Sandelin Wins Battle Over Hall of Famer Virginia Norton to Claim USBC Senior Queens Title

HUNTERSVILLE, N.C. - Lucy Sandelin of Tampa, Fla., charged out of the contenders bracket Wednesday to race away with the United States Bowling Congress Senior Queens title at Northcross Lanes.

In a showdown between USBC Hall of Famers, the once-beaten Sandelin overwhelmed previously undefeated Virginia Norton of Cypress, Calif., 680-563 and 645-546, to win the double-elimination title contest.

Sandelin, a Senior Queens "rookie" at age 50, earned $4,500 while Norton took home $2,800 as runner-up.

Sandelin was in control from the start, rolling a 257 out of the gate while Norton struggled with her line to the pocket all day.

"I needed a 'get out of jail free' card, but never got one," Norton said. "Not that it would have mattered. Lucy bowled great."

"As long as I kept my balance, I felt like I could make a good shot," Sandelin said. "If it carried, great. If not, I made my spares. It was just me against the lane. I had key words I kept saying to myself. It was part of our training when I was on Team USA, and it worked. I could easily have started looking ahead, but stayed in the here-and-now, and it kept me focused."

For Sandelin, the Senior Queens tiara was a monumental triumph in more ways than one.

"I stopped bowling completely for two years," she said. "I got burned out after the 2003 WTBA World Championships in Malaysia. I was just physically and mentally drained. And then, in January 2005, I was diagnosed with fallopian tube cancer, so I took another year going through chemotherapy and getting well."

With her 50th birthday on the horizon, she decided it was time to get involved again.

"I kept coaching my high school bowling group during that time, which kept me involved in the sport, but I decided I had an opportunity to be a rookie in Senior Queens - you only turn 50 once - and I thought it would be fun," Sandelin said. "Last November I started getting getting ready. I joined a handicap league and I started doing private lessons, and I started bowling better. I think it was because when you're coaching, you focus on fundamentals and I started listening to myself."

"The key in coming to the Senior Queens was I just wanted to have fun. I didn't need to do it. I didn't need to win. Whatever happened today was OK."

"Virginia is awesome, such a class bowler,".

Kulick Claims USBC Queens Title

MATTHEWS, N.C. - Kelly Kulick describes the past year as the most grueling of her life. All of her frustration, hard work and patience paid off Wednesday as she won the 2007 United States Bowling Congress Queens.

Kulick of Union, N.J., who a year ago made history by becoming the first woman to earn a full-time exemption on the Denny's Professional Bowlers Association Tour, defeated Diandra Asbaty of Chicago 192-143 at AMF Carolina Lanes to win the biggest and most prestigious title in women's bowling.

"I've worked very hard at my game for a long time," Kulick said. "I've had a full year of practice and that was a big time advantage. After the year that I've had, this is the icing on the cake. This is the big blowout of the candle."

Kulick vaulted into the lead in the championship match after Asbaty left a 3-4-6-7-10 split in the eighth frame. Asbaty then left another split in the ninth frame, allowing Kulick to step up and seal the victory with two strikes.

"I didn't even look at the scoreboard, but after she left those splits I knew I just needed to step up and nail a couple shots," Kulick said.

"That strike on the left lane in the eighth frame really put it away."

Asbaty, a two-time U.S. Amateur champion and nine-time Team USA member, said she never got comfortable in the championship match.

"I just didn't line up right and I didn't make good decisions," Asbaty said. "I just didn't get comfortable and with only one game for a title it's very important to get comfortable."

On the way to the title, Kulick defeated three-time Queens champion Wendy Macpherson of Henderson, Nev., and then knocked off Kristal Scott of Lawrence, Kan., in the semifinal. In the opening match, Macpherson advanced by defeating Team USA's Shannon O'Keefe of Rochester, N.Y.

Kulick took home $30,000 for first place in addition to the Queens tiara, pendant and crystal trophy. Asbaty earned $18,000 for second.

The USBC Queens, which is presented by Eldorado, Silver Legacy and Circus Circus, featured a field of 344 of the top female bowlers in the world competing for a total prize fund of $200,000. The event will be re-broadcast on ESPN at 1 p.m. on May 20. For complete coverage of the USBC Queens, including stories, results and photos, visit bowl.com.

Corky De Maio San Bernardino's Greatest Bowler Nears 50th Anniversary

by Frank Weiler

Next season will mark 50 years as a kegger for Citrus Belt Hall of Famer Corky De Maio. He never bowled as a youth, and only tried the sport after taking a part time job at Citrus Belt Lanes in the late 1950s. It was the best thing he ever did, meeting Shirley, his wife, the love of his life while working the desk.

As a result of his bowling job Corky started practicing, sometimes bowling ten or more games after league play. Within two years he rolled his first 300 with an ACE rubber ball. Since that 1960 perfecto he has rolled over 30 certified (formerly sanctioned) perfect games and over 50 counting those in non-league play. He has ten 800's (three certified), with a 847 being his high. The 847 was bowled with a NU-LINE Extreme ball. Being an original stockholder in the NU-LINE company, DeMaio used their equipment for several years. His all-time favorite ball is the NU-LINE Excalibur.

One of the highlights of De Maio's career was winning two of three games from Billy Welu in a 1960's match. He averaged about 220 to defeat Welu, after "shooting" over 800 in three practice games before the match. It was Billy Welu who changed De Maio from a full roller to a three quarter roller, to his advantage.

In addition to beating Welu, De Maio has won over twenty Super Senior Tour or West Coast Senior Tour titles, a Citrus Belt Senior Masters title, four Citrus Belt Senior Scratch All-Events titles (three consecutive), and close to twenty Citrus Belt regular and senior titles. He holds the record for Citrus Belt senior titles with 13. There have been dozens of other titles including a win in a 1990 PBA qualifying event. Did I mention 46 years of averaging 200 or better! Now you know why De Maio is San Bernardino's greatest bowler of all time.

Everyone who has ever bowled against Corky in match play knows there is no one better in the clutch. He doesn't make any mistakes, is a master at reading lanes and making adjustments.

De Maio became a ball driller in 1972 at Del Rosa Lanes. He worked in the pro-shop there until 1979. In 1980 he opened a pro-shop in his garage and has been there ever since. He is the premier ball driller in the inland empire, with a reputation for knowing more about bowling balls, surfaces and layouts than anyone. Scratch bowlers from throughout southern California drive a hundred or more miles to his pro-shop to have a ball drilled.

With all that he has accomplished, Corky feels the best bowler in the De Maio family will ultimately be his granddaughter Demi. As a twelve year old, she recently won the Del Rosa Lanes junior bowler of the year tourney.

Corky would like to thank his children (Kenny, Chris, and Darren) and lovely wife Shirley for supporting him through the years. Thank you California Bowling News for supporting our Citrus Belt bowlers.

Jowdy's Journal

by John Jowdy

In a poll conducted by International Bowlers Journal, John Berglund, Executive Director of the Bowling Proprietors Association of America, was chosen as the most influential individual in bowling.

Berglund's choice was not surprising to me. I was among the select group to cast a vote. In my judgment, the choice of the personable BPAA honcho was a no-brainer.

Who is John Berglund ? How did they find him? And what has he brought to the BPAA?

John Berglund received a B.A., History from Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, Ind., and his J.D., Law from the University of San Diego School of Law. He is married and has two children.

John F. Berglund serves as the Executive Director for the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America, an association of over 3,200 bowling centers throughout the United States and internationally. Additionally, he serves as the President of Strike Ten Entertainment as well as Executive Director of the International Bowling Pro Shops and Instructors (IBPSIA) both headquartered in Arlington, Texas.

Prior to his present position, he had an extensive background in trade association management, including his role as Executive Director for the Minnesota Bowling Proprietors Association, which is affiliated with the BPAA.

Among many of his association-related honors and activities are the following:

- Award of Excellence for Education and Training—Minnesota Society of Association Executives.
- Award of Excellence for Magazine/Journal—Minnesota Society of Association Executives.
- Top Honors, Gold Circle Award, Most Improved Magazine—American Society of Association Executives.
- Authored Article on "Trade Show Success"—American Management Magazine.
- Seminar Presenter, "Developing an Effective Position Paper" – The ASAE Management Conference.

This impressive resume' is further enhanced by the incredible success he has had in uniting the principal integers of bowling; namely the manufacturers, the United States Bowling Congress, and the Professional Bowlers Association. Although some prophets of doom predict a gloomy outlook, the future of the game looks encouraging, simply due to the fact that Mr.Berglund has achieved what no other individual in bowling has ever accomplished. He is surely responsible for the compatibility, harmony, rapport and unity that currently exist among the major forces of the bowling industry; above all, UNITY that transcends into the fulfillment of one common goal ... the promotion of bowling for the betterment of the game. More important, John Berglund has accomplished this feat in a mere span of five years!

Personally, I can attest to John Berglund's communicable personality. I've had the pleasure of collaborating with John on several projects and have never met anyone in the upper echelon of any organization who was so congenial and cooperative.

One of the most brilliant coups Mr. Berglund engineered was taking on board the International Bowling Pro Shops Instructional Association. (IBPSIA) This group, with a membership of 500 or so, was organized to provide education, communication, and recognition for bowling pro shop professionals and instructors. They provide a foundation for the advancement of the worldwide bowling industry. IBPSIA has become one of the most important participants in Bowl Expo.... and Bowl Expo has absolutely mushroomed under Berglund's supervision.

Another feather to his cap is that he persuaded the Bowling Writers Association of America to hold their convention in conjunction with Bowl Expo. For over 50 years, the BWAA held their convention in conjunction with the ABC convention. The BWAA membership felt it was time for a change. Seizing the opportunity, Berglund made the BWAA an offer they couldn't refuse. The BWAA membership voted to accept Mr. Berglund's proposal and, as expected, both parties benefited from the agreement, particularly the BPAA. How better could the BPAA publicize Bowl Expo than having over 50 bowling writers in attendance?

In the political arena, because of his unique ability to interact with allies and foes alike, Ronald Reagan established a legacy as "The Great Communicator"

In the bowling world, John Bergland is well on his way to establishing his own reputation as the "Great Communicator"!

Murillo Shoots First 600 Series In Saturday Linbrook Juniors

ANAHEIM — Bowling in the Saturday Linbrook Juniors, Nick Murillo put together three great games bowling his first ever 600 series! Nick bowled scores of 193-218-198 for a fantastic 609 series. Nick led the leagues scoring pace with his series! Michael Nakahara had a great second game with 234 to help him shoot 600 even. Other 200 games were bowled by Aaron Wilson 201-206 and Mark McLeod 206.

Jotavi Ulu had an awesome day in the Bumper Busters bowling 112-125. Other high scores were bowled by Isaiah Ulu 79-107, Alison Hong 100-83, Deana Gomez 93-97-92 and Jace Keeling 71-95.

Nicole Nickeson bowled her first 500 series in the Thursday Linbrook Juniors. Nicole bowled some fantastic scores of 146-172-199 for a 517 series. Andrew Stewart had the high game of the day with 246. Other 200 games were bowled by Aaron Wilson 221, Robert Albrecht 207 and Nick Murillo 204.

Kevin Hopkinson bowled the high game of the day in the Junior Scratch Singles. Kevin strung some strikes together for a 223 game. Valerie Matsumoto tossed a 211 followed by Abbott Hatch and Mark McLeod with 210 and Aaron Wilson with 200-203.

Great bowling to all of our juniors! I look forward to some more high scores this week!

West Coast Jr. Elims

by David Gordon
NORWALK – Welcome back to another week of tracking your favorite Elims bowler, here at Keystone Lanes. Last Saturday was the final day to join this summer program and two more were brought on board just under the deadline. Some very nice scoring was on hand as some tested the low side during make-ups, while our session and subsequent pre-bowls were up on the high side.

In the normal session we find Preston Fukumizu leading the day, with reportable scoring of 216-228-234/877. Joining the 800 club was Mark Curtis 248-259/873, Joey Marino 248-256/873, Brent Shern 217-200-223/835, Eddie Sayles 230-232/826, and Eric Milne 212-205-226/817. Now that's the way to bowl gentlemen, you'll have to teach me some day. Additional scores came in from Michael Gaylor 224-204/757, Jon Morales 216/700, and Kim Ferdnance 204.

We had quite a number of bowlers missing due to Pepsi State finals up north and I hope everyone did well. We made up for it with a number of make-ups and pre-bowls. Some notables from the make-ups were Sayles 230/771 and Shern 227/743. But the one that really took advantage to catch up by bowling two make-up sessions was Fukumizu. One session included 200-269/878, while the other session he posted 227-211-247/876. Now that's catching up in a hurry and big time.

We also had some very nice pre-bowls, but that will have to wait until that week is posted. To tease you a little though, let's just say the high series mark will be over 1000 for four games.

This coming Saturday will be session 4 and 5. That's right a double session with the first one starting off at 12:30. The second session is scheduled for our normal 2:00 start. That means that bowlers need to be on time and ready to bowl at 12:30. Also remember that the last two weeks of the season needs to be paid this Saturday. However, if this poses a hardship, please let me know immediately.

Everyone, have a good week with lots of rest and practice. I'll see you on Saturday.

Cerritos Jrs

CERRITOS—Before we get to those high scores. Just a reminder that the "Youth Meets the Community" Tournament is next week May 12th, directly after bowling. Be sure all tickets and monies are turned in prior to the tournament.

In the Lil Raiders it was Elijah J-Church leading the way with a 85-127-212, Garrett Lee following with a 97-185, and Jarred Dee bowled a 95-175. Isabel Manalo had a 71-94-165, Kaitlyn Johnston bowled a 82-151.

In the Rookies it was Sebastian Militant who sat the pace, bowling a 117-100-96-313, Tyler Sweet kept that pace going by bowling a 109-293, and Sean Dantas had no problem with the pace either, bowling a 120-290. Kaila Chen bowled a 124-120-97-341, April Ramirez fired herself a 108-255, and Kris Liberatore bowled a 90-224.

The Striking Force division had some pin smashing scores. Ryan Jocson bowled a 125-156-141-422, Robert Lim had a 169-403, and Spencer Van Rijbergen bowled a 145-393. Kyli Selley was on fire today. She bowled a 132-144-132-408, Akeyla Basto kept those fires burning by bowling a 148-406, and Tasha Jansen followed suit by bowling a 134-354.

The Senior division were on their mark today. Glenn Gimeno bowled a 174-171-212-557, Nick Mansfield bowled a 211-549, and Buddy Lucas bowled a 214-535. Lizzy Raya started things off for the girls. Lizzy bowled a 149-190-163-442, Devanie Dollard had a 116-356, and Alexis Adinolfi bowled a 129-321. Good luck and best wishes goes out to those who are bowling in the Pepsi Finals this weekend. Great Bowling Every-one!

Ed Harris Closes The Show

by Roberta McNaught

ANAHEIM—As the curtain comes down on the So. Cal. 590 Classic season, Ed Harris once again was the leading man. His performance of 214, 247, 257, 243, led to an academy award winning 961 series.

Leading the league most of the last half of the season, Team #8, Janine Ditch, Fred Voysey and E.J. Rogers only had to win 2 of the 20 points to lock up first place. Team #6 the “Giddy Ups” came in with a different idea. Winning all 15 points the first 3 games, Al Lara, Karen Bagnall and Rod Cantrell had their eyes & mind set on a sweep. But alas, in the 4th game, team 8 won 4 points and the championship.

Other weekly highs were: Ronny Thompson 256/920, Tony Hale 247/917, Larry Green 246/902, Ron Corona Jr. 241/888, Ron Douglass 255/884, Frank Bellinder 242/873, Lloyd Thierry 242/859, Alan Bloom 268/858, Stan Guzy 241/841, Kerry Wright 240/837, John Phillips 219/835, Ed Stoute 234/824, Karen Bagnall 219/815, Jerry Knight 247/814, Bob Gosnell 234/812, Johnny Munson 223/806, John Conway 242/800, John Velasquez 266, Rey Ortiz 247, Shig Shozi 239, Janine Ditch 237, Marie Barbush 235, Shirley Anderson 235, Adrian Bradley 234, Jim Upton 224, David Wright 223, Janet Anderson 220, Gene Plotnick 218, Willy Bordenave 217, Tony Angulo 215, Kim Spolerich 215, Nancy M. Smith 213, Roberta McNaught 211, Ron Mahler 211, Tom Stearn 211, Carl Adinolfi 210, Sandy Lund 209, Fred Voysey 205, Eva Munson 204, Rob Roberts 204, E.J. Rogers 203, Orlando Vanegas 203, Al Lara 202 and Gino Vassallo 202.

This brings to a close another very successful season of the prestigious 590 Classic. Until September, stay safe, stay cool, and God Bless.
