Ayers & Glossner Take WWPB Event

by Lori Yamasaki

YORBA LINDA—It was yet another fun filled weekend for everyone at Yorba Linda Bowl with the 7th Annual Jim Lee Memorial WWPB Mixed Doubles Championship sponsored by Hammer! Debbie Ayers and Chris Glossner will remember the days fondly as the WWPB's newest mixed doubles champions.

Hovering near the top slot all weekend, Chris and Debbie made their move the last block of match play Sunday afternoon. Debbie took charge following a power lunch. "I was able to move in with an aggressive ball and stayed out of trouble", Debbie remarked. She continued, "The guys all bowled so great, so I knew I had to step up".

For her fifth WWPB title, Debbie wanted to be sure to thank Alvin Lou for drilling her last three balls she was able to use over the course of the weekend. She also wanted to thank her husband, Steve Ayers, for finding her such a great partner in Chris, Jim Hornung and his staff at Yorba Linda Bowl, and her children, Michael and Krista, for staying home to help care for her mother so that she could come bowl. Debbie is a 15 time San Diego All Star and a twotime Southern California All Star. She is also a member of the San Diego Women's Bowling Hall of

"Debbie is a great partner who struck when I didn't", stated Chris as he reflected upon this victory. He wanted to thank Dave Wodka for laying out the ball he used for the last part of qualifying and Sunday's finals and Teddy Turner of Bowlers Depot for drilling that ball. Chris also wanted to thank his wife, Sayaji, for staying home with their daughters, Napua (4) and Kiana (2), so that he can come out to bowl. "I knew I couldn't miss, watching everyone strike around me – I had to keep pace", Chris noted on the great bowling by everyone this weekend. Chris has only been back to bowling for four years, this time left handed, after a 15 year absence from the sport he began as a right handed player. Chris is also a two time San Di-

Saturday night proved to be the crowd pleaser with Yorba Linda Bowl's annual Battle of the Stars (Sexes). The men have been dominating in years past but not this year! The women prevailed. The team of Wendy Macpherson, Shannon Pluhowski, and Yorba Linda Bowl's Kristyn Anderson topped the team of men - Dave Wodka, Ben Laughlin, and Yorba Linda Bowl's Greg Neuer. Way to go ladies!!! A special thank vou to Hammer for their contin-

the WWPB!
Following the Battle was a fun filled pro-am. Congratulations to the winners – Wesley Low, Jr. Jared Dewald, Kert Robins, and Ed Harris! As always, a terrific time had by all! With several high scores, we'd like to also congratulate Vince Wood for breaking the USBC six game scoring record with 1664. Great bowling by everyone this weekend.

ued support of this event and

The WWPB would like to again thank Hammer and Ebonite for their continued support as well as Jim Hornung and his wonderful staff at Yorba Linda Bowl. 2007 marked the 10th year of the WWPB at Yorba Linda Bowl and we look forward to many more successful years!

Our next WWPB event will be at Santa Clarita Lanes over Memorial weekend. Details and information are on our website, www.wwpb.com. See results on page 6.

April 7 No-Tap Cal Bowl

LAKEWOOD — The monthly running of the Six-Game No-Tap at Cal Bowl will get the starting gun Saturday at 5:00 p.m. Check-in starts at 4:15 p.m.

The $40 entry fee should be in cash, along with the optional sidepots.

This great no-tap draws bowlers from all around the Southland, making for a very competitive six games.

Cal Bowl (for strangers visiting from Mars) is located at 2500 East Carson Street in Lakewood. Easy to find from the 605 or the 710 freeways.

Be early, bring cash — eat, bowl and enjoy some Saturday surprising scores!

Raising The Bar

UNCASVILLE, Conn— When two titles are considered a down year, it can only mean the bar has been raised to an unbelievably high level.

Tommy Jones has raised the bar higher than any bowler in Denny's PBA Tour history, capturing his 10th career title and second Major Sunday with a 257-222 win over Tony Reyes to win the 2007 PBA Tournament of Champions at Mohegan Sun Arena.

Jones won his 10 titles in two years, six months and seven days, breaking the PBA record for shortest time between first and 10 titles by four days. PBA legend Dick Weber held the record for 45 years until Jones salvaged what was considered a down year for the 28-year-old.

Jones won his first career title in the 2004 Japan Cup and went on to win four titles in both 2004-05 and 2005-06, including his first Major in last season's 63rd U.S. Open. He had won just one title this season coming into this week, but he dominated both his opponents on Sunday.

"It feels great. I haven't been bowling very well this season, but I worked with Del Ballard recently and I have to thank him for getting me back here," said Jones, the 2005-06 PBA Player of the Year, of the 12-time titlist. "Next year I'm going to be back and ready to go again. I'm ready to win another Player of the Year."

Though he hasn't been among the many bowlers in a crowded PBA Player of the Year race, Jones did take another step toward history, capturing his second of the PBA's Triple Crown events. He only needs a World Championship title to become the fifth bowler in history to win the Triple Crown.

The title match was never in

doubt as Jones started with six consecutive strikes while Reyes, making his Tournament of Champions debut, struggled with just one strike in the first four frames including an open in the 4th frame

Jones advanced to the title match with a 279-238 win over the defending champion Chris Barnes. On the 40th anniversary of the Tour's first-ever televised 300 game in the 1967 Tournament of Champions, Jones looked like he might repeat the feat, starting with the first seven strikes. A 10-pin in the 8th frame foiled the effort, but he recovered with four consecutive strikes to close out the match.

Reyes advanced to the title match with a 215-206 win over Norm Duke.

Jones (Simpsonville, S.C.) earned $60,000 for the win. Reyes (San Bruno, Calif.) took home $20,000 for second, while Barnes (Double Oak, Texas) and Duke (Clermont, Fla.) earned $10,000 each for third and fourth, respectively.

The Tournament of Champions wraps up the 2006-07 Denny's PBA Tour season. Next week, six bowlers will compete in a special winner-take-all event, the 2007 Motel 6 Roll to Riches at Sequoia Pro Bowl in Columbus, Ohio. The Major winners from this season (Doug Kent, Jones and Pete Weber), PBA World Point Rankings leader (Wes Malott) and two bowlers from an on-line fan vote (Duke. Walter Ray Williams Jr.) will compete for the $150,000 top prize.

Dennis Fitzsimonds & Jeff Garrison - SST Champs

by Barb McFadden MORENO VALLEY—The SST visited ABC Moreno Valley Bowl for their April event. After 10 games of qualifying, Super Senior Dennis Fitzsimonds was averging 217.7 and was only 15pins ahead of Larry Rumple, last month's SR Champ. During Match Play, Vaughn Doody had a 299 and even won two more matches than Dennis, but Fitzsimonds continued to stay in the grove and increased his lead to 125-pins to capture the SST Senior TItle. Dennis would like to thank himself for finally drilling a ball that enabled him to win the SST and he sends a prayer to Bonnie Jackson, Don's wife.

Going into Match Play, the top three Juniors were neck and neck, only 14 pins apart. Jeff Garrison was in the lead with former Champ Mark Dyer on his tail. Mark bowled a 300 game and briefly jumped into the lead, but Jeff outscored Dyer and won two more match games to win the Junior Title by 118-pins. Jeff would like to thank Ed Enlow for drilling his equipment, ABC Moreno Valley Lanes for hosting the event, SST President, Dave Gully and Pat Danforth for all his support over the years.

The winner of the King of the Hill Match was determined by the tenth frame. Jeff Garrison had to double and he showed Dennis who's King this month. Jeff won $50 and bragging rights. A special thank you goes out to ABC Moreno Valley Bowl Owner, Paul Cheng and Manager, Shawna Miller for hosting this event.

Our next tournament will be at La Habra 300 lanes in La Habra, LAKEWOOD-Alonzo Lemons did it up good as he won his second ABTA title with a strong finish to down upstart Wendy Soo Hoo in the title game. He took home a nice $2,200 1st Prize to his wife Cherise, and happily so! Alonzo won from the top seeded position in the finals.

Our return to CAL was just great. In the early 3 Squad Event we had188 entrants and sidepots at 3:30 PM went for $216 a game. In the ABTA sidepots are only $2.00 per game, so we saw 118 shooters on the final squad.

Due to the nice turnout, 48 bowlers advanced to the semis. Leading the Semis was the classy Lemons at +145. He would sit out and bowl the title game. Right behind was the powerful lefty Desi Nixon at +135. Desi would receive a first round bye in the single elims and enter in round two. It took a nice +74 for both men and women to make the Sweet 16 Single Elim Finals. In a tie at +74 for the final spot Chaney Merritt edged Margive Coronado who finished 17th at CAL.

The Bowlers took to the lanes. In the first round single elims losing were Bud Zagorski, Ray Grabinski, Chauney Merritt, Rene Verdugo, Gina Velarde, Leo Tartamella, and Rey Hernandez. They got checks of $100 in 10-16th places.

In round two being eliminated were Patricia Johnson, Vic Santos, Glenn Mabilangan, and Desi Nixon. They cashed in 6-9 th places and $107 each.

Round three had John Gonzales get to John Samson 257-209. Wendy Soo Hoo edged Randy Antazo 191-187. John and Randy were 4th and 5th with fine bowling and $112.50 each with Wendy and John to meet for the right to bowl Lemons for the title. Wendy again was so tough and a big double got her the win over John who could not double. John was 3rd with great bowling, and Wendy off to the title match vs

The title game was set and the horses were paid! Wendy returned $67 in the horse bets for everyone who had her at $5.00 entry.

The title game was set. Wendy led off with a Double to boot. Although Lemons was clean after five frames he trailed the pretty lady by 20 pins but things sure did a turnaround as Wendy opened in frames 5-6-7. Lemons found his shot on the left lane, fired on a four bagger and led all the way to the finish. The title was his in a 238/255-160/203 score and a tidy $2,200. Great bowling by one of the nicest men you will ever meet. Alonzo is a long time ABTA Member, as is his lovely wife Sherice, Father Ronnie and Brother Marcus. Fner people you will not find. Great Bowling Alonzo!

Great bowling by Wendy Soo Hoo also. She came so close. She is a great lady and well liked by all who know her. We are glad to have Wendy in our club. Great Bowling Wendy! Much the same can be said of Johnny Gonzales who really bowled well at CAL. He is one of the from Hawthorne, and used a Thunderstruck, drilled by Billy Myers at CAL Bowl. He is married to Sherice, and they have a new puppy Pepper. He thanks Sherice for all her love and support and brother Marcus, Curtis Mc Cann, Sandra Johnson and Des Nixon who cheered him on at CAL, and the ABTA for putting on a great tourney and CAL. He is an ABTA Blue Blood and bowls our ABTA League at CAL on Thursday eve. Their team is seeded for the Rolloffs.

Wendy Soo Hoo is from Walnut and used an Inferno drilled by Nick Anthanawong who just passed away due to Cancer. He was a fine ball driller! She thanks Fred Go ABTA Member extrordinaire (her coach! and Vic, Lily Hermie Lebaquin and the ABTA Staff. John Gonzalez is from L.A. and used a Columbia Big Shot that he won in our Club drawing. Dave Edis at Covina Bowl did the fine drilling. He thanks dad Speedy, Mom and Hong for support and the ABTA for the best tournament and his opponents for the challenging matches.

We had several new members at CAL. A first time casher was Elmer Ferrer. Welcome back to Lenny Riley, Rene Verdugo, and Billy Yount who cashed in their return to ABTA action.

We enjoyed our return to CAL and will return there soon. We will have our Memorial Special there May 25-26-27 and $8,000 1st with bonuses! Thanks to Gary and his superb, helpful

It is history folks, as Alonzo Lemons enters the archives as he wins his second ABTA Title at Cal.

Lee Fitzgerald is Elected to the Citrus Belt Hall of Fame

by Frank Weiler Chairman Hall of Fame Committee

INLAND EMPIRE—Long time inland empire bowling official Lee Fitzgerald has been elected to the Citrus Belt Hall of Fame for meritorious service. Lee is being rewarded for over twenty-five years of non-paid volunteer work with youth bowlers and our local bowling associations. She joins her husband John in our Hall of Fame, and they become the first and only married couple to be enshrined

Lee started her bowling career by running the youth program at the old San Hi Lanes in the early 1980s. She increased participation from 24 youth bowlers to 160 within a few seasons. During this period she attained various CCI coaching certificates, including junior and Adult Level-2.

After San Hi Lanes closed, Lee assumed the role of Youth Director at Del Rosa Lanes. Under her leadership the Del Rosa youth program has grown from about 50 youth bowlers to 150. Thanks to Lee, Del Rosa Lanes is now full of youth bowlers on Saturdays. In fact, it is so full that a second Saturday squad is necessary in some sessions.

In 1996, Lee became Secretary of the Citrus Belt Youth Bowling Association. She was instrumental in helping YABA national headquarters come

Ted L. Winger 1928-2007

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, CA
— An inurnment service was held on Monday, April 2, at the Genoa Cemetery in Genoa for Ted L. Winger, 78, who died on March 5, 2007 at Barton Memorial Hospital in South Lake Tahoe, CA.

Mr. Winger was born April 10, 1928 to Victor Francis and Marguerite Salome Winger in Oil City, Penn. He retired from Pacific Telephone in 1982 and then moved to Douglas County.

Ted was an avid bowler and knew hundreds of bowlers thoughout the Los Angeles area. He was a Hall of Fame member and past president of the Los Angeles Bowling Association.

He was also active in the Topaz Ranch Estates Property Owners Association. Over the years, he was active in many youth organizations in California and Nevada, including helping to organize Little League in Topaz Ranch Estates. He was an avid golfer, gardener and bowler with a perfect 300 game to his credit.

He is survived by his son Victor Winger of Houston, Texas; daughters Michele Pike and Marcia Parks and their spouses Suzy Winger, Richard Pike and Jeff Boylan of Gardnerville; grandchildren Robert and Richard Pike, Robert and Dever Lamar

O.C. Bowling Council Meets

by Frank Kietz
GARDEN GROVE — The
Orange County Bowling Council will meet at noon Tuesday, April 24 at Fountain Bowl.

Secretary Cheryl Huntington announced there will be a full agenda: center reports, youth bowling, Bowl Expo info, bowling trailer update, USBC Convention and OCBA reports. Call 714-554-0111 for more information.

Weiler Fame Committee online with the WinLabs computer program, as well as many of the youth bowling associations nation wide. She assisted in the presentation of WinLab

workshops which trained youth

directors and league secretaries. From 1992 to 2002 Fitzgerald served as a Citrus Belt Womens Bowling Association house director for San Hi Lanes. She rose from house director to Third Vice President by the time the women's association combined with the Citrus Belt Men's Bowling Association.

In 2005 Lee was selected as association manager of the newly formed Citrus Belt USBC Association.

Over the years, Lee has attended numerous state and national bowling conventions for the Citrus Belt Women's Bowling Association and the California Youth Bowling Association. Now she does the same for the Citrus Belt USBC Association. She has organized numerous fundraisers, worked hundreds of local tournaments, coached thousands of youth bowlers and was a leader in three bowling associations. She truly is a Hall of Famer in the eyes of Citrus Belt bowlers

Thank you California Bowling News for supporting our Citrus Belt bowlers.

Congratulations Lee - From Bowling News Staff & Carol.

Danforth Creations Continues Saddleback Classic Segment Lead

by Frank Kietz

Jones, Danforth Blast 300s Bid For 615 Title

by Frank Kietz

LAKE FOREST — Herbert Jones and Paul Danforth post 300s while fighting for Forest Lanes 615 Scratch Trios $5,000 title.

Jones opened the 9:00 p.m. Thursday session with a perfecto for his Team 4, his 33rd, first hit at Gage Bowl in '92. Paul cannot remember how many 300s, his first was in Cincinnati's Buckeye Bowl, in the '60s.

Paul Danforth did the same for this Team 8 adding games of 258 and 224 for an evening high 782 series. Tim Hall and Ronny Thompson rolled 600s earning eight points, not enough to defeat Team 2 (Mike Belair, Jeff Copeland and Mario Marquez) current overall leaders.

Jones followed his 300 with games of 228 and 244 for a 772. Bill Brossart and Chip Sotherland chipped in 600s for a 1987 set earning nine points.

Team 9, all three, got hot hitting an evening high team series, a 2136, paced by Brent Llagan's 279/750, Tim Timmerman's 269/745 and Donald Malapas' 256/641.

The $20,000-plus creative all position payoff loop, $5,000 on top, started their position schedule last Thursday.

Inland Empire NABI Champion Ed Worthley

by Quin  $\stackrel{\textstyle \sim}{\text{MORENO}}\stackrel{\textstyle \sim}{\text{VALLEY}} - \text{We}$ want to thank ABC Moreno Valley Bowl for hosting last Saturday's Inland Empire NABI tournament; a very popular house to bowl (Rockin 'N' Rollin). Our newest champion, a super nice guy, Ed Worthley, has been bowling NABI for about a year. Although Ed says he has been bowling for many years. this is his first tournament win.

Ed bowls in a league at Cal Oaks, and also likes the game of golf. He won the tournament with his Brunswick Fuze drilled by B.G. Mock, who owns his own pro shop in Norco. He would like to thank Kelly Jones, his bowling coach, and also his good friend Vicky. With this win, Ed won $900, with optional upgrade, along with an entry into the Tournament of Champions held at the Orleans in Las Vegas this July 2007.

Bowlers, you still have time to get your games in to qualify for the NABI Nationals. Don't miss this exciting time to compete with bowlers from all over the United States. NABI of Kansas City, Kansas, knows how to promote fantastic competitions. Believe me, you will not be disapointed!

Our stepladder started out with Dana Vernon (a new member) bowling her mother, Sherri Boyer (another new member). It was a lot of fun to watch mother and daughter compete with one another. They both bowled very well with Dana bowling a 193 to her mom Sherri's 210. Sherri then bowled Patrick Ambrose. Sherri bowled a 209 to Patrick's 229. Patrick then went on to bowl Ed Worthley. Patrick bowled a 197 to Ed's 237. Ed, then had to meet our high qualifier, Connie Hafer. Connie bowled a great 217, however, Ed was determined to win this tournament and bowled a terrific 253.

I might mention that John Boyer received a free entry for bringing in his wife Sherri and daughter Dana into our club. Thanks John!

Another free entry goes to

Kay Johnson for her next time bowling, for recommending new member, Joan McMichael.

Our top qualifiers in our threesquads were Cottingham, Brian Watkins and Patrick Ambrose. They received a free entry into our next NABI tournament held at AMF Riverside Lanes this Saturday, April

7th. Our money winners were: Ed Worthley Optional Upgrade Connie Hafer Patrick Ambrose 100.00 Sherri Boyer 75.00 Donato Quintangon Michael Richards 50.00 50.00 Chuck Gray Jon Cottingham 40.00 Jonathan Miller 40.00 Brian Watkins

USBC NASHVILLE USBC'S NEW "TOP JOB"..... GROW THE SPORT OF BOWLING

Change in focus from membership organization emphasized at Annual Meeting

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Growing bowling as a sport is the future focus of the United States Bowling Congress as nearly 1,700 attendees at the 2007 USBC Annual Meeting at the Gaylord Opryland Resort and Convention Center learned in many ways Friday.

Through speeches from organization leaders to the announcements of new television events to a new partnership with a major sports player, everyone in Delta Ballroom A and those watching live on bowl.com, should have come away with the fact that USBC is headed in a new direction.

We are talking about dramatically changing our focus from a member benefit organization to a sports organization," said USBC Chief Executive Officer Roger Dalkin. "We need to redirect your passion to the sport more than to the membership organization."

The message actually started to be communicated earlier in the day, first by Darlene Baker, chair of the USBC Strategic Planning Committee, and later by USBC President Michael Carroll.

Baker noted that the new vision will be achieved when more people are recognizing bowling as a sport and more people are participating in bowling as a sport. Within those priority issues are three goals:

*Increase USBC youth membership in certified leagues and pro-

*Increase the number of USBC members participating in bowling as a sport

*Increase the number of people who recognize/perceive bowling as a sport

"This change is one of the first actions we can take to be that different organization, the organization of the sport of bowling and to be the sport that deserves the recognition and respect of the public, as other sports," Baker said.

Among the ways USBC will help increase the number of people who recognize/perceive bowling as a sport is through television with the announcement of USBC reviving the U.S. Women's Open and sponsoring the new Professional Bowlers Association Summer Series and Women's Tour Trials which will create a 16-bowler exempt field for a 2007-08 PBA Women's Tour. All events will be televised in the fall on ESPN.

In addition, USBC Chief Officer Marketing and Communications Tom Clark announced that basketball star Chris Paul, an avid bowler, will be USBC's newest spokesperson. He will be involved in a number of projects to help broaden the visibility and participation of the sport of bowling.

"Today, bowling is in a period of transformation or evolution," Carroll said. "The true measurement of turning the corner will not be as much in our membership numbers as it will be in the recognition of bowling at the national level; of truly seeing bowling as a sport again in the eyes of the general public."

Carroll said one way for associations to help grow the sport is to approve the amendment which calls for all to be merged by March 15, 2009.

"The only way we truly can grow the sport is through a unified USBC at all levels," he said. "And such unity needs to happen as soon as possible, not in three to five years or in 10 years of never if any association continues to choose the option of not merging. It can't be whenever people feel like it, if at all. This has to be done together in cooperation with each other.

'My experience going around the country has taught me it is much harder promoting bowling as a sport when we still have so many different entities, some serving all adults, others service just women and still others serving only youth. Often, these are in the same community. Such separation only confuses current and potential bowlers, current and potential sponsors, current and future media. Only being unified at all levels truly allows us to move forward in the direction we need to head to grow the sport of bowling.'

Even USBC Hall of Famer Nelson Burton Jr., in closing the Hall of Fame ceremony before Carroll's speech, said: "Our job is to preserve the game, not the pinball games or the bar or the arcade but the game, the ball and the pins."

USBC Hall of Fame welcomes Vadakin, Marchione The morning's other major highlight was the USBC Hall of Fame ceremony hosted by Burton. New inductees Gordon Vadakin and Connie Marchione were joined by 20 past hall of famers to bring the total inductees to 213 men and 147 women.

Vadakin, inducted in the non-professional category, was a twotime member of Team USA (1983 and 1989), a two-time USBC Open Championships titlist and Federation Internationale des Quilleurs American Zone Championship gold medalist.

"I have done nothing. WE have done some pretty cool things," said Vadakin in acknowledging teammates like fellow USBC Hall of Famers Mark Jensen and Mark Lewis who helped him to his success. "Individual success doesn't mean anything. Team success is

The 53-year-old Vadakin, who also is a heralded bowling coach for Wichita State University and assistant coach for Team USA, was a member of the 1989 American Bowling Congress Championships Tournament (now USBC Open Championships) team champion and 1988 team all-events champion. He also earned six other top-10 finishes and has held a 206 average for 30 years.

"I had so many great athletes over the years. It's like (USBC Hall of Famer and former Team USA head coach) Fred Borden once said "When you work with great athletes, you become a hell of a coach.' "

Inducted for meritorious service, Marchione served in leadership positions in the National Deaf Bowling Association and Pacific Coast Deaf Bowling Association. In 1961 he created the Pacific Coast Deaf Masters and in 1988 established the Pacific Coast Deaf Senior Masters

'This is really great. It's such an honor to be the first deaf person to be inducted here into the USBC Hall of Fame," said Marchione through a sign language interpreter. He asked to share the award with previous deaf bowling pioneers such as Thomas Hinchey, Herman Gann and Peter Samolis.

In 1964, Marchione became president of the National Deaf Bowling Association, serving 13 years in that capacity. During his tenure as president, a handicap four-player team, doubles and singles tournament and National Deaf Masters were added to the organization's existing World Deaf Bowling Championships match play event. "I never dreamed I'd receive this honor in my lifetime because of the way the rules were I thought it was impossible," Marchione said. "I was stunned and shocked with President Carroll contacted me."

Stars of Tomorrow among award presentations

The afternoon featured the honoring of two youth who epitomize the sports future Joi Bell of Pflugerville, Texas, as the Alberta E. Crowe Star of Tomorrow and Jonathan Buckert of Rochester, N.Y., as Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow.

Bell, 18, is a senior at Hyde Park High School in Austin, Texas, where she carries a 3.7 grade point average, serves on the student council and is a member of the art, drama and Ready Writers clubs, Spanish Honor Society and Future Business Leaders of Business. She also is active in the Greater Austin Area USBC Youth Leaders.

'Wow! I feel as if I've just won an Oscar," Bell said. "I'm glad I wrote a speech because I don't know what to say."

A two-time national competitor at both the USBC Junior Gold Championships and the Teen masters, Bell averaged 192 over 84 games in the USBC-certified Saturday Kingpin Classic League at Highland Lanes in Austin and 167 over 104 games in the Youth Sport Smash League, a USBC-certified Sport Bowling league at

"Bowling has made me mentally and physically stronger and improved my confidence not only in bowling but in life," Bell said.

Buckert, 17, is a senior at Greece Athena High School in Rochester where he carries a 3.9 point grade point average. He also is a member of the math team, biology club and varsity bowling team and is president of the Rochester USBC Youth Leaders.

"I'm very honored to represent the Rochester area in winning this award," Buckert said. "There have been many great youth bowlers from the area including Marc D'Errico who won this award four years ago."

A four-time participant in the USBC Junior Gold Championships, Buckert averaged 225 over 78 games in the USBC-certified Mixed Scratch Travel League and set a state high school bowling record with his 248.77 average over 30 games of interscholastic competition last year.

"I want to thank the Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow committee for this honor and giving me the chance to bowl collegiately," said Buckert, winner of last Sunday's inaugural Denny's All-American High School Bowling Championships who announced he will attend Wichita State University in the fall.

Before the Hall of Fame ceremony, the top local and state association contributors to the International Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum were honored. They were:

*Top State Association Contributors - Minnesota WBA, $5,000 and California BA, $2,546

*Top Local Association Contributors - Austin (Texas) WBA, $1,500 and Spokane (Wash.) BA, $1,000

*Largest Contribution by a Local Association on a Membership Basis - Crosby (N.D.) WBA, $7.25

Other awards presentations during the afternoon session included: *Bowling Proprietors Association of America Association of the Year - Staten Island (N.Y.) USBC

*USBC Proprietor of the Year - Danny Butcher, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Memorial Service opens the day

The day began with the Memorial Service which honored 11 people who died in the previous year:

*Marilyn Rew, Orlando, Fla. - Women's International Bowling Congress Member Emerita

BRANDI CHASTAIN SHARES HER KEYS TO EXCELLENCE

Olympic soccer gold medalist kicks off 2007 USBC Convention in Nashville

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Control what you can control and the other stuff let fall by the wayside. It's a message that Brandi Chastain learned early in her athletic career and one the two-time Olympic soccer gold medalist brought Wednesday as the keynote speaker of the second annual United States Bowling Congress Convention at the Gaylord Opryland Resort and Convention Center.

One of the most famous women athletes in the country, Chastain immediately felt right at home with the bowlers for whom she signed autographs in the morning, spoke to during the Convention's first business session in the afternoon, and later in a seminar on youth.

"This is like a family reunion for me because bowling always was a big family thing for us," she said. "I was in a bowling center while in daycare and later graduated to leagues."

Being in a youth league helped teach Chastain the value of being on a team which proved quite important when she eventually concentrated more on soccer.

"Contribute your best qualities, your knowledge and your experience to help the team get better," was something she said she

Chastain's speech highlighted the first of four days of business slated for the 2007 USBC Convention. Attendees also took advantage of the first of more than 30 educational workshops targeted to four key USBC initiatives — credibility of the game, the delivery network, growing the sport and youth development. They also visited the exhibit area where USBC programs, industry organizations and other companies were on display. And, they attended coaching clinics at nearby Hermitage Lanes when not enjoying Chastain reminisce about her soccer career and its parallels to bowl-

"Soccer and bowling are similar in that you need that short moment of concentration," Chastain said. "Good players do it some times. Great players do it all the time."

Chastain, who has continued to bowl through the years including events such as the ESPN's Bowling Night Series in 2005, closed her speech with six components of going from good to great competition, challenge, creativity, concentration, community and celebration. After she concluded her speech, she received a special soccer-style bowling ball as a memento of her presentation.

USBC President Michael Carroll and Vice President Sylvia Broyles then went through the crowd, asking several attendees their reasons for attending. They then led several greeting exercises designed for people to meet those sitting around them with the goal of being able to later use these people as resources.

Next was the Bowlers to Veterans Link presentation which highlighted the many ways bowlers have helped current and past military people. Among those honored were USBC associations and people in the following categories:

*Largest Contribution by a State — California, $209,317.14 *Largest Contribution by a Local Association — San Fernando Valley WBA/Los Angeles BA, $39,002.

*Largest State Contribution to BVL National — Virginia, $46,708.25. *Largest Local Association Contribution to BVL National — Nation's Capital Area USBC, $13,000.

*Most Successful Volunteer, "Bowlers Salute America" Troops — Jo Wisby.

The day concluded with awards presentations honoring the following people:

*Helen Baker Outstanding Association Volunteer of the Year Award - Sheri Cook, Farmington, N.M.

*Joyce Deitch Trailblazer Award — Dan Ottman, Detroit (posthumously) *Kerm Helmer Horizon Award — Jeffrey Frye, Hackettstown, N.J.

USBC RAISES MORE THAN $1 MILLION TO HELP CURE BREAST CANCER

Meet for the Cure ceremony ends busy final day at USBC Annual Meeting

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - For the first time, bowling has contributed more than $1 million in a year to help the fight to cure breast

That announcement was made Saturday at the 2007 United States Bowling Congress Annual Meeting when a check for $1,003,000 was presented by USBC to the Susan G. Komen For The Cure during the seventh-annual Meet for the Cure ceremony at the Gaylord Opryland Resort and Convention Center.

Breast cancer survivors Bonnie Ruffin, Shalimar, Fla., and Pauline Armstrong, San Diego, presented the check to Susan G. Komen For the Cure Cause Marketing Manager Lori Rayfield and Vice President of Resource Development Cindy Schneible. It brought the total from USBC and the former Women's International Bowling Congress to more than $6 million.

NEW USBC BOARD LEADERSHIP DETERMINED

Boje elected president, Baker vice president beginning Aug. 1 NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Bowling Proprietors' Association of America past president Jeff Boje was elected Saturday as the new president of the United States Bowling Congress. He will be joined atop the organization's leadership by Darlene Baker who was chosen as vice president.

Both elections were made by the current USBC Board of Directors following the USBC Annual Meeting at the Gaylord Opryland Resort and Convention Center. Boje and Baker begin their positions Aug. 1 following the conclusions of the terms of Michael Carroll and Sylvia Broyles, respectively.

Boje, Tampa, Fla., has been associated with the sport of bowling for nearly 45 years. He completed serving two terms as BPAA president last year after previously serving as BPAA secretarytreasurer and vice president. A former BPAA director-at-large, he will remain on the BPAA Board of Directors until 2010 as past Boje is a certified public accountant who also is a co-owner and operator of his family-owned bowling centers; Brandon Crossroads Bowl in Tampa, Fla., and Sunset Lanes in St. Louis.

Boje serves on the National Bowling Forum, Bowling Foundation, International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame and Strike Ten Entertainment Boards of Directors. In the past, he served as BPAA's representative on the Joint Industry Planning Group that oversees the industry high school bowling, coaching and technology

Boje currently sits on the Bowling Centers Association of Florida Board of Directors after having served as vice president and secretary treasurer.

Baker, Mahomet, Ill., has been associated with the sport of bowling for nearly 40 years. Her association at the national, state and local levels has established her as a leader among her peers. At the national level, Baker has served as a director on the Young American Bowling Alliance, Women's International Bowling Congress and USA Bowling boards of directors.

Baker is employed as director of finance and administration for Planned Parenthood of East Central Illinois.

She has been on the Illinois USBC Women's Bowling Association Board of Directors since 1993 and served as third vice president for nearly six years. She has been Illinois Bowling Council secretary-treasurer since 1998 and spent 20 years on the Clinton (Ill.) WBA Board including three years as president. She also serves as Illinois State USBC Youth Director. She is a member of the Clinton WBA Hall of Fame.

On the lanes, she won eight titles in the 1989 Clinton USBC WBA championships. She also is a certified lane inspector. Baker bowled a high series of 675 to finish fourth in the USBC Championships Tournament Classified Division in 2006.

NBA STAR CHRIS PAUL TO SERVE AS USBC SPOKESPERSON

An avid bowler himself, Hornets guard will promote sport of bowling in various mediums

GREENDALE, Wis.—New Orleans/Oklahoma City Hornets point guard Chris Paul, one of the rising stars in the National Basketball Association, has reached a three-year agreement to serve as an official spokesperson for the United States Bowling Congress.

The 21-year-old Winston-Salem, N.C., native has quickly become one of the most talked about young stars in the NBA after winning the 2005-06 Rookie of the Year Award and helping lead the U.S. Mens National Basketball Team to a bronze medal at the 2006 FIBA World Championships last summer. When not thrilling fans in NBA arenas, Paul can be found crafting his skills in another sport he is passionate about - bowling.

Paul serves as an ideal role model through his numerous charitable contributions and uses bowling as the cornerstone of his foundations (The CP3 Foundation) flagship philanthropic event, the Chris Paul Winston-Salem Weekend. Last September, Paul gathered some of the NBAs top names to help raise money during a three-day charity event headlined by the Celebrity Bowling Tournament featuring LeBron James, Dwyane Wade, Carmelo Anthony and Dwight Howard among others.

For Pauls efforts, he was named the NBA Community Assist Award winner for September 2006. This event served as the start of the relationship between Paul and the USBC.

I am very passionate about the sport of bowling and am thrilled to partner with the United States Bowling Congress, said Paul, a two-time All-American at Wake Forest University. I am looking forward to working on a variety of projects to help broaden the visibility and participation of bowling.

Pauls affection for bowling was recently depicted in a fashion pictorial in the March 2007 issue of Mens Health magazine. He was featured inside a bowling center, reflecting the personal appreciation and respect he has for bowling as a sport. Paul was also profiled in an AT&T Home Turf advertising webisode with NFL legend Deion Sanders in which the duo squared off in a spirited game at the Chris Paul is an incredible athlete who has great respect for the sport of bowling, said Tom Clark, USBC Chief Officer of Marketing and Communications. We are proud to partner with him and look forward to watching him help our sport grow while his career continues to skyrocket.

Paul, represented by Octagon, will promote USBC, its programs and the sport of bowling in various television, radio and newspaper interviews as well as appear in advertising and promotional campaigns. His other marketing partnerships include Brand Jordan, Toyota, AT&T and Chesapeake Energy Corporation.

UNITED STATES BOWLING CONGRESS REVIVES U.S. WOMEN'S OPEN

Unique format includes taped preliminary and live ESPN-televised events

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Kelly Kulick was the winner of bowling's last U.S. Women's Open in 2003. Now she will have the opportunity to defend her title.

One of the most prestigious events in bowling will return after a four-year absence under the banner of the United States Bowling Congress. The announcement was made today at USBC's Convention in Nashville, Tenn.

The U.S. Women's Open will feature a unique qualifying and bracket elimination format and a television deal with ESPN that combines taped preliminary elimination rounds and a live champi-

Scheduled to be conducted Aug. 13-18 at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno, Nev., a U.S. Women's Open qualifying event will determine 16 finalists who will compete in four separate four-player, tape-delayed televised bracket elimination rounds.

The winner of each elimination round will earn a spot in the live final bracket elimination event which will determine the tournament

"This is a tremendous and overdue opportunity to both provide elite women bowlers with another major championship to compete in and to support USBC's vision of growing the sport through greater visibility,"

USBC Chief Executive Officer Roger Dalkin said. "Our commitment to creating and sponsoring televised bowling events will be key to achieving our vision."

The four tape-delayed events and the live final will be aired in the weeks leading up to the start of the 2007-08 Denny's Professional Bowlers Association Tour. The four preliminary taped bracket events will be telecast Sept. 16, 23, 30 and Oct. 7 and the live show will be telecast Oct. 14.

As part of its growing partnership with the PBA, players entering the U.S. Women's Open will have the option of paying an additional entry fee to have their qualifying scores count toward the PBA Women's Tour Trials.

The scores will determine the 16 exempt players for the new USBC-sponsored four-week PBA Women's Tour, which will be held in conjunction with the regular Denny's PBA Tour this fall. In addition, both the U.S. Women's Open and the PBA Women's Tour will be conducted on PBA Experience lane conditions

Most recently, the U.S. Open Women's Championships — which originally began as the Women's All-Star tournament in 1949 — was sponsored by the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America and was a major event conducted on the Professional Women's Bowling Association Tour until the organization ceased operations in 2003.

"I am thrilled by the news of a U.S. Women's Open," said star  $bowler\ and\ USBC\ High\ School\ spokesperson\ Carolyn\ Dorin-Ballard.$ "I think it has been way too long of a wait to have a women's tournament besides the Queens.

Hopefully, this will be a step in the right direction in getting women's bowling back on the map and give the high school and collegiate girls something to strive for."

LEARNING BECOMES HABIT-FORMING AT USBC CONVENTION

Wide variety of workshops gives attendees plenty of useful information

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—Quenching their thirst for knowledge to be used back home was the order of the day Thursday for attendees of the second annual United States Bowling Congress Convention at the Gaylord Opryland Resort and Convention Center.

Many of the USBC state and local association officials and members at the four-day event visited the 20 educational sessions targeted to four key USBC initiatives credibility of the game, the delivery network, growing the sport and youth development. Others took part in the lane inspection workshop at nearby Hermitage Lanes. All were able to collected information that will help them do

I get a lot of good information, especially the last one on Association Manager 101, said Melissa Pingry, association manager for the Greater Pasadena (Texas) USBC. There were four of us here and we all split up to try to cover as many seminars as we can. I'm not even a delegate so the only reason I came was to attend the

I learned some things on WinLABS that I didn't know how to do. That will make my job easier.

Thursday's sessions completed a two-day, 30-workshop agenda, each of which was well attended if not completely sold out.

I liked all of them because I like bowling so much I can't wait to back here, said Frank Weiler of the Citrus Belt (Calif.) USBC. I liked the media one the best. I liked the how-to information. They spelled out the things we need to do such as strike up a relationship with the local sports editor so he gets to know you. I had always just submitted articles and hoped they'd get in. I never thought to them advanced notice.

With the educational sessions now complete, the Convention moves full speed into its business phase with the Annual Meeting on Friday. The day begins with the Memorial Service honoring those USBC members who have died in the past year. That will be followed by the first of several speeches on USBC's future direction, some of which will include several major announcements directly relating to this focus.

Also on the agenda will be the USBC Hall of Fame induction ceremony hosted by USBC and Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Famer Nelson Burton Jr. and presentation of the Alberta E. Crowe and Chuck Hall Stars of Tomorrow, the Bowling Proprietors Association of America Association of the Year and USBC Proprietor of the Year awards.

Brian Yamanoha Wins ABT Championship at Del Rio Lanes

DOWNEY—Brian Yamanoha won the Amateur Bowlers Tour (ABT) championship at Del Rio Lanes on Saturday, March 24, 2007 during our one-day 4-game Beat-the-Board tournament. Brian bowled in our 4PM squad and shot a handicap series of 1018 on his way to winning the $800 1st place prize. Jeff Juckett of Hawthorne had a fine day shooting a 954 four game handicap series to finish in second place for $400 dollars. In third place was Rick Laub of Fullerton. Rick shot a 948 handicap series for $200 dollars.

Our newest champion, Brian Yamanoha has been bowling for about 4 years and is a past champion. Brian used a Brunswick Ultimate Inferno drilled at Bach Bowling Supply for his win this weekend and wanted to thank them for a fine job. Brian also wanted to thank Paul Passarino and Michael Nullen for their bowling tips. Brian also read a book by Mike Aulby, which has helped him improve his game. Brian plans on using his winnings for more bowling. Brian wanted to thank Del Rio Lanes for hosting the tournament, and also thanks the Amateur Bowlers Tour-Orange County Branch staff and Directors for running an outstanding tournament.

Ed Abarca was the winner of the optional 4-game Scratch Sweeper and $150 with an 839 scratch series. Jeff Taino came in second for $100 with a scratch series of 836. J.T. Jackson came in third for $70 with an 830 series. Don Quitangon came in fourth and won $60 for his 788 series. We have had many positive comments about the optional 4-game Scratch Sweeper, and will continue to run this optional Scratch Sweeper at each tournament.

The Mystery Game Pot of Gold game and score were drawn after our final squad. Game #2 was the game drawn, and 294 (possibly good for $200) was drawn for the first chance. The second chance score of 118 (possibly good for $100) and third chance score of 138 (possibly good for $50) were then drawn. There were no winners. Remember, the Mystery Pot of Gold is available to all members (Classic and Masters) and only costs $5.

The ABT staff and membership would like to thank the management and staff at Del Rio Lanes for hosting our tournament. Our next scheduled event will be on Saturday, April 7th, 2007 at Westminster Lanes. This will be a Classic and Masters Combined Singles tournament including semi-finals and finals. All members (Classic and Masters) are eligible. Handicap will be 80% of 225 for this tournament. Squad times are at 12 PM, 2 PM, and 4 PM. Semi-finals will be at 6:15 with finals to follow. We will offer $100 sidepots on each squad with just 20 entrants, as well as optional brackets for each squad. First place will be $800 with 100 entries for only a $55 dollar entry fee. First place with full Progressive will offer an estimated 1st place prize of $4,500 with 125 entries. As lanes are limited, we recommend you arrive early (at least 45 minutes before squad time).

We hope to see you Saturday, April 7th at Westminster Lanes.

BY NICE AND SWEET

STUDIO CITY—Is that spring that I feel blowing through my luxurious blonde hair? Well forget the prose, because it's crunch time for all leagues. We are awaiting all of the leagues to duke it out and accumulate a winner. Those with the black eyes we apologize, but those holding those golden and blue trophies we salute you, oh

You still have at least three weeks to put in your bids for league champion, along with individual awards, so don't laze around.

PINZ ADULTS:

Tavern Guild is in the final stages of its triumphant session, we are looking to see who the winners are. All other leagues are still in dead heats except for Kings and Queens who Kinged a sandbagging team the first month of the season. Don't believe me look at this: Tavern Guild: Jeff Pifko 239 212 234-685, Curt Zellers 225 222 212-659, Rick Kondo 235-619, Ed Dusseau 235-619, Tina Hackett 209-586, Jay Johnson 222-569.

667, Will Petrasich 222 204 237-663, Jim Foltyn 238 223-654, Larry Day 243 237-649.

PINZ JRS.:

Another great week of bowling and another great week of not bowling. I hope all of you are enjoying this week off from school, but are missing the sounds of pins toppling over. Look at these scores while you take a few days off:

Adult/ Junior: Tina Hackett 267-642, Brandon 241-544, Josh Fisher

Artcrafters Senior Scratch: 213 211 206 214-844, Leeanne Jilek 200 207-799. Griffin Roth 209 207-722.

Artcrafters Pee Wee Bumpers: Harper Maloney 86-146, Jack Mcevoy 64-120.

PINZ SENIORS:

The seniors are out throwing dimes here at Pinz, if you don't know that's gangster talk, underworld talk for a strike. Yeah see (with a sneer), we all see their get-ups, usually zoot suits and bob hair cuts. We'll you're the cat's pajamas, so look at these scores: Happy Timers: Ken Burkenheim 201 222 221-644, George Linsacum 216-507. Coffee & Donuts: Pauline Lipin 174-473, Arleen Wiener 172-467. Senior Social: Gary Olsen 213 210-602, Terri Bonato 197-535.

Pin Pals: Karen Collier 183-486, Marcia Shourt 166-459 Joslyn Seniors: Sol Stein 207-568, Gary Olsen 212-566, Tony Piscuskas 187-516.

Breakfast Club: Nancy Sherwood 175-512, Elayne Klein 187-

Bowler of the Week: Pour out a little Courvoister cognac while you read this; this week's best bowler is Damond Taylor. He takes bowling seriously, but always with a smile. That's why he bowled a 720 series this week with a high game of 278. Good bowling Damond and have one on us.

Sweetness quote of the week: Made it Ma! Top of the World! – Cody Jarrett.

PREMIERE LANES (32)

SED Jr. Travel

by David Gordon FOUNTAIN VALLEY-Welcome to the last - boring statistical - never changing article for the SED Jr. Travel season 2006-07. This week's update is going to focus on just the outstanding scores posted this past Saturday at Fountain Bowl. Even though it was our last session, we have not yet had our awards party and some things we want to be left as a surprise.

For a couple of weeks, I've proclaimed the league champions while trying to keep hope alive for all others. I've been saying - anything can happen - positions two through five can change and season highs can fall. Well the bowlers finally took heart to this and put up a great effort, resulting in some very good scores.

Mark Curtis led all into the 800 club with his excellent performance of 202-247-247/881. Now that's the way to shoot Mark. Tag-a-longs in to this club is Eddie Sayles 204-224-242/ 853, J.D. Pelow 247-209-203/ 832, and Bryan Osborne 201-208-218-205/832 (in pre-bowl). Very good gentlemen. More high scoring came in from Max Slevcove 223-222/790, Eric Milne 216/765, Kevin Jones 265/759, Andy Betancourt 210-211/740, Michael Gaylor 223/ 724, Kim Ferdnance 221/710, and Michael McDonald 203.

Our Awards Pizza Party will be this coming Saturday in Pico Rivera. Here these juniors (and parents) will feed their face(s) and reap the awards of a long and challenging season. You all deserve to relax and have fun. Remember we start the festivities at 1:00 pm.

Lastly, I want to give recognition and praise to those members that bowled in the NLAC City Tournament. You all did very well and made me so proud, not only your performance on the lanes, but how you conducted yourselves. The award listing is out and here is how members of this group did. In the Team Event - Classic (scratch) Div. our put together team of Osborne, Pelow, Sayles and James Hawkins, was named Watch Out!. These four used that to take 1st place with a whopping 2540, averaging 211 per bowler. Way to go guys.

In the Doubles Event Div 2 (handicap) Darren Pascual and Felicia Mara captured 2nd place, while Marty McDonald and Kevin Jones took 5th. For Singles Event - Div 2 McDonald and Mara went places 5th and 6th respectively, while in the Scratch Div. Michael Gaylor took 4th -Eric Milne was 2nd – and Hawkins was first with a 3-game series of 711.

Lastly, in All-Events was Mara taking 1st place Girls Div 2 and Hawkins capturing the Scratch division title for the boys. Congratulations to all of you. Next week, I'll recap this awards party and let all the faithful readers know who took what. Have a great week and hope to see you on Saturday.

Girls Jr. All-Stars

by David Gordon

LOS ANGELES—The Girls Jr. All-Stars traveled to AMF Midtown Lanes this past Sunday for their last bowling session of the season. We want to thank the staff at AMF Midtown for their hospitality and all of the centers for having us throughout the year.

Going out with a bang was our leader for the day, as Lindsay Hannasch stroked up 204-200-255-209/868. Now that's the way to end a season. Joining Lindsay in the unique 800 club was Melissa Pena with a 221-241/802 showing herself. Nothing to sneeze about here. Well done ladies. Other reportables came in from Jasmine Morales 710 and Tabetha Reynolds 703.

On a side note, the award winners for NLAC City Tournament were revealed this weekend and the ladies made a very good showing. It makes me very proud when I hear from competing centers and programs of how our members look, behave and perform. Thank you and now for big props to these ladies that capture awards. Doubles Event - Scratch Division (against guys as well), we have Hannasch and Deanna Carrillo taking 3rd place. Nothing in the Singles Division (they work better as a group), but an acknowledgement for Team Event with our put-together team of Pena, Carrillo, Reynolds and sub Alyse McGinnes.

Now even though only 1st place was awarded in the Scratch Team Event (going to my SED Jr. Travel team), these ladies deserve big ups for their performance. I put the ladies up to a challenge to take out that other team for the third and final game. And they did just that, earning a free dinner for (let me put it in perspective) beating, thrashing, whipping, pounding, etc., the 1st place team. And in that single game almost caught them to take the event. So even though no awards, Congratulations for taking 2nd place a mere 15 pins behind the leader with a 2525 team

And lastly in the Girls All Events - Scratch Division we went 1 and 2, now they give out 2 places. Reynolds took 2nd place with an 1807 9-game mix, while Carrillo averaged 214 for a 1928 series to capture this title. Again congratulations to all of you ladies.

The Girls Jr. All-Stars Award Luncheon will be held on April 14th in the City of Commerce. As such, I am not yet ready to spill the beans on the league and season award winners. I will follow this article up with one tell all in a couple of weeks. Ladies be patient and enjoy yourselves. It's been a very fun and rewarding year and I'll talk with you

Flick A Butt Get A Ticket

by Frank Kietz O.C. REGISTER — Jim "Honk" Radcliffe answers a question, "Can you get a ticket for throwing (flicking) a cigarette butt out of a car window?"

Columnist Radcliffe answers: In fact, Lt. Craig Junginger of Surf City P.D. (Huntington Beach) points out that, in addition to the litter law, there is a California Vehicle Code passage outlawing the discarding of amy flaming or glowing substance.

For more info or a questions, call Honk, 714-550-4636, ext.

Editor's Note: A close friend of mine was fined $380 for flicking! No flicking on the 5 Freeway allowed.

Cerritos Jrs

CERRITOS — Youth bowlers have rocked Cerritos Lanes again with those high games and series. For the past few weeks youth bowlers have came with one thing on their minds, TO BOWL!, and doing just that. This week was no ex-

Garrett Lee started things off in the Lil Raider's bowling a 110-206, Vincent Biscoe followed with a 108-202, and Dylan Hill had a 92-177. Kaitlyn Johnston bowled a 116-197, Lilly Carey followed up with a 93-171, and Gianae Olilang had a 55-104.

Sean Dantas bowled his all time highest game ever today. Sean had a 179-370, leading things off for the Rookies. Adrian Cunanan bowled a 102-286, and Sebastian Militant had a 103-303. Kaila Chen bowled a 125-360, Kris Liberatore had a 108-279, and Noami McILroy had a

In the Striking Force it was Chris Eguilos with a 185-516, Lukas Hyun with a 178-476, and Andrew Arellano with a 203-479. Tasha Jansen bowled a 139-388, Kyli Selley had a 160-378, and Akeyla Basto bowled a 142-

In the Seniors it was Glenn Gimeno who started things off with a 211-571, Shaun Morad followed with a 199-562, and Joshua Navarro had a 195-555. Jaime Ferry bowled a 247 scratch giving her a 647 series, Jennifer Hefner had a 201-501, and Candice Galvan had a 190-500.

The results of the Adult-Jr Tournament that was held this past Saturday, will be in after the Easter Holidays. Great bowling everyone!

To Orlando

by Roberta McNaught ANAHEIM-Orlando Vanegas, enjoying the sunshine and fresh air last week, breezed through the pins in the 590 Scratch at Linbrook. Having no problem with the difficult lanes, Orlando put together a solid 885 series on games of 223, 228, 231

Dede Vanegas, with a 130 average, rolled a fantastic 231 game for 100 pins over average watch from the U.S.B.C.

Reno USBC Tournament Update

by Carol Mancini

RENO — Californians seem to have lost interest in bowling Nationals. And Reno is only up the freeway a few hours. Pretty pitiful showing by our great bowlers. Looks like "team" bowling is still healty in other parts of the country, while "single" accomplishments (tournament clubs) has taken over in California.

We are listing all Californians! Maybe they are waiting to see what they have to beat. Let's
