Fourth Time's the Charm for Belmonte & O'Neill in Roth-Holman PBA Doubles Championship

Champions defeat San Francisco's Tang brothers to end streak of three straight fourth-place finishes

COLUMBUS, Ohio — After fourth-place finishes as partners in three previous Mark Roth-Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championships, Australia's Jason Belmonte and his "best mate," Bill O'Neill of Langhorne, Pa., finally won in their fourth try.

With the tournament's namesake PBA Hall of Fame partners in the crowd for the finals of the event that was presented by BowlerX.com, Belmonte and O'Neill defeated brothers Darren and Michael Tang of San Francisco, 205-185, at Wayne Webb's Columbus Bowl. The finals of the fourth event of the 2018 Go Bowling! PBA Tour season aired Sunday on ESPN.

After a dominating performance in the preliminary qualifying rounds where they averaged a combined 238.31 for 76 games, earning the top berth in the finals by 327 pins, Belmonte and O'Neill finished in convincing style. The win was the 17th of Belmonte's career and the ninth for O'Neill.

WINNETKA — Poise. How many bowlers can hold on to it after flubbing a shot or having the pins defy a well-placed shot?

Mike Cohen did.

It wasn't easy after encountering an excruciating turn of events.

Mike, a compact 54 year old right hander, was zeroing in on his first perfect game during league action this month at Winnetka Bowl.

He had drilled a 299 four years earlier at now-defunct Mission Hills Bowl (leaving a 10 pin on a Brooklyn hit on his last shot). With the experience of that near-miss, Mike was confident he could make it all the way this time.

"I felt pretty good until the last shot," remembers Mike with a smile.

Mike Cohen

After nine strikes to begin his game, Mike got into his stance for his first shot in the 10th frame and couldn't help noticing his surroundings. "I tried not to think about [a 300] but there was no one on the lanes on both sides of me," he says.

It was a sign that neighboring bowlers were giving him the right-of-way,

PBA AND FOX SPORTS ANNOUNCE MULTI-YEAR, MULTI-PLATFORM RIGHTS DEAL

Professional Bowling Returns to Broadcast TV in 2019 with 29 Shows Across FOX and FS1

LOS ANGELES and CHICAGO — The Professional Bowlers Association (PBA) and FOX Sports announced a multi-year, multi-platform agreement making FOX Sports the new television partner for the Go Bowling! PBA Tour starting in 2019.

The package will bring a substantial schedule of live PBA events to television, including prime time events and a new bracket-style, multi-week PBA Playoffs tournament that concludes with a unique PBA championship finale. The announcement was made by PBA CEO and Commissioner Tom Clark and William Wanger, FOX Sports EVP of Programming, Live Operations and Research.

"The PBA has been searching for the best possible broadcast partner to serve our fans, players and the bowling industry, and we have determined that partner is FOX Sports," Clark said. "We are particularly excited that the PBA Tour returns to broadcast television, where it started 56 years ago, with shows on FOX next year."

In 2019, FOX Sports will televise four PBA Tour shows on FOX and 25 on FS1 in a series of two-hour telecasts. All programs will also be streamed on FOX Sports GO. Details pertaining to the FOX Sports-PBA package regarding PBA Tour locations, dates and times, and the television announcing team will be released at a later date.

"FOX Sports is thrilled to add the highly rated PBA Tour to our extensive lineup, joining other sport partners including the NFL, the FIFA World Cup, MLB, NASCAR, MLS, UFC, NHRA, Supercross, USGA, college football and basketball, and others," said Wanger. "We believe that adding a FOX Sports look and feel to bowling will help bring the sport to a whole new level."

The PBA was represented in the transaction by Ed Desser of Desser Sports Media (www.desser.tv).

The agreement between FOX Sports and the PBA extends a non-stop television presence for professional bowling that began in 1962 with ABC Television's 36 years of continuous coverage of the Pro Bowlers Tour and 38 consecutive years of coverage on ESPN, beginning with ESPN's formation in 1979.

Both parties plan to supplement the broadcast and cable coverage of the PBA Tour's premier events with live-streaming of preliminary rounds by PBA's Xtra Frame online bowling channel as well as extensive use of the FOX Sports and PBA Network outlets including Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Instagram and their respective websites.

PBA’S “60 MOST MEMORABLE MOMENTS” UNVEILING CONTINUES: 46 THRU 50

The countdown to unveil the complete list of the PBA’s “60 most memorable moments” in its 60-year historycontinues, one a day, Monday through Friday, on all PBA Network outlets. Last week, “memorable moments” 46 through 50 were unveiled. Here are those five moments as the countdown continues:

- 46) In 1999, the PBA contested its first outdoor event, The New York City PBA Experience, on a two-lane installation in Manhattan’s Bryant Park. Eric Forkel won. In another first, Milwaukee’s Miller Park became the first major league stadium to host a PBA title event when Danny Wiseman won the 2004 USBC Masters. Madison Square Garden hosted several PBA events including three U.S. Opens and Joe Louis Arena in Detroit hosted the largest crowd in PBA History when 7,212 fans watched Dave Husted win the 1995 U.S. Open title.
- 47) After qualifying for the finals during the inauglural World Series of Bowling at Thunderbowl Lanes in Allen Park, Mich., Tom Smallwood won the 2009 PBA World Championship in Wichita, Kan., defeating Wes Malott, 244-
228. Smallwood’s rags-to-riches story after being laid off from his job in the auto industry became a national news story during the nation’s economic downturn.
- 48) The PBA Regional Tour was launched in 1969 with its inaugural event - the Regional Players Championship - at Kingpin Lanes in Cincinnati. Tom Hennessey topped a field of 12 regional players representing the PBA’s new six-region program. Since then, the PBA Regional program has awarded nearly 6,400 titles to more than 1,840 different bowlers.
- 49) PBA Hall of Famer Nelson “Bo” Burton Jr. set a four-game TV record during the finals the 1984 Angle Open at Dick Weber Lanes in Florissant, Mo., rolling games of 278, 279, 257 & 236 for a 1,050 total to pick up his 17th title.
- 50) In 1989, Venezuela’s Amleto Monacelli became the first foreign-born player to win the PBA Player of the Year award after winning four titles. He won POY again in 1990 and became the first foreign player inducted into the PBA Hall of Fame in 1997.

To check on releases of subsequent “moments” as they are revealed, check the PBA Network: PBA on Facebook

WILL JUNE Reporting....

by Frank Weiler

MORENO VALLEY – Will June reports that at mid season, several weeks ago, the Young at Heart league bowlers appeared to be improving with age! At least on paper it looks that way. The bowlers in their 60s are doing well and the bowlers in their 70s are still scoring. The 80 somethings are still bowling and holding their own.

The “Missing Milt” team is in first place with a large six game lead over the “No Bad Daze” quartet. The “Missing” team is led by Eugene Johnson with a 189 average.

The league high average is 200.54 recorded by Jeff Hill. He is followed by Mike Mitchell at 200.45 and David Smith at 198.

Linda Keller leads the ladies at 174, followed by Valerie Pruitt at 165 (for 30 games) and Bettye Brown at 160.

Entering February the season high scores were 718 by Mike Mitchell and a 583 by Charlene Burnley. Dino Dennis and Martin Gonzales have rolled 276s while Linda Keller has a 221 to her credit.

Great bowling seniors, gals and guys. Thank you BOWLING NEWS for supporting CALIFORNIA senior bowlers and Mister Will June for keeping me up to date on happenings in the valley.

paying him respect for making a strong run at a perfect game. It also alerted him to the fact that he was building something special.

His first nine shots had all popped smartly into the pocket. But his next one found a vastly difference direction.

“Jitters were part of it. The release was part of it. I didn’t have my arm straight,” Mike says.

The ball hugged the gutter from the outset – just like several of Mike’s previous shots. But this time there was a problem. The shot wasn’t hooking like the others.

“I was hoping it would hit a dry spot and snap back but it didn’t snap back,” he said.

Instead, the ball plopped into the gutter, a disappointing end to his bid for the magical 300.

But not all was lost. This was Mike’s second game and he had carved out a powerful 222 in his first one. And he still was in the midst of a strong effort.

He was now facing a stiff test. Would he go to pieces and lament that bad shot or right the ship and move on?

“What else can you do but shake it off?” Mike says. “When it’s done, it’s done. I just wanted to pick up the spare and not gutter it.”

Undaunted, Mike reset his mind and fired a shot like his first nine. He collapsed all 10 pins, giving him a bounce-back spare in the 10th frame. He then got nine pins on his final shot to finish with a very formidable 269.

“This year, I vowed to keep my emotions in check,” says Mike, a San Fernando Valley resident. “And that’s allowed me to have a 203 average.

The 203 represents the highest of his 20-year-plus career for the extended winter season.

Mike went on to nail a 213 in his final game, allowing his team, which included Debbie Prince, John Kiladjan and Debra Hallett, to win all four points in the three-game series.

Mike, who won a no-tap doubles tournament title with Mario McKenzie two years ago, finished with a nifty 704 series, just four pins off his career best.

Poise.

Mike held on to it that night and he still talks animatedly about reaching his primary goal: a perfect game.

A reporter told him that once he nailed that 300, he’ll deserve another story in the paper.

“That’ll be my redemption story,” Mike said with a laugh.

Happy
Easter

1981 – PART 2

by Carol Mancini

1981 was a big year in Southern California for big scores, popular names and faces. The building boom had slowed, but the electronics age had arrived.

- The $2.25 charge for a Learn to Bowl class at TROPICANA included: Lesson, shoes, and lines.
- Two stars added to So. Calif. Hall of Fame: DUKE MCGREW and DICK STOEFLER.
- BEL AIR LANES surprised everyone with their ad on March 6th. Men bowl free Monday 9-12pm. Women bowl free Tuesday 9-12pm. BEL AIR wasn't an easy bowl to get to! And it wasn't much once you did get there.
- Thirteen year old RICHIE PARRISH bowled 300 at SAN HI LANES using an old re-drilled Columbia ball. Mom LINDA PARRISH was a Pro shop operator and averaged 204! Good advertising, right?
- DOTTIE KERINS named to CWBA Hall of Fame. (Probably only women bowlers know her name.)
- League sheets were a product of RED MAC KENZIE and others. It was another new bowling business off-spring. He went bowl to bowl, collected re-caps, processed scores, printed sheets and delivered finished product back to the bowls. PAT HARRIS was the San Diego "scorekeeper".
- 23 year old ROBIN ROMEO won her first title beating GIANULIAS 206-201. $3,000 and a four foot trophy was top prize.
- The Jim Beam Liquor Company produced a bowling pin shaped bottle and filled it with 86.6 proof bourbon. All proceeds from sales went to the National Hall of Fame and museum building fund.
- 6532 teams bowled the W.I.B.C tournament in Baltimore.
- The Brazil Sports Federation finally recognized bowling as a sport. Problem! To import equipment there was a 224 percent duty.
- BURT BACH rolled a 288 using his latest innovation- the custom-bored thumb hole which fit every contour of the thumb. He ran Bach's Bowling Supply in Bellflower from 1959 until his passing. Bowlers used to wait in line to have the inserts installed.
- Only 3 centers advertised any sort of St. Patrick's Day action.
- BUTCH SOPER was tending bar at FOREST LANES.
- LARRY GRAY beat KYLE SHEDD for the Southeast District Masters title.
- MERRILL ALEXANDER, Dallas, rolled a 268 triplicate! Her doubles partner in the day time ladies league rolled a 675. They set new W.I.B.C. records.
- KEITH KENWORTHY (Rollin Donkee Bag inventor) won the NBA Tour in Vegas.
- 120 women bowled the WWPB Ebonite Classic at DEL RIO LANES. TONY BRANDER was manager at the time.
- BARRY ASHER opened his Pro Shop inside CENTURY BOWL –and he's still at it in 2018. Go BARRY!
- GRAND CENTRAL BOWL had a 390 Scratch Doubles League. Both members of the championship team drove away in a new car.
- PHYLLIS KNOLL was elected President of the Los Angeles W.B.A. NADINE OLSON was looonnnnggg time secretary.
- BOBBY KNIPPLE won his sixth P.C.B. Title at WELCOME LANES in Oceanside.
- BIG question of the day (and still is) "Do high scores come from the bowler, the ball, or the lanes?" High scores are always the envy of the bowlers who don't practice, don't know the game, can't read oil patterns or drink too much!
- BILL TAYLOR wrote a book titled "Whatever Really Happened to Don Carter?" Anybody got a copy?
- 600 Clubs were very popular. Each center had one and each association had one. Any time a bowler rolled a 600 series they were given an invitation to join the club. Monthly and State tournaments were a must plus you felt privileged to join. Some areas also had a 700 club.
- BUCK ROGERS was the manager at HIGHLAND BOWL in La Habra. Don't believe me? Check page 14, April 17, 1981 Bowling News.
- Other interesting names in the news...DALE EVANS, MEMORY MORGAN, DICK JAMES, DENNIS LANE, BO BOWDEN, JESS DRANE, ERIC JOLLY, CHRIS CURLESS, KENNY MOE, WILLY WOLF, plus hundreds more. I like interesting names. How about you?
- Just for fun- someone wrote to the news "To some people, a fishing rod is a pole with a worm on each end." Sender gave no name.
- ABC approved legislation for local Associations to have either four or five man team tournaments, lane condition rule not changed, 150 pins over average award to be awarded, 24 hour time limit on notifying local ABC when a 300 was rolled, and lanes must be inspected.
- Congress was investigating the fact that military planes were used to fly 431 members of the Air National Guard to a bowling tournament in Nashville. The 12 planes made 18 round trips. Cost to the government? $109,240.
- The winners trophy for the Pennzoil Open at GABLE HOUSE was an actual small race car with a gas engine. The COGAN family was very much into Indy Car racing at the time. Son Kevin Cogan was on the racing circuit.
- Tacked up on my wall- "Aging is a matter of mind, if you don't mind, it doesn't matter." Part III will be next- April Fool.

The championship came down to age-and-experience out-matching the youthful exuberance of third-year PBA member Darren Tang, 24, and his 22-year-old brother Michael, a PBA Tour rookie. O'Neill and Belmonte threw only four strikes in the title match – including one double – and converted six single-pin spares. It was enough to stave off the Tangs, who had won three consecutive matches to reach the title contest, but were unable to put together back-to-back strikes in the final match. And one missed 10 pin spare by Darren Tang in the eighth frame was a setback that proved costly.

“The lanes transitioned in a way I didn’t see coming, but during the semifinal match you could see they weren’t right,” O'Neill said. “Marshall (Kent) isn’t going to bowl a game like he did very often. We decided we’d be content to hit the pocket and if (the pins) fell, they fell. We were hoping we could get it done with a 2-oh game, and fortunately that’s what we did.”

“It wasn’t playing defense; it was more that we were playing safe,” Belmonte said of the team’s conservative approach. “The adjustment either one of us could have made to be more aggressive was a risk, so if (the Tangs) couldn’t show us they were going to put together a string of strikes, there was no reason to take that risk.”

“We bowled amazing all week,” Belmonte continued. “Winning was kind of getting the monkey off our back. We’ve been there three other times when we didn’t perform amazingly and today we didn’t have to perform amazingly, but we did exactly what we needed to do.”

In the alternate-frame format, where each teammate bowled five frames on one lane, the Tang brothers came out of the gate on fire, putting together a string of six strikes early on their way to a 223-203 win over Texans Shawn Maldonado and DJ Archer in game one. Splits and open frames in the final two frames by the Tangs were the only flaws that kept the score close in the end.

In game two, Brandon Novak of Chillicothe, Ohio, and Kris Prather of Plainfield, Ill., looked like they were going to eliminate the brother team when they put together a string of five early strikes. But the Tangs started with three strikes, converted two single-pin spares and combined for three strikes to take the see-saw battle into the 10th frame where Michael Tang doubled and Prather, after a strike on his first ball, left a 10 pin on his second. The Tangs escaped with a 243-235 decision.

The semifinal contest against two of the PBA’s top high-rev power players, Marshall Kent of Yakima, Wash., and EJ Tackett of Huntington, Ind., was a struggle for both teams as they quickly degraded an oil pattern that had already undergone the wear-and-tear of two earlier matches. Kent was especially vulnerable, throwing three consecutive splits he was unable to convert. Michael Tang also failed to convert a split, but otherwise the brothers left single pins they were able to spare in posting a 172-151 win to advance to the title match.

PBA players now head to Syracuse, N.Y., where the 2018 Go Bowling! PBA Tour continues with the United States Bowling Congress Masters. As defending champion, Belmonte is automatically seeded into the 64-player three-game total pinfall double-elimination match play finals field and will try for an unprecedented fifth Masters title. If successful, he’ll also tie for the PBA record for major championships won with 10, joining the late Earl Anthony and PBA Hall of Famer Pete Weber in that elite group.

All qualifying and match play rounds of the USBC Masters in the Oncenter Convention Center in Syracuse, Tuesday, April 10 through Saturday, April 14, will be live streamed on PBA’s online bowling channel, Xtra Frame. To sign up, visit xtraframe.tv. The stepladder finals will air live on ESPN on Sunday, April 15, at 10 a.m.

PBA REGIONAL UPDATE:

● Matt O’Grady of Rahway, N.J. defeated 2017 PBA Rookie of the Year Matt Sanders of Indianapolis, 244-216, to claim his third consecutive PBA Trumbull County Tourism Bureau Central/East Open title presented by Radical at Bell-Wick Bowl in Hubbard, Ohio, Sunday.

O’Grady, who won his first PBA Tour title in the PBA Tournament of Champions in Fairlawn, Ohio, in February, picked up his sixth PBA Regional title of his career and the $2,600 first prize.

Frank Snodgrass of Center Line, Mich., defeated John Furey of Howell, N.J., 236-185, and Ryan Shafer of Horseheads, N.Y., 256-237, before losing to O’Grady in the semifinal match stepladder, 269-166.

● Anthony Lavery-Spahr of Pasadena, Texas, opened the seventh annual PBA Odessa Southwest Open, presented by Brunswick, with games of 279, 300 and 279 – an 858 series – to build a huge lead over twin brother Sean as he coasted to his fifth PBA Regional title and second in a row at Astro Bowl in Odessa, Texas, Sunday.

Anthony Lavery-Spahr held a 200-pin lead after qualifying and won five of his eight matches, tying another, to finish with 5,078 total pins, including bonus pins, to finish 240 pins ahead of his twin brother who also resides in Pasadena.

Sean Lavery-Spahr finished second after a 223-202 win over Joe Findling of Mesquite, Texas, in their position round match, edging Adam Pogge of Austin, Texas, who finished third.

Also of note, 71-year-old amateur Phil Bailey from San Angelo, Texas, not only bowled in the event, but finished sixth against a field comprised mostly of players young enough to be his grandchildren.

● Chris Polizzi of Spring Hill, Fla., won his first PBA title Sunday, defeating PBA Tour titlist Tom Daugherty of Riverview, Fla., 235-212, to win the second annual PBA Jac’s Lanes Valdosta South Open at Jac’s Lanes in Valdosta, Ga.

Daugherty, the top qualifier with a 17-game pinfall of 4,108, led no. 2 qualifier Brandon Curtis of Manson, N.C., by more than 300 pins. In the first stepladder match, Polizzi defeated four-time PBA Tour champion Dick Allen of Columbia, S.C., 243-184, and he then eliminated Curtis, 198-180, in the semifinal match.

● Tom Adcock of Decatur, Ill., defeated Dean Mueller of Vernon Hills, Ill., 192-177, to win the PBA50 Showtime Lanes Midwest/Central Open at Showtime Lanes in Virden, Ill., Sunday.

Adcock, an amateur, won his third PBA50 Regional in the last three years at Showtime Lanes and earned $1,500, but doesn’t receive credit for a PBA title because he isn’t a member.

Adcock defeated Steve Jaros of Yorkville, Ill., 2-0, and Mueller edged Jeff Johnson of Freeport, Ill., 2-1, in the best-of-three-game semifinal round.

● Closing out the March PBA Regional schedule will be the Copperfield Bowl Southwest Challenge for non-title winners over the March 30-April 1 weekend in Houston, Texas.

● For complete PBA Regional schedules, rules and entry information, visit pba.com, open the “schedules” tab and click on PBA Regional Tours to find the event(s) in your area...and remember, you can follow “live scoring” for all PBA Regional events on pba.com (easily accessible for Apple device users using the PBA app).

ANAHEIM — Juan Sandoval is once again, 'Juan' in the 590 Classic. Juan was in the zone Friday morning with his games of 245-245-221 for 711 and added 228 to score on top of the leaderboard at 939.

His team is currently only 2-1/2 games in the lead and with only five more weeks, it proves a fight to the finish!

Louie Juarez is certainly proving his worth as he improves his average on games of 212-255-255 for 722 and added 204 to claim 926.

Last of the 900 Clubbers, but certainly not the least is our resident lefty, Terry Brent. He stroked 229-257-224 for 710 and added 202 to sport a fine 912.

Hot Series: Hong Kha 258/882 and Dick McKenzie 276/867.

HERZOG INSURANCE TAKES THE LEAD WITH ONLY ONE WEEK TO GO

by Mike Cammarata

DOWNEY – Going into week six of the round, Sysco had a commanding four game lead over the field. Normally that would take away a little of the suspense that builds as rounds come to an end. In this case however, that wouldn't apply. Sysco had already won a round, meaning that the real battle is between the teams in second and third place, who were tied with 17 wins as bowling began on Monday night.

On the top pair, Cal Bowl took on Sysco. Sysco has already locked up a spot in the playoffs, but wins matter so much for seeding, meaning they have plenty to bowl for. Cal Bowl came into the night tied for second place, at 17-8. First game went to Cal Bowl, by a mere 11 pins. Juan Zavala led them with 204. Cal Bowl took game two as well, in much bigger fashion, winning by 101 pins. Zavala again was the star, shooting 246, but he had a lot of help this time from Ramon Torres and Leonard Ruiz with matching 202 games. Sysco took the final game, behind a strong 204 from Paul Barraco, but they didn't win by nearly enough to make up the difference in total pins. Juan Zavala led the pair with 606. Ruiz was right behind with 600. With the four wins, Cal Bowl improves to 21-9 for the round.

The second match was also between a fourth round contender and a previous round winner. The contender was Herzog Insurance, who came into the match tied with Cal Bowl at 17 wins. The round winner was Buddy's Bowling Supply. This match was all Herzog Insurance, as they swept all five games. Game two was close, but not close enough for Buddy's to gain a win. Ralphie Ramirez topped the pair, leading Herzog with 221/591. Gary Duran helped with 211/589. With the five wins, Herzog Insurance goes to the top of the standings with only one week to play in the round. In addition, they now top the season leader board with 82 wins.

Forest Lanes battled Three Olives Vodka on the next pair. Three Olives took the first game, 693-636. The rest of the match belonged to Forest Lanes though, as they took the next two games by enough to win totals by 41. Scores were low on the pair, as neither team broke 700 in any of the games.

A 664 set by Herbert Jones was more than enough to lead Keystone Lanes to a 4-1 win over Threadworks. Herbert started slowly, but finished with 222 and 268 to earn the wins. Teammate Eddie VanDaniker helped out with 226-216/607. Ryan Cunningham led Thread-works in the match, with his 222/611 set. Threadworks took the first game by eleven pins. Keystone came back in the second to win by 24, keeping the match very close for totals. Keystone took the final game as well, by only 15 pins, in a match that was close throughout the night and was a tough loss for Threadworks.

The Professional Approach took four out of five games in their match with Bowlum on the next pair. Donnell Carter had a great set to lead the Pro Approach team. He posted a 203-222-211/636. It looks like Matt Schermerhorn helped out with a 244 in the middle game, based on the arrows drawn on the recap sheet indicating it was his score. He may have shot 604 too, but I can't really tell what they did with totals.

Sam Hitchcock topped the next pair over with a 220-224/602 set, but it was only enough to earn DV8 a single win in their match against Linder's Insurance. Linder's got consistent scoring from Arnold Cheesman (223/586), Harry Wong (567) and Vernon Adams (550) to take the match, 4-1.

Tito's Handmade Vodka continues to struggle to field a squad, and once again had three subs on the lanes. Los Altos Trophy made them pay for it, taking the match against them, four games to one. Mikey Villarreal had a great set to lead the way, shooting 209-221-225/655.

The next pair saw a match between J.A.T. and Bowling Guys. Bowling Guys took two of the three games, but J.A.T. won their game by enough to hold on for totals, giving them a 3-2 win. Kevin Jones shot a 210 the final game on his way to 568, which led the pair.

Century 21—My Real Estate used a nice 211/608 from Joe Jimenez to take 4 ½ games in their match against Don Julio Tequila. Substitute Mike Tornatela added a 214 game to help out. Ryan Huff had the top game pair, subbing for Don Julio, with a 253 in the middle of his set.

Sam Hitchcock was able to win the first sidepot of the night with his 220 game. In the second game, it was Eddie VanDaniker getting paid for a 226. The final game super pot earned Herbert Jones $216 for his league leading 268.

A 246 game in the middle of the set earned Juan Zavala the Financials Advisors pot worth $190. $100 went to the runner up, Matt Schermerhorn, for his 244 game.

Only Herzog Insurance and Cal Bowl have a shot at the round next week, everything is on the line! Check out the action beginning at 8:30 p.m. at Del Rio Monday night. It's sure to be an exciting finish.
