Forest Lanes Jr. Gold Premier Event Won By Montieth, Katsura

LAKE FOREST—This past Sunday night, Forest Lanes in Lake Forest hosted their 2005 USA Jr. Gold Qualifier Premier Event. This was a definite first annual event, kicking it off the first time for many years to come. Forest Lanes hosted a great event, which ran smoothly, and offered tons of SMART scholarship money, and most of all, two Premier spots into this years Jr. Gold Tournament in Indianapolis, IN. this July. The winners of the boys and girls divisions both received a spot into this years Jr. Gold Championships, and a $500 expense voucher to cover their travel needs. Along with even more scholarships up for grabs, it was meant to be a great tournament with excellent bowling.

All the bowlers bowled 6 games of qualifying where the top four boys would be set into a four-man PBA style bracket, as where the girls would see the top two square it off for the championship. The high-pace scoring started off from game

Milligan Take Top Spot For 2005 WIBC Queens Stepladder Finals Oklahoma Native, WIBC Hall of Famer Duggan Earns No. 2 Seed

TULSA, Okla.—The nerves finally came back Tuesday for Tennelle Milligan, Yorba Linda, Calif. — and she welcomed them with open arms.

"If you don't have those nerves, something is wrong," said Milligan, who won the Professional Women's Bowling Association Players Championship and U.S. Open in 2000. "I haven't had that feeling in a long time. Getting those nerves back helps you bowl better."

Milligan is in prime position to claim the third jewel of the Triple Crown — and in her eyes the most prestigious — as she claimed the No. 1 position for the stepladder finals at the 2005 Women's International Bowling Congress Queens Tournament, presented by Reno Tri-Properties and participating sponsor Miller Lite, a United States Bowling Congress Event, at Riverlanes.

Milligan, who was a Team USA member in 1999, went 6-0 in the three-game, double-elimination format — including victories over Brenda Norman, Stroudsburg, Pa., and Jenni Ferguson, Anderson, Ind., to secure a spot in the stepladder finals. Milligan's 632-611 triumph over recent WIBC Hall of Fame inductee and 1994 WIBC Queens champion Anne Marie Duggan, Edmond, Okla., clinched the top seed.

The tournament concludes Wednesday with the top five bowlers (four from the winners bracket and the contenders bracket champion) facing off in the stepladder finals at 7 p.m. CDT. The championship round will air June 6 at 11 p.m. EDT on ESPN2. Check your local listings to confirm date and time.

Duggan earned the No. 2 seed and is joined in the stepladder finals by No. 3 seed and last year's Queens runner-up Michelle Feldman, Skaneateles, N.Y.; No. 4 seed Karen Morris, Logan, Ohio; and No. 5 seed Jennifer Swanson, Shelton, Conn. Milligan will have to be defeated twice in the championship match in order to be denied her first WIBC Queens tiara.

"That's always a little bit of a comfort," said Milligan of being the No. 1 seed. "But everyone wants to win this tournament just as bad. Winning the Queens would mean everything — it's the hardest one to win."

Swanson earned the final spot by defeating Jackie Mitskavich, Dubois, Pa., 600-522 in the contenders bracket final. After opening Tuesday with a victory over 1989 WIBC Queens champion Carol Gianotti, Henderson, Nev., Feldman bumped Swanson to the contenders bracket with a 734-630 victory.

Tennelle Milligan

"Thankfully this was the latest I ever went into the contenders bracket of the Queens," Swanson said. "I was thankful that I met Michelle late instead of earlier. It was all or nothing after that."

From there, Swanson battled back to eliminate five-time Team USA member Lisa Noor, Mound, Minn., and defending WIBC Queens champion Marianne DiRupo, Succasunna, N.Y., before ousting Mitskavich.

The 253-player Queens field rolled five qualifying games Saturday and Sunday, after which the field was reduced to the top 63 players plus defending champion Marianne DiRupo, Succasunna, N.J. Starting Monday and continuing Tuesday, the remaining 64 athletes competed in three-game, double-elimination match play.

The 2005 WIBC Queens, presented by Reno Tri-Properties and participating sponsor Miller Lite, features a prize fund of $167,775. The winner will take home $25,000 plus the Queens tiara, pendant and crystal trophy.

a 4.19 GPA. She was a member of the Basketball and Track teams; Captain of the JV Softball Team; and Captain of the JV Volleyball Team; and even a member of the Junior & Senior year Powder Puff Football!

It was not surprising to learn that Savahna had received the Award for the Most Improved Player on the Volleyball Team.

Savahna was Class Representative to the National Society of High School Scholars; as well as Editor of their school yearbook. And, in this busy schedule of hers, this "up-beat" young lady, had already become not only an accomplished bowler but was giving back to the game. She had been elected Secretary of the school's bowling club and acted as the Bowling Center Representative for Youth Bowlers her Senior Year. Savahna has performed in her church choir and has organized and attended the Church Youth Conferences the past 4 years. Her service projects have included making quilts to send to Kosovo; leveling a local softball field; plant trees in the West Wetlands; and cleaning park equipment in El Centro.

Savahna's skills include time management; human relations; organization/planning; leadership and academics.

Savahna earned the Arizona State University Presidents Scholarship where she is enrolled in pre-requisite classes for a Dental Assistant Program. Savahna earned a 3.36 GPA the first semester and strives to keep at least a 3.25 GPA in order to maintain her scholarship status. She was accepted on the ASU Boy's Bowling Team and looks forward to the school having a girl's team this coming season. She is averaging a 205 league average and striving to be All-American & Team USA during her collegiate career. She has recorded this past season two 279 games and a 708 and 717 series. She has an unsanctioned 300 game to her credit.

Her bowling accomplishments include 1st Place All Events Arizona State Tournament (2000); 1st Place in Singles A.S. Tournament (2001); 1st place All Events A.S. Tournament (2003); 1st Place All Events East Valley City Tournament & Singles Pepsi Cola Tournament (2005).

It is interesting to note here that although Savahna was able to attend our Dinner/ Meeting to receive her award, she was to fly out the next morning at 6 AM to return to Mesa where she was scheduled to bowl a tournament. I had asked her to "stay in touch". She did. She called last week to inform us that she not only took 1st Place in the tournament but she recorded her highest sanctioned game, a 290 and a 700+ series. Although this was "wonderful news"..... the amazing part of her story was that the night before when the Mesa girls took Savahna into their room, with limited sleeping accommodations Savanna insisted on..... sleeping on the floor!

Now, you tell me if this young lady isn't "going places" with her life. Stay tuned.

Vasquez Wins First ABTA Title at Cal Ronnie Lemons has a 300/802 Set Sajonas and Nakunz Hit $2,480 Match Game, Thon Hits Match Series Handicap Is Frozen This Week For Big Memorial Event

L A K E W O O D – R e n e Vasquez did it up good as he won his first ABTA title the hard way as he downed five straight opponents in the top 16 Single Elim finals to take home a nice $1,200 top prize. He finally downed the “favorite” top seed Art Jones in the title game to take the top prize with a stellar performance in the three squad early event at Super Scoring Cal Bowl.

Rene bested a decent turnout of 184 bowlers (3 squads only) in the Special Event, which featured Dodie Sajonas, and Marty Nakunz sharing a $2,480 Match game and newcomer Donald Thon got a $234 Match Series pot.

We weren’t lacking excitement at Cal as Ronnie Lemons who is a Young 58-:) lit up the lanes with a 226-276-300/802 set. His highest to date. Ronnie will receive Awards from the ABTA for his fine bowling and this is the first 800 this year

The shot was good producing nice cut scores of +95 (men) and +24 for the women. We returned 42 bowlers to the Semi-finals. Also added to the Semis were the Super Seniors Ken Puleston, Dominic Antonio and Kay Johnson.

Leading the Semis was Los Angeles’ Art Jones who had a nice +137 to be top seed to sit out and bowl for the title. He was followed by Ray Varela +134 only 3 pins back, who would receive a first round bye in the single elims and enter in round two. It took +62 for the men and +29 for the ladies to make the finals which included three women in the top 16 finals.

The bowlers took to the lanes. Losing in the first round were Karen Sargent, Jing Lebaquin, Ken Seiple Jr., Mark Wong, Ivan Whitehead, Minh Dang, and Du Quach. They got checks of $105 in 10-16th places. In round two, being eliminated were Ray Varela, Vic Hilvano, Ely Cruz, and Ronnie “300” Lemons. They cashed in 6-9th places and $110 each.

Round three had Rene Vasquez finish strongly to edge Valinda Kelly 238-199. Greg Barron edged Fernando Alatorre 213-199. Valinda (my ABTA League team mate) and Fernando were 4th and 5th with great bowling at Cal. Greg and Rene to meet for the right to bowl Art Jones for the title.

This match had Barron struggle early with three splits and could never recoup. Rene was clean in a 233-193 win with the likable Barron finishing 3rd and a $200 Check with Rene off to the title game vs Jones.

The title game was set and we would now see who would become our latest Champion. Jones elected to lead off and he opened in a big way with a five bagger and only a solid 10 kept him from six. Rene, however was also doing well with strike, spare to frame 7 where he had a turkey to get the game close. With the handicap differential, Jones then slammed another double and then another solid 10 tap. Rene then spared, struck for a 219/267 count and Jones would need a double for the win. He came up a bit high to finish the 10th for a 246/264 and lost a match that was unfortunate. Great bowling by Rene Vasquez. He has certainly improved to be a fine bowler and is now our latest Champion and deservedly so! Great Bowling Rene! Title #2 could be in his future. Super bowling by Art Jones also in the runner up finish. Greg Barron in 3rd almost got there also!

ABTA Notes Tourney Hi Qualifiers were red-hot Ronnie Lemons with his huge+265. Tameika Johnson led the femmes +1. They will get paid entries to our next regular event.

Hermie Lebaquin eliminated the field and threw the first four 9’s or better and needing only one more for a $600 Pot went wide got 7 and the pot is worth $700 this Saturday at Southwest Bowl. Hermie got a $50 consolation to buy beer with though!

The Match Game 3 was Matched by two of our faithful members Marty Nakunz, and Dodie Sajonas. Their 184 game got them $1,240 each splitting the pot of $2,480.

The Match Series was also matched due to the 697 drawn by Ron Lemons, got newcomer Don Thon a cash reward of $234 so we estimate a $250 pot for $2.00 entry fee this weekend.

The Columbia 300” ball of the week went to one of our regulars, Rico Cayton, who opts for the Big Bully!. He thanks the ABTA, and sponsor Columbia 300 for the fine ball.

Champion Rene Vasquez hails from Burbank. He used a Buzzsaw drilled by George at Yorba Linda Bowl. He is Single Ladies! He thanks his big brother Julio who brought him into the ABTA, and parents for support. Special thanks to his coaches Jeff Hickenbottom, and his Big Brother Julio.

Art Jones hails from L.A. and used a Storm drilled by Tony Figueria, and is married to Jacqui with five kids. Decojia, Rochelle, Arielle, Sharelle, and Cheana. He thanks his family, and especially his wife for support.

Greg Barron is from Artesia, and single also Ladies! He used a Storm drilled by Billy Myers at Cal Bowl. He thanks the Cal Bowl “Barkada”.

We had several new members join this week. First time cashers were Jimmy Chau, Aarik Torres,, Valerie Gonzales, and Donald Thon.

This Saturday we make our first visit ever to Southwest Bowl in Los Angeles. Please Check in very early for the 5:30 & 7PM Squads. To get there, take the 105 Freeway to Vermont, north to Imperial, west 1 mile to Western then South 2 blocks.

Kevin Gannon Rolls WCST Record Score and Wins the WCST Ebonite Singles Tournament at AMF Bowling Square in Arcadia. Lee Taylor Wins the Step-Ladder Finals For The Super Senior Division

By Dick Sanders

ARCADIA—Kevin Gannon (Lakewood) from the very first game in the finals which was a 299 game, and a blistering WCST Record Score of 2579 score for the 10 games in the finals easily won his 19th WCST Title to pass ABC-PBA Hall of Famer, Barry Asher who now drops to 3rd with 18 WCST Titles. Kevin is now only 4 Titles behind, Ross Packard, who has 23 Titles to lead the WCST in all time wins. Kevin qualified 7th and started the finals 160 pins behind qualifying leader Jim Starks, who rolled 2432. Kevin won 9 matches and lost one. The only loss was to Gerry Chinn, who beat him 278 to 268. Kevin’s lowest game of the finals was 237. He averaged 242 for the qualifying and the finals. Jim Starks, who finished 2nd rolled a 235 average for the tournament, and wasn’t even close as Kevin won this tournament by 194 pins. The little giant is one tough customer. There were two other left handers in the finals besides Kevin, Gerry Chinn and the ageless wonder Doug Johnson. They finished 9th and 10th. Doug led the first block of qualifying on Saturday, with plus 249 for the 10 games, and started out in 4th place for the finals. 50 bowlers entered, with 37 Regular Division, and 13 super seniors. The super seniors did very well, and you can read what they did in the column of the super seniors on this page below, 21 checks were paid out for a total pay-off of $6,300.00. The total for 5 tournaments paid out this year is $39,045.00, and for 220 tournaments, a total of $2,409,468.00 paid out. The WCST welcomed Tammy Sibley, a new member of the PBA and now also a member of the WCST. Tammy bowled exceptionally well for her first tournament with a score 2213, and she cashed 14th place. 5 super seniors crossed over to the regular division finals, and their prize fund portion paid into the tournament carried over with them, and this created 5 more places added to the regular division pay-off. The 10 finalists averaged 225 per bowler per game.

Top 3: 1st, Kevin Gannon, $900.00. 2nd, Jim Starks (Montclair), $700.00, and 3rd, Jim Thurmond (Hemet), $500.00. Kevin pushed his All Time Money Winnings in the WCST to over $63,000.00, and being pursued by super senior Vaughn Doody, who has won over $55,000.00 while bowling in the WCST.

We would like to thank AMF-Bowling Square, and their new GM, Mr. Jamie Vasquez, who went all out for us to have a successful week-end, and also his workers, and as always to the Ebonite International Company for their donation of the best bowling balls in the industry today.

SUPER SENIORS, A GREAT WEEK-END FOR THIS TOURNAMENT

13 Super Seniors, entered, and 5 made the regular division finals, and 4 bowled a step-ladder finals on Saturday, following the qualifying rounds. 1st seeded Lee Taylor (Las Vegas), beat 3rd seeded Lee Tucker (Camarillo) 223-182 to win the 1st place prize of $300.00, Lee Tucker took home $275.00. Tucker, won his first two matches, one against 4th seeded Jim Zimmerman (Bakersfield), 230 to 170, and against 2nd seeded Tim Albin (Torrance) 224-205. It was good to see Tim again after his long absence from our tournaments Pay-Off as follows: 1st, Lee Taylor, $300.00, 2nd, Lee Tucker, $275.00, 3rd, Tim Albin, $250.00, and 4th to Jim Zimmerman, $225.00. In the regular division finals. Super seniors that crossed over from their scores in the qualifying. Vaughn Doody, John Cocchi, Doug Johnson, Jim Thurmond, and Jim Burke. $1050.00 was won in the Step-Ladder Roll-Off, and in the regular division, super seniors took home $1765.00. Our next tournament in Norwalk at Keystone Lanes on the week-end of June 18-19, will be one squad only for the one side of center of 24 lanes we will have, starts at 12 Noon. The WCST would like to see more super seniors enter this one. Call the WCST Office at 760-363-8141 for more information and reservations.

Rod Cantrell Rolls to Second Donkee Win at Carter Lanes to Pocket $850.00

FULLERTON—Gentleman Rod Cantrell is married and semi retired. However he does keep busy helping his son Chris and his wife Marlene with their Photo Business. Rod and Marlene have three children and three grandchildren. Each school morning he takes his grandsons a 12 year old and a 13 year old to school (Two different schools) with his youngest grandson who is four and half happily tagging along for company.. In fact his grandson loves to ride with Granddad.

Rod bowls league at Linbrook in the 390 classic and at Carter in the Tac plus he finished a league for a friend at LaHabra lanes. His highest game to date is a 299 and his highest series is 760. This is his second Donkee Tour win. His first win was also at Carter in September of 2002 against Keith Kenworthy in a final shoot-out match. I think acupuncture for a sciatic nerve has something to do with Rod’s good bowling this weekend.. Twice after having acupuncture he bowled a 279 game. Both at Carter. One Saturday in the Donkee.. You could see he was having a bit of trouble this weekend with his sciatic nerve but managed to hobble to a big, big 811 series taking first place from our good friend Armando Zavala who earlier in the day posted a well shot 764 series. This is twice Armando got beat on Beat the Board after posting a great series earlier but $400 second place is not too shabby. Congratulations go to two very nice Guys. Fate had a hand in it too. Rod wasn’t going to bowl the last squad but at the last minute decided to keep Keith company. Keith finished in 9th place.

Another big excitement at Carter this Saturday was Rod pulling the mystery game. We had two winners lucky gentlemen were Conrado Amando and Bill Hitchcock both rolling a 193 second game to split $900. Congratulations. Neither were on hand so it’ll be a nice surprise or already was a nice surprise.. Checks will be waiting at West Covina.

This article is a little late because we had two teams 10 ladies bowl in the WIBC National tournament in Tulsa. I know it’s not WIBC anymore. Don’t ask how we did?? We had a great time and met some nice ladies from Iowa and from Pennsylva-

Director David Godinez with mystery numbers. Carter Lanes Champion Rod Cantrell drew mystery game. It was 193 with two winners. Conrado Amado and Bill Hitchcock who will be happy to hear they split $900.00.

ATTENTION BOWLING LEGENDS AND MOVERS

By Don Cecil

ALHAMBRA — This week I traveled to Pahrump, Nevada to visit and wish a Happy Birthday to Arlene Hartman, the lady who took care of Roy Pinchback, a long time bowling and golfing pal for 40 years in the San Gabriel Valley.

As most of you know Roy passed away. Also Arlene and I worked together at Bahama Lanes and Santa Anita Lanes for Mr. Howard Brown of the Bing & Bing Corporation in Beverly Hills. I stayed two days and went on to Las Vegas to talk to Dick Stoeffler about some legends of the game to follow more old timers.

First of all, Bud Horn now lives in Texas. Butch Soper in Laughlin, NV; Stan Gifford, Bill Taylor, Vaughn Doody, Don Gilinski, my pal Dick Jensen for many years moved back to Chicago.

Mr. Stoeffler and I had a very nice visit. We go back about 50 years in the game—I started one year ahead of him. More next week.

Beth Borci Wins Her First ABT Orange County Title at Keystone Lanes

NORWALK—Beth Borci won her first Amateur Bowlers Tour (ABT) Championship at Keystone Lanes Saturday, May 7, 2005 during our one-day 4 game Beat-the-Board tournament. Beth showed up for our final 4PM squad and shot games of 310-217-246-207 with handicap good for a series total of 980 and the $800 1st place prize. Ray Varela of Wilmington shot a fine 969 four game handicap series to finish in second place for $400 plus $200 from the Win, Place, and Show Pot for a total of $600 dollars. In third place was Nick Assini of Highland. Nick shot a 964 and got $150 dollars for his efforts.

Our newest Champion, Beth Borci is a R/N in Fountain Valley. She is married to Anthony, who is also an ABT member. They have two grown children, Apple, and Chico. Beth has been bowling for about 15 years and bowls in the PBL league that just finished up this year. She has a high game of 263 and a high series of 632 (bowled this weekend) to her credit. She used a Columbia Big Bully bowling ball drilled by Allen Bloom at the Kegler's Corner Pro Shop inside Linbrook Bowl. Beth wanted to thank her husband, Anthony, for his love and support, and also her friends: Imelda Ahorro, Lito Parciso, and Lito Dizon. Beth plans on using her prize money for a big 25th wedding anniversary with Anthony. Beth also wanted to thank Keystone Lanes for hosting the tournament this Saturday and the Amateur Bowlers Tour-Orange County Branch staff for running an outstanding tournament week after week.

We drew the Mystery Pot of Gold game number and score after our final squad. Game #3 and 240 were drawn for this week. There was no winner for $1000 dollars. The second chance score was 191 with handicap in game #3. No one shot 191 with handicap in Game #3, so there was no winner for $500 dollars. The third chance score drawn was 266 with handicap in Game #3. No one shot 266 with handicap in Game #3, so there was no winner for $250 and the Mystery Pot of Gold carries over to next week. Remember, the Mystery Pot of Gold is available to all members (Classic and Masters) and only costs $5 for a chance at $1000 dollars.

The ABT staff and membership would like to thank the management and staff at Keystone Lanes for hosting our tournament last Saturday. Our next scheduled event will be this weekend, on Saturday, May 21, 2005 at La Habra "300" Bowl. This will be a special 4 game Beat-the-Board Classic and Masters Combined Singles tournament format. All members (Classic and Masters) are eligible. Handicap will be 80% of 225 for this tournament. Special Squad times are at 1:00 PM, 2:30 PM, and 4:30 PM only. We will offer $100 sidepots at the 1:00 PM, 2:30PM and 4:30PM squads with just 20 entrants. First place will be GUARANTEED at $800 for only a $50 entry fee. We will offer an estimated 1st place of $1,500 with our optional Win, Place, and Show Pot. We recommend you arrive early (at least ½ hour before squad time) to guarantee your spot.

Also, don't forget about our Memorial Day Combination Doubles Tournament scheduled for Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, May 28th-30th, 2005 at Westminster Lanes. First Place is Guaranteed at $2,000 dollars. If you bring in (sponsor) a new member, and bowl with them, you (the sponsor) bowl for FREE! That's a $30.00 value! There is a 405 team maximum entering average limit. Handicap is based on 80% of 405. We will also be offering an optional 2-game Singles Beat-the-Board Sweeper tournament in addition to the Doubles tournament. For an additional $20 to your Doubles entry fee, you will be entered into the 2-game Singles Beat-the-Board Sweeper tournament. First Place for the 2-game Singles Beat-the-Board Sweeper tournament is Guaranteed at $500 dollars for just a $20.00 entry fee. You can cash as many times as you can get on the board in both prize funds- both for the Singles and Doubles!

Also, ABT-2 Embroidery will have an embroidery machine on site Memorial Day weekend and will be offering great deals on embroidered shirts for as low as $20. Be sure and stop by and take a look at our fabulous clearance deals. We will have lots of shirts to choose from. We hope to see you this Saturday, May 21, 2005 at La Habra "300" Bowl.

Tenpin Slants

by Joe Lyou

The inaugural Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge. Sounds pretty impressive. But what exactly is it?

It's a tournament guaranteeing $1 million to the winner...who could be an amateur. Or a woman. The Kingpin Challenge, according to press releases, will be held Oct. 22-30 in Reno's newly-renovated National Bowling Stadium.

There are six divisions: 30 & Under, 31-40, 41-59, 60 & Older, one women's division, and an open division (for those who have bowled professionally in the past three years, excluding anyone winning a national title).

The entry fee is pretty stiff—$695—however, you don't have to pay it all at once as a $195 deposit will hold your spot. A lot of potential entrants will likely attempt to land a sponsor or sell personal shares to friends and relatives.

For more details, and the official tournament rules, you can log on to the following website: www.kingpinchallenge.com.

It wasn't long after news of the Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge was first announced that a question of vital interest was raised by inquisitive scribes, including this veteran ink-stained wretch: Will the Kingpin Challenge tournament actually be held, as advertised?

So Tenpin Slants decided to conduct an unscientific poll by asking the opinions of 10 prominent bowling personalities. Of those polled, all but two responded. Readers may be interested in the results. Those responding to the poll were (in alphabetical order):

Dick Evans (ABC and PBA Hall of Fame writer): I hope so. But I'm a doubting Thomas because of the guaranteed money (seven places in all). That's an awesome amount of money for any sporting event to guarantee, especially without a guaranteed great gate and big-time TV revenue. Hope I'm wrong.

Frank Kietz (Bowling Writers Assn. of America Hall of Fame writer):No! I'd like to see the green first because I've been fooled too often. That's why I'm a skeptic. I'd feel better if the tournament was sanctioned. (Note: The United States Bowling Congress has since officially certified the Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge.)

John Jowdy (ABC and PBA Hall of Fame writer): I'm hoping the tournament is successful because Dave Husted (who's involved in conducting the event) is such a good friend of mine. Everyone in bowling should be supporting this tournament.

Frenchy Letourneau (Publisher of the Las Vegas TenPin Alley): I can't get excited about this one (the Kingpin Challenge). If it goes at all, no amateur will have any chance to make the first cut. As long as they (the tournament promoters) are allowing seasoned PBA regional and megabuck hotshots in the Open Division, the other divisions are the fodder to feed the prize fund, donate to the brackets, and fill rooms. Also, the totally obnoxious entry fee will attract only bowlers who routinely have success in big-money events. I'll be rooting for Terry Leong. And Missy Bellinder.

Andy Marzich (ABC and PBA Hall of Fame bowler): This (tournament) appears to be a win/win event for bowling. How can it not be? They (the promoters) are prepared to do it and I hope they succeed. Lest this be a scam, I hope the (prize) money is put in escrow. I think the naysayers will be surprised. Put me down! I'll go!

Virginia Norton (WIBC Hall of Fame bowler): I have my doubts, unless the people behind it are looking for a tax write-off! It would be great for the sport, and the time of year should work. I'll be interested to see how it develops.

Chuck Pezzano (ABC and PBA Hall of Fame writer): Yes! The promoters have enough backing and sponsorship. They put on a nice presentation at the BWAA Convention (in March at Baton Rouge). The tournament, however, needs better promoting. Look for late entries, as usual.

Dick Stoeffler (Controversial bowling columnist and a past recipient of the national Flowers for the Living Award): No! Because of the lack of publicity and the fact that there are no entry blanks in local bowling centers or in the bowling papers. Also, there's been a couple of so-called Million Dollar events in the past that wound up being cancelled—the Kegel Team Tournament in Florida and the Strike It Rich! Tournament some years ago in Southern California. I'll be interested to see what happens and, personally, I hope the tournament is a monster success.

After the ballots were counted—there were no hanging chads—the results showed a total of three nays, two yeas, two doubtfuls and one maybe.

But that doesn't include the opinion of Tenpin Slants (even though no one asked me). I say that the Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge definitely will be held. There are several reasons why:

1) Although the four promoters have never been involved in bowling, they have a successful track record of having conducted successful major attractions in the past.

2) The promoters, having invested heavily, are in too deep to pull out now. As an example, they've hired a first-class PR firm, The Larose Group (of San Mateo, Calif.). They've hired Joan Romeo, owner and president of The Marketing Team in Van Nuys, as a consultant. (Joan, of course, is the mother of WIBC Hall of Famer Robin Romeo.) And the promoters have hired Hall of Famer Dave Husted as Tournament Commissioner and popular Frank Ellenburg as Director of Operations. No one in bowling is respected more than Husted and Ellenburg, in this writer's opinion.

3) The Kingpin Challenge has been endorsed, not only by the USBC, but by the Reno-Sparks Convention & Visitors Bureau and Reno Tri-Properties Inc. (comprised of the Eldorado, Silver Legacy and Circus Circus). And I'd imagine that the proprietors and ball manufacturers will soon jump on the bandwagon.

4) The tournament finals will be shown by NBC-TV on Sunday, Nov. 13 at 2 p.m., EST. It would be a disaster for the world of bowling if this commitment were not kept.

5) And finally, the promoters undoubtedly welcome the challenge of staging a successful major bowling event. I'm sure they're dying to see how everything turns out...and if there will be a second Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge. And many more.

There's a footnote to the 2004-05 PBA Tour, which ended its season recently. It concerns the almost miraculous turnaround by Steve Jaros, who was mired in a horrible slump and whose professional career was on the line with just a few tournaments remaining on the schedule.

At that point, Jaros had earned less than $50,000, made only one TV show and had not won a title. Even worse, the likable Yorkville, Ill. right-hander was so far down on the PBA point list that it appeared he would fail to nab one of the exempt spots for the following season.

Then, in the last three tournaments of the year, Jaros appeared on two TV shows and earned more than $110,000, most of it by winning the Dexter Tournament of Champions

Jaros, understandably, was elated by his first major victory and, on the TV show, he thanked everyone except the person who was responsible for his remarkable turnaround...John Jowdy.

I'm pretty happy for Jaros, said Jowdy, widely recognized as one of the best coaches in the universe. He had been bowling pretty badly and was not on the exempt list when he got to the U.S. Open (in February). We had a great practice session together while we were in Connecticut and he started to bowl real well after that.

He certainly did...thanks to the generous help he received from Jowdy. Whereas Jowdy receives a hefty fee for private lessons and conducting bowling clinics, he never charges the professionals seeking his help. Jowdy has an uncanny ability to detect a bowler's fault in his delivery...and, just as important, how to correct it.

Addendum: Rowdy Jowdy, as he was known in San Antonio, celebrated his 85th birthday on April 21.

FINAL ITEM: Canoga Park Bowl, located in the heart of the San Fernando Valley, recently announced that its new Bowling Center Manager is Barry Gurney, a native Californian.

Gurney, a 15-year member of the PBA, has five Senior titles to his credit. The affable southpaw, voted the Southern California Bowler of the Year in 1995 and 1997, is a member of both the Los Angeles and SoCal Halls of Fame.

San Gabriel Valley Women’s
Assoc. News

By A. A. Turtle
WEST COVINA — We are in our 2nd week of the California Women’s State Tournament and having some great times. During the 1st weekend, 13 year old Amanda Yabba sang the National Anthem. We wish her well on her move with the family to Nashville, Tenn. to pursue her singing career.

In the first week we had Oletta Shehom from Portola celebrate her 93rd birthday. This young lady who carries a 114 average did a fine job of bowling in all three events starting off with her team event, a 393 series. Going into doubles she carried her own but came back on her singles event and bowled a 167 with a 437 series. According to some of her teammates and her daughter who bowled with her, she out does them and wants to keep going when they are ready to take a break.

This individual waited til the perfect time to bowl her first 200 game and 500 series. She came to the San Gabriel Valley from Antelope Valley. Tamara Bell bowling 210 and 518 series, came into the the tournament with a 129 average. The first thing she asked after her 500 series was, “Could I now join the 500 Club”?

On to some other fine scoring out of Salinas, Joyce Friscia 223/631, Heather Tanner 237/500. Orange Co.—Michelle Valediez 208. Christina De Marco was the first to bowl a 700 series in the tournament with a 706 and 266 game.

San Francisco girls did well, with Jennifer Honciano 226/623, Roxanne Lee 228/624, Sharon Cassidy 601, Elaine Vanotten 608, Donna Dillard 237/602 and Tamy Devine 231 game.

Locally, we had Debbie Metzger 225/656. All the way from Phelan with a 106 average was Kari Poorman shooting a 161 game. Also from the same area with a 119 average Barbara Henard 157 game.

Week 2 of the state tournament, we start out with Denise Garcia who started her second game with 10 in a row and ended with a 286 game and a 678 series. In from the San Fernando Valley, it was Sue Purdie 266/673, Pam Blake 240 game, Adero Long 235/610.

Out of the Citrus Belt with a 124 average, Gail Gutierrez showed off by bowling a 200/492, Barbara Bradley with her 118 average went a little further and had a nice 193/537.

Antelope Valley girls, it was Bobbi Waltman taking the lead bowling 72 pins over her average. Following this, was Alicia Meritt with a 675 series. Ruby Spencer from Fresno bowled a 220 game.

And now for the local bowlers in San Gabriel Valley was Mary Shernicoft a 236 game and Wendy Soottoo 256/673.

The next article will start listing the top leaders. Until then keep up the great scores and let’s see who will be the first to bowl a 300 game this year at state. We are looking forward to the rest of the ladies coming to the San Gabriel Valley and bowling more high scores. Volunteers are still needed to help out at the State Tournament, so if you have a free weekend between now and July 24th, the SGVWBA would really appreciate your help. Call the office and talk to Linda Johnson (626) 859-6216.

The California Women’s Bowling Association will be hosting a product fair at Pacific Palms Resort in City of Industry on Friday, May 20 from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m., then again Saturday 8:00 a.m. to noon. Please come join us and see what the vendors have to offer.

West Coast
Jr. Elims
Keystone Lanes

by David Gordon
NORWALK - The West Coast Jr. Elims at Keystone Lanes really increased its number of bowlers this past Saturday as many new faces joined just under the deadline. To go with the high count of bowlers was the high scores being thrown this weekend. Thank you all to the bowlers and parents taking part this summer. For those who missed the cut off date at Keystone, you can still give me a call to discuss other West Coast Jr. Elims sites or to talk about the winter programs.

The action Saturday started off in a big way. Catching up rather quickly, the leader of the day was William Jackson putting up numbers of 233-268-203-224/928. Outstanding! Will is setting the pace with that session. A big list of 800s starts off with Dayton Crossley 228-248/865, Preston Fukumizu 212-235-236/852, Tyler Hirashima 212-223-213/846, Matthew Harris 268-217/834, Kevin Peterson 269-204/830, Austin Kams 213-236/830 and Kevin Valmonte 215-201-210/813. Man, I wish I could shoot like that.

And not to be over-looked, Eric Milne 211-206/793, Ryan Aguilar 208-212/790, Jeremy Glover 200-203-769, Chris Porter 727, James Hawkins 230-716, Chrisgen Whitfield 716, J.D. Pelow 710, Arisha Piper 707 and John Lawson 202/705. I like it.

Next week, I’ll start to introduce the team and individual standings of all bowlers. Most everyone will be caught up with their missing sessions by then.

This coming Saturday will be the first of two chances for bowlers to make-up their missing sessions. Many of you will be making up two sessions, in addition to the normal session of bowling. That means 12 games. Also, plan on having your make-ups done on the high side of Keystone Lanes.

Therefore Elim bowlers, get plenty of rest, lots of carbs and your equipment in order. It takes consistency to stay near the top, but only one or two bad sessions to make you worry. Please plan on a full day - I know I will. See you there.

JAT Farm Club

by David Gordon
MONROVIA - Just a quick note to all of you JAT bowlers. This coming Sunday, we are at another one of your favorite centers. Canoga Park Bowl will play host to our second tournament of the new year. Some new changes are with the new year, including the maximum average for a Farm Club bowler is 185. This gives many of you the perfect opportunity to come out and start shooting for your glory of the Farm Club.

We are also on the summer schedule now which gives you an additional hour. Check-in is at 8:15 and bowling begins at 9:00. The cost is the same for the Farm Club, $25.00 per tournament and $10 membership fee (new season).

Please remember to bring an average or league sheet if you are bowling the Farm Club. Also, remember your sanction card as information will be verified to your card. We pushed up a lot of bowlers to the Open Division, freeing up your chance to shine. Hope to see you there.

1 on, and Kacy Bonifacini of San Diego was on a tear, rolling an impressive 729 set for the first 3 games. She would end the 6 game set with a huge 1353 set, taking the number 1 spot. Norwalk's Jenna Katsura rolled consistent games all day long, and ended the 6th game with a huge 250 game to end her set with a nice 1258 series to take the final position for the roll off in second. April Urban out of Rancho Santa Margarita took third, good for the $75 scholarship. With the finals set, the two took to the championship pair lanes and started off the extremely important match. Both bowlers were exchanging strikes and spares and half way through the match, they were both very close to each other. The final frames would determine it all, and with a few bad falls going for Kacy, and some very have not been possible. Remember the more that come, then the bigger the awards. So let everyone know what a great event Forest Lanes ran, and next year can be worth so much more. Thank you to all of you once again. Remember without Forest Lanes, this would have not been possible, and a lot is really due to them. It is hard these days to find a bowling center than truly cares for their bowlers, especially for their junior bowlers, and makes the best for them. Forest Lanes is absolutely in the business for the bowler, and makes it their best interest to hold such great events. Thank you to Forest Lanes and everyone who helped run such an excellent event. To end things out, thanks once again to the bowlers, and great bowling. Good luck to all those going to Jr. Gold in July, represent California well, and show them what we are made of. Hope to see you again at Forest Lane's next great tournament, take care.

clutch shots by Jenna, the outcome was a 220 game by Jenna, defeating Kacy's 179. Kacy received a $100 scholarship for her 2nd-place effort, and the Jr. Gold premier spot worth the $500 voucher, was awarded to Jenna. Congratulations to Jenna, great bowling, and the best of luck in Indy.

The boys division had plenty of action of their own. Jarryd Bivins of Saddleback Lanes started out leader with a nice 685 set to take the early lead after three games. Orange's J.R. Montieth was not far behind, and he would go on to shoot a 705 series for the final three games, to end up with a 1359 grand total to jump into the first position. Bivins ended the final three games with another fine set, to end with a 1334, and into second place. Shelby Shirlock of Lake Elsinore consistently shot his way to a 1284 6-game set, good for third, as new tournament-bowler, David Brackett of Lake Forest, had a nice final 3-game set of 645, to end up with a 1238 total, taking the final position spot, in fourth. Just missing the top four finals, was G.T. Myrick, coming from San Diego who made a good showing with a 1234 total. The semi-finals matches were then under way, and J.R. showed why he was leader, knocking off Brackett in their match. While in the other semi-final, 2nd-place Bivins had trouble, as 3rd-place Shirlock defeated him. Both David and Jarryd received $75 scholarships for their very great bowling. Now with the championship match set, many of the spectators knew that it was going to be a very high scoring match, and both bowlers proved that. Shelby had a little carry problem in the beginning of the match and worked with it and answered the problem, ending the game with a nice 215 game. But that would not be enough, as all-day leader J.R. kept up his striking ways, and took the win with a huge 268 game. Great bowling out to Shelby, his effort was worth a $150 scholarship. Huge congratulations go out to J.R. for 1st place, good for the Jr. Gold spot, and the $500 voucher. Good luck in Indiana, and show them what you got.

Once again we would like to thank Forest Lanes for holding this event. They put a lot of time and effort into this event, and it definitely showed. As a bowler, I would like to thank Pat Danforth as well, for coming up with this event, and running it, and also to Joel Ricketts and Brian Carmichael for doing a great job at taking scores, and making sure everything was going smoothly. We would also like to thank all the bowlers who came out and bowled, and also their parents for those who brought them, and cheered them on. Without all of you, this would

by Sue Mellott
CYPRESS – Thursday evening March 31st, in the 6:30 PM, ABTA 770 Scratch league, Rose Sablan was presented several awards by: Cheryl Huntington, Orange County WBA Secretary, Debbie Andreff Orange County WBA Director, and Sue Mellott California Women's Bowling Association Director. Rose received a WIBC 300 ring, presented to her by Cheryl, a gold Butterfly Necklace, presented by Debbie, and a Black Pearl Pendant, presented by Sue.

Rose Sablan with her awards

Rose never thought she would achieve such an accomplishment. In the eleventh frame she became overwhelmed as the league people gathered around, she rolled her ball and watched it hit the pins and noticed one pin weaving back and fourth finally falling over. Wow! Knowing that it's now or never, Rose was determined to place her last ball in the pocket. Releasing her ball, she knew it was delivered well and she was right, it was a solid strike. Yes, she had done it! Rose holds an average of 175 and rolls a Columbia 300. She is unable to attend any tournament because of her job. Most of you may know, Rose works at Valley View Bowl as the Assistant Manager. She and the manager, Alphonso Atkinson have known each other for many years, they worked together in L.A. at South Bay Bowl they make a great team and perhaps that's why Valley View Bowl is doing so well.

CONGRATULATIONS again Rose, and it was my pleasure meeting you and Alphonso I wish you both, much success and keep up the good work.
