Junior CHRIS TUCKER Rolls His Second 800

by Frank Weiler

INDIO — Chris Tucker has been sensational over the last twelve months.

His sixteenth year saw him rolling two eight hundreds and a perfect game.

He had an 821 (266 - 258 - 297) and an 811 (256 - 279 - 276), both rolled at Fantasy Lanes in the Fantasy Youth League.

In addition to a peck of big scores, CHRIS IS A STATE CHAMPION.

He won last years Pepsi California State Scratch Singles title for young men under twenty. He will be defending his title later this month in Victorville.

Chris did well in the recent Citrus Belt Youth Tourney and showed why many observers feel he has a bright future in bowling. He is a power player who should strengthen the college team of his choice.

Tucker is coached by STACEY LONG. The Fantasy Lanes Youth Program is directed by Mrs. Lang, who is assisted by RICHARD BOIS, STEVE LASH, MICHELLE LOERA, DEBBIE LOU-HEIZER and HEATHER ROOSEVELT.

Citrus Belt President MIKE RADDEMAN is grateful to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting his youth bowlers.

This Sunday: Jack Rabbits & Hitmen Battle for Final PBA League Semifinal Berth at 10 a.m. on E.S.P.N.

ALLEN PARK — The last semifinal berth in the 2014 PBA League season will be filled when LaMarr Woodley's Pittsburgh Jack Rabbits presented by HotelPlanner.com meets Kevin Hart's Philadelphia Hitmen presented by High 5 Gear in a quarterfinal matchup Sunday on ESPN at 1 p.m. ET.

After Sunday's telecast from Thunderbowl Lanes, the PBA League will be down to four teams that will advance to semifinal action beginning March 30 on ESPN.

In each PBA League round, teams are competing for points in a head-to-head series of single-elimination matches that include singles, alternate-ball doubles, Baker trio and Baker team formats. One point is awarded for a win in the singles, doubles and trios contests with three points awarded for a Baker team win. Should there be a tie at the conclusion of the match, a one-ball sudden-death roll-off will determine the winner.

In Sunday's opening singles match, three-time PBA Tour winner Osku Palermaa, bowling for the Jack Rabbits, will meet four-time Tour winner Bill O'Neill bowling for the Hitmen.

In the alternate-ball doubles match, PBA Tour winner Ronnie Russell will pair up with three-time Tour winner Eugene McCune for the Jack Rabbits, bowling against the Hitmen's Dan MacLelland and two-time Tour winner Ryan Ciminelli.

In the trios match, the Hitmen's O'Neill, 2011-12 PBA Rookie of the Year Josh Blanchard and two-time Tour winner Mike DeVaney will battle the Jack Rabbits' Palermaa, Russell and Martin Larsen.

The Baker team match will feature the Hitmen lineup of 13-time Tour winner Patrick Allen, Larsen, McCune, Russell and Palermaa vs. the Jack Rabbits' DeVaney, Blanchard, MacLelland, Ciminelli and O'Neill.

Sunday's winner will advance to a semifinal matchup on April 6 against Chris Hardwick's Silver Lake Atom Splitters presented by Spiceworks (Chris Barnes, Bryon Smith, Dom Barrett, Wes Malott and Tommy Jones) who defeated Terrell Owens' Dallas Strikers presented by USBC (Norm Duke, Mike Machuga, Amleto Monacelli, Dave Wodka and Rhino Page), 5-1, in the match that aired on March 2. The March 30 semifinal match on ESPN will pit Chris Paul's L.A. Online PBA League Auction to Benefit Chris Paul's CP3 Foundation

SEATTLE — A special Professional Bowlers Association League auction begins today on pba.com featuring a variety of autographed merchandise donated by PBA League members. Proceeds from the online auction, which ends on Wednesday, March 26, will benefit NBA star Chris Paul's CP3 Foundation.

The online auction is the conclusion of a competition between PBA League teams that began during the PBA World Series of Bowling V at the South Point complex in Las Vegas in November. A special PBA League Skills Challenge pitted the eight team captains against each other in a series of unique bowling events, with the winner earning the right to name the charity that would benefit from the auction. Jason Belmonte, the captain of the L.A. X team owned by Paul, won the challenge, and he selected Paul's charity as the benefactor.

Established in 2005, the Los Angeles Clippers' all-star point guard's CP3 Foundation provides funding for activities ranging from a scholarship program to food drives to recreational support programs for children in under-served communities. FISSER 761 TOPS DEAF TRAVEL'S BAD DAY AT BRUNSWICK COVINA LANES

COVINA — On Sunday March 9, Southern California Deaf Traveling League had a very rare bad day in its 54th year at Brunswick Covina Lanes. On that day's scheduled position round, all 6 trio teams bowled bad, more than 30 pins per team game below their team average. The league leader, Eagle Rock scored the day's high team 4 games series 1889 that is 171 pins below its 2060 average.

Not one bowler hit 800 as all six top bowlers hit below their average. Mark Fisser led with the day's high 4 games series 761 starting with 203, 169, 158 and closed with the day's high game 231. Bob Jones, like Fisser also had two bad games 175-147, finished with 205 and 201 for 723. Dan Flores struggled with 151-189-147 and succeeded with a 224 for 711. Gorman Low had a 201.

In the position round matches, despite Jones' 1st place Eagle Rock winning the team series point, 2nd place Fisser's Anaheim with Emad Aranki's 5 points offsetting Eagle Rock's Bob Taylor's 5 points beat Eagle Rock 11 to 9. Anaheim gained only two points cutting Eagle Rock's lead to 12 and half points.

The other two matches were close too and the teams retained their positions. Fourth place Low's Riverside beat Jeff Stansell's third place Mid City 11.5 to 8.5. Fifth place Flores. S. F. Valley beat 6th place Orange County 11-9.

Anyway the league thanks Brunswick Covina Lanes for the challenging lane conditions the bowlers hoped not to go through next time.

Next stop is at a high scoring house Jewel City Bowl this Sunday March 23 at Noon. Fisser's Anaheim will be matched against Flores' S. F. Valley. Lefty Jones' Eagle Rock faces Lefty Leroy MacMonagle's Orange County. The fate of scheduling has Stansell's Mid City facing Ed Abakumoff's Riverside again.

Note: MacMonagle's Orange County team needs a bowler with 160 and below average to replace Gardy Rodgers who injured his knee. Any interested deaf bowler with that average can come to Jewel City Bowl to join and finish the season. See Ed Abakumoff or Bob Taylor.

Support Chuck Pezzano Scholarship

Anyone for Lasagna?

by Mary Lynly

One thing I know about bowlers is that we love to eat and we cook! I worked on this cookbook for two years and finally have it published – over 100 pages of tried and true recipes that my family and friends used and loved for years. I am selling the cookbook to benefit the IBMA 2014 Chuck Pezzano scholarship fund. Postage is expensive so I am asking you to pre-pay and pick up at the USBC Convention in Reno. I will have your personalized book in the exhibit area. Price is $20 and if you want a book mailed please add $7.50 for postage. More than one add $2.00.

Please join me in this fundraising effort for a worthy project in honor of one of Bowling’s most noted journalists – Chuck Pezzano.

Keystone's JAT Sport Juniors Enjoy A Pepsi Break

by David Schiada

Though the open road of the Autobahn pattern was calling on Saturday, the majority of the Keystone JAT Sport Juniors had taken a detour to bowl in the Pepsi Youth Championships. Those who did bowl their league games on Saturday found the 42 feet Autobahn pattern to be a tough road test. The high series this week was from Michaela Buhain who rolled a 715 for four games while the high game of the week was rolled by Mandy Arriola with a 212. The JAT Sport Juniors will get another spin on the Autobahn next week.

On Saturday at the Pepsi Youth Championships District Finals at Oak Tree Lanes in Diamond Bar there were some outstanding performances by the JAT Sport Juniors. Joe Grondin shot a 666 series for his three games while Patrick Rodriguez rolled a 660 series. Great scoring!

Youth bowlers interested in joining the JAT Sport Juniors league and taking their game to the next level should contact Armando Zavala at (562) 896-4467.

by Phyl Knoll

TORRANCE — The roaring 90's League at Gable House Bowl, Torrance, extends sincere CONGRATULATIONS to league member Bob DeAlba on his First Amateur Bowlers Tour Title on March 9th at Westminster Lanes. Bob is an experienced bowler, having a 2012-2013 average of 206. He is credited with four certified 300 games and a high series of 796.

Bob was the top qualifier on Sunday's ABT at +166 and won three straight Match Play Games to capture the Championship. He was throwing his Roto Grip Defiant ball, drilled by the "Great" Rusty Bryant of "The Pro Zone" pro-shop inside Mission Hills Bowl.

Bob says he has several people to thank in offering him their encouragement during his quest. "First, I of course, thank God who has allowed me to compete at age 66. I'm so appreciative of the wonderful bowling instructions from my dear friend Hall of Famer Andy Marzich; I am forever grateful for ABT Directors Bill & Wendy Cable & Allen Thompson; Jerry Ernst who coaches at Westminster Lanes; Westminster Lanes for hosting this great tournament; and, it goes without saying thanks to Phyl Knoll for her acknowledging my accomplishments. Finally, last but not least... my wife, Geri Curtis for all her love and encouragement. You are the reason behind my success. I love you Honey".

Congratulations Hank Baber Jr. on receiving your ring for bowling an 800 series at Cal Bowl October 23, 2013.

Congratulations John Dunn on receiving your trophy for bowling a 299 Game Oct. 2, 2013 at Cal Bowl.

Sysco Wins Round 4
by Mancini the Great

DOWNEY — Sysco barely cracked the 2100 mark with their 2102 for the night, but came up a winner! If they had bowled any other team that was in contention, (5 teams were) Sysco would have tumbled into fifth place.

Spares plagued their opponents - A.B.T. Nicole VanDaniker and Spanky Rosales didn't break 500 which was frustrating, and Sol Cericos and Eddie VanDaniker could only stand by and watch.

A tough night, on tough lanes, for tough competition. So, twenty teams will be vying for the last "spot" and the two "wild cards." Knowing the bowlers on the already seated teams, they will keep the heat on and points won't come easy!

March 17th will be known this year as the first meeting of the Ebonite "500" Club. Sixty-seven members qualified! The "600" Club couldn't make a quorum. Nineteen of the "400" Club gave up their bragging rights.

Ramon Torres was alone on the 700 podium. 701 gives him top billing but no side-pot loot.

First side-pot went to Claude Dottin 234, #2 pot Gabriel Martinez 269, #3 pot Mikey Villarreal 227, and Advisors was picked up by Martinez's 269 and Mark Curtis 258.

Butch Jackson went home with a pocket full of green, winning the Clean 30 pot (with 26.)

Next week starts the last eight weeks of this years great Ebonite league; four 2 week segments, with the first two weeks being bowled on the "house shot." Three more patterns were voted on and we'll talk about that later. More great bowling ahead!

P.S. Special thanks to Josh Tajiri for setting up the live internet feed... very cool!!
