Open Champion Nicole Shepard and 2nd Stevn Roderick

by David Yamauchi

Nicole Shepard Wins Her First Open Title

RANCHO CUCAMONGA—The JAT made their way east again for a visit to Brunswick Deer Creek Lanes in Rancho Cucamonga. Scoring was huge as Charlie Hair led the field at +218 followed by Nicole Shepard at +194 and DeeRonn Booker at +173. Low-to-qualify was Ryan Melton at +78. In the quarterfinals, 4th seed Stevn Roderick eliminated 5th seed Patrick Smith 2-1, while 2nd seed Nicole Shepard and 3rd seed DeeRonn Booker took out 7th seed Andrew Stewart and 6th seed Gary Smith 2-0. 8th seed Ryan Melton shocked top-seeded Charlie Hair 2-1. In the semifinals, Stevn Roderick took 3 games to eliminate Ryan Melton while Nicole Shepard swept past DeeRonn Booker to the finals. In the final match, game one went down to the wire as Shepard and Roderick tied 223-223 and went to a 9th and 10th frame rolloff. Shepard buried all 4 shots for a perfect 60 and took game 1. In game 2, Shepard limped into a 208 giving Roderick a chance to strike out and take the game. A stubborn 4-pin in the 11th frame gave Nicole Shepard the 208-205 win and her first Open Division title. Congratulations Nicole!

Valmonte Joins Ranks Of Senior Champs

A small field took the lanes at Deer Creek in the Senior Division but the scores were nothing close to small. Devin Bidwell led qualifying at +254 followed closely by Will Jackson at +195, Kevin Valmonte at +186 and Nick Alford at +168. In the semifinals, Devin Bidwell dismissed Nick Alford 266-181 and 256-210 while Kevin Valmonte sent Will Jackson packing 267-202 and 210-169. In the finals, Valmonte got lined up and took out the top-seeded Devin Bidwell 239-211 and 241-227 for his first Senior Division title. Congratulations Kevin!

USBC Smart Scholarship Funds Transferred To New Independent Corporation

ARLINGTON, Texas – The United States Bowling Congress has created a new corporation dedicated to the management, protection and promotion of youth bowling scholarships.

All funds in the USBC SMART (Scholarship Management and Accounting Reports for Tenpins) program have been transferred to the new entity called SMART Bowling Scholarship Funding Corporation. This new corporation is financially and legally independent of USBC, but will continue to use the SMART name. All scholarships previously earned through SMART remain in place with all benefits and eligibility protection for recipients continuing.

“Bowling scholarships can be a fantastic way to attract young people to our sport,” USBC President Jeff Bojé said. “We believe creating an independent corporation supervised by board members with bowling expertise and a financial background will build a new level of trust in SMART and lead to greater attention and growth of youth scholarships.”

The SMART Bowling Scholarship Funding Corporation has three directors on the board: Wally Hall, Pasadena Md., Steve Moehrle, St. Louis, Mo. and Sandy Hansell, Southfield, Mich. A primary objective for the board will be to use SMART for the nationwide promotion of youth bowling and to strengthen the entire bowling industry.

Hall, who will serve as Chairman, holds a degree from Harvard Business School and is currently a director on the Board of the International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame and Bowlers to Veterans Link charity. He is a former president of the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America and has 50 years of industry business experience including serving as President and CEO of Fair Lanes Inc. when it was the largest independent center chain in the country.

Moehrle holds a Ph.D. in business from Indiana University and serves as the leadership council distinguished scholar in accounting at the University of Missouri-St. Louis. Before entering MURRIETA—How many Marine Sergeants come off base and bowl at a 226 pace? One for sure, Fred Riano. Fred is bowling in his first season since returning last summer from a year in IRAQ And WOW, is he bowling up a desert storm.

With consistent three gamers of 700 plus, and highs of 290 and 759, Fred has kept his average in the high 220s all year. This on a difficult dry oil condition at CAL OAKS BOWL.
Riano has a free and easy release, rolling a smooth ball at high speed.
Many times his strike ball registers 20 MPH on the computer score screen.
So many young bowlers have told me they wish they could bowl like Fred, smooth with power. Power with precision.
Thanks for serving our country honorably Fred, and my wishes for many big scores for you to come. The Bowling News wishes to recognize your accomplishments on the lanes and in defense of the United States of America.

USBC National Convention
Concludes BIG NEWS FOR BOWLERS

by Frank Weiler
RENO—Stu Upson, USBC Executive Director, made several significant announcements during his report at the recently concluded USBC National Convention. Here is the BIG NEWS FOR BOWLERS:

1. DUES: There will be no increase in dues next season.

2. AWARDS: Women’s rings will be brought back. Achievement levels for other awards will be reduced.

3. BUDGETARY CUT-BACKS: USBC will reduce PBA television advertising and no longer sponsor the PBA Women’s series. While the Masters and Queens Championships will be televised, the Women’s US Open Tourney will not be.

4. U. S. BOWLER MAGAZINE: Will only be published on line in the future. This will save $2.5 million annually. The youth version of US BOWLER will continue to be published in print hardcopy.

5. CREDIT CARD: There will be a new USBC credit card for members. The first use of the card will result in a $10.00 credit toward next years annual USBC dues. I can’t wait to get my card and save.

Mini-Eliminator
Announces New Sponsors

Las Vegas, NV—Pinacle Events, owner of the world famous Mini-Eliminators, announced the signing of two major sponsors. ## Sargent is the Champion at Bowling Square

Kerry Lucka, Dunisha Wright and Steven Au Share $3,500 Match Game
Ito, Quon, and Garrett Share $410 Match Series
Match Game Again is $3,500 This Week • Match Series est $500 & 3-6-9 is $900
Cal Bowl is our Host Saturday

Qualify at 12:30-2:00-3:30-& 5:30 SEMIS 7:15 PM

ARCADIA—Well another Saturday night at Bowling Square will be memorable as Jeffrey Sargent stepped up and won his first ABTA title winning five straight matches in the top 16 single elims and finally edged the top seed Aaron Hodges to take home a tidy $2,475 for the win. Jeffrey was happy to say the least. Jeffrey is deserving and bowls most events in the ABTA that he can and liked by all. Congrats!!

The scoring was again quite high this eve and making the cut were Men +98 and the ladies a near record +87 to make the semis and also added were Super Seniors Tim Austin, Javier Avila, and Bobbie McCollum.

A fine turnout of 237 bowlers saw 62 Semifinalists cash in the semi finals. The Semifinalists take the floor, of which all would cash and the top 16 to advance to the single elim finals with 3 women min guaranteed to the top 16.

The scoring was contentious with a nice +98(men) and three guaranteed women +76 to make the top 16 Single Elim Finals.

The Semis saw Aaron Hodges and his Bounty

Hunter/900 Global top the field with a humongous +195. So he would sit out and bowl for the title. Kevin Valmonte was runner up +167 and he will receive a first round bye in the finals and seeded to the top 9.

The first round went. We had Lyn Lam, Patricia Lin, John Pham, Steven Au, BK, Tim Austin and Giang Huynh lose out. They received checks of $100 in 10-16th places.

Round two had Marv Crowder, Jeanette Chang, Kevin Valmonte and Womack Stephens lose out and get checks of $110 in 6-9th places.

Round three got hot as Jeff Taino edged Victor Lee 235-221. Jeff Sargent won a good one downing Samson Kong 248-242. Victor and Samson were in 4-5th places and $120.

Now it is Jeff and Jeffrey for the right to bowl Hodges for the title. Sargent came through in a 202-190 game and on to the title game with Taino in 3rd with great bowling to say the least. That was his lowest game of the day I think :)

The title game was on. Jeff led off with a strike and open frame 2, 10 pin. Aaron also struck and whiffed the 5 pin and going to the frame 6 they were both clean but Aaron chopped a spare and began a night mare leaving a bad luck 4-9 on the 7th.

Jeffrey doubled in 8-9 frames and Aaron spared and struck in 9 then again first of the 10th and needed another strike but left a high shot and the title went to the nice guy from Anaheim. He was a happy guy in a 178/210-169/191 measure. He has been a fine ABTA member and friend for 14 years and a nicer guy you cannot find. Title #2 is in his future. Great bowling Jeffery. YOU are now an ABTA Titlist!

Fine bowling til the title game by another nice young man Aaron Hodges. He will win in the future. A fine bowler and great competitor.

Jeff Taino, a Champion had a great night at Bowling Square also. He is one of the "Good Guys" and is nice to be around.

Tourney Notes: Hi Qualifiers were Jeff Taino +254 men and Tessie Sosa blasted a +154 to lead the ladies. They will get paid entries for the fine bowling.

The Doubles were headed

by Taino again? YES! He and Vuong Do 1533 for $170. Taino/Mike Villarreal 1520, also 1520 were Michael Kong, and Ryan Nam and $150. We paid out 21 places and $1,730 in the doubles.

The 3-6-9 was NOT Hit as Danny Guevarra out-did the field but missed on shot 4. So we go for a cool $900 this week Folks! Danny got $50 Consolation for Merlot :-)

The Match Game was matched by three of our finest and they share the $3,500 pot. They are Kerry Lucka, Stephen Au and a pretty Newcomer Dunisha Wright. They get $1,166 each for their fine 180 game. The Match Game is again $3,500 this Saturday at CAL Bowl.

The Match Series worth $410 was matched by David Quon, Dillon Itp, and Mr Lucky Dillon Ito and for a $2.00 entry, you can't top that! Their series was a 572.

Jeffrey Sargent is from Anaheim, and used a Street

Rod drilled by Kert Kinoshita at 10th Frame Pro Shop in The Concourse. He's married to Myrsha with a daughter Natalie. He thanks the ABTA Staff, for a job well-done and thanks to wife and daughter for support, and love.

Aaron Hodges is from Glendale and single! He used a 900 Global/Bounty Hunter drilled by Brandon McGinnis at Up Your Alley Pro Shop. He thanks the ABTA Staff and Bowling Square for hosting and to friends and Family for support.

Jeff Taino hails from Chino Hills married to Cindy with son Justin also an ABTA member. He used a Virtual Gravity drilled by ABTA Member Ben Mach at Westminster Lanes. He thanks ABTA and Staff and wife Cindy and Justin for all of the support.

It was great to return to Bowling Square, where everyone has a great time and scores will be lower next time :-)

Special thanks to Cheryl,

Tony and the staff. We return there July 31 with lower scores and fair condition. It is History folks as Jeffrey Sargent enters the archives as our latest champion.

Drawing winners were Velinda Kelly, 2 nights in Las Vegas, ABTA Shirt Ping Romero, Ball to Alpine Tran, ABTA reg entry to Ariel O'Campo and Las Vegas Entry to Steve Brode. Win Yours next week, tickets for $5 100% return.

It is History as Jeffrey Sargent enters the archives as our latest Champion at Bowling Square! We bowl Saturday at CAL Bowl in a one day. See our ad for info and squad times. The next Saturday May 22 our long awaited return to Brunswick Foot Hill Lanes in Fontana. Handicap is frozen at Foothill for the big Memorial Event May 27-28-29-30 at West Covina Lanes.

See our ad or website www.abta1.com for info. New schedules to be mailed soon.

“STRIKEHARDAPP.COM” OVER-ALL POINTS LEADER

DOWNEY — Monday night lanes 21-22 was the pair to watch. “STRIKEHARD” and “WESTERN PACIFIC” (both round winners) put on a good show, won a little side pot money and relaxed.

“SYSCO” and “CLYDE’S VIDEO” have only one more week to snag the last Wild Card spot. And I do believe they will actually be scheduled against each other (don’t quote me).

May 24 the league will have their sweeper, and the following week the rollofts begin! It has been a weekly grind with the pattern changes. Not like the past years with a “HOUSE SHOT” and the “EASY ROUND”.

From the very beginning of this league — 20 years ago — the house offered $5,000 for a 300 game rolled during the “TOUGH ROUND”. No takers. This year six 300’s were shot — but not at the right time. Are bowlers getting wiser or are the balls producing better scores? That debate goes on anytime bowlers get together.

Let’s get on with this week’s top scores: Paul Varela 257/633, Shane Soper 240-225/657, Billy Myers Jr. 236-226/687, William Jackson 229-218-207/654, David Bartlett 243-222/648 and Arnold Cheesman 247-225/629.

Big money is on the line the next two weeks — Catch the show Monday at 8:30 P.M. LIVE!

Daniel Vasquez Hits 299/766 In Open Commercial At Brunswick Upland Bowl

UPLAND — This writer got an email from Daniel Vasquez whom this writer had wondered how Danny had been doing since last Febraury when he led his team with a 712 series in the SNCDDBA tournament at Canyon Lanes in Cabazon. The smooth rolling La Puente righthander informed me that he bowls Tuesday nights in the Open Commercial League at Brunswick Upland Bowl. On the league’s final night May 4 he rolled a 299 game in the first game.

“I hit a beautiful pocket hit and left a 4-pin”, Danny wrote. “Before the league’s start, I had muscle spasms on my left shoulder and was not sure if I was going to bowl that night.” So he decided to test and see how he felt. There was a little pain but he did not want to give up because it was his league’s last day of the season.

Danny continued, “I was being positive and just focused on the lanes and was not expecting to bowl 299 in the first game, so I finished with 233 and 234 for a 766 series. I am honored to finish with my highest career average of 217 and my goal was to get in 220s.”

This 299 is his career second as this writer recalled Danny’s first 299 also bowled in the first game at Anaheim Concourse Lanes a few years ago. On that same day and time, Danny’s teammate and tutor Carl Malucci in The Concourse league rolled a 300 in the second game. That prompted this writer to kid Carl who had many 300s for showing Danny, his close friend, teammate and student, to which Carl responded, “Hey. I was just showing Danny the correct way to get a 300 is to leave no pins standing up on the last ball.”

Eventually, Danny had learned from the master as in the following year at Brunswick West Covina Bowl, Danny left no pins standing on his 12th ball for his career first 300. He had been taught lots by Carl as he finished, with his previous best 214 average. Then when Carl moved to Las Vegas, Danny hooked up with Mark Fisser as his tutor.

Graciously he ended to with,”I want to thank Carl Malucci and Mark Fisser for training me, teaching me, and traveling with me to all around tournaments to be a better bowler.” That is a nice tribute from Daniel Vasquez who listened to the stars of the game.

In their youth, Carl Malucci and Mark Fisser were outstanding Junior bowlers on the JAT tour in early 1980s. In one JAT tournament finals, Carl and Mark both made the TV title finals which Carl won (This writer was invited to witness the first historical TV match of two deaf bowlers and donated the video tape to the Bowling Hall of Fame.)

Mark also was a star in the LA Junior Traveling League being the first ever deaf bowler selected as ABC Star of Tomorrow in 1986 and continued to star on the Professional Coast Bowlers Tour, winning the Tournament of Champions. He also bowled almost two years of the PBA Tour in late 1980s. Carl is making a big name for himself with the deaf bowlers’ most 300 games and 800 series, holding the deaf bowlers record high average of 246.

Daniel Vasquez is an upcoming and coming bowler with potential in the coming future.

Sarah SainRollsHer First 300 At Red Rock Lanes

LAS VEGAS — Jim Mohr reported that Sarah Sain, a daughter of long time Las Vegas deaf bowling parents, Sammy and Winie Sain bowled her first perfect game in the Wednesday Mountaineers League at Red Rock Bowl last May 5. That made both Sammy and Winnie proud of her and raised Sarah’s average to 190. This writer contacted Jim for further information for few two other games and series.

Hall of Famer
Nancy Chapman
Dies at Age 80

ARLINGTON, Texas – Nancy Chapman, a member of the United States Bowling Congress Hall of Fame, passed away Wednesday, April 28, at the age of 80.

The Oneida, Wis., native was inducted into the Women’s International Bowling Congress (now USBC) Hall of Fame for meritorious service in 2002.

Chapman was appointed a WIBC director by former president Alberta E. Crowe in 1974, an appointment she said “knocked her socks off.” She would serve on the WIBC board for 25 years, including positions as 5th,6th and 7th vice president and also as sergeant-at-arms. She was a WIBC Member Emerita.

Chapman, who worked at Wisconsin Bell for 30 years, also loved to write about the sport. She won her first writing award for a column in 1964. She founded the Wisconsin Women Bowling Writers in 1975, and served as editor of the Wisconsin Women’s Bowling Association state publication, Bowling Action.

She was active with the National Women Bowling Writers (NWBW) and served as president from 2004-06. She earned the Mary Janetto Award (outstanding promotion of local bowling) and the Jo Ettien Lieber Award (distinguished service to the game of American tenpins) from the NWBW.

She also served on the Bowling Writers Association of America board.

Before her induction into the WIBC Hall of Fame, Chapman, who promoted entries for the WIBC Championships for many years, recalled the time in 1983 when her efforts led to nearly 500 northern Wisconsin bowlers deciding to head to Las Vegas for the tournament. The large response required that a Boeing 747 be chartered for the group and the turnout attracted media attention because a plane that size had never flown into Green Bay.

Chapman is a member of the Green Bay Women’s Bowling Association and Wisconsin WBA Halls of Fame.

JAT Farm Club

by David Gordon
PASADENA—Reminder: This coming Sunday (5/16) will be the JAT Farm Club Invitational tournament. Only the top 20 bowlers in JAT points will be allowed for this tournament. The entire field of 20 have confirmed (except one) and two alternates have already been contacted to fill in.

The bowling center for this highly sought after event will be AMF Carter Lanes in Fullerton. The cost for the small field is $45 and check-in begins at 8:30. The format will be 10 games of match play (random draw) followed by a top 5 TV style roll-off for the finals. Our dress code (with name on back of shirt) will be enforced. No JAT points will be awarded, but it is the last chance on the 2009-10 season to earn that title and be able to bowl three weeks later.

Please note, our 20 bowlers will be doubled up and bowling on just 10 lanes. Please prepare yourselves accordingly. Get in your practice and plenty of rest. I’ll see you in Fullerton.

STUDIO CITY — SWEEEEEEET! No we are not screaming my name but it's the battle cry of many who have hit the pocket to get that much needed pin count to pull ahead of the pack in the sweeps. ADULTS

The amazing skill and talent on our lanes knows no bound. When this correspondent thinks he has seen it all, another bowler walks to the approach and makes the shot of the century, till the next bowler makes his or hers! Yet the love and enjoyment on their faces is what I get out of working here at Pinz. As you read these amazing scores pick up the phone and call us at 818-769-7600 and join one of our Summer Leagues now forming!

Sorry, no Junior scores were received at the Bowling News this week.

You're never too young or too old to bowl in a league! Many of our seniors attribute their youthful looks and prowess on the weekly exercise they get on our lanes. And as they say, practice makes perfect as these scores can attest too! Oh and if you're looking for some fun or the fountain of youth, look no further and join one of our senior leagues now forming, 818-769-7600.

Bowler of the Week: This week's bowler is an excitable fellow who often bowls great games. He can multitask by watching the Lakers win and bowling strikes. This week Jordan Omley bowled a 203 game for a 587 series during Music and Lyrics. Great job.

Sweetness Quote of the Week: "867 5309/Jenny" is a song written by Alex Call and Jim Keller and performed by Tommy Tutone that was released on the album Tommy Tutone 2, on the COLUMBIA RECORDS label. The song caused a fad of people dialing 867 5309 and asking for "Jenny". But don't forget to call 769-7600, Pinz we will answer.
