"X Factor" Dick Allen Sweeps Chris Barnes to Win End-of-Season Dick Weber PBA Playoffs Title

by Bill Vint

INDIANAPOLIS (April 17, 2011) – Dick Allen of Columbia, S.C., who called himself the "X Factor" among the three finalists, swept favorite Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, in the "best-of-two-game" championship match to win the inaugural Dick Weber PBA Playoffs Sunday at Woodland Bowl.

Allen, who earned his third career PBA title and first in five years, threw the last five strikes in the first game in the championship round to overcome a 15-pin deficit and win, 237-218. He put together another strike of five strikes in the second game to take advantage of back-to-back pocket 7-10 splits by Barnes to win the second game, 221-193.

Allen immediately turned over the $50,000 check to his wife Sarah, but held onto the crystal trophy. "The money comes and goes. I want the trophy and a banner in the bar at Woodland Bowl along with all of the great players who have won titles here," Allen said. "That means more to me than anything."

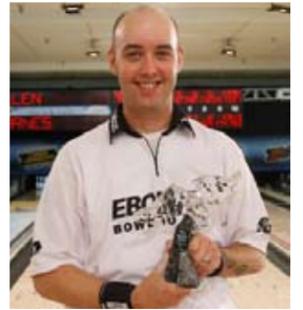

Allen said he came into the PBA Playoffs finals under the radar. "A lot of people were cheering for Randy (Weiss) to win his first title, and Barnes was the obvious favorite," Allen said. "So I was happy to be the X Factor. I just kept my head down and tried to get one more pin than the other guys. That's all I did today."

Barnes and Allen advanced to the championship match by rolling 245 and 209 games, respectively, in the opening elimination match when Randy Weiss of Columbia, S.C., was eliminated when he finished third with a 200 game. Weiss, who was trying for his first PBA title, earned $13,000.

Barnes threw strikes on six of his first seven shots in the first game against Allen, but Allen stayed close despite leaving the 10 pin on four of five shots in the middle of his game. When Barnes left the 4-6-7-10 split in the eighth frame, Allen capitalized with his closing string of strikes.

Allen was the victim of a pair of splits in the second game, helping Barnes take a 25-pin lead in the fifth frame, but the consecutive 7-10s "pretty much took the wind out of my sails," he said. "There were a few pocket 7-10s on the left lane earlier in the tournament, so the first one wasn't a huge surprise. But the second one was a stunner. I thought I threw the ball well." The Dick Weber PBA Playoffs was the final event of the 2010-11 Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour season.

DICK WEBER PBA PLAYOFFS Woodland Bowl, Indianapolis, Sunday Championship (best of two games):

Dick Allen, Columbus, S.C. ($50,000) def. Chris Barnes, Double Oak, Texas ($25,000), 237-218, 221-193.

Johnny Lombardo, Quadriplegic, Shoots 222- 279 & 203 for 704 Scratch From His Wheel Chair

by Treasa Spencer

LAKE FOREST — Johnny Lombardo 53 was diagnosed with Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy when he was but 8 years old and has been in a wheel chair since he was 12. At age 23 he had a tracheotomy and was put on a ventilator.

Parents, Carol 72 and John 73, lost their other son Charles, "Chip" from the same disease when he was 35. They also have three daughters, Bernadette, who lives in Lake Forest, Dawn who lives in Michigan and Jennifer who lives in Corona, CA.

The family moved to California from Buffalo New York in May of 1981, and need I say that they are still big fans of the Buffalo Bills and Buffalo Sabres.

But, no one in the family is a bigger sports fan than Johnny. If you've been thinking that this man lives a solitary, depressive life, you couldn't be farther from the truth. "He is a positive, happy man who is such a blessing to us," says his Mother, Carol.

Johnny bowls three games a week at Forest Lanes, with his buddy Mark Mogansen, who is also in a wheelchair. They have been long time buddies and enjoy competing against each other. Both men are accomplished bowlers and hit games over 200 quite frequently, using ramps. Yes, I said ramps.

Johnny's father, made a stick of PVC that attaches to his wheelchair, Johnny tells his Mom which way to face the ramp (depending on what spare he wants to shoot) He then adjusts his own wheelchair and uses his fingers to push the stick against the ball. His ability and degree of accuracy is uncanny. I wonder if a PVC stick could help my bowling? Few wheelchair bound bowlers in the whole world have ever scored games as high as 279 and far fewer have ever scored over 700 for a three games series. It is considered quite an accomplishment.

In addition to bowling, Johnny does Karaoke at the Laguna Wood Village once a week using his voice activated

by Frank Weiler

LAKE ELSINORE—National PBA star Eddie Van Daniker came to town on Sunday, won five consecutive matches, and left as Citrus Belt Kelly C. Masters Tournament Champion. Van Daniker won $1,200.00 for his efforts.

Van Daniker is an exempt player on the national PBA tour, and that makes him one of the top 64 bowlers in the world. He is also one of the smoothest professional bowlers since DAVID OZIO. In the future, we will be seeing more of Eddie in SOCAL, since he is moving here to run a pro shop.

Eddie started his quest for the title slowly, with three close match play wins over GREG NEUER, JIM HARVEY, and BOBBY CAMPAGNALE. Neuer lost his two game match to Eddie by a mere six pins. Harvey, the pro who will always be remembered for rolling a 296 game on television, pushed Van Daniker but finally lost. Campagnale lost to Eddie by a mere eleven pins, after making the 7 - 10 split in the tenth frame of the second game of the match.

After winning his first three matches, Van Daniker had to face the undefeated and defending Masters Champion, DAVE WODKA. These guys are friends, but both wanted to beat the other. Before their match began, they both told me that they would kick the other's (donkey!). Eddie fell behind early, when he couldn't carry on the left lane. However, in second game, Eddie moved right on the approach, started striking and rode a 259 game to victory.

With Wodka out of the way, Van Daniker had one more match to win. He had to face the Citrus Belt's premier two-hander, Bobby Campagnale. The match would be for the title. As winner of the second-chance bracket, Campagnale had to defeat Van Daniker twice.

Campagnale came out of the gate striking, and appeared to be on the road to victory. Van Daniker started with two spares. Bobby's confidence was building and you could see it written all over his face. Then Eddie adjusted his line and struck out for 279. Bobby faltered and managed a 236. Eddie followed up his big first game with a 278, for the title. Counting the 259 with which he finished his prior match, Eddie's last three games totaled 816.

Three bowlers rolled perfect games, DANNY SUSTAITA during qualifying, JOSH BLANCHARD and BOB MARKIEWICZ during match play. The best match during the finals featured a father versus son duel.

After two games, MATT MURTISHAW and his father (Jim) tied. They then bowled a tenth frame roll-off and tied again. The second tenth frame roll-off was won by father JIM MURTISHAW. In the end though, Matt had the last laugh. He finished in fourth place, ahead of his dad's ninth place finish.

When the smoke cleared, Bobby Campagnale finished second (for the second consecutive year), and Dave Wodka was third. All the finalists were grateful to the BOWLING NEWS for reporting on their success. The tournament was conducted by CITRUS BELT officials MIKE RADDEMAN (President) and RICK HILL (Vice President), and ALISHA HILL (Trevi Lanes management). The Citrus Belt Association would like to thank Trevi Lanes manager, PAULA VIDAD, for hosting a great tournament.

HAMMEL READY TO DEFEND USBC SENIOR QUEENS TITLE

LAURA LEE DANIEL On Record Pace

by Frank Weiler

SYRACUSE—To become a champion, you have to beat the best, and that's exactly what Char Hammel of Las Vegas did at last year's United States Bowling Congress Senior Queens in El Paso, Texas.

Hammel dethroned defending champion Janine Primrose of Gardnerville, Nev., in back-to-back matches to capture the coveted title, and the victory was her most memorable bowling moment.

"It was definitely my greatest win," said Hammel, who won the opening three-game total-pins match, 590-554, to force a deciding match, which she won, 705-520. "I can't believe a year has actually passed since El Paso. I look forward to bowling the Women's Championships and Senior Queens every year."

This week, Hammel looks to become the first woman to repeat as USBC Senior Queens champion when the showcase tournament for women bowlers age 50 and older kicks off at Syracuse's Oncenter Convention Center on Saturday. Competitors will be bowling for a $3,000 top prize.

Hammel, a poker dealer at Green Valley Ranch in Las Vegas, realizes repeating won't be easy.

"So many things have to go your way to win a tournament," Hammel said. "I think as much as getting good breaks, you have to side step the unfortunate bad breaks, too. Nothing would make me happier than to defend my title."

The Senior Queens consists of 10 qualifying games for all contestants on April 23 and April 24. The top 40 advance to an additional five-game qualifying round on April 25, after which the top 31 will join Hammel in the three-game, double-elimination match-play bracket.

The tournament concludes Wednesday, April 27 at 10 a.m. Eastern with the championship match, which will be broadcast live on BOWL.com.

RANCHO CUCAMONGA - The season is winding down and Laura Lee Daniel is on the verge of setting a new high for Citrus Belt lady bowlers.

The current Citrus Belt record HIGH AVERAGE, by an adult woman, is 226.

The record is shared by Daniel (2010) and STEPHANIE SJOBOM (2007). The last time I checked, Laura Lee is averaging 229 in the Vegas Classic League at DEER CREEK LANES. As late as February, she was at 232.

With three game sets of 769, 774, and 762 in December, Daniel's average surged. Recently though she has had to settle for 600s. Can another surge make her the first Citrus Belt woman to average 230? I hope so.

Daniel is also averaging 226 in Deer Creek's Hi Rollers League, and 212 in the Open Commercial League at UPLAND BOWL. All Citrus Belt lady bowlers are grateful that the BOWLING NEWS tracks their on lane exploits.

WITH TARGET ON HER BACK KULICK LOOKS TO DEFEND QUEENS TITLE

SYRACUSE, N.Y. - When Kelly Kulick of Union, N.J., arrives at the Oncenter Convention Center to defend her United States Bowling Congress Queens title, she knows every bowler in the field will have their sights set on sending her home empty handed.

Last year, Kulick won not only the Queens, but the U.S. Women's Open and beat the men in the PBA Tournament of Champions, so she knows each event she competes in there's a target on her back.

Kulick's Queens title defense begins Saturday with the first round of qualifying. As the defending champion, she's guaranteed a spot in the double-elimination match-play bracket.

"I think my recent success and past performances will always make me a target," said Kulick, who defeated Tennelle Milligan of Arlington, Texas, 232-188, to win the 2010 Queens. "I still look at Carolyn (Dorin-Ballard), Liz (Johnson), Shannon (Pluhowsky) and other top-notch bowlers as fierce competitors. I see them as a threat as much as they see me as a threat."

Kulick's victory at the PBA Tournament of Champions gave her an exemption on the Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour for the second time in her career. The last time Kulick was exempt on the PBA Tour in 2005-06, she put that experience to use and won the 2006 Queens.

"People will assume my season on tour will give me an advantage," said Kulick, who will look to join Millie Ignizio and Wendy Macpherson as a three-time Queens champion. "It should give me an edge, but there is no guarantee of winning. I will use my knowledge and experience to give myself the best opportunity possible. At the end of the day, all I can do is my best. Some days it's good enough and others it's not enough."

The Queens kicks off with 10 qualifying games over two days on April 23 and 24 before the field is cut to the top 80 for five additional qualifying games the morning of April 25. The top 63 then advance to join Kulick in the double-elimination match-play bracket, which begins at 1:30 p.m. Eastern on April 25. The final five players will advance to the televised stepladder finals, which will be broadcast live on ESPN2 at 7 p.m. Eastern on April 27.

Should Kulick come away with another victory, she would become just the fifth woman to successfully defend a Queens title, joining Katsuko Sugimoto (1981, 1982), Donna Adamek (1979, 1980), Dorothy Fathergill (1972, 1973) and Ignizio (1970-71).

The qualifying and match-play portions of the Queens are open to the public at no charge. A limited number of tickets for the televised finals will be sold for $10 and can be purchased on BOWL.com.

Lonzell Burnett 1st ABTA Win at Westminster

Anthony Dancel Hits 3-6-9 for $2,100

Match Series estimate of $850 next week

Match Game estimate of $2,100 • 3-6-9 is $1,000 at Cal Bowl

ABTA Returns to Cal Bowl this weekend

WESTMINSTER—On our return to Westminster we had a fair turnout of 143 entries this week in our one day event. We had medium tough shot this past week making the cut scores of +77 for the men and +44 for the women. The Super Seniors added to the board (2 men and 1 female) were Bud Zagorski (+66) and Art Windsor (+50), and for the women it was Sherri Cross (+37), remember Super Seniors are men 63 and over, and for the women, a young 55. That would give us 42 bowlers making it to the semi-finals this week. We had an exciting night, close matches and a $2,100 3-6-9 win. It was fun there!

The top qualifiers were Jeremy Paulsen with a +209, and for the women it was Ada Wong with a +119. Each will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed overall draws the Match Series. This week it was worth $522. Jeremy drew a 709. No one matched this score, and it will be carried over to Cal Bowl, where we will estimate the Match Series at $850. For the 3-6-9 qualifying this week, we had Anthony Dancel outlast the field and then got 5 nine count or strikes to take home a nice prize of $2,100. We will start the pot next week at Cal Bowl at $1,000. Nice bowling Mr. Dancel! Mom was watching from above and Dad will be very proud--)

In our optional doubles finishing in first were Steve Brode and William Garrett with a 1455 for $130. Finishing second was George Parker and Steve Brode with 1441 for $110. We had a total of $1,040 paid out in doubles with low to cash of 1376.

In the semis, one of our fine directors, Marvin Crowder, led the field with a +178 to sit out and bowl for the title this week. Coming in second was William Zarek with a +157 to sit out the first round. It took a +48 for the men and a +18 for the women to make the top 16.

Our top seed Crowder, had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $875, and drew a 295. No one matched that score and estimated pot will be $2,100 at Cal Bowl. We had six new bowlers join us. Let us welcome these new bowlers to the club, Chris Allen, Jiri Turyna, Heidi Jaena, Dung Le, Arvhin Garcia, and Armand Garcia.

This would bring us to our Match Play finals. In the first round the seven losers were Sherri Cross, Andy Mak, Antonio Johnson, Nghiem Tran, John Phan, Art Windsor, and Sarah Magno, they received checks of $100 each. In the second round, the losers were Greg Kokanour, Jeremy Paulsen, "JJ" Soon, and William Zarek, and received checks of $105 each. This would get us down to the final five bowlers. At this point, our horses would be paying anywhere from a low of $30 (Anthony Dancel) to a high of $92 (Lonzell Burnett) depending on who would win. In this round we saw Lonzell Burnett (4th seed) bowling Anthony Dancel (3rd seed). Lonzell would get the better of Anthony with a 227 to 211 finish. In the other match we saw Beth Borci (5th seed) bowling Steve Brode (7th seed). In this match, Beth would win out in a 222 to 173 finish. Steve and Anthony finished in 4th and 5th getting checks for $110 each. Our semi-final match was all set now, and it would be bowled on Lanes 33 and 34 this week and pit our 4th seed against our 5th seed. In our horses this week we would see Lonzell paying $92 and Beth paying $65 if they would win their match. In this match, Lonzell stayed clean throughout the whole match, while Beth would have 2 opens. Lonzell finished with a 216/271 to 187/223 to advance. That would give Lonzell the victory! For those lucky "investors" that had Lonzell as a horse, received $92. Beth, who bowled very well finished 3rd and received $200.

The title game was set and bowled on Lanes 35 and 36. Marvin being the top seed elected to have Lonzell, Mr. Super Senior, start the match. This match went back and forth. In the beginning, Lonzell would hold the lead until he had 3 straight opens in the 4-6th frames. Marvin would have strikes in the same frames to put him in front by 20 plus pins after the 6th frame. Lonzell then left a nasty 5-10 split. However, hold on folks as Lonzell would pick it up and the crowd roared. Then unbelievably he come back with Strikes in the 7th thru 9th frames. We had a game going on!! The crowd was really into this match and cheering loudly, and having fun. That would bring Marvin up in the 9th frame, having a spare in the 8th frame. He would leave the 4-7-9-10 on his first ball, then only pick up the 4 pin. He came up in the 10th frame, missed the head pin, and left a wash out, 1-2-4-10, again he was only able to pick up the 1-2-4. It hurt him much in these two frames and he would finish with a 187/211. Lonzell came up needing only good count, and got 8 pins, which would be enough as he opened but finished with a 169/224 for his 1st ABTA Championship. Lonzell would take home $1,000 for the win. Marvin received $500 for 2nd place. It was a thrilling match and Lonzell won it in the end!

Champion Lonzell Burnett is from Fontana, and used a Brunswick, drilled by Joe Staton at BRC Upland Bowl. He is married to Stephanie, and would like to thank God for all His blessings and abilities given to him. He wants to thank all his friends at ABTA for cheering him on, and believe me he has many!! Lonzell is very well-liked in the ABTA and bowls 99% of our events. It is heartwarming to see him win a title. He is a great guy.

Marvin Crowder (2nd Place) is from Whittier and used a Fury drilled by Mike Wahl at Cerritos. He is single with 2 children Tim and Marvin Jr, along with his 2 grandchildren Emma and Luke. He would like to thank his extended family, the ABTA and his own family for all their support. Marvin bowled so well and almost got his first title. It will come, as he is a fine bowler and puts it all out on the lanes.

Beth Borci (3rd Place) is from Anaheim and used a 900 Global Profit drilled at South Point. She is married to another fine bowler, and fine guy, Anthony and they have 2 children Mark and Maui, along with 1 grandchild Garrett. She would like to thank her family and friends for all their support.

The weekly ball sponsor winner of a 900 Global Ball was D.A Wright, he received the Shredder bowling ball. Each time you bowl, you get a free ticket for this prize given away by our Sponsor, 900 Global. This week the raffle winners of ABTA shirt were Travis Weathers, regular ABTA Entry was Travis Weathers and David Emrich, a Memorial Entry was Thomas Chavez, and 1 night in Las Vegas was Mike Moore. The rest of the results are in the payoff column in this paper.

This week we will be at

by Aimee Gomez

DOWNEY—Bowlers Depot pulled off the seemingly impossible—a sweep of Storm Products on the last night of the round for the win. Going into the evening, Storm had 27 wins while Bowlers Depot had 23, but the first game showed how much Bowlers Depot wanted the win, shooting 1014 at Storm.

Steve Gurrieri led the way 268-227-238/733, but got help from everyone else on the team. Jeff Carr 206-247-227/680, Raul Rosales 296/629 and Albert Chen 244/610 all helped Bowlers Depot to ward off Ramon Torres 222-209/627 and Paul Varela 256-203/651 of Storm. Storm is still right there with the highest number of wins for a non-round winning team in order to make the roll-offs.

In the three way round winners match, Katie Jakes walked away with the most points as the team worked together—Matt Cormack 209-253/646, Kevin Valmonte 211-207-227/645, Kevin Yamauchi 219-221-202/642 and Kevin Gallagher 212-230/629. Jeff Garrison 215-256/658, Greg Neuer 201-203-222/626 and Mike Cammarata 209-236/607 led Zavala's Taquerias. Paul Barraco 246-208/643, Vernon Adams 215-226/631 and Charlie Kinstler 210-224/623 led Sysco.

Brylaw Accounting took four from Clyde's Video Games thanks to a good team effort. Garcell Bullocks 268-248/702, Billy Myers Jr. 246-244/679, Charles Zelaya 209-213-248/670 and Larry Stephens 251/620 did well against Ramiro Garcia 246-237-233/716 and Clyde Bartlett 245-234-203/682.

Threadworks swept Linder Insurance using Ryan Okamoto 259-215/667 and Jon Reyes 214-207/601, while Shane Soper 219-202-225/646 shot the lone sixer for Linders.

Tifco swept ABTA compliments of Devron Lindsey 207-233-200/640, Tom Jackson 213-235/631 and Phillip Sujo 214-210/602.

Junior Amateur Tour, led by Jared Lawrence 238-234/646 and Aimee Gomez 237-214/641 swept Bowlium's Arnold Cheesman 255-279-219/753.

Key Container and Pro Approach split 3.5-1.5. Joe Torre led Key Container with his 214-224/635 set. Alex Garcia shot 233/608.

Danielle Schilling led her Herzog Insurance team 275-248/705 and got some help from Phil Lebaquin 218-218/608. One of the more entertaining moments, however, was provided by Derek Schilling who started with a duplicate 177 and was close to the triplicate. It came down to the last ball and he needed two to get his award, so, as any other person would do, he took the 7-10 out.

Congratulations again to Bowlers Depot. Points are doubled going into this final round, so bring your A game and get ready to secure your spot in the roll-offs.

LAKE FOREST—Although I'm dying on the vine to start bragging about the Junior League's "Grand Finale" Saturday April 17th, I can't control my urge to announce the winners and big scores shot during the KING OF THE HILL TOURNAMENT this past Sunday, April 17th. So, I'm flipping a coin. Here it goes. Well, the tournament won! Congratulations and $$$$$$ was won by Brent Evans, Carole Reese, Howard Goldman and Scott Ross. "What were their scores?" You ask. "Hold on to your britches," I say. The team shot 2573 scratch and averaged 214! Who was the biggest show off? You ask. It was Brent Evans with games of 259- 290-257 for a (got your calculator handy?) Yep you got it. A fabulous 806 SERIES!

Rene Salinas also shot a 290 game while competing in the tournament! It was the lousy 6 pin in the first frame that kept him from shooting his sought after 300 game. But winning first place in the men's handicap division wasn't too B-A-D.

SATURDAY MORNING JUNIOR SWEEPERS. Let me tell you that our Junior Sweepers was "Out of this world" Every kid bowled scotch doubles with their parents, So about 80 parents and kids competed for $5 Taco Bell gift certificates, had a big Pizza Party, followed by the presentation of awards and then 10 of the juniors put on the Best talent show ever!!!

Our special thanks go to Jeff Muscat who volunteered his time and expertise to put the band together and organized a rehearsal in his garage. Jeff's son, Justin, played the drums, Vincent and Sebastian Legarraga, along with Andrew Siegal played electric guitars. Singers were two of our beautiful junior girls, Amber Wyrick and Kelli Williams. Amber also did some fancy Break Dancing with partner Nate Lorimo. Matthew Algazy did a great comedy routine with funny jokes. Kevin Monroe started the show with a beautiful piece on his violin and ended the show with another appropriate violin solo. The show was marvelous!!! Thank you kids, Thank you Jeff and thanks to Steve Dees/ COTTI FOODS for donating Taco Bell gift certificates for prizes.

We also want to express our appreciation to snack bar manager, Gail, for the delicious pizza's and Chris for the special customer service. First place in the Junior Division was "Pin Pals" Sam Grayston, Jack Grayston and Nathan Crook. Second Place in the Junior Division was "Thing-a-Bobs" Amber Wyrick, and Nate Lorimor. Majors high scratch award went to Riley Sullivan 499, Hi Scratch game was won by Zach Evert with a 179, Hi handicap series for the boys was won by Andrew Seigel with 644 and girls Hi handicap series was won by Kelli Williams with 592.

computer, and is so well known that he has the nickname "One Take Johnny."

He and his parents go to Bible Study every week, and Johnny also plays golf on his computer and reads numerous books on his Kindle.

After watching Johnny and Mark bowl for a while last Tuesday afternoon, I was compelled to go down and talk to him and his Mother. I had actually wanted to for several months but, in all honesty, I didn't have the guts. I'm sure everyone can relate to turning away from a disabled person, rather than smiling or saying hello. It's like you don't want them to think you are staring at them, or perhaps you don't know if your approach would be welcomed. We don't know how to open our minds and our hearts to understand that there is so much more to a person than what we see on the outside. This special encounter with Johnny and his Mother has forever changed my thinking and feeling about such matters. If I had not gone down to talk to them, I would never have had the opportunity to know two of the most special, joyful and loving people I have ever met. What a blessing it was for me to have my eyes opened: to meet people who accept and love life no matter what the circumstances.

I asked Johnny if I could take his picture and put it in the newspaper and he smiled at me and said yes. I quickly rushed to get our Center Manager, Allan MacDuffee, who is an expert with a digital camera, and he came without hesitation and took Johnny's picture. Can you believe Johnny and his Mother thanked me? Forgive me for being so self centered, but it was I who received the biggest blessing and couldn't thank these wonderful people enough.

The next time you're out and about, look for the little Jerry Lewis MD contribution boxes and make a donation, or just send them a tax-deductible check. We have no idea who would help people with this destabilizing disease if it weren't for the Muscular Dystrophy Assn. There certainly wouldn't be wonderful people like Johnny living to inspire others.
