Asbaty Claims 2012 Queens Title

ARLINGTON — The last time Diandra Asbaty of Chicago reached the championship match of the United States Bowling Congress Queens, she bowled a match to forget. On Tuesday night, she bowled a match she will never forget.

Asbaty defeated USBC Hall of Famer Carolyn Dorin-Ballard of Keller, Texas, 244-227, to win her first career major title at the 2012 USBC Queens presented by Storm.

In 2007, Asbaty also advanced to the Queens final but lost to Kelly Kulick, 192-143. This time she would not be denied. Asbaty needed a strike and seven pins in the final frame and threw three perfect strikes to lock up the win at the International Training and Research Center.

"I'm still in shock and literally feel like I'm in a dream," said Asbaty, a 14-time Team USA member. "It's every girl's dream to step in the 10th against a bowler like Carolyn and throw a strike to win. She was one of my idols growing up and really inspired me."

Asbaty said the experience in 2007, when she lost as the Queens top seed, helped lead her to the moment she experienced Tuesday.

"If I could take what happened in 2007 and change it, I still wouldn't do it," said Asbaty, who was the No. 3 seed in Tuesday's finals and picked up $20,000 for the win. "That moment and that heartbreak made this win possible."

Dorin-Ballard, who earned $10,000 for finishing second, got at least nine pins down on every ball in the title match and struck seven times, but a 7 pin in the ninth and a 10 pin in the final frame opened the door for Asbaty, who tossed the final six strikes.

"Am I disappointed, absolutely, but I put the ball in the pocket and you can't control what happens sometimes," said Dorin-Ballard, who won the Queens in 2001. "Now it's time to work a little harder and get ready for the U.S. Women's Open in June."

In the semifinal, Asbaty took down second seed Stefanie Nation of Grand Prairie, Texas, 270-185. Asbaty closed with nine straight strikes as Nation failed to gain any traction in the match.

Asbaty moved on in the night's second match by defeating Liz Johnson of Cheektowaga, N.Y., 233-191. Asbaty opened with four consecutive strikes and led by more than 20 pins the entire game.

In the opening match of the night, Johnson started with a spare and six consecutive strikes as she built a 34-pin lead halfway through the game and went on to defeat Josie Earnest of Nashville, 268-223. A total of 131 of the top bowlers competed in the Queens, which featured a prize fund of $110,000. For more information on the USBC Queens, visit BOWL.com/Queens.

BWAA to Honor R.F. Corderman 2012 Luby Hall of Fame Award

ARLINGTON—A man who elevated the coverage of bowling in his region for more than 40 years, R.F. (Robert Frank) Corderman (pictured), has been voted the newest recipient of the Luby Hall of Fame Award by the Bowling Writers Association of America.

Corderman, 60, was known mostly for his ability to cover all aspects of the West Coast scene through the pages of the Pacific Bowler, with which he was affiliated from 1978-2004. He set standards for regional coverage in areas such as wheelchair bowling, senior news, the youth level and, of course, the PBA Regional Tour.

That, along with his insightful voice covering the issues via his "Pin Action" column, made PB a "must read" not only in his area of coverage, but well beyond.

He started his journalistic career as Editor of the Citrus Bowler in San Bernardino, Calif. He left that newspaper after four years to join the Pacific Bowler in Garden Grove, Calif. He moved up through the ranks to eventually become Editor-Publisher of the newspaper, a post he held with his wife, Berdalee.

While there, he (and his wife) also served in the same capacity for 10 years with the San Diego County Bowler.

For more than 25 years, starting in 1976, he was the publicist for the Professional Bowlers Assn. Western Region. Again, he set a standard that was hard to match.

"R.F. covered all of our regional tournaments," remembered PBA lane man Lenny Nicholson. "He was awesome. He showed up for every rein Hemet, Mike has been able to become more familiar with his equipment and make better on lane adjustments. The result is better scores and more wins. This win was worth $1,000.

DeVaney had a tough field to beat with two of his competitors, Eddie Van Daniker and Dave Wodka, being recent gional event, and always wrote a great story. I never met anybody who covered the regionals as well as he did. He also put together the regional program book. He was all business and admired for his tenacity."

As a result of those efforts, he was named the Pat Patterson Award recipient for his regional contributions. Only PBA members were eligible, but PBA Regional boss Ted Hoffman Jr. secretly bought R.F. an associate membership so he could be presented the plaque at a Southern California Bowling Writers All-Star Awards Banquet.

Beyond that, he was a longtime president of the Southern California Bowling Writers, which presided over the annual Southern California Bowling Writers All-Star Awards Banquet.

This is his third Hall of Fame honor. He was named to the Southern California Bowling Hall of Fame for meritorious service, and selected by the Orange County Bowling Assn. Hall of Fame for meritorious service.

He retired in 2004, and he and Berdalee now are living in Bedford, Iowa.

PBA Tournament of Champions finalists. However, with games of 298, 290, 279 (three times), and 268 he glided through the winner's bracket and into the finals.

After an early round four pin loss to DeVaney, Dave Wodka rattled off games of 279, 278, 269, and 300 to storm through the second chance bracket and into the title match against DeVaney. Two more games would decide the champion. DeVaney started with eight strikes and finished with a 279. Wodka struck often, but couldn't keep up. After a second good game, Mr. DeVaney was declared Masters Champion at 1:30 PM.

After DeVaney and Wodka, our top finishers were Eddie Van Daniker (3rd), Mike Rick (4th), Bobby Campagnale and John Valentine (5th tie), Joel Ricketts and Evan Tolson (7th tie), and Curtis Covey and Mercedes Jackson ( 9th tie).

Two ladies made the finals, Mercedes Jackson (9th) and Bethany Mendoza (13th). Jackson topped the ladies with a 217 average in the finals after posting a 214 average during qualifying. Mendoza's qualifying average was 212.

Bobby Campagnale led the five game qualifying squad with a 248 average, followed by Mike Rick (243), Mike Foster (235), Joel Ricketts (223), and John Cottingini (222). Sean Cochran was low qualifier with a 207. George Billioux was our alternate.

The finals produced two perfect games, one each by Eddie Van Daniker and Dave Wodka. There were three other games of 290 or higher.

Tournament Director Rick Hill was assisted by Alisha Hill, Therese Lloyd, Mike Raddeman, Frank Weiler and Alisha's daughter and friend. Victor Bowl manager Jerry Schultze told me that the above named Citrus Belt team conducted a great finals.

The Citrus Belt would like to thank Victor Bowl for hosting the tournament, our bowlers for entering the Masters, and the BOWLING NEWS for supporting our tournaments.

Back to Back 300's!

SIMI VALLEY—On 4-18-2012 David A. Rose shot an honor score of 235, 300, 300 for an 835 scratch series at Brunswick Simi Bowl.

This is the second time Dave has shot back to back 300's. Back on 2-17-2000 Dave broke a house record at AMF Bowlerland with a 248, 300, 300 for an 848 scratch series. He now bowls with a permanently bent elbow and only 60% mobility in his left arm and averages 224.

Editors Note: Last week we reported this score being shot at Forest Lanes, it was shot at Simi Bowl. Guess we didn't come out smelling like a rose... :(

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

by Connie Marchione

AUDETTE'S 773 TOPS DEAF TRAVEL AT LINBROOK

ANAHEIM—It was indeed a tough act to follow. The bowlers of So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League could not repeat at Linbrook Bowling Center its hot scoring in the last session at Brunswick Covina Lanes. There were no 900 (4 games), not even a 800 as Robert Audette led with 773 from 173-198-198-204.

Gorman Low who led at Covina with 911, could only score 183-180-217-173 for 752. Bob Bergan had steady games of 179-179-182-174 for 714 and Francisco Navarro who rolled a 910 at Covina, had a 214 but failed to reach 700. William Golyer made the list with his 211.

There was a strange upset at Linbrook as the powerful league leader Navarro's Covina suffered a rare loss being beaten by lowly bottom dwelling Bergan's Whittier 13.5 to Covina's 6.5. No worries for Covina as it already built a distant lead that with one session remains for the rest of teams to battle for 2nd place.

Second place S F Valley, without its star bowler Bob Jones, managed to win 12.5 to 7.5 over 5th place Low's Mid City. S F Valley hangs on to 2nd place for the coming final position round contest against powerful Covina in which S F Valley must win at least 12 points to lock up 2nd place.

Third place Glendale, a 11.5 to 8.5 winner over 7th place Riverside, dropped to 4th place as former 4th place Orange County moved up to third with a 15.5 to 4.5 win over 6th place L A City. In the coming final position round Orange County will face Glendale. The other pairing will be 5th place Mid City against 6th place L A City and Whittier's win over mighty Covina moved it out of the cellar and will face Riverside in the battle to keep out of the cellar..

The league thanks Linbrook's management for hosting and will move on next week to Del Rio Lanes for the final position round on May 6 at NOON.

Note: The league had selected Keystone Bowl on May 20 at 11 AM .for its season ending sweepstakes.

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege
(under close supervision by Carol Mancini)

NORWALK—Carol: I would like to welcome our readers to the inaugural column of The Perfect Game. To get the ball rolling (pun intended), I selected a question submitted by Lindsey, one of our youth bowlers. While very basic, it is profound in nature and I'm curious what Mr. Felege will have to say. Are you ready coach?

Steve: I am, but before we get started I'd like to apologize for that interview. I probably shouldn't have fallen asleep like that. By the way, your floor is very comfortable.

Carol: Don't give it another thought, Steve. We're pretty easy-going here. We just threw a few left-over copies of our paper on top of you and went about our business. By the way, you snore.

Steve: I know. Can we please move past that and get this show on the road? What's our first question?

Carol: Your first question is.....Is bowling really a sport? Your response?

Steve: Yes, bowling is a sport. Next question.

Carol: Not so fast, Bucko. This is a coaching column. You have to explain your answer.

Steve: I knew there'd be a catch. Okay, the question was, "Is bowling a sport?" Well, a sport is defined as a physical activity which is a source of competitive diversion and/or recreation. By definition, bowling fits that description. Like other major sports such as baseball, football, basketball, tennis, golf, etc., bowling is about athletic achievement and competitors are referred to as athletes. Training, both physical and mental, is required to improve their performance.

The answer to our young friend's query is so obvious that I am more curious about its source. I suspect that the question she really meant to ask was, "Are bowlers athletes?" If that's true, my best guess is that this young lady is fairly talented and regularly beats the snot out of her competition (probably her brother). To salvage his ego, he says something like, "It doesn't matter that you won; bowling isn't a real sport anyway!" Well, miss, not only is bowling a real sport by any definition your competitor cares to use, you are a gifted athlete. Stay with it because you are only going to get better. Losers who use bully tactics to destroy your self-esteem will remain losers.

Carol: Not bad, coach. Here, this is for you.

Steve: What's this?

Carol: A bag of peanuts.

Steve: For what?

Carol: It's your pay. While you slept on our floor last week, we negotiated your contract. Did you know that you also talk in your sleep!? <1 :)

Betty Goulding
Passed Away
Monday

NORWALK — Feisty little "Betty" Elizabeth Anne will always be remembered for her contagious laugh, white high heels and her determination to put "one more league" on the floor.

Betty's time at Clark Center Bowl ran the gamut from bookkeeper to general manager. There was a great "story" being told long ago that her center needed new pins and it wasn't in the budget. So she bought them herself! AND when she left Clark Center she took the pins with her! (The Bowl was closing anyway.)

Keystone Lanes became Betty's new bowling home, organizing Youth and Senior Activities. When Betty "retired" at age 80, she remained active as the secretary of the Friday Laughlin League.

She is survived by: daughter Anne (Robert) Trigwell, granddaughter Susan (Jimmy) Thompson, great-grandson Trevor Thompson, great-granddaughter Kaila Thompson, grandson John (Isabel) English, great-granddaughters Cassidy English, Landri English, Valerie Ayala, great-grandson Alex Ayala. Brother-In-Law David Goulding. Niece Patricia (Ross) Paternity, nephews Patrick (Kathy) Goulding, Michael (Debbie) Goulding, Timothy Goulding.

No services are scheduled at this time.

by Aimee Gomez

DOWNEY—Kevin Valmonte 222-222-214/658 and Mike Cammarata 214-201-215/630 led Gold Coast Hotel to eight points over Sysco’s Charlie Kinstler, who had a couple great games 278-233/682 and helped his team win the third game.
Gabriel Martinez 215-214-254 led Herzog Insurance to eight points over the struggling Kegel team who won game one by seven.
Larry Gray 204-213/613 and Ramon Torres 208-214/609 led Heineken to a sweep over ABTA, who had a couple of good games, but could not get it together to take any points.
Powerhouse Video won four from Bowlium thanks to Vernon Adams 221-238/631.
Brylaw Accounting’s Larry Stephens 269-202/634 and Tony Burrell 223-210/609 led their team to a sweep over Tifco Industries.
Jeff Seesholtz 230-228/650 and Paul Varela 210-256/631 led Threadworks to all but the first point over Clyde’s Video Games’s Gregory Jackson 257-222/655.
Tri-Star Vending’s Larry Campbell 204-201/601 held up his team and they were able to sweep Linder Insurance.
Erickson Foods got another sweep against Pro Approach thanks to Andy Clark 229-216/614.
Only 3 bowlers had 200’s all three games.. Mike Cammarata, Kevin Valmonte & Gabriel Martinez, this shot was tough,! Be prepared for the next shot next week as the fight to the finish winds down.

PIN POINTS TO PONDER

...Yes, averages can vary as much as 40 points from bowling center to bowling center.
...Never thought I'd see the day when bowling balls came in as many colors as Easter eggs.
...Many adults list bowling as their sport—but they only bowl once a month.
...Only a few bowlers can stand prosperity on the lanes, particularly when an opponent is having it all.
...In most sports the spectator is fulfilled by identifying with the player in action rather than through the action. In bowling most fans are also doers in competition as well as watchers, so they gain from both areas of the sport.
...Some people bowl because they want to be with their mates, family or friends. And some people bowl because they want to get away from their mates, family or friends.
...Why can't high average and all other bowlers understand that the USBC is not merely an award giving organization but is deeply involved in all forms of services for a modest membership fee structure—one of the lowest in sports.
...A channel ball is one that in error goes into the depression on either side of the lane. Formerly it was known as a gutter ball, and before that it was a poodle.
...A bowler can usually tell how good his or her reputation is by how difficult it is to live up to it.
...We have some great trick shot bowlers but the master was the late, great Andy Varipapa who was still in demand when he was 90. He went through all the various bowling balls from wood on up and he dazzled in person, on TV, in the movies. He had control, confidence, and his main aim was to communicate with his audiences, letting them know that he wanted to please them.
...It is no knock not to win, but it is tragedy if you don't give your best effort.
...Top pro golfers, and even some that aren't top rated, can win a million dollars and more in a single tournament. Top pro bowlers still get special praise when they reach the million mark in their careers. That's hardly fair. But remember we didn't even have true professional bowlers in any numbers in their own niche until 1958. Pro bowlers travel the world seeking the many tournaments that are making roll for pay more and more universal.
...If more bowlers would read all the rules before they enter tournaments, and more tournament directors, individuals or groups, would check bowlers before they bowl, there would be a lot less post tourney problems.
...If tourney entry fees, travel, by any means, car, train, plane, hotels and food costs continue to escalate, nearby tournaments will have their own special appeal, in the head and in the purse. Start out by rolling in your county and state events.
...The happy ending to "too many nights of bowling" is the simple fact that the night has ended.

BIG PRIZES AWARDED AT AMF NATIONAL BOWLING TOURNAMENT IN VEGAS

Four finalists win $50,000 in prize money in year’s richest bowling tournament

RICHMOND –Thousands competed, but only the strongest of the strong were crowned champs at this year’s $700,000 AMF National In-League Tournament. After two-days of elimination-style competition, AMF Bowling Centers is proud to announce the country’s best in league bowling.

“It was our third year – and our biggest and best yet. Once again, our league bowlers demonstrated an impressive level of skill and sportsmanship,” AMF CEO and President Fred Hipp. “It’s our pleasure to celebrate the sport of bowling and award these top finishers with a great experience and some extra and well-deserved cash”

The chase for bowling glory began with more than 25,000 contestants. After several rounds, 108 finalists secured spots in the National In-League Tournament. The finalists, each an AMF league bowler, were divided into four divisions. The divisions are based upon the skill level of the bowler and their qualifying bowling average. Competitors were whittled down through an elimination-style format to determine the national champions.

Although only one person in each division was crowned the $50,000 grand prize winner, every national finalist walked away with prize money, ranging from $25,000 for second place to $250 for the bowlers finishing in 17th to 27th place.

“The nature of the pins-over-average format creates excitement through each round of competition and illustrates the competitor’s ability to perform under pressure and compete at a level above their qualifying average,” said Kathy Hart, Tournament director. “Each year, we look forward to experiencing the competition right alongside the bowlers and awarding them for their accomplishments.”

Division winners worked their way through a nine-week qualifying period, followed by two weeks of in-center finals at each AMF location and 27 district finals events at select AMF locations nationwide. AMF already has awarded approximately$300,000 in prize money to center and district finalists.

AMF will announce details of the 2013 Tournament in early summer. Bowlers interested in participating can sign up for a league at any AMF location this coming fall.

WINNETKA — Well, I can't complain about the weather because we're back to "WIN-SUMM". I just made up that word because I'm not sure if it's still WIN-ter weather or is it SUMM-er weather? The air conditioner was on in the house a few days ago, but now I'm not sure if we need the furnace back on. Can't complain because it keeps you guessing or it's good for conversations. Who wants to be a weather-person? We all like Bowling because the weather doesn't interfere with our sport...it's held indoors!

PBA’s Summer Shootout Returns to 10pin lounge in Chicago May 27-29

Bowling ball manufacturers’ teams to do battle in unique ESPN television series

CHICAGO (April 27, 2012) – Four of the top 2012 PBA Chris Schenkel Player of the Year candidates—Jason Belmonte, Mike Fagan, Sean Rash and Pete Weber — are among the star-studded players who will return to upscale 10pin bowling lounge in downtown Chicago May 27-29 for the 6th annual PBA Summer Shootout. The made-for-TV event will once again feature a battle of bowling stars representing bowling ball manufacturers in a fast-paced PBA Summer Shootout series for telecast on ESPN.

The PBA Summer Shootout weekend will get underway with a special pro-am event at 7 p.m. on Sunday, May 27. Eight Eliminator Round tapings will be conducted Monday, starting at noon. On Tuesday, the final two Eliminator Rounds get started at 1 p.m., followed by the Eliminator Doubles Shootout and four Baker Doubles stepladder finals matches.

The preliminary Shootout telecast schedule begins on ESPN Saturday, July 7 and continues Saturday and Sunday, July 14 and 15. ESPN2 will carry re-airings of Shootout telecasts on Sunday, July 8, Saturday, July 21, Saturday, July 28, Saturday, Aug. 4, and Sunday, Aug. 5. Telecast times will be announced at a later date.

“It’s great to get to come back to downtown Chicago for Memorial Day weekend,” said PBA Commissioner Tom Clark. “The city has a rich bowling history and last year’s event had one of the best pro-ams I’ve ever seen in 10pin’s cool surroundings with 20 of the top players in the world.”

The 2012 installment of the PBA Tour’s post-season special will include the sport’s most accomplished players representing nine of the bowling industry’s best-known bowling ball franchises in a series of elimination and Baker doubles contests along with a pro-am event for Chicagoland grassroots league bowlers.

Teams must include a minimum of two players and teams with more than two players on their roster may substitute at their discretion: Teams and players competing are:

- Storm: Jason Belmonte, Osku Palermaa and Pete Weber
- 900 Global: Robert Smith, Missy Parkin and Brian Voss
- Roto Grip: Wes Malott, Brian Kretzer and Carolyn Dorin-Ballard
- DV8: Mike Machuga, Ronnie Russell and Brian Valenta
- Brunswick: Sean Rash, Ryan Ciminelli and Chris Loschetter
- Track: Mike Fagan and Mika Koivuniemi
- Columbia 300: Dan MacLelland and Chris Barnes
- Hammer: Mike Wolfe and Bill O’Neill
- Ebonite: Tommy Jones and Jason Couch

The 2012 PBA Summer Shootout will get underway with one member of the nine ball-brand teams bowling in each of 10 “Eliminator Rounds.” In the Eliminator Rounds, each player will throw one shot, with the low score in each frame eliminated. In cases of ties, the players involved will bowl sudden-death until one survivor remains.

“Make no mistake, while this event is guaranteed to be fun and exciting for fans to watch on site and as it plays out over the summer months on ESPN, the radical format means it will be a unique tightrope walk for players that will have them on edge fighting for survival from the first ball,” Clark said. “Players who represent the top bowling ball brands will be fighting for bragging rights and the prize money is significant, so it figures to be intense competition.”

In each Eliminator Round, players will earn points for their respective teams based upon how long they survive. The winner of each round will earn 12 points, second place eight points, third seven points, etc., down to one point for the first player eliminated (ninth place).

There will be 10 Eliminator Rounds, each resulting in a half-hour show for delayed telecast on ESPN. At the conclusion of the 10 shows, teams will be seeded for the Summer Shootout finals based upon their points totals. The top four teams automatically advance to the Baker Doubles stepladder finals. Teams seeded five through nine will then bowl in an “Eliminator Doubles Shootout” with the winning team claiming the fifth spot in the stepladder finals).

In the Eliminator Doubles Shootout, both members of each team will throw one shot and their scores will be combined for the frame. The low doubles score each frame will be eliminated until one team remains.

The final four half-hour shows will feature Baker format matches where one member of each team will bowl five frames per game. The No. 5 team will take on Team No. 4 in the first show. The winner will take on Team No. 3 in the second match. The match two winner will bowl Team No. 2 in the semifinal contest, and the semifinal match winner will meet Team No. 1 for the title.

Admission will be free for the entire weekend. For pro-am entry information, visit pba.com and look for the PBA Summer Shootout logo.

REGIONAL ROUNDUP: WALTER RAY WINS 32ND REGIONAL TITLE

THE VILLAGES—PBA Hall of Famer Walter Ray Williams Jr. of Ocala, Fla., boosted his amazing PBA title total to 81 overall when he defeated reigning PBA Senior Player of the Year Ron Mohr of Eagle River, Alaska, by 116 pins on April 19 to win the PBA South Region Don Carter Signature Series Tampa Senior Open at AMF University Lanes.

The regional event was the final tune-up prior to the start of the Senior Sun Bowl at The Villages presented by Storm at Spanish Springs Lanes in The Villages, Fla., to kick off the 2012 PBA Senior Tour season. The win in Tampa was Williams’ 32nd in regional competition to go along with his all-time record 47 PBA Tour titles and two PBA Senior Tour victories.

In the PBA East Region, Ryan Ciminelli of Cheektowaga, N.Y. went 13-3 in match play to record a 69-pin victory over Eddie Torres of Port Ewen, N.Y. in the PBA East Region 900 Global Open at Catskill Hoe Bowl Sunday in Catskill, N.Y. Ciminelli, coming off his runner-up finish in the PBA Tournament of Champions, averaged 249 to lead qualifying and was never challenged on his way to his seventh career regional title and a $2,500 first prize.

In Grove City, Ohio, Jason Lundquist of Englewood, Ohio defeated Patrick Dombrowski of Parma, Ohio by 60 pins to win the PBA Central Debbie & Leo Nunan Memorial/Grove City Open at AMF Stardust Lanes Sunday. Lundquist finished with a 9-3 match play record and a total of 4,725 pins for 20 games, including match play bonus pins, for his third career PBA Regional and a $2,400 prize.

The PBA West and Northwest Regions traveled to Hawaii where Tyler Jensen of Ft. Worth, Texas, defeated Rodney Garrick of San Francisco, 277-258, to win the PBA West/Northwest Regions Storm Open at Hickam AFB Lanes Sunday. The win was Jensen’s 11th in PBA Regional competition and the second time he has won this event. He also earned $2,000.

On Thursday April 19, at Schofield Barracks in Waipahu, Hawaii, amateur Keith Odette of Waipahu defeated Garrick, 253-215, to win the West/Northwest Hawaii Open presented by Storm. Odette, who won his first PBA event, earned $2,000, but he doesn’t receive credit for a PBA title because he isn’t a member.

The PBA Southwest Region visited San Antonio, Texas, Sunday where Cole Copeland of Austin, Texas, defeated Terry Ward of San Angelo, Texas, 207-203, to win his first PBA title at the inaugural PBA Southwest Region San Antonio Challenge at Astro Super Bowl. PBA Challenge events are open only to players who have never won a PBA title.

REGIONAL EVENTS THIS WEEKEND

Three regional events are on tap April 27-29 in the PBA East, West/Northwest and Midwest regions. In the East, Rockaway Lanes hosts the Rockaway Lanes Chameleon Open which is the first of the “animal pattern” championship events. In the West/Northwest Earl Anthony’s Dublin Bowl in Dublin, Calif., will host a doubleheader regional/senior regional weekend with the Earl Anthony Memorial Classic and Earl Anthony Memorial Senior Classic. In the Midwest, Dutlers Bowl in Mankato, Minn., hosts the Dutlers Bowl Open presented by Etonic.

NORDSTROM HAD A TALL ORDER TO FILL

by Roberta McNaught

ANAHEIM—When Larry Nordstrom subs for Missy Parkin, he knows he needs to bring his A game. Last week in the 590 Classic he certainly did just that and then some. Starting off with a 236 game he added a 278, 247, and 232 for the league leading 993 series. Nice bowling Larry I'm sure Missy was happy with your performance. Missy's Dad, Frank Bellinder, was the only other 900 Clubber with 279/930.

Others making the honor roll were: Norm Walker 232/899, Terry Brent 279/898, Rich Heid 269/887, Anderson Alcaraz 268/884, Stacy Rider 285/881, John Conway 259/874, Hong Kha 245/856, E.J.
