Cordero Wins $10,000 in ABTA

by Bob Smith

WEST COVINA—Ronnie Cordero, one of our Most Faithful Members, was the best over the ABTA's 3 day Memorial Special at Super West Covina Lanes. He finally won his First ABTA Title in fine style, downing upstart Ben Mach in the title game to take home a Sweet $10,000 for his stupendous effort. Ronnie topped a huge field of 711 entrants, and 150 semifinalists. He had to win five straight matches advancing through the eliminations to the big title game.

This event was held over three days. One big Squad on Thursday eve, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, with a great total of 711 entries coming through the doors to enjoy the fun and competition.

The scoring was contentious but fair (semi tough) and produced cut scores of Thursday Men +46 Ladies +93 and that is not a typo:-)Friday Men +64, Ladies +7 Saturday Men +50, Ladies +4. Sunday Men +55 Ladies +26 and re Entry squad of 105 bowlers had men +52 and the ladies +23. Special thanks to Chad and W.C. Staff for the fine tournament shot which was Most Fair to all (Each day) Great Job!! Also added were our faithful Super Seniors to the Semis being Ron Chandler, Walter White, David Shaeffer, Art Windsor, Terri Justin, and Denita Burton. The fine field of 150 would enter the semis in hopes of making the top 32 Single Elim.

The Semis took to the lanes, we cut to the top 32, with nearly one in five earning a shot at the big bucks. After three games, the cut to the top 32 went, Men +38 and the 7 guaranteed ladies at -11.

Our finals field was now set at 32 players, 25 men and 7 women. Benny Mach stepped up to take control as the top seed with his nice +116 which guaranteed him a free ride to the title match. Ronnie "Ace" Cordero was runner up at +100 which gave him a first round bye and be seeded into the second round of the Single elims.

In round #1 of the single elim finals, each of the first-round losers pocketed checks for $220. Finishing in 18-32nd places Ryan Mc Cabe, William Ele, Sol Cericos, Jerilyn Morales, Mark Mauna, Alan Basto, Alex Vela, Joe Bolanos, Renan Cruz, Matt Garcia, Steve Domon, Ben Hurtado, Jose Borromeo, Tessie Sosa and Kelly Johnson.

Round #2 losers received checks of $250 each. Finishing in 10-17th places were Desiree Herrera, Sue Purdie, Janice Meloon, Chris Gilbert, Gibin Kim, Vic Hilvano, Ken Seiple Jr, and John Hafer.

Round #3 losers were Jessica Ting, Leilani Calizo, Samson Kong and Art Alvarez Jr. They finished in 6-9th places, and $300 each.

Round 4 had Daniel Ruiz best James Samson 236-193. Ron Cordero aced Jerry Ernst 238-202. Jerry and James were 4th and 5th and $500 each with great bowling. Ruiz and Cordero to meet for the right to bowl

A Wil(le)y Win!

NABI SAN DIEGO—Mira Mesa was the venue for the NABI San Diego Memorial Day tournament, & Paul Willey, Jr. was the last bowler standing at the end of the eliminator style finals.

Paul qualified on Saturday with a nice +89, but on Sunday in the semifinals, he bowled exceptionally well, had the highest score, so was seeded #1.

His first match against #8 seed George Evans was a close match most of the way, but Paul's carry was better down the stretch & he prevailed.

His second match was against Inland Empire NABI member Guy Clear, who had battled Erik Martin to advance to match #2. At the other end of the bracket, #7 seed David Danielly & #2 seed Ron Tanja bowled one of the closest matches of the finals, with David winning by a scant 6 pins & moved on.

Waiting for him was #3 seed Paul Passarino, who had survived a tough match against #4 seed, Christine Cacciatore. That was the closest match of the finals, just 5 pins, & set the stage for match #2. Paul Willey prevailed over Guy, & David shot the highest game of the tournament, a real nice 291, in his win over Paul Passarino.

Everything was now set for the final game, & David seemed a bit drained by his super performance in the prior match. Paul Willey was still riding high, & the final game victory netted him the $1500 first place check.

David was also rewarded for his consistency with his biggest NABI prize check to date of $750. Congratulations to all our finalists!

Eric Forkel Wins WCST Ebonite Singles Senior Division at Harley's Camarillo Bowl

by Dick Sanders

CAMARILLO—Eric Forkel (Henderson, NV), won his 6th WCST Senior Division Championship at Harley's Camarillo Bowl in Camarillo, CA last weekend.

He qualified 2nd on Saturday, with 2214 for the 10 games, only 36 Pins behind qualifying leader Bob Brady, who rolled equal 5 game sets of 1125 each for 2250.

After Game #2 in the finals, Eric took the lead and led the rest of the finals, and ended up winning by 132 pins over 2nd place finisher, Craig Kisro. Bob Brady ended in 3rd. Jim Thurmond started in 7th, and closed at the end of the finals to finish in 4th place.

The "Viper" pattern was used for both the qualifying and finals, and scores were not that high. 53 bowlers entered, and only 19 bowlers in the plus, but that is expected on this type of lane condition. It was a fair shot for both sides.

Seven lefthanders entered, and two made the finals. 19 checks paid out for a total prize fund pay-off of $6,900.00. For 8 Tournaments this year, a total of $72,515.00 paid out, and over-all for 271 Tournaments, $3,020,551.00 paid out. Top 3: 1st, Eric Forkel, $950.00, 2nd, Craig Kisro (Granada Hills), $660.00, and 3rd to Bob Brady (Santa Monica), $500.00.

2008 USBC Women's Championships Produces Interesting Stats at Halfway Mark

CANTON, Mich. —The 2008 United States Bowling Congress Women's Championships hit the halfway mark this past weekend at Super Bowl Lanes and to this point has produced some interesting statistics.

Since the April 10 opening, nearly 17,000 bowlers on 3,400 teams have traveled from 50 states, as well as the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico, and nine countries.

Bowling Ball Express (BBE) reports that of all balls being shipped, the average weight is 14 pounds, with 10 pounds being the lightest and just under the USBC maximum weight of 16 pounds being the heaviest. The farthest a ball has traveled is from Puerto Rico, and the greatest number sent by one person has been six.

Pins are changed every seven days and about 2,400 pins have been used. The Women's Championships lanes are oiled three times a day and between 90 and 100 gallons of Kegel lane conditioner (oil) has been used.

More than 4,800 team and 7,900 doubles and singles photos have been taken.

This year a record nine countries have been represented in the tournament, (Australia, Canada, China, Columbia, Dominican Republic, Japan, Malaysia, Mexico and United Kingdom).

Diaz Cleans Up With Donkee Title & Hits Mystery Series at Del Rio Lanes

This weekend featured a step ladder event. Match 1 featured Arnie Schroeder vs. Bret Haynes. Both bowlers came out the first 4 frames with 2 strikes and 2 10 pins each, but Bret realed of the last 9 strikes in a row for a route 287 to 243. Match 2 pitted Bret to our #2 seed Luis Diaz, this time Luis came out strong with a turkey and taking the early lead, then Bret came back with a turkey of his own in frames 3 thru 5, but another ringing 10 pin. Luis threw 2 more doubles in the match while Bret couldn't carry on the left lane. Luis takes it 257 to 222. Now the dream match was on, our #2 seed versus the #1 seed Bud Zagorski who lapped the field with his +205 score. Both bowlers started off with spares, but Bud got a little tired opening the next three frames, while Luis kept sparing, then in frames 4 thru 6 Luis threw a turkey at Bud and having him against the ropes up 50, then Mr Bud came up and threw the next 5, one more and he would take the lead in the match as Luis kept clean with spare strike the rest of the game, but fell one shot short as Luis takes it 238 to 224.

Long Time supporter Luis Diaz picks up his 3RD career title this weekend. Luis was throwing a Lane Master Terminator drilled by Ed Enlow Sr of Enlow Bowling Supply in Long Beach. Luis sports personal best of a 299 game and 789 series. When he is not enjoying bowling, Luis works as an office manager of CRS for the past 33 years. Luis is single and has 5 grown children and 2 grandchildren. Luis would like to thank the Donkee Tour staffers for their support and for sponsoring the event. We at the Donkee tour would like to thank Mike and the staff of Del Rio Lanes for hosting another fun and high scoring event

Our Mystery game was a carryover as no one hit a 119 game. Mystery series was hit by our champion today Luis Diaz with a 575 series, good thing he bowled a second time. It was good for an additional $450. Game will be worth $400 and series $100 at Bowling Square June 8th.

A couple of events ago a typographical error was made in the spelling of one of our bowlers who cashed at Valley View. Mr Rico "Black Widow" Veney. Our apologies for this oversight. The eyes aren't what they used to be!!

the tournament was a 297 shot by Jen Richter of Sheboygan, Wis. The high series was a 752 shot by Kari Watson which helped her Bohn Zone Chicks Classic Division team take the lead on April 24.

Two records were set by senior women. Emma Hendrickson, 99, of Morris County, N.J., tied the record for oldest participant in tournament history. Also, Mini Tvaska, 90, of St. Petersburg, Fla., broke the participation record by attending her 62nd consecutive Women's Championship. She marks the fifth woman so far this year who has participated in 50 or more Women's Championships.

The last time Detroit hosted the Women's Championships was in 1953. That year 5,000 teams competed and there was a special appearance by movie star Jayne Mansfield which was captured in photos now on display. Mansfield's barefoot ball delivery while wearing a strapless party dress was one of the crowning moments for the tiered crowd seated behind her.

It's tradition when participating in the Women's Championships for teams to bring and receive five gift bags to exchange with their lane-mates. The bags typically contain items reflecting the givers' home town or state, including t-shirts, pins or other small items.

Best-selling food items include sandwiches and burgers, with chicken by far the most requested item overall. The total loaves of bread consumed by tournament participants was 672 and 5,040 buns were used. The most desired drink was bottled water, with 2,880 downed.

Of the many Detroit-area attractions, two popular sight-seeing destinations are Dearborn's Henry Ford Museum/Greenfield Village, and the Detroit and Windsor, Ontario, casinos.

Looking ahead to the 2009 USBC Women's Championships in Reno, more than 4,300 teams already have registered. The 2010 USBC Women's Championships in El Paso will mark the first time the event will take place in an arena setting.

"The USBC is implementing a lot of new ideas, many of which have come from the bowlers themselves," said Tournament Manager James Lamb. "A lot of women continue to love this sport and this tournament and we want to give them the best experience possible."

Mach, the man who drills his balls for the title.

The excitement was building. Ronnie and Daniel went at it but Ronnie brought his “A Game” and had a tough match on the tough conditions. Ronnie emerged with a 226-213 win. Daniel was 3rd and $1,250. His highest finish thus far and he performed so great! Cordero was now off to the title game!!

The stage was set for the title match. Ronnie led off with a split. Mach then opened and struck but Ronnie countered with a turkey to take the lead as Ben again opened in the 3rd. Then Ben trying to catch couldn’t find the line, and couldn’t double and to no avail. It was Ronnie 178/213-138/157 and the title and $10,000 was his, and rightfully so!! This Gentleman is most deserving and comes from a fine family. His wife Rina is also an ABTA member! Ronnie rarely ever misses an ABTA event and we are lucky to have such a fine man bowl with us. His Friends were quite proud. Great People here! Congrats Senor Ronnie, and another title is in your future!

Nice Bowling by Ben Mach who did so well. Almost got the win! He is a past champ and will win again soon and also is a great Guy. He had a little to do with the title as he drilled Ronnie’s ball and quite well I might add. Good things happen to the good Guys and Ben is definitely that!

Fine bowling by Daniel Ruiz in 3rd. Let’s not forget Jerry Ernst, and James Samson in 4th and 5th. They could have gone for the title also.

Our overall high qualifiers this week were Sol Cericos+137 for the men and Leilani Calizo +94 led the femmes, good for free entries.

Sol Cericos drew the Match Series this week, a 572 which unbelievably was NOT Matched by over 700 bowlers. So we will estimate the Match Series to be $1,600 this week. Big Bucks at Midtown!!!

The Match Game #3 was UNmatched due to the 286 game drawn Ben Mach. We will go for a Max of $3,500 this week with the balance going to a reserve pot .Big Bucks at Midtown!

The 3-6-9 went for $1,000. Dennis Cordero out lasted the field, but missed and got a $100 consolation. We have a $1,100 Pot this Saturday at Midtown Big Bucks at Midtown. The Doubles were won by “You Guessed It” Ronnie “Ace” Cordero and Marcus Lemons. Their 1420 got them $250 edging “Ace” and Blandino Atienza 1396 $200. Claude “Spiderman” Dottin, and Eugene “Big Cat” Haynes 3rd 1394 $180. We paid 24 places and $2,310 in the doubles!

Ronnie Cordero is from Long Beach and married to Rina with a pretty little daughter Gabby. He used a Roto Neptune drilled by ABTA Member Ben Mach at Westminster Lanes.. He thanks his family for support and “ The Dragon, Alan Basto Hermie and Tres for support! and the ABTA staff and many others which are too many to name.

Ben Mach is from Westminster and used a Roto Grip Neptune Radical drilled by himself! He is single and available. Ben thanks the ABTA and Directors and West Covina for a great Event, buddy Minh Dang, Tri Vo, Tim Tran, Tres, Marife and Tina.

Dan Ruiz is from Diamond Bar, and used a Storm Tour drilled by Leonard his brother.. He is married to Kaitlyn and Ronnie Cordero is ABTA Memorial Champion at $10,000 Win Tops 711 Entrants at West Covina Lanes (L-R) James Samson 4th $500, Daniel Ruiz 3rd $1,250, Ben Mach Runnerup $2,500. Ronnie “Ace” Cordero (Champ) $10,000, John Ellars (semifinalist)(winner of the Very First Ever ABTA Tournament 1978 at Rowland Bowl, Jessica Ting 8th and John Samson ABTA Semifinalist.

thanks family, friends and the ABTA for support.

Thanks, as always, to the Super West Covina Lanes. Thanks to Russ, Asst GM/ Mgr for his expert help and all of YOU! We’ll be back there on our next schedule.

This week, we visit Los Angeles, and popular Midtown Bowl. Qualifying times in this One day event: Squads will run at 12:00-1:00-2:30 & 4:00 with Semifinals at 5:45 PM. Its History folks as Ronnie Cordero enters the archives as our latest champion. See You at Midtown for a good one and Get those Las Vegas rooms paid ASAP. They are due in full by June 21.

Last But not least!! Special thanks to Chad and Staff for the Great Tournament Shot which was near the same each day and above all competitive and MOST FAIR to all!

The WCST would like to thank our host, Mr Scott Poddig, the proprietor of the center, and his workers, and to all of the bowlers who attended this tournament. The "Viper" pattern for the lane conditions, both days for the qualifying and the finals, made scoring very interesting. Our thanks to EBONITE INTERNATIONAL, and GEORGE ABRAHAMSEN REALTOR for Tarbell REALTORS, 949-812-9990, our two coverage sponsors. A special thanks to Sherry Davis for doing the Brackets.

Tvaska Set To Break Record at 2008 USBC Women's Championship

CANTON, Mich. - When Mini Tvaska stepped onto the lanes in 1947 in Grand Rapids, Mich., to compete in the United States Bowling Congress Women's Championships for the first time, she had no idea it would become an annual tradition.

More than six decades later, Tvaska will return to her home state of Michigan to break the all-time record for participation in the Women's Championships as she competes in the event for the 62nd consecutive year.

The 90-year-old native of Dearborn, Mich., who now lives in St. Petersburg, Fla., will break the record on Tuesday, May 20 at 3 p.m. when she is scheduled to compete in team event at Super Bowl Lanes. Mary Covell of Chicago competed in 61 Women's Championships, the last coming in 1992.

"I've been planning my trip back to Detroit for awhile now," Tvaska said. "It will be close to where I grew up in Dearborn. I'm feeling fine now and still bowling in city and state tournaments. Even after all these years bowling, I'm still excited by tournament play."

Tvaska took up the sport of bowling for the first time in her mid-20s. Since her first Women's Championship at the age of 29, Tvaska has traveled an estimated 150,000 miles across the United States to every tournament location.

Throughout her consecutive streak, Tvaska has battled many obstacles but none compared to last year's battle to get to the Women's Championships in North Carolina.

"I had a very tough year last year," Tvaska said. "I fell and injured my shoulder and needed months of rest and rehabilitation. I was only able to bowl one game before that tournament."

Tvaska is just one example of the dedication many women have in competing in the Women's Championships. Approximately 2,500 active bowlers have competed in 25 or more tournaments.

Three 300 Games Bowled By Matt Murtishaw

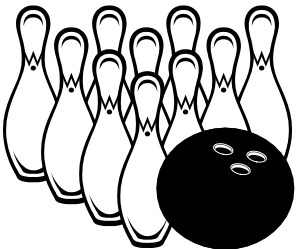

by Frank Weiler
MURRIETA—Matt Murtishaw, son of Citrus Belt bowling great and former PBA champion Jim Murtishaw, recently bowled a perfect game for three consecutive weeks in his Country Express League at Cal Oaks Bowl in Murrieta. Each of the 300 games was the first game of the night. Matt used his Track Power Machine to roll all three perfectos. The ball was drilled by his dad, proprietor of Fast Lanes Pro Shop within Cal Oaks Bowl. Matt's high series for the three weeks was 758.

Young Murtishaw is twenty-two and only started bowling again in 2007, after staying away from the sport for six years. We all knew he'd be back, with his dad a PBA champion and Mom Anita one of the top Citrus Belt lady bowlers of the 1990s. She led all association women in average several times during that decade.

Since coming back to bowling, Matt has been taking lessons from his dad. Just a week before the first perfecto his dad had him working on getting the loop out of his backswing. The form change worked to perfection! Practicing forty to fifty games a week now, Matt has raised his average thirty pins to 210 this season. His goal is to become an exempt PBA player and a regular on television.

While these perfect games were Matt's first certified perfectos, he did roll an incredible 280-300-300=880 practice series this past March.

Matt wants his Mom and dad to know he loves them and thanks them both for their coaching and support. Thank you Bowling News for supporting Citrus Belt bowlers.

San Gabriel Valley USBC Association

by A. A. Turtle

WEST COVINA—The Annual open meeting for SGVUSBC was held on April 6, 2008 at BRC West Covina Lanes. It was a very sad turn out of supporters, we only had 26 people show and 16 of those were board members.

Remember the association is here for you the bowlers to see that the rules and regulations are being followed. This means if possible you should be attending these open meetings and make sure that the individuals who are being elected to the board are the ones you feel will be doing the best for SGV.

This is where you find out what is happening with the bowling industries and how it will affect centers and leagues. Those in attendance elected the following individuals to serve on the board for another term or a new term.

Rosie Parker was reelected as President, Dallas Perkins was in a close race and won 2nd Vice President and the following were elected for a 2 year term as directors: Dolores Perkins, Mark Parker, Kathy Piguert & Joseph Hilke. The delegates were elected for those wishing to attend the 2009 State and National Conventions.

For National Convention being held in Reno, NV April 29 – May 3 you elected Linda Johnson, Rosie Parker, Chris Pilios, Linda O'Hagan & Dallas Perkins as delegates with the alternates to be Annette Anderson, Jo O'Dell & Carol Mancini. CA State Convention to be held in Riverside June 2009, delegates are Annette Anderson, Chris Pilios, Linda O'Hagan, Kathy Piguert, Jo O'Dell & Janet Loucks.

Headquarters had sent a letter stating that the awards would be changed to once in a lifetime. The feed back was not good so at this time they are postponing and change to a later date. Also that National head quarters will be moving from Wisconsin to Texas by the end of the year. All associations will need to be registered with the RVP program by August 1, 2008.

Your local has done this and are in the process of working with the bowling centers to have all who are involved with youth bowlers and programs be registered in this program is to protect the kids.

At the award luncheon we had 30 bowlers along with family & friends to see the winners from City Tournament and the Singles Tournament be presented with their awards. It wasn't a big turn out but I believed that all had a grand time.

This coming Sunday June 1, 2008 at Chaparral Lanes we will be hosting our Annual Memorial No-Tap Tournament check-in at 12:00 pm and bowl at 1 pm. Cost is $25.00 per person and open to all that are interested in helping to raise money for CANCER RESEARCH.

The next upcoming events are as followed and watch for flyers at your center and in the bowling news: Sunday August 31 at Oak Tree Lanes fund raiser for USO of ONTARIO

Saturday & Sunday Sept 13 & 14 at BRC Covina Bowl Greater Southern California First Annual Singles open to all certified bowlers from San Gabriel Valley, Antelope Valley, Citrus Belt, Imperial Valley, North County, North Los Angeles County, Orange County, San Diego & Southern LA County. Sunday Oct 19th at Chaparral Lanes will be the Mixed Doubles.

Starting in October we will be going to each center during your leagues asking for donations for Bowlers to Veterans Link (BVL) Also the office has flyers for some of the up coming CA State events:

Sr. Women's Tournament entries close Aug. 1, 2008
Prince & Princess Tournament entries close Sept. 15, 2008
CA State Senior Bowling Championships entries close Oct 1, 2008.

A reminder on our website you can get the results of the past tournaments along with up coming tournaments. For you secretaries you can download the forms if you run out or the bowl is out of them.

Until the next time lets keep bowling and having fun. Learn more about the association by going on our website: SanGabrielValleyUSBC.com.

by Nice and Sweet

STUDIO CITY — We are on the third part of our unending saga. This week we traveled to Tampa, Nebraska and Queens. It's been a rough month but our bowlers always make us feel at home. They show us that Studio City is the real home of bowling.

ADULTS

In Tampa we went to Splitsville Alley and saw exactly what you expect: a lot of splits. Not any on the lanes but on many overweight bowlers waistbands. Our in-shape bowlers pushed up their scores this week. Here are the strengthened scores:

Funseekers: Bart Mills 280/700, Brian Bell 267/694, Jeff Pifko 688, Isabelle Vincent 203/549, Lisa Frobisher 529, Keane Murakami 267.

Twilighters: Kelly Perdue 248/683, Shin Takei 662, Laurie Faso 244/652, Dan Coffelt 236/645, Jeff Haber 242/637, Bonnie Schwab 200/484, Lorill Clement 200, Kevin King 236.

Kings and Queens: Kevin Collins 246/627, Brett Himmel 621, Donald Osborne 606, Mitch Levitt 237/601, Jeff Diner 595, Dwayne Ralston 255, Robin Beacham 234.

Again the idea of retirement pops up when great achievements are met. Nebraska, what a great place to retire to and bowl at. Especially Cornhusker Lanes, yet none of their games can even come close to Nikolai Berk. He bowled a 300 game and showed everyone around the Corn Belt that he is the best in the West.

SENIORS, LADIES

There is only one place to find love, Queens, N.Y. At least that's what Prince Akeem told us from Coming to America. He may have been able to listen to Sweet Chocolate, but he never bowled as good as our seniors. They bowl like a fresh McDowell's sandwich. Here's the scores:

Senior Social: Bob Garrick 265/755, Charlene Gaffney 235/653, Allan Lotta 196/533, Teri Bonato 197/517, Christine Stark 504, Ruth Grallia 238.

Joslyn Seniors: Bob Garrick 214/606, Sol Stein 208/563, Teri Bonato 171/475, Kathy George 161/438.

Breakfast Club: Myrna Schiffman 197/527, Charlene Gaffney 188/510, Nancy Sherwood 160/441, Elaine Vanoff 436, Victoria Rastocky 171/433, Roz Levitt 160.

Pin Pals: Judy Kautz 180/430, Barbara Weissman 177/412, Diana Bassi 148/405, Shelly Djercian 285, Ellen Engel 138/370, Karen Collier 138.

Bowler of the Week: It's obvious that Nikolai Berk is our bowler of the week this time. He became the second junior in a month to record a 300 game. We are so excited about his 300 that we gave him a great adult partner to bowl with on Sundays. Keep up the good bowling.

Sweetness Quote of the Week: "Look...me and the McDonald's people got this little misunderstanding. See, they're McDonald's...I'm McDowell's. They got the Golden Arches, mine is the Golden Arcs. They got the Big Mac, I got the Big Mick. We both got two all-beef pattied, special sauce, lettuce, cheese, pickles and onions, but their buns have sesame seeds. My buns have no seeds." - John Amos

by Otha Stubblefield

RENO—In spite of rising fuels costs and hectic last minute cast changes, three teams representing the Los Angeles TNBA Senate bravely traveled to the San Jose area for the 33rd annual TNBA Junior Western Regional Tournament on March 29 and 30th. Joining Los Angeles at AMF Mission Lanes in Milpitas were teams from the San Jose Senate and fellow SoCal Association, the Inland Empire Senate.

Six teams in the highest average Class 1 Division were competing for the tournament’s top prize, a chance to battle against the Class 1 winning teams from the Eastern, Southern and Central TNBA Junior Regionals. This roll-off will take place at the site of the National TNBA Tournament in Reno, Nevada.

After three hard games, the two Los Angeles teams took the top 2 spots in Class 1. Southwest Swansong #1, aptly named because Southwest Bowl is closing, led their brother team, Ultimate Lightening, by over 100 pins. The team members of Southwest Swansong #1 are Matthew Jones, sophomore at Centennial High School in Compton; Claudell Redwine, Crenshaw Arts/Tech Charter School graduate and freshman at LA Southwest College; Darren Hawkins, Inglewood High School graduate and sophomore at San Jose State; and Jeremy Glover, junior at Milliken High School in Long Beach. Team Captain Jeremy Glover led scoring for his team with an impressive 748 series. His final game stopped just shy of perfection after leaving a bucket on his 11th ball for a spectacular 286 game.

Brent Shern, Captain of Ultimate Lightening, pushed his team hard, but fell short of the crown by a little over 100 pins. Brent is a graduate of Pacific Lutheran High School in Torrance and currently attends El Camino Junior College, also in Torrance. Leadoff bowler Eric Torrence graduates from Prairie Vista Middle School in Lawndale next month; Teddie Carter is a Washington Prep High School graduate and Josh “08” Gartrell is a senior at Long Beach Polytechnic High.

The remaining Los Angeles Senate team, Southwest Swansong #2 was in the Class 4 division, and grabbed the spotlight just like the other two teams. Jon’Tel Smith, Dementia Redwine, Shirniece and Antone Beeks beat out their competition to win Class 4. All three LA Senate teams adjourned to Dave & Buster’s to celebrate their team trifecta.

All of our teams and parents really appreciated the work that went into making this tournament a success. There are so many people to thank in addition to Melvin, Sue, Angie, Veronica and Dewann Clark,. I have to give special thanks to Matthew Jones, not because he was on the winning team, but because he agreed to go at the last minute – not a small feat when you have to travel 400 miles to the tournament site.

This weekend, Jeremy, Claudell, Matthew, Darren, a host of parents and I will travel to Reno to bowl against the winning teams from the Eastern, Central and Southern Regions. I know we’re going to do well and proudly represent the West.

EYE ON ENTERTAINMENT A FAREWELL TO EMPLOYEES

LOS ANGELES — In my last column of Southwest Bowl’s demise, I purposely omitted my Employees — so that I could properly skewer them. So... if they have a sense of humor...here goes.

DAVE THEISEN — He began as a Deskman in 1960. When Gwen Morillo retired, Dave took over as Night Manager. 48 years!! Wow! He looks like Moses, but he is the only guy I know who can sum up the league funds. IN HIS HEAD!!

Then there are our three female Bartenders. Marguerite was hired by my Dad and has been here over 30 years. She loves to decorate. Desi loves the Indianapolis Colts, and Charlotte is a whiz at throwing parties. Three beautiful human beings.

Kudos to our Mechanics: The rugged Lionel and the artistic Greg. They kept our 1958 Classic machines going, no problem.

On Desk, we have the characters: Michael is the Old Pro — smart, prompt, honest, charming. Willie is the wise-acre. He can keep a straight face while he pulls a joke on you. Raymond and Jay are the handsome young studs who attract the Femme Fatales, and Wilfred attempts to follow suit.

Our Cleanup guys are led by Margarito, an amazingly-strong guy with lots of kids (including Twins). Armando and Oswald make up the trio of multi-talents — pin-chasers, clean-up guys, bar keepers.

Miguel Villegas and his family tend the coffee shop. If there’s a party, Mig is there with food and a big grin.

Otha is our Junior Coach. A more family-loving, kid-oriented guy you will never find — even if he works at U.C.L.A., neighbor/brother school to U.S.C.

The Dessert of SW Bowl is the tiniest one here — who walks zip, zip, zooley in her 90-pound frame. DOTTIE HONDA, book-keeper, knows where every penny goes. She is the one who will be missed the most when we close. She also keeps me out of mischief with her knowledge of the Law. Girl Friday, advisor, Bon Vivant, our Love to Dottie is unbounded.

All for now. If we’ve missed someone, don’t worry, I’ll find a way to say goodbye.

Til that time,
I shall remain
/s/ Ken Del Conte

P.S. Don’t forget. On Monday, June 2, 2008, we are auctioning off everything inside the bowling alley. See you there.

Rocky Marsh Doubles Makes Summer Debut To Boast Sizzling Scores

by Joy McGregor

The Rocky Marsh Mixed Doubles started the summer session on Friday morning at Linbrook Bowl in fine fashion and set the bar high. Even the hustle and bustle of opening day couldn't deter our determined bowlers.

Our lanes were primed and ready for some HOT scores and we were not disappointed. Our "Hottest" score was turned in by none other than "Big Bad" John Conway. John fired games of 217-246-257 for 720 and then tossed a scorching 279 finale to take top honors at 999.

Next in line was another sub, "Too Tuff" Tony Hale who took his turn and threw some heat on gamnes of 210-267-263 for 740 and added a 249 to post 989.

Dapper Terry Brent burned the wood with his games of 207-258 and a sizzling 279 for 744 and added 234 to register 978.

Jack Wilson, new to the league, made himself known and left his mark on games of 248-209-225 and another 248 to post 930.

E.J. Rogers, no stranger to being in the lime light, rolled games of 234-224-217 and 246 to record 921.

More HOT scores: Eva Munson 249-889, Tim Blough 251-884, Bob Gosnell 235-883, Lloyd Thierry 256-882, Willy Bordenave 237-879, Tony Chaco 258-878, Rose Williams 228-872, Kantral Williams 257-866, Ron Marcus 224-842, John Phillips 257-842, Frank Bellinder 279-835, Juan Sandoval 235-825, Gino Vassallo 212-814, Al Lara 266, Hong Kha 233, Carl Adinolfi 228, Alan Bloom 225, Ed Hermance 224, Marie Barbush 219, Kyle Osterman 218, April Anderson 215, Jerry Knight 214, Tom Keehn 213, Rey Ortiz 213, Larry Green 211, Ed Mote 210, Gloria Ferrulli 204, Ron Douglass 213, Johnny Munson 203, Shig Shoji 203, Joy McGregor 201 and Fred Voysey 200.

We all welcome Fred Voysey back to bowling after suffering a mild heart attack earlier in the season. So glad to have you back Fred and looking so fit!

Hope everyone enjoyed their day off to party, count their blessings and to honor our fallen soldiers and give thanks to our Veterans this Memorial Day. Until next week...

Forest Lanes Six Gamer Re-Scheduled

LAKE FOREST — The Forest Lanes Six Gamer normally scheduled for the first Saturday of each month, has been changed to June 8th (Sunday) at 5 P.M.

The California State Open Championships will be bowling at Forest for a few more weeks.

In case you didn't get a chance to sign up for the State tournament, subs are needed for almost every squad. You must have a sanction card and a verifiable average.

Keystone Lanes in Norwalk is the host center for the Singles and Doubles portion of the State tournament. They need subs also!

The Open Championships is open to men and women!
