Forest Donkeys Claim Fab 5 Title

by Fred Eisenhammer

The Forest Donkeys team of Brent Ilagan, Virgil Dunziellas, Jessica Diso, Jon Diso and Robert Leahy turned in a dominating performance to win the Fab 5 tournament finals in Norwalk.

NORWALK — The Forest Donkeys ran away from the pack en route to claiming the championship of the Fab 5 finals Sunday at Keystone Lanes in Norwalk.

The Donkeys, Jessica Diso, Virgil Dunziellas, Robert Leahy, Brent Ilagan and Jon Diso were one of two teams that had qualified for the event out of Forest Lanes in the Orange County city of Lake Forest.

The Donkeys dominated from the outset. Averaging 191 entering the event, the Donkeys averaged over 200 in the preliminary round to secure the No. 1 seeding in the five-team stepladder finals.

The Donkeys, one of 16 teams entered in the tournament, breezed to a 207-146 victory in the championship game, earning the $1,000 top prize.

Leahy provided one of the key shots of the championship game by rolling a strike in the eighth frame, which gave the Donkeys a double. "When he struck," said Jon Diso, "I knew it was over."

Although the Donkeys appeared to be a finely tuned machine, Diso said Sunday's event marked "the first time we had done anything together." Nor were the Donkeys veterans of the tournament circuit. "It was cool that our two 160 bowlers [Dunziellas and Leahy] were not tournament guys," he said.

A Baker format was used in the tournament by which each of the team's five players bowled two frames. The team's anchor, for instance, bowled in frames five and 10.

"Our goal in a format like that was not so much to strike but to not open," Diso said.

The Donkeys followed that plan to precision. The longest string of strikes during the day for the Donkeys was a mere four. But the team showed its ability to record a barrage of strikes and spares by blasting a 257 in its seventh game of the preliminary round.

The Donkeys had stated before the competition that they would visit nearby Disneyland should they claim the first-place prize.

And when the tournament was over, two members said they planned to follow that plan. "Sure, why not?" said a smiling Leahy. "I've got my [season] pass," Diso said.

The second-place team from Bowlium received $700 and the third-place team from Pinz earned $400.

LANCE POUND’S Ton of Strikes Carries Team to Championship

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA — Every season bowlers come from everywhere within the Citrus Belt to compete in the top scratch league in our Association. Bowlers from Corona, Hemet, Moreno Valley, Norco, Riverside, San Bernardino, Temecula and all points in between trip to the southern Citrus Belt every Thursday night to compete against our best bowlers. Names like Barnes, Bowman, Freeman, Gagnon, Gulley, Hatmaker, Hawkins, Jenkins, LaRiviere, Lewen, Moser, Mojado, Peters, Murtishaw, Nilsen, Warning and West among others are there. Our best against our best.

After 34 exciting weeks of high scores, memorable match games and surprising outcomes everything came to a head last week on championship night. With a crowd of fifty spectators on hand the night got off to a rousing start when the TOP SEVEN teams participated in a playoff parade to the practice lanes. League Secretary SCOTT FILIPI briefed the bowlers on the league playoff rules and the competition began.

The championship would be decided by a step ladder format with each match decided by a teams total pins. The opening match featured the sixth and seventh seeded teams facing off with the winner moving on to bowl against the next highest seed. Each succeeding winner would do the same.

While most of the bowlers struggled throughout the first match RAY WINKOWSKI found a way to roll a big 245 and lead his H & E Equipment Services Team to a 606 - 598 victory over the trio of DeWaine West, Ski Szczawinski and Matt Murtishaw.

In the second step ladder match of the night Winkowski rolled his second big game of the night (247) and with the support of teammates Brandon and Steve Jenkins edged Jim Murtishaw’s Fast Lane Pro Shop team by just eleven pins. Murtishaw’s team lead going into the tenth frame but an undeserved 4-10 split open in the last frame led to a H & E victory.

The seventh seeded H & E team then moved on to face the fourth seeded Mad Meals team. Rowdy Houston led the Mad Meals trio to a comeback win after trailing by fifty pins in the fifth frame. Winkowski rolled a solid 248 but it wasn’t enough. Mad Meals won the game 609 - 603. Winkowski’s 740 (245 - 247 - 248) set was impressive on the dry condition. “POLISH POWER”.

Mad Meals then faced the third seeded Temecula Chiropractic trio in the fourth match of the night. The Temecula team is arguably the best trio assembled in the southern Citrus Belt in years. With a lineup of Allen Freeman, Kelly Jones and Jim Barnes the “chiropractors” are lean, limber and flexible. They have no weaknesses. Most of the spectators I spoke to considered them the favorites to take home the first place $6,000 payday. The favorites didn’t disappoint. With games of 266 (Freeman) 268 (Jones) and 215 (Barnes) they cruised to a 158 pin win over Mad Meals, 749 - 591.

The semi-final pitted the “chiropractors” against the defending champion GULLEY brothers (Dave and Ken) and Bob Warning. The game was close to start but the Temecula trio finished with a flurry of strikes for a 678 - 606 win. Allen Freeman rolled a solid 247 to lead all bowlers.

The championship match was the best of the night and probably the best match in years. The match was decided by one pin on the last shot of the game by the “chiropractors” anchorman Jim Barnes. Barnes, the last bowler of the night, was up in the tenth frame needing a strike on his fill ball to tie the match. A tie score would have forced a full game roll-off. Jim rolled a great ball but left a an four pin. His teams 667 was one pin less than Team Lewen’s (Jon’s Movers) winning 668.

The top seeded and champion Jon’s Movers team was lead by Lance Pound’s 267 and Scott Everson’s 205. Captain Jeff Lewen was a steadying influence throughout. Kelly Jones of the runner-up “chiropractors” was the high scorer of the night with games of 268 - 225 - 265 = 758.

Congratulations to our best southern tier bowlers for a great season and thanks to SCOTT and SHERRY FILIPI for being the best league secretaries in the area.

NOTICE TO VENTURA BOWLERS
NORWALK — This is a first! It’s an.....”I’ll be danged!” Never heard of this kind of thing happening before.
A bowling center changing its phone number is very rare. Buena Lanes in Ventura has had the same number — 805-656-0666 — since the beginning.
Bowling News received an E-mail announcing the number change from 805-656-0666 to 805-677-7770. The new owner was reported not liking 0666 (the sign of the devil) and now has the sign of Christ. Bless Bowling, We love it!!

LIKAPEKA IBARRA Is On A Record Pace

by Frank Weiler

SAN BERNARDINO — Likapeka Ibarra is on a pace to break every known Women’s Club record. Her 214 average is nearly twenty pins higher than any previous high. Her 938 scratch four game series is sixty-three pins higher than her own 875 from last season. Her 1082 handicap foursome is about forty sticks higher than any prior score in this category.

As a result, Likapeka stands on top of the club standings by nearly a full Peterson Point. The TOP FIVE ladies in the standings are: Likapeka Ibarra, Mary Andruczyk, Rolann Karper, Pacita Baker and Christina Hernandez.

The TOP FIVE averages are Likapeka Ibarra (214), Toni Futch (203), Christina Hernandez (202), Mary Andruczyk (196) and Rolann Karper (190).

Ibarra’s 938 (scratch) and 1082 (handicap) are the high series scores so far and Mary Andruczyk’s 268 (scratch) and 304 (handicap) are the high games.

To all readers that requested a free book by Steve Felege, your books will be in the mail next week. We thank you all for reading the Bowling News.

OPEN LETTER

I have my own theories about the decline of bowling. The number one culprit, for me as a serious bowler is oil (or more specifically, lack thereof). I just bought a couple of high performance balls (for heavy and medium oil), but when I tried to practice, the lanes were toast. Both balls started hooking at the arrows. Because I bought the balls at my house center that day, I waited around until they oiled the lanes (about 90 minutes) so I could try them out. The next day I went to 3 houses trying to get some practice time. Every place the same story - “Have the lanes been oiled recently?” “No, except for the ones we’re already using for leagues,” “Are any of those available?” “No.” “So all the lanes you have are dry?” “Yup”. “Thanks anyway.” What’s the point of spending all the money on equipment, if you can’t even use it except for tournaments? Practice with your plastic spare ball, and then bowl leagues/tournaments with resin? I don’t think that’s the answer.

The Lady is A Champ!! Emily Yeung Wins Her First ABTA Title at Covina Bowl $1,800

Pablo and Jo Jo win the Mystery Match Doubles

ALL Other POTS Carry Over to CAL This Weekend

MEMORIAL EVENT Begins Thursday May 21-22-23-34

Through Sunday Each Day is Separate Qualifying

TOP 3 To Lose Pins in the MEMORIAL EVENT 1st 3 Pins - 2nd 2 Pins - 3rd 1 Pin

COVINA — We returned to Covina Bowl and again 7 new members! The semi tough shot produced cut scores of +79 for the men and +32 for the women. Also making the board were Super Seniors Pablo Castro +62, Vic Paolucci +47 and Christine Gonzales +21 ladies!

Topping the qualifying Boards were Brad LeCount +188 and Beth Borci led the ladies +73. They will receive paid entries to any regular ABTA event.

Beth drew for the Match Series pot of $1,385. She drew 650, NO MATCH, so we estimate the Series pot to be $3,500 at CAL this week. The Mystery Match Doubles is est. at $2,000 at CAL.

Kelly Wynn and Arnold Trias were last standing but could not eliminate one another so they shared the $100 Consolation Pot and we go for $1,500 at CAL BOWL this weekend.

The semifinals took the floor with 41 bowlers in hopes of making the exciting top 16 Single Elim Finals including 3 guaranteed women. All others to cash accordingly.

After the three game set the cut to the top 16 was a +69 for the men and women +64. It was quite contentious but a big 255 put Emily Yeung at the top of the Semis at +141. She now sat out and bowl for the title assured of no less than 2nd place.

Steve Brode and Jamescart Alarcio both tied for 2nd +135. So they had a roll-off where Brode prevailed so he is seeded #2 and sit out the first round of the Single Elims.

Emily would draw the Match Game which was worth $910. She drew an unmatched 235. We will estimate the Match Game to be $4,000+ this weekend.

Eliminated in the First round were Tess Dizon, Trung Duong, Ricky Pastrana, Vuong Do, Carrie Wong, Je Je Gabriel and Arnold Trias. They got checks of $100.

Round two: eliminated were Dennis Kelsey, James Alarcio, Steve Brode and John Gonzales. Then in round 3 Jeff Taino and Kmel Cunanan lost out. We are down to the Semi Final game. Brad LeCount and Johnny Sikkens (two fine lefties) Brad won a close one and Johnny (an up and coming young man) was 3rd and $200 with Brad to advance to the title game vs Emily Yeung.

Emily Yeung and Brad LeCount on their game. Emily elected to lead off and spared. After 5 frames Emily with a double had an open, led by 22 pins as Brad was clean, no strikes! Both marked in frames 6-7 but in the 8th Emily yanked a 5 PIN. Brad spared. We are now within 6 pins. Brad struck the 9th but cant double up in the 10th but spared. Emily now needs a mark to win or lose the game. Nervous? I would say so, as she had just missed an easy spare. She went up and just a bit high left the 6 pin. Everyone watched as she picked it up, and then got a Strike to win the match 236-217. A nice $1800 prize. She usually wears her shirt but forget this evening costing her $100. This will not happen again says she but she will now have an ABTA Champion Shirt also, as the "Lady is a Champ" and deservedly so. She bowled VERY well. Great Bowling by a pretty and nice lady who is usually here with us each week. We are all proud of you.

Congrats to Emily Yeung In a Thriller edged Brad LeCount on the Final Ball for her First ABTA Tile and $1,800

Nice Bowling by Brad LeCount who just couldn't get going in the title game He is a fine gentleman and a past ABTA Champion.

Johnny Sikkens really did it up well in his highest finish

Emily Yeung hails from So. Pasadena and married to Andy, an ABTA supporter. Her Father Michael is an ABTA Member. She used a Radical Score drilled by David Yamauchi a past ABTA member.

She thanks her Dad, Husband and Sister-In-Law Carrie Wong for Support. Carrie cashed at Covina in the finals also. Emily also gives Kudos to Bowlmania!!!! Nice Bowling Emmy. YOU DID IT.

Brad LeCount is from Montclair and used a LT-48 drilled by Old Pal Joe Staten at Upland Bowl. He is married to ABTA member and fine bowler Dana. They have 4 kids and just celebrated 21 yrs of wedded bliss. Great people here!!

Johnny Sikkens is from Duarte and used an Ebonite drilled by Fast Eddie Williamson at Bowling Square, also one of the best. He works part time at Bowling Square in Arcadia. He's single with a pretty Girlfriend Ashley Nichols and thanks his father John for support.

THE STATE OF BOWLING

Part 6 of 6

A DISCUSSION WITH EDITOR/PUBLISHER CAROL MANCINI

Editor’s note: Last week we discussed what can be done at the local level to increase bowling league membership. This week we’ll discuss things that can be done at the national level.

Carol: There it is, Steve. What are your thoughts?

Steve: Bowling has been allowed to drop off the nation’s radar screen. If you want more people to become interested in this sport, you must market it to them. The general population gets very little exposure to bowling on major media these days. A couple commercials featuring bowlers with high cholesterol or leaky bladders doesn’t exactly get the job done.

Carol: I’ve seen those ads. They don’t make me want to lace up my shoes and hit the lanes again.

Steve: Me neither. People in charge at the national level should address that. They should put some ads together showing bowling in a more positive light & run them when leagues are forming.

Carol: That’s expensive.

Steve: You have to spend money to make money.

Carol: That’s true. What other ideas do you have?

Steve: Those in charge of such matters should reconnect with a major network to showcase the pros.

Carol: What’s wrong with ESPN?

Steve: Two things. First, it’s an audience limited to those who can afford it. Second, people who watch pro bowlers on ESPN already bowl. That’s not an effective recruiting strategy. A major network would reach more people, even if it was only a once-a-month broadcast.

Carol: But the ratings don’t justify coverage by a major network.

Steve: That’s because bowling has become boring to watch. The new professional teams can fix that by changing their format.

Carol: How?

Steve: People want to watch action, not a team of professional bowlers standing around while only one is actually bowling. Then there’s the high-fives, over and over again.....zzzzzzzzzzzzzzzzzzzz. Also, each pro rolls one frame on each alley until five pros have rolled one complete game.....zzzzzzzzzzzzzzzzzzzz. Competitively, that makes no sense. Bowling at the professional level is about mental acuity and toughness. Today’s TV format doesn’t take advantage of that. Don’t get me wrong, it’s good, but it can be much better.

Carol: How would you fix it?

Steve: By adding more action and drama. I would have five bowlers from each team competing simultaneously across ten lanes.

Carol: That would mean five head-to-head matches going on at the same time.

Steve: Right. A shot clock would be used to keep things moving. Each bowler would have 30 seconds to get a shot off once his lane becomes available; 20 seconds from the moment his ball returns to roll for a spare. There would be no waiting for a lane to be open on each side. That would test the pro’s mental fortitude, and provide non-stop action for the viewers.

Carol: You could watch a single match.....or several. I like that!

Steve: If a certain match becomes more interesting, it could be highlighted in a separate window. Those visuals, along with informed commentary, would keep the viewers riveted.

Carol: How would this format work?

Steve: Every match begins with a coin toss. The winning coach decides whether the team’s players begin on the odd or even numbered lanes. Both coaches submit their initial lineup prior to the start of Game #1, so neither one will know who will be bowling against whom. At the end of game one, the players on the team which won the coin toss will shift to the next pair of lanes. If they began on odd numbered lanes, they will move to even numbered lanes. The coach for the other team can rearrange the lineup to one he/she feels is more advantageous, but none of the players would remain on the same pair of lanes. Also for Game #2, both coaches must replace at least one player with one from “the bench.” For Game #3, the players on the team which lost the coin toss must shift to the next pair of lanes. If they were on odd numbered lanes, they will move to even numbered lanes. The coach for the other team can now rearrange the lineup to one he/she feels is more advantageous. Any players who have not competed must now be inserted into the lineup. Doing so ensures that the talent of an entire team is used. Again, no players would remain on the same pair of lanes. I also believe each team should be required to have at least one female on its roster.

Carol: That’s a phenomenal suggestion! What about scoring?

Steve: Teams would be awarded two points for each individual victory and one point for a tie. Obviously, the team with the most points wins. In case of a tie, the total pin-fall for each team will determine the winner. It’s pretty straight forward.

Carol: It sounds like organized chaos.

Steve: That’s what football is and folks can’t get enough of it. The way I see it, this format utilizes luck, strategy, skill, stamina, team depth and mental toughness to determine the final outcome of an event that is compelling to watch because league bowlers can relate to it. It is much more intense and emotions could flare up. Hopefully, that would attract viewers and excite them enough to want to connect with this game if they don’t already.

Carol: Good point. Do you have any other suggestions for increasing memberships.

Steve: Just one, but it’ll require cooperation between proprietor, local and national bowling associations.

Carol: Let me guess. They should finally establish a true National Championship.

Steve:-) Bingo! Last year, if you recall, I took responsibility for that and proclaimed Team Erie, PA to be the first National Champions of Bowling. Apparently, it stuck! There were no challenges or protests. This year, because the USBC has taken no action against my proclamation, I assume they were in full agreement and trust my judgment to do likewise this year. While I appreciate their non-vote of confidence, their lack of action on this matter means that I’m again burdened with the responsibility to proclaim the greatest bowling city in this country. As of now, Erie’s way ahead of the competition again!

Carol: You’re prejudiced!!! Why don’t you just put the name of every city in a hat and draw one?

Steve: You must be kidding! That would prove nothing.....and Erie might not win;-)

BURBANK — Twice a year, I am in an emotional turmoil. The ending and beginning of the bowling seasons seems to become a tug-a-war of feelings for me. I get sad because the league is over and yet, excited at the prospect of starting anew!

It's true the two seasons are very different from one another and not just in the number of weeks in each one. Winter is more of a renewal. Kids going back to school, Labor Day celebrations and the cool down in the weather. Goals are made to reach a higher average and possibly be the league champs. Summer on the other hand, is subject to more bowlers taking time off, vacationing and laying low. Learning more about your game through practice bowling and drinking that extra beer.

I become very accustomed to seeing my bowling family on a regular basis during the winter and find myself missing those who are off and running during the summer. Consequently, the conflict, and I suffer it gladly for I also know of the rich rewards coming from being once again with my bowling buddies.
