Ardani Rodas Making a Name for Himself at 15

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA — Ardani Rodas is generating considerable attention in the Winnetka Bowl youth league.

Ardani blasted his first 300 and 800 series on the same morning last month, blasting an 812 with scores of 267, 245 and 300.

And he just turned 15 in January.

It was an effort that triggered memories of Justin Pluchino, who graduated from the same Winnetka youth league two years ago with star potential . . . and has continued his success at the adult level.

"It was very exciting," said North Hollywood's Ardani, who just happens to be coached by Pluchino as well as Winnetka Bowl employee Daniel Giegoldt. "My 11th ball [in the third game] was a Brooklyn. I was scared."

Ardani, a right-hander with a fluid release, started in the Winnetka youth league as a 180 bowler. He's raised his average to a powerful 220 a year-and-a-half later.

"The kid's on fire," said ace bowler Billy Mulvihill, who bowls with Justin on Tuesday nights. "He's got Justin's work ethic. He works [on bowling] almost daily. He's a really good kid."

Ardani already has won a youth tournament title and would like to win more. He also would like to give pro bowling a shot.

Ardani, a shot-putter on his high school's track and field team, seems to have the mental discipline

Imperial Valley Queens Tournament

by Mickey Dale

EL CENTRO — Peggy Dale ran the table in match play with a perfect record to post her first Queens Women's Tournament title at Strikezone in El Centro. The Imperial resident won both matches on Saturday and equaled it Sunday to earn the Championship in the tournament sponsored by the local chapter of the United States Bowling Congress.

"I wished I would have bowled better," the newly crowned Queen said. "But, it was fun, and I enjoyed it. It's a great group of women."

The Championship match came down to the 2nd seeded Ananice Bush and the 3rd seeded Dale, the seeding's earned from a

PBA'S "60 MOST MEMORABLE MOMENTS" UNVEILING CONTINUES: 56 THRU 60

The countdown to unveil the complete list of the PBA's "60 most memorable moments" in its 60-year history continues, one a day, Monday through Friday, on PBA's social media outlets. The top 10 moments were announced on PBA's ESPN telecast of the Go Bowling! PBA 60th Anniversary Classic. Last week, "memorable moments" 60 through 56 were unveiled. Here are those five moments as the countdown continues:

- 56) Pete Weber tied for sixth place on the all-time PBA Tour titles list by winning his 26th title in the 2001 Great Lakes Classic. During that telecast, Weber also rolled a 299 in the semifinal match. It was one of the early telecasts under the "new" PBA ownership.
- 57) Sean Rash became the first player to bowl two nationally-televised 300 games in PBA Tour competition in the 2015 TOC semifinal match. His first came in the PBA Wolf Open in Shawnee, Okla., in 2014.
- 58) The PBA Lane Maintenance program was created midway through the 1971 season.
- 59) Bob Vespi and Chris Warren staged a tense duel in the 1991 Florida Open title match with Warren throwing three strikes in the 10th to win, 211-208.
- 60) The Dallas Strikers recorded the PBA League's first televised team Baker 300 game in 2016 at Bayside Bowl in Portland, Maine.

To check on releases of subsequent "moments" as they are revealed, check the PBA Network: PBA on Facebook (www.facebook.com/ProfessionalBowlersAssociation) or Instagram (pbatour); subscribe to the PBA channel on YouTube (PBABowling); tweet along on Twitter (@pbatour), and on the web: <https://www.pba.com/PBANetwork/Most-MemorableMoments>.

The PBA International-WBT schedule awards PBA Tour titles if the winner is a PBA member and, if a woman, she does not accept "handicap pins" as part of her score. The PBA-WBT series awards points which are used to qualify players for the end-of-season WBT Men's and Women's Finals.

The Brunswick Euro Challenge also could play a role in the 2018 PBA Tour Finals set for early May in Allen Park, Mich. Composite PBA and WBT earnings for 2016 through the PBA Xtra Frame Maine Shootout at Bayside Bowl in Portland, Maine, April 17-18, will determine the eight players who will compete at Thunderbowl Lanes in May.

The 2018 schedule includes the United States Bowling Congress Masters and Queens, and the Busan Cup in South Korea and the Storm PBA/PWBA Striking Against Breast Cancer Mixed Doubles, both new to the PBA-WBT schedule. Returning are the Storm Lucky Larsen Masters in Malmo, Sweden; the WBT Thailand in Bangkok, and the PBA World Championship which will be part of PBA World Series of Bowling X. Closing the WBT schedule will be the World Bowling Men's World Championships in Hong Kong, which is open only to players representing World Bowling member federations.

Additional tournaments that comply with World Bowling and PBA International rules are under consideration and may be added to the schedule.

Justin Pluchino, 22, Rips Back-to-Back 300's

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – Urged on by a throng of supporters, Justin Pluchino put on a show last week at Winnetka Bowl.

The powerfully built Pluchino blasted an 857 series after opening with back-to-back perfect games (300-300-257).

A madhouse crowd circled around Pluchino as he crushed one strike after another during River Maniacs league play Monday night.

“Half the house was down there,” said George Pluchino, Justin’s father.

Justin, a Winnetka resident who turned 22 in November, made a determined run at becoming the first bowler from the Los Angeles area to roll a 900. A sanctioned 900 series, or three perfect games, has been bowled only 34 times.

Pluchino’s effort ranks among the top series turned in by Los Angeles-area bowlers. Anthony Sharpsteen tops the list with a stunning 888 (289, 299, 300) in 2011 at now-defunct Mission Hills Bowl.

Other torrid series include Sylvester Foster blistering an 878 in 2016 at Pickwick Bowl in Burbank and Charles Kenny blasting an 876 at Jewel City Bowl in Glendale in 2017.

Pluchino’s bid for a 900 was foiled in the third frame of Game 3 when he left the seven pin. After picking up the spare, the right-hander rolled three more strikes before leaving the 10 pin in the 7th frame and notching a spare. He then rattled off strikes in the eighth and ninth and two more strikes in the 10th before ending the night with nine pins on his final shot (leaving a 10 pin again).

“He was in the pocket the whole night,” said Billy Mulvihill, who bowls on the same team as Pluchino on Tuesdays and rushed to the bowling center after being texted about Pluchino’s in-progress exploits.

Pluchino’s masterful performance ignited a virtual strike-athon from his teammates.

They all turned in scintillating efforts, led by Ray Stoy, who blistered a 694 (205-257-232). He averages 181.

Brandon Hart smashed a 655 with scores of 226, 215 and 214. He averages 192.

Justin Pluchino made a valiant effort at becoming the first bowler from the Los Angeles area to roll a 900 series. He finished with a brilliant 857 series. Photo by Fred Eisenhammer

And anchor man Mike Olson, with his powerful 210 average, hammered a 258 in his first game before finishing with a 635 series (258-207-170).

Pluchino is the top home-grown San Fernando Valley athlete in many years to have a legitimate shot at making a mark on the Professional Bowlers Assn. tour.

He was a dominating presence in his Winnetka Bowl youth league and he hasn’t skipped a beat since joining three adult leagues.

Pluchino has a 900 no-tap to his credit and he showed last week that a sanctioned 900 may be in the cards as well.

FONTANA – Every Saturday at 9:30 AM ten junior teams compete at Foothill Lanes. Lee Fitzgerald, Foothill Lanes junior coordinator, and silver coach BOBBY LYONS coach and mentor Fontana's youth. Lee and Bobby have 50 years of coaching experience and offer their youth bowlers a great opportunity to become better bowlers.

More important Lee and Bobby offer their youth bowlers the opportunity to become better people. These coaches emphasize integrity, sportsmanship and responsibility.

Austin Veteto is currently the top junior in the program with a 188 average. He recently rolled a 277 game and has a season high series of 663.

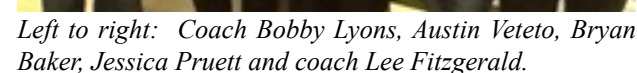

Anthony Watson and Zach King are second and third with averages of 180 and 177. I've bowled with Zach on numerous occasions and he is a real pin banger. He is a striker first and is capable of high scoring.

The girls are doing well with Mackenzie Chewning and Hanna Smith averaging 153. Raelynn Boswell has the high series of the season with a 565 with Chewning's 231 being the high game.

Other highlights include Jessica Pruett bowling a 208 game, 100 Pins above her 108 average. Rolling a game one hundred pins above your average is rare and a great accomplishment.

Bryan Baker rolled a 211 game while carrying a 143 average. Earlier in the season he bowled a 215. Bryan's high set of the season is 498.

Great bowling boys and girls and congratulations to Lee and Bobby for conducting a great youth program. Thanks to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting CALIFORNIA youth bowlers.

PBA REGIONAL PROGRAM HEADS INTO 49TH SEASON

As the PBA celebrates its 60th anniversary season in 2018, the PBA Regional program – born in 1969 with the inaugural PBA Regional Players Championship at Kingpin Lanes in Cincinnati – heads into its 49th year of providing a proving ground for aspiring PBA Tour players as well as a closer-to-home, more affordable arena for bowlers who were unable to compete full-time on the PBA Tour.

Over the years, the PBA Regional program has cultivated its own set of stars. Some players who used the regional program to develop their skills, like PBA Hall of Famers Pete Weber, Walter Ray Williams Jr. and Mike Scroggins, became superstars. Others – like Chris Warren (feature photo), Dale Traber and Ross Packard – became highly successful at the regional levels. A few – like Harry Sullins, Tom Baker and Ron Mohr – found the PBA50 regional program as a perfect outlet to extend their careers.

Since its inception, the PBA Regional program has conducted nearly 6,400 tournaments and awarded titles to just under 1,850 different players.

As the regional program heads into the 2018 season, here are top 10 lists of players who have excelled in PBA’s regional competition. The top 10 in combined standard and PBA50 regional titles is a tie between frequent PBA Midwest Region opponents, Dale Traber of Cedarburg, Wis., and Pete Weber of St. Ann, Mo., both with a total of 52 titles. Weber and Chris Warren, a Texas native who found a new home in Grants Pass, Ore., are tied for most standard PBA Regional titles with 47. Sullins, who hails from Chesterfield Township, Mich., leads the PBA50 Regional list with 22 titles, four ahead of PBA Hall of Famer Tom Baker of King, N.C.

During openings in the PBA Tour schedule, regional competition is abundant in all seven domestic PBA Regions: East, South, Central, Midwest, Southwest, West and Northwest. Schedules and entry information can be found on pba.com, and a “frequently asked questions” for regional newcomers can be found under the “FAQs” tab on pba.com (<https://www.pba.com/Resources/Faqs>).

ANAHEIM – Topping the list this Friday morning in the 590 Classic was Norm Walker. He obviously came to bowl and he had his game-face on tossing 235-242-269 for 746 and added 213 to score 959.

Next in line was lefty Terry Brent. He is always up to the challenge and never complains about lane conditions; too much oil - not enough oil, etc. He merely sets himself on the approach, finds his mark and hits it. His game is a simple one and very successful as he continually is in the top 5 every week and this week was no different as he stroked 204-267-204 and 268 to claim 943.

Chris Hefner, at the top of his game, turned in an even 900 on games of 247-oops 151 - back on at 243 and a nice 259 4th game.

Chris increased his average to 217 and has until May 4 to catch current leader, Ryan Sargent at 221. The race is on!!

Hot Series: Jim Moore 241/863, Don Gardner 234/862, Janet Anderson 223/861 and Andrea Fredericks 238/859.

BURBANK – In conversation with fellow bowlers, the subject of how a bowling center “feels” came up. I know, a strange way to describe a center but applicable all the same. It was decided that the décor was not as much of a deciding factor as was the staff and the management of the center.

Granted, all this was based on bowlers returning to a center at least weekly to bowl league and not the party crowd’s opinion. However, when league bowlers go to a tournament in a house that is new to them, they become a part of the party crowd mentality.

They access the center on it’s looks first and then by how well they bowl. The staff knows they will likely never see us again and treat us accordingly.

Home centers, however, have a larger responsibility to treat their league bowlers with a bit more care and when the league bowlers don’t get that, the “feel” of the place changes.

Personally, I think this is a two way street. Bowlers, as well as staff, need to be sympathetic to one another. The guy behind the desk may be dealing with a sick spouse or loss of a loved one.

Do you take time to ask how he’s doing or badger him that lane 2 isn’t setting pins properly?

Bottom line: Centers and bowlers have a symbiotic relationship. We need each other.

game match win over Toni Stauf in the handicapped-based tournament. A 443-390 win over Rita Noden was followed by a narrow 441-424 win over Jessica Pacheco to earn her place in the title.

Bush had a much more difficult path in the double elimination tournament. After dropping a close 426-423 match to Noden, Bush followed up with elimination wins over Stauf (437-328), top seeded Sherry Terrill (416-393), a rematch win over Noden (411-361) and a semi-final win over Pacheco (444-420) to lead to the Championship.

Before the title match, there was mutual respect shown by the bowlers. “She told me when she came up, she said I’m glad I’m bowling someone I know, and I felt the same way. I felt more comfortable but wanting to do well. Wanting to at least make my average (of 140).”

While Bush battled with fatigued, having bowled 10 games already in the tournament with the potential of 4 more to win the tournament, Dale fought nervousness.

“I was trying to not let my hands shake so much,” Dale revealed. “I couldn’t control the ball.”

Once the match started, she settled down with 141 and 158 scratch games and her handicapped total of 425 defeated Bush’s two-game total of 352.

“We need to see more (women) out here,” Dale said in looking toward more tournaments. “We all bowled well, and it was a lot of fun.”

When reminded that her name will be placed along with former Queens winners on a plaque at Strikezone, the newly crowned Champion had trouble finding the words to express her feelings.

“It doesn’t seem like I belong up there,” she said, adding “but it’s an honor.”

The IVUSBC is working on the next tournament, the April 7-8 Open at Strikezone and encourage everyone to check out their website at www.imperialvalleyusbc.com to get more information.

to maintain his skyward direction. “He’s a hard worker and a good listener,” Giegoldt says. “He doesn’t get frustrated when he misses a shot. He doesn’t do anything too fancy. He doesn’t try to overpower the lanes.”

“And he just turned 15. He’s amazing. A week after his 300, he bowled a 289.”

For his part, Ardani remains calm to all the attention he’s receiving.

But he knows he’s found his niche.

“I love it,” he says about bowling. It’s fun.

Saturday Sport League Report by Ken Clay

LAKE ELSINORE – Today was week two out of three on the PBA Scorpion lane condition. The bowlers turned up the heat this week with more great games and series than last week. In fact, we had a four-way race for the BotW award. But, I’ll save that for later. First, the high games and series.

Games Over Average: Larry Clay +22, Mondesi Saavedra +26, Shammon Williams +30, Fred Casassa +32, Christopher Clay +44 +33, Evelyn Lalas +45 +49, Robert Groth +66 +20, & Jimmy Casassa +82.

Series Over Average: Christopher Clay +83, Jimmy Casassa +87, Robert Groth +98, & Evelyn Lalas +109.

Games 200+: Evelyn Lalas 200 & 204, Fred Casassa 209, & Robert Groth 232.

Bowler of the Week: I thought that picking last week’s BotW was a tough choice but this week was even tougher. Christopher Clay bowled over his average every game and wound up just 9 pins short of his 1st 500 series. Jimmy Casassa came ever so close to rolling a 200 game at 197. Robert Groth rolled a 232 and finished a mere two pins shy of a century series. But, even with those fantastic games and series, the BotW must be Evelyn Lalas. She too exceeded her average every game with games two and three both being 200+ (200 & 204). This excellent performance resulted in her achieving the century series mark with a 109 pins over average 574 series! Congratulations Evelyn Lalas! You are the BotW!

If this sounds like a fun way to challenge your bowling skills, then contact Pins ‘N Pockets or go to facebook.com/groups/PinsSaturdaySport. Until next time, HAVE FUN AND FILL FRAMES!

SYSKO IMPROVES TO 16-4 FOR THE ROUND

by Mike Cammarata

DOWNEY – Cal Bowl had started the round with a perfect 10-0 but fell to Sysco last week. For most of the league, that was a good thing, as it brought Cal Bowl back to the field a bit. The win moved Sysco up to first place, which doesn't hurt any other team since their spot in the roll off has already been clinched. From Sysco's perspective, all wins are great, as it helps them with seeding come playoff time. Herzog Insurance went around Cal Bowl as well last week, moving up to the top pair to take on the Sysco squad.

Herzog Insurance was up to the challenge in the first game, winning by 119 pins, as Sysco struggled to a team score of 626. That was the end of Herzog's fortune though, as Sysco stormed back to win the second game by 144 pins, taking the lead for totals by fifteen. Sysco pulled away in game three, to finish the match with a 4-1 win, improving to 16-4 for the round. Gabriel Martinez of Sysco topped the pair with 256/610. Charlie Kinstler and Chris Eguilos were both in the 140's in game one, but rebounded to shoot 436 and 426 respectively over the final two games.

Threadworks battled Cal Bowl on the next pair. Threadworks took game one by 91 pins, behind a 226 game from Paul Varela and a 202 from Eric Snow. Cal Bowl made up most of that difference in game two with a 77 pin win. Leonard Ruiz Jr. led the way with 210. Game three went back to Threadworks though, 722-695, giving them a 4-1 win for the match. Paul Varela finished with a 225, for a 582 series (after a disastrous middle game). With the win, Threadworks will move up to the top pair to take on Sysco next Monday night. Cal Bowl fell to 12-8, disappointing after their torrid start to the round.

Romeo Borillo joined the Three Olives Vodka team tonight, and immediately led them to four wins over Los Altos Trophy. Romeo posted a 204/576 set in the victory. Three Olives Vodka improves to 13 ½ wins for the round, right behind Threadworks for second place, half a game ahead of Herzog Insurance.

Linder's Insurance got a 3-2 victory in their match against Buddy's Bowling Supply on the next pair. The total pins win for Linder's was based solely on their 131 pin victory in the second game. Arnold Cheesman was the top scorer on the pair, with a 202/572 set. It was the only 200 game shot on the pair.

Keystone Lanes took the first two games in their match against Bowlum, but lost the final game by 111 pins to lose totals as well.

Bowlum took the match, 3-2. John Vallin led the comeback in the final game with a 221, and had help from Billy Myers Jr. (212) and Ramiro Garcia (200).

Forest Lanes took the first two games in their match against the Professional Approach. Game three went to the Professional Approach, but not by nearly enough pins to get totals back. Forest won the match, 4-1, improving to 11-9 for the round and staying in the hunt with three weeks to go. DeeRonn Booker led Forest Lanes with a 258/606 set, followed by Eric Espinoza's 236/583.

DV8 swept past Tito's Handmade Vodka by over 250 pins. Tito's was using three subs, and their team was working hard to find substitutes, which seemed to be the theme of the afternoon. Jonathan Gale, also a sub, led DV8 with 211-207/611. Jeff Carr had a 221/600 as well in the victory.

Bowling Guys took four out of five games in their match against J.A.T., in spite of only having three players on Monday night. Daniel Updegraff led the pair with 200/564, pacing Bowling Guys to the victory. J.A.T. continues to struggle on the pattern, falling to 6-14. The good news for them is that they have already won a round. The bad news is that they are losing ground in the race for most overall wins, which impacts seeding in the playoffs.

Century 21-My Real Estate got five much needed wins from Don Julio Tequila, to end their slump that had lasted three weeks. Substitute Mike Tornatela led Century 21 with 234/589. Joe Jimenez added a 580 set Paul Varela won the first sidepot of the night with a 226 game. Gabriel Martinez struck his was to 256 to win the second pot. In the superpot for game three, it was back to Paul Varela. Paul shot a 225 game for $189.

Gabriel Martinez was the winner of the Financial Advisors Pot. He won $190 for his 258 game. DeeRonn Booker earned $100 for finishing second, bowling a 256.

The feature match next week will be Threadwoods vs. Sysco. Three Olives Vodka and Herzog Insurance are both only one game behind Threadwoods though, so the excitement will be there as we head into the final three weeks of the round. The action at Del Rio Lanes begins every Monday at 8:30 p.m. Head into Downey to catch the matches, enjoy some bowling, and see some old friends.
