Guess What May Replace Some of Those Departing Mall Anchors?

by Fred Eisenhammer

WOODLAND HILLS — Do you happen to remember the Topanga Plaza Ice Arena?

If you're under 50, perhaps not. If you're older than 50, perhaps you do. That ice rink was opened on the first level of the Woodland Hills mall in 1964 and it was a smash hit with the younger folk before it closed.

Now that retail chains such as Macy's, J.C. Penney's and Sears are closing in bunches under the weight of on-line behemoth Amazon, mall owners are searching far and wide for replacements for their plaza anchors.

Ice rinks are getting the cold shoulder, but bowling centers are receiving close scrutiny.

Northwoods Mall in Peoria, Ill., saw opportunity when its Macy's department store closed last year.

That retail center has made plans to move in a bowling center this year on the 56,000 square feet that Macy's used to occupy.

Rob Karr, president of the Illinois Retail Merchants Assn., told the Bloomington-Normal, Ill.-based Pentagraph newspaper that the shopping habits of millennials are shaping retail centers in the U.S.

"They buy a little bit less in terms of clothes and other things, and they want more experiences," he said. "So you are going to see malls taking on different types of things."

Those new ventures include bowling centers.

"[Malls] might become mixed-use type centers is what I am saying," Karr said.

Janss Marketplace tried to place a bowling center on the grounds of its Thousand Oaks retail center before its two-year effort fell through. But the collapse of that deal didn't come because of lack of trying.

So don't be surprised if bowling centers find a home in some California malls — an idea that may have been farfetched years ago.

There's been much talk about the "death of the mall," but mall owners don't quite see it that way. And just because they lose some retail anchors doesn't mean they're not creative enough to find a suitable replacement that can draw in people — and a profit.

Bowling centers could be part of the answer to malls' quandary.

And perhaps we'll even see a comeback of the ice rink.

Kyle Troup, Jesper Svensson Win Roth/Holman PBA Doubles Championship

Top qualifiers throw 10 consecutive strikes to become first team of two-handed players to win

PORTLAND, Maine — Kyle Troup of Taylorsville, N.C., and Sweden's Jesper Svensson became the first team of two-handed players to win the MaineQuarterly.com Mark Roth/Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship Sunday at Bayside Bowl, throwing a closing string of 10 consecutive strikes to defeat Marshall Kent of Yakima, Wash., and EJ Tackett of Huntington, Ind., 279-195, in the title match.

Troup, a 25-year-old right-handed two-hander, and Svensson, a 22-year-old who throws from the left side, made the title contest a route after Tackett left a 4-7-10 split in the fourth frame and failed to convert. Troup won his only other PBA Tour title in the 2015 Wolf Open. Svensson, PBA's 2015 Rookie of the Year, won for the sixth time.

The young two-handed players, the top qualifiers coming into the finals, kept the sold out crowd at Bayside Bowl roaring throughout the match. Ironically, they decided to bowl as doubles partners last fall during a tournament in Las Vegas where they were bowling against each other in match play. Despite throwing the ball from opposite sides of the lane, they bowled like fraternal twins in Maine.

"It was fantastic," Svensson said. "The first couple of shots we were a little firm, but we were locked in after that. We've been talking about this day for four months, and now here we are. We got it."

"We worked together great all week," Troup added. "We kept each other in the moment, and that's continued on page 7

Wes Malott Rolls to Victory in PBA "King of the Hill" Competition

PORTLAND, Maine — Over the past eight years, Wes Malott has undergone knee surgery, added another child to his family and expanded his pro shop business back in Pflugerville, Texas. But when it came time to defend the Professional Bowlers Association's "King of Bowling" crown after that lengthy delay, Malott was more than up to the challenge.

Malott, now 40, a 10-time PBA titlist and Hall of Fame-eligible PBA competitor, rolled games of 238, 256 and 227 Wednesday night for a 721 three-game series and a convincing victory over 2016 PBA Player of the Year EJ Tackett of Huntington, Ind., and Jason Belmonte of Australia, who recorded 664 and 640 series, respectively, in the revival of the made-for-television King of Bowling special event.

The Xtra Frame Pay Per View series, which aired exclusively on the PBA's live-streaming service that didn't exist the last time Malott won the crown, was conducted as part of the PBA's return to Bayside Bowl in Portland, Maine, for the MaineQuarterly.com

E.J. Tackett - Wes Malott - Jason Belmonte

Mark Roth/Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship and the L.L. Bean PBA League Elias Cup finals.

Malott dominated the original King of Bowling series at the Kegel Training Center in Lake Wales, Fla., in 2009, winning challenge matches five consecutive weeks against Parker Bohn III, Chris Barnes, Patrick Allen, Walter Ray Williams Jr. and Rhino Page.

"I wish we had been able to do something like this sooner, especially after the performance I had at Kegel," Malott said. "Any time you can compete against the hottest players of the time, it's great fun. It might not have meant as much to Jason or EJ as it did to me, but it was something I needed to prove to myself.

"I haven't had the drive I need to have lately, so to be able to bowl against the best and take them down in a somewhat convincing manner was enjoyable. It felt a little like a regular TV show, and I haven't been in that position for a while. But that's the reason you do this.

It's a whole lot more than the money, and to do it in front of the fans here in Maine was awesome."

Malott will now turn his attention to the L.L. Bean PBA League competition, which gets underway with an eight-game "seeding" round Thursday when all eight teams will bowl to establish bracket positions for this weekend's competition.

And then it's back home to Texas where the now-father of two boys and a daughter will be taking his kids to softball, baseball, bowling events non-stop.

"My wife and I have something going every day until August 2," Malott grinned. "And then school starts."

Let the 2017 State Tournament begin!

by Tina Martin, California Bowling Writers

SAN RAFAEL — It has been 30 years since Marin County ABC hosted the 42th Annual California State Men’s Bowling Championships in 1987. It was conducted by the California State Bowling Association with Doubles & Singles at Country Club Bowl in San Rafael and Team event at Nave Lanes in Novato. This year, the 12th Annual CaliforniaUSBC Open and Women’s Championship Tournament, hosted by the Marin County USBC, began on April 7 with Team, Doubles & Singles kicking off at Country Club Bowl.

Looking back at the biggest difference since 1987 would be the number of bowlers. Back then it was nearly 2500 teams of five men for 18 weekends. Bowlers even had to check their bowling bags in a special area. This year we look forward to welcoming almost 500 teams of four men, mixed or women’s teams, to Marin County for 9 weekends. In 1987 the tournament was 18 weekends, April to August. This year will be 9 weekends April 7- June 18. No Bowling Easter Weekend, April 14-16, Mother’s Day weekend, May 12-14, or CUSBC Convention weekend June 9-11. In July, the CUSBC Youth Championships will also be at Country Club Bowl.

Highlights of the first weekend:

Opening ceremony on Saturday included the presentation of colors by the Novato High School ROTC, official greetings from CUSBC President Rosie Parker, MCUSBC President Vern Coleman, Tournament Manager Kathy Bruegeman, and Country Club Bowl Manager Stacy Aldred.

On Saturday April 8, James Brown of Fountain Valley and Upland Bowl rolled a 299! James’ last 300 game was four years ago, so he was ready for another. He has three perfect games and an 813 high series to his bowling credits. John Stark organized the two teams from Fountain Valley.

Terry Lankster of Empire Bowl and Redlands, rolled the first perfect game of the tournament in the afternoon squad on Saturday, April 8 on lanes 39-40. This was his very first sanctioned 300 game for the 203 average bowler. At age 54 he is already a two-time retiree having retired from the Marine Corps and as a Sheriff of Riverside County. Terry currently bowls in four leagues as well as coaching 80 to 90 youth bowlers at Empire Bowl. He almost didn’t come to the tournament this year as he was having trouble with his own bowling, but after some ball work from Zack Jellsey, he credits Zack for the perfect game. His friend, Jessie Cannon organized the two teams to bowl the tournament. Terry’s future goals – topping his highest series of 764--now on to that 800!

It’s nice to see the groups coming into the center wearing matching Team Shirts. The Bay Area Muni teams and as well as the group of Orange County KutUps were lookin’ good in their bowling shirts. If you haven’t signed up for the 2017 tournament, there are still times available and the deadline to enter is June 18, 2017 if lanes are available.

Asking bowlers what they plan to do in their off time - going to San Francisco with a ride over the Golden Gate Bridge and a visit to Pier 39, Wine Country, the Graton Casino, Muir Woods or just out for a nice dinner at one of the many local restaurants with the traveling bowling friends. Bowlers seemed to like the new Bowling Shirts that are available through the CUSBC website and they were even already reserving their spots for the 2018 tournament to be held at Keystone Lanes in Norwalk. Check the CUSBC website at www.calusbc.com for tournament results.

MORENO VALLEY'S Top Senior Bowler's at Midseason

by Frank Weiler

MORENO VALLEY — Today's senior bowlers are the best senior keggers ever. Today's senior bowler is in better health, better condition, better educated and more knowledgeable about our sport than any previous generation of senior bowlers. Today's senior bowlers are the best senior keggers ever.

Moreno Valley's senior bowlers are no exception to this fact. They are great bowlers and better bowlers than their parents.

Will June's 698 series is third highest by senior league bowler in Moreno Valley.

The "Valley's" top senior league male bowlers at mid-season are:

|-------------------|-----------------|
| 1. Mike Mitchell | 209.6 (average) |
| 2. Jeff Hill | 209.0 |
| 3. Eugene Johnson | 204.6 |
| 4. R.J. Jackson | 202.8 |
| 5. Joseph Adams | 202.6 |

The TOP senior league SCORES by the senior guys so far this season are:

High Scratch Series: 736
by Eugene Johnson

High Scratch Game: 300
by Eugene Johnson & David Smith

Series Over Average:
149 pins over average (710 series) by Dino Dennis

Game Over Average:
107 pins over average (278 game) by Ken Sanders

Great bowling guys. My thanks to WILL JUNE for providing me with the "Valley" league sheets. Will currently has the third high scratch series (698) by a senior bowler.

Wow! A Lot of Perfect Games in This Room

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – So where was Johnnie Englehart?

And where was Tim Tripp?

That's what ace bowlers Russell Booth, Charles Kenny, Karl Kurtz and Rusty Bryant wanted to know as they posed for a photo in the Winnetka Bowl pro-shop last week.

The foursome represented a whopping 218 perfect games among them.

Englehart and Tripp are frequent visitors to Winnetka Bowl but they weren't around this Tuesday night. The two elite bowlers would have padded that perfecto number by more than a hundred – easily.

As it was, Booth, Kenny, Kurtz and Bryant had to be content with representing a couple of hundred perfectos – not to mention 127 800 series.

Here's the breakdown: Kenny, 92 perfectos, 60 800 series, 244 average; Bryant, 68 perfectos, 35 800s, 217 average; Kurtz, 46 perfectos, 28 800s, 225 average; and Booth, 12 perfectos, four 800s, 221 average.

That's a lot of talent in one room.

WEST COVINA — X-Frame Bowling Tour held its third event at West Covina Lanes and Rauf Caluag won in fine style topping the Beat the Board Finals with a nice +139. All scores were handicap.

He returned home to Lawndale as a Champion that evening. The young gentleman topped the field of a two squad, 127 entrants to take home a nice top prize of $1500 for his fine effort.

31 bowlers advanced to the “Beat the Board Finals”. Where you finish is where you will cash.

Taking the lead right out of the gate Game 1 was pretty Beatriz Marquez of Jewel City fame with a big +72 winning the $50 side pot. Rauf Caluag nabbed Game #2 with a +58 to take a lead of the 31 bowlers. Game #3 Jonathan Baracca got the $50 pot at +53.

Rauf finished strong as he took the lead after two games with +139, good for 1st and $1,500 to hold off a another hot bowler Annie Liao who finished at +128 $375. In 3rd was Ms. Kelly Manuel who hit the lanes very well again with a nice +110 $375. Ted Villaroman 4th +99 $150 and 5th was Andrew Lung at +84 $125 and 6th came Danny Egui-los +80 $100.

The cut scores were women +89 & men +71. A field of 31 cashers saw the prize fund alone pay $3,725 at a $50 Entry with a re-entry $45. Reduced entries are $35 and pay 60% of the pay check.

In qualifying, Hi Qualifiers for the men was Fred Manansala +159 and Kelly Manuel led the ladies at +142. They receive paid entries for the fine bowling!!

We had a nice 127 Entrants (Two Squads) in our third event and MANY new members again. People I have not seen in two years.

We are making adjustments to make things better for our bowlers. This is only our third event and most all directors had little or no experience and are doing a very good job for us. Thanks for the diligent work!!

Champion Rauf Caluag used a Maxim?? Wow?? Driller is unknown to him!! Rauf hails from Lawndale. His father, Lupito is also an X-Frame Bowler. I’m sure he is proud of him! Congrats Rauf !!

Annie Liao is from Rowland Heights and used a DV8 Pit Bull, drilled by none other than Memo Ro-sales at Chaparral Lanes.

Annie is a Pharmacy Tech at Walmart and very well-liked by all. She thanks Glen, Billy, Angel, Cindy, Karen and David for support. Nice bowling by a nice young lady.

In 3rd and bowling very well was Kelly Manuel of Walnut! She used a Sure-Lock drilled by Memo and Brian at Chaparral Lanes. She’s a sweet, well-liked young lady. She has many friends who have joined X-Frame.

This Saturday April 22, we are hosted by popular Action Lanes. Located at

1969 – PART 2

by Carol Mancini

- HARRY GRANT won the CORONA BOWL Washington Singles in 1968. He was the KING, on and off the lanes. His Singles was sanctioned, 5 pin drop rule, re-rates possible, had hundreds of squad organizers, four persons on a lane and be familiar with A.B.C. Rule #306! Lots of tales could be told!
- BETTY GOULDING put together an Eleventh Anniversary Sweeper. Prize fund totaled $1,111.11. More fun stuff - - 5 cents cigars, 10 cent beer and steak dinners $1.95. CLARK CENTER was always jumpin', when BETTY was around.
- WOW! The first "HAVE YOU HEARD" column made it's appearance. Gossip? Could have been. Dirt? When possible. Who wrote the column? 'Twas a secret.
- On the weekend of May 23-24-25, there were 8 marathons, 4 singles, 12 squads of Blue Chip, dozens of pot games and doubles, doubles, doubles.
- At last - - equal prize funds for men and women.
- Tournament clubs were starting to pop up; 200's, 600's, and 700's. Every center and organization was forming clubs and scheduling matches.
- MONTEBELLO BOWL blasted bowlers about their "Wild Mustang" car league. Only $6.00 per week. Even the Sponsor of the winning team got a Fastback! Plus Point Money!
- MAR-LIN-DO did a lot of advertising and had a story every week. Their daily Blue Chip squads were very popular. But - - it didn't seem to be a FUN place to bowl. The big guns around town didn't bowl tournaments there, join leagues, or put up the big numbers. MARILYN BLYTHE shot a 300 (100-100-100).Yup. She did. It was reported in their house column.
- The "fun lanes" and "action lanes" were usually the same. VERDUGO HILLS, KONA LANES, PALM SPRINGS LANES, RESEDA BOWL, MONTEBELLO, TROPICANA LANES, ENCINO BOWL, ARCADIA BOWL, just to name a few favorites. What were yours???
- READERS - - Why not share memories with us? Just drop us a line, call on Mondays or E-MAIL us a story. Spelling doesn't count.
- EDDIE COCHEM'S Summer Singles at CAL BOWL was in their 9th season. $10,000 in the pot.
- A familiar face at NORWALK BOWL was LEO TARTAMELLO. He was Secretary of the Car League. For the past 30 years he has been making scrapbooks for bowlers. He saved every Bowling News and Pacific Bowler - - clipped articles and pictures, and has made hundreds of memory books. Big thanks, LEO!!!
- "Gossip" was popular even in the 60's. Many phone calls and visits to centers produced the "Have You Heard" column. In one month it went from a few paragraphs, to a full half page. The column lasted over 25 years.
- BETTY MIVELAZ finally won her first WWPB title in Tahoe. She bundled up flowers, a big trophy and $500.00. After placing second three times, she flashed an Olympic smile.
- JACK QUINN has a new position outside his Pro Shop - - Proprietor/Manager of WESTERN BOWL.
- Bargain buy. 12 lane center in choice location, Plumas County. Any takers??
- Wedding bells rang for HERB "JUDGE" ROTH and MARGARET BUTLER. Gossip whispers that LEE JOUGLARD was getting hitched also.

- E.G. MOCK was P.P.C.P. Champ at UNIVERSITY LANES in San Diego. GARY FORD presented $ $ $. Remember GARYcame up to BOWLING SQUARE for a while and finally retired in Las Vegas.
 - AZTEC BOWL in Buena Park was the first on the West Coast to install Brunswick Automatic Scorers.
 - DICK SANDERS wore his reporters hat all during the running of the Palm Springs Classic. I think DICK chiseled RIP VAN WINKLE scores on Plymouth Rock!
 - DON GLOVER of Bakersfield was 6th in PBA winnings, $24,555. He is still a legend in Bakersfield.
 - Other Californians on the tour: BILL BURNETTA, LARRY LAUB, JIM GODMAN, DON RUSSELL, JOHN GUENTHER, DAVE SOUTAR, BILL ALLEN, HARRY SMITH, MIKE McCRATH, MIKE DURBIN, GLENN ALLISON, ANDY MARZICH, ART GODDARD, BARRY ASHER, ED BOURDASE, BOBBY KNIPPLE, BUD HORN to name a few. Most were part time, not a profitable way of life!
 - TOYO WORLD LANES opened a Tokyo. Why big news? They had 252 LANES!! 300 employees. $.60 per game. They never formed leagues. Men bowled in suits and ties! Fans sat and watched open play "stars", some wore shirts with their names on the back.
- If memory serves me, when a couple of centers in So. Calif. were on the drawing board — machines were brough from TOYO and shipped back here.
- Have we mentioned "SPORTSMAN BOWL" in Compton? Owner was WOODLEY LEWIS. Their motto, "Where the action is". BORING!
 - NICK MANCINI was at the helm of the 60 lane PARKWAY BOWL in El Cajon. A first for San Diego was his 200th Anniversary $10,000 Doubles Tournament. On the night of the finals, the Mayor of San Diego called and congratulated the champs. He ran 9 squads every weekend from July 11 to Sept. 21st. I remember ROSA PECK was a regular! VERY REGULAR! 'Twas only the beginning of the MANCINI tournament rampages! His 10 game marathons were always filled, 300 bowlers! One guy couldn't get in, went to a nearby center, rolled 10 games, then sued NICK for THIRD PLACE money. The judge laughed. More about him later.
 - ALAN POST owned the Pacific Bowler. Better known as "Knobby Knees". He was overcome by carbon monoxide poisoning. The little devil survived to bicycle another day. He really made bad coffee. His typesetter, Betty, never made a typing error in 5 years.
 - DEL MAR LANES was sold and re-named PRO 300 LANES. The new company's name was "Bowlers For Bowlers, Inc." Rumor was, there were share holders. Sounds like too many chiefs and not enough Indians. They were selling games 3 for $1.00. What's on the corner of Crenshaw and Ed Segundo in Gardena as we speak?
 - FOR SALE — USED ROUND GUTTERS. $9.50 each. How about a used locker? Only $4.50. Richards had everything.
 - Back to PARKWAY BOWL in El Cajon in 1969. They had a Monday morning league that was unusual. All the ladies brought their laundry. A company came, picked up the bags and returned the finished laundry before the league finished. Another was; a 20 week league. Everyone weighed in before bowling league each week. Lady who lost the most weight won the league — plus a shopping spree at Sears. MANCINI would try anything!
 - 1969 was a big year for bowling and bowlers — so we will have Part III next time.

C.B.N. BRAIN BUSTERS!

A biker takes his Harley Davidson in for a tune up. On the way to the auto shop he manages a speed of 60 mile per hour. On the way back, his new souped-up Harley does 90 miles per hour. He travels the same distance each way - but what is the average speed of his entire journey?

Answer: 72 MILES PER HOUR. Let's say it's 60 miles (it's not necessary to know the actual distance) to the auto shop, so it takes him an hour to get there on the first trip. Therefore it takes him 40 minutes to get home, at 90 miles per hour (or 1.5 miles per minute). So, he's traveled a total of 120 miles in 100 minutes, or an average speed of 1.2 miles per minute: 1.2 times 60 equals 72 mile per hour.

Jason Belmonte Becomes 47th PBA “Millionaire,” Achieves Milestone in Record for Fewest Tournaments

Australia’s two-handed star, Jason Belmonte, will officially become the 47th member of the PBA “Millionaire’s Club” this week after qualifying for the match play finals of the Mark Roth/Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship at Bayside Bowl in Portland, Maine. And he’ll become the fastest player to reach that milestone in terms of the fewest number of events bowled to get to $1 million, thanks in no small part to his collection of 14 career titles including eight majors.

Less than $2,000 shy of the milestone after winning his unprecedented fourth USBC Masters title in February, Belmonte – who is bowling the Roth/Holman Doubles event with partner Bill O’Neill of Langhorne, Pa. – is assured of winning more than the $2,000 he needs to exceed $1 million in official PBA Tour earnings. At age 33 and bowling in his 131st PBA Tour event, he will shatter the record for reaching $1 million in the fewest number of events, previously held by Wes Malott who broke the million-dollar barrier when he won the 2013 U.S. Open in his 180th event.

The youngest player to reach $1 million in career earnings was Pete Weber who was 26 in 1989 when he reached the milestone in his 253rd Tour event.

what really worked for us. We repeated shots, and what’s what you have to do in this game.

“I told Jesper before the finals that we had already made history by becoming the first team of two-handers to bowl for a doubles title, so we might as well win it, too.”

In the semifinal match, Kent and Tackett, the PBA’s 2013 and ’14 Rookies of the Year, respectively out-struck first-time television finalist Zeke Bayt of Westerville, Ohio, and PBA Tour veteran Dick Allen of Columbia, S.C., 248-228, to advance to the championship match.

In the opening match, Bayt left a 4 pin on his first shot on television and converted the spare before he and Allen threw 10 consecutive strikes in a 287-194 romp past Texas teammates DJ Archer of Friendswood and Shawn Maldonado of Houston.

Bayt and Allen continued to pound the pocket in match two, throwing strikes on seven of their first eight shots on their way to a 244-211 victory over Australia’s Jason Belmonte and Bill O’Neill of Langhorne, Pa. Belmonte struggled to carry on the right lane while O’Neill struck on six of his seven shots in the alternate-frame game, but it was Belmonte’s 3-4-6-7-10 split in the seventh frame that ended the team’s hopes.

The PBA Tour on ESPN continues the next four Sundays at 10 a.m. with quarterfinal, semifinal and championship round coverage of the L.L.Bean PBA League Elias Cup competition.

Next Sunday’s quarterfinal matches will include best-of-two-game Baker format matches between Pete Weber’s GEICO NYC WTT KingPins and the Sysco Philadelphia Hitmen, led by England’s Dom Barrett. The second match features Belmonte’s Lee Auto Malls L.A.X team vs. the defending Elias Cup champion Shipyard Dallas Strikers led by player-manager Norm Duke.

CAL BOWL BOWLING REPORT

2500 E. Carson St., Lakewood, CA 90712 • (562) 421-8448

LAKEWOOD — We hope everyone had a wonderful weekend celebrating the Easter Holiday. The weather was perfect and everyone seemed to be having a grand time being together.

Let’s take a look at the high scores that were recently reported.

V.A.: It’s the 5th week of scores for this league and we see that Robert Lee is heading the scratch series with his 536, followed by Joe Morse with 493. Michelle McGarry has 479 for the women, while Armand Ivory turned in a 206 game.

Big Bear: Harold Dubose had a 299 game and that hurt, but his 749 led the scratch series list. Jerry Cant was next with his 289/723, Louise Whitlock 247/683, Paul Staff 238/665, Chris McIntosh 247/656, Emmerson Wafer 236/651, George Reister 642, Ken Seiple Jr. 257/642, Mark Fowler 234/634, Grover Dye 631, Chris Slack 623, Curt Soares 620, Jeff Cureton 244/617, Debra Gipson 246/712, LaSandra Chaney 633, Shirley Owens 227/626. Sue Cant 256/625.

Tom Baker Survives 10th Frame Shootout with Ron Mohr To Win PBA60 Killer ‘B’ Open

Baker wins first PBA60 title in opening event of 2017 PBA50 Tour season

NEW PORT RICHEY, Fla. — Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Famer and Four-time PBA50 Player of the Year Tom Baker of King, N.C., survived a 10th frame shootout in the title match to win the PBA60 Killer ‘B’ Open at Lane Glo Bowl Monday for his first PBA60 title.

Baker, who had thrown a double and nine-count to finish with a 247 game, had to wait in the wings as tournament top qualifier two-time PBA50 Player of the Year Ron Mohr of Las Vegas, had a chance to win the match by one pin with three strikes in the 10th frame. Mohr threw the first two strikes but on the third shot left the 2-4-8 to finish with 245.

“That was a great back and forth match,” said Baker, who is a 12-time winner on the PBA50 Tour and 10-time winner on the PBA Tour. “You couldn’t ask for more than that.

“It’s very rewarding when you can win with a big finish,” the 62-year-old Baker added. “The way Ron was bowling I expected he would probably do the same thing but it looked like he got the ball a little inside in the oil and the ball didn’t have a chance to finish.”

For Baker it was his first national PBA tournament title since winning the 2014 PBA50 Dayton Classic. In 2016, on the PBA50 Tour, he had four top-five finishes with a best of third in the Mooresville Classic.

“I’m looking forward to a good season,” Baker said. “To get a win right out of the gate really adds to your confidence so hopefully there will be more to come.”

Mohr, an eight-time PBA50 Tour winner, who was trying for his first national PBA tournament win since capturing the 2012 PBA50 Senior Decatur (Ill.) Open title, had a combined eight top-five finishes in PBA50 and PBA60 tournaments in 2016 with a best finish of second in the UnitedHealthcare Sun Bowl In The Villages and PBA60 Dick Weber Classic.

In the semifinal match, Mohr beat John Dudak of Orland Park, Ill., 236-231, to advance to the final. Dudak, beat Mike Chrzanowski of Shepherd, Mich., 257-215 in the opening match and Don Blatchford of Santa Monica, Calif., 203-151, in the second match to advance to the semifinal against Mohr.

All five players will join a field of approximately 150 players, including defending champion Walter Ray Williams Jr., for the PBA50 Pasco County Florida Open which begins Tuesday at Lane Glo Bowl with first round qualifying. Qualifying continues on Wednesday which will determine the top 32 players who will advance to match play on Thursday. The top five players will advance to the stepladder finals at 4 p.m. ET.

The Pasco County Florida Open will also be streamed live on PBA’s online bowling channel Xtra Frame. For Xtra Frame subscription and schedule information visit www.xtraframe.tv.

G.J.C. JANITORIAL AND BOWLUM LEAD THE FIFTH ROUND

by Mike Cammarata

DOWNEY — Going into the third week of the final round in the Brunswick Invitational, Linder's Insurance and G.J.C. Janitorial were deadlocked at 9-1 to lead the field. A big night from either would help them open up a lead and put them in the driver's seat as we near the midway mark of the round. A bad night could send them back to the middle of the pack. Neither of which happened though, as the teams battled to a 3-2 score.

Linder's took the first game by only three pins, beating GJC, 888-885. They had an easier time of it in game #2, winning by 85 pins, giving them a big lead for totals heading into the final game. Game three was a different story for both teams though, as GJC posted a 992, behind a 267 from Nacho Vega and a 257 from John Vallin. And, after averaging 227 as a team for the first two games, Linder's could only manage a 710 the final game to lose the game and totals as well.

On the second pair, Bowlum took four out of five games from Herzog Insurance, improving to 12-3 for the round to remain among the top teams. After losing game one, Bowlum posted over 1000 the next two games to win totals by over 60. Ramiro Garcia led the pair with a great set of 223-278-289/790. Billy Myers Jr. helped with 265-265/726. Kevin Gagnon had a great set for Herzog Insurance, posting 258-279/749. Bowlum will square off with GJC Janitorial on the top pair next week.

J.A.T. improved to 11-4 with a five game sweep of the Professional Approach team. The Pro Approach squad came into the week at 7-3, and the sweep hurts their chances badly. They'll need to rebound in a big way over the next couple of weeks to get back in the hunt. Katrina Fujikami led J.A.T. to the victory with her 267/729 series. Matt Schermerhorn led the pair, shooting a 299-255/743 for The Professional Approach, but it didn't help them get any needed wins.

Cal Bowl took four out of five from Forest Lanes on the next pair. Steady scores but nothing big on this pair, as most bowlers had a couple good games and one low one. Gip Lentine had the high score, with 240-259/678 for Forest Lanes.

Erickson's Food Supply improved to 10-5 for the round after sweeping their match against Smirnoff. DeeRonn Booker was the star of the match with his 290-278-221/789. Smirnoff had nothing to compete with that, losing totals by over 400 pins.

Eric Snow had a very nice 266-248/730 series to lead Thread- works to a 4-1 victory over Crown Royal. Dave Schiada bowled well also, shooting a 236-258/707 for the Crown team, but he didn't have enough help on this night.

Century 21—My Real Estate took advantage of Bobby Campagnale's 278-246-265/789 series to win four games from Los Altos Trophy. The four wins still only improves them to 6-9 for the round, and they'll need a lot more weeks like that to get back into the hunt. Joe Jimenez added 678 to help Bobby out. Matt Mosley led Los Altos Trophy with 250/682.

DV8 got a sweep from the Gym W.R.A.T.T. Fitness group on the final pair. Kurt Arakaki led the way with 256/696.

In the matchups involving round winners, as they battle for total wins which will determine seeding in the playoffs, Keystone Lanes was threatening to run away with it, opening up an 8 game lead heading into Monday. And, after the first two games they had increased that lead to 10 by beating Western Pacific. The Western Pacific team came back big in the third game though, winning by enough to take totals and win the match, 3-2. May not seem like much, but those three wins keep them within striking distance with five weeks to go. The pair wasn't as high scoring as the others. Jonathan Huff of Keystone Lanes led the way with 243/682. Raul "Spanky" Rosales of Western Pacific added 238/669.

In a much higher scoring match, Sysco took three out of five from Parkin's Bowling Supply. With the three wins, Sysco remains in third place, one behind Western Pacific for 2nd. Sysco won the first game by a wide margin. Parkin's came back to win the next two, but couldn't make up the difference for totals. Paul Barraco and Gabriel Martinez, of the Sysco team, led the pair with matching 710's. Dave Kovach was the top player for Parkin's with 255/708.

DeeRonn Booker took the first sidepot of the night with his 290 game. The game #2 Superpot was won by Michelle King. Her 279 game earned her $207. Game #3 went to Ramiro Garcia for his 289.

The 289 by Ramiro Garcia earned him the Financial Advisors Pot as well, for another $200. Kevin Gagnon was second with 279 to earn him $100.

We go back to the grind next week, as the round #4 pattern will be on the lanes. GJC and Bowlum will square off on the top pair, with quite a few teams right behind them after this week's splits by the top teams. Come down to check it out on Monday at 8:30 p.m. Only a few weeks left to root for your favorite teams.
