Bowlmor Joins AMF's Existing Second Lien Lenders, New Chapter 11 Plan for AMF Bowling Worldwide

The New Company, Bowlmor AMF, To Be Owned by Second Lien Lenders and Bowlmor's Owners, Would Combine the Businesses of Bowlmor and AMF

NEW YORK — AMF Bowling Worldwide, Inc. and certain of its affiliates ("AMF") filed a new chapter 11 plan of reorganization and disclosure statement today sponsored by Strike Holdings LLC (known as "Bowlmor"), and certain of AMF's second lien lenders, including Cerberus Series Four Holdings, LLC ("Cerberus"), and Credit Suisse.

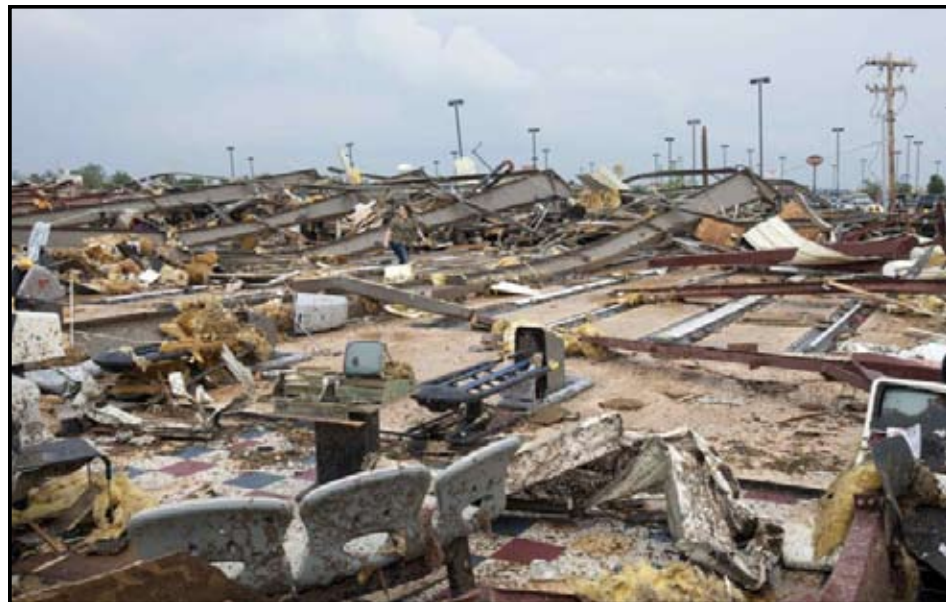

"The combination will not only result in a strong company but also the best bowling experience possible. We are committed to making Bowlmor AMF a truly great company for the bowling public, our partners and our employees."

The plan provides that AMF will be reorganized and combined with Bowlmor to form a company that will be known as Bowlmor AMF, which would be the largest operator of bowling centers in the world with 7,500 employees, 276 bowling centers and combined annual revenues of approximately $450 million. The plan provides that AMF's second lien lenders will convert their debt into equity in Bowlmor AMF, so that Bowlmor AMF will be owned jointly by the financial institutions that hold AMF's second lien debt and by equity holders in Bowlmor. Credit Suisse will provide a term loan facility in the principal amount of $230 million, and a revolving loan facility in the principal amount of $30 million. The largest holders of AMF's existing second lien debt have expressed Walter Millsap (78) is a regular at Cal Bowl in Lakewood Monday May 20th was ANYTHING but a regular day in his "Young at Heart" league. Walter was happy with his game one 287. Game two was only a 236. Then the strikes began. ELEVEN, and a head shaker for 299. A big, big 822 Series and a big, big smile. CONGRATULATIONS!!!

Randy Pedersen is Unlikely Winner in PBA50 Dayton Classic

by Jerry Schneider

KETTERING — After starting qualifying dead last with a 144 game, and not bowling competitively for six years, winning the PBA50 Dayton Classic presented by Roto Grip was the furthest thing from PBA Hall of Famer Randy Pedersen's mind.

After his rough start, the 50-year-old color analyst for ESPN and CBS Sports Network PBA Tour telecasts rocketed through the field to win in his PBA50 Tour debut by defeating fellow Hall of Famer Amleto Monacelli, 232-226, in the championship match Thursday at Capri Lanes.

"It was a combination of just bowling bad and maybe being on a tough pair of lanes," Pedersen of his first game. "But after that I bowled a 240, then a 230 and thought, okay, things are getting better.

"It was a combination of things," he added. "I got some good advice, made the right ball choices and adjustments and then got a good sense pretty quickly for how the lanes were reacting and how I could adjust for it."

In the championship match, Pedersen won by striking on his first ball in the 10th frame on a light hit.

"Amleto had lane choice and that left me finishing on the right lane which we both knew was the toughest," Pedersen said, "but as the match progressed I thought, hey, even though it's been 11 years since I've won, I remember how to do this, so I threw what I thought was a pretty good shot and got a lucky break with the high hit."

After winning a tournament he admitted to being a little reluctant about even entering, Pedersen plans to continue his PBA50 career by taking it tournament-by-tournament. He was a 13-time PBA Tour winner during a 25-year career (1981-2006-07). Knee injuries after the 2006-07 season and two subsequent surgeries led to his retirement.

Qualifying third for the stepladder finals, Pedersen defeated 2012 USBC Senior Masters winner Mike Edwards of Tulsa, 244-191, in the opening match and then defeated Pasco County Suncoast Open winner Bob Learn Jr. of Erie, Pa., 268-223, in the semifinal.

Throughout the 2013 PBA50 Tour season, players are competing for the opportunity to advance to the nationally-televised PBA50 Tour Finals which will be conducted as part of the World Series of Bowling V in Las Vegas in November. The top three players in points at the conclusion of the season will advance to the PBA50 Tour Finals. The top three after five tournaments this season are Walter Ray Williams Jr., Bob Learn Jr., and Lennie Boesch Jr.

The PBA50 Tour takes a short break but will return for the season's two majors in Las Vegas. The Suncoast PBA Senior U.S. Open presented by Storm will be conducted June 2-7 at the Suncoast Bowling Center and the USBC Senior Masters June 9-14 at the South Point Bowling Center.

PBA50 DAYTON CLASSIC Capri Lanes, Kettering Ohio Final Standings

1. Randy Pedersen, Clermont, Fla., $7,500.
2. Amleto Monacelli, Venezuela, $4,000.
3. Bob Learn Jr., Erie, Pa., $2,500.
4. Mike Edwards, Tulsa, $2,000.

Stepladder Results

Match One: Pedersen def. Edwards, 244-191.
Semifinal Match: Pedersen def. Bob Learn Jr., 268-223.
Championship: Pedersen def. Monacelli, 232-226.

DEAF TRAVEL SWEEPER: ABAKUMOFF 289/849 TOPS BUT AUDETTE TAKES $$$

YORBA LINDA — So. Cal. Deaf Traveling League ends its 53rd season with an exciting sweeper at Yorba Linda Bowl. League President Ed Abakumoff started the day with 10 strikes in row, left a pin standing, spared and closed with a strike for a 289 game. Previously in his last Wednesday league in Moreno Valley, Abakumoff ran 7 strikes in row, then left a pin, spared and finished with 4 strikes for a 279 game. After his 289, Ed followed with yo-yo games if 173-203-184 for the day’s high 849 series.

Bowling against Abakumoff was Robert Audette who after a 204 start hit a 254 and 206 before slumping to 169 for 833. Beating Audette’s 833 by one pin was Francisco Navarro who finished with a 231 after games of 215-210-178 for 834. After these 800’s came Leroy MacMonagle with (206) 766 Bob Jones’ (216) 764, Bob Taylor 707, Connie Marchione (202) 706 and Andy Lorenzo
214. The top ladies were Celia Salcedo with 656 and Anita Lorenzo with 176.

For the team scratch sweepstakes, Audette had better help from his Whittier teammates Andy Lorenzo and Randy Salazar as Whittier won with 2168. Abakumoff’s Riverside with Celia Salcedo and Dennis Vigil placed 2nd with 2124. Despite Navarro’s 834, MacMonagle with Pat Morford and Wesley Kay, their Orange County’s 2041 beat Navarro’s Covina for 3rd place.

In fairness to lower average bowlers, this travel league uses handicap in single s and doubles sweepstakes. Audette with 122 handicap 955 had 40 pins advantage over Abakumoff and Navarro, took a lion’s share of the sweeper singles, doubles and mixed doubles prize pots. Celia Salcedo with 20 handicap advantage over other 3 women took the most if the women’s pot money.

The league’s team points money were distributed with the bowlers points prize money differs by only $80 dollars from first place and 8th place. The champion Orange County trio of Patricia Morford, Wesley Kay and Leroy MacMonagle with 189 leading points taking $290.48 each. The 8th place S.F. Valley trio of Alphonso Ruelas, Anita Lorenzo and Bob Jones with 137 points took $210.41 each.

In addition to the league’s special prizes, the Champion team Orange County got $75.00 ($25.00 each). The 2nd place team Whittier got $45.00 ($15.00 each). Whittier also got $30.00 for its season high series of 2202. Team Covina with 631 took the season high game.

The rest of special prizes were for individual achievements. Francisco Navarro his season high series 879 prize and a memento prize for his 300 game bowled in the season opener. Bob Jones took the season high game 278 game. Prize. The women’s prizes went to Anita Lorenzo for her season high series of 714 and Pat Morford for her season high game 205.

The high average prize went to Leroy MacMonagle’s 192 and Connie Marchione presented him with the league’s Charles R. Hart Memorial Perpetual Trophy. The women’s high average prize went to Celia Salcedo’s 157. MacMonagle also took the most improved man prize with 7 pins and Morford’s 3 pins took the improved woman’s prize.

Most points won prize went to Randy Salazar with 53 points and the woman’s part went to Anita Lorenzo with 49 points. Second most points were split between MacMonagle and Navarro with 51 each. Taylor took the 3rd place with 47 points.

MacMonagle took the most 200 games prize with 22, also the most 800s prize and tied with Abakumoff with the most 700 or better series. Salcedo took the woman most 600 or better prize with 11.

Finally the league’s Masters tournament held during the season prizes were paid out. The winner MacMonagle took $80.00. Runner up Bob Jones got $50.00 and 3rd place Navarro $40.00, 4th Gorman Low $30 and $25.00 each went to Abakumoff, William Golyer, Emad Aranki and Randy Salazar.

The league thanks Yorba Linda Bowl management and staff as being excellent hosts and for allowing the league bowl in the center and having a potluck lunch while bowling.

The oldest all deaf scratch traveling league will have its meeting to start its 54th year on August 11th at Keystone lanes. All deaf and hearing-impaired bowlers are welcome.

THANK YOU Connie for writing for the Bowling News for over 30 years!!

their confidence in the new company by providing $50 million of backstop financing, which will be used to provide working capital for Bowlmor AMF and to pay cash distributions in varying amounts to AMF’s other creditors. In addition to second lien lenders, the plan has the support of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors. AMF’s first lien lenders will receive payment in full, in cash, of principal, interest at the non-default rate, and their fees.

“The prospect of combining Bowlmor’s proven approach to operations and marketing with the AMF brand, its large number of locations and national market penetration represents an exciting opportunity for both companies,” said Bowlmor’s Founder and CEO Tom Shannon, who will serve as the Chairman, CEO and President of the combined company. “The combination will not only result in a strong company but also the best bowling experience possible. We are committed to making Bowlmor AMF a truly great company for the bowling public, our partners and our employees.”

Joining Shannon on Bowlmor AMF’s executive team will be Bowlmor’s President and Chief Financial Officer, Brett Parker, who will become Vice Chairman, CFO and EVP of Bowlmor AMF.
The new Bowlmor AMF will be jointly owned by AMF’s existing second lien lenders, who will hold 77.53%, and Shannon and Parker, who will collectively hold 22.47% of the new company.

Steve Satterwhite, AMF’s Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer said, “AMF’s operational and financial performance through our reorganization process has set the stage for a successful emergence from bankruptcy. It is thanks to the dedication and hard work of AMF’s employees and management team that we recently posted the best same store sales growth since 2007 and the highest profitability since 2009, achieving impressive results despite the challenges of the restructuring and economic conditions.”

The next step in this process is a hearing set for May 23, 2013 at which the Bankruptcy Court in Virginia overseeing AMF’s chapter 11 case will be asked to approve the disclosure statement so that the plan can be sent to AMF’s creditors for approval. Assuming that the Bankruptcy Court approves the disclosure statement on May 23, the plan will be sent out for a vote and the Bankruptcy Court will schedule a hearing to confirm the plan. Pending court approval, AMF could emerge from bankruptcy and combine with Bowlmor by the end of June.

More information about AMF’s restructuring is available at www.AMF.com/restructuring.

Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

There are many ways to lose bowling friends and teammates, or at least, annoy them greatly. Here's a few:

Use a person's personal ball or stick your fingers in it without asking permission first.

Spill your drink on their bowling shoes.

Shake hands with them after eating chocolate or potato chips, or after you run your fingers through your hair.

Always tell them how good the person whose place on the team they took was.

Yell at them.

Give them the silent treatment.

Never go to a league meeting.

Go to every league meeting and question everything that comes up.

Never read the rule book.

Memorize every rule and make sure everyone knows that you know every word of the book.

Tell the proud owner of a new, very expensive bowling ball that you could have got it for them wholesale.

Always keep score.

Never keep score.

Don't bother to learn how to keep score.

Whenever you roll badly tell everyone how good you used to bowl.

Use the bowling center as your market place to sell raffle tickets, cookies, candy and everything else.

Rush to the line without ever taking a look to see if anyone is ready to bowl on either side.

Don't bowl unless there are six lanes open on each side.

Be the last one to arrive and the first one to leave, so much so that you don't know how your team stands before the night starts, and you're gone before the night's results are known.

Never be ready when it is your turn to bowl.

Tell everyone, every time, when it is their turn to bowl.

Make excuses for every shot.

Never have a reasonable excuse.

Cry about everything.

Never cry.

MIKE RIGANO'S First Is 803

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS — Mike Rigano rolled an 803 (268 - 267 - 268) series at Empire Bowl in the NFL Clubhouse League to establish a new personal high. It was his first 800, with a previous high of 789.

Mike used his Ebonite DVD to break the eight century mark and is thankful to CORKY De MAIO for drilling the ball perfectly. As we all know, in bowling the name of the game is matching up. That is, matching your equipment to the oil conditions on the lanes. Mike will tell you that his DVD is perfect for the oil patterns on display at Empire Bowl. Now Mike knows that Corky knows Empire. Now we all know that "CORKY KNOWS BEST."

Rigano has been bowling for 42 years, starting at Empire Bowl when he was just eight years old. That is a lifetime of bowling in the same house.

I don't know of any other bowler who has been loyal to one house for such a long time. Because of the fluid world we live in, there are not many bowlers as loyal as Mike.

Anyway, Mike is a great guy who deserves all the best. Friends describe him as genuine, helpful, considerate and one of a kind. "I LIKE MIKE" because he is always smiling and friendly. He may be Empire Bowl's top desk man.

I stopped by Empire Bowl recently to speak with Mike and found him to be very engaging. We chatted for a while and I learned that he is a big PBA fan. He watches all the PBA shows and roots for Pete Weber. Why? Because Pete is his age (50) and can still compete and beat the young guys. Another Rigano favorite is Mark Roth for being the first PBA bowler to "really" hook the ball. Mike's favorite filly is Kelly Kulick, because she is a fierce competitor.

I tip my hat to Mike first because he is a great person and then because he is a super bowler. My thanks to the BOWLING NEWS for recognizing Mike and all the other great people who bowl.

ABTA at Covina Bowl 4 Day Memorial Event

NORWALK — We returned to Keystone Lanes where we saw a semi-tough shot and 195 entries come out on Saturday for a fun day of bowling. The cut scores were + 97 for the men and + 77 for the women, on a medium shot this week. The Super Seniors added to the board (two men and one Woman) Mike Bousquet +89, Ben Bagosian + 74, and Sierrre Herradura +46 for the women at +39. Super seniors are men 63 and over, and for the women you just need to be a young 55. That would give us 49 bowlers making it to the semi-finals.

The High qualifiers for the tournament Emilio Flores for the men with a + 174 and for the women it was Deborah Abahazy with a + 155. They will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed draws the Match Series, and this time it was worth $1,500. Emilio drew a 495. We had one bowler who shot that, and it was Eric Will. Since this was his first event with the ABTA he would take home 25% which was $385. That means we will have a carry over of $1,155 to next week at Covina Bowl. This week we saw Gilbert Gissendan and Kevin Collier miss in the final round, so both will get $25. We will go for $1,200 next week at Covina Bowl.

In our optional doubles, finishing in first were Emilio Flores and Dino Cantoria along with Don Quitangon and Tim Tran with a 1498 for $130. There was a total of $1,370 paid out in doubles and 23 paid spots with low to cash of 1392.

After bowling the semi-finals, finishing in first was Jo Jo Barcelona with a +186, and coming in a close second was Derrick Brown at a +154. Derrick sat out the first round. Our top seed had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $5,000. Jo Jo Barcelona drew a 252 this week. After a review of all the scores bowled, we had no bowlers who shot that score, so we will estimate the pot at $5,000 for our next event. We now have a second pot started that is at $1,625.

This would bring us to our top 16 Match Play finals. In the first round, the seven losers were Jimmy Wong, Mike Bousquet, Sandy Rosenblum, Bernie Navarro, Joevin Bolanos, Adam McKenzie, and Alan Libao, each will get $100. In the second round, the four losers were Derrick Brown, Deborah Abahazy, Tomas Chavez, and Beth Borci with each getting checks of $105.

This would get us down to the final five bowlers. The weekly horses are paying a low of $44, Don Quitangon, to a high of $102 for Kent Maruyama. In one of the matches, we saw our tenth seed Don Quitangon bowling the eleventh seed Kent Maruyama.

This match went back and forth and saw both bowlers bowling quite well. But it was Don who in the ninth frame left the greek church and failed to pick it up and that translated to a 247-242 victory for Kent Maruyama. In the other match it was sixth seed Jiradej Harnpatanakitpach bowling the twelveth seed Freddy Zamora. It was another close match, we saw both bowlers battle throughout. In this one, Jiradej came up on top with a 214 to 208 finish to advance. Finishing in 4th and 5th place this week were Freddy Zamora and Don Quitangon. They each got $110.

Our semi-final match was all set, and would pit the sixth and tenth seeds from the semis against each other. In the weekly "horses", we would see Jiradej paying $46 and Kent paying $102 if they would win their match. This was again another good match from both bowlers. Kent started out with three strikes while Jiradej would start out the match with 2 out of 3 opens to put him down by 41 pins. Nevertheless, Kent's lead did not last long as a pair of splits in the fourth and fifth frames allowed Jiradej a chance to catch back up. He would open in the fourth also but come back with a strike in the fifth that started a string of strikes for him. Both bowlers got strikes in the sixth and seventh frames and the lead was now down to

One of the Good Guys Wins! Maruyama wins his first ABTA Title at Keystone (L-R) B.K. Jiradej 3rd, Jo Jo Barcelona (Runner up) Kent Maruyama (Champ) $1,595, Kent's #1 Fan, Linda Ho and "Ready Freddy" Zamora 5th.

19 pins. In the eighth frame, it was Jiradej who would blink first as he left the 8 pin and picked up his spare. Kent got a strike and the lead would jump back up to 40 pins. It would finish out this way as both bowlers would string strikes for the ninth and tenth frames. Kent would go on to finish with a 225/261 to Jiradej 203/234 to advance to the title match. Jiradej would finish in 3rd place for $200 and Kent advanced to the title match and was your horse winner for $102.

The title game was all set at Keystone Lanes. It would be top our qualifier Jo Jo Barcelona going against the tenth seed Kent Maruyama. We saw both bowlers start out with strikes to open up the match. Kent would spare in his second frame and then Jo Jo left the 4-6-7 split and was down by 20 pins after the second. Both bowlers would mark in the next two frames. Jo Jo then mounted a comeback with three strikes in the 5-6-7 frames to trail by only 3 pins after the seventh frame. In the eighth frame, another 4-6-7 split by Jo Jo left the door open and Kent jumped on it with three straight strikes to finish it out. Kent went on to finish out with a 216/252 to Jiradej 198/224 to take home his fourth ABTA championship. He would take home $1,000 for the victory and an additional $595 for Cash and Carry to give him a total of $1,595. Jo Jo would take home $500 for his second place finish.

Champion Kent Maruyama is from is Gardena and used a Tropical Breez drilled by John. He is single but his girlfriend Linda was there to watch. He would like to thank her for all her patience, his supporters Matt Fukuda, the ABTA and its staff for having such a great tournament.

Jo Jo Barcelona, Second Place, is from Lemoore and used a Global Train drilled by Rich Shimoda. He is married to Marily and they have 3 boys Marx, Matt and Mico. He would like to say thank you to his family for all their support and understanding, his ABTA friends, the ABTA and its staff.

Jiradej Harnpatanakitpanich, Third Place, is from Buena Park and used a Game Breaker Ebonite drilled by David Haynes. He is single and would like to say thank you to Jenny for all her support even though she was not there due to work. A Special thank you to his coach Mark Baker, his staff at Camp Baker, the ABTA and its staff.

See our ad for address and directions. You can check our website (www.abta1.com) for schedule and directions. If you have changes in address please send your new address via the comments tab on our website. Make Plans for our next event at Covina Bowl, come early as the squads are huge at 6 pm.

Its history folks as Kent Maruyama enters the archives as our latest champion. Hope to see you at Covina Bowl!

If you have any comments or suggestions, use the contact page on our Website to send comments to us. Thank you for being an ABTA member until then!

GEICO KING OF THE SWING TO CONCLUDE MILWAUKEE’S SUMMER SERIES

MILWAUKEE — A new GEICO Summer King of the Swing special event, a five-player stepladder final with a $25,000 prize fund and a $10,000 first prize, will conclude the PBA Tour’s Milwaukee summer series on Sunday, June 2.

The King of the Swing field will include the winners of the GEICO PBA Summer Swing’s Badger, Wolf, Bear and Milwaukee Open tournaments plus at least one “wild card” based on competition points from the four events. Here’s how the King of the Swing will work:

- The winners of the Badger, Wolf, Bear and Milwaukee Opens will be seeded into the stepladder final based upon their standings in overall competition points for the four events.
- The fifth spot in the stepladder finals will go to the highest-finishing player in Summer Swing points who has not otherwise won a spot in the finals.
- If a player wins more than one event, the next highest finisher in the subsequent tournament will advance to the stepladder (example: if Player A wins the Badger and Wolf Opens, the next highest finisher in the Wolf Open will earn the berth in the finals assuming he/she doesn’t win a subsequent event).
- The prize money for the King of the Swing will include $10,000 for first place, $6,000 for second, $4,000 for third, $3,000 for fourth and $2,000 for fifth place. The GEICO PBA Summer King of the Swing finals will be contested at 2:30 p.m. (PT) on Sunday, June 2, for airing on CBS Sports Network on Tuesday, July 9, at 4 p.m. PT.

New Sponsor 'FINANCIAL ADVISORS' is Adding Money to Super Pots and Sweepers

The Financial Advisors Super Sweeper Sidepot

$10 weekly entry fee per bowler, with half of the money being paid out each week, and the other half going towards the huge payouts on sweeper night at the end of the season. With 47 entries on Monday, the Financial Advisors sidepot is looking at $235 in the weekly sidepot and $9000 estimated for sweeper night. The top three series will get paid, as well as the top 16 games bowled that night. Bowlers are eligible to cash in each game. Financial Advisors Super Sweeper Sidepot, will be adding $1,000 to the total collected. If you win 2 Super Pots all season you'll be ahead before we even get to sweepers with the $9000 payout. 100% of all money collected will be paid out for the season.

THE BATTLE CONTINUES

DOWNEY — "Long oil" this week and next will produce the round five winner and four happy guys. It's been a gruelling year; but 64 bowlers came out every week to test their skills, only to get frustrated and humbled. That's bowling!!

I overheard many team captains checking averages and building teams for next year. (Did someone count 15 teams already signed up?) If, you ARE putting together a team, please check with Mike on rules, averages to use, and availability.

The Monday league seems to be "Man's Final Frontier". You can't slay dragons, walk on the moon, or run a 2 minute mile. So conquer the mighty Ebonite!!!

This weeks big shots for the sidepots were: Game One Matt Garcia 265, Game Two Bobby Campagnale 247, Game Three Jon Diso 268. Raul Rosales emptied the FINANCIAL ADVISORS POT of $245.00 with his 279 game. Raul registered the high series of the night 712.

Checking individual efforts— —Brandon Golden 279, Ramon Torres 278, Eric Snow 265 and Brandon Grant 261. Jamie Rovner tossed a nice 636 set leading her GJC SERVICES to a 5/0 win over J.A.T.

The league as a whole is now averaging 194, which is up 3 pins from the 191 start of this round.

Here's a quick summary of this weeks win/loss numbers. THREADWORKS 8 vs. BOWLIUM 2— —SYSCO 8 vs. KEGEL 2— —PRO APPROACH 5 vs. POWER HOUSE VIDEO GAMES 0— —GJC SERVICES 5 vs. J.A.T. 0. The chess game continues!

Kevin Valmonte's 877 is still holding as this year's high series. Ten 300's have been shot and Bobby Campagnale holds current high average of 212 for 105 games, Billy Myers Jr. and Mikey Villarreal matched at 209, and Keith Laing lingers at 208.

One more week of regular league play and then play for the big bucks begins. If you have been following this year's race, the finals will be exciting. Come early, get a good seat and watch So. California's best in action.
