PBA Hall of Famer Marshall Holman To Be Color Analyst for USBC Queens Telecast on ESPN2

GREENDALE, Wis.—Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Famer Marshall Holman will be the color analyst for the live ESPN2 telecast of the 2007 United States Bowling Congress Queens finals. He returns to the booth after serving as ESPN's commentator for PBA telecasts from 1996 to 2001.

Holman will share announcing duties with 1993 Queens champion Jan Schmidt, who will serve as the play-by-play announcer.

The sport's premier tournament for elite women bowlers begins April 28 at AMF Carolina Lanes in the Charlotte suburb of Matthews, N.C. ESPN2's coverage of the step-ladder finals is set for May 2 at 7 p.m. Eastern.

"Listening to Marshall Holman is a treat for all fans," said USBC Chief Officer of Marketing and Communications Tom Clark. "His knowledge, experience and charisma will add to the broadcast."

The Queens telecast, which also will re-air on May 20 at 1 p.m. Eastern on ESPN, will feature a $200,000 prize fund and $30,000 first prize.

The televised finals will include the final five players left after four days of qualifying and double-elimination match play. The top four players remaining in the winners bracket will join the winner of the contenders bracket who will compete in a stepladder format.

Entries remain available for the Queens, which is presented by Eldorado, Silver Legacy and Circus Circus, and the USBC Senior Queens, which is sponsored by Storm Products.

The entry fee for the Queens is $300 ($350 after April 7) while the Senior Queens entry fee is $200 ($235 after April 7). The Senior Queens, for those 50 years of age and older, will be conducted concurrently with the Queens from April 28-May 2 at Northcross Lanes in Huntersville, N.C.

Entry forms may be obtained by calling (800) 514-2695, ext. 3173 or downloaded from bowl.com.

Sport, Business of Bowling Coverage at USBC Convention

Chastain speech, major announcements, legislation, Board/president elections set

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—Four days full of key decisions, major announcements and educational sessions focusing on both the business and sporting aspects of bowling are on the horizon when the second annual United States Bowling Congress Convention is held Wednesday through Saturday at the Gaylord Opryland Resort and Convention Center.

The events begin Wednesday highlighted by two-time Olympic soccer gold medalist Brandi Chastain giving the keynote address. She later will present one of more than 30 educational workshops to be held Wednesday and Thursday along with exhibits, coaching clinics and a lane inspection workshop.

Those people who have excelled in the sport on and off the lanes will be honored through events like the USBC Hall of Fame induction ceremony hosted by USBC and Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Famer Nelson Burton Jr. on Friday. The day also will feature speeches on USBC's future direction including several major announcements directly relating to this focus.

On Saturday, delegates will vote on 17 overall proposed amendments - eight that deal with USBC's national bylaws, three with merged local bylaws, one with non-merged local bylaws, four with league rules and one with tournament rules. One proposed change to the bylaws would have USBC conducting national legislative sessions in even years starting in 2008.

Another would require only one association in each geographic area by March 15, 2009. Later that day, delegates will elect five new board members and the USBC Board of Directors will select a new president.

While only elected local, state and athlete delegates can vote on legislation, all USBC members are encouraged to attend the convention.

About 2,000 people are expected to attend events throughout the week.

Doug Kent captured his third career Denny's PBA Tour Major title

Superman

GRAND RAPIDS—It's not how you start, but how you finish. Although a great start and a great finish are okay too, as Doug Kent can attest to.

Kent became the sixth bowler in Denny's PBA Tour history to win two Majors in one season, defeating Chris Barnes, 237-216, Sunday to win the 2007 Denny's World Championship at DeVos Place.

Kent won the season-opening USBC Masters for his second career Major title, then captured his second career World Championship in the season's second-to-last event. He is the first bowler since Walter Ray Williams Jr. in 2002-03 to win two Majors in a season and the eighth bowler all-time to win multiple World Championships.

"This one really feels great, to win two in a season is very rare and just to be in this position is a great feeling," Kent said. "Chris is a great champion, it just came down to who would catch the breaks and I caught one early to get ahead which meant he had to play catch-up, and that's not the best place to be."

Though he's been fairly quiet in the second half of the season, with two Majors under his belt Kent threw his name in an already crowded Player of the Year race with one event – and the final Major – remaining.

"The last five or six weeks I just haven't been in synch and haven't felt great, but I just knew if I stuck with it I would get here again," Kent said. "I always get up for the Majors, and winning two is something everyone dreams about. It's another step closer to the Hall of Fame, too."

Kent jumped out to an early lead in the title match, striking in the first four frames, but Barnes clawed back with four consecutive strikes of his own in frames 5-8, while Kent had three spares in that span. With a chance to get within one pin of Kent, Barnes left the 4-pin in the 9th frame, however, and Kent struck with his first ball in the 10th frame for the ninth win of his career.

The Newark, N.Y., native advanced to the title match with a 235-219 win over Danny Wiseman. Kent had a chance to win by striking on his first ball in 10th, but a spare and a strike gave Wiseman a chance to tie with three strikes in the 10th. Wiseman struck with his first shot, but then left the 4-6-7-10 split to give Kent the match.

Barnes advanced to the title match with a 246-226 win over Tony Reyes.

Kent earned $50,000 and a four-season Denny's PBA Tour exemption through the 2010-11 season with the win. Barnes (Double Oak, Texas) took home $25,000 for second, Wiseman (Baltimore) earned $13,000 for third and Reyes (San Bruno, Calif.) earned $10,000 for fourth.

Next week the Denny's PBA Tour season wraps up with the 2007 PBA Tournament of Champions, March 29-April 1. The live ESPN2-televised finals Sunday, April 1 at 10 a.m. Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn.

LAKEWOOD—For only the third time in the 49 year old league history, a team has captured it's title a week before the final week of the 33 week schedule. It's been a close race for several teams but only two were really in contention the last couple of weeks.

Monday at Cal Bowl spotlighted the Westminster # 2 team, Nancy Soto, captain Millie Harris, Cyndie Martin and Doris Lewis cinching a first place finish at 61 wins. Cerritos #2 also cinched second place with 55 wins. Position Round still remains for teams to try to improve their positions from third to 16th place and of course the high season individual and team games and series can still be had.

Patti Givenchin's 640 season high series, for 156 and over bowlers, was eclipsed Monday by Patti with 252-662 which led the weekly honor roll. Jamie Vallier had 223-582, followed by Cyndie Martin 203-568, Bernice Bennett 214-554, Tracy Baldwin 204-550, Norma Payn 545 and Mary DeFord 242.

Also Jeani Ruff 202-541, Bert Martinez 210-538, Margo McClain 534, Darlene Waken 206-530, Teri Hefner and Cathy Wyatt tied at 529, Kathy Parrish 526, Kathy Phylow 521, Cil Moons 514, Jean Wadlington 510, Nancy Soto 504 and Lucinda Clayburn 200-502.

The 50/50 exceeded it's estimated total again this week which will add a 10th place pay-off to the the nearly $600 prize fund on April 9th team sweeps. More next week about other features slated on "sweeps day" and the awards luncheon.

Ellie Maxwell celebrated a birthday Monday and Darlene Waken's husband and his mother were among visitors. The senior Mrs Wakenis is a spry 97 and a half, and said she enjoyed watching bowling.

Members of the league extend sympathy to Alberta and Ed Stoute in the recent passing of their daughter, following a very long illness. NEXT WEEK: 9:30 a.m. April 2, Westminster Lanes.

2007 USBC INTERCOLLEGIATE SINGLES CHAMPIONSHIPS

GREENDALE, Wis. — Fresno State's P.J. Haggerty, the two-time reigning collegiate player of the year, will have the opportunity to add a second national collegiate singles title to his resume as he qualified late Friday for the 2007 United States Bowling Congress Intercollegiate Singles Championships, which will be held May 21-22 at AMF Pin Palace Lanes in Huntsville, Ala.

The USBC Intercollegiate Singles Championships, which debuted in May 2004, features the top 16 male and top 16 female collegiate bowlers in the country competing for national titles.

Qualifying for the national finals was held Friday at four Sectional Qualifier sites: Allentown, Pa.; Chattanooga, Tenn.; Fairview Heights, Ill., and Las Vegas. All participants bowled six games with total pinfall determining final standings. The top four finishers in each division (male and female) at each Sectional Qualifier site advance to the 2007 USBC Intercollegiate Singles Championships.

Haggerty, a current Team USA member who won the 2005 men's national collegiate single title, won the Las Vegas Sectional with 1,312. Other notables advancing from Las Vegas were Lindenwood's Daniel Farish, a Junior Team USA member in 2006, and West Texas A&M's William Haverland, who is currently on Junior Team USA.

Huertas Wins ABTA Thriller at Keystone

Jonathan Smith Fires 300 Game

The “Iron Man” HITS A $2,600 3-6-9 POT

CAL Bowl is our Host in One Day Early Event

Qualify 12:30-2:00 -& 3:30 PM Semi-Finals 5:00 PM

NORWALK—The Good Guys do it again as Mark Huertas was certainly on his game. He won a thriller that went to the final ball edging upstart Bret Haynes in the title game to take home a nice $1,400 for his stupendous effort at host Keystone Lanes.

In our return to Keystone we had a nice turnout of 187 entrants in the two day event. It took a nice +64 men, and +22 ladies to make the Saturday cut to the semis. On Sunday morning in the 10:00 AM squad, which also took 1 in 5 to the semis, we saw Men +64 and Women +35 making the grade. Also added were Super Seniors, Joe Nolan, Tom Dahl, Leo Tartamella, and Bobbie Mc Col-lum to the board.

Leading the Semis was Fontana’s Mark Huertas who fired up a big +141 topping the field with Roger Wrase at +119. So Mark would sit out and bowl for the title. Wrase would receive a first round bye in the single elims and enter in round two. It took a +68 (men) and +42 for the 3 guaranteed ladies to make the Sweet 16 Single Elim Finals..

The Bowlers took to the lanes. In the first round single elims and losing were Roland Suase, Sean Johnson, Melissa Rocha, Jackey Nichols, Tony Rodriguez, Sue Purdie and Kathryn Gonzaleaz. They got checks of $100 in 10-16th places.

In round two, being eliminated were Eddie Katz, Gary Gordon, Don Johnson Sr. and Roger Wrase,and they cashed in 6-9th places and $107 each.

Round three had Haynes down Brian Reyes 217-178. Kmel Cunanan got to Gabriel Trejo 227-207. Losers were 4th and 5th and $125 each and $112.50 each.

It was now Kmel and Bret for the right to meet Huertas for the title. In a good match Haynes finally pulled away to win 221-203. Kmel was third for $200 and Bret off to the title game vs Huertas.The title game was set and the horses were paid as Bret returned $29 for the people who had him in the horses!

Two super guys would now meet for the title. Bret led off and struck, as did Huertas. Mark then had a turkey to lead and then Bret came right back with a four bagger in frames 6-9 to take the lead. Huertas doubled in frames 7-8. In the 9th he left a 7-8 split. He picked it up to keep in the game and the double in the 10th forced Bret to have the first strike for the title. He let go a great shot and the pins were blasted. Altho hit twice the 10 pin remained. Mark won his first title. In a game such as this it is too bad someone had to lose. Great bowling Mark and congrats to a fine young man whom I have known for several years and it is heart warming to see him win the title. Great bowling Mark! Great bowling by Bret Haynes also, and on any other day he would have won. He had some bad luck on that 10 pin for sure. Bret is one of the good guys! Bad Beat Bret!!

Nice to all in our club! Great Bowling! The same can be said for Kmel Cunanan who bowled so well at Keystone!

The Iron Man aka Julian Conwi eliminated the field in the 3-6-9 roll off and then he mas-

The Match Series of 608 was not hit and will estimate it at $500 at CAL Saturday for only a $2 entry fee.

Champion Mark Huertas, is from Fontana. He used an Awe-some Hook drilled by Joe Staton. He is single and thanks Alex, Lara, Rowie, Johnn , Xander and the ABTA Staff.

Bret Haynes is from Whittier. He used an Ebonite drilled by Anthony Drapeau! He is married to Gina, an ABTA member with 3 girls Darien, Elena and Sydney. He thanks his mom who passed away a year ago, and Norm Smith for support. Thanks to the ABTA for having a great tournament all year round!

Roger Wrase is from Downey and used a Pyro Storm drilled by Memo at Bowlers Image. He is single! He thanks the ABTA staff for a good job and also is a mainstay in our ABTA League!

We had several new members at Keystone and first time cashers were Sean Johnson, Jackey Nichiols, and Kathryn Gonzales who made the finals. Also Richard Lawson and B. J. Jemison (Alfies’s Mom) wh also made the cash line at Keystone.

We enjoyed our return to Keystone. Special thanks to the superb, helpful staff who do a bang up job there. We return there on our next schedule!

It is history folks, as Mark Huertas enters the archives as our latest Champion!

Michael Barcenas Outlasts Field at AMF Bowl-O-Drome. Luis Diaz Fires a 298!

TORRANCE—Our latest champion Michael Barcenas, a long time supporter, picks up his 2nd title in this weekends event. Unfortunately Michael bowled our second squad and was not available to give an interview. Please look in our future articles for Michael’s story. Michael fired a +157 to take home the $700 prize. His score held all day, many others flirted with it, but fell just a little short. On another note

Mr Luis Diaz last week’s runner up flirted with perfection and thrilled us all by running the front eleven before leaving a 3-6 his last shot by coming up a bit heavy on the headpin. Better luck next time!!!! Remember the Donkee Tour gives a bonus $100 prize for a perfect game rolled.

Our Mystery game and series was again a carryover (207 and 466 respectively). Game will be worth $450 and series $250 at Chaparral Lanes in San Dimas April 15th

Team 4 Improves 615 Seg. Lead At Forest Lanes

by Frank Kietz

LAKE FOREST--Lake Forest Lanes’ 9 p.m. Thursday 615 Scratch Trios’ fourth segment title race is getting serious. Team 4 made a giant move last week taking 16 of a possible 17 points from challengers Team 11 to bolster their lead.

The scoring wasn’t friendly. Team 4 chopped enough wood without honor scores to take 16 from Team 11. Bill Brossart paced the leaders with a 691 using scores of 225, 264 and 202. Chip Southerland and captain Herbert “Spiderman” Jones both hit 650’s based on 222’s totaling 1991.

Team 2, the first seeded trio, led overall team scoring with a 2035. Leadoff man Mike Belair did some fancy shooting; first picking up the 4-6-7-10 split, a 260 game and a 709 series. Teammate Mario Marquez had the evening’s best series, 741 with a 269 game.

Tim Timmerman of Team 9 sandwiched an evening high 278 between games of 213 and 201 for a 692 set.

Perhaps the best scoring came after the league when about a dozen players contributed to an old fashion pot game.

Champions Crowned at Inaugural Denny’s All-American High School Championships

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich.—With bright lights, ESPN television cameras and the pressure of bowling for thousands of dollars in scholarships, two players emerged as champions Sunday of the inaugural Denny’s All-American High School Championships.

Ellen Morrison of Winnebago, Ill., and Jonathan Buckert of Rochester, N.Y., each earned $3,000 scholarships by defeating their opponents at DeVos Place. Morrison won her match 210-190 over Kayla Stamm of Shillington, Pa., while Buckert defeated Christopher David Ray of Granite City, Ill., 213-170.

The event, which was conducted in an arena-setting on the same lanes as the Denny’s Professional Bowlers Association World Championship earlier in the day, is scheduled to be televised on ESPN on April 22 at 1 p.m.Eastern.

Buckert, the 2007 USBC Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow, struck seven times in the boys’ championship match to earn the title.

“It was really hot with the lights and I was a little nervous, but it was fun,” Buckert said. “This proves that all my hard work and effort has really paid off.”

In the girls’ championship match, Morrison, who has two Illinois individual state high school titles to her credit, threw a strike on the first ball in the final frame to lock up the victory.

“This has been really cool and I think it’s amazing that kids are being given the opportunity to experience an event like this,” Morrison said.

“I thought I was going to be a lot more nervous than I really was, but once I got out there and started making shots I calmed down.”

To wrap up Sunday’s finals, Morrison and Buckert teamed up with a couple of PBA stars in a doubles showdown. Morrison and Kelly Kulick defeated Buckert and Tony Reyes 256-233.

The Denny’s All-American High School Championships showcased 29 varsity high school athletes from 15 states. All players competed in eight games of qualifying Saturday morning before the field was cut to the top six boys and top six girls, who competed in match play to determine the four players on the TV finals.

For their second-place efforts, Ray and Stamm each received a $2,000 scholarship, bringing the total awarded at the event to $10,000.

Denny’s, the PBA and the United States Bowling Congress joined together to create the new tournament for recognized varsity level high school bowlers. The 29 participants were selected based on their bowling skills as well as personal and academic achievements.

Instruction to Help Raise Your Scores

CHEAP TRICKS MEDICATIONS FOR “SPLITS R US” AND OTHER VIRUSES PART 2 THE “CHOPS R US” CURE

Have you ever asked yourself why, in spite of having thrown accurately to your mark on a multi pin spare you chopped it anyway? Well, in case you are one of those mid or high average bowlers who suffer from that cherry-picking disease too often, I suggest a rather simple solution which allows use of a one board foot adjustment instead of the three we used for splits (covered last month). As simple as it is, I've been consistently surprised by how many bowlers weren't using it, so we'll describe it here.

This rule applies to all multiple pin spares except splits! It basically says that to pick up a multiple pin spare, shoot for the side of the key (front) pin which will cause the ball (not the pin) to deflect into the remaining pins. To do this, merely adjust your feet one board right (or left) of the normal board you would stand on for that key pin and shoot for the same mark. A single board foot adjustment will cause the ball to hit the key pin on the side opposite to the direction of that adjustment (a one board foot adjustment equals 2 inches at the pins).

Some examples: For a 3-6-10, stand one board left of your normal 3 pin position. The ball hits the right side of the key pin (the 3) and deflects into the 6, also taking out the 10. For a 3-5 (or a rare 3-5-8) however, you would stand one board right, because now you want the ball to deflect off the left side of the 3 and into the 5 and the 8. For a 2-4-5-7, stand one board right of your normal 2 pin foot position, thus making the ball hit the left side of the 2 pin which deflects into the 5, while the ball takes out the 4-7. (Left handers reverse this for the 3-5-6-10 There are many others, of course. The obvious purpose of this tactic is to always make the ball deflect off the key pin into the greatest possible number of accompanying pins. The vast majority of such attempts should be straight ball shots, because lane condition variances on various parts of the lane surface will have no effect on a truly straight ball, thus increasing your conversion rate.

One of the rare exceptions to this straight ball rule would be the 2-8 spare, where a Brooklyn strike ball is best for right handers; but for the 3-9 the usual straight ball nose shot to the 3 is best (left handers reverse this; throw a Brooklyn hook shot to the 3-9, but a straight shot to the 2 to convert the 2-8).

For bucket spares, it's a mistake throw Brooklyn strike shots. Why? Because Brooklyn shots are supposed to miss the 5. So here I also suggest a straight shot to the nose of the front (key) pin. Even on the pro tour I see right handers sometimes miss a simple 4 pin, because even a slight hook ball hits middle oil and slides by on the inside of the pin. So for most off center spare shots the straight ball has been proven more successful. After all, a really straight ball will go straight no matter what the lane condition! Remember, the only reason you have to live with the constantly changing variables of throwing a hook on a strike shot is to gain entry angle, which isn't needed on simple spares. Obviously, the more variables you can eliminate on spare shots, the less open frames!

This is a “cheap trick” with an excellent scoring payoff.

THE EYES HAVE IT

Talking about cheap tricks, this next one can answer two questions for bowlers concerning the “dominant eye” situation, which is a part of every human being's legacy, yet often creates accuracy problems. There is much excellent material available on this subject in scientific journals and we've covered it before, so we won't do it again.

But here's what's important to you right now: A) Is there an easier way to determine your dominant eye and, b) How can any effects it may have on your bowling be quickly identified? These items are important because the degree of eye dominance can vary from person to person. This often causes an optical illusion, which prevents many bowlers from being able to accurately hit the mark they're looking at. Worse, they may not even know which board they actually hit after the shot.

THE ‘CHEAP TRICK’ EYE PREDOMINANCE TEST ON THE LANES

As far as I know, the following “cheap trick” has never been mentioned, so you're reading it here first (though I've taught it for years):

- 1- Stand in the center of the approach, center dot between your feet.
- 2- Look at the fourth (center) arrow.
- 3- Note that arrow appears to be off center.
- 4- If the arrow appears to be left of center, you are right eye predominant; if it appears to be right of center, you are left eye predominant. This is because the dominant eye seems to “push” that arrow toward the opposite side, creating that off center illusion. Eye doctors have different tests by which you can determine which eye is dominant, but if you're in a bowling center, why bother? Once you know which eye is dominant, vision experts agree it virtually never changes. So for those of you who don't yet know which eye is dominant, this is the “cheap trick” that'll instantly tell you. (If you already know your dominant eye, read on anyway...there's more.)
- 5-Next, to determine the degree of dominance of that eye, try to judge approximately how many boards off center that arrow appears to be. Some report as little as a board or two, while to others it looks to be as many as five boards away from center. This variance is one possible reason why some bowlers consistently miss shots on the same side. There are, as you know, numbers of other possible reasons for missing the mark. But if you consistently see your ball hitting your mark, while your coach or other onlookers disagree, that difference in “spotting” can nearly always be attributed to dominant eye causes. The person watching the bowler can virtually always correctly see which board has been hit. Tests have shown that even a bowler who can't identify his/her own shots accurately, seems to have no problem spotting it correctly when watching another bowler.

FURTHER EXPERIMENTS

Another thing I've never heard mentioned is the fact that the same bowlers who “see” the fourth arrow as being off center by 3 or more boards, can look at the pins and easily see that the head pin (or the 5 pin) is indeed in the center of the lane. It seems that somehow, at a lesser or greater distance from the eyes than the arrows, sight lines seem more accurate. This is more than just an idle observation, and here's what was done to check it out

Several high average bowlers who consistently see their marks 3 to 5 boards off , due to exaggerated left or right eye dominance, were tested. They were asked to throw strike shots, not to their mark, but to their break point target...then to say whether the ball hit or missed that break point after each shot and if it missed, by how much and in which direction. This was done on lane 40 of a 40 lane house, with a spotter down lane to check the accuracy of the bowlers' calls. So far, the bowlers tested were all able to accurately see and call their balls' hits and misses at the break point after nearly every shot, even though unable to do it even once at the arrows!

One of these bowlers, for example, is a former PWBA champion who has won several pro tournaments. Her sight to the arrow targets has always been off by about 4 boards, forcing her to look 3 to 4 boards right of her intended target board to be able to hit it. Yet her sight line to her break point tested “dead on”.

THE BOTTOM LINE

Incidentally, CATS machine analysis shows that over half the bowlers tested can neither hit a mark at the arrows consistently, nor accurately identify which board they have hit after the shot. If such bowlers can be more accurate to a selected break point, that obviously provides an additional reason for break point techniques to become an important goal for all serious bowlers.

When I started reaching Sam Baca's break point techniques nearly 30 years ago, nobody wanted to hear it. Today, virtually every professional shoots for the break point! Baca has made the concept user friendly, not only to you league and tournament bowlers, but to us the teachers and coaches as well. Certainly, if inaccuracies caused by eye dominance can be overcome by break point targeting, averages must go up. I wonder...is that really a cheap trick?

Reilly Wins Orleans-Storm Golden Ladies Classic

LAS VEGAS—First timer Joan Reilly of Wilmington, NC captured the title in the 17th Annual Golden Ladies Classic at the Orleans in Las Vegas. She rolled through a tough field that included two past champions.

In the stepladder finals Reilly struggled in her first match against last years runner-up, Marci Williams of Wichita, KS, striking out from the 9th 191-189. In her next match she faced another “wheat shocker” Debbie Christensen. Both ladies started strong but Reilly caught fire in the 7th and struck out for a 244-223 win. Rose Smith a past GLC champion presented the next challenge but Smith split in the 5th,6th & 7th frames and Reilly took advantage, posted an easy 224-151. The Championship match featured defending champion Char Hammel, Las Vegas, leader throughout match play. Reilly struck in first two frames but Hammel countered, striking in 3rd thru 7th but opened in the 8th. This gave the lady from North Carolina the opportunity she was looking for, striking out from the 5th thru 9th with a spare and strike in the 10th. Reilly is no newcomer when it comes to tournament competition finishing 2nd to Sandy Postma in last years USBC Senior Queens.

Karen Pullman of Salt Lake City, UT won top honors and $1000.00 in the Super Senior Championship.

Runner-up was Fran Deken of Coweta, OK and 3rd place honors went to Shirley Cockerell of Temple, TX.

New top of the line Storm bowling balls went to Andi Whitlock, Middletown, DE for most pins over average (29) after 15 games of qualifying and Nona Cook of Yakima, WA who took 1st place money in the 2nd chance tournament.

This years competitors represented 20 States, England and Scotland.

Mike Monyak, Director of Bowling Operations for Coast Resorts, has set the 18th Annual Golden Ladies Classic for March 3-6, 2008.

Inland Empire NABI Champion Don Eide

RIVERSIDE—We want to thank AMF Riverside for hosting our last Saturday Tournament. Riverside Lanes is definitely a terrific house to bowl, with a friendly staff to help in any way they can.

Our newest champion, Don Eide, who by the way, just won a NABI tournament on March 3rd, is a great competitor. Don says that March has always been a good month for him, and it certainly holds true for 2007. Don likes to keep in shape, along with bowling, by playing tennis with his wife, Carol. Carol, always his biggest fan, drives in with Don from Apple Valley to support and encourage him at our tournaments. Don says that Carol has always been there for him; from the time he was motorcycle racing at age 16, to his bowling now at age 72.

He wants to thank her for that kind of support. He also wants to thank his bowling coach, (guru) Shelly Davis of Gardena, along with Tim & Diane Albin at AMF Bowl-o-drome in Torrance. His winning "COLUMBIA ACTION" was drilled by Tim Albin. Don is also gracious to thank our NABI staff. With this win, Don has won a $1000 and another champion shirt with optional upgrade by wearing a regulation NABI shirt. He is already in the tournament of champions, which will take place this July 2007. Everyone, get your games in; for the excitement is building toward NABI week!

Our stepladder started out with Todd Wolsten bowling Dino Gantoria. Todd bowled a 182 to Dino's 197. Dino then bowled Jay Shackelford who bowled a 193 to Dino's 229. Dino went on to bowl Roland Escares (a new member). Dino bowled a 185 to Roland's 229. Roland then bowled Don Eide, our high game qualifier, in the semifinals. Roland bowled a 194 to Don's 198. That game, folks, was a nail biter to the very end. Great bowling guys!

In the Striking Force Andrew Arellano was a firehouse out on the lanes. He bowled a 225-125-180-530, Chris Eguilos bowled a 189-484, and John Elston Jr. also had a 172-484. Kyli Selley proved she was just as much of a firehouse out on the lanes today too. She bowled a 134-130-101-365, Akeyla Basto bowled a 132-360, and Kim Eberle had a great 165-357.

In the Seniors it was Chris Hefner setting the pace. He bowled a 174-225-246-645, Glenn Gimeno followed up with a 184-566, and Mark Newberry bowled a 189-547. Candice Galvan gave her share of setting the pace too. She bowled a 184-177-141-508, Mann Rou Kuo bowled a 180-456, and Jennifer Hefner had a 175-448. Great bowling everyone!

JAT Farm Club

by David Gordon
FOUNTAIN VALLY – This past Sunday, the JAT Farm Club took to the lanes at Fountain Bowl with 32 bowlers in attendance. The scoring started out a little slow, but really picked up during the later rounds. We thank the center management and staff for hospitality on the day.

The qualifying round started off with DeeRonn Booker showing us that high scores were possible by putting up a 268 game in his mix of five. DeeRonn was followed by Rafael Ceja 246, Justin Foster 244, Mark Curtis 226-223-224, Brent Shern 234-225, Albert Fernandez 234, Darren Pascual 224, Charlie Hair 222, Eddie Sayles 222, Darrin Choi 221, Victor Hilvano 221, and Deanna Carrillo 221. Mr. Booker led the group after five games at plus 66, while the 16th spot to advance came in at minus 100.

In match play it was Aaron Steinberg making his move with games including 247-269-242 and the claim to tournament high game. Booker kept pace with highs of 232-220-257 and others were Curtis 255, Fernandez 222-220-246, Teddie Carter 244, Hair 238, Ceja 236-235-235, Choi 236, Kevin Jones 235, and Shern 224. Steinberg and Fernandez made movement of 7 positions to get into the final round, but Ceja jumped 10 positions to become the alternate.

The finals started out with 5th seed Shern (+102) taking on the 4th position Curtis (+105). Curtis (who wants a title so badly) got his head back into his game and took this match 227-163. Now Curtis had to face Fernandez (+183) who put up the road block 216-168. Fernandez now met the 2nd seed Steinberg (+192) and it was Aaron's turn to put the brakes on Fernandez 205-199. Thus in the title match (best 2/3) Steinberg faced tournament leader Booker (+360). Booker took the first match 236-174 and super vet Steinberg captured the second match 245-201. In the tie-breaker, it was anybody's match to the end, but when dust had cleared, Steinberg had his second title 213-206. Congratulations Aaron.

Bowlers, our next tournament will be at Harley's Simi Bowl on April 22nd. If you don't know about this center, it can be high scoring and has just 24 lanes.

That means I expect a larger turnout with fewer lanes. We will be doubled and tripled up for all rounds. I strongly suggest you getting there early for check-in and expect to be there a little longer than usual. Therefore, get plenty of rest and practice, eat healthy, and I'll see you in a few weeks.

SED Jr. Travel

by David Gordon
FULLERTON – SED Jr. Travel held a double-session last Saturday at AMF Carter Lanes. This was our 23rd and 24th sessions of the 25 session season. It's coming down to wire for 2nd through 5th places. As always, the staff and management made us feel quite at home, Thank you.

In the first session Kevin Jones led the group with highs of 240-232/839. Also in the 800 club was J.D. Pelow 202-256/832 and Bryan Osborne 254/805. Nice bowling gentlemen. Other highs on the day came in from Max Slevcove 200-221/792, Deanna Carrillo 211/781, Eric Milne 208/775, Darren Pascual 225/766, Mark Curtis 200/735, Kim Ferdnance 710, Michael Gaylor 702, and Michael McDonald 206.

After a short break to rest and consume "food for energy", the pace and scoring continued with the second session. Here Pelow led all with 265-258/870. And showing that girls want to have fun, was Carrillo 238-255/853. And jumping on the band wagon was Osborne 236/818 to round out the 800 club for the session. Way to bowl you three. More highs were posted from Pascual 251-214/785, Delano Ross 205/767, Gaylor 210-206/751, Slevcove 221/746, Curtis 203/740, Eddie Sayles 215/735, Marty McDonald 214/705, Jasmine Morales 223, Jones 222, and Milne 203.

So with only one session left and 21 points available, Sherie's Boys are in 2nd place (318 points) followed by Chunky Beef Stew (309), E Kinda Mean (292.5), and Subject 2 Change 282. Also, those season high awards (team and individual) are still up for grabs.

Our last session is this Saturday at Fountain Bowl with a start time is 2:00. Bowlers, please prepare yourself accordingly, have a fun week and I'll see you there.

JST Titles too; Fraser, Brown Fraijo and Bidwell

by Butch Hesketh
YORBA LINDA—Sunday March 25th found the JST at their home center Yorba Linda Bowl, turn out was down do other tournaments, but everyone still had fun. Approx. $875.00 scholarship was handed out thanks to our sponsors; Roto Grip Bowling Balls, Pins & Needles embroidery, & B&W Bowling. Everything went smooth thanks to the dedicated people at Yorba Linda Bowl. This tournament was a double points tournament so some major moves were made.

Novice division found two bowling for the champions shirt. It was nip and tuck all the way with 1st timer Travis Fraser holding off little Dillon Algustoski by 10 pins to win the divisions. His first JST champions shirt. Travis had high game and series with a 162 game and series of 678.

In the Intermediate division Travis's brother, Nick Fraser led the field after qualifying at plus 38. The cut to the top 8 was at –147. Nick took the double points for high series with the 1238, Ryan Brown had high game with 247. Daniel Hansen won 2 out of the 4 brackets with Wesley Low and Scott Schimal winning the other 2. Taking 2nd in the brackets were Brittany Kamiak, Oscar Chan and Ryan Brown. After match play, the positioning changed. Ryan Brown moved into the #1 spot at +83. Nick dropped to even and #2, Christina Hefner #3 at –17, Wesley Low #4. Jennifer Hefner #5. Lesliann Katsura #6. Daniel Hansen #7. Scott Schimal #8. It was a top 3 roll-off. In the first match Nick held off Christina with a 172 vs 142. Nick moved on to meet Ryan for the title. Ryan was not going to let him by and won in a close match 223 to Nicks 203.

The advance division had a nice field of 21 bowlers and Foster Phandanouvong led them into match play at +129. Newcomer Lana Lycann was the cut at +49. The points for high series went to Foster with the 1329 along with high game at 259. Jaime Ferry and David Phillips were right there with 258's. Foster was on a roll. He also won all 4 brackets, nice return on investment of $12.00 a return of $68.00 into his scholarship. I also won one of two Gold spots. Runner-ups in the brackets were Shaun Morad with 2, Ryan Cunningham and Drew Stern. Match play saw the top 10 advance, #1 Foster, #2 Christina Fraijo, #3 David Phillips, #4 Daniel Ploner, #5 Caycee Landers, #6 Shaun Morad, #7 Jaime Ferry, #8 Steven Sensabaugh, #9 Natalie Jimenez, #10 Lana Lycann. After match play the top 4 were Daniel Ploner and Christina Fraijo Tie for first. After a 9th and 10th frame roll off Daniel held on by 1 pin moving Christina to #2. Shaun Morad #3 and Foster dropped to #4. In the first match we saw Foster start a come back defeating Shaun 218 to 168. But in the next match the feisty young lady Christina was not about to give up easy and held on to defeat Foster with a very close 242 to 232. Now it was time for pay back. She went after Daniel with vengeance rolling a very solid 254 to Daniels 216.

In the Open division we had a special treat. Saturday was Devin Bidwell's 18th birthday, so everyone got to wish him happy birthday and have a nice piece of cake brought by his dad Deano. Again, Happy Birthday Devin. Fun was had by all in the open. It was high scoring and the birthday boy was the first to get everyone's blood pumping having the front 11 in the 3rd game. The ball made a move to only get 7 for a nice 297. The right next to him a few minutes later Nathan Urrutia has the front 11 to leave a 10 pin for a 299 and end up 799 for 3. Good bowling you two.

The high series points went to Devin and the high game went to Nathan along with bonus for an honor score. Forrest Holland up from San Diego won the 2nd Gold spot with a 1258. Congratulations and good luck in Buffalo. No brackets were run in the open division. After match play birthday boy held on to the #1 spot but Ricky Brown moved by Nathan to take the #2 spot. The title match was good with Devin holding off Ricky with a 259 vs 225. Good bowling was had by all.

Just a couple of quick notes. Our next tournament is April 15th at AMF Hemet Bowl. Please remember to pre enter. Thank you to all the people that helped with the tournament this weekend and those that came up and offered to help since we were a little short handed. Kert, a special Thank You for your help with both the Saturday leagues and coming back Sunday.
