Johnny Petraglia Wins PBA Senior Dayton Classic Achieving Milestone of Winning PBA Titles in Six Decades

KETTERING, OH — Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Famer Johnny Petraglia became the first player in PBA history to win a national tour or senior tour title in six decades by winning the PBA Senior Dayton Classic presented by Roto Grip Thursday at Capri Lanes.

Petraglia, who won his eighth career Senior Tour title, also ended a three-year drought without a win by defeating reigning Senior Player of the Year Ron Mohr of Eagle River, Alaska, 220-204, in the title match.

Petraglia, who was the top seed for the finals, started strong with the first three strikes but then ran into trouble in the fourth frame throwing a 4-6-7-10 split. He threw another split (3-7) in the seventh frame but was able to close out the match with four strikes and a nine-count which was enough to beat Mohr who was also struggling.

"When I threw that first split it surprised me because I thought it was going to be a strike," said the 65-year-old Petraglia, whose last Senior Tour title came in the 2009 Sun Bowl In The Villages. "Frankly, I was a little lost at that point. I really didn't make an adjustment until after that second split when I moved right on the approach, threw it a little farther left on the lane and trusted that it would come back and it did.

"I guess some things are meant to happen," he added. "Ron was having trouble on the left lane leaving three 10-pins which meant if I could get back to striking I could still win the match."

Overall, Petraglia and fellow PBA legend Dick Weber both have PBA titles in six decades, however, Weber's longevity mark includes a PBA regional title. Petraglia also owns 14 PBA Tour titles, winning his first at a national tour stop in Ft. Smith, Ark., in 1966 at the age of 19.

"I guess it shows how old I am," Petraglia said jokingly after achieving the milestone. "But this is very special to me because it's part of history and makes it all worth it."

"You know at my age, I was wondering if it was going to happen," he said. "There are so many great Senior Tour players and there are more great bowlers from the regular Tour who are becoming eligible so it doesn't get any easier. Another thing that makes it special is that there are some guys that might be able to tie this record in the coming years but probably not going to break it."

In the semi-final match, Mohr, trying for his first title of the season and eighth of his career, defeated Ron Profit of Brookville, Ohio, 238-222, to advance to the title match. In the opening match, Profit defeated last week's Senior Mooresville Classic winner

Bob Learn Jr. of Erie, Pa., 243-217. Learn beat Profit in the championship match of that tournament, 203-196, for his first Senior Tour title.

Ebonite Roll-Off's Start Monday May 28th at 7:30PM

DOWNEY — The great bowlers of the legendary Ebonite League at Del Rio Lanes fought the multiple oil patterns all season long. Now it's time for the top four "round winners" and the two "wild cards" to start the rugged roll-offs.

On Monday, May 28 at 7:30 p.m. HEINEKEN U.S.A. will challenge POWERHOUSE VIDEO, winner to take on KEGEL at 9:00 p.m. The HEINEKEN U.S.A. team, never used a sub all season! Ramon Torres, Bruce Colbert, Larry Gray and Leonard Ruiz bowled the 101 1/2 wins, capturing the final spot over A.B.T.A. by 1 1/2 games.

POWERHOUSE VIDEO really had power all season. The names Harry Wong, Reggie Brown, Bruce Williams and Vernon Adams appeared many times on the weekly highs list. They are hoping for a "really big show" against HEINEKEN U.S.A.

Around 9 p.m. the KEGEL foursome of Kurt Arakaki, Kevin Yamauchi, Mark Curtis Jr. and Rick Easley will be shoeing up and taking a few practice shots preparing to take on the winner of the HEINEKEN U.S.A./POWERHOUSE VIDEO match.

Family, fans, bowlers and friends are all welcome to cheer or jeer.

The #3 seed, "HERZOG INSURANCE", will be keeping an eye on the May 28 match-ups. Hoping to insure a win of their own, Steve Gurreri, Brian Main, Gabriel Martinez and Raul Rosales put their heads together, planning strategy, talking lane conditions and equipment. Brandon Krave was their 5th man this season.

Let's talk about "TEAM

SYSCO" — are they cookin'! You betcha. As last years defending champions, they were the target for 36 weeks. D.A. Wright subbed in to give team members Paul Barraco, Anthony Barone, Charlie Kinstler and Deeronn Booker an occasional night off. After finishing 15th in the first round, they made an amazing run of 2nd, 3rd and 1st in the final four weeks to complete their run to 2nd seed.

The 1st seed this year — GOLD COAST HOTEL with a 9-11 start, went 20-0 the final four weeks to win round one by one game. Andrea Snyder was the teams high averager at 219, followed by Greg Neuer 209, Kevin Valmonte 208 and Mike Cammarata 203. They can only sit and watch until Monday, June 11, 8:30 p.m., Del Rio Lanes. The place to catch the action.

EXERCISING AND STRETCHING

by Robert Ellison
NORWALK — Todays tip is what bowlers should do prior bowling. It's always a good idea to arrive early at lanes - give yourself time to stretch and do warm up exercises before bowling. stretching exercises helps loosen up the muscles and get ready for league or tournament play. Stretching helps warm up, and allows free flow, increases blood flow to the muscles. Bowling is like any other sport - by exercising and stretching the muscles - this prevents injuries that may come up while bowling. Pro bowlers always stretches and warms up prior in tournaments. By stretching and exercising these muscles; this will help you have smoother and better balance on approach. Some of the stretching exercises are: calves; arms; shoulders; hands and wrist.
Some of the exercises are:
Hamstring: Stretch by reaching for your toes. Hold this stretch for about 10 to 15 seconds, and be sure not to stretch past a certain point
Groin: Sit on the floor with the bottoms of your feet together, knees out. Gently use your elbows to push the inside of your folded knees to the floor. Hold the stretch for about 10 to 15 seconds, and repeat the stretch about five times
Thigh Muscles: To stretch the front thigh, step back with one foot and lean back into the stretch. Hold this for 10 to 15 seconds and repeat about five times. Be sure to alternate sides to get balanced conditioning. This is also a great stretch for the calf as well. To stretch the back of the thigh, bring your thigh up to your chest and place your hands under the back of your thigh. Pull the thigh toward your chest just until you feel a slight pull, not pain. Hold this again for 10 to 15 seconds and repeat about five times.
Bowling Arm: To stretch that bowling arm, fold your elbow behind your head. Take your opposite hand and place it on the outside of your elbow. Now gently pull that elbow behind your back and across your body. This stretches your upper arm, shoulder and side all at the same time. Hold this stretch for about 5 to 10 seconds and repeat about 5 to 10 times. Place your other hand on the back of your elbow and place slight pressure, pulling it toward your body. Again, hold this stretch for about 5 to 10 seconds and repeat 5 to 10 times. Be sure to alternate sides so your conditioning is balanced.
The above exercises were from this website: <http://www.livestrong.com/article/10783--stretch-before-bowling/>
Good luck and high scoring!

ABTA at West Covina for Memorial Event - Starts Thursday Night

FONTANA — We returned to Foothill Lanes where we saw 209 entries come out on Saturday and bowled on a fairly easy shot. The cut scores on Saturday night were + 95 for the men and + 63 for the women. The Super Seniors added to the board (2 men and 1 female) were Jerry Fagan (92), Dino Cantoria (70), and for the women it was Gwen Harris (45), and Janice Meloon (45). Super Seniors are men 63 and over, and for the women you just need to be a young 55. That would give us 51 bowlers making it to the semi-finals.

For all qualifying squads, our top qualifier for the Men was Don Chung with a +187 and for the women it was pretty Julie Nguyen with a +100. They will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed overall draws the Match Series, and this time it was worth $1,776. Don drew a 515. We had no bowlers that bowled this score during the qualifying squads. We will estimate the Match Series at $2,700 at West Covina. The last bowler for the 3-6-9 roll-off was Mike Nakunz, he missed on his 1st shot so he will get $50. The pot will be $1,500 at West Covina.

In our optional doubles, finishing in first were John Phan and Samson Kong with a 1495 for $170. Finishing in second was Minh Dang and Teddy Villaroman with a 1493 for $150. There was a total of $1,900 paid out in doubles and 27 paid spots with low to cash of 1422.

The Semis were bowled and the leader was Tim (Vien) Tran with a +190. Finishing in second was Arvhin Garcia at a +165. He will have a bye in the first round of the single elims. Tran had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $2,990. He drew a 268. After a review of all the scores bowled, we had one bowler who shot that score, and she did it on her final game of semis to get her into the top 16, and a nice pay day of $2,990. We will estimate the pot at $3,000 at our next event at West Covina.

This would bring us to our top 16 Match Play finals. In the first round, the seven losers were Steve Brode, Tony Leogrande, Catherine Cheung, Thomas Licauco, Emilio Flores, Teddy Villaroman, and Beth Borci. They received checks of $100 each. In the second round, the losers were Aileen Cheung, Jerry Chang, Samson Kong, and Tom Mazzulla. They received checks of $107.50 each. This would get us down to the final five bowlers. With the weekly horses paying a low of $55 (Arvhin Garcia and Don Chung) to a high of $106 (Kenny Kwan). In this round we saw Kenny Kwan (9th seed) bowling Don Chung (4th seed). It was close until the end and saw Kenny come up with the victory with a 240 to 222 and advance to the semi-final match. In the other match we saw Alvin Garcia (13th seed) bowling Arvhin Garcia (2nd seed). In this match, it would be a Garcia that would advance, given both had the same last name. It was Arvhin who wins it 218 to 196 to send him onto the semi-final match. Both Alvin and Don finished in 4th and 5th getting checks for $115 each.

Our semi-final match was all set, and would pit the 9th and 13th seeds from the semis against each other. In the weekly "horses" we would see Arvhin paying $55 and Kenny paying $106 if they would win their match. In this match we saw another very good close match that would go down to the 10th frame and final shot. Both bowlers went back and forth, the biggest lead was 10 pins in the first couple of frames and then from that point on it went back and forth. When it came down the 10th frame, it was Arvhin who finished first and was able to get a mark in the 10th frame with a break where the 8-10 split stood for a second on his first shot but the 8 pin fell and he got his mark and a 9 count to force Kenny to also get a mark. Kenny came up and left the 5-7 split on his first shot. He would come up for his spare shot needing to pick it up to win the match, and he did just that, and then 8 count to finish with a 177/234 to 175/230 and advance to the title match. Finishing in 3rd place was Arvhin Garcia this week for $200. For those lucky "investors" that had Kenny as a horse, he paid $106. Exciting Match and "The King" goes on to the Title game! Arvhin bowled so well. If not for Kwan's heroics he will be in the title game. Great Bowling Mr. Garcia.

The title game was set and it would be Kenny Kwan against the top qualifier Tim (Vien) Tran. Tim elected to start the game with a spare. Kenny came up and got a spare and strike in his two frames. When Tim came up in the second he got a strike but would leave the 10 pin on his next shot. He missed the spare to leave him with 48 after 3 frames. Kenny came up in the 3rd and 4th frames and got strikes to give him a 50 pin lead at that point. Tim came up in the 4th and 5th frames and got 2 strikes of his own. When Kenny came up he got a couple of spares to drop his lead to 40 pins. When Tim came up in the 6th and 7th frames, he got the first strike but a spare in the 7th frame left him with a score of 127 thru 6 frames. Kenny came up and got a spare in his 7th frame to give him 135 thru 6 frames and a 37 pin lead. He would hold on to that thru the rest of the match and in the end Kenny finished with a 222/278 to 224/252 and win his first ABTA championship. He would take home $1,000 for 1st place, $850 in Cash and Carry, and $100 for wearing an ABTA shirt for a total of $1,950. Great Bowling By Kenny (One of the Good Guys) for sure!! Finishing in 2nd place for $500 was Tim Tran, also one of the Good Guys also who bowled well.

Blanchard and Larsen Win Top PBA Honors

Belmonte, Fagan, Rash are PBA Player of the Year finalists

SEATTLE (May 16, 2012) – Arizona’s Josh Blanchard, a former Wichita State University All-American, is the 2011-12 PBA Harry Golden Rookie of the Year and Sweden’s Martin Larsen the Steve Nagy Sportsmanship Award winner, the Professional Bowlers Association announced Wednesday.

PBA Commissioner Tom Clark also announced that Australia’s Jason Belmonte, Mike Fagan of Dallas and Sean Rash of Montgomery, Ill., are the finalists for the 2011-12 Chris Schenkel PBA Player of the Year award. One of the most hotly contested Player of the Year races will come to an end at noon ET on Monday, May 28, when this year’s winner will be announced in a special ceremony webcast live on PBA’s Xtra Frame online bowling channel from 10pin bowling lounge in Chicago.

The 24-year-old Blanchard from Gilbert, Ariz., got his PBA career off to a fast start when he won a PBA West Region Non-Champions tournament for his first title in the first event he entered as a member. In his first year as a PBA Tour player, he dominated rookie stats, cashing in 10 of 13 events (the next closest rookie cashed in only two events) while leading all rookies in average, points and earnings. His best finish was third in the PBA Cheetah Open presented by Ebonite.

“The successes and failures I learned this season have taught me what I need to know not to just be competitive but to compete for wins,” said Blanchard, who made one other championship round appearance and gained some unexpected notoriety when he fell during the ESPN telecast of the PBA World Championship Mike Aulby Division finals. “This year my mindset was to bowl well enough to make cuts and match play rounds. After my experience this season I believe I have the confidence where now my mindset will be bowl to win.

“I achieved way more than I expected,” said Blanchard, who was a runaway winner of the Rookie of the Year award. “I mainly joined (the PBA) to see how good my skills were and if I could compete. Rookie of the Year really didn’t enter into my mind until I had some good finishes.”

Larsen, a veteran member of Team Sweden at age 32, earned the right to bowl as an “exempt” PBA player during the 2011-12 season after two quality seasons as a part-time international player. The six-time European Bowling Tour titlist finished third in the Dick Weber PBA Playoffs presented by Hammer and fifth in the PBA Cheetah Open presented by Ebonite.

“Wow, it’s an honor to be included in the list of some very worthy bowlers,” Larsen said. “Some guys back home will say they’re not surprised I got the award, but I am. This year I’m the “nice” bowler of the year, maybe next year I can be Bowler of the Year.”

Larsen joins 2009-10 winner George Lambert IV of Canada as the only two international players ever to win the Nagy Award.

Other players who received Nagy Award votes were Tom Hess, Urbandale, Iowa; Kelly Kulick, Union, N.J.; two-time Nagy winner Jack Jurek, Lackawanna, N.Y., and Scott Norton, Costa Mesa, Calif.

The Harry Golden Rookie of the Year award, named after the late PBA Tour Tournament Director, is voted on by the PBA membership and the Steve Nagy Award is determined by a vote of PBA Exempt players. Established in 1966, the Steve Nagy Sportsmanship Award is named after the late PBA Hall of Famer who was one of 33 founding members of the PBA.

In the Player of the Year voting among the PBA membership and select veteran bowling writers, Belmonte, Fagan and Rash are the top three vote-getters.

Belmonte won three titles including the Elite Players Championship, had seven top-five finishes, finished third in average and second in both points and earnings. Belmonte also finished third in the U.S. Open and Tournament of Champions, fourth in the PBA World Championship and ninth in the USBC Masters.

Fagan qualified for TV shows in all four PBA Tour majors. He won the USBC Masters, finished second in the U.S. Open, fourth in the Tournament of Champions and 12th in the PBA World Championship. He also won an international PBA Tour title, the Brunswick Euro Challenge in Paris, France. Statistically, he was second in average and third in points and earnings.

Rash won PBA’s signature event, the Tournament of Champions. He led the Tour with eight top-five finishes, including third place in the PBA World Championship, and finished first in average, points and earnings. He also qualified for a record five consecutive TV finals during the World Series of Bowling.

FRESNO’S CEDAR LANES FINAL FRAME

by Bette Addington (Bakersfield)

FRESNO—Several week-ends ago my team traveled to Fresno to bowl the CUSBC (California United States Bowling Congress) Women’s State tournament. Returning home with teammate, Sheilah Bomar, we talked about how much the Team house, Cedar Lanes, felt like Regency Lanes here in Bakersfield. Sheilah even remarked, “They have a Marge AND an Al (referring to the late Marge Langdon, manager, and the late Al Cichy, head lane mechanic of Regency)!” Cedar’s “Marge and Al” are manager Joanne Christian (24 years) and lane mechanic Al Bartz (22 years).

A few days later on Facebook local bowler Carlie Medina III posted that he heard Cedar Lanes would be closing in early June that sent a shock-wave across the state. For a day or two we hoped it was not true but releases soon appeared to confirm it really was going to happen as soon as Women’s State is over (June 3). How sad, now Fresno will only have two bowling centers—AMF Sierra Lanes and AMF Rodeo Lanes in Clovis. Cedar Lanes, located in the Cedar Lanes Shopping Center, was sold to a new developer. Work will begin this summer to tear it down although it is not clear yet what will replace it.

Cedar Lanes opened in August 23, 1959, and at that time was one of the most elaborate bowling centers in California at a cost of $1.35 million. The center’s architecture is emblematic of mid-century 1960s modern design and many feel the building is historic to the Fresno area. At the time, the center’s location at the corner of Cedar and Shields avenues was built at the hub of Fresno’s newest growth area influenced by Fresno State being close by. And through the years, Fresno State’s bowling team has been a part of this center. The late Fresno State Bowling Coach Glenn Carlson bowled there and, according to Fresno bowling association (Central California USBC) manager and Cedar Lanes regular Jack Waters, “Some of the Fresno State team bowled in leagues at Cedar and the team was always welcome to come and practice whenever they wanted.” From 1966 to 1993, Cedar Lanes was a frequent stop of the PBA (Professional Bowlers Association) tour, the Fresno Open that was telecast on ABC in the later years. Bowlers who have emerged from this center include PJ Haggerty, Rhino Paige, Jason McElroy, Warren Nelson and regional players Joel Laster, Sam Carter, Darris Ruffner, David Street, June Shimoda and Fresno State Bowling team coach Chris Preble. Even 2012 Star of Tomorrow, Ryan Peden bowled for a couple of years in a junior league at Cedar Lanes. Waters, who has bowled at this center for 45 years, added, “about 1,100 bowlers and 15 bowling leagues will be affected by the closure.” He also stressed that what will be missed most is “we are losing an icon in the bowling family here in Fresno which hosted the PBASummer tour for many years. This is a family-owned business, built and operated by the Wathen family and being an independent-owned center, it always seemed like home to a lot of us bowlers, being family oriented, the staff was always friendly and helpful, it just won’t seem the same.”

Visalia’s Brian Cooper reflected his first memory of Cedar Lanes. “My first memory was 1977ish, no 1978, when they hosted the North-South State Scratch youth tournament where 12 boys & 12 girls from the north bowled against 12 boys and girls from the south that I was bowling in and I walked into the center and remember seeing the bowling lanes painted on the walls. It was like a mural and made it look like the lanes went on forever!” His career was also enhanced at this center as he won several tournaments there including San Joaquin Bowling Club titles and the annual Fresno Championships which was a four-month long tournament. Cooper added, “The impact of losing this center is as great as the loss of losing the PBASummer tour stop and the late Glenn Carlson.”

- Pins from qualifying carry over into match play.

Alternates will use his/her own pin totals as of the last game he/she bowled – he/she will not take over the absent bowlers pin totals. It's a short column this week. If you haven't sign-up for a league yet, do it now. It's going to be a fun, fun summer in a cool air-conditioned bowling center. See ya.

FINAL CHAPTER FOR PAUL REYNOLDS

by Joy McGregor
ORANGE COUNTY — Paul Reynolds was a very fair, private and unassuming man. He conducted business in the same manner. He was a director on the USBC Orange County board, doing his job quietly but efficiently for the benefit of the bowlers. He was very knowledgeable and always addressing concerns regarding any rule changes and/or problems concerning us bowlers. He was also a member of the state board for several years and attended conventions and tournaments in that capacity.

Paul loved bowling and participated in various leagues. He was quietly competitive on the lanes and joined his teammates in both the Cal State Senior and Open Tournaments since 2007.

The cause of his untimely death is not immediately known. He died May 2nd and is survived by a sister living in Oakhurst, CA. and a niece who lives in Rancho Cucamonga.

No services are planned at this time; his wish was to be cremated and to have his ashes distributed over the ocean as was his father's.

We are all fortunate to have known and shared time with Paul whether it was on the lanes or otherwise. Condolences to Paul's family. He will be greatly missed...R. I. P.

DAVE COOK Bowls Rare Triplicate In California State Tournament Open Division

by Frank Weiler
NORWALK — Dave Cook headed to the California State Tournament at KEYSTONE LANES last week confident he could score and win. Why not? Dave is one of the better bowlers at CAL OAKS BOWL, averaging 230 or better for many years. In his younger days, he won many military tournaments as a member of the US Air Force Bowling Team.

While competing in the state singles event at Keystone, Dave not only scored a rare tournament triplicate, he rolled three consecutive games that matched his entering average! With a current book average of 223, Dave bowled 223 - 223 - 223 = 669. He was told it may be the first time this type triplicate was bowled at a California State Tournament.

Great bowling Dave. The BOWLING NEWS salutes you and all California bowlers participating in this seasons state tournament.

50-YEAR-OLD BRIAN COOPER TAKES ON THE PBA SENIOR TOUR

by Bette Addington
FRESNO — “It’s a dream I’ve had for the past two or three years,” said Brian Cooper of taking his bowling career to the next level and bowling the PBA Senior Tour. And, with the urging of friend and fellow Visalian, Fred Cole, the two decided they would travel together and conquer the tour. But, due to Cole’s recent health setback, Cooper took the trip alone. So he loaded up about a dozen of his bowling balls in his girlfriend’s Honda CRV and off to Florida he drove the middle of April for the start of his adventure.

And, wow, what enlightening adventure! His first round at The Villages senior tournament in Florida he shot 30 over. Not bad, but others had 200 over in that block. Second block he shot 200 over. Not bad, but it took 370 over to make the cut! Cooper adjusted and by his second week of the tour he got satisfaction by reaching seventh place on the first day; eighth place the next day and ended up fourteenth place on the third day (was defeated by Florida’s Dave Sill three games to two). In his third tour tournament, he missed cashing by just 20 pins. And, his last tour tournament, in Dayton Ohio, qualified and ended up 17th (just missing the Top 16 by a few pins). As for his first experience, Cooper said, “I’m not ecstatic. I went out there to win. But, it was a great experience!”

Cooper, known as “Super Coop” to many of his bowling buddies, has been bowling for “a good 35 years”. Recently, while he was on the PBA Senior Tour, he was inducted into the Tulare County USBC Hall of Fame on May 5. Cooper said, “I wanted to be there so bad but I was committed to bowling well (on tour).” Good friend and doubles partner, Carlie Medina III of Bakersfield, graciously accepted his award for him. Medina reflected that Cooper has been bowling now for five decades! Besides that he has won multiple State doubles titles, PCB mixed doubles titles with friend, USBC and Women’s PBA Hall of Famer Wendy McPhearson as well as winning the CUSBC State Doubles in 2011 and the Nevada State Doubles and also seven San Joaquin titles. He has (30) 300 games and (10) 800 series so far in his career. In 2007 he received the Pat Patterson Award. But besides that, Medina spoke of how much Cooper has contributed to other fellow bowlers by being their friend and helping them by sponsoring them like Jason Hurd and Medina. And, it goes beyond that, as Cooper has hosted regional tournaments over the years and now he’s participating on the PBA Senior Tour as a Senior Tour Rookie.

So what’s in the future for Super Coop? He’s headed down south this Friday to bowl in the CUSBC Open State tournament and from there heads to Sun City and Flagstaff Arizona for two regional tournaments and then to Las Vegas to bowl in the US Senior Open and Masters. Whew!

He never slows down! Added Mike Hefley, “As a friend and competitive bowler, I can say as many would Visalia’s Brian (Super) Cooper is probably one of the most competitive bowlers we have ever had the pleasure to bowl against. In fact, we had even bowled in each other’s leagues in Visalia and Bakersfield in past years making the trip weekly for up to 35 weeks in a row. Now that’s competitive and fun that will surely last a lifetime as we turn into senior bowlers and bowl senior tournaments. Cooper is already out there living the dream touring with the senior tour this year and I know all of us wish him well!”

The Perfect Game

EDITOR’S NOTE: To honor this special holiday, we interrupt our regularly scheduled column to pay tribute to those to whom we all owe so much.

AN ODE FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Part I: Fare-Thee-Well, Soldier

Your bowling ball is packed away;
The lessons gladly given.
With deep regret, you’re left on base,
As this road back home is driven.

We’ll miss you more than you can know.
May God protect you while at war.
This road we’re on leads safely home,
But your path heads toward the storm.

Six months from now, perhaps a year,
You’ll come back to join us all.
We’ll lift our glasses, cheer, “WELCOME HOME!!!!”
Then unpack that bowling ball.

Part II: Farewell, Soldier

A year has passed since last we met;
Your mom, team, you and me.
Your bowling ball stays packed away;
Awaiting you, you see.

Now we know you won’t be back.
Our lives will never be the same.
We pray God holds you in His hands,
And that you didn’t die in vain.

You were meant for greatness;
At what, I cannot say.
You made this world a better place,
But war took you away.

On Memorial Day we celebrate,
More than the freedoms God hath wrought.
We remember those who keep us free;
Some return,.....and some do not.

ADIEU TO 590 CLASSIC, BONJOUR

TO ROCKY MARSH TRIOS & A VERY

HEARTY "HOWDY" TO MIKE "300" WEST

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM—The 590 Classic ended its season with a 299 and a 300 and the Rocky Marsh Trios opened its season with a 279 and a 300 - THAT'S the way we roll!!

Newcomer Mike West, started his day with 173, 209 and then, "Voila"... strike after strike and after the final shot, high fives galore. Mike had fulfilled every bowler's dream... he had rolled a 300 game. This is Mike's very first perfect and he was extatic - rightly so, what bowler wouldn't be? Mike finished with a 202 game to register 884 for the day. What an intro to Rocky Marsh; enjoy the rush and congats to you Mike!!

Series wise,top dawg Aaron Wilson, came to play as he stroked games of 202-237-260 and 254 to score a great 953 set. Welcome back to Rocky Marsh Aaron!

Super, sought after sub, John Conway, tossed consistent games of 229-222-228 and 242 to claim a fine 919 set. Steady as always John!

Juan Sandoval has been on a roll lately and his good fortune isn't about to change as evidenced by his excellent outing Friday. Juan rolled games of 279-233 and 258 to boast a 770 3-gamer. He doesn't want his fourth game mentioned (for good reason..), but the leader board posts a "Don't worry, be happy" 917 set!

More HOT scores: Don Gardner 226/884, Ron Douglass 278/880, Terry Brent 244/876, Anderson Alcaraz 247/875, Bo Vrabel 246/853, Terry Dickerson 247/843, Jim Moore 266/832, Hong Kha 225/825, Melissa Fan 234/820, Norm Walker 204/809, Don Gut-Omen 221/809, Steve Sparks 214/804, Jerry Roddam 214/802, Bob Gosnell 231/802, Gino Vassallo 254, Kantral Williams 233, John Phillips 232, Alan Bloom 231, Rich Heid 227, Larry Green 226, Gloria Ferrulli 225, Rod Cantrell 216, Frank Bellinder 215, Larry Nordstrom 211, Al Lara 210, Don Boaz 208, James Blythe 208, Bob Awalt 207, E.J. Rogers 205, Monica Path 204, Ana Fukuchi 204, John Munson 203, Rose Williams 201, April Anderson 201 and Orlando Vanegas 200.

The league is taking a bye May 25th to celebrate Memorial Day weekend and to honor "THE DAY"; FLY YOUR FLAGS HIGH! See y'all on the lanes June 1st. Until then...
