Dick Allen Wins PBA Cheetah Championship

Allen also notches seventh career title in first event of PBA World Series of Bowling X on FS1

ALLEN PARK, MI – Dick Allen of Lexington, S.C., defeated Kyle Sherman of O'Fallon, Mo., 234-195, in the title match Monday to win the PBA Cheetah Championship for his second tour title of the season and seventh of his career.

As the first event of PBA World Series of Bowling X, the Cheetah Championship finals telecast was the first of four consecutive live PBA Tour telecasts on FS1 this week from Thunderbowl Lanes.

The 40-year-old Allen, in his 20th year on the Go Bowling! PBA Tour, had things in hand from the start striking on the first five shots and opening up a lead that Sherman could not challenge.

"I just focused on keeping it together and not falling apart," Allen said. "When you have a good lead you don't want to let the bad thoughts creep in, or the good thoughts either. Just focus on making the best possible shot every frame and fortunately I was able to do that."

Allen, who won the PBA Lubbock Sports Open in January, ran his career singles title match record to 5-1 and joined PBA Hall of Famer Norm Duke as the only two-time winners this season.

"When I get to TV I'm hard to beat," Allen said.

Bowling on the PBA 33-foot Cheetah lane condition, the telecast opened with a seeding round that determined the qualifying order for three stepladder matches. Allen earned the top seed for the finals with a 230 game followed by No. 2 qualifier Rhino Page, Orlando, 173; No. 3 qualifier Sherman, 172, and No. 4 qualifier Matt McNiel, Minneapolis, 163.

The four finalists survived Round-of-16 and Round-of-8 best-of-five elimination rounds earlier Monday after qualifying rounds bowled last week to advance to the telecast.

The 25-year-old Sherman burst out of the gate with a 290-152 win over McNiel and then went on to beat Page 229-204 in the semifinal match to advance to the title match against Allen.

Sherman's second-place finish was his career best in a tour singles event in three seasons as a pro. He finished second with partner Brad Miller in the Mark Roth-Marshall Holman Doubles Championship earlier this season.

Veterans Take To The Lanes For 72nd Annual BVL Veterans Bowling Tournament

Annual Event Encourages Recovering Veterans To Keep Active

FAIRFAX, VA – Thousands of veterans are expected to hit the bowling lanes over the next month in the Annual BVL Veterans Bowling Tournament, which runs March 15 through April 15.

The tournament encourages veterans receiving care at VA Medical Centers to compete in the annual event as a fun and challenging physical activity. The tournament is open to all veterans connected with the VA Medical Center system, and is coordinated through recreation therapists onsite at VA facilities and local bowling centers. Recreation therapists often utilize bowling as an activ-

ALLEN PARK, MI – As top qualifier for the 2019 World Series of Bowling X PBA World Championship stepladder finals, Australian two-hander Jason Belmonte finds himself once again one more match win away from a record 11th career PBA major title.

The stepladder finals of the fourth event of WSOB X, and the third major of the 2019 Go Bowling! PBA Tour season, will air live Thursday (March 21) at 5 p.m. on FS1 from Thunderbowl Lanes in suburban Detroit.

The four-time PBA Player of the Year and World Championship defending champion earned top-qualifier honors for the finals by posting an 8-8 match play record and 12,953 56-game pinfall total (including match win bonus pins) after Saturday's match play rounds.

"I'm feeling confident as I usually do when I get to this point – maybe a little more relaxed because we have a few days before the (World Championship) finals," said Belmonte, a 19-time tour winner. "It's a little more rewarding when you come back from a slow start. First, you just chip away, and then if you get the lead stretch it out if you can."

The title match of the World Championship will offer a $1 million bonus if Belmonte or his opponent can bowl a 300 game.

Belmonte won the PBA Tournament of Champions in February for his 10th PBA major title to tie PBA Hall of Famers Earl Anthony and Pete Weber for

Bethany Hudson Scores Big at Citrus Belt Women's Tournament

VICTORVILLE – The first weekend of the Citrus Belt Women's Tournament saw some great bowling and super scratch scores on the Route 66 oil pattern.

Bethany Hudson, last season's Citrus Belt Women's High Average Bowler (217), scored big with a singles scratch score of 702 (200-245-257) which followed her doubles score of 649 (167-204-278).

Everyone thought Bethany would roll a perfect 300 game in her last doubles game when she rolled twelve consecutive pocket shots but tapped mid-game and again on her twelfth and final shot for a huge 278 game.

Bethany's teammates also scored well with PAULA VIDAD rolling scratch scores of 629 (doubles) and 656 (singles). LAURIE

SOTO shot a 646 doubles score and about 660 in singles.

A tournament rookie, KATHY NAKANO, rolled a solid 212 game with nine natural strikes. With three more strikes Kathy would have had her first 300 game!

Great bowling ladies. Your display of poise during competition and the flawless execution of

Barbasol to Sponsor 2019 PBA Tour Finals in Las Vegas

CBS Sports Network to Air Finals Live from Red Rock Bowling Center July 20-21

CHICAGO – Barbasol will be the titled sponsor of the 2019 Barbasol PBA Tour Finals, presented by Red Rock Casino Resort & Spa in Las Vegas, Professional Bowlers Association CEO and Commissioner Tom Clark announced.

The PBA’s partnership with Barbasol, which began in 2013, will include 10 hours of live coverage on CBS Sports Network July 20 and 21 from Red Rock Bowling Center, one of the nation’s premier bowling facilities and a preferred vacation destination for bowling fans. In addition to its title sponsorship of the PBA Tour Finals, Barbasol will renew its sponsorship of a special “Close Shave of the Day” highlight in each segment of the Tour Finals.

“We are very proud to continue our long-standing partnership with the PBA,” said Tim McNamara, Vice President of Marketing at Perio, Inc. “Barbasol’s rich legacy of sports sponsorships and strong American heritage are a great fit with the PBA and its loyal fan base. We are looking forward to this year’s Tour Finals in exciting Las Vegas.”

The 2019 edition of the Barbasol PBA Tour Finals will feature the top eight players based on competition points compiled during the 2018 and 2019 Go Bowling! PBA Tour seasons ending with the USBC Masters on April 1. Fans can follow the points race by visiting this link on pba.com after each tournament: <https://www.pba.com/SeasonStats/PointsList/132?list=5>.

“The PBA has been very proud of its partnership with Barbasol and we are excited to renew it in association with our PBA Tour Finals on CBS Sports Network,” Clark said. “If traditions hold true, the eventual champion will end up with a Barbasol shaving cream pie to the face.”

Heading into the PBA World Series of Bowling X, defending PBA Tour Finals champion Jason Belmonte of Australia was the leader on the two-year points list with 36,020 points. The other players in the top eight included Anthony Simonson, Little Elm, Texas (34,109); 2017 Tour Finals winner EJ Tackett, Bluffton, Ind. (33,732); 2018 PBA Player of the Year Andrew Anderson, Holly, Mich. (28,258); Jakob Butturff, Tempe, Ariz. (27,082); Marshall Kent, Yakima, Wash. (26,462); Kris Prather, Plainfield, Ill. (25,951), and Sean Rash, Montgomery, Ill. (24,586). Bill O’Neill of Langhorne, Pa. (23,432), and England’s Stuart Williams (23,291) were in ninth and 10th place, respectively.

Fans who would like to attend the 2019 PBA Tour Finals can secure rooms at Red Rock at a special PBA discounted rate by visiting: <https://reservations.redrockresort.com/cgi-bin/lansaweb?PROCFUN+RN+RESNET+RRS+funcparms+UP%28A2560%29::PBARATE:::??> Or call the hotel reservation line (702-797-7625 or 866-767-7773) and use the code PBARATE to reserve within the block. All reservations need to be made prior to June 26 cutoff date. A detailed tournament schedule with ticket information and lane conditions will be announced later.

ity for recovering veterans as the sport is adaptable to most skill levels and physical abilities.

President Truman hosted the first BVL/VA Bowling Tournament in 1947 on the White House lanes for hospitalized veterans returning from battlefields in Europe and Asia.

Teams of five veterans bowl a total of 40 games then submit scores to BVL. Bowlers compete in seven divisions, including two for electronic bowling – Inpatient, Outpatient, Seniors (60+), Wheelchair, Vision Impaired, Electronic Bowling, and Electronic Bowling Seniors (60+). All competitors receive a certificate of participation, and the top three teams in each division receive medals. The tournament concludes on April 15, and team coordinators can submit scores online at BVL.org through May 1, 2019. Winners will be announced in June.

“Bowling is a sport for everyone, and this tournament has proven to be a valuable program for veterans as they look for fun, competitive ways to challenge themselves during their recuperation and ongoing recreation therapy,” said BVL Executive Director Mary Harrar. “BVL is committed to supporting our veterans through therapy programs and services that give them access to positive challenges and long-term recovery.”

BVL is bowling’s own and oldest charity, raising more than $50 million dollars since 1942 to provide recreation therapy grants at VA hospitals and clinics for America’s veterans and active duty service members. Fundraising events in bowling and entertainment centers occur throughout the year, with many efforts centralized around National BVL Month each November. For additional information on BVL programs, please visit www.BVL.org.

PBA REGIONAL UPDATE: “ROOKIE” MITCH BEASLEY WINS FIRST PBA50 TITLE

FAYETTEVILLE – Mitch Beasley of Clarksville, Tenn., bowling in his second tournament as a “senior,” defeated Jeff Bellinger of Columbia, S.C., 258-238, to win the PBA50 Fayetteville South Open at LaFayette Lanes in Fayetteville, N.C., Sunday for his first PBA50 title.

Beasley, who turned 50 in November, won $1,900 along with his 21st overall PBA Regional title. He went into the 10th frame needing a strike to win the title and did just that, finishing his final frame with three strikes to clinch the victory. Bellinger pocketed $1,000 as the runner-up.

In the semifinal round, Beasley narrowly escaped his match with Craig Auerbach of Sunrise, Fla., winning a one-ball, sudden death roll-off, 10-9, after they tied at 289-289. Beasley threw first and struck. Auerbach followed, leaving a ringing 10 pin. In the other match, Bellinger disposed of non-PBA member Jerry Horn of Lexington, S.C., 233-223.

• A busy schedule of PBA Regional activity resumes over the March 22-24 weekend with the PBA50 Rossi Lanes East Open in Elmira, N.Y.; the Hubbard Central Open presented by Brunswick at Bell-Wick Bowl in Hubbard, Ohio; the PBA50 Allstate Monte Skeets Midwest/Central Open presented by Ebonite at Liberty Lanes in Carpentersville, Ill.; the PBA50 Ultra Star Multi-Tainment Center South Open at Harrah’s Cherokee Casino in Cherokee, N.C., and the Caveman Bowl Northwest/West Open presented by DV8 in Grants Pass, Ore.

• For complete PBA Regional schedules, rules and entry information, visit pba.com, open the “schedules” tab and click on PBA Regional Tours to find the event(s) in your area...and remember, you can follow “live scoring” for all PBA Regional events on pba.com (easily accessible for Apple and Android device users using the PBA app).

QUICK NOTES:

• The PBA will be well represented when Team USA heads to Peru for the 2019 Pan American Bowling Confederation Men's Championships April 22-28 for competition in singles, doubles, trios, team, all-events and Masters events. Members of the team will be PBA members AJ Johnson of Oswego, Ill.; Darren Tang of San Francisco, and Nick Pate of Inver Grove Heights, Minn., along with nine-time Team USA member John Janawicz of Winter Haven, Fla., and Team USA rookies Perry Crowell IV of Chesterfield, Mich., and Sean Wilcox of Altamonte Springs, Fla.

• Veteran San Antonio, Texas, bowling writer Harry Page has died. Tragically, the popular writer passed away at age 71, hours before he would have learned he was the International Bowling Media Association’s selection as its 2019 Luby Hall of Fame Award.

first on the all-time list. The following week, also as top qualifier, he was denied an 11th major title losing to fellow two-hander Anthony Simonsen of Little Elm, Texas, in the title match of the PBA Players Championship.

Qualifying second for the World Championship finals was part-time tour player Matt McNiel of Minneapolis, who put together a 12-4 match play record and a 12,630 pinfall total, 323 pins behind Belmonte after 40 qualifying and 16 match play games.

McNiel, making his first tour singles television appearance, has finished 11th in the last three World Championships. He has a best tour finish of fifth, which came in the 2015 Roth-Holman Doubles Championship with Anthony Pepe.

Qualifying third for the finals was 10-time tour winner Bill O'Neill of Langhorne, Pa., with a 10-6 match play record and 12,603 pinfall. O'Neill, trying for his second major title, won his 10th career title in the season-opening PBA Hall of Fame Classic in January.

Five-time tour winner Jakob Butturff of Tempe, Ariz., compiled a 12-4 record in match play and finished with a 12,597 pinfall to qualify fourth for the finals. Butturff, trying for his first major win, won the PBA Oklahoma Open in January for his fifth career tour title.

Qualifying fifth for the finals was BJ Moore of Greensburg, Pa., with a 7-9 record and 12,518 pinfall. Moore, who has a best tour finish of second in the 2016 Scorpion Championship, will be making his second major telecast after a fifth-place finish in the 2018 Tournament of Champions.

Live WSOB X telecasts on FS1 will begin when FOX Sports airs the championship finals of the PBA Cheetah, Chameleon and Scorpion Championships live on FS1 on consecutive nights Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at 5 p.m..

After the World Championship telecast on Thursday, WSOB will wrap up with the telecast of the tape-delayed USA vs. The World team competition Friday, also at 5 p.m.

The four finalists for the Cheetah, Chameleon and Scorpion Championships will be determined after single-elimination match play competition earlier on the days of their respective FS1 finals telecasts.

The match play rounds will be streamed on FloBowling.com. Click on www.flobowling.com for subscription information.

1989 – PART 1

by Carol Mancini

Oh my gosh! 30 years gone by and we're still around to write about and read the headlines of the year. Everyday someone will ask me if I remember "this bowl or that bowl". Of course I'm glad in 2019 to give them some kind of a stock answer. OR, find out what they remember!

- Don Johnson, proprietor of Keystone Lanes, was a favorite subject of Frank Kietz (a reporter for Bowling News.) Others included Lou Kasnick, Mickey Cogan, Harry Grant, Glenn Allison, Bob Smith, Ann Marie Pike, Robin Romeo, Stacy Rider, Art Goddard, Virginia Norton, and Chris Schenkel.
- The Dr. Pepper float in the Rose Parade featured gigantic pins and a giant ball. The pins actually fell over and straightened back up.
- New Club- "Happy Bowlers Tour" was billed as the "Biggest Little No-Tap Tournament." Their logo was the Happy Face.
- Bud Horn was Manager at POM Lanes before moving to Vegas where he managed for the rest of his career.
- P.B.A. announcer Randy Pederson (a young Randy) won the AC-DELCO at Gable House and collected $27,000. Randy was living in Santa Maria. Chuck Yeager presented the check and trophy.
- Walt Stuetz was director of the WWPB. Lou Kasnick showered the ladies with great gifts week after week. His reward? His picture on the front page once in a while.
- Mike Kutlich (San Diego Great) and Gip Lentine battled at Mission Bowl to win PCS bucks. Mike bagged the biggest batch.
- The Del Rio Lanes Saturday night "Pot Shot" No-Tap Tournament averaged 100 bowlers every week for more than 4 years.
- Grand Central Bowl in Portland was always getting confused with Grand Central Bowl in Glendale. Both were always advertising for mechanics.
- Robin Romeo- Pro Bowler and Pro Shop owner at Canoga Park won the LPBT Canoga Park Classic. She banked $5,000 and a diamond necklace from "Santa" Lou Kasnick.
- Canoga Park Bowl changed their name to Winnetka Bowl to match their city's name change. Who ever heard of a city changing their name??
- An article by Al Sabo (New staff to Bowling News) spotlighted a few J.A.T. graduates, like: Mark Baker, Anne Marie Pike, Eric Forkel, Donna Adamak, and George Bramwell III. A very successful graduate was Joe Roussin, bowl manager and later salesman.
- Ladies! Smile- Dudley Peebles has his camera handy as photographer for W.I.B.C. and later for California W.B.A. He met thousands of women, but his wife Connie was his life partner. He was eventually put into the California W.B.A. Hall of Fame. (I'll bet you still have some of his photos.)
- The P.B.A. (Western Region) at Palo Alto had a few southern shooters signed up: Larry Gray, Gip Lentine, Jim Murtishaw, Jim Tilton, Troy Kendrick, Ross Packard, Kevin Gannon, Mike McGrath, Doug Johnson, Chuck Hansen, Tony Figuiera, and Glenn Kawaguchi. (I can hear you! "I remember them.") It's ok to remember when your star was shining.
- B.J. Kern rolled the highest series ever by a woman in the Long Beach W.B.A. 792.
- Allen Shaw was the Corbin Bowl proprietor. He loved Hawaii and wanted to build a center there, but no one wanted an "indoor activity".
- Johnnie Englehart was a LABA Director while Hank Yobs was President. Johnnie won more than he gave away, Right???
- The Brunswick Rhino ball was the rage. It came in 4 "breeds": black, grey, blue, and wine as advertised.
- The San Gabriel Valley W.B.A. was looking for scorekeepers for the State Tournament at Rowland Bowl and Friendly Hills.
- Palmdales Vista Lanes opened. 40 beautiful Brunswick lanes.
- Hobabooth rolled the first 300 at re-named Winnetka Bowl.
- Plaza Lanes in Long Beach hosted the Rolln' Donkey Tour. Bet you forgot about Plaza Lanes!
- Newly opened Chaparral Lanes hosted the LPBT $40,000 San Dimas Open the last of February. Competitors included Leila Wagner, Tish Johnson, Virginia Norton, Donna Adamak, Lisa Wagner, Anne Marie Pike, Betty Morris, Robin Romeo, and Aleta Sill. Winner was Dede Davidson.
- Mike Foster rolled the first 300 game at Chaparral Lanes.
- Noel Orcholski, Secretary of the San Gabriel Valley MBA passed away February 28. Cause unknown.
- Larry Neri was in the headlines every week for the Happy Bowlers Tour. Always had the biggest smile for the camera!
- Rowland Bowl had new owners (Same as Westbrook, Valley View, Verdugo Hills). BIG re-model. New scorers, lanes resurfaced, new ball lifts, masking units, seating, pro shop, the works! The one thing they SHOULD have fixed was the air conditioner. State Tournament ladies have horror stories about the deadly heat wave! All the NEW stuff came in after the Tournament!
- Strange want ad- If you have worked in any capacity in a bowling center, if you are male or female, if you are white, black, yellow, red, orange, or green, send us your resume.
- Darold Dobs elected A.B.C. Secretary replacing Roger Tessman.
- New members in So. Cal Hall of Fame included Jay Etcheverry, Minnie Hirata, Ike Hildebrand, and Wanda Kinsley.
- On March 12, 1989 Bert Strain (Donkey Tour) celebrated her 64th birthday. March 12, 2019 Bert celebrated her 94th birthday! As beautiful as ever!
- Active West ad for their new bumpers. "Let Active West keep your kids out of the gutter."
- Tom Leigh won the Corbin Bowl No-Tap. Tom is now a director for No. L.A. County Assn. and California State Assn.
- Frank Wong posted a 300 in City Tournament at Santa Anita Lanes. The bowling God took Margaret Roth March 13 to be with hubby Herb. What an awesome pair. Heaven is better now, more angels.
- Men's State Tournament had over $300,000 in prize fund for 2,911 teams, 7,297 doubles, and 14,594 singles. CSBA Secretary was Vern Reilly.

As we travel through the years, page by page, the J.A.T has remained strong and produced most of California's great competitors. J.A.T. events in 2019 provide talented teens a stage on which to compete. The J.A.T. staff is a most dedicated crew, setting the rules, providing the arena and guiding the teens into adulthood. A THANK YOU comes from every parent, every coach, every grandparent and every J.A.T. member- past and present.

CAL BOWL BOWLING REPORT

by Heather Dawson

2500 E. Carson St., Lakewood, CA 90712 • (562) 421-8448

LAKEWOOD — Bowling is a sport for people who have talent to spare....

Cal Bowlers: Congrats to the weekly side pot winners: Game 1. Elese Lewis, Game 2. Barbara Weeks, Game 3. Denise Baker. Carole Fischer 578, Danne VanHorn 483, Janet Love-Reece, Anna VonMuegge 198, Carolyn Rouseau 198, Denise Baker 198.

Senior Men's Trio: Ask Jojo Jasmin which nasty pins he left on the best ball he rolled all day...As many pins as he has J's! Roy Coleman 276, Chuck Blais 268/708, Chauncey Brown 267, Mauro Pendilla 266, Emmerson Wafer 259/711, Gary White 723, Jerry Cant 714, Sonny Dew 694.

Marcus Lemons: The Bowlers here have decided to take a vote on removing the 10 pin from the game of bowling. Do you think it'll pass?? Chris Aguino 297/629, William Cosley 256, Steve Bryant 256/705, Erik Peace 246, Will Young 244, Mitchell Grissett 237, Ronnie Lemons 236, David Fitzgerald 649, Ray Jenkins 637, Daryl Brandt 630, Natak Williams 278/683, Teya Woodman 267/651, Emeka Williams 245-229/685, DEnisha Williams 226/632, Felecia Tripp 223/590, LaJeana Harris 216/629.

BUDDY'S BOWLING SUPPLY PULLS AWAY WITH TWO WEEKS TO PLAY

by David Yamauchi

DOWNEY – The Brunswick Invitational took the lanes with just two weeks to go in the 4th round. The standings started to widen with only a couple sets left to determine a round winner.

In the 'A' match, Buddy's Bowling Supply was firing on all cylinders this round holding a two-point lead over two teams including their opponent Captain Morgan. Buddy's held their ground as the round-leaders as they swept past Captain Morgan 5-0. Donell Carter and David Schiada led Captain Morgan with 557 sets while sub Brient Killings was big for Buddy's with a solid 612 set. Buddy's increases their lead and will remain in the 'A' match next week.

In the 'B' match, the other 14-6 team Junior Amateur Tour was matched up with the strong third-round winners Cal Bowl. J.A.T. came out strong the first game but Cal Bowl came back to take the second game. The third game came down to the 10th and a couple shots cost J.A.T. the game by 20 and totals by 7 as Cal Bowl took the match 4-1. Kurt Arakaki led J.A.T. with a 609 set while super-sub Chris Eguilos paced Cal Bowl with a solid 620 set.

DV8 and 3 Olives Vodka were three back in the round going into tonight's action. 3 Olives took Game 1 by 73 and Game 2 by 103 to take a 176 pin lead into the last game. DV8 came out strong in Game 3 and Raul "Spanky" Rosales' punch-out in the 10th frame capped off a 279 game and a 185 pin victory to steal the two points for totals. The 279 capped off a 675 series to lead DV8 while Eric Snow led 3 Olives with a 635 set.

Keystone Lanes and Bowling Guys matched up their 12-8 records in the 7 vs. 8 matchups. Bowling Guys started out strong taking a close Game 1 but it was all Keystone Lanes from there as they cruised to a 4-1 win. Bryan Osborne led Bowling Guys with a 542 set while Herbert Jones led Keystone with a 562 set.

Bowlum and Professional Approach were the high of the 10-10 teams going into the night. This match was all Professional Approach as they swept past Bowlum for the 5-0 win. Harry Wong was huge with a 690 set to lead Professional Approach while Danny Wilson led Bowlum with a 523 series.

Also sitting at 10-10 were second-round winners Century 21-PEAK and Threadworks. Threadworks started off with a win but it was Century 21-PEAK finishing up the set with two wins and totals. Eddie VanDaniker paced Century 21 with a 604 set while Shannon Santos led Threadworks with a 561 set.

Tito's Handmade Vodka paired up with first-round winner Sysco. Sysco came out big with a 106-pin win in Game 1, took Game 2 by 150 sticks, but dropped Game 3 for a 4-1 win. Gabriel Martinez was back in the groove for Sysco with a 605 series while Juan Zavala went big with a 616 set for Tito's Handmade Vodka.

Don Julio Tequila, Linder's Insurance, Forest Lanes and Herzog Insurance rounded out the night's action. Forest Lanes took a 4-1 win over Herzog Insurance led by Ray Minter's 616 set. Nacho Vega led Herzog with a 579 series. Don Julio Tequila came out strong to take game one but it was all Linder's Insurance from there as they took a 4-1 win. Linder's was led by a huge 705 set by Jonathan Huezo while Pat Tollefson paced Don Julio with a 593 set.

Financial Advisor's pot went to Jonathan Huezo (256) for $185 with 2nd going to Gabriel Martinez (240) for $100. Sidepots went to Nacho Vega (223) and Gabriel Martinez (240) for $50 each with 2nd going to Kurt Arakaki (220) and Eric Snow (234) for $25 each. SuperPot was paid to Spanky Rosales (279) for $175 with Stephanie Zavala (222) taking 2nd for $50.

Come on down and see some of Southern California's greatest bowlers battle as they tackle the 1.9:1 USBC Nationals Team pattern next Monday night at 8:30 at Del Rio Lanes.
