Australia's Belmonte Wins Third 2011-12 Title in Pepsi PBA Elite Players Championship

LAS VEGAS – Australia's Jason Belmonte won his third Professional Bowlers Association Tour title of the 2011-12 season, and the fourth of his career, when he defeated Mike DeVaney of Murrieta, Calif., 255-238, to win the Pepsi PBA Elite Players Championship at South Point Casino and Hotel.

The finals of the eighth and final event in the PBA World Series of Bowling aired Sunday on ESPN.

The victory tied Belmonte with PBA Hall of Famer Norm Duke for current season titles as the PBA Tour heads into its final event of the 2011-12 season, the PBA Tournament of Champions, which gets underway Monday at Red Rock Lanes in Las Vegas. The TOC, the fourth major championship of the season, offers an $80,000 first prize. The finals will air live on ESPN Sunday at 1 p.m. ET.

Belmonte, whose only PBA Tour title prior to this season was in the 2009 Bowling Foundation Long Island Open, wrapped up a stunning PBA World Series of Bowling performance with his Elite Players Championship. He won titles in three of his six WSOB television finals, plus he had a third-place finish in the World Bowling Tour Finals presented by the PBA which kicked off the World Series.

As he had done in previous World Series eliminator-format events, the Australian two-handed star got off to a modest start in the Elite Players Championship. DeVaney, a two-time PBA Tour title winner, led the four-player opening match with a 257 game. Mike Scroggins of Amarillo, Texas, was second with a 247. Belmonte was third with a 237. Duke's hopes for his 38th career title, and fourth of the 2011-12 season, ended when he left a 7-10 split followed by a "big four" 4-6-7-10 split in the eighth and ninth frames, respectively, bowing out of the competition with a 222.

DeVaney again led the three survivors in game two with a 234. After finishing with a 205, Belmonte got a break when Scroggins, needing a strike in the 10th frame to advance, left the 4-6-7-8-10 "Greek Church" and opened for a 190.

If there was one player in the field who wasn't concerned about Belmonte's dominating performance in the World Series, it was DeVaney.

"I won't be watching Belmo. (His two-handed technique) doesn't impress me," DeVaney said before the match. "I'm not interested. I don't care. I throw it the right way. I put my thumb in there the way I was taught and how everybody should throw it."

In a classic title-match battle, Belmonte and DeVaney both pounded the pocket, but DeVaney left an 8 pin in the fifth frame, a 9 pin in the seventh and a 10 pin on his first ball in the 10th, and Belmonte capitalized with a late string of five strikes to take charge of the contest.

"Anyone who wins has a little luck go their way," Belmonte said, "but to win three times during the World Series, I had a lot of luck go my way. Osku (Palermma) missed a 10 pin (allowing Belmonte to reach the Chameleon Open title match)...Chris Barnes shooting 300 (in the second game, not the title match of the GEICO Shark Open)...Scroggins opening in the 10th...a lot of things really fell into place.

"I'm just overwhelmed right now.

"That second game might be the best 205 game I ever bowled," he continued, referring to seven single pins he left standing during that game.

"The pins were brutal to knock over. I didn't know how I was going to double. But in the final game, I got the pins to fall.

"My expectation coming into the World Series was just to bowl well, and if I bowled great, to make a TV show," Belmonte added. "To come home with a title was the ultimate dream, but to have exceeded that three times over? There's no way I would have predicted it. I'm seriously overwhelmed."

With Belmonte's Elite Players victory, the international players in the World Series field completed a sweep of seven individual titles awarded (PBA World Championship: continued on page 3

Meet the Coach

An interview by Carol Mancini

As I wrote last week, we will soon be featuring a column dedicated to answering questions about bowling. It will be called “The Perfect Game” and will feature advice from Steve Felege, author of The Essentials of Bowling. I thought it might be a good idea to begin with an interview so that our readers will get to know him a bit better. Here goes!

Carol: Steve, what qualified you to write an instructional book about bowling?

Steve: That’s a great question, Carol!

A verrrry long pause.....

Carol: Well!?

Steve: Well, what?

Carol: What qualified you to write a book about bowling?

Steve: I wrote a book? Holy smokes, that’s incredible! Was it any good?

Carol: Uh, can I get you a cup of coffee or something? You seem to be having trouble focusing.

Steve: I’d appreciate that..... this jet-lag thing is real! And could you do me a favor?

Carol: That depends. What do you need?

Steve: Could you wake me up when this interview is over?

THUD!

Carol: Well, there you have it folks. The newest contributor to our proud paper. He may not be much, but you get what you pay for and I’m pretty cheap!:-) P.S. I’m so glad we brought Steve to visit California.....

Although this tournament is now closed for new bowlers, we are allowing any of the bowlers that have already signed up for the tournament to re-enter the tournament on a new team to participate multiple times as long as they change the team rosters with at least two different bowlers each time. All teams must be mixed teams of five members and must have at least two women and two men.

ABT Runner up, Fred Ringor and Champion, Ronnie Gordon

RONNIE GORDON WINS FIRST ABT CHAMPIONSHIP AT LINBROOK BOWL

ANAHEIM—Ronnie Gordon won the Amateur Bowlers Tour (ABT) championship at Linbrook Bowl on Saturday, March 24, 2012 during our 3-game Beat-the-Board tournament. Ronnie bowled in the 4PM squad and shot games of 286, 234 and 268 with handicap for a series total of 788 for the $500 1st place prize and $500 from the Mega Pot. Fred Ringor came in second shooting a 785 with handicap. Low to cash was +174.

Our newest champion, Ronnie Gordon, has been bowling one daughter, Latanya, 23. Ronnie does his league bowling at AMF Valley View and his high sanctioned game is a 289 and high series is 754. Ronnie was using a Marvel drilled by Allen Bloom at Kegler’s Korner inside Linbrook Bowl for the win this weekend. Ronnie wanted to thank his family for their love and support. He also wanted to thank Allen Bloom for taking care of his equipment. Ronnie also wanted to thank Mike Sheridan, Dominic Reinhard and Darin Coward for helping him with his game. Ronnie also wanted to thank Linbrook Bowl for hosting the tournament and the ABT directors for running an outstanding tournament.

The winner of the 2-Game Sweeper was John Grieco, Sr. and the winner of the Senior Sweeper was Fred Ringor.

The ABT staff and membership would like to thank the management and staff at Linbrook Bowl for hosting our tournament. Our next scheduled event will be Saturday, April 14, at AMF Carter Lanes. The address is 1501 S. Lemon in the city of Fullerton. Their phone number is 714-526-7725. Squad times are at 1, 2:30 and 4PM. The entry fee for this tournament is $50, Gold member and re-entry is $45. Mega Pot is $25. First place is guaranteed at $1000 with the Mega Pot. You can cash as many times as you bowl, but only once in the top three.

We hope to see you Saturday at AMF Carter Lanes!

Junior/Adult Easter Pin Hunt Tournament

SIMI VALLEY—This year harley’s decided to have a fun holiday tournament for Easter, and we had an awesome turnout! With 25 adult/junior teams ranging from bumper bowlers to scratch bowlers, everyone had a great time. The 9 pin no-tap and colored pins were a hit and everyone walked away with some free games. We added in colored and stripped pins to make the tournament more fun and less serious. If any bowler threw a strike with a colored pin they would earn a free game, but if the pin was stripped and they threw a strike they would earn three free games.

The variation in divisions allowed for five teams to take home “sizeable trophies.” These five teams were: Rick and Ashley Soto in the Bumpers division with a 939 Series; Dara and Megan Lee in the Bantams division with a 1483 series; George and Colin Deppe in the Juniors division with a 1634 series; Mike Adelson and Taylor Berry in the Majors division with a 1584 series; and Steven Carrico and Clint Strawmyer in the Scratch division with a 1589 series. Congratulations to all of our winners! And a special congratulations to Clint Strawmyer for being the only person to shoot a 300 game! Nice bowling Clint!

For those of you who were unable to bowl in our Junior/Adult Tournament this past weekend, we do have some upcoming tournaments this month and next month! Be sure to check our Face-book page or website for details about these tournaments and even upcoming summer leagues!

Bowling News is proud to bring you....

Chuck Pezzano

Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

Bowling has been a sport rich in award giving and if you don't win an award it seems as though someone will give you a trophy for never having a trophy.

Not quite.

But bowling trophies have intrigued bowlers and those involved in bowling for a long time longer than a century and draw great interest as national and local exhibition sites at halls of fame sites and tournament presentations.

Bowling trophies and awards show great imagination, fine and classic beauty at times, but also some blatant commercialism. They come in all sizes, shapes and materials and can cost for next to nothing to next to a fortune. They come as small as a thimble to as large as a bowler. They are constructed from materials as paper and cardboard to the most precious of metals and best of gems or stones.

I've seen totem poles carved from a single log and stone carvings, bronzed mufflers, silver replicas of products, the finest blown glass, and the least expensive plastics.

Every top bowler has or had a collection, not to mention a huge assortment of rings, pen sets, watch fobs and chains, belt buckles.

Few top bowlers have ever had to buy any rings or watches because their awards kept them fully supplied. They also have barometers, thermometers, bracelets, pins, and dozens of personal or household items.

Medals have made a big comeback now that there are more and more major international events catering to both amateur and pro events.

The most beautiful and probably among the most expensive awards I recall were made of the finest see through material in the shape of a cylinder. Inside was suspended the replica of a tobacco leaf of gold. The gold leaf seemed suspended in the air, floating on its own and it took the work of master craftsmen with plenty of talent and patience to complete the artistic work.

These days, though trophies are not as numerous as they once were, there are no bounds, so trophy and award builders let their flair for a fantasy world go wild. Any junior bowler worth his salt has dozens of awards and all the major stars have hundreds, many exhibited in different bowling settings.

Some bowlers love their trophies. Others would just as soon leave them somewhere, anywhere, or in such modest tasks as paper weights or door stops.

One thing sure, bowling awards have been around for the better part of bowling history, and figure to be always a special piece of that tradition.

Do you know where your bowling trophies are?

Bowling News is proud to add Hall of Famer Chuck Pezzano's commentary on bowling.

Kolantzny and DeeRonn Booker at +103. In baker-style match-play, VanRijsbergen/Jordan took off and lapped the field at +734 to take the top-seed for the rolloff. Kyle Duster and Oscar Chan used nice bowling and three wins to jump to the 2nd seed while Matthew Zwieg and Luke Holley's 4-1 record catapulted them to the 3rd seed spot. Last team to make the rolloffs was Robinson/Bravo hanging on at +420. In the stepladder finals, Zweig/Holley took the first match over Robinson/Bravo 224-191 and also ran through Duster/Chan 223-205 to advance to the championship match. In the championship match, the top-seeded Van Rijsbergen/Jordan were dead lined up as they struck their way to the title 259-190. It was the first title for Van Rijsbergen and fourth for Jordan. NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

ROBERT ELLISON IS AN CERTIFIED USBC BRONZE LEVEL COACH
by Connie Marchione

SAN DIEGO—A month ago this writer got an email from a three time Deaf Team USA member Robert Ellison of Alpine, CA announcing that he is now a certified Bronze Level coach and wanted to know if he is the first 'deaf' bowler to get to that level.

Ellison said he had to pass level 1 coaching, then took bronze level certificate exam and passed that. He is not sure probably the first deaf coach who has this level. He believes Ed Abakumoff (Riverside) and Carol Moers (Denver) were certified level 1 coaches.

This writer congratulated Ellison on his being a USBC Bronze Level Coach and explained that Ray Bellofatto who owned a pro shop in New York before he moved to Denver was the first deaf bowler as a Bronze Level 1 Coach under USA Bowling banner. His daughter who served as his interpreter helped him. Later on Carol Moers passed as the second one also with her daughter as interpreter. USA Bowling was replaced by USBC when UDBC became one organization.

Ed Abakumoff along with this writer were part of 29 other deaf bowlers as certified Junior Olympics Level 1 Bowling Coach. All were passed in 3 separate coaches clinics this writer set up for USA Deaf Sports Federation in White Plains, NY (1995) and Rochester, NY (1999 & 2000).

These 29 were supposed to take up J O Level II before going on to Bronze level but with USA Bowling gone, so all must pass USBC's Coach Level 1 first like Ellison did.

Also this writer suggested to Ellison that since Edwin Miller organized a league for deaf and hearing kids in Riverside, Ellison could get some coaching credits teaching the kids to bowl.

Saturday Squads at 12:00-1:00-2:30-4:00 & 6:00 PM

WEST COVINA—We returned to West Covina Lanes where we saw 235 entries come out on Saturday and bowled on a semi-tough shot, with approx. 143 bowlers during our final squad at 6 pm. A total of $938 dollars was paid out in sidepots across the three games. Pots are now guaranteed $100 min at 4:00 PM and $200 Minimum at 6:00 PM. The cut scores on Saturday night were + 50 for the men and + 46 for the women. The Super Seniors added to the board (2 men and 1 female) were Art Windsor (46), and Ping Tubera (+40). For the women it was Angelina Nillo (+34). Super Seniors are men 63 and over, and for the women you just need to be a young 55. That would give us 57 bowlers making it to the semi-finals.

Top Qualifiers were Men Ben Bagoisan with a +137 and for the women it was Julie Nguyen with a +97. They will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Each week the top seed draws the Match Series, and this time it was worth $2,002. Ben drew a 642. We had no bowlers that bowled this score during the qualifying squads, but we had one bowler who missed this by one pin, and that was Marvin Crowder. We will estimate the Match Series at $2,500 at Bowlmum event. The last bowler for the 3-6-9 roll-off was Demetrius Cash. When he came up to shoot for the $1,100 he missed on his first shot, so he got $50 for beer Money as a consolation. The pot will be $1,200 at Bowlmum.

In our optional doubles, finishing in first were Deborah Sanders and Marvin Crowder

(and a Happy Birthday wish goes out to Marvin, who had his two sons visit him at West Covina. It was nice to see Tim and Marvin Jr again) with a 1393 for $130. Finishing second was Julian Conwi and Teddy Villaroman with 1372 for $110. There was a total of $1,370 paid out in doubles and 23 paid spots with low to cash of 1311.

After bowling the three game semi-finals, finishing in first was Victor Fabian with a +155. Finishing in 3rd during the semi-finals was Carlos Umana at a +142. He missed in the 10th frame his 2nd strike to overtake Victor for the top seed. He sat out the first round. Our top seed in semi-finals had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $2,285. Victor Fabian drew a 191. We had four Lucky Bowlers who matched that score. They were Demetrius Cash, Fred Go, Jhickie De Luna, and Teddy Villaroman. They will each get $571 for that 191 score. We will estimate the pot at $1,300 for Bowlmum.

This would bring us to our top 16 Match Play finals. In the first round, the seven losers were Beth Borci, Jamescart Alarcio, Sonia Coronado, Jeff Wu (who lost to his brother Sam), Lenny Riley, Marvin Crowder, and Javier Avila. They received checks of $105 each. In the second round, the losers were Tao Yang, Don Chung, Ray Saucedo, and Jovein Bolanos. They received checks of $110 each. This would get us down to the final four bowlers. At this point, our horses would be paying anywhere from a low of $23 (Carlos Umana) to a high of $140 (Mary Huynh) depending on who would win. In this round we saw Mary Huynh (9th seed) bowling Sam Wu (11th seed). We would see an exciting match where it was the bowling of Mary who hit some key shots towards the end to beat Sam with a 211 to 202 and advance to the next round, which was the most rounds she had ever gone. In the other match we saw Jimmy Wong (13th seed) bowling Carlos Umana (2nd seed). Again we would see another close match that would go down to the wire. But this time Carlos could not pull the match out and it was Jimmy who would go on to win with a 213 to 202. Notice, both of our losers in the 3rd round had the same handicap score of 202. Both Carlos and Sam finished in 4th and 5th getting checks for $120 each. Our semi-final match was set, pitting the 9th and 13th seeds. The "horses had Mary paying $140 and Jimmy to pay $56 if they would win their match. We saw Mary start out with a couple of opens. Jimmy opened the first frame but then came back with a turkey to jump out to a 22 pin lead. He would continue to hold that lead until an open in the 7th and 8th frames opened the door for Mary. But an open by her in the 7th and only getting a spare in the 8th, followed by another open would seal her fate as a 3rd place, and send Jimmy on to the title with a 180/223 to 144/199. Finishing in 3rd place was Mary Huynh this week for $123. She was bowling on a reduced entry. For those lucky "investors" that had Jimmy as a horse, he paid $56.

The title game was all set. It would be Jimmy Wong against the top qualifier Victor Fabian. Victor elected to start the match first. In this match it was Victor who would start out like he wanted to win his 4th championship. He marked in the first two frames, with Jimmy starting with an open and then settling down for marks. In the 3rd frame Victor opened, but then followed that with a double to give him a 17 pin lead after the 5th frame was over. He would continue to hold that lead till the 8th frame when an open on his part cut the lead down to 5 pins going into the 9th frame. It was Jimmy who came up to finish. He got a strike in the 9th frame and then got the first two strikes in the 10th frame to lock out Victor and win his 3rd ABTA championship with a 203/246 to 174/227. He would take home $1,200 for 1st place and $1,700 for Cash and Carry, for a total of $2,700. Finishing in 3rd place for $500 was Victor Fabian.

Champion Jimmy Wong is from San Gabriel and used a Storm drilled by himself. He is married to another fine ABTA bowler Ada and they have three kids Alex, Anson, and Alden. He would like to thank his wife and family for all their support, Sol Cerico, the Lungs, Bowlmania League, Mark Baker for the fine coaching, and the ABTA, Staff, and specially Boandb.

Victor Fabian (3rd Place) is from Cerritos and used a Critical Fury drilled by Mike Wahl. He is married and has three kids Kristina, Kate, and Kristopher. He would like to thank his family for all their support, the Ocampo family, the Abutans, the Galluzzos, the ABTA and its Staff.

Mary Huynh (3rd Place) is from Temple City and used an Ebonite drilled by Gerald Lee. She is single and would like to thank Michael Benavides her best friend, Allan, Alyssa, and a special Happy Birthday to Maddix (who turned 3 years old), the ABTA and its Staff for their support.

Heineken, Sysco or Bowlium ?

by Aimee Gomez

DOWNEY—Kevin Valmonte 224-232-227/681 and Andrea Snyder 211-225/620 led Gold Coast Hotel to four games over contenders Heineken USA, led by Leonard Ruiz 236-236/632. Heineken has been having a tough few weeks, but they are still the team to beat for this round. Let's see if they can get it done against Sysco next week.

Sysco fell in game one to Tifco, but came back the second game to take the lead for totals by a stick. The third game was worth three points, and Sysco stepped up and delivered the winning shots. Deeronn Booker 217-213-235/665 had the lone sixer for Sysco, but had plenty of help from his team. Danny Ontiveros 224-215/625, Mike Faraci 232-201/606 and Brandon Golden 222/604 all shot six for Tifco, but could not overcome their fourth bowler, and ended up losing four.

Bowlium made easy work of sweeping Tri-Star Vending thanks to Arnold Cheesman 213-266-236/715, Art Jones 233-247/661 and Herbert Jones 204-223/616. Larry Campbell 212-202/606 was the lone Tri-Star member who did not get the memo to stop trying.

Powerhouse Video took four from ABTA thanks to Vernon Adams 252-222/664. Matt Garcia led ABTA 235-205/614.

Herzog Insurance's Steve Gurrieri 208-238-238/684 and Raul Rosales 209-245/642 led their team to a sweep over fellow round winners, Kegell, whose Kurt Arakaki 220/605 had the only above par set.

Brylaw Accounting bowled well this week, led by Billy Myers Jr 213-236/632, Larry Stephens 204-206-222/632, and Tony Burrell 245/607, while Eric Snow 245-217/650 was able to carry his team to the first two game wins.

Clyde's Video Games overcame their blind score handicap by using Gregory Jackson 200-218-248/666, David Bartlett 221-204/620 and Ramiro Garcia 209-225/613 to take four wins from Linder Insurance.

Pro Approach collected five wins this week in their match against Erickson Foods.

The standings show how tight the race is for the round. This will all be decided next Monday, so come root your favorite team on! Have a great week.

The BRY-LAW Super Sweeper Sidepot

What Drama Awaits at the 2012 PBA Tournament of Champions?

2011-12 season comes full circle with PBA's signature event at Red Rock Lanes in Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS (April 5, 2012) - For the past four seasons Red Rock Lanes in Las Vegas has hosted some of the most dramatic Professional Bowlers Association Tournament of Champions finals telecasts in history. This year, with the PBA's signature event moved into position as the final event on the 2011-12 schedule, it holds promise to add another chapter to its colorful history. In 2008, Michael Haugen Jr. came back from a 50-pin deficit in the championship match to defeat Chris Barnes, 215-214. In 2009, needing only a nine-count and spare in the 10th frame to win his first major title, Rhino Page missed the headpin, got four pins on his first shot and lost the TOC title to Patrick Allen, 267-263. In 2010, Kelly Kulick made sports history by becoming the first woman to win a PBA Tour event when she defeated former PBA Player of the Year Chris Barnes in the championship match, 265-195. In 2011, Mika Koivuniemi of Finland defeated 2009 World Championship winner Tom Smallwood of Saginaw, Mich., 269-207, to win the richest first prize in PBA history ($250,000). But it was Koivuniemi's 299-100 romp past Tom Daugherty in the semifinal match that created a national wave of media attention. In addition to providing a dramatic conclusion to the season, the tournament offers a year-long incentive for all PBA players to win a title in order to qualify for the elite finale. In 2012, that end-of-season drama returns as the PBA Tour comes full circle – returning to Las Vegas for its big finish after starting the season six months earlier with the PBA World Series of Bowling at South Point Lanes on the south side of the city. When the tournament gets underway Monday, PBA regional, senior tour, national tour players and PBA Women's Series players who have won titles will begin the week-long battle to determine which four players advance to the live ESPN stepladder finals on Sunday, April 15, at 1 p.m. ET (10 a.m. Pacific). The known storylines are plentiful:

- PBA Hall of Famer Norm Duke and Australian two-handed star Jason Belmonte come into the event in a heated battle for PBA Player of the Year honors.
- The winners from the three previous PBA majors – U.S. Open champion Pete Weber, USBC Masters champion Mike Fagan and PBA World Championship winner Osku Palermaa of Finland – will be trying for a second major title, and Player of the Year consideration for themselves.

- A win by Pete Weber would make him the first player in PBA history to complete the "Triple Crown" twice.
- A win by Walter Ray Williams Jr., the winningest player in PBA history with 47 titles, would make him the seventh member of the elite Triple Crown club as well as the third "Grand Slam" winner in PBA history. Williams also needs to reach the stepladder finals to extend his record streak of 26 consecutive seasons with at least one TV appearance.
- International players have made their mark on Tour this season winning a total of seven titles. In addition to Palermaa and Belmonte, 2011-12 titlists Andres Gomez of Colombia, Stuart Williams and Dom Barrett of England are also entered. Reigning Player of the Year Koivuniemi, who is winless so far this season, will be trying to defend his title. The 2012 TOC will combine the best of the event's traditions with its newest features.
- The 11 players who won PBA Tour titles during the 2011-12 season have earned automatic berths in the Round of 36. Belmonte, Weber, Fagan, Palermaa, Duke, Eugene McCune, Scott Newell, Dominic Barrett and Stuart Williams of England, Wes Malott and Andres Gomez of Colombia will be exempt from Champions Field and Elite Field qualifying, and enter the competition on Thursday.
- The Elite Field will include any player who has won a PBA Tour title, the winner of the 2011 PBA Regional Players Championship and Doubles Championship, 2011 PBA Senior U.S. Open and USBC Senior Masters champions.
- The top four players who will compete for the title will be determined over 18 qualifying games on Thursday and 18 games of round-robin match play on Friday.

In addition to the TOC competition, the 2012 PBA Hall of Fame induction ceremonies will be held on Saturday, April 14, when Jason Couch of Clermont, Fla. (the only player to win three consecutive TOC titles) and 11-time Senior Tour winner Gene Stus of Taylor, Mich., will be inducted. While recent TOCs have provided many dramatic televised moments in PBA Tour history, other memorable moments include Don Johnson's 299 game in 1970; Jack Biondolillo bowling the first televised 300 game in 1967; Mike Durbin becoming the event's first three-time winner in 1984 and Couch becoming the first to win it in three consecutive seasons in 2002, just to name a few. Comprehensive coverage of the Tournament of Champions will begin Monday and continue through Friday on pba.com's exclusive Xtra Frame online bowling channel. BY NICE DONE AND SWEETLY HONEST

STUDIO CITY — What a great week for you, not for me. I apologize if i wasn't around a lot. I had a real nasty sinus infection. But I'm back and ready to watch the end of the season for all these great leagues.

ADULTS:

Again we promote that you need to bowl in our tournaments. The next one is coming up in two weeks. It's a Wednesday night and it's a battle for Pinz supremacy (but if you bowl somewhere else you are more than entitled to compete). Well bully for you and here's the scores:

Tavern Guild: David Quam 700, Tom Whitaker 598, Brian Ellander 564, Lisa Goldberg 456, Darrell Tucci 269, James Beightler 227, Steve Sinn 221.

JUNIORS:

You had the week off and man are we jealous of you. But now is the time to buckle down and start focus8ing on the Summer Season. We missed you this week and can't wait to see you bowling this next Saturday.

SENIORS/DAYTIME:

Again you did not compete in our tournament. Are you afraid? I mean who has more experience than you. You guys and dolls could destroy the competition with your great games. Well, maybe next time. Here's the scores:

Pin Pals: Barbara Murphey 199/483, Karen Collier 159/437, Kristie Burgess 410, Shelly Djergian 155.

Happy Timers: Gary Olsen 181/495, Allan Lotta 173/464, Yolanda Dragotta 152/392, Ruth Swick 141/374.

Senior Social: Art Michener 190/517, Arthur Harris 220/480, Pat Olsen 169/448, Teri Bonato 143/395.

Bowler of the Week: The Bluest Chip prospect this week was Mr. Perry Hernandez. Bowling with his son and some friends, Perry shot a 758 series. That's a great series but just remember that last season he was averagng a 145. Great job Perry, keep it up.
