Michael Dang Wins First ABT Title at AMF Valley View Lanes

GARDEN GROVE—The AMF Valley View Lanes stop of the Amateur Bowlers Tour on March 26-28, 2010 saw the bowlers take to the lanes and after the beat the board finals, our newest champion, Michael Dang emerged with a 35 pin victory.

Our newest champion, Michael Dang lives in Garden Grove. Michael sports a high game of 300 and a high series of 804. Michael bowls in the ABT League at Yorba Linda Bowl and in the On the Road Again League at Westminster Lanes. Michael was using a Storm Invasion drilled by Ben Mach for the win this weekend. Michael wanted to thank Ben Mach for taking care of his equipment and all his friends at Westminster Lanes.

Michael also wanted to thank Jonathan Barraca, John Feitz and Dom Laguardia for letting him win this weekend! Other than bowling, Michael enjoys deep sea fishing. Michael also wanted to thank AMF Valley View for hosting the tournament and the ABT directors for running an outstanding tournament.

Roy Jones was the winner of the optional Senior Sweeper. Deven Walls was the winner of the 2-Game Sweepers.

The Mystery Game Pot game and score were drawn during our finals meeting. The Mystery Game (game 2) was 286. The Mystery Series was 780. There were no winners. The Mystery Pots are available to all members and only continued on page 9

Illinois Bowler Rolls 900

ARLINGTON—Andrew Mank of Belleville, Ill. has joined an elite club becoming the 15th bowler in history to roll a United States Bowling Congress-approved 900 series.

"In the ninth frame of the third game I rang a 10 pin," Mank said. "Then a messenger came and took it out. Thank God."

Mank, 22 rolled 36 consecutive strikes March 18 in the Thursday Men's Handicap League at Bel-Air Bowl in Belleville. Everyone in the bowling center gathered behind lanes one and two to watch his final frames.

"The whole place went wild like a Cardinals baseball game," Bel-Air Bowl staff member Paulette McCullough said. "We were all so happy for him."

Mank, who started bowling at age 3, had several certified 300 games and 800 series to his credit heading into this season. Mank aspires to bowl professionally some day and said he is thrilled his league voted to be a USBC certified league allowing the accomplishment to go in the record books.

"I am glad it was certified," Mank said. "If it wasn't, who knows if it could ever happen for me again."

The first USBC approved 900 occurred Feb. 2, 1997 when Jeremy Sonnenfeld rolled three consecutive perfect games in Lincoln, Neb. There has never been a 900 on Sport Bowling lane conditions. Mank said he will be looking for a PBA Experience USBC Sport league this summer in the hopes of being the first. "I love challenges," Mank said.

Amateur Brian Ziesig Defeats Jason Belmonte to Win PBA GEICO Mark Roth Plastic Ball Championship

by Jerry Schneider

WEST BABYLON—Brian Ziesig of Levittown, N.Y., won the Professional Bowlers Association GEICO Mark Roth Plastic Ball Championship Sunday at AMF Babylon Lanes to become the first amateur to win a Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour event since 2002.

Ziesig rolled three strikes in the 10th frame in the championship match to tie Australian two-hander Jason Belmonte 247-247 in regulation which forced a one-ball, sudden-death roll-off that was won by Ziesig with a strike to Belmonte's nine-count in which he left the 7 pin.

"Whenever I tried to overhook the ball, it seemed I wouldn't get the carry so those last few shots I paid special attention to avoiding that," Ziesig said. "Believe it or not I really wasn't that nervous so that helped me throw those shots the way I wanted to."

Ziesig became the first amateur to win a Tour title since Brett Wolfe won the 2002 United States Bowling Congress Masters.

"This is my 15 minutes of fame" said the 35-year-old Ziesig, who works for a local bowling supply company. "It's back to work tomorrow morning. To be able to accomplish this on national TV in front of a hometown crowd is really kind of a fantasy."

Ziesig, who earned $25,000 for the win, had been a Touring professional in the 1998, '99 and 2000 seasons with a previous best finish of 10th. He earned his way into the tournament field through a tour qualifying round earlier in the week.

The 26-year-old Belmonte, who earned $13,000 for second, was hoping to win his second career title having won The Bowling Foundation Long Island Classic here last year to become the first bowler to win a PBA Tour title using a two-handed delivery.

"The best you can hope for is to throw 10 good shots but I threw nine—what can you do?" said Belmonte, who finished second for the third time this season. "I left that 10 pin in the eighth frame because I got behind the ball too much and I just didn't get the break."

In the opening stepladder match, Wayne Garber of Modesto, Calif., defeated two-time Tour titlist Michael Michael Machuga of Erie, Pa., 258-245. Machuga earned $5,000 for fifth.

In the second match, the Tour's all-time career win leader with 47 titles, Walter Ray Williams Jr., defeated Garber 280-211. In the semi-final match Ziesig defeated Williams 255-237 to advance to the championship match.

William's third place finish was enough to put him in tie for the Player of the Year race with Bill O'Neill going into the final event of the season in Baltimore next week. Williams earned $8,000 for third and Garber $6,000 for fourth.

The Plastic Ball Championship required all players to use identical plastic bowling balls and is the one event on the Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour that turns back the clock on ball technology creating an equalized playing field and eliminating the reliance on today's high-powered equipment.

Bowling Proprietors' Association of America Reports Significant Growth Year For Industry in 2010

ARLINGTON, TX, March 30, 2010 – The Bowling Proprietors' Association of America (BPAA), the bowling industry's premier trade organization, reported today a strong year of growth for the industry in 2009. Fueled by increased interest from women and younger bowlers and the rising popularity of entertainment bowling centers, the industry recorded its fourth consecutive year of growth highlighted by a 4.6% increase in consumer participation with nearly 70 million having bowled in 2009 alone. The BPAA also reported that bowling has once again ranked as the nation's top participatory sport and saw increased revenues, having more than a $10 billion impact on the U.S. economy.

"We saw a banner growth year for the industry in 2009 and, for the fourth year in a row, enjoyed a considerable increase in consumer involvement at bowling centers across the country. In particular, we continue to see rising participation among women and youth bowlers, a stark contrast to the misperception that bowling is dominated by older males," said Steve Johnson, executive director of the BPAA. "Now more than 60% of all bowlers are under the age of 34 and half are women."

Added Johnson, "Additionally, despite the economy, we are seeing more corporate partners invest their marketing dollars in cost-effective, high impact partnerships with the bowling industry." Current corporate partners include Pepsi, Budweiser, World Wrestling Entertainment, JOLLY TIME Pop Corn, Tony's® Pizza and many others.

The rise of larger Family Entertainment Centers (FECs) and modern upgrades to existing centers has attracted corporate America. These large FECs are equipped with a wide array of amenities that include lounge areas and enhanced entertainment, technology and food/beverage offerings. "Many more companies are recognizing the impact that bowling has on consumer marketing, as more than 150 advertisers have included bowling in their creative messages over the past five years," said Johnson.

The industry was also bolstered by consumer and media attention surrounding the historic grand opening of the International Bowling Campus (IBC) in Arlington, Texas, which houses the International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame and the International Training and Research Center – a USOC-recognized facility and home to TEAM USA. With the January grand opening of the IBC, the leading entities in bowling are now operating under a single roof, enabling increased cohesion and collaboration across the industry.

The BPAA also reported a 5.6% increase in the number of consumers who consider themselves frequent bowlers. Frequency growth was also significant in the youth and young adult segments, helping contribute to increased revenues at local centers.

The past year also saw heightened participation for bowling on the collegiate and high school levels. High school bowling has seen double-digit growth in five of the last eight seasons and the number of varsity bowlers has more than doubled this decade. This season, 48 states now recognize bowling on the high school varsity or club level – a significant increase from 20 states, eight years ago.

About BPAA
Headquartered in Arlington, Texas, the 77-year-old Bowling Proprietors' Association of America is a trade association representing the business interests of bowling center owners worldwide. BPAA's mission is to enhance the profitability of its member bowling centers.

MONTCLAIR—Glen Kim was the star Saturday at the Bowlum as he won the event winning five straight matches in the Single Elim Finals to take home a tidy $1,200. He finally downed the top seed Joseph Lung in the title game to win his first ABTA title. Glen topped a nice turnout of 214 entrants for the win at the Bowlum.

The scoring was semi tough but very fair as men +34 and ladies +13 made the cut to the semis which advanced 52 bowlers to the semi finals. Included were the added super seniors Kathy Mc Collum, PingTubera and Leo Tartamella.

The scoring in the semis was good as +39 made the top 16 and that included three ladies to the mix, having the chance to win it all

Joseph Lung got red hot in the semis to fire a big +154 to be seeded tops and bowl for the title. In second was Roger Romero +78, who would sit out the first round of the single elims and enter in round two.

Losers in round one were Ruben Gonzales, Patricia Lin, Marv Crowder, Eugene Haynes, Ben Hurtado, Renzie Astillero, and Pilbert Colian. They got paid $100 in 10-16th places.

Round two had Julie Nguyen, Casey Nelson, Don Quintagion and Tim Tran lose out. They were 6-9th and $110 with fine bowling.

Round three saw Roger Romero, and Sonia Coronado fall out. They were 4th and 5th and $120 with Glen Kim and Andrew Lung to bowl for the right to advance to the title vs Joseph Lung. Folks it could become brother vs brother here :.)

Well that was not to be, as Kim excelled in a 212-193 match leaving the affable Andrew in 3rd place and $200 with Kim off to the title game vs Joseph Lung.

The match is on as Joseph elected to start and he spared, Kim spared frames 1-2 but Joseph was having troubles on the right lane with open, spare, open and Kim doubled to take the lead. A larger lead as Joseph split in frame 5 and opened. Kim missed a 10 pin and struck but Joseph was struggling with splits in frames 7-8 and could not recover.

The title went to Mr Kim in a 181/210-136/192 count and deservedly so. Glen won this the hard way winning five straight matches in the top 16 single elim finals for the win. He is a fine gentleman and a soft spoken man but his performance spoke loudly on this night as he is our latest champion. Great Bowling by a fine gentleman. We are proud to have Glen as our latest Champion. Congratulations!! Very impressive won Mr. Kim!!

Great Bowling by one of our finest Joseph Lung who fell short in the title match. With this experience hthe will be ready next time. He is a most likeable young man. Great Bowling Joseph!

His brother Andrew did very well in third place and is the only two time winner this year in the ABTA. He almost stole another ::_)) He is a great guy and fun loving. Great bowling Andrew!

Tourney Hi qualifiers were Andrew Lung +150, and Bobbie Mc Collum led the ladies +77. They will get paid entries to any regular event.

Optional $5 doubles were led by Vuong Do and Andrew Lung 1450 and $150 2nd Andrew and Joseph Lung 1434 $130. We paid 19 places and $1,380 in the doubles.

The Match game was NOT Matched, so we will have the MAX POT again Saturday at West Covina of $3,500, with back up pots of $3,500, and 2,705. So it looks like we will have a $3,500 Match Game for 4 weeks in a row minimum with the reserve pots!

The Match Series was NOT Matched at 670 so it will carry over and be an estimated $1,900 this Saturday and only $2.00 to enter.

The 3-6-9 was a carry over with Tim Tran last up going for $1,100, but he missed on the first shot and got a $50 consolation for beer Money :-). So we will go for $1,200 this Saturday, Big Bucks this weekend folks!

The weekly winner of the Global 900 Ball was none other than Sol Cericos who gets the popular Break Point ball. Next week our Sponsor is giving another Ball Free chance for each entrant! The Bounty Hunter, a powerful ball!

Raffle winners are listed on our payoff/results page here.

Glen Kim is from Artesia, and used a Columbia Scout drilled by himself no less. He is single and thanks the “Bowl SA Mo” Tuesday night league bowlers at Linbrook Bowl for support.

Joseph Lung of the Bowlum Lungs, is from Monterey Park and used an Envy drilled by Ed Williamson at Bowling Square. He thanks his family for support and of course the Mou Liu League!

Andrew Lung of the Bowlum Lungs:) is also from Monterey Park and used a Dimension drilled by Ed again at Bowling Square. He is single gals and thanks family, Mou Liu Bowlers and Bob and the ABTA staff for support, and Bowlum for hosting the ABTA.

Thanks to Herbert Jones & the fine Bowlum Staff who were very helpful! The Bowlum is Super for our events for sure! We will return soon IN FACT June 26 in a FROZEN Event the week before Las Vegas archives as our latest Champion.

Join us at West Covina Lanes this Saturday ONE DAY Special Event as our Sponsor” 900 Global” will have display/showing of all products. YOU can even throw the Balls as they will have balls with adjustable grips and more.

Next week April 10 we visit Cerritos Lanes in a One Day Event. See our the website at www.abta1.com or the ad in this paper for information.

Get those Las Vegas rooms in early this Year so we can organize a great event for you there. We are selling and raffling rooms now. We will bowl

July 1-2-3-4 at the South Point. $12,500 1st with the bonuses.

On a Happy note we welcome Cameron Rio Velasco to the ABTA as he was born March 20. He tipped the scales at a nice lbs 7 oz. lbs and stood 19 ½” tall and was immediately fitted with Break Point and a Bounty Hunter and 3-G shoes and ABTA pajamas. Proud parents are ABTA members Lara and Alex Velasco, and let’s not forget Grandparents Mr. & Mrs. Oscar Ibarrolaza and by the way Cameron Grandpa is a two time champion and Bowler of the year in the ABTA. He joins a happy brother Xander at home!! Congratulations to all VERY Good people here.

Check-In EARLY at West Covina Please!

Californian’s Shine at Golden Ladies

LAS VEGAS—It is said that “Age is just a state of mind” and the proof was in the pudding at the National Golden Ladies Classic. Do you know about the Golden Ladies Classic? If not, neither did I until I recently had the pleasure of watching 80 fantastic bowlers participate in this tournament for women bowlers 50 years and older at the Orleans Casino/Hotel and bowling center in Las Vegas in March.

Created by tournament director Jeanette Robinson in 1990, this is the 20th annual tournament and participants came from as far as Delaware, Michigan, North Carolina, New York, Kansas, Texas, Florida and points west to meet, renew friendships and bowl. There is a Senior division and a Super Senior division for women over 60. The top 12 who do not make the cut for the regular senior tournament bowl three 4-game blocks of match play to determine the winner of the Super Senior division. There is also a one game roll-off for seniors over 70 and a Last Chance side tournament.

Twenty-one women from California participated and three made the top five stepladder finals! The top five were: Dana Miller Mackie - Alba NM, Virginia Norton - Cypress, CA, Carole Jones -Englewood, CO, Paula Vidad - Los Angeles, CA and 2009 Senior Bowler of the Year for 2009, Robin Romeo of Newhall, CA.

Watching these women perform makes a believer out of you. The scores were fantastic. Over half of the field was 60 years of age and older and 33 average 200 or better. I was fascinated by the accuracy and focus of these bowlers which, of course, is why they are still able to compete at this level.

Dana Miller-Mackie led the field with a 232 average throughout the tournament and rolled a 266 to defeat Virginia Norton in the final match. Norton was hot averaging 228 and in match #3 she edged out Carol Jones 248 – 245. Jones averaged 228 also but shot two 299 games during the tournament. Paula Vidad averaged 223 and defeated Robin Romeo 234-227 in the first stepladder match. It was like a knife in the heart to watch these women who are like well oiled machines throw a perfect ball and leave solid 10’s, 8’s and sometimes the 7-10 or 8-10! That 10-pin made the difference in Romeo’s match with Vidad who took advantage of the opportunity and struck out.

Mackie was so thrilled in having won the tournament she was absolutely giddy. When I asked her how many times she had bowled this she said, “This is my first time!” Owner of a bowling center in Alba, she said they have had a conflicting youth tournament at the same time. She kept saying, “I am so thrilled.”

The Last Chance tournament was won by Nanci Johnson of Tulsa, OK. This gives bowlers who do not qualify the opportunity to strike again! When I asked Nanci how many times she had bowled in the GLT she said, “This is my first time!” Nanci bowls one league a week but in order to bone up for the tournament she said she bowled 9-10 games on Saturday and Sunday. Looks like it worked.

Winner of the Super Senior division was long time bowling standout Dee Price of Stockton. Dee, who has not missed one GLT tournament, was bowling in her 20th event.

It’s been awhile since I watched a tournament for four days but this one was definitely worth it. Sponsors STORM and Jim Goodwin of Stars & Strikes Newspaper out of Rockwall, TX fattened the prize fund.

Other Californian’s who bowled: Jennifer Nelson - Menlo Park, Sue Mivelaz - Tujunga, Diana Stouffer – Antioch, Donna Donahue – La Mesa, Angela Scott – Moreno Valley, Judy Valazza – Winnetka, Teresa Lauer – Sherman Oaks, Kathy Allen – Moreno Valley, Kathy Solowitz – Northridge, Wendy Brown – La Mesa, Pam Blake – Quartz Hill, Karen Smith – San Marcos, A. Rose Williams, Connie Palmer – El Cajon, Jackie Wyckoff – Campbell, Jerri Justin – Palmdale and Vern Vander Veen – Mira Loma, CA.

CAL BOWL BOWLING REPORT

2500 E. Carson St., Lakewood, CA 90712 • (562) 421-8448

LAKEWOOD — It's that time of the year when you may see a white, soft, furry little animal hopping down the trail, or maybe someone holding a cute little yellow "down" that likes to chirp. There may be eggs simmering on the stove so the family can dye some for the Easter Egg Hunt. We did our share of hunting and found a bunch of league sheets for our Cal Bowl Bowling Report. So here we go...

GO HOME

they described the short stocky man wearing the same clothes and doing the same project!

He was walking down the lane and placing small glass lanterns about 10-12 feet apart. Then came back to the ball return and selected an old dirty black ball. With an awkward 3 step approach (He looked bowlegged, they reported). He started a slow roller that weaved in and out of his string of glass lanterns, never grazing a single one!

These ghostly apparitions brought back a long lost memory of me sitting in a small movie theater in Kansas back in the late 1940's. Between the cartoon, the serial and the movie feature, they ran a special about the great Andy Varipapa. He picked up the sp-lits, bowled backwards and laid out a string of glass lanterns! I was truly impressed as I had just bowled my first game a few days before.

I can't imagine 3 different people, in 3 different bowl-ing centers experiencing the same vision. So I will just say, April's Fool and know that I gotcha again this year, thanks to Andy

Brylaw New Leader

DOWNEY — Last week's leader, "THREADWORKS" clashed again this week with "BRYLAW" and took five. Since every week is a position round, these two teams will be paired again next week for the third time in a row.

"LINDER INSURANCE" leaned on "STRIKEHARDAPP.COM" for five big ones, jumping from 10th to 6th.

"W.C.S.T." AND "A.B.T.A." mixed up the soup with "W.C.S.T." the five point winner on this pair.

Another 5 point contest was won by the "PROFESSIONAL APPROACH" over the suffering "DIFFERENT LOOK CABINETS". If the "CABINET MAKERS" show up for round five, there is still a chance at the spot in the roll-off.

Five was the number again between "WESTERN PACIFIC" and "GANO EXCEL COFFEE". "GANO" stopped perculating at the front door Monday night, to give "WESTERN PACIFIC" a boost up the ladder from 5th to 4th.

Only one 700 was recorded — Ramiro Garcia shot 700! Raul Rosales was 8 pins short at 692. Mikey Villareal up there again this week with his 685, Aaron Hodges took the #4 spot with 663, and Mike Cammarata rounded out the top five with his 659.

Only two more sessions 'til BOOKING TIME! (Sounds like a country song.)

If you check the 'YEAR TO DATE' column, "WESTERN PACIFIC" leads with 95, "SYSCO" 88, "J.A.T." 86 1/2, "W.C.S.T." 85 and "KATIE JAKES" 83.5. Looks good up on the stats board.

Bowling for a Cause

CITRUS HEIGHTS—Emcee Tina Macuha, announcer for Sacramento’s Good Day Sacramento on Channel 31, stretched her arm out welcoming 30 lanes full of bowlers and said, “I - am a survivor!” She then related her touching story of having detected breast cancer with a routine exam and her decision to have a double mastectomy. It isn’t often an entire bowling center full of people is drop dead quiet, but as Tina spoke, all was quiet at Fireside Lanes in Citrus Heights where the “Bowl for the Cure” tournament was being held on January 16. When you walked in the door the entire bowl was pink. Pink balloons behind every pair of settees and floating above all of the tables set up to check bowlers in, sell items (even homemade cookies and cupcakes,) a variety of items were adorned with the widely recognized pink ribbon and a five foot pink feather tree could not be missed.

Dinger, mascot for the Sacramento Rivercats, was making the rounds giving people a photo op, and 160 women and men alike filled the lanes. It was a three game No-Tap event grossing nearly $14,000 between entries and merchandise sales to benefit the Susan B. Komen breast cancer fund.

Bowlers are notoriously generous in support of charitable causes and Historian Chuck Pezzano estimates that bowlers, and groups using bowling, have funneled close to 100 million to support various charitable endeavors. California alone has given generously to the Susan B. Komen fund, the International Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum, and since the 1940’s, the California Bowlers BVL Fund (which used to be known as the Bowlers Victory Legion) has given over 10 million to support California VA and Military hospitals and Outreach Centers.

Numerous organizations continue to utilize bowling to assist in their fundraisers, Big Brothers and Big Sisters for one. The California Bowling Writers raise funds through leagues and donations for their Phone Cards for the Troops charity. Individual leagues and tournament clubs like the Camellia City 500 Club all have charitable endeavors with much going to worthy causes and to help the less fortunate.

Of the nearly 3,000 local and 50 state associations throughout the USBC, one could venture to say that all have some kind of fundraiser for charity.

Behind every event is the one mover and shaker. In the Bowl for the Cure at Fireside Lanes it was Debbie Haggerty, honored national Top 100 Coach, who coaches and runs the youth program. Hundreds of prizes are garnered for drawings including donated bowling balls and small appliances.

Radiological Associates of Sacramento donated seed packets and other items as giveaways. Youth bowlers and the local Greater Sacramento USBC association manned the tables and helped but most of the hard work is done by Debbie. Bowlers are the best. by Mary Lynly

Malucci Rolls 300 Again At Red Rock Bowl

LAS VEGAS — Deaf bowling super-star Carl Malucci grabbed the headlines here again with his 44th career 300 game, the most ever by a deaf or hear-impaired bowler. In his Tuesday night Red Rock Gents League at Red Rock Bowl, Malucci started with a 300 and finished with 227 and 258 for a 785 series which moved his average up to 242.

In keeping count, Malucci’s latest 300 is his third this season at Red Rock Bowl. The other two were made in his Wednesday night Mountainsiders League. He also hit three 800 this season at Red Rock Bowl.

MacMonagle Rolls 266/942, Beach Cities 812/2976 In Deaf Travel At Oak Tree Lanes

DIAMOND BAR — The 50th anniversary So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League had a great day at Oak Tree Lanes averaging close to 175 per bowler. League-leading Beach Cities continues its domination with the day’s high team game 812 and new season high 2976 series. Leroy MacMonagle led the 13 bowlers honor roll list with 924 including a 266 game and Ed Abakumoff blasted the day’s high game 268, which started off with front 7 baggers.

Previously, MacMonagle had problems trying to hit 800 this season and having come close to it with a couple of 799s. This time MacMonagle went over 800 with his 824 that had games of 196-218-266-244 boosting his average up to 185. Following MacMonagle were 5 bowlers with 800s, with Francisco Navarro rolling his season best 872 (211-182-255-224), durable Darrell Stogryn hitting 224-227-222-194 for 867 and Abakumoff struggling with a close 159 after his 268-202-201 for 830. Beach Cities’ hot duo of Jeff Stansell and Pablo Yoma shot (186-237-186-206) 825 and (199-252-181-184) 815, respectively.

Super-sub Robert Scott Jr. went over his average again, this time with his best 792 being 8 pins short of 800. Scott Jr.’s former high was 768 and he rolled higher with 195-176-231-190. Lonnie Jones Jr. and Gardy Rodgers had identicl 777s with Jones Jr. from 213-150-212-202 and Rodgers from 212-181-183-201. Robert Jones started slow with 163-185 and ended with a couple of 323s for 772. Andy Lorenzo had 222-209-162-176 for 769 and Randy Salazar had 203-224 in his 735. Linda Hernandez bettered her ladies season high game of 204 with a new high of 209.

Leader Beach Cities with Sharon Caldwell’s 661, Robert Audette’s 675, Stansell’s 825 and Yoma’s 815, had games of 755-812-700-709 in its season high 2976 series. They dominated Sunland with a 18.5 to 6.5 win with Sunland’s top bowler being away in Las Vegas with his other league’s season ending sweeper and Scott Jr. carrying the load with little help from two other teammates.

Second place Quad Cities and 3rd place Riverside battled for the position and Riverside won 14-11 to move into 2nd by one and half point. In spite of MacMonagle’s heroic 924, Stogryn’s El Camino Village held to 4th place with 17-8 win over Mac’s Mid City. With Sunland’s 6.5 loss moving Orange County finally out of the cellar and O.Co.’s 14-11 win over S.F. Valley make a tense battle of the three teams close to the cellar.

The league thanks Oak Tree Lanes management for oil conditioning the lanes, which provided the high scores. The next travel date is April 11 at Cal Bowl. We hope that Cal Bowl manager will have the lanes conditioned for us.
