NYC WTT KingPins Win Inaugural PBA League Elias Cup

Closing string of seven strikes breaks open tight match with Motown Muscle in historic PBA team contest

INDIANAPOLIS – With owner Billie Jean King on the bench cheering every shot, the New York City WTT KingPins presented by GEICO finished the inaugural Professional Bowlers Association League championship match with a string of seven consecutive strikes to defeat the Motown Muscle, 440-407, and claim the Elias Cup at Woodland Bowl.

The PBA League Elias Cup finals aired Sunday on ESPN.

The KingPins, the top qualifiers among eight teams that competed in five preliminary rounds earlier in the season in Detroit, put together a string of five strikes to take a 202-181 lead after the first game of the two-game, total pinfall championship match. But the Motown Muscle, owned by former Pittsburgh Steelers star Jerome Bettis, rallied to tie the match after five frames of game two.

In the Baker format contest, where each of the five team member bowls two frames to complete a game, the tide turned when the two teams switched lanes after five frames. After struggling to strike on the right lane, the KingPins didn't miss in their final five frames on the left lane. Consecutive strikes by Tommy Jones of Simpsonville, S.C.; Jack Jurek of Lackawanna, N.Y.; John Szczerbinski of North Tonawanda, N.Y.; Scott Norton of Mission Viejo, Calif., and newly-crown Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions winner Pete Weber of St. Ann, Mo., locked up the title for King's team.

After throwing the decisive strike in the 10th frame, Weber benched himself and brought in KingPins' supplemental draft pick Kelly Kulick of Union, N.J., to finish off the match. The only woman in the PBA League field threw two more strikes to conclude the contest.

"We knew the Muscle had to come back on the right lane after five frames and they hadn't bowled on that lane in 10 frames," Weber said. "We ate up some oil and they just didn't make the adjustments."

"My team is the best team. I knew from the start we were going to be hard to beat," he added. "We started communicating in Detroit and I knew at that point we were going to be something special.

"It's an honor and a privilege to have Billie Jean King as our team owner," Weber continued, "and it's an honor and a privilege to give her the first Elias Cup trophy."

King, who admitted she doesn't know a great deal about bowling, was an avid cheerleader for her team.

"I was so calm playing tennis, but I was not so calm watching today," she said. "I was dying. The match was so close."

"I loved my team right from the start," King added. "I

MARK DYER Rolls 1098

by Frank Weiler

MORENO VALLEY —

Mark Dyer is amazing. He is amazingly consistent. Season after season he averages 230. Season after season he rolls honor scores. Season after season he wins tournaments. Season after season he leads his leagues in average. Season after season he continues to be one of the classiest guys in the Citrus Belt.

So what could be next for this Citrus Belt Hall of Famer? How about a 1098 (246 - 276 - 300 - 277) four game series. It is the highest four game set, I am aware of, in the Citrus Belt since I have been Historian.

Speaking of consistency, how about averaging 274 for four games! That is what it took for Mark to score his 1098. While bowling 1098

15 Year-Old Wesley Low Jr. Becomes Youngest To Win A PBA Regional Event

LAS VEGAS — Wesley Low Jr., at age 15, became the youngest bowler ever to win a PBA Regional title – breaking a 34-year-old record set by PBA Hall of Famer Pete Weber in 1979 – when the two-handed competitor from Palm-dale, Calif., defeated Deeronn Booker of Anaheim, Calif., 299-234, to win the PBA Non-Champion West tournament at South Point Bowling Center in Las Vegas on Friday, March 29.

Low, a member of Junior Team USA who was 29 days shy of his 16th birthday, lost his bid for a perfect game in the title match when he left an 8 pin on his final shot.

He does not get credit for a PBA title because he is not a member of the PBA, but his $1,500 in earnings will help build his USBC SMART scholarship fund. Weber won a PBA Midwest Regional title in St. Louis in 1979. Weber was a PBA member at that time, therefore earning credit for his title.

Low, who bowls with two hands from the left side of his body, finished third in the same non-champions event in 2012. The 2011 Teen Masters 14-Under champion defeated Chris Groom, Lancaster, Calif., 278-198, while Booker edged Rick Benard of Henderson, Nev., 225-217, in the semifinal round to set up the championship match.

On Sunday at South Point, amateur Andrew Graff of Las Vegas and Benard defeated amateur Gary Estep Jr. of Peoria, Ariz. and Andrew Cain of Phoenix, 477-447, to win the PBA Member/Non-Member West Doubles. The winners shared a $3,000 prize.

California Bowling News is proud to bring you....

Chuck Pezzano

Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

You can't be more amazed than when you spend some time with today's younger generations whether it is them displaying their flying fingers on computers, their flying feet in gymnastics or their rolling the ball and making parents and grandparent take a good second look at their talent, mentally and physically.

All sports and all fields have their child prodigies. There have been teenagers in every major sport, and many in their early teens, particularly in swimming and tennis.

Many of them have been great or gone on to greatness, at great sacrifice, being forced to grow up too quickly, being forced to choose between fame and fortune early, or after a suitable stretch of education.

In the dream world it would be wonderful if every young athlete in every sport was forced to obtain a high school education at a minimum, and college or other advanced training as a recommended path.

But the real world doesn't work out so neatly.

Some really young baseball, basketball, tennis and hockey phenoms can and do make millions of dollars before they can legally drink or vote. How and when do you tell them they are too young or too unprepared? At 17 they can be accepted into the Armed Services and put their lives on the line.

So how can you realistically ask any youngster talented way beyond their years to put a hold on opportunities and riches that may not be there later.

In many cases it is boys against men, and girls against women. But boys grow up fast these days and women aren't nearly as mere as they used to be.

Bowlers are amazingly adept at early ages. You can visit any junior program and see obvious talent. But, at 15 many bowlers have been bowling for a decade, and bowling at pro class calibre for years. By the time they are ready for college, many are ready for a shot at the pro tours or the big money tournaments.

Look at the Mark Roths, Johnny Petraglias and Pete Webers and a list of thousands and you could see super stars in the making at ages 17 or younger.

Junior bowlers can't be reminded too often that a 200 game is fine, but an "A" in any subject is better. A tournament win is terrific, but the Honor Roll is more terrific. A 300 game or even a 900 series is great, but a diploma is the greatest.

In bowling there is no reason why both areas cannot be encouraged. A high school or college student can utilize his time, so much can be spent on bowling and much can be spent on study. And students can map out a schedule that covers both sides, and gives them the best of both worlds.

Parents, bowling coaches and bowling officials have a duty to counsel young bowlers and not to put too much pressure on them in either way, except to use common sense.

Education should always come first, but bowling is an education too, if used wisely, whether you're a shooting star or a struggler. But always hit the books as hard as you hit the pins.

As noted following his victory, Weber became the first player to complete the PBA Triple Crown (U.S. Open, Tournament of Champions and PBA World Championship) a second time. The only other player who is currently capable of matching that feat is Norm Duke, who has won the PBA World Championship three times, U.S. Open twice and TOC once. Walter Ray Williams Jr. has won the PBA World Championship and U.S. Open titles twice each, but has yet to win a TOC title.

ABTA at Foothill Lanes 1 Day Event / Semi Frozen Handicap

WEST COVINA — West Covina Lanes was the host and the action was huge. 231 entrants had an exciting day of bowling. The cut scores were +79 for the men and +27 for the women, on a decent shot this week. The Super Seniors added to the board (two men and one woman) Javier Avila, Ed Palma, and Carla Sanchez, taking 55 bowlers to cash in the semi-finals.

The High qualifiers for the event were Romy Alkonga for the men with a +163 and for the women it was Veronica Boone with a +113. They will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event.

Each week our top seed draws the Match Series, and this time it was worth $1,810. Romy would draw the score and he drew a 488. We had no bowlers match that, so it will carry over to Foothill, and estimated to be $3,000.

We saw Tim Tran be the last one standing for the shot at $3,000 in the 3-6-9 roll off. He was on his game and able to convert on the Five 9's or better to take home the $3,000 pot. We will go for $800 at Foothill Lanes.

In our optional doubles, finishing in first were the Moore tandem of Bryan Moore and Mike Moore (yes they are brothers) with a 1491 for $160. Second was Fred Galvan and Romy Alkonga with a 1466 for $140. There was a total of $2,370 paid out in doubles and 38 paid spots with low to cash of 1382.

After the three game semi-finals, finishing in first was Jhun Tan with a +138, and a close second was Marvin Galsim Jr at a +124. Marvin will sit out the first round. Tan, had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $5,000. Junh drew a 211 this week. After a review of all the scores bowled, we had six happy bowlers who shot that score, and they were Carlos Castillo, William Garrett, Don Quitangon, Sean Nguon, Joey Rodriguez, and Joevin Bolanos. They will get $833 each. We will have $1,560 going to Foothill and will estimate the pot at $ 3,500.

This would bring us to our top 16 Match Play finals. In the first round, the seven losers were Leny Urrutia, Deboarah Abahazy, Jason Hand, Reny Alkonga, Ricardo Baca, Bryan Moore, and Greg Kokanour. Each got $105. In the second round, the four losers were Angela Lung, Jonathan Gonzalez, Freddie Catamisan, and Marvin Galsim Jr with each getting checks of $115.

This would get us down to the final five bowlers. The weekly horses are paying a low of $51, Ed Abarca to a high of $167 Joey Rodriguez. In match one, the tenth seed Wilson Chueng versus George Covarrubias.

This was a good match that saw Wilson continue his winning streak to three matches as George was not able to find his shot in this.

Wilson would advance to the semi-final match. In the other match, it was Joey Rodriguez the fifth seed versus Ed Abarca the seventh seed. This match was a lot closer, and it was Ed who would continue his hot bowling, and advance. Both George and Joey finished in fourth and fifth getting checks for $125 each.

Our semi-final match was set, pitting the thirteenth and fifteenth seeds from the semis. In the weekly "horses", we would see Ed paying $51 and Wilson paying $60 if they would win their match. This was again another good match from both bowlers.

They would battle in this match, it was Wilson who jumped out to the early lead and in an up and down tough Match. Wilson would pull it out as held by one scant pin going to the 10th but Ed would leave the 4-7-10 split and all Wilson needed was 9 pins out to win the match, he left the 5-10 split on his first ball. He was able to pick up the 5 pin to advance in a thriller with a Tan is the Champion at West Covina - Jhun Tan (one of our finest supporters) Won our event at West Covina with a stellar performance downing Wilson Chueng in the title game to take home a tidy $2,700. From the left is Bob Smith ABTA Tourney Dir, Wilson Chueng, Runnerup, Jhun Tan, Champion $2,700, "Easy Ed" Abarca, 3rd, Angela Lung, 9th and Bryan Moore, 11th.

137/184 to 151/183. Ed would take home $200 for his third place finish. For those lucky "investors" that had Wilson as a horse, he paid $60.-))

The title game was on at West Covina. It would be top qualifier Jhun Tan vs fan favorite Wilson Chueng. Jhun would start out with a strike, but Wilson would find the shot at the start with a spare and a strike. Jhun would open in the 2nd and strike in the third. Wilson came up and got a open to only lead by a calm 13, but a strike in the 4th would help and then get a double. Wilson got a strike in the fifth but a 4-6 split left the door open. Jhun would mark in both the fifth and sixth frames to jump out to a mere one-pin lead.

An open in the seventh by Wilson and then spare left an opening. Jhun would strike and spare to be looking good at this time. Wilson would get a spare in the ninth but leave the two pin in the tenth and it was over. Jhun would finish out his tenth frame to finish with a 179/216 to 158/205 and take home his third ABTA Championship.

Jhun would take home $1,000 for the victory and an additional $1,700 for Cash and Carry to give him a total of $2,700. Wilson would take home $500 for his second place finish. Congrats to Jun a Very Nice Gentleman who is a stellar ABTA supporter. You bowled well and deserved this one, as did Wilson. He has two runner-up finishes both at West Covina. He will win one soon. Great Bowling my friend.

watched them on ESPN; I even watched one match on a Jet Blue flight, but I could tell they worked together great. I was very happy to be here for the finals.

"I love it; it's exactly what I believe in. If you watch a World Team Tennis match, you'll see my philosophy on life: it's men and women working together, because we're in this world together and we have to help each other."

In the opening match of the finals, Terrell Owens watched his Dallas Strikers (Bryon Smith of Roseburg, Ore.; Amleto Monacelli of Venezuela; Rhino Page of Dade City, Fla.; Mike Machuga of Erie, Pa., and Norm Duke of Clermont, Fla.) strike on five of their final six shots to defeat actor Jesse Williams' BROOKLYN STyLES (Walter Ray Williams Jr. of Ocala, Fla.; Jason Sterner of McDonough, Ga.; Ryan Ciminelli of Cheektowaga, N.Y.; Ryan Shafer of Horseheads, N.Y., and Sean Rash of Montgomery, Ill.), 217-172.

Motown (DJ Archer of Friendswood, Texas; Jesse Buss of Belvidere, Ill.; Tom Smallwood of Saginaw, Mich.; Ronnie Russell of Indianapolis, and Mike Fagan of Dallas) then eliminated the Strikers, 216-190. Fagan threw three strikes in the 10th frame to force the Strikers' Duke to throw two strikes in his 10th frame, but the PBA Hall of Famer left a 4-6-7 split on his first shot to give Motown the win.

The Elias Cup was named in honor of the PBA's founder and long-time leader, Eddie Elias. Elias' wife, Peggy, and daughter Annie Elias made the trophy presentation in Indianapolis. The winners shared a $75,000 team prize.

PBA League competition will resume during the 2013 PBA World Series of Bowling V at South Point Bowling Center in Las Vegas Oct. 25-Nov. 3.

The PBA Tour will return to action in the GEICO PBA Summer Swing May 20-June 2 in a four-tournament event hosted by three Milwaukee area bowling centers: AMF West, AMF Waukesha and AMF Bowlero in suburban Wauwatosa, Wis. The finals of the Badger, Wolf, Bear and Milwaukee Open tournaments – along with a GEICO Summer King of the Swing special event – will be televised by CBS Sports Network.

is impressive, even more impressive is that Mark rolled his 1098 on two pairs of lanes.

His Wednesday night Scratch Challenge League bowls two games on one pair and then another two games on another pair of lanes. Mark used his Roto Grip Theory to register his big score at Moreno Valley Bowl.

If anyone knows of a higher four game series bowled within the Citrus Belt please provide me with the details. Email me at "fjw300@aol.com" under the subject line "High 4 Game Series".

Mark asked me to thank Moreno Valley Bowl for hosting the best scratch league in the Inland Empire. Mark said all bowlers are welcome. Are you up to the challenge? My thanks to WILL JUNE for keeping me posted on valley happenings and the BOWLING NEWS for supporting Citrus Belt bowlers.

By the way, the last time I checked the USBC Record Book, the national record for the highest four game set is an 1198 rolled by TOM JORDAN of Union, New Jersey on March 7, 1989. That is a 299.5 average! Watch out Mr. Jordan, someone like my friend JIMMY SCHMITZER will bowl 1200 (300 - 300 - 300 - 300) someday.

New Sponsor ‘FINANCIAL ADVISORS’ is Adding
Money to Super Pots and Sweepers

The Financial Advisors Super Sweeper Sidepot

$10 weekly entry fee per bowler, with half of the money being paid out each week, and the other half going towards the huge payouts on sweeper night at the end of the season.
With 47 entries on Monday, the Financial Advisors sidepot is looking at $235 in the weekly sidepot and $9000 estimated for sweeper night. The top three series will get paid, as well as the top 16 games bowled that night. Bowlers are eligible to cash in each game.
Financial Advisors Super Sweeper Sidepot, will be adding $1,000 to the total collected. If you win 2 Super Pots all season you'll be ahead before we even get to sweepers with the $9000 payout. 100% of all money collected will be paid out for the season.

TWELVE TEAM HAVE ONE LAST CHANCE TO BE A ROUND WINNER

DOWNEY — The fifth round format was designed to take the four round winners out of the mix. Those four teams will be scheduled against each other for double win points. The remaining 12 teams are matched according to wins this round.
TIFCO INDUSTRIES and A.B.T.A. have five wins each and off to a good start. Four teams have four wins—PRO APPROACH, HERZOG INSURANCE, LINDER INSURANCE and POWER HOUSE VIDEO GAMES. This last round is not a “video game!” You need to take a positive “approach” to “insure” a win! (Did I get them all in?)
More about teams later. Some cashers this week were new to the pay-out window. Anthony Barone’s 223 took the first side-pot. #2 pot was snagged by Jon Diso’s 235, and Sol Cericos sailed away with a “dollar a pin”. Jon Diso doubled-dipped, also winning the Financial Advisors Pot. 235 has been a money making number all season.
Thirteen bowlers raised their average this week, and the whole league sits at 192.52.
Paul Barraco bounced out the high series of 647. Sol Cericos scouted the pins for 638 and “The Winter Wonderman” Eric Snow packed in a 628.
Let’s give a shout to Art Jones for his 254 and Ramiro Garcia 246.
Every few weeks I like to thank the sponsors for their support. 80% have pledged their dollars for more than one season. Three companies have a 10 year record and one company has a 20 year run. The best sponsors for the best bowlers! We love ‘em.
