Everyone's A Winner At Santa Clarita WWPB Fundraiser

by Lori Yamasaki

SANTA CLARITA—Last Saturday the Western Women Professional Bowlers teamed with Santa Clarita Lanes for a ground breaking women's bowling event - a fundraiser to benefit the Sheila R. Veloz Breast Imaging Center.

The day began with a free lunch to all participants at Santa Clarita Lanes' Vincenzo's Pizza. All participants also received a goody bag courtesy of the WWPB. Bowling began Saturday afternoon and a great time was had by all.

Following a four game qualifying event for WWPB players and Friends and Family players - teams were drawn for baker style match play finals to determine a winner. Wonderful raffle prizes were drawn throughout the day - that included bowling equipment, apparel, terrific food items, gift certificates, and much more, that made winners out of several participants and fans alike! Congratulations to Leanna Harada and Jennifer Smith - our WWPB Family and Friends event victors. From this wonderful day, the WWPB will donate over $2000 to the Sheila

R. Veloz Breast Imaging Center to benefit those in need.

The Sheila R. Veloz Breast Imaging Center aims to improve access to breast imaging services with the specific intent to make it easier and more convenient for women to get their annual mammograms and to reduce the anxiety associated with breast cancer detection. Processing of digital images is faster than conventional film processing and reduces the need for additional appointments and extra mammograms.

Our next WWPB events will be over Memorial Weekend again at Santa Clarita Lanes then on June 25 at Keystone Lanes and June 26 at Del Rio Lanes.

Fred Riccilli Update/May 4

NORWALK — Word reached the Bowling News that legendary bowler Fred Riccilli had been rushed to the Los Alamitos Hospital in a diabetic coma last Friday.

84 year old Fred, on Tuesday was awake and talking to friends. Good news for his fans!

Championship Climb For Chadwick!

SAN DIEGO... Long time & faithful NABI member Bert Chadwick captured his first NABI title at our tournament hosted by Parkway Bowl. Qualifying #4, Bert had the unenviable task ahead of him to “climb the ladder” & win four matches to succeed, but then wound up with a tie in his second match, so had to actually win five matches for his title. To add to his difficult task, three of the four finalists were already champions! After it was over, Bert let out a huge sigh of relief, & quietly proclaimed he had finally gotten a “monkey off his back” with the win & a check for $1000. Congratulations!

The other top 5 finalists were Chuck Shoaf, Beto Rivero, Marvin Lassiter & Tony Damian. The $50 guaranteed sidepots were collected by Bob Ulery, Paul Willey, Ed Lomibao, Doug Pence, Jeff Greer, Ron Chase, James Smith (2) & Lassiter. The 3-6-9 perpetual pot was shared by five bowlers, Tony Nunez, Greer, Smith, Lomibao & Shoaf. Pizza tickets from Pizza Hut went to Ulery, Chadwick & Greer.

The next NABI San Diego tournament is on May 14th at Admiral Robinson Center.

Calling All Future Millionaires

*Registrations Rolling In For Richest Amateur
Bowling Tournament*

RENO—This fall's Inaugural Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge, presented by Reno-Tahoe, America's Adventure Place, promises to turn one skilled and fortunate amateur bowler into America's next millionaire. The Kingpin's unique six-division format was created to offer as level playing field as possible to all contestants in their bid for a part of the record setting $2.2 million purse.

It will take nine days of non-stop competition, October 22 – 30, 2005 at Reno's newly renovated National Bowling Stadium to weed the anticipated field of 2,500 bowlers down to seven finalists. Those seven will compete in a single scratch game with the high score taking the one million dollar top prize.

Although each division has a limited numbers of slots available, there will be ample chances to win large cash prizes as each of the six division champions will earn a minimum of $50,000 for their participation in the million dollar final round.

While total registration for Kingpin Million Dollar challenge costs $695, a $195 deposit can be utilized to reserve an entry. Additionally, stay and play packages are available for the Silvery Legacy, the Eldorado and Circus Circus hotels. Entries are currently being taken online at www.kingpinchallenge.com.

Adding to the excitement and pressure of the Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge, NBC Sports has signed on to broadcast the final round and tournament highlights. The one-hour show will air on November 13, 2005 from 2 – 3pm eastern.

"This will be the 'American Idol' of bowling," said the Kingpin's David Woodruff, in reference to the amateur-status participants of this "better than pro" payout competition. "It's natural that the tournament is broadcast on network TV. Since bowling is the number one participatory sport in the country we anticipate drawing a broad audience of not only bowling enthusiasts, but the general public through the reality nature of the competition. All 2,500 bowlers have an equal chance to win a million dollars."

What sets the Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge apart from other tournaments is not only the high scoring purse but the sports marketing expertise and industry knowledge behind the scenes. Managing partners Dave Woodruff, John Gumas, Pete McDermott and Darren Mullahey all hail from sports marketing and advertising backgrounds, and possess the business acumen to create a successful event. George Veras, president of Veras Communications and an 11-time Emmy Award Winner, has signed on to handle all television production components; allowing 20-year bowling veteran Frank Ellenburg to oversee the competition's operations. Complementing this dynamic team is Dave Husted, PBA Hall of Fame bowler and winner of 14 PBA titles, who was appointed as the Kingpin Commissioner.

The Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge features a three-game scratch qualifying tournament, with a unique six-division format, created to provide participants with the highest odds of winning. Each has a select amount of slots, and are divided into four men's divisions (ages 30 and younger; ages 31 – 44; ages 41 – 59 and ages 60 and over), one women's division, and an open category; reserved for anyone who has bowled professionally or participated on a national team, in the past three years, excluding PBA National or Major winners.

Sign up now for your chance to win $1,000,000 by visiting www.kingpinchallenge.com or calling toll-free, 866-300-2292.

Pulliam Delivers ABTA Win at Premiere

Match Series est $1,400 3-6-9 is $1,500

Special Early Event, Mothers Day Special at Chaparral Saturday

SANTA FE SPRINGS– Donald Pulliam hadn’t had much luck in the ABTA until this Saturday when he put it together, and bowled awesome, winning five straight matches in the top 16 single elim finals finally downing Manny La Guardia in the title game to take home the crown to Encinitas. Donald who drives for Fed EX, delivered himself a nice package at Premiere, namely an ABTA Title and $1,000 in Cash.

The turnout was on the lighter side this week at Premiere due to Vegas Sweepers and League roll offs etc. We still had a decent turnout of 162 entrants and saw 43 bowlers return to the Semifinals. The cut was Men +59 Ladies +23 and super seniors added to the Semis. They were Cliff La Pointe, and Rico Cayton. There were no Super Senior Ladies added as each Senior had made the board this week. Ready and eager, the semifinalists took to the floor in the Semis with the hopes of making the top 16 single elim finals.

Leading the Semis was the pride of Murrieta, Manny La Guardia who blasted a huge +149 to be top seed and sit out to bowl for the title. Runner up in the semis was Eric Pham at +128 who would receive a first round bye and enter in round two.

The top sixteen took to the lanes. Losing in the first round were Dan Stoles, Vic Arteaga, Conrado Amado, Freddie Galvan and Gil Potempo, and they cashed in 10-16th place and $100 each.

In round two we had Pham enter the field to down Heather Hoang in a big way 269-203. Romy Bautista bested Rich Ramirez 231-200, Joe Baghdadian stepped up to edge Roger Wrase 209-299. Donald Pulliam bested fellow San Diegan Christine Smith in a good one 235-224. Losers in round two cashed in at $105 in 6-9th places.

Round three had Pulliam best a tapped Baghdadian 225-188, and Pham blasted to a 241-189 win over Bautista. Joe and Romy were 4th and 5th with fine bowling with Donald and Eric to meet for the right to advance and bowl in the title match vs La Guardia.

This game had Eric seem to lose his shot, and Donald still had his in a big 255-188 win. With five down, a struggling Eric, one of the nicer guys around, was third at Premiere with fine bowling. Donald was off to the title game vs Manny.

The Title game was set and both men are ABTA regulars, and supporters, Donald going for his first win and Manny won last June so he would be going for title #2

The title game was on and Manny decided to lead off. He did in a bad way, an open, and Donald spared and opened. Manny then had a resounding double but Donald not to be denied, also doubled and kept right going with three more for a five bagger to lead, but Manny again turkeyed and cut the lead to 18 pins, but then opened missing the six pin and Donald finished with spares and a big 259-243 win and his first ABTA title. Well deserved. Great bowling by a fine young man who finally put it all together at Premiere! Title #2 is in his future.

Manny La Guardia bowled very well in the runner up position as did Eric Pham in 3rd and either could have won it all at Premiere.

ABTA Notes Tourney Hi Qualifiers were “the Iron Man” Julian Conwi with his fine+148 and the ladies were led by Heather Hoang at +80. They get paid entries.

The optional doubles were taken by the “Iron Man”, and Eddie Palma and their 1407 got them $110. We paid 6 places in the doubles.

Hermie Lebaquin and Joseph Micheri couldn’t eliminate one another in the 3-6-9 rolloff, so we are going for a tidy $1,500 in the 3-6-9 rolloff at our Mothers Day Special Early Event event at Chaparral Lanes this Saturday.

The Match Game 3 was Matched by three bowlers, Ross Labar, David Jones, and Sun Sundara. Their fine 168 game got them 1/3 of the $740 pot.

The Match Series however was Un-matched due to the 534 series drawn by the “Ironman” so we will estimate the Match Series at $1,450 this weekend at Chaparral, for only a $2.00 entry.

The Columbia 300” ball of the week went to non other than Manny La Guardia, our runnerup. He thanks ABTA sponsor Columbia 300 for the fine ball.

John Licauco thrilled the crowd with the front 10 at Premiere. There were some nice games there.

Champion Donald Pulliam hails from Encinitas and used an Inferno drilled by ABTA member Monty Stratton at Surf Bowl in Oceanside. He thanks his pretty lady friend Teneal for support and Monty “the Scientist” for the excellent drilling job. and Premiere Lanes for the Event..

Manny La Guardia, a past champion hails from Murietta, and used a Columbia Alter Ego drilled by ABTA member Jun Ayson. He is single for now and looking. He thanks Jun for the drilling and good friends “Joltin Joe” Ico and Romy Almanzar for support.

It was awesome to have Resty Sanchez visit us at Premiere as he is recovering from a mild stroke and doing very, very well. Everyone was happy to see him. He will be back, count on that. Bart Sanchez also showed up after his double bypass to visit. He will be doing well. The Iron Man speaks for himself returning to ABTA action after throat Surgery! They are great guys.

Last Thursday, April 28th, was our last position round. Team #19 (Vanessa Anderson, Brian Chambers, Herbert Jones and James Tipton) and Team #4 (Steve “Speedy” Bryant, Pat Little, Chris Kelly and Paul Staff) won the last two seeded spots.

The wild cards, Team #16 (Willie Dale, Bobbie Mc-Collum, Tom Palan and Doug Salzman) and Team #21 (Jerry Cant, Jr., Rey Javier, Ping Romero and Racquel Vergara) were the two top teams without winning a round. Team #13 will receive the league bonus award, $200 and Team #19 will receive $100. The roll offs took place Saturday, April 30th and Sunday, May 1st.

League highlights: Herbert Jones led the scoring last week with his 236, 238 247/721, Jerry Cant 249/698, Jr. Guimary 277/694, Danny Guevarra 249/678, Jon Reyes 245/671, Ping Romero 236/667, Steve Domon 247/662 and James Tipton 259/664. A. J. Atkinson had 257.

Sidepot winners: First game, Brian Reyes 264, second game, James Tipton 259, third and super pot, Steve Domon and James Tipton tied with their 247 games.

The 50/50 winner to any regular ABTA tournament went to Chris Kelly. Our match game will be worth $2,000, the number drawn was 298.

ROLL OFFS: The two wild cards, Team #16 (Willie, Bobbie, Tom and Doug) and Team #21 (Jerry, Rey, Racquel and Ping) had the first match of the day. Team #16 winning the match to advance and Team #21 placed 10th.

The next stage was set for Team #16 to bowl against Team #1 (Estrella Ferry, Daren Ogomori, Dominic Tambio and Greg Velarde) and at the same time, Team #19 (Vanessa Anderson, Brian Chambers, Herbert Jones and James Tipton) took the floor against Team #4 (Steve “Speedy” Bryant, Chris Kelly, Pat Little and Paul Staff). Matches were scheduled according to their seedings, total points won all year.

After two games, Team #16 had nine points against Team #1’s three points, went into the third match needing only two points to win the match. Team #1 started strongly and kept the same pace thru the last frames to overtake the series and points to advance. Team #16 placed 8th.

Team #19 vs. Team #4, was another exciting match to the last ball thrown. Team #19 had ten points after the second game and Team #4 had two. The last game, Team #4, with Paul Staff’s 247, Pat Little’s 206, Chris Kelly’s absent scoring winning his point, the match rested on James Tipton’s score against Steve Bryant. James had games of 212, 243 and his last game of 232 gave them the one point needed to advance. Team #4 placed 9th.

The third match, two matches in progress, Team #13 (DeAndro Banks, Della Douglass, Donald Fisher and Mark Hebert) against Team #19 (Vanessa, Brian, Herbert and James) and Team #3 (Valinda Kelly, David Mathisen, Bob Smith and Richard Warner) faced Team #1 (Estrella, Darren, Dominic and Greg).

Team #19 and Team #13 match went to the third game to decide the outcome, Team #19 continued their fine bowling to advance to the next match. Team #13 placed 6th.

The second match in progress, Team #3 Bob, Velinda David, and Richard) against Team #1 (Estrella, Darren, Dominic and Greg) were tied (six points each) going into the third game. Bob, Valinda and Richard won their points, David’s 214 lost to Darren’s 233. Every mark became crucial the last frame for Greg needing a double in the tenth. Greg with his usual great bowling got the first one, the second one was also a great ball but unfortunately got tapped. It was a very tense, exciting match for the fans and bowlers alike, but team #3 finished strongly to win the match Team #1 placed 7th.

The last match of the day, Team #3 and Team #19 faced each other for the winner to advance Sunday.

Team #3 won five points the first game and in the second game, Bob Smith showing his “old” form and style had a 255 (8 bagger) game to start off their team, followed by Valinda’s 207 game, David’s 236 and Richard’s 192 sweeping Team #19. The match started out with mediocre scores by both teams, but Team #19 just couldn’t find their shots to keep up with Team #3. Team #19 placed 5th.

SUNDAY: Team #3 earned the right to bowl the third seeded team, Belinda Crowder, Tim Crowder, Larry Feldman and Marvin Crowder. Team #20 took 4 points but Team #3 answered back by winning 4 points. As the previous matches, it came to the third game again, and there was some fine bowling Team #20 continued their fine bowling and advanced. Team #3 placed 4th.

The second match between the second seed, Team #6 (Ryan Okamoto, Jeff Reyes, Jon Reyes and Jasmin Singson) and Team #20 went underway. Team #6 took command and won 5 points, second game another 5 points and had to go into third game for the one point needed. The third game started with Belinda’s 215 game winning her point but Jasmin with her 186 got her point and the game was stopped. Team #20 placed 3rd.

Team #6, overall second seed team, advanced to the championship match to face the top seeded team, Team #5, Shawn Willey, Emma Johnson, Danny Tokudomi, Nick Rodriguez. First game, Team #5 won five points with Shawn’s 215, Emma 182, Nick 216.

Team #6, Jeff had the lone point with his 220 game. The second game, Team #6 battled their way to get four points and the match went into the third game that could go either way. The pins differential between the two teams was only 15 making this match a very thrilling one till the last ball was thrown. Shawn continued her hot bowling (215, 200, 214) winning her point, Emma stepped up a notch to win hers, 199 and Danny winning his. Jeff had a bad break in the tenth frame getting a big split. Team #6 placed 2nd.

ATTENTION BOWLING LEGENDS

By Don Cecil
ALHAMBRA — I have great news for everyone. One of the nicest people I have ever known in the bowling industry has been honored by the National Bowling Writers, given the Alberta E. Crowe Award for Bowling Promotion; traveling to Tulsa, Oklahoma — our own Carol Mancini of the California/Western Bowling News.

Carol has been in the game of bowling for many years. Nobody deserves this honor more—I take my hat off to you, beautiful lady. You have worked very hard to deserve this honor.

I go back a lot of years with Carol. Back in the 1960's I first met her and her former husband Nick Mancini, a beautiful couple that worked very hard at this wonderful game of American tenpins—job well done over all these years. You are a very special lady!

Carol works very hard at her job at Del Rio Lanes for Charlie Kinstler, the owner of Del Rio, Keystone and Forest Lanes, the home of the Bowling Legends event on July 3rd and 4th, 2005. This will be a very special weekend for everybody.

Working with Carol and Mike Camaratta of Del Rio has been a very nice working arrangement for me. We all are striving to make this event one to remember for many years.

All of the great bowling legends, still around, will be invited to participate along with their wives and children. Members of the press will also be there. And above all, the six members to be honored guests: Bill Bunetta, Harry Grant, Glenn Allison, Barry Asher, Rex Golobic former BPAA President and foremost Mr. Dick Stoeffler will be the sixth honored guest.

God Bless.

TOURNAMENT NOTES FROM DAVID WALKER

I would like to thank Bob Knuesel and his staff at Brunswick West Covina Lanes. He is one of the best managers I have dealt with giving tournaments. He put out a good shot for the bowlers. Special thanks to Dwayne Adams and Jennifer Osti for helping me with the tournament. We will be doing this again next month and the center will give us more lanes so we can have two teams per pair. And thanks to BOWLERS DEPOT WEST COVINA for sponsoring the tournament.

Happy Mothers Day

Tulsa Time

by Jim Goodwin

As we traveled from North Texas up the highway toward Oklahoma, the daffodils and bluebonnets faded into Indian blankets and paintbrushes. Springtime in this region of our beautiful country is fragrant and colorful; an awakening that sends the message ‘all is well’ and when we arrived at WIBC’s final convention and tournament in the beautiful green rolling hills of Tulsa, we knew that all is well in our bowling world. Attending both the opening ceremony of the WIBC tournament and the convention assured us that good times are coming for our game.

Indeed, one chapter of bowling’s rich history is closing, but the game is strong and vibrant, and it has a long history and a solid foundation upon which to build a brighter tomorrow.

The WIBC Convention was billed as ‘Celebrate WIBC’, and 4000 women had the time of their lives saying so long to WIBC and hello to USBC. They laughed, they cried, they sang and danced. They hugged each other, embraced their bountiful history, and said collectively, ‘bring it on’ to whatever the future will provide.

After seeing the emotion and hearing the heartfelt thanks of two young WIBC members, WIBC President Sylvia Broyles said, ‘If this is an example of our future, we have absolutely nothing to worry about.’ Her comment followed very poignant speeches by Bev Ortner Award winner Jada Mocaby and Alberta Crowe Star of Tomorrow honoree Cassie Leuthold. These two young women from the heartland of America (Indiana and South Dakota) were inspiring. They will never forget their walk down the center isle in Tulsa, and those of us fortunate enough to witness it will long remember their genuine gratitude and pride.

Imagine being a young person in front of 4000 people for the first time. Jada handled it with good humor and was amazingly funny and sincere – she may have a future in public speaking. “I looked on the internet for a bowling joke, but I couldn’t find one. I guess no one thinks bowling is funny,” she said.

Cassie read her well thought out speech between tears and strong words of thanks for family and the sport. “Bowling has given me a purpose in life,” she said. She wants to be a pro someday. I hope the tour returns for her, and others like her.

Many more memories of this final WIBC celebration will stay with us for a long time – the sincere thanks from Leanne Taylor, Mistress of Ceremonies at the opening of the tournament at Riverlanes. Taylor, local television anchor and a recent breast cancer survivor (she was proud to show off her new hair), thanked WIBC for its part in helping the Susan G. Komen foundation.

We’ll also remember Tulsa WBA President Brenda Marshall’s incredible effort and enthusiasm. She was the driving force behind Tulsa’s bid for the event.

Watching 4000 delegates twirl pink light sticks in the darkened auditorium to symbolize that there is a light of hope for breast cancer victims was also very moving, as was the tribute to those lost in the past year, and the presentation of this year’s $810,000 check to the Susan G. Komen Foundation, bringing the WIBC total for the past five years to almost $4 million.

The final WIBC Hall of Fame ceremony honored two outstanding women – Sylvia Broyles and Anne Marie Duggan. Broyles, the last WIBC President, was instrumental in the creation of the new USBC, and Duggan, who won her first tournament as a pro and 15 titles during her career, may be the most versatile player ever in the women’s pro ranks.

“Never, never, never in my wildest dreams did I ever think something like this could happen for me,” Broyles said in her speech. Her WIBC career has been relatively short compared to other WIBC presidents, but she had the courage to change the status quo for the greater good of the game, and her strong leadership has made bowling better. She thanked her family for allowing her to pursue her dreams for bowling, and her extended bowling family for their support along the way.

Duggan also spoke of family. She said she got her natural talent from her mom who was also a good bowler, and her dad made her believe in herself. “My father always spoke the truth, and he told me I could be here one day, and I believed him,” she said. She also thanked her husband Pat for teaching her the finer points of the game and for coaching her. “My father convinced me I had talent, and my husband brought it out,” she said.

The final part of the WIBC Convention officially closed an 88-year history of women’s bowling as seen through the minds and hearts of thousands who have contributed to WIBC’s success. The ABC and WIBC flags are now retired and the new USBC banner waves over the game for the future. The goodbyes have been said, the tears have been shed, and now a new era begins.

What does the future hold for our great game? No one can predict exactly, but with over a century of experience as a foundation to build on, bowling’s leaders are prepared and willing to face all challenges that lie ahead. Bring It On!

Editors note: I was there. Wasn’t it great? Thanks for the article.

Steve Schroeder Cleans Up On Dreaded Dry Round 2 Condition!

by Randy Myers

DOWNEY—What a difference a week makes! After seeing numerous 300's and a few 800 sets rolled in the past month or so, we finally got a taste of Dry Round reality on Monday and boy did it take its toll. Only Steve "Spare Shooter" Schroeder was able to conquer the tough conditions and not have an open the entire night. Even more amazing is that Steve converted a ton of spares in rolling 194, 206, and 205 for a 605 set. Great shot making Steve! With Steve leading the way, Transcon Logistics was able to increase their overall lead for the #1 seed by defeating T.D. Rowe 3 games to 1. Larry Gray pitched in with a nice 585, while Jeff Hickenbottom 596 & Derek Lee 557 paced the Rowe fo. The next match had Reback's Plumbing tripping up Pro Approach – Lakewood 3 games to 1 to move into the 2nd seed position. Jason "Magilla" Carrillo led the winners with 592, while Billy Myers Jr. shot 593 to pace the Pro Approach – Lakewood team.

In other action involving Round Winners, Frank "I don't bowl" Barefoot Jr. fired 237/217/ 621 to lead his STRIKE CONNECTION team to a 3-1 win over Al's Bar Supply. John Mongillo 610 and Phillip LeBaquin 572 were tops for Al's, and Tony Zuniga with 577 chipped in for STRIKE CONNECTION. Down on 1&2, the battle of the DEPOTS between Lake Forest and West Covina fizzled out early both teams struggled all night. West Covina swept past the Lake Forest foursome 4 games to zilch with Leonard Ruiz Jr. pacing his team and the pair with 560. The Wild Card roll-off was just that, WILD! The first game between Etonic and Linder Insurance saw Linder jump out to a 70 pin advantage after four frames only to see Etonic come back and win by 22. The next game was even more exciting as anchor bowlers Nick Smith and Greg Jackson were left to decide the game. Both bowlers threw strikes and then followed up with brooklyns to make it a one-pin game with one shot left for each. Nick Smith went high for a 7-count split for Linders to seemingly hand the game to Greg and Etonic. However, with such dry lanes, a little less speed can make a huge difference and it did as Greg went wide right for a five count and a one pin victory for Linders. Linder Insurance went on to win game three and totals for a 3-1 victory. James Mowrer led Etonic with 255/609 and Nick Smith 224/609 paced Linder Insurance.

The rest of the league went as follows: Tri Star Vending split with J.C. Spas 2 games apiece, Family Amusement swept past Boulevard Brakes 4-0 behind the straight shooting Lee Liu 595, and Gary "no hand" Duran 575. Jason Hoppe "Go Lucky" was tops for Boulevard with 564.

Herbert Jones 244/581 led Team Storm to a split with Pro Approach-Downey who were paced by Mike Calvillo 220/558, and Threadworks sewed up a sweep of Western Pacific behind the league leading Anthony Carlton Jr. with 631. New PBA champ Vayle Floria shot 551 to lead his Royal Alliance team to a 3 games to 1 victory over Overboost.com who got their lone win in game 2 behind the huge 268 game of Joe Lane. Finally, down on the end pair of 15 & 16, the seasoned veteran teams of Parke Industries and Prudential-Picarelli battled it out with Prudential pulling out a 3-1 victory behind the consistent team effort of Everett Nishikawa 554, Bill Talbott 549, and John Chapman 548. Earl Guy pace Parke with 556.

Back on the high side of the house, Freek Racing took four games from The Immel Team with Charlie Kinstler 229/614 and Chris Makrogious 218/587 leading the way. Frank Bellinder was tops for The Immel Team with 573. George Parker with 592 led his Exacticator Vise team to a 3-1 victory over Circle Athletics who were paced by Joe Miles with 560. In the "battle of the blinds", Myke Strafford with a huge 245/581 led the way for America's Lending in sweeping Driver Insurance. Both teams bowled with two blind scores so it was Doubles Night at Del Rio for these two. The HIGH side was definitely the High Side this night as 21 of 40 bowlers managed to break deuce for at least one game, while on the Low Side, we watched less than 30% (17 of 60) of the bowlers reach the 200 plateau. As I mentioned earlier, what a difference a week makes! Next week a 200 game will get you nothing but ridicule as the oil will be in abundance with the 3rd Round condition.

The side pots were obviously down from last week as the Round Two shot awards accurate shot making compared to the strike fest we've been seeing. Game 1 went to Herbert Jones with 244 with Raul "Spanky" Rosales garnering 2nd with a below his average 208. Game 2 went to Joe "I own this" Lane with a great 268 while Frank Barefoot Jr. followed for 2nd with 237. Game 3 was all Mr. Lee, as Derek the D fired a nice 235 to capture the 3rd game and Super Side pots for a nice $495 payoff. John Chapman was 2nd with 213 and Frank Barefoot Jr. took series with 621. Steve Schroeder made $290 by merely filling all 30 frames. Congratulations to all the Side Pot winners!

Next week should see much higher games, and less shiny bowling balls so be sure to come on down and see the best bowlers in So Cal battle it out. The action starts at 9 pm next Monday at Del Rio Lanes in Downey so be sure to be there. Thanks for checking in once again!

Everett Nishikawa Wins ABT Orange County Title and $1600 at Linbrook Bowl

ANAHEIM—Everett Nishikawa won the Amateur Bowlers Tour (ABT) Championship at Linbrook Bowl last Saturday, April 30, 2005 during our one-day 4 game Beat-the-Board tournament. Everett showed up for our 2PM squad and shot games of 194-242-258-287 with handicap good for a series total of 981 and the $900 1st place prize. Everett was also in the optional Win, Place, and Show Pot, which gave him an additional $700 for a total of $1600 dollars from this Saturday. Paul Passarino of Lakeside shot a fine 942 four game handicap series to finish in second place for $450 plus $400 from the Win, Place, and Show Pot for a total of $850 dollars. In third place was Adam Drozdz of North Hollywood. Adam shot a 932 and got $200 dollars plus $300 from the Win, Place, and Show Pot for a total of $500 for his efforts.

Our newest Champion, Everett Nishikawa is 58 years old and is a Project Engineer at Boeing. He is married to a wonderful lady, Jayne, who is also an ABT member. They have two sons, Gary who is 34 and David, who is 31. Everett has been bowling for about 40 years and keeps a very busy schedule during the week with his bowling. He bowls in the ABT league on Friday nights at Brunswick Orange Bowl, in the Sansei League at Concourse on Thurs. nights, the 606 TAT Classic at AMF Carter Lanes on Tues. nights, and the 790 Brunswick Invitational at Del Rio Lanes on Monday nights. He has a high game of 300 and a high series of 814 to his credit. He used a Storm Depth Charge bowling ball drilled by Steve Oba at Oba’s Bowling Supply in Brea. Everett wanted to thank his friend Joe Wilhite for helping him with his game and coaching him lately and his wife Jayne for all her love and support. Everett plans on using his prize money to have a good time at the USBC National Tournament in Baton Rouge later this month. Everett wanted to thank Linbrook Bowl for hosting the tournament this Saturday and the Amateur Bowlers Tour-Orange County Branch staff for running an outstanding tournament week after week.

We drew the Mystery Pot of Gold game number and score after our final squad. Game #1 and 144 were drawn for this week. There was no winner for $1000 dollars. One bowler did shoot the score of 144 with handicap in game #1, but they were not in the Mystery Pot. The second chance score was 119 with handicap in game #1. No one shot 119 with handicap in Game #1, so there was no winner for $500 dollars. The third chance score drawn was 200 with handicap in Game #1. No one shot 200 with handicap in Game #1, so there was no winner for $250 and the Mystery Pot of Gold carries over to next week. Remember, the Mystery Pot of Gold is available to all members (Classic and Masters) and only costs $5 for a chance at $1000 dollars.

The ABT staff and membership would like to thank the management and staff at Linbrook Bowl for hosting our tournament last Saturday. Our next scheduled event will be this weekend, on Saturday, May 7, 2005 at Keystone Lanes. This will be a special 4 game Beat-the-Board Classic and Masters Combined Singles tournament format. All members (Classic and Masters) are eligible. Handicap will be 80% of 225 for this tournament. Squad times

Thoughts While Waiting My Turn

by Hy Skorin
IF I DIDN’T BOWL, WHAT WOULD I DO
ALL THE THINGS I EVER WANTED TO.
I’D THINK ABOUT A FAR AWAY LAND,
AND BOOK A FLIGHT TO HINDUSTAN.
THEN IF I FOUND THAT WOULDN’T DO,
I’D SIGN ON A FREIGHTER TO TIMBUKTU.
I’D TAKE ALL THE FAMILY TO THE TAJ MAHAL,
THEN DRESS IN HIGH STYLE, GO TO THE PRESIDENTS BALL,
AND WHILE I WAS THERE I’D SERVE IN THE SENATE,
BUT NOT FOR LONG, JUST A PART TIME TENANT.
I’D FLY A LEAR JET THROUGH HOWLING RAIN,
TO REACH THE EYE OF A HURRICANE.
ON A HOT AIR BALLOON, I’D SOAR TO THE MOON, GRAB THE TAIL OF A COMET, BE BACK ABOUT NOON.
I’D READ A BOOK ABOUT SAILING, AND GET A NOTION
TO PADDLE A CANOE ACROSS THE INDIAN OCEAN.
IF THAT DIDN’T PUT OUT THE FIRE IN MY GUT, I’D SAFARI TO EGYPT AND LOOK UP KING TUT.
I’D GO TO VEGAS, WAIT FOR THE DICE,
DROP A BILL ON THE TABLE, LET IT RIDE TWICE.
NOW I’M INTO HOUSE MONEY, JUST ONE MORE SEVEN,
THEIR BOUNCING AROUND, MY GOD ITS ELEVEN!
TO THE HOUSE MAN I’D TURN AND SAY WITH A GRIN, TAKE ALL OF MY CHIPS, I’M CASHING’EM IN!
AS THEY STACK UP MY WINNINGS, IT GIVES ME THE CHILLS, CAUSE ALL OF THIS MONEY WILL COVER MY BILLS!
I’D BUY SOME LAND AND PLANT A BIG FIELD
AND SEE HOW MUCH IT COULD POSSIBLY YIELD.
I’D PLANT IT IN GRAINS-RYE, BARLEY, AND WHEAT
THEN GRIND THEM ALL UP, MAKE GOOD THINGS TO EAT.
I’D WORK IN A LAB, FIND A CURE FOR CANCER.
THEN MUSH UP NORTH AND SADDLE UP DANCER
TO PRANCE THROUGH THE NIGHT, FILL CHIMNEYS WITH TOYS
FOR ALL THOSE GOOD LITTLE GIRLS AND BOYS.
I’D SIGN OUT A BOOK, READ IT COVER TO COVER
AND WHEN I WAS FINISHED, GO GET ANOTHER.
THEN AFTER THAT, WHEN I WAS THROUGH,
I’D SAY TO MYSELF, I COULD WRITE ONE TOO.
I’D STAR IN A MOVIE, THAT WOULDN’T BE HARD
AND I’D PROBABLY WIN THE ACADEMY AWARD!
I’D READ A STORY BY THE AUTHOR STUDS TERKEL
THEN STEER A SUB ‘NEATH THE ANTARCTIC CIRCLE.
I’D STAR FOR THE YANKEE’S, EVERY POSITION I’D HANDLE,
THEN SURELY THE FAN’S WOULD FORGET ABOUT MANTLE.
I’D DRINK ALL THE WINE I COULD POSSIBLY GUZZLE,
THEN WASTE A WHOLE DAY ON A CROSSWORD PUZZLE.
AND THEN I’D WONDER IF I POSSIBLY COULD,
TRY MY LUCK AT CLIMBING A GIANT REDWOOD,
AND NOT MAKE A STOP, GO CLEAR TO THE TOP,
THEN WONDER HOW LONG HAS THIS MARVEL STOOD.
I’D JOURNEY BACK HOME, SEE ALL THE OLD PLACES
AND THINK OF OLD FRIENDS, REMEMBER THEIR FACES.
HANGTOWN IT WAS CALLED, IN AN EARLIER TIME,
AND THAT’S WHAT YOU GOT FOR COMMITTING A CRIME.
ONE THING I WOULD DO, IF I MAY BE SO BOLD, I’D MAKE IT A CRIME TO BE PUT ON HOLD!
I’D RIDE WITH JOHN WAYNE ON A CATTLE DRIVE
AND THEN AFTER THAT, IF STILL ALIVE,
I’D PULL SHOTGUN FOR THE PONY EXPRESS.
AND I THINK THAT WOULD DO IT, MORE OR LESS.
BECAUSE I MUST TELL YOU THE UNVARNISHED TRUTH,
I HAVE SADLY AND SURELY RUN OUT OF YOUTH.
ALL OF THESE THINGS I COULD NEVER ENDEAVOR
AS I SPENT ALL THOSE YEARS IN A BOWLING CENTER!
BUT FALLS IN THE AIR, THE LEAVES ARE TURNING
AND I FEEL A STIRRING, THAT SAME OLD YEARNING, TO THE PRO SHOP I’D GO, CHECK THE LATEST EDITION
OF A BALL THAT HOOKS ON OILY CONDITION.
I’D GET A NEW TOWEL, SHINE MY BALL REAL SLICK,
AND GET A SLID-SOCK SO MY SHOE WOULDN’T STICK.
MAKE A NOTE TO STICK BY MY EGGS IN THE MORNING
TO STOP AT THE CENTER, CHECK WHAT LEAGUES ARE FORMING.
I’D PRACTICE A LITTLE, WOULDN’T DO ANY GOOD,
HECK, I CAN SHOOT 180 WITH A BALL MADE OF WOOD!
ON A TEAM THEY WOULD PUT ME, AND I’D BE ANXIOUS TO SEE WHAT A MIXED-BAG MY PARTNERS WILL BE.
ONE’S A WISKERED OLD FELLOW, LOOKS OLDER THAN EARTH
AND I THINK TO MYSELF WHAT HIS VALUE IS WORTH.
THEN A VERY NICE LADY, I’D SAY FIFTY OR MORE,
SHE WILL BE CAPTAIN, AND SHE WILL KEEP SCORE.
NOW THE LAST ONE’S A GIRL, SHE CAUSED ME TO STARE
AT WHAT KIND OF GUNK DOES SHE PUT ON HER HAIR.
I THOUGHT AND I THOUGHT, AND I HAD TO DECIDE
WHAT SHE REMINDED ME OF WAS FRANKENSTEIN’S BRIDE!
SHE WORE LOW RIDER JEAN’S, SHOWED A LOT OF TATOOS, IN HER HAND’S A SPORTS BOTTLE, LORD I HOPE ITS NOT BOOZE.
WE MUST HAVE A NAME, JUST ANY WON’T DO,
I’D LIKE TO SUGGEST, “WE DON’T HAVE A CLUE.”
BUT ITS ONLY NINE MONTHS, IT MAY NOT BE A BUMMER, THEN I’LL DO IT ALL OVER, GET READY FOR SUMMER.
BUT BEFORE IT STARTS, I’VE THOUGHT A LOT
AND WHY NOT I SAID, I’LL GIVE IT A SHOT
TO MAKE THEM ABOLISH, CLEAR OFF THE MAP
THAT GUT WRENCHING, GOD AWFUL, TEN PIN TAP!
AND SO ON AND ON, AS THE SEASON’S ROLL
IF MY BODY IS WILLING, I’LL CONTINUE TO BOWL.
I’LL LACE UP MY SHOES, HUG EVERY GIRL,
SLIDE UP TO THE LINE, GIVE IT A WHIRL.
IF THE DAY EVER COMES, WHEN ON A LANE I MAY DROP
LET NO ONE ASK FOR THE ACTION TO STOP.
FOR I WANT TO BE HEARING, DURING MY FALL,
THE CRACK OF THE PINS AND THE ROLL OF THE BALL!
BUT THERE’S ONE THING MORE, AND THEN I’M QUITE CERTAIN,
YOU CAN AT LAST RING DOWN THE CURTAIN,
IS TO SEE OUR DEAR BOY, WHO GOD TOOK AWAY
FOR JUST AN HOUR, MAYBE A DAY.
HE’D DRIVE UP IN HIS ‘CUDA, WALK IN THE DOOR,
AND HE’D STILL BE YOUNG, AS HE WAS BEFORE.
WE’D TRY TO FILL IN THE YEAR’S IN BETWEEN,
AND HE’D TELL US OF SIGHTS THAT WE’VE NEVER SEEN
HE’D ASK OF OLD FRIEND’S, THE ONE’S WHO STAYED TRUE, WE’D SAY THEY ARE QUITE WELL
AND STILL THINK ABOUT YOU.
HE’D SAY HE HAD LONGED TO SEE US AGAIN,
AND LONG FORGOTTEN THE PAIN HE WAS IN.
WE WOULD TALK FOR AWHILE, SOME CASUAL CHATTER
BUT IT WAS PLAIN TO SEE THAT SOMETHING’S THE MATTER.
A LITTLE TEAR IN HIS EYE, AS IF HE WANTED TO SAY
OH, MOM AND DAD, HOW I WISH I COULD STAY
CAUSE I MISS YOU SO MUCH, AND I REMEMBER EACH DAY
HOW YOUR LOVE WAS MY COMFORT AS I DRIFTED AWAY.
THEN HE’D TURN TO GO, AND WITH HIS LITTLE BOY SMILE, SAID, I’LL SEE YOU BOTH, IN A LITTLE WHILE.
