Convention-Center Setting Wows Bowlers at USBC Women's Championships

EL PASO, Texas—With the first week of the 2010 United States Bowling Congress Women's Championships coming to a close, more and more bowlers are appreciating the conversion of the El Paso Convention and Performing Arts Center into a one-of-a-kind bowling facility.

The 2010 event marks the first time in the tournament's 91-year history that the USBC Women's Championships has been held in a convention-center setting. Since 1997, the tournament has been held at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno, Nev., every third year, but all other events were held in traditional bowling centers.

From the world's largest mobile scoreboard to a unique vendor area, many of the bowlers find the new additions to the tournament to be step in the right direction and look forward to seeing a similar set-up in Syracuse, N.Y., for the 2011 Women's Championships.

Carol Goebel of Fond du Lac, Wis., found the convention-center setting and the city of El Paso to be very welcoming. This was her 17th trip to the Women's Championships.

"I love it," said Goebel, who bowls at Karl Ray Lanes. "This place is immaculate. It's great that they're really catering to the women. It's just been an awesome experience. Every person in El Paso has been wonderful and friendly."

Jessica Urias of South Lake Tahoe, Calif., made her sixth Women's Championships appearance this year and enjoyed the new look and feel.

"There's no comparison," said Urias, who bowls regularly at Tahoe Bowl. "Some of the past tournaments seemed like a regular house tournament and not a national event. The scoreboards are great, and the stadium-like bleachers really let people take in the action."

Urias also enjoyed the challenge on the tournament lanes and likes that bowlers have to make their best shots to score well.

"Once the shot changed, it was a challenge to me to find the right line," Urias said. "But that's my job as a bowler to find the right look."

Tracy Forst of West Jordan, Utah, believes a lot of the bowlers will be surprised when they walk into the El Paso Convention and Performing Arts Center this year.

"I think a lot of them will see it and think that it's pretty cool," said Forst, who made her 20th tournament appearance. "A lot of them have probably never seen one of the builds at the Open (Championships), so it will be a surprise. This is one of the reasons I really wanted to bowl this year."

Forst also saw the advantages of the event being held

Weber Re-Writes PBA History with Marathon Open Victory Allowing Williams To Win "Player of the Year" Award

by Bill Vint

BALTIMORE—Hall of Famer Pete Weber of St. Ann, Mo., re-wrote the Professional Bowlers Association history book Sunday when he defeated top qualifier Mike Scroggins of Amarillo, Texas, 268-224, to win the Lumber Liquidators Marathon Open at AMF Country Club Lanes.

With his 35th career victory, breaking his tie for third place on the all-time PBA Tour titles list with Mark Roth, Weber denied Scroggins' bid to become 2009-10 PBA Player of the Year, and handed that crown to his long-time rival, Walter Ray Williams Jr. of Ocala, Fla.

Williams therefore becomes the first to win the PBA Player of the Year title seven times, breaking a tie with the late Earl Anthony. Williams, with 47 career titles, and Anthony, with 43, are now the only two with more PBA titles than Weber.

"I feel like I just won my first title," the teary-eyed Weber said. "I don't know what to say. It's been three years since I won. I thought I was never going to win again."

Weber led the title match throughout, starting with five strikes before converting a single-pin spare. He then threw another four strikes to end Scroggins' hopes for a third 2009-10 title and his first Player of the Year award. Scroggins entered the finals in a three-way title in the Player of the Year competition, but he needed to win the title because he trailed Williams in the overall competition points tie-breaker.

"So Walter Ray owns me another one," Weber said, referring to the payback he wants because of Williams' dominance over Weber on television. "But I said yesterday, if Mike was going to win Player of the Year, he was going to have to earn it and I'm sure the other guys on the show felt the same way."

"Mike, I'm sorry I shot 268 at you...not," Weber grinned.

On breaking his titles tie with Roth, Weber said, "I never thought I'd get to 34 titles, let alone pass Mark Roth. He was my idol growing up. I feel

Walter Wins Seventh PBA Player of the Year Honor

by Jerry Schneider

BALTIMORE — For the second consecutive year, the Professional Bowlers Association's Chris Schenkel Player of the Year race came down to the final game and the eventual winner had to watch from the sidelines to await his fate.

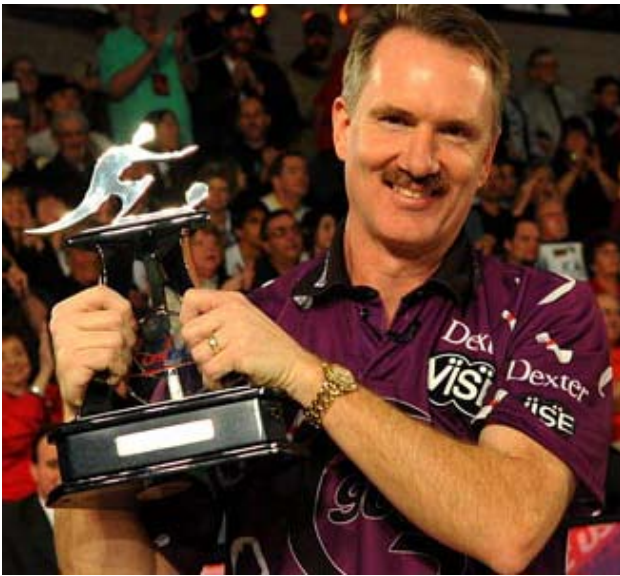

When it was over, Walter Ray Williams Jr. won a record seventh Player of the Year honor at the conclusion of the season-ending Lumber Liquidators Marathon Open in Baltimore April 4, after going into the event tied in the points race with Bill O'Neill. Mike Scroggins was third, a longshot, but still in the mix until he lost in the title match to Pete Weber.

Williams thus became the first to win the PBA Player of the Year title seven times, breaking a tie with the late Earl Anthony. And at age 50, Williams also became the oldest to win the crown breaking the previous record of 45 held by Anthony.

He also is thought to be the oldest player in any major sport to win his sport's season-long points or "most valuable" title.

"I could never have imagined winning Player of the Year seven times and at my age I didn't think it was even a possibility," Williams said. "But after I won the first tournament of the season I thought if I could win one more, or a LAS VEGAS—The Vegas Travel league concluded it's current season on Monday, March 29, at The Orleans and Darren was a perfect host at the control desk.

In fact, we should add we had perfect hosts in every way from Melvin, our driver for Odessey Bus Charters; Jerry, our Fremont Hotel reservations expert; and most especially Roberta McNaught and Karen Mauricio entertaining us on the bus. Our Barstow stops to and from Vegas was also great for shopping and food.

We regret reporting last minute cancellations for Merlene Eash and Lu Colussi and the unexpected illness for Erma Palmer in Vegas. Her daughters-in-law, Ruth and Sandy, took good care of her and she returned home feeling ok. However, she will be seeing the doctor and calling us later regarding what might have happened.

Obviously, the 57-seat bus provided plenty of seats for just over 20 passengers so we all stretched out, played bingo, shut-box, and enjoyed gab sessions enroute to Vegas. Needless to say, we all mostly slept on the way home Tuesday.

Forty-one bowlers participated in singles and doubles for a prize fund exceeding $1,000 and Roberta McNaught was the big winner. Every year there's always one super star that cashes big time and although Roberta has always managed a prize or two, she never has hit top spot for a big payoff.

Well, she did this time with 662 and shared the spotlight with Mary DeFord, (also long overdue) leading the first two spots in the 16-place prize fund payoff.

Low to cash was 1264 in Doubles and 610 was low to cash in the 16 place singles prize fund.

There were many ties in singles and doubles and we commend our Vegas Sweeps kind of bad about going past him, but not really."

Weber advanced to the title match with a 233-212 victory over Brad Angelo of Lockport, N.Y., in the semifinal match. Angelo eliminated defending Marathon Open champion Wes Malott of Pflugerville, Texas, in the opening game, 207-192, and Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, 256-227, in the second game before losing to Weber.

The championship round was conducted on the Dick Weber lane condition, one of seven used during the tournament. Scroggins, as top qualifier, selected that pattern for the TV finals.

"It was Mike's choice, but winning on the pattern named in honor of my father makes it even more special," Weber said.

The Lumber Liquidators Marathon Open concluded the PBA Tour's 2009-10 regular season. Champions from the Cheetah, Viper, Chameleon, Scorpion and Shark Championships conducted in Detroit last August will compete in a special PBA Experience Showdown presented by BOWL.COM while top finishers from six PBA Women's Series events will compete in the PBA Women's Series Showdown presented by BOWL.COM next week at the International Bowling Campus in Arlington, Texas. The PBA Experience Showdown will air on ESPN on Sunday, April 11, at 1 p.m. Eastern and the Women's Series Showdown will air on Sunday, April 18, also at 1 p.m. Eastern.

Following the Arlington special events, 20 top PBA players based upon 2008-09 points will travel to Tokyo April 22-25 to compete in the 25th anniversary DYDO Japan Cup. Patrick Allen of Wesley Chapel, Fla., is defending champion.

Director, Phyllis Baldwin, and league president, Roberta McNaught, for doing scores and payoffs so quickly and expertly.

Everybody appeared to have a great time again this year, and 92 year old Pat Willmore said, "sign me up for next year".

Several hands were raised when we asked how many were gambling winners. But the one who gets the door prize has to be Nan McGill who rates that honor every year and she really hit 'em big time this trip on tables and slots.

My personal thanks to league members, and our Vegas guests, for making 2010

WEST COVINA—One of the Good Guys, David Godinez was at it again in his favorite house on the ABTA circuit, West Covina Lanes. He stepped up and won his fourth ABTA Title downing upstart Holden Au in the title game to take a nice $1,950 to the bank!

In our return to West Covina, a great turnout of 281 entrants saw cut scores of men +39 and the ladies made it at +15. Super Seniors added to the board were Rico Cayton, Javier Avila and Roberta Nakunz.

Due to the turnout, a whopping 69 bowlers made the semifinals all cashing in. They took the floor and we saw David Godinez lead the way at +183 to sit out and bowl for the title. Right behind was ABTA regular Ariel O’Campo at +111 who would receive a first round bye in the single elims and enter in the second round.

It took a +49 for the men and +8 for the 3 guaranteed ladies to make the top 16 single elim finals.

In round One, losers were Sonia Coronado, Tomas Licauco, Fred Go, Glen Matsumoto, Sol Cericos, Jimmy Wong and Tony Tang. They cashed checks of $120 in 10-16th places. In round two we had William Garrett, Bryan Moore, Youna Yun, and Pablo Castro fallout. They were 6-9th places and $130 each.

Round three got exciting and saw Holden Au out strike

Julie Nguyen 250-229. Greg Velarde edged Ariel O’Campo 200-198. Julie and Ariel were 4th and 5th $140 with fine bowling and Greg and Holden to meet for the right to bowl Godinez for the title.

This game was so close. Holden held on in a nail biter in a 224-222 win. Greg was third and $210 with Holden off to a title showdown vs David Godinez.

The title game is on and Holden led off. This was close as both bowlers were having a few problems as the pair seemed tough. Holden, not sure if he was tired, seemed to have lost his magic in the title game. He in fact, was in the game until David tossed a big double in frames 7-8. Holden couldn’t answer that, and the title went to the gentleman from Redondo Beach David Godinez 182/200-138/184. Great bowling by a very nice man. A title well deserved! David is nice and respectful to all. Congrats!

Nice bowling by Holden Au, also one of the Good Guys, in the runner up position. He really did well, came through in exciting fashion until the end. He is a great guy! Always fun to be around Mr. Au!!:-)) He almost won his first title.

Nice bowling by past champion, Greg Velarde who really bowled well at West Covina. He could have won this one!

Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Alex Mao +209 (men)Faye Josafat led the ladies +77, and they get paid entries.

The doubles were topped by Mao and Tim Tran at 1446 good for $190. Holden Au and Jimmy Wong 1371 $170, Faye Josef at and Glen Matsumoto 1356 $160. We paid a super 27 places and $2310 in the $5.00 doubles!

The Match Game WAS UNmatched at 226 and was worth $3,500 and will be $3,500 at least four more tournaments with the carryover cash. Match Game is again $3,500 Saturday at Cerritos Lanes.

The Match Series worth $1,876 also was UNmatched at 602, and with the carryover of $1,876. We will estimate the pot at $2,300 Saturday.

The 3-6-9 Roll-off of $1,200 carried over as William Garrett eliminated the field and then missed on shot #1. We go for $1,300 Saturday at Cerritos. William got $50 for beer money!

David Godinez hails from Redondo Beach and used a Smash drilled by Frank Bellinder at Saddleback Lanes. He is single and available!

He gives thanks to all the hard work, bowling practice and of course the ABTA Staff and Bob for a great tournament. Thanks to MGN Communications and Sysco Gold where he is employed 9 years.

Holden Au is from Rowland Heights and used a Cherry Vibe drilled by Jimmy Wong. He is single ladies, and thanks the Mou Liu Bowlers and everyone alive :-))

Greg Velarde is from West Covina and used a Hammer Jigsaw drilled by Mike Wahl. He’s married to Gina and they have a beautiful daughter Kelliana. He thanks wife and parents for support and Bob and the ABTA Staff for a fun tournament

The “900” Staff was on hand and Presented the “Dare to Compare” for our members at West Covina. We had many members enjoy the Ball comparisons and able to try each per the adjustable grips. Dave Smart from San Antonio, WPBT Star Missy Bellinder and local standout Brandon McGinness were on hand to assist the bowlers and answer any questions and more. It was really great for our members and we will do the same in Las Vegas July 1-2-3-4 at the South Point

The weekly “900” Global ball was won by Art Alvarez, and he is most deserving. He gets the “Bounty Hunter”. This week we give away the “LINK” ball. This is a weekly free raffle by our Sponsor “900 Global”. Each squad bowled, you receive one raffle ticket for the Prize,

Also, this week we are already raffling Las Vegas Rooms, a High end ball and more. This weeks winners Rey Rosales wins his room for two nights in our Las Vegas Event in July. Las Vegas Entry to Adam Drozd, Regular entries to Dong Min, and Jhun Tran. Breakpoint Ball went to Greg Kokanour, and shirts to Dong Min and a vivacious newcomer Ava Yim. Payoffs and prizes are listed in the Payoff sheet in this paper. Make those Vegas plans, reserve your room early!!

Check in early at Cerritos which is easily accessed from the 91 freeway, just take Carmenita one block south! The phone there 562-924-9363. Next week, we visit Oak Tree Lanes in Diamond Bar and

They were able to try the many balls with the adjustable grips and in fact a learning process. “900” Global is the Sponsor of the ABTA, maker of the finest bowling equipment. Missy Bellinder, and Butch “Snake” Hobbs observe behind lanes 3-4. Butch likes the Break Out and added one to his arsenal.

Bowlum 6 Gamer Results

by Herbert Jones

MONTCLAIR—Bong Hwong wins again. Comes from behind to win in the last game. Jim who was leading after 2 games couldn't carry the last 2 games and the Greek church in the 8 frame of the last game forces him to strike in the ninth and the first strike in the ten frame. Struck in the ninth but left a flat 10 pin in the tenth to lose by 8.

Herbert wants to thank everyone for coming out today. Please keep checking the paper for the upcoming 6 gamer #3. See you next tournament.

Threadworks Leads
By Two In 31st Week

DOWNEY — "THREADWORKS" gave "BRYLAW" 3 severe blows Monday night to knock them down to third and take over the top spot themselves. And glad they don't have to play them again next week! "THREADWORKS" and "KATIE JAKES" will meet for the umpteenth time this season.

Either "BRYLAW" (20) and "HERZOG INSURANCE" (20) sitting in 3rd and 4th, could easily jump into first next week. This round has really been tight and the lead has changed weekly.

The scores bowled next week — April 12 — will complete the averages going into the book for this year. YEAH! Fellows, make sure your names are spelled correctly and your sanction card is up to date. You could loose all your games!!

Let's take a look at the high individual efforts this week. High Series and High Game go to Mikey Villareal 299/695. Other notable games: Kevin Valmonte 267, Raul Rosales 258, Mike Cammarata 257, Paul Barraco 257 and Lee Liu 257/674.

Steve Gurrieri and Raul Rosales, both on the "HERZOG INSURANCE" team matched a 682 series. Paul Barraco led the "SYSCO" Kids with his 680.

Checking the big board on the concourse, the 'YEAR TO DATE' standings, the top six are: "WESTERN PACIFIC", "J.A.T.", "STRIKEHARD", "SYSCO", "KATIE JAKES", and "THREADWORKS"/"HERZOG INSURANCE" tied. $20,000 for first place can give you a lot to shoot for!

You should all thank the sponsors for the added money!!!

JAT Member/Adult Doubles – Canoga Park Bowl

Huntoon-Hair-Booker Win First Triple-Club Trios

The first-ever Triple-Club Trios took the lanes at Keystone and a huge field of 69 bowlers teamed up for this new, fun event. Each bowler bowled 5 games of qualifying and after 15 games per team the team of Bobby Hornacek, Andrew Stewart and Mason Sherman led the field at +334 followed closely by Brett Huntoon, DeeRonn Booker and Charlie Hair at +264 and Lawrence Merriweather, Jeremy Glover and Will Jackson at +261. Low-to-qualify was Dara Ajimine, Jerome Jordan and Cory Koyanagi at +37. The bowlers then took the lanes for 6 games of 3-man Baker with the top-4 teams advancing to the Baker stepladder rolloffs. In the first match, 4th-seeded Kaitlin Mayall, Nicole Shepard and Brandon Kraye fell to 3rd-seeded Justin Villa, Pat Smith, Devin Bidwell 194-184. Villa-Smith-Bidwell advanced to meet 2nd-seeded Wesley Low Jr, James Hefley and Matt Jones. Both teams were bowling great but in the end Villa-Smith-Bidwell squeaked by with a 215-209 win. They then advanced to the Championship Match against top-seeded DeeRonn Booker, Brett Huntoon and Charlie Hair. It was a back and forth match but some late open frames made it close and anchorman Devin Bidwell struck out to tie the match at 181. The match went to a 8th-9th-10th frame rolloff but a handful of big-4 by Pat Smith in the 9th frame of the rolloff was too much to overcome and Brett Huntoon, DeeRonn Booker and Charlie Hair took home the title. Congratulations!

IN THE GOOD OLE DAYS

Sometimes it's fun to share dumb things you did years ago. I laughed out loud when I recalled this story and I hope you will also. I think it is more fun to laugh at yourself than at others but it's Ok if you laugh with me.

At the time of this happening, I was married and had three little toddlers. My husband and I both loved bowling; I'm using the word love here because I mean it literally. We were a young couple just getting started in life and our income was limited. So, many times we bowled in separate leagues so we could alternate baby-sitting. We also shared one car, at the time.

One night I went to bowl in the 9pm ladies scratch league at Eagle Rock Lanes in Eagle Rock. I bowled as usual, probably not too good or not too bad, since I don't remember."

I just remember that after the league, a group of us gals went into the coffee shop, had our coffee, and shared the events of the night. I vaguely recall a woman who left early asking me if I needed a ride home and I said "no thanks."

Well, after a lingering session of bragging, complaining and gossiping we said our good nights and I started wandering out to the parking lot while reaching in my purse and feeling around for my car keys. The parking lot was almost empty at that time of the night so finding my car should have been a "no brainier." As I continued to search for my keys I recognized that my car was nowhere to be seen. Panic set in. I couldn't find my keys and my car was gone. OMG! I must have left the keys in the car and someone stole it. I continued to look on all sides of the almost empty parking lot. No car...no keys.

I remember how fear gripped my heart. How would I get home and how would my husband get to work tomorrow? Then I suffered another panic attack when I remembered that my husband's bowling ball was in the trunk. Oh lord, I thought, my husband will kill me; my carelessness has caused the loss of our only car and my husband's bowling ball. This was a fate worse than death.

I was in tears when I went back in the bowling center. I went to the deskman and asked him to call the police so I could report my stolen car. When the cops arrived, I was still gushing with tears even though many bowlers tried to assure me that the police would find my car.

I told the police how my car had been stolen and went through a series of questions describing the car. I even described my husband's bowling ball and bag, although I didn't see them writing that down. When they asked for the year, model and licenses plate number of my car I didn't know the answers so I gave them my home phone number so they could call my husband for that kind of "technical" information.

One of the officers (the tallest one) walked out of my sight to call my husband and the other stayed by my side and offered me some comfort and assurance that the car would be found.

Soon I saw the tall officer motion to the other one to come where he was. I watched and waited to hear of any second hand comments that my husband had to say, but all I really noticed was that the two cops started laughing hysterically. I was just livid that they could be enjoying themselves when I was in such a crises. My tears stopped and I'm sure my face went from "poor pitiful me" to "a demon from hell." I stared at the two heartless men, with sheer resentment in my heart, as they walked toward me.

"We found your car," the tallest one said. Then they both tried to stifle another bit of laughter. "OMG" I yelled, as I grabbed one then the other and rewarded them with "Hero's hugs." They were both kind enough to accept the hugs before the told me my car was at home.

I hadn't driven it that night; a friend had given me a ride to the center.

BY NICE AND SWEET

STUDIO CITY — What kind of bowling fans are you? I didn't see a single one of you at Lebowski Fest this past weekend. I thought a cult movie revolving around bowling was right up your alley (*pun intended). Well, I had a great time and 2 of Pinz finest walked away with 2nd and 3rd place bowling trophies.

Niceness Quote of the Week: Jesus Quintana: What's this day of rest? I don't care! It don't matter to Jesus. But you're not foolin' me, man. You might fool the league office, but you don't fool Jesus. This bush league psyche-out stuff. Laughable, man - ha ha! I would have beat you on Saturday. I beat you next Wednesday instead. Wooo! You got a date Wednesday, baby! (cussing omitted)
