LOOKING BACK 10 YEARS

NORWALK — In April of 2004, Brunswick was sponsoring the MINI ELIMINATOR at The Orleans with $50,000 guaranteed top prize, for a $200 entry fee.

Remember Rolf Gauger with his articles full of stats and measurements?

Frank Kietz gave us a 30 day countdown 'til ABC/WIBC becomes USBC. A sad day for us all!

26 Bowling Centers in So. California were running ANGEL TICKETS Leagues. Four of these Bowls have closed. NO RELATION! Just stating we lost 4 nice centers in 10 years that were busy, busy, busy. Land got valuable or leases were up. Our loss!!!

On April 15 — the Castaways (Showboat) in Vegas announced a $57 million dollar expansion as a Holiday Inn. We all know THAT didn't happen and the termites ate the Showboat!

Fantasy Lanes in Indio was hot after tournament shooters — running all kinds of events. Bowling and gambling — the perfect duo. They just couldn't get leagues to sweep there. Vegas was the big draw.

Here's one for you! Robin Romeo won the WCST Singles at Bowling Square. First female champion — and maybe the last.

Teams and leagues now forming!

GULLEY BROTHERS AND JAMES HAWKINS WIN THURSDAY 640 SCRATCH TRIO LEAGUE

James Hawkins, Ken & Dave Gulley (Photo by Frank Weiler)

MURRIETA — The Gulley Brothers (Ken & Dave) took home the league title in the Thursday 640 Scratch Trio League at Brunswick Cal Oaks Bowl in Murrieta CA on May 15, 2014.

I know it's hard to believe that they were able to do this without their older brother, Randy in the mix, but James Hawkins held up his end.

The team qualified in 4th Place so they had to run the ladder to earn the title. They had went up against Don Moser, Mike O'Brien and Dave Cook's and won with a 761 to 707.

The next match was a nail biter against Scott Hatmaker, Tim Coogler and Bob Snow's

Team and took it by 2 pins with a 582 to 580. This game my brother Ken was the igniter as he struck out in the 10th frame and then my brother Dave and James also struck out to win this game. This, after they were down by over 50 pins going into the 10th frame.

Next up was Kevin Gagnon, Jason Childs and Darron Peters's Team and they won by 4 pins with a 702 to 698. Finally, the last game they bowled the top seed team of Jim and Anita Murtishaw and Sean Kocera's. After the dust settled Rancon Realty prevailed as this years champs.

My younger brother was the energy for sure for all the games and if you were from California you would know the teams they went through had many PBA and awesome players.

Dave said he had lots of fun plus the money was good. They won $1540 each for first and $50 for team high series. They only paid $25 a week for league fees for 32 weeks so they basically doubled their money and had fun.

My other favorite brothers are the Starke Family and I think the Gulley Brother's and the three Starke brothers would have an awesome time bowling each other.

The league will bowl again next year so make plans to bowl this awesome scratch league next bowling season.

USBC MASTERS TO BE PART OF PBA'S WINTER TELEVISION SCHEDULE IN 2015, 2016

GREEN BAY — The PBA and United States Bowling Congress have agreed upon a two-year agreement to include the USBC Masters in a showcase timeslot as part of the PBA Tour's winter television schedule. The 2015 USBC Masters will be hosted by Ashwaubenon Bowl in Green Bay, Wis., starting Feb. 2 with the finals broadcast on Feb. 8 and the 2016 USBC Masters will return to Brunswick Zone Carolier in North Brunswick, N.J., where the event was a sellout in 2013 and 2014.

The new agreement also extends the PBA-USBC partnership related to promoting and operating PBA Experience leagues through the USBC Sport Bowling program.

"The PBA is excited to have the USBC Masters in place as part of the future PBA Tour schedule, and PBA Experience leagues are a great engagement program," PBA Commissioner Tom Clark said. "A solid partnership between PBA and USBC benefits all of bowling."

"As the national governing body for the sport, USBC is

PBA's Championship Banners Have Special Meaning... Sometimes

Colorful pennants are reserved for those who win PBA titles

SHAWNEE, OK – For decades, colorful banners recognizing the players in Professional Bowlers Association tournaments who have won titles have been displayed above the lanes at all PBA events, PBA Tour, Regional and/or PBA50 events.

The banners are a unique benefit reserved only for champions, and the players who win titles are given the opportunity to select the colors used on those banners. For many players, the colors they select are special tributes to an important aspect of their lives. For others, colors are a tribute to a favorite team, their home country or some other special moment. But not always.

There are 40 championship banners on display at FireLake Bowling Center in Shawnee, Okla., site of all preliminary rounds of Oklahoma's Grand Casino Resort PBA Summer Swing, and here's the story behind each of them (to view the banners, visit "Photo Gallery" under the Bowlers tab on the pba.com home page):

Dick Allen (lavender lettering on black background): colors of my favorite bowling shirt at the time I won.

Brad Angelo (magenta on blue): at the time he won his first title, I had two kids; my son got to pick the background color (blue) and my daughter picked the color for the lettering (magenta). She liked the sound of magenta.

Chris Barnes (gold on black): high school and Wichita State colors.

Dom Barrett (red on white): St. George's flag colors.

Jason Belmonte (black on white): colors have no significance; I should probably request a new banner.

Parker Bohn III (purple on yellow): combines color of ball I used for my first title with color of shirt (yellow) I was wearing.

Ryan Ciminelli (black on turquoise): two of the three colors of my favorite team, the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Tom Daugherty (red on silver): Tampa Bay Buccaneers colors.

Mike DeVaney (black on orange): when I won, my three-year-old nephew's favorite color was orange, and at that time there were no other orange banners. The black lettering has no meaning other than it looks nice on orange.

Norm Duke (green on black): colors for Hex Grip, the grip company I owned back in 1986.

Mike Edwards (cream on red): Oklahoma Sooners, baby!

Mike Fagan (orange on blue): New York Mets colors.

Andres Gomez (red on blue with yellow border): Colombia national colors.

Michael Haugen Jr. (green on black): my favorite colors.

Tom Hess (white on orange): my favorite colors.

Tommy Jones (red on black): high school colors.

Mika Koivuniemi (white on blue): Finland national colors.

Brian Kretzer (red on silver): Ohio State colors.

Kelly Kulick (white on blue): Indianapolis Colts colors.

Anthony LaCaze (white on turquoise): our wedding colors.

Thomas Larsen (black on red with white cross): Denmark flag.

Chris Loschetter (red lettering trimmed by Cubby blue on white): I'm a hopeless Chicago Cubs fan.

Michael Machuga (red lettering on white): Normally only players who are entered in an event have their banners displayed, but Machuga was a late scratch so his banner remained on display.

Wes Malott (black on white): I knew someone was going to ask about that one day; come back later and I'll come up with a good answer...

Eugene McCune (Cubby blue on red): Chicago Cubs colors.

Scott Newell (silver on checkered black & white flag): Oakland Raiders' silver on NASCAR checkered flag.

Scott Norton (white on red): Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim colors.

Bill O'Neill (white on orange): our wedding colors.

Rhino Page (black on orange): orange is my favorite color, black has no meaning.

Osku Palermaa (blue on white): Finland national colors.

Jake Peters (gold on black): Wichita State colors.

Sean Rash (gold on black): Wichita State colors.

Ronnie Russell (gold with purple trim on white): high school colors.

Ryan Shafer (white on purple): purple is tribute to Del Ballard Jr. because I never would have won without his help.

Tom Smallwood (black on orange): first two colors that popped into my head.

Jason Sterner (white with red trim on black): Atlanta Falcons colors.

Pete Weber (yellow on blue): I have no idea. They may have been my dad's colors. They certainly aren't because of the St. Louis Blues.

Walter Ray Williams Jr. (black on white): colors of the shoes I wore when I first came out on Tour.

Stuart Williams (red on white): St. George's flag colors.

Dave Wodka (white on purple): colors have no significance; I wanted Yankee pin-stripes, but that design wasn't available.

Mike Wolfe (white on red): Indiana University colors.

MARK FISSER DOMINATES DEAF TRAVEL SWEEPER AT AMF RIVERSIDE BOWL

RIVERSIDE — The 2013-14 bowling season was a sort of welcome back season for Mark Fisser in So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League after absence of more than a decade. Fisser returned with a bang in the league's first session at Keystone Lanes rolling a 777 (258-252-267), then on March 23 set a new league record 4 games 1046 (244-214-heart breaking back to back 289-299) at Jewel City Bowl and closed the season at AMF Riverside Lanes with a dominating 953 (228-226-236-263) in the league's sweeper.

The Deaf Travel League happened for the first time, sharing its season ending sweeper with another deaf league, Riverside Silent League at AMF Riverside Lanes. Both leagues wanted to get the feelings of the venue for the coming Memorial Day weekend 73rd annual Pacific Coast Deaf Bowling Tournament. We do not have the Riverside Silent's results.

In the Travel League's sweeper Fisser's 953 led honor roll list of 8 bowlers including three 800s. Bob Jones hit consistent all twos games 213-214-216-212 for 855, Leroy MacMonagle had 193-213-219-207 for 832 and Ed Abakumoff 204-198-214-190 for 806. Others were Gorman Low with 224-761, Dan Flores with 236-733, Andy Lorenzo 707 and Jeff Stansell 208-702. Celia Salcedo was top lady with 187-684.

Fisser also had Jim Mohr's help in their team Anaheim's winning the team sweepstakes with 2144. Mohr who missed the first game, helped with his (198) 519. The league champion Jones' Eagle Rock placed 2nd with 2100. Also in addition to top in singles, Fisser won handicap doubles with MacMonagle and scratch with Jones. In short, Fisser got the lion's share of the Sweeper money.

That did not stop there, as in the distribution of the league team prize money, Fisser in addition to his winning the league's Masters, also got most of the league's special prizes. He received the league's Charles R. Hart Trophy for his 218 high average and prize for his new league record 1046 series.

The league champion Eagle Rock with Connie Marchione, Bob Taylor and Bob Jones were honored as the 2014 champion. Fisser's Anaheim with Emad Aranki and Jim Mohr placed second. Anaheim's 2372 got the team high series and Stansell's Mid City of Andy Lorenzo and Paul Taffolla were honored for 640 team high game. Dan Flores was honored for his 300 high game, the third in the league's 54 years.

This all-deaf traveling league thanks the AMF Riverside Lanes management and staff for letting league uses its lanes and meeting room. Plans are ready for the 55th season, which will start with a meeting on August 24 at Keystone Lanes. New comers interested in joining are welcome and should see one of the officers, President Ed Abakumoff, Vice President Sharon Caldwell and Secretary Treasurer Bob Taylor.

20 MEN TEAMS AND 7 WOMEN TEAMS FOR 73RD ANNUAL PACIFIC COAST DEAF TOURNAMENT AT AMF RIVERSIDE LANES

RIVERSIDE — The 73rd annual Pacific Coast Deaf Bowling Association tournament drew 20 men teams this year at AMF Riverside Lanes. The women's 67th annual Pacific Coast Deaf Women's Bowling Association drew only 7 teams for its tournament also at AMF Riverside Lanes. The host is Riverside Silent Bowlers. The program starts with optional No Tap doubles on Thursday May 22 from 6 PM to 10 PM.

Tournament starts on Friday with singles and doubles, Team bowling at 8 AM on Saturday with Masters qualifying round following. Another squad of singles and doubles on Sunday morning at 8 AM and Masters match plays following afterwards.

PBA REGIONAL ROUNDUP:

RAYMOND, KEILY, GARBER WIN FIRST PBA REGIONAL TITLES

Tim Kauble of Marion, Ohio defeated Dick Gran of Hartsville, Ohio by 26 pins to win the companion PBA50 Baldo Campana Central Open. Both tournaments were presented by Radical Bowling.

It's now Kmel Cunanan vs Cecilia Lung for the right to advance to the title game vs Brode. Kmel won in a close game which Cecilia gave her all. Cecilia, a former Champion is 3rd and $200. Kmel is the Horse winner $26 to those who picked him for their $5 Investment.

We are now down to the title game. Two of our Most Faithful Members as Brode

Brode Nabs Title #3 $2,800 at Friendly Hills — (L-R) Jamecart Alarcio, 4th $110 Michael Zhang 10th, $100 Sean Ngon, 13th $100 Steve Brode/Champion $2,800, Kmel Cunanan (Runnerup) $500, Cecilia Lung 3rd $200, Danny Guevarra 4th $ 110, and Annaliza Argoncillo our Super ABTA Director.

(top seed) vs Kmel Cunanan. Kmel starts on the left lane. He spared and then a 3 bagger to take a lead but opened in frame 5. Here comes Mr. Brode with strikes in frames 5 through 9, (a 5 Bagger) and over took Kmel who couldn't carry and opened the 10th at 189/220 with Brode 217/240 for the win and a tidy $2,800. It can't happen to a nicer man!! He wins the guaranteed prize fund of $1000 plus an additional $1700 for investing in the optional Cash & Carry, and $100 for using his 900-Global Ball Shredder drilled by ABTA Member Ben Mach at Westminster Lanes. Total of $2,800. Congrats Steve. He has been with ABTA over 20+ years and this is his 3rd title.

He thanks his parents Chuck and Patti (ABTA Members) and pals Jack T. Stan and Ed Palma for the cheers. His new Job is Logistics Mgr. for American Cargo Express. He thanks the ABTA for having the Finest Tournament to Bowl in!!

Kmel, also one of the Good Guys got $500 in the runner up spot with his fine bowling. He used a Track drilled by Ramon at Carter Bowl. He's married to Mia with Sons Adrian and A.C.

Cecilia Lung is from Monterey Park and used a 900 Global Proflit drilled by ABTA Member Jimmy Wong. Married to the affable Jerry Chang a ABTA Regular!! She thanks her family for support. Jerry, Andrew, Joseph, Noirber and Angela are regular ABTA Supporters as are her many Friends. She also gives kudos

BURBANK — There are times when I am overwhelmed with the many blessings in friendship I have through bowling. All ages, all walks of life. Participating in tournaments, I have made those brief friendships that have meaning beyond belief. Within regular league play, my team mates become like family members. I hurt when they hurt, I celebrate when they celebrate. They are so much a part of my daily life that many conversations with my other friends and family members include the words "Oh yes, my friend that I bowl with...".

This doesn't even come close to the emotion I have for the youth bowlers that have passed through my life. Many of them now married, having little bowlers of their own. They were always referred to as "my kids" and were talked about and bragged on as much as my natural born sons.

Why this walk down the emotional lane of bowlers past, you ask? I made a huge decision this week. I am returning as Youth Director for the bowling program at Pickwick. I retired proudly several years ago and have many other irons in the fire but I realized these youth bowlers deserve to be guided. Sure, any one could do this job. I'm not extraordinary. However, I am devoted. Devoted to helping these little ones find a passion for bowling. So, as mentioned in a previous article, I am back to starting fires!

BOWLING

High school athletes have busier time and physical challenges. That's why three sport varsity regulars are rare, and two sport participants are hailed. Over the years bowling in high school competition has filled the gap well.

What started in many schools as a club sport developed into a varsity competition with all trimmings. Though league score final results can be based on two or three game matches they all are confined to a regular time slate. And the nature of the sport on the high school level includes regular league, county and state play and a few special high school team and individual play.

The high school bowlers have become well known through special events and the state finals often draw crowds to match even some of the many major and pro presentations. So the high school bowlers, by fitting into various niches give the players in other sports more flexibility, and the bowlers have an opportunity to check out scholarship events. That doesn't prevent the high school-ers from college tryouts, high school invitationals promoted and conducted by most organizations.

And though lower level and school bowling on Team USA and in the many international start up groups. This doesn't come easily. It takes the cooperation of local and state officials, parents that are willing to help out whenever. Communication is the key and parents, bowling center owners and employees and many bowlers who never had the chance to get into the bowling roll.

It may be difficult to point out that New Jersey and particularly the northern area has long experience in the double varsity picture and some of those early high school pioneers are now rolling in senior action 30 or more years after being introduced to ever changing values of the sport as an addition to the high school beginnings.

There also is a constant lesson other sports learn by streamlining their involvement so some of their regulars can take part in another sport, knowing it has and is being done. To list all the high school bowlers who have had success in two sports because of the careful attention given emphasizes the high school connection and many a student selects a school based on this deep interest. From a spot on an unorganized club to a spot on a fully organized varsity status has become one of the features of major conventions only because it works well. Many a two sport athlete owes his desired position to bowling. Many more will.
