Troops Say Thanks to California Bowling Writers

29 PALMS—The California Bowling Writers waited patiently for some word from the troops that received our phone cards and now, working with the Air Force/Army YMCA in dispensing our cards with their packages for the troops, the notes of thanks are pouring in.

Several of the wives whose husbands deployed out of the 29 Palms Marine Base sent thank you letters and a few excerpts follow: "When I talk to him on the phone it is the highlight of my day" (Lydia) "Luckily we have received one of your donations and I'm highly looking forward to hearing my Marines voice and that is all because of you. I'm stationed over here in 29 Palms and I have told my friends about your wonderful phone cards the AFYMCA is giving out. Thank you to everyone involved for your time and effort, it surely is not wasted! There is not a price tag you can put on what you are doing for the military members who are receiving these." (Carla) "I just wanted to tell you that I think what you, and anyone else involved, did for my husband and I, and all of our friends, was incredible!! It was great and I really want to thank you for it! It truly does mean more than you know that some one out there cares about the armed forces and their families!! So thank you so much for all that you have done!! (Jade)

The way the operation works as described by Anita Neu-Fultz, Director of the

ASYMCA is as follows:

"We work with the Family Readiness Officer, FRO, of each battalion and unit aboard the base of those Marines and Sailors who are deployed and their spouses or parent (Marine/Sailors dependent if he is not married and/or has children the parent is taking care of, here on base). The ASYMCA provided an opportunity, through the FRO, for the spouses/parents of deployed the opportunity to create a "CARE PACKAGE" of donated items that are sent to the Marine or Sailor. In the CARE PACKAGE are the phone cards along with other items. This year we provided the spouses/parents with donor contact information on a flyer and asked that the spouse/parent send a thank you, as well as the Marine/Sailor. Many times the Marine/Sailor does not respond to donors because of the conditions of deployment. A wife came in today very happy! She had not heard from her husband since December. He was with 1st Tanks. Because of his location & duty assignment, he did not have access to a phone until last night. He had received her CARE PACKAGE and in the package was the phone card that he used to talk to her and their 8 year old daughter.

This is the fifth year that CBW has supported this charity and to receive all of these thank you notes made it all worthwhile for us who work diligently to promote this. Our total last year was $6200

Citrus Belt Bowlers Roll High Scores at Cal Oaks

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA —This past month has seen three big series bowled at CAL OAKS BOWL. In mid February MIKE WILK rolled games of 297-257-299 for a 853 set in the Sun Coast Rollers League. The series was just three pins shy of the house record recently set by JUSTIN BORLAND.

Wilk is a righty with a unique style. Like his high roller dad, Mike swings the ball in a pendulum fashion two times before setting and taking his first step to the foul line. This rocking motion keeps him in perfect timing.

Later in February, right hander FRANK MAZEIKAS, JR., bowled 257-299-244 for a 800 series in the 560 Senior Scratch League. Frank keeps busy drilling bowling balls in the FAST LANES PRO SHOP run by JIM MURTISHAW within Cal Oaks Bowl.

The same day that Mazeikas bowled his series, lefty JUSTIN BORLAND rolled games of 289-244-269 for a 802 series in the 640 Scratch League. This was Justin's second 800 of the season, having already bowled the Cal Oaks record 856 series.

Naccarato Notches First Senior Win

LAS VEGAS — Jeanne Naccarato, Tacoma, WA, captured the 19th Annual Golden Ladies Classic in wire-to-wire fashion at The Orleans Bowling Center in Las Vegas. The former pro bowler and Hall of Famer averaged 219 to lead the first round of qualifying and never looked back. After 15 games of qualifying Naccarato was 16 pins ahead of best friend and former tour roommate Robin Romeo, Newhall, CA. in a contest available only to ladies over the age of 50 years.

The format called for dropping qualifying pins as the top 18 entered match play but Naccarato and Romeo continued their striking ways, entering the stepladder finals as the top seeds. Naccarato averaged 223 and won 14 of 18 matches while Romeo averaged 218, winning 13 of her matches. Opening match of the 5-person stepladder finals pitted former Golden Ladies winner and USBC Senior Queens champion Sandy Postma, Lansing, IL, against Lil Johnson, Lawton, OK. Postma prevailed, 204 -193, and then faced 2006 winner Char Hammel, Las Vegas. Postma narrowly defeated Hammel, 201-196, after Hammel suffered a split in the ninth frame. That was the end of the line for Postma as she next fell to Romeo, 158 - 215. Naccarato stayed out of trouble and defeated Romeo, 206 - 175 to take home the $2,000 first prize and trophy.

In the Super Senior (over 60 years) division Andi Whitlock, Middletown, DE, a past USBC Senior Queens champion, came out on top to win the trophy and $750. Whitlock averaged 202 and won 9 of 12 matches. Runnerup was Bennie Gemello, Tucson, who averaged 208 but only won 6 matches.

72 women from 19 states entered the event which is run by Jeanette Robinson, USBC Hall of Fame member. Robinson was feted by all the bowlers on Tuesday night in honor of her 80th birthday and as the founder of this popular event for senior women.

Final Standings:

Regular Division: 1. Jeanne Naccarato, Tacoma, WA, $2000 2. Robin Romeo, Newhall, CA, $1,100 3. Char Hammel, Las Vegas, $700 4. Sandy Postma, Lansing, IL, $500 5. Lil Johnson, Lawton, OK $450 6. Janine Ditch, Chino Hills, CA, $375 7. Karen Miller, Las Vegas, $360 8. Joan Reilly, Wilmington, NC, $350 9. Carol Jones, Englewood, CO, $345 10. Pam Lawrence, Pflugerville, TX, $340

Allen marked in the second and third frames before leaving a split in the fourth frame and then marked in the remaining frames finishing with a 234 with handicap. Carl left a split in the second frame and then stayed clean through the rest of the game shooting a 213 with handicap. John marked in each frame until the tenth frame finishing with a 225 with handicap. Anthony left a split in the second, opened in the fourth and fifth frames and then marked in the remaining frames finishing with a 206 with handicap. Anthony finished in fifth place and received a check for $100.

The second match saw Vernon continue with a hot hand striking in the first nine frames before leaving a ringing 10 pin in the tenth frame finishing with a 279. Carl opened in the first, fourth, fifth and ninth frame finishing with a 179. Allen struck in the first two frames, tripled in the fourth through sixth frames and doubled in the eighth and ninth frames finishing with a 260 with handicap. John started his match with a split and had splits in the fifth, seventh and tenth frames finishing with a 169 with handicap. John finished in fourth and received a check for $125.

In the third match between Allan, Vernon and Carl, the match was fairly close throughout, with Carl finishing with a 219, Vernon with a 247 and Allan finished in third and received a check for $250.

The final match saw Carl take on Vernon. Carl marked in the first two frames before opening in the third. He continued marking with strikes in the fourth and fifth, seventh through ninth frames finishing with a 229 with handicap. Vernon started with strikes in the first six frames, spared in the seventh and eighth, struck in the ninth and tenth and left the big four in the eleventh frame finishing with a score of 252.

NORWALK—Congratulations to the Keystone #2 team, who claimed the 2008-2009 league championship Monday, following the first game at Keystone Lanes. Members are Kathy Parrish, Daisy McReynolds, Bernice Bennett and team captain, Berneice King.

Credit also super sub Teri Hefner for her support when she was called in to finish the league for Berneice King, who suffered leg problems which required surgery and therapy. Although she was unable to bowl, after 35 games, she's now much improved and expects to attend the league awards luncheon on March 30.

She also wants to publicly thank Bernice Bennett for not only taking over team captain duties but also for conducting the weekly optional high scratch game and series event.

It's interesting to note that this team won the league title two years ago under the banner of Cal Bowl, and that Teri Hefner stepped in for Daisy McReynolds when Daisy was sidelined shortly after the league started and was unable to complete that season.

The rest of the league will continue to battle down to the wire on the final position round week to earn a few more dollars from the Position pay-off. Team captains will also draw for lane assignment for March 30th team sweeps. Cerritos Lanes hosts teams sweeps and we will bowl at 9:30 am to accommodate league members, sponsors and guests attending the awards luncheon. Reservation is slated again at Home Town Buffet in Cerritos, South and Gridley. The 16-place sweeps payoff will be announced and paid at the luncheon.

High scorers Monday were, Nancy Soto 228-561, Dorothy Scott 536, Vi Wilson 202-528, Teri Hefner 528, Jamie Vallier 515, Aresia McGee 514, Doris Lewis and Darlene Waken tied on 510, Audry Thibodeaux and Margo McClain tied on 507, Dee Phipps 506, Faye Billinger and Gina Harrison tied on 494, Joy Bennett 493 and 4-6-10 splitacular for Roberta McNaught.

League Meeting results: Nan McGill, Jay Haggerty and Roberta McNaught, audit committee, reviewed and approved the league and 50/50 financial report; President Roberta McNaught called for confirmation for team franchise renewal and there will be one Franchise available for next season in the 16-team league. (Call Alice at 562-423-1567 if interested) Cal Bowl will return to the schedule next season and the league maximum remains at 675 for 4-member teams. Election of Officers stayed the same, Roberta McNaught, president; Vi Wilson, vice president and Alice Meglemre, league manager The 2009-2010 league formation meeting is slated 10 a.m. Monday July 20 in the Cal Bowl conference room.

NEXT WEEK: FINAL WEEK AND POSITION ROUND AT 9:30 A.M. Monday, March 23, WESTMINSTER LANES. Also note 9:30 a.m. Team sweeps will be held at Cerritos at 9:30 a.m.

Lowell Who????

by Fran Deken

In November the USBC announced the new inductees for the 2009 USBC Hall of Fame. In the Veteran category it was Gene Stus, a well-known star of the senior circuit and in Meritorious Service it was Tom Kouros and Lowell Rothschild. Kouros, a top-notch coach and author of books on bowling as well as a columnist in the Bowlers Journal is known to many people in the bowling world but the question in many minds is "Who the heck is Lowell Rothschild?"

Of course, with the announcement came the bios on these folks and now everyone knows that Rothschild, a Tucson attorney, is a past president of the American Bowling Congress. Wait a minute, so were lots of guys and they're not in the Hall of Fame! In fact, only one past president, Max Skelton, is in the Hall of Fame! ABC presidents only served one year terms after moving up the ranks of numerous vice-presidencies and all of them served on many committees and put in a multitude of service hours. So what makes Lowell Rothschild special?

Lowell is what I would call a "go-to" guy. You go to Lowell to get things done, then Lowell goes to big corporations to get them to pay for it. Maybe that's a double "go-to" guy. If you read his bio that came out with the Hall of Fame announcement, then you know that he started the first Education committee to train association volunteers, then he proceeded to establish an award for the best of those volunteers, as well as handling the ABC legal committee, getting the PBA to sanction their events, and working to make single membership happen. Along the way he raised over a million bucks for the International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame. But did you also know that for many years Lowell has been involved with an organization called MaccabiUSA which sends Jewish athletes to the Maccabiah Games both in Israel and South America every four years. The games involve over 60 countries and 30 sports, including ten-pin bowling. He has served on their board, been a games organizer, chaired the ten pin bowling and is currently fundraising for the 2009 games.

But you still don't really know Lowell, a short man who's exceptionally long on brains, a man who's always smiling, has a great sense of humor and loves bowling, unusual traits in an attorney.

I was fortunate enough to be on the first women's bowling team that went to the Maccabiah Games in Israel in 2001, thanks to Lowell's fundraising and recruiting efforts. Lowell even hit on manufacturers for the newest balls, bags and shoes. When the team showed up with Storm's red, white and blue basketball spare ball, the other bowlers went nuts, begging us to give them the ball. Lowell was in his 70's then and he made the long trip to Tel Aviv in July to be with his bowlers. July in Tel Aviv is like being in Vegas with humidity! Israel only has five bowling centers so he made the one hour trip daily from Tel Aviv to Netanya, which has a 20 lane center (big for Israel), to encourage us and cheer for us and was thrilled when the women won more medals than the men, justifying his push to include us in the games. We asked Lowell to carry the flag in one of the medal ceremonies and he did it with great enthusiasm. Toward the end of our third week in Israel Lowell asked us if we thought we could get to Tel Aviv for dinner one night. We bowled every day until 5 pm but of course, we said it was no problem. Athletes at the games are fed buffet style and the buffet menu hadn't changed in over two weeks so all twelve bowlers eagerly taxied to his hotel and then we started walking in the 90 degree heat at 6:30 in the evening. "It's not far," said Lowell with a twinkle in his eye, "and dinner is on me." We still didn't know where we were going but Lowell is like the Pied Piper. He talks and you follow him anywhere. What a dinner - fabulous steaks, a private room, good wine and good company! Lowell told us stories about earlier Maccabi bowling teams that had us laughing so hard we cried. If anyone was owed a dinner, it was Lowell! Like any good lawyer he asked questions about ourselves and our families and he listened attentively, like any good lawyer. Lowell still bowls in a weekly league and plans to bowl the USBC Championships for his 46th time this year. He's the kind of friend who would give you the shirt off his back but, be careful, because his other hand is out for a donation to whatever cause he's currently working on. And since he's Lowell Rothschild, he'll probably get it.

National Deaf Bowling News

Joey Harris Hits 3rd Career 300

by Connie Marchione

LAS VEGAS—Another Team Nation guy grabbed the headlines besides Carl Malucci and Barrett Lee in the Mountain Siders league at Red Rock Lanes. Barely a month after he rolled his 2nd career 300 and came close to hitting another with a 288 in a deaf tournament at Sunset Station Lanes, Joey Harris hit his #3 perfecto last Wednesday March 11. The Las Vegas right-hander put together 12 strikes in his 2nd game in his (248-300-215) 763 series that upped his average to 211.

Now Team Nation boasts with 3 men with honor scores in the Mountain Siders league. Besides Harris' 300, Barrett Lee had 822 (288-244-290 on Feb. 4) and Malucci himself a 299 shot a couple weeks ago on Feb. 25 (see next story below). That night of Harris' 300, Team Nation hit 2614 with Barrett's wife Melchora's 568, Harris' 763, Barrett's 585 and Malucci's 698 but the team still had the league leading 2733 series. Malucci's 698 is his third under 700 series in this league, the other were 656 and 671.

MALUCCI ROLLED HIS 14th 299 GAME

LAS VEGAS...Last Wednesday Feb. 25 Carl Malucci came close to hitting his 42nd career 300 when his last ball of the night left a solid 7 pin standing for his 14th career 299 game. The fabulous left-hander shot a 779 series on games of 279-201-299.

The 279 had 7 front strikes and a solid 7 pin in 8th, spare and struck out and the 201 was a rough game with 3 splits and a missed 7 pin spare but luckily with enough strikes to pull it over 200.

MALUCCI HITS 17 CONSECUTIVE 700 SERIES IN ONE LEAGUE

LAS VEGAS—Although Carl Malucci already had the USBC record for the most consecutive (17) 700 series bowled in combined two leagues, he wanted to focus on breaking the old record in one league. So with his 13th consecutive 700s in his Sunday Mixers League at Red Rock Lanes on Jan. 25 being the last count stopped with a 656 series after 4 consecutive 700s in his Wednesday Mountain Siders League, he continued on to hit 4 more to break the record. Lets see how he did it.

On Sunday Feb. 1 did not bowl .

Sunday Feb. 8 rolled his 14th 705 (sorry I lost the scores)

Sunday Feb. 15 the team requested a make -up on afternoon of Feb. 22.

Sunday afternoon Feb. 22 team make-up, rolled his 15th 708 (221-244-243)*

Sunday Feb. 22 rolled his 16th 772 (233-260-pocket 7-10 split and 11 in row 279)

Sunday March 1st rolled his one league record 17th 749 (259-257-233) *With uncertainty of the legality of the make-up games bowled on the afternoon of February 22 next to half of the center with kids and people bowling in moonlight, camera flashing lights, being accepted or not. His 708 made under such distracting condition had 5 splits in it. Regardless of that Malucci is trying to continue his 700 quest on Sunday March 15. He did not bowl on March 8.

SN-CDBA HAS A WEBSITE FOR BOWLERS TO LOOK AT RESULTS

MORENO VALLEY—Southern Nevada-California Deaf Bowling Association Secretary-treasurer Stan Booth created a website for all bowlers and fans to look at the results of its 25th anniversary tournament held in Las Vegas. All one with computer has to do is put in internet <http://mysite.verizon.net/respevf2/sncdba> and click on what you want to read.

Saying Goodbye...

by Joy McGregor

ORANGE COUNTY—Although you cannot always see the bird singing, you can always hear her song....and Orange County says goodbye to past board member and director, Dottie Foley. Dottie lost her short but courageous battle with lung cancer on February 23rd. She was 78.

Dottie was a fun-lov'n, wise crack'n, good friend and hard worker. She was extremely talented in the arts and crafts field and was invaluable on all our board projects. She travelled as a delegate to many, many state and national conventions and tournaments. She loved life, cherished her family and friends and LOVED bowling. I believe she coined the phrase, "Thank You Bowling Jesus!" Dottie could be heard uttering this everytime she struck, converted a split or a difficult spare; always made us giggle!

Dottie was preceded in death by her eldest son Dennis in December of last year. She is survived by Dick, her loving husband of 60 years; children Richard, Sharon Meek (Gary) and Deborah Bennett; nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Our condolences go out to the Foley family. Sympathy cards may be sent to Dick Foley, 4045 Prospect #110, Yorba Linda, 92886. Dottie will be greatly missed by all who knew her. God Bless!

Blind Bowlers Going To Nationals

NORWALK—Once again, Keystone Lanes will be sending our blind bowlers to the American Blind Bowlers Association's National Tournament. In the past two years, California has placed in the top positions in the Nation. This year we will be sending Roy Ramsey, who was one of the Master's Champions, and Jason Eien, who is the past National Champion of overall events. Joining these two will be Dave Olsen and Brenden Wright.

This group will be going to Cleveland, Ohio, in late May and we are hoping for a National Championship team. Journey for the Blind, (The name of our California team) is preparing for this event. Although California is a large state, only two or three teams throughout the whole state of California, will make it to this event.

Journey for the Blind, is only four years old and already has made a name for themselves. We need to support them and let them know that bowlers across California and especially in Southern California are behind this great cause.

During the next two months we all will be tested because economics has hit all of us including the Blind. The cost of this trip will be close to $3,000.00. The Blind are raising funds to help the team and they are asking for any donations that could help them reach their goal to be the National Champions! If you have spare change, a few dollars or want to assist in helping our Blind, it will help make this dream a reality.

If you are interested in donating please contact us at 562-868-3261 and ask for Rob. You may also contact us at Journey4theblind@aol.com. All donations are tax deductible and it will be awesome to support our champion Blind Bowlers.

Journey for the Blind, we are proud of you, good luck and high scoring!

JAT Farm Club

by David Gordon

COVINA—Welcome to another update of the JAT Farm Club, the up and coming Finest Junior Bowlers in Southern California. On March 8th, we took our talent to Brunswick Covina Lanes, where we had twenty-three bowlers present. This is a rather small turnout and lead to a match play cut of only twelve. JATFC bowlers – where are you? We thank the staff and management for the fine accommodations for the day.

In the qualifying round we start off with the leader Brian Hernandez with a plus 156 for five games that included 236-244-257. Our qualifying high game came from our most recent champion, Ryan Melton with a 275 game. Other reportable highs in qualifying were from Brandon Pekins 268-267, Noel Sosa 256, Stevn Roderick 254, Wesley Low 253-232, Teddie Carter 226-242-231, Marty McDonald 242, Courtney Schult 236, Randall De Leon 224, and Victor Hilvano 224. The cut line to advance came in at minus 42.

In match play, we had more grand scoring from De Leon 300-223, Hernandez 268, McDonald 223-257-257, Pekins 236-225, Carter 232-226, Roderick 220, Gary Smith 220, and Gabriella Mayfield 220. McDonald made a six position jump from his 11th qualifying spot to get in to the finals. However, it was De Leon that jumped eight positions to take over the lead after ten games. Amazing what a perfect game will do for you.

The finals then started off with 5th seed McDonald (+163) taking on the 4th spot Hernandez (+180). Hernandez captured this match 241-214. Hernandez then met 3rd seed Pekins (+188) with Pekins taking this game 257-223. Now Pekins faced off with 2nd seed Carter (+215) as Pekins stayed lined up to carry a 221-182 win. Pekins moved into the final pairing against top seed De Leon (+273) looking for his first title since September 2007. De Leon would have nothing to do with that as he captured the first two games in the best of three, 230-223 and 192-169. This is Randall’s second Farm Club title this season. Congratulations Mr. De Leon.

Bowlers, I leave it up to you to get those other members out here. The more bowlers we start with, the higher the cut line. That statement includes this Sunday’s tournament at Linbrook Bowling Center. This will be our second Adult/Junior Doubles tournament with two divisions, scratch (team 400 and above) and handicap (team 399 and under). So speaking of handicap, let’s get those parents and adult supporters out there on Sunday. Each division will be allocated at least 16 lanes, so we should be able to comfortably field 32-48 teams per division. Let’s rock the place.

The format for both divisions will be five games qualifying, five games Baker match play, and top five Baker finals. Check-in begins at 8:15 with the action to begin shortly after 9:00. Adults, please bring a current league sheet with your “true” average or plan to take a, let’s see maybe a 225. Sounds good to me. Everyone – I’ll see you on Sunday morning.

JAT Mourns The Loss Of Mickey Colletti

The JAT is mourning the loss of its founder Vincent “Mickey” Colletti. Mickey passed away on February 14, 2009 just 10 days shy of his 85th birthday. See the information at the JAT website and please send a card to his family thanking them for his wonderful life and what he gave to junior bowling in Southern California.

Matt Jones Is Back

Matt Jones came back to JAT action with a vengeance announcing that he wanted to win again “where he got his start” and took care of business at Brunswick Covina Bowl. In qualifying, Charlie Hair made a run at the top-seed with a 300 game in Game 6 of qualifying to get to +260 just shy of Jones’ +284 lead. Eddie Sayles rounded out the top-12 at +111 on the high-scoring condition. In the bracket, the top-3 seeds moved into the quarter-finals joined by Cort McPherson who was on fire on the left side. Charlie Hair took out Travis Zehntner 2-1 while Jones cooled down Cort by posting 523 for his two games and advancing 2-1. This set up a match of the 1 and 2 seeds for the title. Jones continued slamming the pocket taking game one 247-237 and game two 265-223. Congratulations Matt and welcome back!

Adult/Junior Tournament This Sunday

This Sunday is our second Adult-Junior tournament of the season. We’ll be making our way down to Linbrook Bowl for this very fun event! There will be two divisions- 399 and under handicap (bring proof of average) and 400+ scratch. We will be using the Classic Format- 5 games of individual qualifying followed by the cut then 5 games of Baker Match-Play to qualify for the Top-5 Baker finals. Entry fee is $75 per team- there will be $2 scholarship brackets for the juniors, $5 scratch brackets for the adults and the $252 Match Twenty-Five will be open to everyone- $2 for juniors and $3 for adults. Special raffle for a bowling ball of choice as well as door prizes for all bowlers. Parents, brothers, sisters and friends we hope to see you all on the lanes this Sunday!

USBC Makes Age Change

USBC has made a ruling to change the eligible age for junior bowling to 20 years old beginning next season. I am seriously considering instituting an adult sanctioned “Senior Division” next year for bowlers age 21-25 if they do not consider making changes to the ruling. The “Senior Division” would bowl with the JAT on Sundays except the prize fund, brackets and sidepots would be cash. Please drop me your comments at director@bowljat.org so we know what you are all thinking too!

Huber Converts 7-10 Split

by Roberta McNaught

ANAHEIM—Bowling in the 590 Classic last week, super sub Lenny Huber picked up the nearly impossible 7-10 split. After leaving another 7-10 earlier in the game, Lenny tossed the ball hard down the lane at the 7 pin, sliding it over & behind the 10 pin, kicking it out for the conversion. Lenny also was the league leader with a 919 series on games of 212, 203, 255 & 246.

Showcasing the lady kegglers we had Jenelle Jellsey with the only other 900 for the week. On games of 237, 255, 201 and 213, Jenelle shot a 905 series.
