She has a good reason for wanting a war job. Rita Samperi, has a brother, brother-in-law, cousin and boyfriend in the service. For her part, she is learning about marine sheet metal. World War II Photo.

RITA WHALEN “AMERICAN HERO” Bows 207 at Age 92

by Frank Weiler

MORENO VALLEY — Rita Whalen has been bowling for nearly fifty years, the last twenty-five at Moreno Valley Bowl. She currently bowls once a week in the Adult Practice League and averages 120. Rita uses the ten pound ball she purchased a decade ago and has no plans to change to another.

Rita started bowling when she accepted an invitation from her sister and some friends to join them on the lanes. She loved the experience and has been bowling ever since. When Rita was younger she bowled five to six days a week. She did then and still does love the competition and socializing that bowling provides.

Rita loves bowling. BOWLING has given her so much: friends, fun and a reason to stay active. BOWLING is a sport and one of the few physical activities a ninety-two year old can participate in competitively as well as and sometimes even better than “youngsters” half that age.

Of course RITA GIVES BACK TO BOWLING as much and even more than she receives. By example SHE TEACHES OTHER BOWLERS about FAITH in themselves, about HOPE in the future and how to LOVE life, especially the everyday joys life provides.

Like most women of her generation Rita was a full time mother, homemaker and housewife most of her life. She raised five children, four boys and a girl. While none of her children bowl regularly, son GERRY MARNIEN helps Rita continue to bowl by providing transportation whenever necessary.

In addition to the above, Rita is an American hero. She is a member of what Tom Brokaw refers to as our nation’s “GREATEST GENERATION”.

Rita Whalen

One of the highlights of her life was working as a welder in the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard during WORLD WAR II. She helped build battleships!!!! She did her part to defeat fascism in the 1940s.

Congratulations Rita on your big game and THANK YOU for your service to our country.

England's Dom Barrett Wins Brunswick Euro Challenge for Fifth PBA Title

Split in 10th frame of title match proves costly to Thailand's Jojo Yannaphon

MUNICH, Germany — England's Dom Barrett ended a three-year PBA Tour title drought Sunday when he defeated Thailand's Jojo Yannaphon, 237-221, to win the Brunswick Euro Challenge at Dream-Bowl Palace.

Barrett, 31, won his fifth PBA Tour title and his first since winning the PBA International-World Bowling Tour Qatar Open in 2014. He got a break in the tightly-contested title match when Yannaphon left the 8-10 split in his 10th frame and opened.

Barrett was the top qualifier for the three-player stepladder finals and ended a series of championship round close calls, including third-place finishes earlier in the year in the FireLake Tournament of Champions and the PBA Xtra Frame Reality Check Classic, and in the 2016 PBA World Championship during the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling VIII in December in Reno, Nev.

Yannaphon, who had qualified second for the finals, defeated England's Stuart Williams in the opening stepladder match, 10-9 in a one ball roll-off after they tied at 204. Yannaphon threw three strikes in his 10th frame to force the roll-off after Williams struck and then left a 10 pin in his 10th frame. The Thai player then struck in the roll-off and Williams left another 10 pin.

Next on the PBA Tour's 2017 schedule will be the Mark Roth-Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship followed by the L.L. Bean PBA League Elias Cup finals at the newly-renovated Bayside Bowl in Portland, Maine, April 9-16.

BRUNSWICK EURO CHALLENGE

Dream-Bowl Palace, Munich, Germany

Final Standings:

- 1, Dom Barrett, England, $13,452.
- 2, Jojo Yannaphon, Thailand, $9,180.
- 3, Stuart Williams, England, $5,940.

Stepladder Results:

Match One — Yannaphon def. Williams, 204-204, 10-9 in one-ball roll-off. Championship — Barrett def. Yannaphon, 237-221.

Kelly Manuel Wins First X-Frame Event $1,500 at Bowling Square

Teddy Villaroman is Runner-up $750 • Edmond Del Mundo 3rd $375

Oak Tree Lanes This Saturday - Two Big Squads 4PM & 6PM

1st Place is $1000 Guaranteed - $1,500 w/bonus • 2nd Place $500/$750 w/bonus • 3rd Place $250/$375 w/bonus
Qualify at 4PM and WIN EVENT - GET A $200 BONUS!

ARCADIA — The first X-Frame Event was held at Bowling Square Lanes in Arcadia and the winner was none other than Kelly Manuel. She bested the two squad 117 entrants with a nice score of 681 taking home a tidy $1,500 for her superb effort. Ted Villaroman was close with a nice 658 for 2nd place and Edmond Del Mundo nailed 3rd with a 643 and a $375 prize. All three entered the soon to be popular X-Frame Bonus which escalated their check by 50%!

Top Qualifiers in the event were “Easy” Ed Palma +120 for the men, and the ladies was led by the “Pride of 29 Palms” Vicky O'Connor +98. Curt Snyder was proud of her :) as was her husband who also bowled with us at Bowling Square!!

We started the 4:00PM squad with 37 entrants. Then 80 bowlers at 6PM. It was heartwarming as everyone seemed happy and enthusiastic. We then saw cut scores to the Beat the Board Finals. Men +33, Women -13 and Seniors -43. They advanced to the finals. It's Beat the Board Finals, where you finish will be your cashing position.

Thirty-one, YES 31 bowlers advanced to the 3 game finals and on a tough shot. Several bowlers were in contention. A pretty lady, Kelly Manuel led the way with super bowling finishing at a 681 taking home a nice top prize of $1,500. It was well deserved. Runner up, old pal Ted Villaroman at 658, $750. Fun loving Edmond Del Mundo at +43

Siena Cawelti Had 'Phenomenal Time' at Golden Ladies

by Fred Eisenhammer

LAS VEGAS – Siena Cawelti came home last week from the 27th National Golden Ladies Classic in Las Vegas – and she returned ecstatic after competing alongside more than 100 of the top women bowlers in the country.

She didn't return from Las Vegas as a conquering hero . . . then again, perhaps she did.

Even though Siena was eliminated before match play and the stepladder finals, she left the tournament at the Orleans Bowling Center flushed with memorable experiences.

She said she had “a phenomenal time” bowling for two days in the qualifying round.

Siena, in her maiden trip to the Golden Ladies, blasted two 200 games during the 15 games of qualifying (223, Game 4; 200, Game 6) and was able to finish the event despite suffering a painful injury in her 12th game.

Siena finished 100th out of the 105 bowlers who took part. Her final place was dragged down by some substandard scores in her last four games while she was enduring sciatic pain. Carrying a 168 average entering the tournament, Siena averaged 165 for her first five games, 170 for her second five-game set and 158 for her last five games.

Siena, a San Fernando Valley resident, was profiled in the California Bowling News this month for her emergence from a novice league bowler with a 120 average to a competitive force and rising star in women's bowling.

Jeanne Naccarato, who carries a 216 average and is a Women's Professional Bowling Hall-of-Famer, finished as the Golden Ladies champion. Tish Johnson, who finished third in the tournament, entered the event with a lofty 232 average, the highest of the entries.

So Siena found herself in some fast company.

Said Siena: “What an exciting time and experience to say the least. Being surrounded by 105 women who love to bowl and who are incredible at it was quite intimidating at moments but inspiring mostly!

“I learned a lot. I felt like that rookie ballplayer who comes to the big leagues for the first time only to be sent down to the minors again! Haha! But not in a bad way but in a ‘I know-what-to-do’ kind of way.

“I have a year to work on some things and you can bet I will be ready. But yet, I had a phenomenal time and even had some great games, some good games and some not-so-great games. But even when I pulled my sciatica, I never quit because quitting isn't what I do!”

Siena Cawelti, left, bowled in the same group as United States Bowling Congress Hall-of-Famer Robin Romeo at the Golden Ladies Classic in Las Vegas.

Siena, who has fought through numerous serious injuries during her bowling career, was thankful for the assistance she received from many observers and participants, including talented bowlers Robin Romeo, Tori Romeo and Paula Vidad.

“How lucky was I that for my first time, I was on the same pair as the infamous Romeo sisters! Robin and Tori – your ease at how it's ‘supposed’ to be done was inspirational,” posted Siena on her Facebook page. “Paula Vidad – thank you for all of your support and sitting down with me afterwards to talk about my experience – that meant the world to me!”

Vidad finished ninth and won $490. Robin Romeo placed 12th and won $460. Tori Romeo won $215.

Siena made it clear about her future plans.

“I WILL be back next year,” she said.

No doubt, she will be carrying that same high level of enthusiasm along with her.

Shocking Pin Action Really Not a Shock At All

by Fred Eisenhammer

CHATSWORTH – Here’s the final word on weird pin action. It comes from longtime bowling facility manager Keith Kitt, who worked at now-defunct Rocket Bowl in Chatsworth for 12 years and in other supervisory positions.

Keith’s comments come in the wake of this month’s California Bowling News story describing a few strange results that occurred after a bowling ball made contact with pins.

“You get that,” said Keith of the crazy pin bounces. “Because of simple physics, there are probably millions of combinations of the way the pins can fall. And when you factor in people’s bowling styles and the way they release the ball, it can make for some interesting reactions.

“And when you have people with an open-play mentality who just throw the ball as hard as they can, it can go in the gutter and then fly out at the last minute,” added Keith, who has smoked 15 perfect games and two 800 series.

In other words, that strange pin action – or inaction as the case may be – will always be there at bowling centers.

So get used to it!

Keith Kitt knows pins don’t always behave the way bowlers expect them to.

Kelly Manuel used a ball drilled by Memo Rosales and Brian Main at Chaparral Lanes. Her father, William from Cincinnati will become an X-Frame member as will her brother Phil. They are proud of Kelly. Jeff Panlilio is thanked by Kelly for his guidance. Congrats Kelly!

Runner up Ted Villaroman, is one of the Good Guys and bowled well in 2nd place. His lovely wife Offie was on hand. Great people here. He used a ball drilled by Ben Mach at Westminster Lanes.

Edmund Del Mundo, a longtime friend hails for Eagle Rock and married to Jean, used a ball drilled by Memo at Chaparral. He is one of the Good Guys to be sure.

See you at Oak Tree Lanes for a good one. Check in early. Two squads only, 4 and 6PM. $200 bonus if you bowl the 4PM squad and win the event. See our ad for more info or call Bob Smith 562-868-7264. No membership fee for first 6 weeks, then only $10 annually after that.

“PICK THE BALL” SURVEY RETURNS TO PBA BOWLING CHALLENGE MOBILE GAME

Concrete Software is renewing its PBA Bowling Challenge “pick the ball” survey, inviting fans to select the new Product Registered ball model they would like to see introduced into the popular mobile device game.

Beginning today, the PBA Bowling Challenge mobile game will list three new ball models for each PBA-participating brand, and ask fans to vote on which ball to include in the game. Weekly voting will feature a different brand and choice of ball models through the first week in June.

First up will be MOTIV. Based on fan voting, the “winning” MOTIV ball will be available for play on April 7. A code to purchase the ball for 50% off (the code will be available on PBA’s and the specific companies’ social media pages) will be posted.

Each company also will have a flashback weekend where all its previous balls will be available for that weekend only.

As the season progresses, voting will take place each week to select the new ball for release as noted below:

- Track: March 30 (voting begins); April 14 (ball release date).
- Storm: April 6; April 21.
- Brunswick: April 13; April 28.
- Columbia 300: April 20; May 5.
- Radical: April 27; May 12.
- DV8: May 4; May 19.
- Ebonite: May 11; May 26.
- Roto Grip: May 18; June 2.
- 900 Global: May 25; June 9.
- Hammer: June 1; June 16.

BURBANK — Spring has sprung! Time for some spring cleaning of that bowling bag & tool kit. I always manage to find old league sheets that are tattered and torn. Out! (I once found one that was from 10 years prior) Your tool kit can also get cluttered.

Get rid of the tape that no longer sticks. Add a few different kinds of tape too. Such as adhesive, waterproof and insert tapes. There's a huge number of insert tapes to choose from. Check your rosin and slide bags for deterioration.

After a few years, my rosin was no longer usable and my slide's plastic bag had holes releasing the powder throughout my kit bag. Ugh! You may want to add a tube of super glue as finger inserts have a tendency to pull out over time. (Ladies, it's a good back up for broken nails.) Don't forget NuSkin. It can be a life saver!

For those of you that need only a small kit bag, I pick up a zippered pencil case from the dollar store and use it for my goodies. Of course now I have 2 of those! Warm weather is upon us. Find yourself a hand held fan & throw it in. You will not regret it. Get ruthless & feel prepared for the summer season!

Sysco finishes strong to take round four

by David Yamauchi

Downey — The Brunswick Invitational was back for the final week on the tight 2016 Nationals Team Event pattern. Sysco and Cal Bowl were sitting on top of the round with Cal Bowl needing a sweep to stay alive.

In the battle for the round, Sysco held a 4 game lead over Cal Bowl at the start of action. With 5 points on the line, Cal Bowl came out and took game one, but Sysco roared back to take game two by 80 sticks to lock up the round and add their name to the round winners. Charlie Kinstler came up big when they needed him leading Sysco at 585 while Ramon Torres again paced Cal Bowl at 586. Round winners will bowl each other for position in the rollofs next week as the Wild-Card round begins.

In the “B” match, DV8 and Bowlum battled just a few wins short of a chance of the round. DV8 took the first two and totals, dropping game 3 by just 14 sticks. Jeff Carr led DV8 at 591 while sub “Shorty” Ramos paced Bowlum at 536.

J.A.T. was looking to bounce back after being booted from the round last week by taking on Threadworks. J.A.T. came on strong to take game one, got a big strike from anchor Anthony Santos to take game two and cruised to the sweep. Santos once again paced J.A.T. with a nice 642 set while Paul Varela was solid for Threadworks with a 623 set.

Century 21-My Real Estate took on Smirnoff in the 5th vs. 6th place match. Century 21 came out strong taking games one and two but Smirnoff roared back with a huge third game and enough to win totals. Arnold Cheesman paced Smirnoff with a 598 set while Bobby Campagnale led Century 21 with a 599 series.

Erickson’s Foods and Crown Royal battled in the 7/8 matchup. Crown Royal took game one but Erickson’s came back to take the next two and totals. DeeRonn Booker led Erickson’s at 604 while Dave Schiada was big for Crown Royal with a 620 series.

Los Altos Trophy and Professional Approach matched up in the middle of the matches. Los Altos swept through Pro Approach easily led by Nick Rodriguez’ 622 clean set that was good to break the Clean-30 pot. Matt Schermerhorn was high for Pro Approach at 552.

Herzog and Linder’s met up in the battle of the Insurance companies. Linder’s snuck out game one by 8, then cruised to a sweep of Herzog. Kevin Gagnon led Herzog with a 593 set while Brandon Grant finished strong for a 587 to lead Linder’s.

G.J.C. Janitorial, Forest Lanes and Gym W.R.A.T.T. Fitness were bowling against scored in the final matches as the round-winners were taken out of the rotation. Forest Lanes swept through G.J.C. and Gym W.R.A.T.T. dropped all 5 points to Forest Lanes’ scores. Dan Gartin led G.J.C. with a 570 set, Rob Renko subbed to a 616 set to lead Forest and sub Ryan Huff led G.J.C. with a 463 series. In the battle of the round winners, it was Keystone Lanes (3rd round winners) bowling Western Pacific (2nd round winners), and Parkin’s Bowling Supply (1st round winners) bowling the scores of Sysco. Keystone Lanes took 4 wins from Western Pacific and Parkin’s was unable to score a point against Sysco’s scores. Buddy Lucas led Parkin’s with a 548 set, Eddie VanDaniker paced Keystone Lanes again at 624 and Raul Rosales led Western Pacific with a 569 set.

Next week starts the Wild Card round with 8 weeks on 4 different conditions. Remember, the round conditions are drawn for individual weeks. The order will be: 3rd (long), 2nd (short), 1st (house), 4th (Nationals), 2nd – 1st – 4th – 3rd.

Sidepots went to Anthony Santos (253) and Michael Lindsey (255) for $57 each while the second game Super Pot went to Nick Rodriguez (225) for $171. Financial Advisor’s third game pot went to Michael Lindsey (255) for $200 with second to Brandon Grant (238) for $100. Nick Rodriguez was the lone Clean-30 and his no-open set was good for $530. Strikeout pot was carried over again and is over $5200.

Come out Monday night at 8:30 and watch the best scratch league in the area take the lanes at Del Rio as the bowlers start the Wild-Card round on the long-oil pattern next Monday.
