J.A.T. VS. WESTERN PACIFIC IN 2009/10 EBONITE FINALS

Two Teams Vie For 25th Championship at Del Rio Lanes Monday at 8:30pm

DOWNEY — The title match for the Ebonite Invitational is now set, $16,000 to the winner! as the #1 seeded Western Pacific Bowling Supply team will face off against the #3 seeded J.A.T. team. The match will begin at 8:30 on Monday night, and will be a best of 5 series with all four of the season's lane conditions being on display.

There were two matches this past Monday that got us down to the final pair. The first match was between J.A.T. and Katie Jakes Bar and Grill. Interestingly all four members of the defending champions were in the match, with two members on each of the teams.

Game #1 saw J.A.T. jump out to an early lead behind four baggers from both Ken McElvaney and Matt Jones, but Katie Jake's came back strong with seven strikes in a row from Jon Brandon and 7 out of 8 from Kevin Yamauchi. Katie Jakes won the first game with that late charge 850-792.

Game #2 was a little tighter, but a late five bagger from David Yamauchi and a solid 261 from Matt Jones helped J.A.T. even the match at one game a piece, 859-826.

The third and final game saw more excellent bowling, and clutch shots from two of the defending champions as a close game came down to the final couple of frames. Four baggers from both David Yamauchi and Larry Campbell helped push J.A.T. over the top to win the match, 848 to 803, and advance them into the semi-final match. The Katie Jakes Bar and Grill Team (Kurt Arakaki, Kevin Yamauchi, Brent Shern and Jon Brandon) had a great season, finishing in 4th place for $8000 in total prize money.

The semi-final match saw J.A.T. advance to bowl against the #2 seed, Strike Hard Apparel. The scores got a little lower as the teams moved onto the Cheetah pattern. John Chapman, bowling for Strike Hard Apparel, put four strikes together in the middle of the game, helping them to an early lead, in spite of David Yamauchi starting with the front five for J.A.T. Ken McElvaney and Larry Campbell both had tough taps in the 10th frame for J.A.T., and a clutch double from Paul Varela gave him a 233 and a victory for Strike Hard, 781-770.

Game #2 went the other direction and Strike Hard Apparel had a tough time getting started. David Yamauchi kept throwing strikes and J.A.T. cruised through this one, 756-698.

Once again, a match came

by Dick Sanders

GARDEN GROVE—The doubles team of Kevin Gannon & Chip Willett, won this tournament at AMF-Valley View Lane last weekend, and it was a tough victory. Their team was the high qualifying team with 4690 for the ten games, and the lead changed places several times, among five of the 8 teams in the finals. At the end of game #5, their team was in 4th place. They rallied to get to 2nd p-lace, before entering the position round against the team of Larry Rumble & Jason Thomas, 47 pins down. Although, Larry's team had the highest total pins of the finals,, their last game. Not good and lost to Kevin & Chip, by a total of 48 pins for the tournament. Their loss dropped them to 4th place. The team of Jeff Gordon & Greg Neuer, with a big 279 game by Greg in their match, jumped them to finish in 2nd Place, to finish by only 13 pins ahead of the team of

Did you miss it? State was great

by Mary Lynly

NORWALK—Do you remember when the WIBC was being held in Bismarck, North Dakota? No one wanted to go to North Dakota! What the heck could we do in North Dakota? As it turned out, those that didn't go missed a great tournament, a great convention, incredible bidding parties and hospitality that didn't quit plus great lanes. The fellow who helped us off the plane drove us to our hotel! We talked about the fun for months.

Seems the same thing happened to the CUSBC Women's Championships in Oroville and Yuba City. The lucky people were 598 teams who made the effort. Having bowled in 54 state tournaments – you can be sure we've hit some less than wonderful bowls. Tyme to Bowl Lanes in Oroville and Nu Generation Bowl in Yuba City were clean, beautiful with state of the art equipment and offered hospitality that didn't quit.

At Tyme to Bowl Lanes we were on the opening squad and greeted with a hors d oeuvre buffet to die for: Mozzarella with tomato and basil, shrimp with wonderful sauce, stuffed mushrooms, sandwich meats and cheeses plus veggies and the soft drink of your choice. At Nu Generation Bowl you can see Manager Helen Means-Stinson's touch on things. Helen ran 4th Street Bowl in San Jose for years. She knows the food and beverage business and runs a tight ship. Of note were huge recognition boards on the walls for all who had bowled honor scores.

Staff and bowling association board members were proudly introduced at both bowls and you could see they were excited to be there and see the tournament launched. Of course, there was the Casino attached to Tyme to Bowl that attracted many bowlers and good places to eat were everywhere.

The best part – meeting and greeting friends from around the state – lots of hugs and catching up and some excitement right off the bat when Pat Brown of Richmond bowled a 278 her second game. We had a great team on our lanes from Plumas County. Their senior member was 98-year old Dortha Shaehorn. She bowled 98 her first game and then 100 and 120! We commented on the 100 and she said, "Yes, and I intend to be here when I'm 100 too!"

It is such a pleasure to bowl in a nice bowling center with nice people. Plenty of score monitors who kept their eye on everything and were our rooting section to boot. I didn't bowl well – my fault – but I came home with a great feeling. Those small towns have it.

The tournament will move to Ventura in 2011 so start making plans to participate now. Ventura is a great place to go – good bowling centers and good food to eat plus, if I remember correctly, some fun places to go!

LA HABRA—Sun Sundara was the star and at his best. This time it was good enough for the likeable bowler to win his second ABTA Title in our One day Event at La Habra “300” Bowl. Great performance and a thrilling finish as he bowled the best for three games at super La Habra “300” Bowl, in an exciting Special “Beat The Board” Semis/Finals.

The turnout was on the lighter side this week as 139 entrants shot at the popular center.

The scoring was tougher but very fair at La Habra as we had men +39, and the ladies chipping in at +36 with the decent turnout of 139 bowlers.

We would now do a Beat The Board Finals. 41 bowlers took the floor, and it is a Finals where You Finish will be your cashing position. Still 3 women min guaranteed to the top 16.

The bowlers began in game one. The scoring was quite contentious with many bowlers starting out well. William Garrett led at +79 and Sun Sundara +62, then Mikko Miller and Dan Eguilos +46 with many others in striking distance of the lead.

Game two had Sundara post a +38 and at +100 he led with Garrett, Greg Kokanour, Raznik Danelian, and and Margie Coronado in position less than 30 pins back.

In game three it went down to the wire with Garrett, Sundara and Danelian; with Sundara striking out to finish at +126. So Garrett needing a mark for the win got a big split (4-6) which he couldn’t pick up. The title went to Sun in a photo finish! Great bowling by Sun who is one of the good guys as is William Garrett. Seems every time we go to La Habra this happens. An exciting finish!

As always the top 16 were guaranteed $100 min and a min of three ladies to the top 16. The gals were Pauline Hollis, Bobbie Mc Collum, and Margie Coronado.

Congrats to Tony, our latest Champion Sun, William, Raznik and all who bowled well there including some new members. This format was different but fun. We use it at La Habra where they have a successful Cosmic Program there in the evening.

The doubles were topped by Howard Smith and Vic Paolucci 1385/$100. Wendy Soo Hoo/Fred Go 1384/$80. We paid 14 places and $640 in the doubles.

The Match Game was Matched at 193 by three of our regulars Stan Por, Danny Guevarra and Greg Neuer. They shared $3,500 and $1,166 each. All are gentlemen and deserving to say the least. Yes, the Match Game goes for $3,500 again this weekend, for two more weeks and in Las Vegas. Lots of cash in the Match Game for you due to the carryovers!

The Match Series was Matched as Jack Trongale parlayed his 495 series to a nice $240 for his $2.00 entry fee. We will estimate the Series to be worth $400 this week..

Don Johnson and Mamerto Jablan shared a consolation $50 in the 3-6-9 roll off, so the pot is $1,400.

Champ Sun Sundara, Diamond Bar, married to Gail. He used a Storm drilled by Ben Mach at Westminster Lanes. He thanks wife for support, the ABTA STAFF, Adam, Rico, Dennis Barrett and Ed Palma who are all big ABTA Supporters.

William Garrett is from Tarzana, married to a sweet lady Glenda, with kids Dominique and Brian. He used an Invasion drilled by Ben Mach also. He thanks Bob and the ABTA Staff for a great fun time tournament and family for support.

Raznik Danelian is from No. Hollywood and used a Lane One drilled by Brandon at Jewel City. He thanks the ABTA staff for doing a wonderful job.

Thanks to the La Habra

Staff, Gary, Carol and Deskman supreme Glenn “900” Allison.

It’s History folks as Sun Sundara enters the archives as a three time champion. Join us at KEYSTONE for a good one. The Squad times there listed in the heading of this story and on our ad in this paper. So first place can be worth up to $2,400.

2010 CA Pepsi Youth Championships

Awards $50,000 in Scholarships!

Nomads Traveling Singles 1955-2010

DALY CITY—225 youth bowlers will be awarded $50,000 in scholarships this year for their outstanding performance in the CA Pepsi Championships! These winners are the most deserving as they have survived through two rounds of qualifying for the 11-Under Division and three rounds of qualifying for the 12-Up Division. League-level qualifying was held in November and January and the District Finals were held this past March at eight different locations over two different weekends: District #1 – AMF Orchard Lanes, District #1 – Chico; District #2 – Manteca Bowl, Manteca; District #3 – Delta Bowl, Antioch; District #4 – Black Oak Lanes, North Tuolumne; District #5 – Canoga Park Bowl, Winnetka; District #6 – Yucca Bowl, Yucca Valley; District #7 – Chaparral Lanes, San Dimas; and District #8 – Vista Entertainment Center, Vista. A total of 1,210 bowlers participated in the 11-Under Division and 1,955 participated in the 12-Up Divisions (3,165 total). Thank you to the 2010 hosting centers!

The State Finals were held at Fountain Bowl in Daly City on May 1-2. We had 366 bowlers travel from across the state to attend. California will be sending four bowlers from the Scratch Division: Steven Manier, Mark Myers, Dara Ajimine and Madison Kircher to the 2010 USBC Jr. Gold Finals to be held in Indianapolis, IN this July. They will also receive a travel stipend along with their state scholarship. For the Stepladder Roll-off in the Boys Scratch Division, Mark Myers from Yorba Linda Bowl was top qualifier with a 6-game set of 1,464 (231-275-258-247-249-203). Steven Manier from Surf Bowl was a close second with 1,433 (247-257-257-237-209-226). Rounding out the final top four for the stepladder roll-off was Max Slevcove from Yorba Linda Bowl (232-214-246-179-268-288 = 1,427) and Brandon Pekins from Gardena Bowl (169-229-237-246-259-259 = 1,396). In the Girls Scratch Division, Brandie Woodward from AMF Hemet led the field with 1,332 (227-257-257-194-190-207). Qualifying second was Dara Ajimine from Gardena Bowl shooting 1219 (159-226-214-203-193-224). Finishing the field was Madison Kircher from Fireside Lanes (153-246-147-224-205-236 = 1211) and Lauren Orgeron from AMF Visalia (210-194-156-279-171-162 = 1172).

Since USBC discontinued the Pepsi National Finals in 2008, we came up with something new this year and California will be sending the top four handicap division finalists: Mark Lecount, Patrick Benito, Olivia Deharo and Manika Squadrille to the California Youth State Championships to be held this July in Vista/Oceanside. For the top four stepladder qualifiers in the Boys Handicap division, Mark Lecount from Chaparral Lanes (TurtleBowl) led the field followed by Patrick Benito from Brunswick Moreno Valley Bowl. The third place qualifier was Austin Corrick from Yucca Bowl and fourth was Jeremiah Ofiana from Gilroy Lanes. In the Girls Handicap Division, Olivia Deharo from AMF Mission was top qualifier, followed by Catie Noska from Brunswick West Covina Lanes. Third qualifier was Manika Squadrille and last to make the cut was Kianna Hersey from Boardwalk Bowl. You can download the stepladder results online at www.CalUSBC.com.

We are extremely thankful for our many sponsors this year. For the 10th year in a row, BowlersParadise.com and Elitebowling.com provided bowling bags for each of our district and state raffles. We also received bowling balls from NorthStar Pro Shop (located inside AMF Orchard Lanes), Pacific Coast Pro Shop (located inside Canoga Park Bowl), Bowlers Corner Pro Shop (located inside Chaparral Lanes), Bowler's Advantage Pro Shop (located inside Vista Entertainment Center), Lane 37 Pro Shop (located inside Delta Bowl) and Pin Point Bowling Concepts (located inside AMF Beverly Bowl). Digital Team Photography also donated a portion of the State Finals photo sales directly to the scholarship fund. Their support is a direct result of how we can raise so much money in this great event. Please help us to thank them by patronizing their businesses.

Thanks to all of the District Directors: Robyn Hricik, Shirley Lyons, Tim Pato, June Brown, Tom Leigh, Don Lauer, Annette Anderson and Linda Stewart for their hard work in running the District Finals this year and to all of those that helped them. We know that it takes more than two directors to run these events and they all did a superb job. Also thanks to the District Finals hosting centers and to Fountain Bowl for their great hospitality!

District Directors will be contacting past Pepsi participating centers in regards to hosting this event for 2011. We need to have centers in place by July, so if you are interested, please contact your respective District Director for more information. All scholarship award recipients were mailed a scholarship packet with a commemorative certificate. All funds are held with SMART so be sure to contact them immediately if you do not receive acknowledgment of your award. Thanks again to all of those that supported this event this year. We look forward to the upcoming 2011 event this fall. Tournament packets will be mailed to all youth programs in September. Just an FYI, we will be adjusting the qualifying ratios so we will definitely have more bowlers entered in this event for next year!

to the third and deciding game. And, once again David Yamamachi came out striking. He threw the front five, again, and this time had more help as Ken McElvaney started with the front four. J.A.T. opened up a lead of more than 100 pins, and did enough to prevent any run from Strike Hard. The final score was 781-714, and it sent J.A.T. into the championship match. Strike Hard Apparel finished in third place and it's members (Jeff Carr, John Chapman, Danny Ontiveros and Paul Varela) will split the $10,000 that comes with it.

Several members of the #1 seeded Western Pacific Bowling supply team were in attendance to watch these two matches, along with many other supporters. It was a great night of bowling, and set's the stage for the championship match on Monday night. Come down early. Get a good seat, and enjoy some fantastic bowling on four different conditions as the teams battle for the final payoff of $16,000.

Going Green Huh Larry?

by Roberta McNaught

ANAHEIM—Larry Green decided to conserve energy last week thus getting on the “Green” bandwagon. By tossing mostly strikes, he earned himself a little rest and a fabulous series. Easing into a first game of 210, he added a 219, 280, and because of a stubborn 7 pin in the 11th frame, a 289, for a 998 series. Way to go partner.

Only two members were in the 900 Club, they were: Tony Chaco 256/967 and Missy Bellinder 258/900.

Others making the honor roll were: Carl Adinolfi 246/883, Ron Douglass 232/865, Janine Ditch 243/855, Mike Caballero 237/854, Jong Lee 250/851, Tim Blough 226/840, Allen Gutierrez 247/825, Janet Anderson 224/820, Don Gut-Omen 275/807, Kantral Williams 233/804, Dick McKenzie 280, John Phillips 253, James Blyth 246, Ron Marcus 237, Cheryl Munson 232, Gavin Huff 229, Geoff Henderson 225, Al Lara 224, Jim Moore 222, Drew Parkin 222, Don Gardner 219, Melissa Fan 218, E.J. Rogers 218, Rich Heid 217, Alan Bloom 216, Roberta McNaught 213, Jerry Roddam 213, Hong Kha 211, Gino Vassallo 209, Anderson Alcaraz 207, Nicole Abbott 204, Dahana M.
