Hall of Famer Marion Ladewig Dies at Age 95

GRAND RAPIDS — Marion Ladewig, recognized as the greatest woman bowler of all time, died Friday, April 16, in Grand Rapids, Mich. She was 95.

Ladewig was a dominating performer in women's bowling from the mid-1940s until her retirement in 1963. The Bowling Writers' Association of America voted her Bowler of the Year nine times from 1950-63 and in a 1973 poll she was named the greatest of all time.

"It is a sad day for bowling," United States Bowling Congress President Jeff Bojé said. "She was truly great as a bowler and as a person. She was truly an inspiration and a champion of epic proportion."

In 1949, Ladewig captured the first of five consecutive U.S. Women's Open Championships, then known as the BPAA All-Star tournament. From 1949-1960, she won the event eight times and was runner-up twice.

In 1950, she won her first Women's International Bowling Congress (now USBC) All-Events title and was a member of team title winner Fanatorium Majors. The following season she won the All-Events title at the city, state and national level. She would take the WIBC All-Events title in 1955 along with the WIBC doubles title.

Her list of honors includes being selected the first inductee in the Superior Performance category of the WIBC Hall of Fame in 1964 and the first woman bowler inducted into the Women's Sports Foundation Hall of Fame in 1984. She also was named Michigan's Woman Athlete of All Time.

Born in 1914 in Grand Rapids, Ladewig was a sprinter in high school and also played softball. She started bowling in her early twenties and took a job at a local bowling center where she learned the sport. She would win her first bowling title during the 1940-41 season, a doubles title at the Western Michigan Gold Pin Classic.

In 1965, she retired from competitive bowling after winning the World Invitational for a record fifth time. Funeral arrangements are pending.

Feldman Saves Best for Last in PBA Women's Series Showdown

by Bill Vint

ARLINGTON—Michelle Feldman of Auburn, N.Y., concluded a personally disappointing season with a resounding victory in the PBA Women's Series Showdown presented by BOWL.COM at the International Training and Research Center.

Feldman, who got into the PBA Tour special event by a sequence of fortunate breaks, was nearly perfect in the competition that aired on ESPN Sunday, defeating Shannon Pluhowsky of Kettering, Ohio, and Stefanie Nation of Grand Prairie, Texas, for a $25,000 first prize.

Feldman, an 11-time Professional Women's Bowlers Association champion before the women's tour ceased operations in 2003, survived a tense opening round in the "Petraglia Scoring System" event, but was a pair of 10 pins away from throwing a perfect game in the title match to defeat Pluhowsky and Nation.

It was a rewarding conclusion to a season in which Feldman's two previous television appearances — in the Bayer

Don and Paula Carter Mixed Doubles Championship and the United States Bowling Congress Queens — came up short of a title. This time, even the opportunity to participate came her way only because the qualifying rules lined up in her favor.

"I didn't bowl very good in the PBA Women's Series this year," she confessed. "I just didn't click. When you bowl in the same place the whole time and don't get comfortable, it kinda puts a damper on how you think you're going to bowl. I didn't make a show or win a title, but I guess I picked the right week to bowl well, and that was the one that got me into this tournament."

In the Showdown, the Petraglia Scoring System also worked for Feldman. The Petraglia system awards one point for each ball throw to complete a frame, with the lowest score winning. A perfect game is a 10 — 10 strikes in 10 frames. By converting 10-pin spares in the fifth and sixth frames, and striking on her other eight shots, Feldman posted a score of 12 compared to Pluhowsky's 16 and Nation's 20.

Feldman got into the title match by winning a one-ball roll-off against Nation in the first round, after they tied at 14-14. Feldman, who converted the 3-4-6-7 split in the 10th frame to earn the tie, struck to win the roll-off while Nation knocked down only six pins. Kelly Kulick of Union, N.J., finished third with 16 points and joined Nation in the Wild Card round.

"In the 10th frame of the first round, I told myself not to throw it bad," she smiled, "and I then threw it worse — as usual. I always have to make things difficult on myself. But I made a really good shot to make the spare."

In the other first-round matchup, Pluhowsky started with nine strikes before leaving a 7 pin, which she converted for a nearly-perfect 11. Liz Johnson of Cheektowaga, N.Y., wasn't far behind, posting a 13 to advance to the Wild Card round, but defending Women's Showdown champion Carolyn Dorin-Ballard of Keller, Texas, was eliminated because she had the highest score in the opening round — a 17.

Feldman and Pluhowsky, as winners of their groups, automatically advanced to the championship match. In the Wild Card contest between the next three lowest scorers, Nation's 13 earned her a berth in the showdown match. Kulick had a 15 and Johnson an 18.

"In the title match, I knew Stefanie had an okay shot and I knew Shannon really had a good look. She almost had a perfect game in the first round. continued on page 11

Johnson Set To Defend Queens Title in El Paso

EL PASO, Texas - En route to winning the United States Bowling Congress Queens last year, Liz Johnson of Cheektowaga, N.Y., got off to a shaky start in qualifying. That won't be a problem this time around.

Johnson was 71st after the opening round of qualifying last year but bounced back and to capture her first Queens title. This year, Johnson won't have to worry about her qualifying scores since she's automatically seeded in the 64-player double-elimination bracket as the defending champion.

Johnson will take on a field of the top women bowlers in the world when the USBC Queens takes place starting Saturday, April 24, at the El Paso Convention and Performing Arts Center. BOWL.com will have wire-to-wire live streaming coverage of the event leading up to the live nationally televised championship round on ESPN2 at 8 p.m.

EDT on Wednesday, April 28.

"I'm still going to bowl qualifying this year, but fortunately, it's just for practice," said Johnson, who defeated Kelly Kulick of Union, N.J., 247-204 to win the 2009 title. "So I can go in knowing I can get a read of the lanes with a loose arm swing and work on my usual timing. It's nice to know that I'm already in the top 64."

A six-time Team USA member who finished third at the 2008 Queens, Johnson said she isn't doing anything out of the ordinary to prepare for this year's Queens.

"I've just been trying to stay sharp by bowling other tournaments around home," Johnson said. "The Buffalo and New York area have a lot of good bowlers and great weekend tournaments to help keep me sharp."

The Advantages of a Bowling Cruise

by Nathaniel McCall MURRIETTA—There are many advantages of going on a Bowling Cruise. The thing I love is I can have a early breakfast or a late snack or both and I do not have to reach into my pocket to pay. Whether it’s room service or just going by one of the many restaurants on board the ship. For those of you that love to see a quality show, then this is also a good place to be.

On a cruise ship they have two different dinner settings and while one group is having a five course dinner the other can attend the main theatre show. If you are still up for some fun, you can relax in one of the night clubs or the casino to try your luck on the slots, poker or blackjack.

Be on the look out for up coming bowling tournaments throught out the Los Angeles area. You can win a free cruise and entry into the tournament if your team wins the pre-tournament. I will be announcing the houses that will be carrying some of the tournaments next week. For more information please visit my website at mc-callgroupcruises.com.

Lady Champ Patricia Lin Wins ABTA at Oak Tree

Dillon Ito Hits Match Series $2662 • 3-6-9 is $700

MATCH GAME CARRYOVER WORTH $3,500 For Next Four Weeks

Linbrook Bowl is our Host in Saturday (OneDay) Event

Saturday 12:00-1:00-2:30-4:00 & 5:30 Semis 7:15 PM

DIAMOND BAR — Patricia Lin was the best as she won her second ABTA title in fine style downing a hot shooting Emma Soliman to take home a nice $2,400 for her super. She won five straight matches in the top 16 single elim finals. On a tough shot, bowlers still performed well on the lanes. We had Dillon Ito get lucky by not shooting too well as his 415 Eries was matched and he happily took home a tidy $2,626 for his $2 investment. Best 415 Dillon has ever bowled in his life says he!!

The scoring was on the low side, as it took men +21, and the ladies +36. Super Seniors added to the board were Roberta Nakunz, Adam Drodz, and Jack Trongale.

A nice turnout of 215 entrants saw 53 Semifinalists take the floor, of which all would cash. The top 16 to advance to the single elim finals with 3 women min guaranteed to the top 16.

The semis began, and the scoring was quite contentious with pretty Emma Soliman leading the way at +93, sit out and bowl for the title. In second place was Patricia Lin +80. Emma will sit out and bowl for the title and Patricia to enter into the second round of the top 16 finals. It took a +15 to make the top 16, and that included 4 ladies.

The first round went off. We had Krystal Alvarado, Giang Huynh, Bobbie McCollum, George Covarubbias, Leo Tartamella, Resty Sanchez, and John Gonzales lose out. They received checks of $100 each in 10-16th places.

Round two had Vic Garcia, Mark Andrews, Kevin Valmote, and William Ele lose, and get $110 in 6-9th places.

Round three had Elvin Godoy edge Ed Abarca 200-185. Patricia Lin got to Conrad Amado 230-200. Ed and Conrad were 4th and 5th, $120 each, with Patricia and Elvin to meet for the right to bowl Emma Soliman for the title.

The semi final match was on. Patricia brought her strike ball to down Godoy who struggled in this game 240-157. He was 3rd $200 with Patricia off to the title game vs Emma.

The title game was on and both bowlers were clean until Patricia whiffed the 6 pin in frame 3 and after a double Emma had a 29 pin lead with hcp. After a spare in the 4th Patricia made her run firing strikes, a huge five bagger in fact. After Emma opened in frame 7, Patricia regained the lead but Emma did not give in as she doubled in the 10th also, but Patricia held the lead in a close 249/266-203/254 margin. The title went to the pretty gal from Alhambra.

Patricia took home a tidy $2,300 for the win, and was most happy! (She usually is Happy) For the record Patricia is an avid ABTA supporter for many years. She performed well in front of the many fans here. Great Bowling by truly one of the Good Gals and a title well-deserved!!.

Great Bowling by Emma Soliman who I have known for many years. She really bowled well at Oak Tree! She is also one of the good gals! She really was tough at Oak Tree!

ABTA Notes: Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Ruben Gonzales who blasted the pins for a big +223 and Janine Ditch likewise for the ladies +166. Both get paid entries for the fine bowling.

The Doubles were headed by the "Bowling Square" pals Giang Huynh, and Jerry Chang. They got $130. We paid $1,700 in the doubles.

The Match Game was NOT matched as Mr. Huynh drew at 272 so we have carry over cash making the Match game $3,500 Saturday, and for the next 3-4 weeks. Big Bucks in store folks!!.

Wow!! The Match Series hit by Dillon Ito as his 415 series got him a sweet $2,62. This popular $2.00 pot is estimated $450 Saturday at Linbrook Bowl.

The 3-6-9 was NOT hit as Vuong Do missed on shot #3. So we will go for $700 this week. Vuong got a $50 consolation for beer money.

Patricia Lin is from Alhambra and married to ABTA Member Angel Chau. She used an Evolve drilled by ABTA member Billy Chao. She thanks Angel and friends for support, the Mou Liu Bowlers and also thanks to the Lung Family esp Cecilia who came to watch/support, and is on medical leave from bowling and will return in a month! Kudos to her big brothers David Quin and Glen Tse! She thanks the ABTA Staff, the Mou Liu family and Bob for a great tournament! The staff thanks her for generosity as she made sure that we will eat well at work !

Emma Soliman hails from Eagle Rock and used a Swing drilled by Brandon McGinness at Jewel City Bowl. She has two daughters Kristine, ABTA Member and Katrine. Thanks to daughters for support, Linda and Godfrey Gal-sim and special thanks to Sol Cericos for bringing her to the ABTA.

Elvin Godoy is from West Covina and used a Swing drilled by ABTA Member Aarik Torres. Thanks to Alex Lara, John, and Nancy, Zeke and Caylyn.

It was so nice to return to Oak Tree where the atmosphere, bowlers, fans, and staff are super. There were 10 new members signed up with us there. First time cashers were Howard Smith and Scott Johnson.

Special Thanks to Debbie, and Staff esp Doc, Susie, and Mmmpretty bartender Denise, and of course John.

The new Lanes there are so nice, we will return there in September!! It is great to bowl there for the ABTA.

It is History folks as Patricia Lin enters the archives as our latest champion at Oak Tree Lanes.

Linbrook Bowl is our host this week in a one day event. SPECIAL squad times there: Saturday 12:00-1:00-2:30-4:00 & 5:30 PM. Semis 7:15 PM. Also, again this week We are already raffling Las Vegas Rooms, a High end Global "900" ball and Bag each week at the Tournament. Win Yours for a $1.00.

Linbrook Coffee Shop Offers Special Menu to the ABTA

Luis and wife Evelyn Owners of the Restaurant at Linbrook Bowl are having a special Menu during the ABTA event there Saturday. Luis always has great food and daily Special but is stepping up and preparing Chicken and Pork Adobo and Pancit which is a special treat.

They also have a great breakfast menu including Steak and eggs, Sandwiches and Pizza daily, and great home made soup.

Come on down for some great bowling action and great food. See you at Linbrook Bowl!!

CAL BOWL BOWLING REPORT

2500 E. Carson St., Lakewood, CA 90712 • (562) 421-8448

LAKEWOOD — Hi. We're back with the high scores for our weekly Cal Bowl Bowling Report. Thanks to all the league secretaries who always do a great job of reporting the weekly scores. It's also time to sign-up for a summer league. Invite friends or family members to learn the sport of bowling. And you don't have to worry about the summer heat because the bowling centers are nicely air conditioned.

YOUNG AT HEART
Congratulations to "Just Say Yes", champions of the winter season—Tom Pettway, Willie Creer and Ellis Houston. “HERZOG INSURANCE” Claims Fourth Spot In Roll-Off

DOWNEY — “KATIE JAKES” and “HERZOG” were the two teams to watch Monday night. Neither had won a round, and all eight guys were up for the match. “KATIE JAKES” foursome averaged 205, with Jon Brandon’s 266 topping the individual efforts. “HERZOG’S” averaged 208. Steve Gurrieri had the lowest game (173) and the highest game (249)!

So teams locked into the roll-off are “HERZOG INSURANCE”, “STRIKEHARDAPP..COM”, “WESTERN PACIFIC” and “J.A.T.”.

Two more wild card spots will be filled in the last four-week round coming up. Each week the lanes will be dressed in a different pattern...more challenges!

Watching the pros on Sunday morning makes you wonder — who’s smarter? The bowler? The ball? Or the lane machine? How many different balls are drilled up in one week — from Monday thru Sunday???

Enough about the top teams. I want to give “STRIKEHARDAPP.” a shout! Check out these scores: John Chapman 620, Danny Ontiveros 626, Paul Varela 627 and Jeff Carr 628. Almost a USBC “something or other”! Good enough to sweep “CITY LINE PET CLINIC”.

Individual’s topping the sheet this week: Billy Myers Jr. 267-259/702, Ramon Torres 255/681, Paul Barraco 250/676, David Yamauchi 248/675 and Albert Chen 232/667. Jon Brandon tossed in a 266 for a side-pot and Steve Gurrieri tapped the pot a couple of times.

The grand finale for this year’s Ebonite League will be Memorial Weekend. Big money — Big scores — Lots of competition and reflecting on the games that got away.

National Deaf Bowling News

Results of Angel West Deaf Singles Classic At AMF Carter Lanes

This writer has not received the results but was told that Bob Bergan, Whittier won the tournament which had 57 entries. Hopefully it will be sent soon.

Deadline For 10th Annual National Deaf Mixed Bowling Association May 20

LAS VEGAS — This month’s deadlines of two deaf regional tournaments, Eastern Deaf Bowling Association and Pacific Coast Deaf Bowling Association are past. That leaves the last major national deaf tournament of this season, National Deaf Mixed Bowling Association that is due by May 20.

The grandfather of all deaf tournaments, Great Lakes Deaf Bowling Association which had its 74th tournament last weekend at Toledo, (this writer was told) drew only 44 teams entries. It’s companion ladies tournament, Great Lakes Deaf Women’s Bowling Association at the same city got only 18 teams. The men’s total is the lowest since 40 in 1956 at Pittsburgh and the women’s since 17 teams in 1960 at Milwaukee.

Blame that on bad economics. But most bowlers are saving their money for GLADBA’s 75th anniversary tournament in April 2011 at Red Rock Bowl in Las Vegas. That this writer was told had already more than 50 team reservations this early to date.

As for this up and coming National Deaf Mixed Tournament, now in its 10th year is having it at Sunset Station Bowl in Las Vegas on June 21 to 24. Previously in the past 9 years, it’s tournaments were held in eastern states, Texas and Kansas and for its first time further west.

The entering team must consist of two men and two women, either deaf or hard of hearing bowlers. Besides the team event, it has mixed doubles event which must be a man with a woman only and no singles event. Reason for that is to allow time for other optional companion individual events, Scratch King/Queen, Galaxy (handicap) and Seniors (55 and over).

Be aware that this is a national tournament and the entry fees may be steep. To start with, it is a total of $114 per bowler for the team and doubles events. Registration fee ($25) and Membership fee ($15). There are optional entry fees of $10 for all-events, $40 each for Scratch Kings (for men)/Queens (for women), $40 for Galaxy and $35 for the Seniors tournament.

For further information, contact Gary Burgess, NDMBA Secretary, ndmixedburgess@yahoo.com.

DeGroff Close Again With 278-279-244 For 781 At Mission Hills Bowl

MISSION HILLS — This news came late but interesting. On April 7 in his Wednesday league at Mission Hills Bowl Ken DeGroff came close to back to back perfection. The righthander started off with front 7 strikes, spared and closed with a 278 in the first game. He again had front 6 strikes, 10-pin spare and struck out for 279 in second. In the third game, he struck but an open frame split in 2nd spoiled his chances for an 800, ending up with a 224 for 781.

In DeGroff’s Friday Linda’s Vegas league, which ended its season at Jewel City Bowl, Ken finished with 237 average for 69 games. He had two of the league’s 300 games and also two of its four 800 series with his 846 (290-256-300) as the league’s season high series. His lowest series was 616 (202-212-202). Interesting!

Then on April 9 at Jewel City Bowl, DeGroff started in his summer league with 9 strtrikes in a row, got tapped 10 pin and missed it for a 267. In the 2nd game got first three strikes, left two pins and spared, then struck five times but left 2 pins and chopped for 244. Third game started with two strikes spared in 3 frames, open split in 6th and struck out for 232. He got a 743 and a 247 average to start with.

JAT Farm Club

by David Gordon

CANOGA PARK – Welcome to another edition of the JAT Farm Club, where our last tournament found us at Canoga Park Bowl a couple of weeks ago. This was our second Adult/Member tournament of the season and this article will cover the handicap division. We had a surprisingly large turnout for this division with twenty-four teams taking to the lanes. With four teams to a pair, this made for a long qualifying round as each bowler did five games. However, not one complaint was heard the entire day about the slowness of the event, even when one pair broke down briefly. For that I want to commend and thank all of our bowlers, as you made the tournament very enjoyable for all. I also want to thank the staff and management for the accommodations for this tournament.

The format of the tournament was five games of qualifying by each bowler (48 bowlers). We then cut to the top twelve teams who threw another five games of match play (Baker format) and then the top four TV style roll-off for the finals. I'll only be reporting the high scores for the qualifying round, but don't worry, there is enough of them to keep you reading for awhile.

For the junior bowlers, we had an outstanding qualifying round highlighted by two perfect games and a near perfect game, all in game four of the round. Wesley Low and Jerome Jordan Jr., bowling on the same pair gave us the two 300 games, while a couple of pairs away Gabriella Mayfield went the front 10 and ended with 289. Wesley's round also included games of 222-247-268-237, while Jerome and Gabriella added a 227 game each. Very good bowling.

Now get ready as we also had high scoring from Keith Tilden 256-255-279, Oscar Chan 279-254, Tobias Halladay 263, Justin Villa 259-259-233, Ryan Brown 253, Steven Key Jr. 235-245, Tristan Beaner 227-237-244-222, Josh Gartrell 223-223-238, Jason Tilden 236, John Struckman 235, Christian Borao 234, Kevin Acosta 236-226-230-233, Jordan Kraye 233, Matthew Felix 228, Eric Mandzuch 224, and Austin Gadaire 221.

And now to give props to the "older" bowlers joining us (the adults), who also made a big statement that they're not over-the-hill "yet"! Look at some of the names from the past as we had David Arellano 238-279-223-223, Chris Groom 225-257-227-279, Bill Nord 266-224-223, Pete Slevcove 266, Steven Key Sr. 265-225-236-232, Ron Miller 258-257-231, Jerome Jordan Sr. 224-257-223-223, Marcus Battiest 257, Melvin Jones 256, Mike Smith 223-226-247-225, Kristina Valencia 245-243, Daniel Winkler 241-246, Wishtoyo Vasquez 243-234-222-239, Caycee Landers 226-235-237-235, Brad Temple 235, Dave Murrell 235, Dan Mayfield 227, Gabriel Martinez 226, and Lana Roben 224. And these are the scratch scores. Great bowling everyone - as it doesn't even matter if this was Canoga Park Bowl - Excellent!

Once handicap was added, the team of Low/Smith led after the five games at plus 408, while last to advance came in at plus 247. In match

JAT Bowlum PBA Challenge #3

Open and Farm Club – NO Senior Division

Kraye and Kraye Back In The Winner's Circle

The second JAT Member/Adult Doubles was held at Canoga Park Bowl and a fantastic field of 80 bowlers took the lanes in the Scratch Division including a couple of PBA National Title holders, a few TeamUSA Members, a handful of Alumni and a lot of parents and friends. We even had some second-generation JAT father-son teams bowling! After qualifying, Devin Bidwell and Nicole Shepard led the field at +443 followed closely by Dave Wodka and Cort McPherson at +414. Wodka wowed the crowd with a 300-286-257-843 series out of the gate. Mason Sherman/Kaitlin Mayall, Jeff Spiesman/James Hefley and Alex and Brian Hernandez rounded out the top-5 qualifiers. Low-to-advance was Drew Parkin and DeeRonn Booker at +206. In baker match-play, Brandon and Scott Kraye took advantage of a 5-0 record to sit as the top seed while a 4-1 record propelled Sherman/Mayall to the second-seed. Bidwell/Shepard held on to third despite a 2-3 record while Mike Villarreal and Mark Myers lit them up to a 4-1 record and the fourth-seed. The father-son team of Hernandez/Hernandez grabbed the last roll-off spot at +499. In the roll-offs, Hernandez/Hernandez was locked in early and took down Villarreal/Myers 238-166. They advanced to meet Bidwell/Shepard who remained hot taking the match 243-188. Bidwell/Shepard advanced to face Sherman/Mayall who held on in a close 201-185 match to advance to the championship match. Leaders Kraye/Kraye and Sherman/Mayall were both lined up but in the end it was the father-son team of Brandon and Scott taking the title 235-221. We paid out nearly $1800 in prizes this event thanks to the great turnout and great hosts at Canoga Park Bowl. Thanks to all the adults who support the JAT and congratulations to all of our participants and our winners!

JAT/Bowlum PBA Challenge #3 Sunday

The last of our three PBA Challenge events will be this Sunday and the $100 PBA Leader bonus is still up for grabs- whichever bowler in the Farm Club and Open Division has the highest combined qualifying pinfall will take home the bonus. Since the Senior Division is not bowling due to the conflict with JBT, the current leader will earn a $50 bonus and second will earn a $25 bonus for their efforts in the first two events. Check the website this weekend for the PBA Leaderboard going into this Sunday's event.

Next Tournament

Again, our next tournament is this Sunday (NO SENIOR)- the third JAT/Bowlum PBA Challenge. Don't forget that the lane condition will be posted on the website no later than 2:00 p.m. on Saturday afternoon. For updated information, stats and schedules log on to www.bowljat.org . See you all on Sunday!

Champions Scott and Brandon Kraye & 2nd Mason Sherman & Kaitlin Mayall play, there weren't any significant movement, just a little jockeying of position, as the top four solidified their appearance in the finals.

The finals then started out with the 4th seed team of Beaner/Arellano (+546) taking on the 3rd seed Kraye/Vasquez (+627). With handicap, Kraye/Vasquez advanced with a 244-201 victory, to now meet the 2nd seeded team of Low/Smith (+659). Here Low/Smith took the match 232-204 to move on to meet the top team Acosta/Michael Baisa (+664). In this game and with zero pins handicap, team Low/Smith captured the title 191-151. This gives junior Low his fifth career JAT title and third title of this season. Also, three of the five titles is from Canoga Park Bowl. I guess he likes this house. His adult partner Mike Smith captures his first JAT title, but I'm sure he'll be back for more. Congratulations to both of you.

Our next tournament will be this Sunday (4/25) at The Bowlum in Montclair. This will be the third and final PBA Experience Challenge of the season. Bowlers, please remember that the bowler with the highest qualifying total of the combined three challenges, will win an $100 gift card. The top ten leaders of this bonus challenge are (sorted by name) Adam Dubia, Bobby Hornacek, Chelsea Friedman, Courtney Schultz, Dara Ajimine, Gabriella Mayfield, Oscar Chan, Ryan Hutchison, Tristan Beaner, and Wesley Low. An entire listing with their 10 game total will be available on the web and at the tournament site. The PBA pattern used will also be available Saturday night.

Check-in begins at our normal 8:15. Come one, come all. I hope to see everyone there.

6-Gamer At Forest Lanes

LAKE FOREST — Forest Lanes hosted their monthly 6-Gamer last Sunday, April 18. Rob Piroozshad liked the house shot oil pattern and took the $300 first place for his 1500 score.

Second place went to Nick Wilson with 1481 and $140, 3rd was Cameron Smith 1477 $70, 4th Ty Stockle 1442 $50.

Blocks worth $40 went to Nick Wilson 765 and Rob Piroozshad 760. Sidepots of $20 went to Rob Piroozshad 300 and 278, Cameron Smith 276 and 279, Nick Wilson 277 and 244.

Thanks to everyone for participating in our 6-Gamer. We look forward to seeing all of you at our next 6-gamer on Sunday, May 16 when we use the Mini Eliminator oil pattern.

I figured Shannon would be the harder person to beat," Feldman continued. "We were pretty close the whole game, until she split in the 10th. That kinda made it so all I had to do was get a spare to win."

Ironically, the stars aligned perfectly for Feldman to get into the season-ending special event, which was designed for the champions of the six PBA Women's Series presented by BOWL.COM singles events (the Mixed Doubles was excluded). In cases of multiple champions, the next highest finisher got a spot in the Show-down. Kulick was a double-winner (PBA Women's World Championship and Shark Championship) as was Pluhowsky (Chameleon and Scorpion Championships). Johnson won the Viper title and Nation claimed the Earl Anthony Memorial women's event. Dorin-Ballard qualified as runner-up to Kulick in the Shark, and Feldman qualified as the fourth-place finisher in the Scorpion because Pluhowsky, Johnson and Kulick had previously qualified.

"It was more fun than most days this year," Feldman said. "It'll definitely make it a nicer summer for me."

BY NICE AND SWEET

STUDIO CITY — As I compose this Bowling News article on the new fangled iPad I'm reminded on how fast technology marches on. With that said, it's comforting to know that the sport of bowling is timeless! True you may not have the boys in the back setting up the pins but the thrill and challenges bowling offers cannot be replaced with wii games and the like. So put down your hand held devices and join Pinz for our summer leagues that are now forming!

PINZ ADULTS

The NHL and NBA playoffs can't be a match for the competition that's heating up on our lanes as this seasons leagues come to an end! Don't forget to sign-up for our summer leagues after you check out these blazing scores from last week:
