the Yamos, one of them did not show up! Kegel's Mark Curtis Jr 224-224-201/649 led the pair, and his team to a substantial first game victory that helped Kegel take three points. David Yamauchi led Tri-Star Vending's comeback second and third game victories with his 209-219/615 set.

Threadworks won four from Pro Approach thanks to Paul Varela 203-221/620 who led his team to within five pins of a sweep.

Have a great week!

Youth Tournament Director, and Youth Committee Chair; served on several National Committees; and is a Master Instructor, In-state Instructor and Bronze Level Coach. To quote Arvanitis, "I love my sport and my "kids". It doesn't get any better than this!" Arvanitis currently serves as a Director on the CUSBC Board of Directors and is Chair of the USBC Youth Committee.

Mancini of Downey, the Co-Owner and Publisher of the "California Bowling News", a Southern California weekly publication, for years has worked tirelessly "burning the midnight oil" each and every week in "Getting the News Out". During all of this she has maintained her employment as Office Manager of Del Rio Lanes, in Downey, a position she has held since 1983. As an accomplished bowling writer, Mancini is a member and supporter of the Bowling Writers Association of America, and the California Bowling Writers. Mancini's bowling career began in a league with her school gym class in 1952. She even spent one season of bowling Duck Pins while living in Norfolk, Virginia. While living in Sasebo, Japan 1957-59, Mancini bowled with a U.S. Navy travel team; serving as Secretary of three daytime leagues, all of which she organized. Moving to Newport, Rhode Island in 1960, she was introduced to Candle Pins until a Ten Pin center was built that year. She volunteered to coach the "Learn to Bowl Classes." In 1964 Mancini moved to San Diego where she became a Certified Bowling Instructor for all ages at Parkway Bowl in El Cajon. In 1967 she and a crew went door-to-door soliciting women to join their 30-week "Wig League". They would pay $3 per week and receive a "Wig" at the end of the league. Some 3,500 women signed up! Mancini was an active member of the San Diego WBA 1969-73. Not only did she attend all the association meetings but participated in all the Local, State and National Championship Tournaments. In 1973 Mancini moved to San Gabriel Valley where she worked diligently for Alhambra Valley Lanes; opened Village Lanes in 1978; and from 1980-83 handled special events for Java Lanes, Gable House Bowl, and Saddleback Lanes. Mancini was elected to the SGVWBA Board of Directors in 1979, serving on or chairing most committees; served as President from 1984-1999 and attended State and National Conventions as an elected Delegate for 14 years. Among her many accomplishments on the lanes, Mancini was selected as the 1969 San Diego Bowler of the Year and 1977 California WBA Doubles Champion. Her honors include recipient of the WIBC Joyce Deitch Trailblazer Award; CWBA Distinguished Service Award; WIBC Life Membership; SGVWBA Life Membership; SGVWBA Hall of Fame; and Southern California Bowling Writers Hall of Fame.

Brandon Grant 879 Series 300-280-299 Keystone Lanes House Record!

NORWALK — Brandon Grant will always remember February 29 (Leap Day), 2012. It was Brandon's night to bowl in the St. John's League at Keystone Lanes.

From the first ball of the night to the last ball of game 3, Grant was "in the zone". Pins flew, XXX's went up on the monitor in beautiful chains. How can so many strikes exhaust you? Ask Brandon.

His team captain recorded on the recap sheet Brandon's new house record of 879, on scores of 300-280-299.

Not even a chance to practice on his spare game!

TORRANCE – Here is our update of our last JAT event, held at AMF Bowl-O-Drome Lanes. This was our second installment of the Adult/Member Doubles event for the season and this report will focus on the handicap division of that tournament. We had 16 teams take part in this division with a team maximum average of 409. There was plenty of high scoring from both the junior bowlers and those that may still want-to-be. Seriously though, the adult bowlers put on quite a show and more than held their own. And there was no need to call the paramedics.

For the juniors in the qualifying round we had Frank Aldrete leading off this list of high scores with his 246-246-267 posting. Joining him was Matthew Zweig with 236-225-236-229. Way to bowl you two. Other highs from the juniors were from Baujee Harlan 246-244, Raheem Johnson 243-243, Tristan Beaner 239, Kyle Duster 236-225, J.T. Diso 229, James Knapp 228, and Jonnathein Chambers 224.

On the adult side we have Alan Hecht 233-287-256-250, Stevn Roderick 220-278, Andy Moran 275-245-268, Josh Gartrell 267-227, Jon Diso 244-246-235, Gabriel Martinez 223-222-245, Michael Ramos 244, Paul Nilsen 238-227-242, Mark Knapp 236, Todd Patten 222-235, Penny Miller (moms can do it too) 221-235, Michael Savolskis 231, Ken Redman 226, and Jonathan Gale 225.

After the five qualifying games by each bowler, the team of Diso/Diso led all at plus 489. The last to advance into the match play round came in at plus 140. So now on to the five games of Baker style match play.

Here we continued to see impressive scoring. This section will also introduce the teams (adult first) as all eight teams to advance had at least one reportable score. We have Martinez/Danny Martinez 247-254-234, Richard Aldrete/Aldrete 237, Diso/Diso 226-234, Moran/Eric Mandzuch 231, Savolskis/Chambers 227, Hecht/Johnson 226-225, Miller/Matt Miller 225/223, and Redman/Zweig 225. There was no change in position for the top four teams that would advance into the final round, just a padding of their lead by Diso/Diso to the tune of plus 883.

In the finals, we start with the 4th seed team of Savolskis/Chambers (+429) defeating the team of Martinez/Martinez (+503) 219-207. They then advanced and got by the 2nd seeded team of Aldrete/Aldrete (+760) 262-243. Now facing the top seed team and giving up 15 pins in handicap, they knew they'd have to be on their game. Already line-up Savolskis/Chambers took advantage of the few frames it took for Diso/Diso to find their line. When it was all over, S/C had ran the ladder to their first JAT title(s). Congratulations Michael and Jonnathein.

This week we resume our normal tournament with the JAT Farm Club normal format, at AMF Woodlake Lanes. Check-in begins at 8:15 and the bowling start around 9:00. Not many tournaments left in the season, so it's time to get your practice in and get out on the lanes for show your stuff. Hope to see everyone there.

Ashley Dunn & Vince Wood Take Adult-Member Doubles Ontiveros Is Perfect

TORRANCE—The JAT had our second adult-member doubles of the season at Bowl-O-Drome in Torrance. 36 bowlers took the lanes in the scratch division including several JAT Alumns. In qualifying, the team of Ashley Dunn/Vince Wood dominated the 5-game block at +353 followed by Oscar Chan/Danny Ontiveros at +280 and Karlie Loop/Jim Murtishaw at +265. Low to qualify in 10th were Vincent Bravo/Chris Groom at +147 who just edged out the brother/sister team of Robert and Brittany Page at +144. Danny Ontiveros wowed the crowd with a perfect 300 game in the last game of qualifying.

In match play, Dunn/Wood continued to break away from the pack by going 5-0 in their matches and leading the field at +636. Despite going 2-3 Chan/Ontiveros held onto the 2nd spot while Parker Brooks/Vance Sisk went 4-1 to move to 3rd followed by Karlie Loop/Jim Murtishaw taking their 3-2 record to 4th and claiming the last spot in the rollofts.

In the stepladder finals, the first match pitted 4th seed Murtishaw/Loop against 3rd seed Sisk/Brooks. Both teams were striking but it was the higher-seeded Sisk/Brooks advancing 232-217 to face 2nd seed Ontiveros/Chan. In the semifinal, neither team looked great but Ontiveros/Chan escaped with the win 196-176 to advance to the championship match. In the finals, top-seeded Wood/Dunn came out striking while Ontiveros/Chan were all over the pocket but a string of 7 consecutive pocket 9-counts put them behind and Vince Wood and Ashley Dunn took the title 223-192. Congratulations to Ashley on her first JAT title!

Our next tournament is this Sunday at AMF Woodlake Bowl in Woodland Hills. For more information, check out our website at bowljat.org and highlights of the final match and other JAT tournament finals can be seen on YouTube by searching for "Junior Amateur Tour". See you all on Sunday!

put me into the TV arena, my psyche changes and I can feel myself bowling differently,” he continued. “Today I felt like me. I felt great. I knew exactly where the ball was going. That’s how I was able to get out of that nervous frame of mind.”

Belmonte was at a loss to explain why the United States’ top stars had not yet won a World Series title, although he wasn’t totally surprised.

“In my opinion, the U.S. has by far the best bowlers in the world, but the world is catching up and I think the World Series of Bowling is proving it,” he said. “Stu Williams (England), Dom Barrett (England), Osku (Palermmaa, Finland), Martin Larsen (Sweden), Andres Gomez (Colombia), Ildemaro Ruiz (Venezuela)...there are so many international players who have now gone past the amateur level.

“It has taken us time for us to learn the tricks of the trade, and to understand the lifestyle (on the PBA Tour) and how to deal with it. But we’re at the point where we can come out here and be successful.

“In the past, (the international players) haven’t really come to the U.S. a lot and the Americans haven’t come to us, but now the PBA Tour and the World Bowling Tour are causing that to happen. It’s a cool thing.”

PBA World Series of Bowling competition continues on ESPN on Sunday, March 25, at 2:30 p.m. ET with the Mark Roth-Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship. Teams in the finals will include Belmonte bowling with PBA Hall of Famer and newly-crowned U.S. Open champion Pete Weber of St. Anne, Mo.; Bill O’Neill of Southampton, Pa., with 2012 USBC Masters winner Mike Fagan of Dallas; international teammates Gomez and Larsen; PBA Hall of Famer Norm Duke of Clermont, Fla., with Wes Malott of Pflugerville, Texas, and top qualifiers Ronnie Russell of Marion, Ind., with Rash.

In the interim, PBA players will head to Detroit for the third Xtra Frame Tour event, the Detroit Open presented by Track, March 9-11 at Thunderbowl Lanes in suburban Allen Park. First prize will be $10,000 and a berth in the Round of 36 for the season-ending PBA Tournament of Champions. All qualifying and match play rounds of the Detroit Open Saturday and Sunday will be webcast live, exclusively on the PBA’s online bowling channel, Xtra Frame. NO CAUTION, NO RED, JUST GREEN AND TIME FOR PARKIN IN 590 CLASSIC

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM — Missy Parkin, fresh off her outstanding 21st place finish in the US Open and impressive Japan tour, is still on the lead lap in the 590 Classic 2012 race. She is showing no sign of slowing down and is certainly a force to be reckoned with as evidenced by her Friday performance on games of 226-247-214 and a 266 finale to post a league-leading "checkered flag" 953. Congratulations!!

Dan Baker, throwing some heat, served up games of 227-286 and 225 to cook a 738. He then stirred in a 191 to whip up a tasty 929. Nice!

More HOT scores: E.J. Please keep Willy Bordenave in your thoughts as he undergoes surgery Monday, Mar. 5th for what initially started with a sprained ankle and escalated into a blockage in his leg. Willy was sporting a 217 league-leading average at the time of his injury. We ALL pray this surgery is successful and allows him to be his old competitive self very, very soon. Speedy recovery partner, we all miss you!!! Until next week...
