This Young Bowler is Flying High

by Fred Eisenhammer

PLEASANT GROVE, Calif. – It's not accurate to say that bowling star Amanda Vogt has had her head in the clouds since she rolled her first 300 game last month.

That's actually been the case since she started flying planes a couple of months before she turned 16.

Amanda is the youngest female private pilot in the country – having fulfilled all the requirements on her 17th birthday last year. That morning she successfully completed an oral exam and went on a check ride with a Federal Aviation Administration examiner.

Previously, Amanda passed an FAA written exam, went on multiple cross-country solo flights and flew many hours with an instructor in addition to her dad, a captain for Southwest Airlines.

Amanda, who will turn 18 in August, has had a longer history with bowling, having started at age 6.

A resident of the Sacramento suburb of Pleasant

Grove, Amanda has been racking up bowling accomplishments.

The blonde lefthander was named the 2016 Northern California Junior Elite Tour player of the year and on Feb. 10 fired her first perfect game.

So Amanda is a definite standout in two disparate fields – and she's not taking sides as to which she prefers.

"I don't think I could pick a favorite between the two," she says. "I really love doing both."

It shows.

Amanda, the bowler, carries a lofty 214 average. She has a high series of 715. She's qualified for the prestigious Junior Gold Championships in July in Dallas. It will mark the seventh time she'll be competing in the event.

"It's always a great learning experience no matter the outcome," she says.

The sky's the limit on her bowling, no pun intended.

Sweden's Jenny Wegner Wins Brunswick Euro Challenge

Handicap pins thwart Anthony Simonsen's 10th frame comeback

MUNICH, Germany – Thanks to the assistance of eight handicap pins awarded to all women bowlers in the tournament, Sweden's Jenny Wegner won the PBA International-World Bowling Tour Brunswick Euro Challenge Sunday at Dream-Bowl Palace, thwarting a 10th frame comeback bid by tournament leader Anthony Simonsen.

Simonsen, the top qualifier, quickly fell behind when Wegner, the 2016 Qubica AMF World Cup women's champion, started the title match with five strikes. But the contest changed direction when the 23-year-old Swedish kindergarten teacher failed to convert the 1-2-4-10 wash-out in the seven frame. She still had the match under control until she left the 2-8 in both the ninth and 10th frames. Despite failing to convert the 1-8 spare in her final frame, the eight handicap pins-per-game awarded to all women in the tournament allowed Wegner hold off Simonsen for the title.

Simonsen, who had thrown only one strike on the right lane previously in the match, threw two strikes before leaving the 10 pin on his final shot for an actual 213-211 margin, but with her handicap pins, Wegner won by a 219-213 margin.

Anthony Simonsen 2nd, Jenny Wegner Champ & Yannaphon Larpapharat 3rd

Simonsen, a 21-year-old two-handed player from Austin, Texas, started the seven-game Step Three match play round with games of 300, 287 and 278 – an 865 series – to expand his lead and he comfortably maintained his position all the way to the championship match.

In the first match of the three-player stepladder finals, Thailand's Yannaphon Larpapharat dug himself into a 21-pin hole after failing to convert a pair of splits, and Wegner had a double and a turkey in a clean game for a 233-214 win to advance to the title

PBA'S "60 MOST MEMORABLE MOMENTS" UNVEILING CONTINUES: 51 THRU 55

The countdown to unveil the complete list of the PBA's "60 most memorable moments" in its 60-year history continues, one a day, Monday through Friday, on all PBA Network outlets. The top 10 moments were announced on PBA's ESPN telecast of the Go Bowling! PBA 60th Anniversary Classic. Last week, "memorable moments" 55 through 51 were unveiled. Here are those five moments as the countdown continues:

- 51) Prior to the 1974 PBA Midas Open finals, a lane breakdown forced the PBA to use lanes from non-adjointing pairs for the finals. In the second game, Jim Stefanich threw the PBA's third perfect game on TV, the first and only time that feat occurred. Dick Ritger won the title, but Stefanich won a $10,000 bonus plus a new Lincoln-Mercury Cougar.
- 52) At age 57, John Handegard defeated Mark Williams, 278-247, to win the 1995 PBA Northwest Classic in Kennewick, Wash., becoming the oldest player to win a PBA Tour title.
- 53) Michael Haugen Jr. overcame a 53-pin deficit through six frames to win the 2008 PBA Tournament of Champions, 215-214, over Chris Barnes at Red Rock Lanes in Las Vegas. Haugen's five-strike rally forced Barnes to get 20 pins in the 10th to force a tie. After converting a spare, Barnes left the 4 pin on his last shot.
- 54) In 1962, Don Carter won four titles, earned $49,972 in prize money and recorded an incredible 18 top-five finishes.
- 55) Mike Durbin became the first bowler to win the Firestone PBA Tournament of Champions three times when he defeated Mike Aulby, 246-163, at Riviera Lanes in Fairlawn, Ohio. Durbin, who also won the event in 1972 and 1982, was inducted into the PBA Hall of Fame earlier that week.

To check on releases of subsequent "moments" as they are revealed, check the PBA Network: PBA on Facebook (www.facebook.com/ProfessionalBowlersAssociation) or Instagram (pbatour); subscribe to the PBA channel on YouTube (PBABowling); tweet along on Twitter (@pbatour), and on the web: <https://www.pba.com/PBANetwork/Most-MemorableMoments>.

FONTANA – Lee Fitzgerald reports that she can give 40 reasons why bowling fans should visit Foothill Lanes on Thursday nights. Forty reasons why those who love to watch good bowling should visit Foothill Lanes on Thursday nights.

She reminded me that her senior trio league is contested on 40 lanes, by 40 teams and by 40 of the best bowlers in the area. That makes for forty reasons times three to head to Foothill Lanes on Thursday night to watch the best bowlers in the steel city.

The league is led by a trio named “Where’s Kelly”. They have a 3.5 game lead over Corky DeMaio’s team “What a Dump”. The Kelly trio is led by Barry Graham.

The top male bowlers in the league are:

- | | |
|-------------------|---------------|
| 1. Marv Sargent | 234 (average) |
| 2. Dan Farnsworth | 223 |
| 3. Barry Graham | 221 |

|--------------------|---------------|
| 1. Kay Cook | 199 (average) |
| 2. Sue Lee Santero | 191 |

The top series for men:

- | | |
|------------------|-----|
| 1. Marv Sargent | 819 |

Bowlers Certainly Have Their Crazy Moments

by Fred Eisenhammer

WOODLAND HILLS – So you don’t think bowlers are a crazy lot?

If that’s how you feel, then you haven’t been paying attention.

Consider what happened this month in St. Louis. Police officers discovered an abandoned car in the middle of the street with its hazard lights on and couldn’t figure out why.

The riddle was solved after the police tracked down the driver.

When pressed why he left his car blocking traffic, the man had a simple explanation.

He said his car broke down, but he had a bowling tournament to attend and he didn’t want to miss it. So he left his disabled car and dashed over to his bowling center.

Priorities, priorities!

Bowlers certainly have a lot of passion and that tournament bowler certainly has his fair share. But my favorite “full-of-bowling-passion” story is the one involving Chatsworth’s Jamie Beeler.

Beeler was ambushed by an all-out assault of kidney stones while bowling in his league at AMF Woodlake Lanes in Woodland Hills about five years ago.

The sheer pain of kidney stones would have left most humans writhing in agony and sprinting to the nearest hospital or looking for some immediate medication.

Not Jamie.

He just sneered at the pain and kept bowling. He still had frames to bowl and he wasn’t about to let down his teammates.

So Jamie kept bowling and bowling, and as he remembered: “I kept taking Advil after Advil after Advil.”

The good news is that Jamie finished his series, went home and then his wife Karen rushed him to the hospital – where amazingly, the kidney stones passed before he needed treatment.

Summing up, Karen said: “Nothing keeps him from his bowling. Nothing.”

Bowlers are definitely crazy. And crazy about their sport.

Jamie Beeler didn’t let a little bout with kidney stones mess with his game. Photo by Fred Eisenhammer

by Carol Mancini

- Here we are in the 80's! Doesn't seem like 37 years have flown by---but here we go testing your memory.
- The ABT revealed they had given away $1,264,370.50 in prize money since they started in 1977. Up to January 1, 1980 KEN DALEIDEN had run 216 events.
 - On the East Coast, “DARTS” was becoming more popular than bowling. Proprietors were looking for income of any kind.
 - The Pros bowled at WONDERBOWL- ANAHEIM. Televised on January 10th to the world. Who won? Read on.
 - Big argument at ABC Convention! How many frames in a game? The rule book says 10. Automatic computers are programmed for 12 frames. Can't tell a computer – sometimes, or maybe, or depends on what happens in the 10th frame.
 - Open play bowlers could no longer bowl 10 games and put 6 games on the scoresheet. Meters were installed to count every time the pinsetter cycled.
 - BRYAN ALPERT and BERT MILLS won the WOODLAKE Junior 6 gamer. Was that left handed or right-handed Bryan?
 - Winners of the PBA WONDERBOWL tour stop was STEVE MARTIN (called the Tennessee Twister.) His final opponent was MARSHALL HOLMAN. He also defeated MARK ROTH and TOM BAKER—All on T.V.
 - Five-person teams were the most popular of all formats—according to A.B.C. Stats.
 - LUCKY LANES ran a 10 gamer. Survivors included winner BOB BERNAL, BUTCH MOWRY, O.B. BROWN, ART GARZA, and JOHN THEYS JR. All great guys, funny and loved the competition.
 - The Pro Shop directory listed 26 shops in Southern California.
 - Junior Competitor TOM GARVEY posted a giant 813 at EL DORADO.
 - Bowler's Edge Pro Shop offered $10.00 for your old ball on the price of a new one.
 - Transplanted JOHNNY KLARES was elected to Cleveland Hall of Fame. He was a legend in Ohio AND California.
 - HAL TRUAX (225 book) won the 1980 Grant Classic beating out 2,411 entrants. JIM ULRICH won the Open Division.
 - Subscriptions went up to $10.00 a year for the Bowling News.
 - DONNA ADAMEK was chosen “Bowler of the Year” (again) by National Bowling Writers. Third year in a row!
 - WWPB at REGAL LANES drew top contenders, champ MARY MICHEL plus VICKIE MYERS, CHERYL ROBINSON, JEAN WORTHY, EVA MUNSON, DONNA ZIMMERMAN, MARGE BRADFORD, VIRGINIA NORTON, ROSE CALDWELL, and SHIRLEY ANDERSON. These gals got a LOT of press in their prime. And deserved it!
 - DAVE PRECHTL got bragging rights with his 722 at BOWLING SQUARE, wrote BRUCE HARNER – who usually captured the headlines.
 - AGNES DUFFY decided to run for W.I.B.C. President. She founded the California Bowling Writers magazine. She was the procuring officer for the B.V.L. program. A tiger that no one could say “NO” to!

This ends part one of three parts for 1981. Show your friends how to read the Bowling News online. We only had 72,187 hits last week!

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM – Terry Brent, not satisfied with 2nd place, showed us he is more than capable of capturing first place and that’s exactly what he did this “lucky” Friday in the 590 Classic. I don’t know if Terry has any Irish in him but maybe he had a tiny leprechaun hidden in his pocket or a four-leaf clover...? He stroked games of 238-268 and 254 for 760 and added 207 to claim 967. Hope he was wearin’ green...

Norm Walker, no stranger to headlines, performed like a pro on games of 261-202-215 and 238 to turn in a 916.

Frank Bellinder rounds out the 900 Clubbers this morning and certainly found some hidden “gold” on games of 216-264-256 for 736 and 178 (getting tired), to score 914.

Congrats to all the “lucky” bowlers and the following who saw that famous rainbow:

Dick McKenzie was oh-so-close with games of 177-267-194 and 258 for 896. And Chris Hefner, once again with a stellar performance, proved his worth on games of 232-232-217 and 211 to claim 892.

Willy Bordenave showed some Irish on his games of 194-201-Wow 287 and added 186 to score 868.

BURBANK – More rain is on the way! Please take cautionary measures getting to your leagues this week. Not only on the road, but on the lanes and in the center as well.

Carpets in the center will not always show obvious signs of being wet so step carefully in high traffic areas when wearing your bowling shoes. Remember, not everyone in the center is a seasoned bowler and may not realize the danger of wet shoes to bowlers.

A cute pair of shoe booties will keep you safer!

Saturday Sport League Report by Ken Clay

LAKE ELSONORE – Last week on PBA Scorpion, the bowlers turned up the heat. This week, the third and final, they kicked their scores into overdrive! There were 18 games of at least 20 pins over average, five bowlers with a series of at least 40 pins over average, nine 200 games, and one 600 series. I think it's safe to say that Scorpion's sting was FAR less venomous than the US Open.

Games Over Average: Rick Maiale +22, Mondesi Saavedra +25, Robert Groth +20 +34, Fred Casassa +37, Larry Clay +39, Shammon Williams +40, Steve Lertpaichaiyon +44 +35, Rody Fetalvo +42 +21, Scott Everson +42 +52 +42, Jacob Groth +53, & Jimmy Casassa +80 +42 +43.

Series Over Average: Shammon Williams +46, Rody Fetalvo +59, Steve Lertpaichaiyon +98, Scott Everson +136, & Jimmy Casassa +165.

Games 200+: Larry Clay 204, Robert Groth 205, Sham-mon Williams 209, Fred Casassa 214, Scott Everson 204-214-204, Rody Fetalvo 217, & Jacob Groth 232. Series 600+: Scott Everson 622.

Bowler of the Week:
Immediately after completing his set, one league member came to me and said, "Thank you for the bowler of the week award you're going to give me this week." After looking at his recap, I figured he was right. After all, Scott Everson rolled one of the most consistent sets of the season: 204, 214, 204 = 622. Also, it was the only 600+ series and a whopping 136 pins over average. What sport bowling participant wouldn't be proud of that set?

Unfortunately, there was another bowler who performed even better. In game one, he came a single pin short of his first 200 game. He then followed that milestone near-miss with two fabulous games of 161 (+42) and 162 (+43). The end result, a gargantuan 165 pins over average series! Incidentally, this same bowler nearly broke 200 last week as well with a 197. So, while I agree that Scott's set was praiseworthy, Jimmy Casassa is the BotW!

If this sounds like a fun way to challenge your bowling skills, then contact Pins 'N Pockets or go to facebook.com/groups/PinsSaturdaySport. Until next time, HAVE FUN AND FILL FRAMES!

ACTION LANES “CLUB” COMPETITION

by Tony Lizama

EL MONTE – Recently, the Action Lanes Club Team of El Monte, California, was presented the San Gabriel Valley Round Robin Championship Trophy for their fine performance in 2017. Action Lanes outscored the competing bowling alley sponsored club teams in the monthly tournaments.

In addition to Action Lanes, these bowling alleys also sponsor a club team in this highly competitive round robin tournament: Arcadia, Azusa, Bowlmum of Montclair, Diamond Bar, Pasadena and West Covina. Alleys rotate and have the opportunity to host a tournament at their respective locations. Again, congratulations to Action Lanes and its participants!

INVITATIONAL

Round Winner Sysco Helps Tighten Up The Standings

DOWNEY – The Brunswick Invitational took to the lanes for Week 5 of the USBC Nationals Team pattern. Scoring bounced back after a rough session last week and the standings tightened up with just two weeks to go.

In the “A” match, first-round winner Sysco took on Threadworks who was looking to make a move with the round lead. Sysco came out strong, taking the first game by 178 and never looked back as they cruised to a 5-0 sweep and gave Threadworks chances in the round a blow. Paul Varela managed 516 to lead Threadworks while Chris Equilos was high for Sysco with a 566 set.
