Southwest Memories...

LOS ANGELES — This is the most difficult thing I have ever done. Our beloved Southwest Bowl is closing Sunday, June 1, 2008.

There are so many memories. My Uncle Carmen, taking my two brothers and me to tear down an old farmhouse and build the outside walls for my father's dream: a bowling alley in 1957.

I remember the year we opened: 1958. My mother would make 50 calls a day to get the ladies to come join a league. Those were thrilling times.

But this is a Different Age — and I'm not sure I like it. One has to live and keep up with the times.

So many friends... Claudette, Mel, Monica, Del, Mabel, P.J., Mr. Whitehead, Mr. Hooks, Paul the Artist, Bobby the Mack, Faye, Dana, James, Doc, ... two Bowling Clubs, our Senior Leagues, our Deaf League, our Pinocle Players, our Coffee

Shop... our Juniors

My Deepest Thanks to Everybody. Southwest Bowl celebrated its 50th Year of Existence, and we bid everyone who came here for R and R, a healthy, positive life to come. And perhaps, when you look back on our existence, you can say, "Yeah, that Ken-guy did his best to keep a level playing field to all".

Bless All Our Families...

With Heart,
Ken Del Conte

Everyone's A Winner At Yorba Linda WWPB Event!

by Lori Yamasaki

A couple of weeks ago, Jim Hornung and his wonderful staff hosted yet another successful Western Women Premier Bowlers event - the 2008 Yorba Linda WWPB Mixed Doubles Championship.

A quick correction from Tori Carter on the balls she used towards her victory. The balls were Brunswick's Fury and Vapor Zone. Again Tori thanks her sister, Robin, for the balls and Vince Wood for being such a terrific partner! Congratulations to Tori and Vince on their tournament victory.

Every year, Jim along with Yorba Linda Bowl Manager, Roger Heap, host not only a spectacular pro-am, but also a Battle of The Stars (Sexes). Featured this year in the Battle were Shannon Pluhowsky and Wendy Macpheson for the women - who teamed with Romy Fallabeck. They were ready to face then men this year! The men's team hailed the talents of Dave Wodka and Joel Ricketts joining forces with Tom Kozlowski. Rosemary (Romy) Fallabeck is from Yorba Linda Bowl's Tuesday Party Down and Thursday Niters Leagues. She was the top female qualifier with a high score of 766. Tom Kozlowski is also of the Party Down and Thursday Niters with a top score of 779. Each bowler had to have the highest score of all the participants of their respective sexes during February and March at Yorba Linda Bowl. This year the rolloff was won by the Ladies! Each lady received $100.00. Both Tom and Rosemary were rewarded

Rumple & Cole Win Titles in WCST at Del Rosa

SAN BERNARDINO— Super Senior, Larry Rumple (1000 Oaks), won the Senior Division, his 5th Championship in the WCST Ebonite Singles at Del Rosa Lanes last week-end, and he did it with a very strong finish in the Position Match, against the leader at the end of game #9, Ray Cobb. Ray was ahead by 78 pins going into this match. Ray got in trouble early in the match, and Larry was stringing strikes. Ray ended up striking out from the 8th frame, for a 206 game, but Larry's 269 and the bonus pins for winning the match of 30, won this tournament by 15 pins.

The finals field which included WCST Champion, Robin Romeo, was very competitive and close as only 67 pins separated 3rd to 7th. The lane pattern "Viking" was used for both the qualifying and the finals.

Joe Porcelli bowled a 300 game and a 280 game in the finals, with a 160 game sandwiched in between those games. Ken Diiorio the qualifying leader with plus 344 finished in 5th, with Greg Neuer, starting in 7th, and a strong 3rd place finish.

A full house of 65 bowlers entered with the senior division 39 bowlers and the super seniors 26 bowlers. The tournament pay-off was $9,170.00, and 24 checks to the cashers, making this year's totals so far for 5 tournaments, $51,100.00 paid out, and now only $994.00 short of $3,000.000.00 paid out with a grand total for 268 tournaments, $2,999,096, will reach that mark in this week-end's tournament at the Silver Nugget in N. Las Vegas. The Top 3:

1st, Larry Rumple, $1000.00, 2nd, Ray Cobb (Highland) $750.00, and 3rd to Greg Neuer (Covina) $750.00

Kong Wins ABTA Title at CAL

Jackson Hits a $900 3-6-9 Pot / 3-6-9 is $500

Match Game is $3,500 this week / Match Series est $950 • 3-6-9 is $500

Linbrook is our Host in a One Day Day Event

Qualify Saturday 12:00-1:00-2:30 & 4:00PM Semis 6:00PM

LAKEWOOD— One of the “Good Guys” Michael Kong, was the best as he won his 3rd ABTA title with a stellar performance at Cal Bowl from the top seeded position. He finally topped a tough lady bower Janine Ditch in the finale to take home a nice $1,500 at popular Cal Bowl.

Our return to CAL was just again great. We had a nice 207 entrants in the early 3 Squad Event which had squads at 12:30-2:00 & 3:30. Many of our regulars from CAL were in Vegas for sweepers. Side poAts went for $206 a game and in the ABTA side pots are only $2.00 per game.

Due to the nice turnout 50 bowlers advanced to the semis. Leading the Semis was gentleman Michael Kong +131. He would sit out and bowl the title game. Right behind was the smooth lefty John Gonzalez at +124.

So Kong would sit out and bowl for the title. John to receive a first round bye in the single elims and enter in round two. It took a nice +57 for the men and 3 guaranteed women to make the Sweet 16 Single Elim Finals.

The Bowlers took to the lanes. In the first round single elims losing were Vic Fabian, John Brooks, Jun Cadenas, John Feitz, Wendy Soo Hoo, Dom Laguardia, and Enrique Castillo. They got checks of $100 in 10-16th places.

In round two being eliminated were Lynn Waldie, John Gonzalez, Mike Kearney and Gibin Kim. They cashed in 6-9 nth places and $110 each. Round three had Janine Ditch edge Speedy- Bryant 246-229. Kenny Seiple Sr. downed James Borillo 231-194. So James and Speedy were 4th and 5th, and $120 each, with Ken, and Janine to meet for the right to bowl Kong for the title.

In a most exciting game Janine won out as Ken chopped a 6-10. She need to pickup the bucket to advance, which she did. Ken was 3rd with a great showing and Janine off to the title match vs Michael Kong.

The title game was set and the horses were paid! Janine returned a big $200 in the horse bets for everyone who had her at $5.00 entry.

The title game was set. Janine led off and split 3-10. Michael also opened, chopping the 6-10 Janine was clean, but Michael tossed a turkey to take a nice lead as she again split in frame 6, and split again in the 8th. Micheal was having problems also with splits in the 8-9 frames but the difference was too large and he won his 3rd title in 12 yrs 185/197-159/168 . Great bowling by one of the Good Guys. He is a gentleman and well deserving!

Great bowling by Janine Ditch who is a very competitive lady. She bowls regularly with us. Great Bowling Janine!

Ken Sieple could have certainly won this one, as he was on his game. Ken is also an ABTA veteran, and did well until he chopped 6 pin. Great bowling Ken.

Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Enrique Castillo at a +144 for the men and Deb Bradley led the ladies +119, and they both get paid entries.

J. T. Jackson was last standing in the 3-6-9 and he made it count this time to the tune of $900 as he broke the pot.. The pot starts at $500 this week at Linbrook Bowl.

The Match Game was UN-Matched at a 279 drawn by Kong. So the pot it will be worth $3,500 again this week with the balance going to a reserve pot.

Match Series worth $666, was also Un Matched and is estimated at $950 this week for only a $2.00 entry fee.

Champion Michael Kong is from San Gabriel, and used an Agent drilled by Memo at Bowlers Image. He is single. He thanks the Mou Liu Bowlers and special friends, Holden, Angel, David, Billy, Glenna and Jason for support. Michael is sorry to hear of the passing of ABTA Director

Simon Rojas, whom he liked so well.

Janine Ditch is from Chino Hills, and married to Tom. She used a Black Widow. She thanks the ABTA and Staff for a great event and esp Virgina Norton for all her coaching and patience.

Ken Seiple is from Lake-wood and used an Agent drilled by Mark Dyer. He is an avid ABTA Supporter and well liked by all. He is married to Lucy. Son Ken Jr and Lucy also bowl in the club. He thanks the ABTA staff for a great job and Lucy and Ken Jr. for support and his mom Miriam who came to see the finals..

It was great to bowl at CAL we will return there soon. Thanks to the very helpful staff there! It is history folks, as Michael Kong enters the archives as our latest champion.

Make plans for this weeks Early Event at Linbrook Bowl. There will be qualifying at 12:00-1:00- 2:30 & 4:00, Semis 6:00PM.

Next Week, May 3 we will Visit Premiere Lanes in Santa Fe Springs.

See You all at Linbrook! Until then!

Also we had a collection box for the Rojas Family due to our favorite director Simon’s passing. He was a wonderful man We missed him so much this week at Cal.

We will again have the Collection box at Linbrook due to so many people out of town. Thank you for all who donated! God Bless!

Inland Empire NABI Champion James Doolen

RIVERSIDE—James Doolen, our newest champion, won his first championship at Arlington Lanes this past Saturday. We want to thank Arlington for hosting our tournament, also thanks to thier staff.

James won with his Brunswick Fury, drilled by Tony Robbins at Foothill Lanes. He began bowling when he was only 4 years old & needless to say, he loves the game. His highest game bowled was a 280 scratch & he bowls in the Tues. Night Laughlin River Gamblers league at Foothill Lanes. He joined NABI, along with his bowling partner, Kathleen Doolen, his mom, 3 months ago. James is the most likeable young man you could ever meet & has been striving towards this championship ever since he joined NABI. We all loved to see him win! When James is not working in the printing dept. at Stater Bros., he loves to bowl, play basketball & play video games. James would like to dedicate this win to his mom, Kathleen & to James, his dad, who are his biggest fans. With this win, James has won $450 & a NABI champion shirt.

We had a Beat the Board this past Sat., with James coming in 1st with a 713 series with hdep. Dino Dennis came in 2nd, with a 690. Jay Shackelford came in 3rd with a 678. Dale Jones was 4th with a 604. Shane Kimberling was 5th with a 598 & Guy Clear came in 6th with a 589.

Our $50 sidepot winners were: Guy Clear, James Doolen, Shane Kimberling & Dale Jones (3).

Our $45 sidepot winners were: Mike Vredevooge, Guy Clear & Jeff Swanson.

Everyone, there is still time to get your games for the Nationals in July, 2008 in Las Vegas. Our next tournament is at Riverside Lanes on Sat., April 26.

See our ad in this week's Bowling News! See ya there!

thank our hosts, Proprietor, Nicole Ellison, and GM Dave Wodka and their workers for their outstanding service, as well as a terrific lunch, that was prepared and ready by the end of the 1st 5 game block.

Nicole just recently bought the center, and both she and Dave are doing a great job of knowing what bowlers want and are getting a great reputation of doing just that.

Our thanks to our coverage sponsor, EBONITE INTERNATIONAL COMPANY, for the great bowling balls they put out and give us for sale at the tournament sites. A total of $1500.00 towards the end of the year tournament at this time.

Our co-sponsors each putting up $500.00, were LUSTER-COTE INC. and GEORGE ABRAHAMSEN REALTOR FOR Tarbell REALTORS, 949-812-9990, we also thank them, and to Larry Wilson and family, a terrific job with the brackets.

SUPER SENIOR NEWS

Fred Cole (Visalia) has been a WCST Member for many years and a casher of over $16,000.00 but never a Championship Title until now.

He won his first title for the Super Seniors, and in a very big way. He started in 4th and took the lead after game #3, never looked back after that and won by 186 pins, over 2nd place Ron Burg, who was in 5th place going into the position match, with Jim Thurmond, 3rd, and Vaughn Doody, 4th only a few pins ahead of Ron.

Ron, winning his match with a 235 game and the bonus pins of 30, got by Vaughn Doody, who won his match from Jim.

Ron got into 2nd by 11 pins, and this dropped Stan Caswell from 2nd to finishing 5th.

Top 3:, 1st Fred Cole, $600.00, 2nd, Ron Burg (Upland), $435.00, and 3rd to Vaughn Doody (Las Vegas), $345.00.

A POINT OF REFERENCE

Would you like to be a bowling coach? Ask yourself this question: “What is my point of reference?” The answer will set you free. Not too long ago, I believed the bowling industry should try to train as many coaches as possible. I now believe that the bowling industry should re-examine who qualifies as a “Coach”.

Look in bowling centers; you will see certified coaches wearing their ‘colors’; sporting patches or logo shirts that signify that they have been certified to coach; but are they properly trained and qualified to coach the level of students they are working with?

In coaching training programs, there should be a ‘performance’ segment. Coaches would only be expected (allowed) to work with bowlers who have similar abilities as the coach. In other words, you would not see a coach who averages 150 working with kids who average 185 or better. This concept can be described as having a ‘point of reference’.

A coach who averages 150 cannot be expected to help a 185 average bowler with the techniques needed to carry the 10 pin, or adjust to lane conditions, or prepare for pressure shots in the final frame of a crucial match. Why? Because the coach has no point of reference for that information.

Before anyone gets upset and tells me that “one doesn’t have to be a good bowler to be a good coach”...hear me out.

Here are the possible benefits of what I am proposing: It would eliminate many of the ‘wannabe’ coaches; those whose egos are massaged simply because they get to wear the shirt or the patch and call themselves coaches. When these coaches step beyond their level of expertise, they do more harm than good. You can hear it every Saturday in youth programs around the country. Listen...“you’re rushing the line”; “you’re topping the ball”; and my favorite, “you’re dropping your shoulder”. When queried about what to do to avoid the above, the answer is often, “don’t rush the line”, “don’t top the ball”, and (for goodness sake) “don’t drop your shoulder”.

It would have coaches really coaching and passing on what they know...not what they think they know or should know.

People who were looking to be coaches might understand that not just anyone qualifies to be a coach. We will take all comers as assistants, or associates (come up with a label), but to qualify as a coach, one must demonstrate a certain amount of proficiency for performance in the sport.

Bowling can take a cue from other sports like basketball, baseball, football, and soccer. At the entry level, the coaches in these sports often come from a pool of interested parents and many others who have a love for the sport. This love for the sport very likely came from that person playing the sport as a kid themselves - a point of reference. Once these kids get to the ages of 12-13, the coaches start to take on a whole new persona. A much higher percentage of these coaches actually played the game in high school ... another level of performance qualification and an advanced point of reference.

As the kids get to high school age and then to college...check out the coaches. Now you have coaches who not only talk to the talk, but have walked the walk. They come from high school teams, collegiate teams and sometimes even from the professional ranks. Go to your local high school and check the background of each head coach of your main varsity sports.

And by the way...if your high school has a varsity bowling team, or even a club, check out the head coaches’ credentials for that as well.

Of course, there are exceptions to every rule. Any person who wants to be a coach but cannot meet the performance criteria could apply for an exemption. Very few will apply because for the most part, they know they are limited. They don’t want to embarrass themselves, nor do they wish to give students anything less than they deserve.

It has often been said that gifted athletes don’t make the best coaches. In fact, great athletes often make poor coaches, many freely admit it. Maybe they expect it to be as easy for others as it was for them; maybe they know their own style (how they did it), but when trying to get others to do what they did, the results fall short.

The very best coaches often come from the ranks of those marginal athletes at the high school, collegiate and professional levels. The reason, I believe, is that they had to work harder to make it than the gifted, and along the way they experienced success and failure, but persevered. That experience provides them with a point of reference to help many other hopeful athletes in their chosen sport.

Certifying coaches who are not able to help beyond the most basic of introductory skills can undermine any youth program. We can fix the problem by bringing the skill level of our coaches up to a point where they can meet the challenges of their students.

If coaches really want to help the sport, they should either step UP, or step DOWN. In either case, the bowler and the sport benefits.

JAT

JUNIOR AMATEUR TOUR

News & Notes

by David Yamauchi
Spiesman and Le Strike Doubles Win
Congratulations to Jeff Spiesman and Brian Le on taking home the Dual-Club Doubles title last tournament at Fountain Bowl. Jeff and Brian qualified 5th and lit up the Baker bracket all the way to a finals victory verses a very tough team of Natalie Jimenez and Cody Mendoza. Carry went the way of the two lefties as they struck their way to a 252-212, 194-215, 222-200 victory and the title. Congratulations to all of the bowlers on some great bowling and a great turnout for this fun event!

Brackets for Adults This Time!
In addition to our usual $2 Farm Club and Open Division Brackets, we will be featuring $5 Adult scratch brackets also. In addition, if there is interest, we will offer handicap adult brackets too! Get in on some side action and help support the JAT at the same time!

Adult/Junior, Second Edition!
Our next event will again be our JAT Adult/Junior Doubles at Brunswick West Covina. Again we will have two divisions- 390 and under handicap and 391 + scratch- and we hope to beat our turnout of 57 teams from earlier this season at this fun event! This event will feature 5 games of qualifying followed by a Baker Bracket for the title. Scholarships to the juniors as well as some small gift cards for the hard-working adults! action for the adults this time with Open and Farm $2 Scholarship Brackets and Adult $5 Brackets too! We will also be having another bowling ball raffle for your ball of choice for only $1. $70 per team for this great event and we hope that all bowlers, parents and even siblings get out on the lanes for one of our biggest events of the season!

What Do I Come In At?
For our next event, use 2007 book average. If none, use just entered 2008 book average, if none, current average of 21 games or more. If none, enter at 200. Same average rules for adults and juniors except JAT and Farm bowlers who have bowled 4 or more tournaments will use JAT average over all others. Questions? E-mail us at director@bowljat.org.

Check out the latest schedule updates, scores, highlights, photos and more at www.bowljat.org. See you all- bowlers, parents, siblings and friends- on the lanes at West Covina!

National Deaf Bowling News

Lindsey Coules Named to 2nd NCBCA All America Team

by Connie Marchione

WICHITA, KS—As usual I was following the USBC press releases of the NCAA Women’s Bowling Championship and USBC InterCollegiate Team Bowling Championships, one of the releases was about the “Night of Champions” banquet held last Wednesday April 16. In that they gave out awards ad honors to the participating bowlers selected respectively by National Collegiate Bowling Coaches Association and Bowling Writers Association of America.

One name on the list of honorees, Lindsey Coules caught my eyes.

Lindsey. we knew is hearing-impaired and a former member of Junior Team USA while at Morehead State University. I was surprised that she had transferred to Central Florida U and is competing on the Central Florida bowling team.

In both Team Championships, Central Florida team did not do well but Lindsey did well enough as chosen by the NCBCA coaches for the 2nd NCBCA All American Team.

Also the Bowling Writers Association of America gave her a honorable mention.

Great for her and somebody please tell her to come to the Deaf Team USA Trials this June and try out for the women’s team for the 2009 Taiwan Deaflympics. The deaf women’s team needs a bowler of her caliber.

Another thing, both NCAA Women’s Championships and USBC InterCollegiate Championships are great tournaments and they made me wish that Gallaudet University had kept their bowling lanes and automatic pin setters. They could train the deaf and hearing -impaired bowlers who attened as students, for these tournaments,

NEWS FLASH - MALUCCI WON THE CAHEN MASTERS IN OHIO

COLUMBUS—I was informed that Carl Malucci won the prestigious Great Lakes Deaf Bowling Association Herman Cahen Masters and Diedere Alkire placed as runner-up -n the GLDWBA Queens. No other details were given, so we wait for the proof of these items to be written later.

CLASH OF CHAMPIONS PROFILES: LIZ JOHNSON, PETE WEBER

GREENDALE, Wis. - As the unique made-for-television event Bowling’s Clash of Champions, presented by the United States Bowling Congress and Strike Ten Entertainment, gets closer, USBC is profiling each of the 16 participants in the event. Visit bowlTV on bowl.com for exclusive video interviews with each participant.

The Clash will bring together 16 champions of USBC events and the U.S. Open ranging in age from teenagers to seniors competing for $100,000 in prize money on national television. The event will take place May 7-8 at the USBC Convention in Kansas City, Mo., and taped for broadcast on CBS Sports May 10 from 5-6 p.m. Eastern and May 11 from 4-5 p.m. Eastern.

MEET LIZ JOHNSON & PETE WEBER

* How they qualified: Liz Johnson won the 2007 U.S. Women’s Open in Reno, Nev., in October while Pete Weber was victorious at the 2007 U.S. Open in March in North Brunswick, N.J.

* About Liz Johnson: In 2005, Johnson, 33, of Cheektowaga, N.Y., made history by becoming the first woman to win a PBA regional and finished second in a PBA national tour event. She is an 11-time PWBA Tour titlist, including the 1996 U.S. Women’s Open title. Before joining the PWBA Tour, Johnson was a three-time Amateur Bowler of the Year, two-time U.S. Amateur champion and 1993 Collegiate Bowler of the Year at Morehead State.

* Johnson’s thoughts: “I’m still learning more each day about the Clash, and I’m very excited to be a part of it. I know I will be around a lot of other great and talented bowlers. To me, that is a great honor.”

* About the U.S. Women’s Open: After a four-year hiatus, the U.S. Women’s Open returned behind the support of the United States Bowling Congress in 2007. The event, which features the top professional and amateur women bowlers in the country, was broadcast on ESPN over the span of five weeks.

* About Pete Weber: A PBA and USBC Hall of Famer, Weber, 45, of St. Ann., Mo., has won 34 career Denny’s PBA Tour titles, including eight major titles. Weber, who has more than $3.1 million in career earnings, has won the U.S. Open four times and is one of only four men to complete the PBA’s career Triple Crown (World Championship, Tournament of Champions and U.S. Open).

* Weber’s thoughts: “This is a good event because it gives all levels of bowlers a chance to win in this format. I don’t think I will win, though, because I don’t usually do well with this format. However, I do have 34 PBA titles on my side.”

* About the U.S. Open: A major on the Denny’s PBA Tour, the U.S. Open features a field of nearly 500 of the world’s top professional and amateur bowlers. Conducted on a flat oil pattern, the U.S. Open is considered one of the most demanding tournaments during the PBA Tour season.

* On the web: Learn more about the Clash on bowl.com/clash and watch exclusive interviews with Johnson and Weber on bowlTV.

* Next week: USBC will profile USBC Queens winner Kelly Kulick and USBC Masters champion Sean Rash.
