2007 USBC Queens

by John Jowdy

In my opinion, the recent ESPN presentation of the 2007 USBC Queens television show was one of the best bowling shows ever. The production crew is deserving of an ESPY award. They more than made up for the so-so production of the Ladies Challenge in Las Vegas.

From a personal standpoint, it wasn't the most exciting or breathtaking bowling event I've ever witnessed. However, the timing and format were innovative and stimulating. The scoring and the end result were not dramatic; nor were they really surprising. The event hardly resembled some of the PBA's most drama-filled shows, particularly the Dick Ritger-Don Johnson finals of the Firestone Tournament of Champions at Akron April 4, 1970. Johnson defeated Ritger, 299-268 in a match that had to be one of, if not the greatest bowling shows ever on TV. As a matter of fact, the camera shot of Johnson lying face down (after a 10-pin leave that prevented the Kokomo Kid from fashioning a perfect score) is one of the most acclaimed photographs in bowling history.

The score and end result of the 2007 USBC Queens Tournament ran as one might expect. With all due respect to steller performances by the sharp-looking talented gals that made up the cast, Kelly Kulick had to be the odds-on favorite. After all, the mere fact she qualified for exemption on the men's PBA regular tour proved, beyond all doubt, her role as favorite over the other finalists in the Queen's tournament. Her bowling savvy was evident in her match against, arguably the greatest amateur female bowler in the world, Deandra Asbaty. Asbaty could not overcome Kulick's experience in this prestigious event.

Nonetheless, Asbaty displayed her superiority in amateur ranks talent a few weeks later when she won the World Ranking Masters at the Kegel Company Training Facilities in Florida. The WRM tournament featured the world's best female players and further established Asbaty as the best amateur woman bowler on the planet.

The ESPN production was superb. The telecast duo of Marshall Holman and Jan Schmidt was enlightening. Holman's analysis was purely professional...insightful and low-keyed, ala ESPN's baseball analyst, Joe Morgan. The timing was near perfect. The cast, featuring FIVE bowlers in a 90-minute show, never missed a beat. Normally, in most five-player TV bowling shows, participants are subjected to bowling through commercials to conserve time. Furthermore, personal features and interviews consume much of the bowling activities and tend to hasten bowlers in closing frames. BUT, this was not the case in the 2007 Queens championships. As a matter of fact, TV fans were treated to one of the greatest innovations I have ever seen on any televised bowling show. In addition to displaying each player's choice of equipment, each bowler explained in detail the expected reaction of the selected ball. Not only were these insights interesting and informative to the viewing audience; it was a long overdue acknowledgement and appreciation to manufacturers who pay HUGE sums of money to register their products.

I'm not sure who deserves credit for the stimulating innovations and fast-paced presentation of the 2007 USBC Queens Tournament. However, if I had to guess, I suspect that Tom Clark, USBC Director of Communications, played a major role in the thought-provoking format.

Chances are, we will witness more of these interesting renovations at the Women's U.S. Open at the National Bowling Stadium August 12-18.

Belair, Copeland, Marquez Make USBC Honor Roll With 2319 Trio Series

by Frank Kietz

LAKE FOREST —Southland scratch bowlers have not made the United States Bowling Congress/ABC national team high score honor roll in decades. Last Thursday night (May 17, 2007), Team 2 in Forest Lanes' 615 Trios got extremely motivated. Mike Belair, Jeff Copeland and Mario Marquez posted a 782 adding games of 804 and 733 creating a 2319 for a national second high set behind Baton Rouge's 2385.

This was the second week's play that hero Marquez lost one of a possible 17 match points in his 239 to Team 6's anchor Herbert Jones' 288.

However, Belair (279) and Copeland (264) came through for the 782. Marquez warmed up blasting 300 and 290 for his 829 series. Belair played "can you top Mario" one strike short hitting a 290 and a 215 for a 784. Copeland, from the center, helped with deuces, 214 and 228 and a 706 cap.

In Baton Rouge, Lyman Moon (789), Clay Duke (793) and Ronnie Landry (803) head the trios. The "Forest" trio edged the "Caddies" from Montana, WI by one pin, 2318.

Now like the other trios, they will have to sweat until July 31, 2007 to see if they receive an award.

Team 6 consisting of James Kubanis, Tim Hall and John Sowell, lead by 5 1/2 points over Team 10 and nine points over Team 8. Kubanis paced the leaders 15-2 near sweep with a 258/743. Sowell as usual did his share of stringing, 278/667. Hall was super the third game with a 259/655.

Inland Empire NABI Champion Brad LeCount

by Quin

MORENO VALLEY—We want to thank ABC Moreno Valley Bowl for hosting our latest Saturday tournament. Thanks to the great staff there!

Our newest Inland Empire NABI champion, Brad LeCount, makes it a family affair when it comes to bowling. Brad and his wife Dana did not have to worry about the championship this week. Brad wound up being High Qualifier going into the finals. Dana trailed right behind him, taking 2nd place. Brad and Dana have five children, and are very proud to say they are all bowlers. The five children bowl in the Junior Match Point. Brad and Dana bowl in a Vegas Madness League at AMF Bowlmum in Montclair. They have high praises for Dreamers Pro Shop, where they have all new drilling equipment.

Brad won the tournament with his "Oldie But Goodie", Diesel Hammer, drilled by Mike Jennings 10 years ago. With this win, Brad won a champion shirt, an entry into the Tournament of Champions held at The Orleans this July 2007, and $90 with Optional Upgrade.

It was a fun tournament this week, seeing two married couples in the semi-finals. Along with Brad and Dana, there was Irish Robinson taking seventh place and Errin Robinson advancing to the finals to take fourth place.

Todd Wolsten gave us a "hold your breath" amount of excitement, when he bowled his first "300" game in our second squad. Todd will receive a beautiful Monarch 300 ring from USBC. Congratulations, Todd!

Also, congratulations to Erick

Inland Empire NABI (L-R) Errin Robinson - 3rd, Irish Robinson - 7th, Erick Lam - 4th, Brad LeCount - Champion, Todd Wolsten - 5th & bowled a 300, Dana LeCount - 2nd.

Veronica Boone Wins Fourth ABT Championship at Keystone Lanes

NORWALK—Veronica Boone won her fourth Amateur Bowlers Tour (ABT) championship at Keystone Lanes on Saturday, May 19, 2007 during our one-day 4-game Beat-the-Board tournament. Veronica bowled in our 2PM squad and shot games of 257, 258, 223 and 291 with handicap for a series total of 1029 and the $600 1st place prize plus $500 from the Progressive Pot. Chris Slack of LaMirada came in a close second shooting a 1027 four game handicap series for $300 dollars. In third place was Ed Palma of Cerritos. Ed shot a 1023 handicap series and won $150.

Our newest champion, Veronica Boone has been bowling for over 21 years. Veronica currently bowls at Matador Lanes and Canoga Park Lanes and was using a Brunswick Absolute Inferno drilled by Rusty Bryant. Veronica wanted to thank her husband, Luis, and son, Joshua, for their love and support, Ed Palma, Burt and Anthony Dancel for their support during the tournament, and Rusty Bryant for preparing her equipment. Veronica also thanks Keystone Lanes for hosting the tournament, and the Amateur Bowlers Tour-Orange County Branch staff and Directors for running an outstanding tournament.

Bret Rose was the winner of the optional 4-game Scratch Sweeper and $120 with a 922 scratch series. We have had many positive comments about the optional 4-game Scratch Sweeper, and will continue to run this optional Scratch Sweeper at each tournament.

The Mystery Game Pot of Gold game and score were drawn after our final squad. Game #2 was the game drawn, and 112 (possibly good for $300) was drawn for the first chance. Our second chance score (possibly good for $150) was 276 in game #2. The 3rd

More Of MacKenzie's Story

NORWALK — Thanks to Lon Gruen (Red MacKenzie's son-in-law) we have more information and corrections.

Red owned Compton Bowl in the 50's - 60's and managed Del-Mar Lanes before coming the King of league sheets. His service "The Good Life" was a fairly new concept. Most league secretaries computed their own data and posted a single sheet for all league members to read.

Daughter Kathie Gruen is a past bowler and had worked for her dad. She has one daughter.
