Kulick Makes History

HAMMOND, Ind—For the first time in PBA history, a woman will bowl full time on the Tour.

Kelly Kulick averaged 224.04 in 45 games over five days to finish sixth out of 140 bowlers in the 2006 Denny's PBA Tour Trials Sunday at Stardust Bowl I to earn one of 10 exemptions for the 2006-07 Denny's PBA Tour season.

The PBA opened its membership to women in April 2004 after the Professional Women's Bowlers Association (PWBA) folded. Kulick was the 2001 PWBA Rookie of the Year and won the 2003 Women's U.S. Open before the league folded.

In 2004-05, the Denny's PBA Tour went to an all-exempt field with 58 bowlers earning full-time exemptions for each season. While two women – Liz Johnson and Cathy Dorin-Lizzi – have qualified for single Tour events through weekly Tour Qualifying Rounds, no woman had ever earned a full-season exemption.

"To be the first woman is huge... words can't even describe the feeling," said Kulick. "I feel confident I can be a good enough competitor to stay out on Tour. My next goal is to make a television show and become the first woman to win a PBA Tour title."

Kulick came into Sunday eighth overall with the final day taking place on the Tour's highest-scoring oil pattern. Each of the five days featured one of the PBA's five different oil patterns.

The 29-year-old from Union, N.J. averaged 232.89 over the final nine games – including a 300 in game four – to finish sixth with a 10,082 45-game pinfall.

Leading the field was Mark Scroggins (Amarillo, Texas), whose twin brother Mike is also exempt on Tour. Scroggins finished with 10,301.

Michael Haugen Jr. (Las Vegas), a 10-year Tour veteran, finished second with 10,279.

Making his way back on Tour after a two-year hiatus was 12-time Tour titlist Del Ballard Jr. (North Richland Hills, Texas), who finish 10th with 10,009.

Kelly Kulick is the first woman to earn a full-season exemption for the Denny's PBA Tour.

Needing a 186 in his final game to qualify, Ballard shot a 219 to earn the final spot.

Jim Pratt (Glendale, Ariz.) finished third with 10,189, Chris Hayden (Orlando, Fla.) finished fourth with 10,188, while David Tessman (Tampa, Fla.) rounded out the top five with 10,109.

The 2003 PBA Rookie of the Year Chris Johnson (Garland, Texas) made his way back on Tour, finishing seventh with 10,065. Also qualifying were Patrick Girard (Jonquiere, Quebec) & Ritchie Wolfe (Vienna, Va.).

Bob Belmont Wins The Regular Division At Thunder Lanes

Jim Thurmond Wins The Super Senior Title

by Dick Sanders

MOJAVE—Bob Belmont (N. Las Vegas), won his first WCST Title in the regular division of the WCST Ebonite Singles Tournament held at Thunder Lanes in Ft. Mojave, AZ last week-end. Bob led the qualifying with a score of 2203 for the 10 games in a very low scoring tournament for the qualifying as only 7 bowlers were in the plus of the 38 entries. We took 8 bowlers to the finals on Sunday, with 8th place qualifying score of minus 6. The lanes dried out quick, and this bothered many of the bowlers. On Sunday for the finals, not much change in the lanes, but less players made the lanes better scoring. Bob won by a big margin over 4 time WCST Champion Mike Rick. The victory by 199 pins. Two finalists did not bowl on Sunday. All Time WCST Money Leader with 21 WCST Titles Kevin Gannon hurt his back, and was replaced by Ron Gales, and Doug Talsma, arrived too late to start the finals, and was replaced by Larry Rumpel. Larry did quite well as he started with his total pins of minus 119, and managed to finish 5th.

Larry and Ron split their prize money with Doug and Kevin. Bob very consistent both days, plus 203 on Saturday, plus 202 on Sunday. Top 3: 1st, Bob Belmont, $1000.00. 2nd, Mike Rick (Redlands), $700.00, 3rd, Terry Leong (Henderson, NV), $600.00. 38 bowlers entered for a prize fund pay off of $6,145.00.

For 7 tournaments this year, $56,951.00 paid out, and for 236 tournaments, a total of $2,659,939.00 has been paid out. Our thanks to our host, Tina Jackson, the proprietor of the center, and the workers of the lanes, especially the 3 gentleman that made up the sandwiches that sold for $5.00 each after the 1st 5 game block. The former GM of the center, and operates the Pro Shop, Mr. Frank Greeley, we thank, as he was very instrumental in getting the $1000.00 from the center for the added money. Thanks also to Bart Dibartolo, and Brenda Blandina for a fine job with the brackets.

Fred III Finishes First (After Four)!!

NABI San Diego—Hosting the NABI tournament this past weekend was Admiral Robinson Center. Fred D. Johnson, III was the winner of the stepladder "marathon" to capture his first championship. It was beginning to look like the final ball would never be thrown, as the dreaded "T" word (tie!) was popping up at every step of the way. Qualifying in a TIE for the final spot in the semifinals, Fred finished as the #3 seed in the finals.

Match #1 between Anita Smith & Johnny Lopez finished in a TIE, and the subsequent match went to Anita, & she moved on to the next match against Fred. Fred bowled his best game of the day (a nice 259 scratch) and advanced to face #2 seed Bob Ulery. Clutch bowling in the 10th frame by Fred forced Bob to have to get the first two strikes (if he had, another TIE was possible), but a beautiful hit on his first ball left the bane of right handed bowlers, a solid 10 pin. With that, Fred moved on to face the #1 seed, Bert Chadwick. Both bowlers rolled scores above their average, & after 10 frames, the match ended, in what else, but a TIE. That roll off match went to Fred for the title, & the tournament finally came to an end! All in all a very entertaining championship round!

N.A.B.I. Champion
Fred D. Johnson III

Phil Horn was the only bowler to shoot strikes in the 3-6-9 frames of qualifying game #2, so he collected $100 & didn't have to share that perpetual pot. Guaranteed $50 sidepots were claimed by Frank Menchaca, Corey Ayers (2), Linda Vance, Smith, Lopez & Chadwick (3). The 6th place finisher was Ludi Cherry, who received a complete ball resurfacing & rejuvenation from Bowlers Depot.

The next NABI San Diego event is scheduled for June 24th at Parkway Bowl. Squad times & details will appear in the next Bowling News.

See you the 24th at Parkway ..... we'll save a cookie for you!

Tenpin Slants

by Joe Lyou

TARZANA—Billed as a charity event, the recent “Bowling With the Stars” production raised more than $1,000 for the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Research Foundation. But, it could wind up being a much more lucrative promotion.

The United States Bowling Congress has big plans for “Bowling With the Stars” (or BWS, for the sake of brevity).

BWS, conceived and hosted by the USBC, was staged at Corbin Bowl, a cozy 26-lane center on busy Ventura Boulevard in the city of Tarzana, smack dab in the heart of Southern California’s San Fernando Valley.

It was called “Bowling With the Stars” because it was just that, for nine Hollywood celebrities were teamed with three of America’s best women bowlers—Carolyn Dorin-Ballard, Kim Terrell and Diandra Asbaty—in a three-game, Baker-style exhibition match.

It has been well documented that Dorin-Ballard’s team “won” the match. But in reality, there were no losers, for all nine celebrities received souvenir gifts and a bowling pin with which to collect autographs.

Two TV cameramen and a still photographer were on hand to film the fun event. What seemed like miles of film were used. The evening cost the USBC “a ton of money,” as one writer noted, but there’s a possibility that BWS may pay big dividends in the future.

The USBC is planning to take all the film that was shot and edit it into a one-hour pilot, which they hope to sell to a TV network. “Dancing With the Stars” was a huge television hit, so why not “Bowling With the Stars”? True, BWS may not be quite as popular, but it could rival “Skating With the Stars” in the TV ratings. In the meantime, the staff at USBC is keeping their fingers crossed that the pilot sells.

Inasmuch as most of the nine BWS celebrities had no previous bowling experience, they were given a 30-minute crash course by their respective team captains prior to the start of their exhibition match.

One of the celebrities, however, is a die-hard bowler who has participated in leagues for 17 years. He is Shawn Parr, a deejay on KZLA (93.9 FM) in Los Angeles—the most listened-to country music station in the world.

Parr is also an actor with a golden voice who is in much demand for voice-overs. He says he loves the game of bowling.

Did Parr enjoy his evening at Corbin Bowl? Read what he posted the next day on his message boards (Blog) at kzla.com:

Wow, what a night! It was incredible, with the competition coming down to the third game and the LAST frame. Three teams made up of celebrities and one female pro.

I was given a new Storm ball to use (they were the BIG sponsor with Etonic Shoes). Sharon from Corbin (she works in the pro shop) drilled it perfect, and I averaged 203 for three games after dialing it in.

The kid celebrities who showed up to bowl were amazing and very polite! We had a lesson from our Pro’s, Kim Terrell, Carolyn Dorin-Ballard and Diandra Asbaty (all true professionals and very classy!), and then it was down to business.

(Parr then went to give a ball-by-ball account of how his team almost won the match, losing in the last frame when Terrell left a pocket 7-10 split.)

But what WONDERFUL event, and it was taped for TV as a pilot and we shall see what happens. The most important thing was raising money for the Susan G. Komen Foundation for breast cancer research, and that mission (was) ACCOMPLISHED!

I want to thank everyone at the USBC and Corbin Bowl for being so gracious and everyone who came down to watch.

Kim Terrell, my pro, was so amazing (look out Wednesday bowlers, she gave me a 30-minute lesson). Sharon, who runs the pro shop, HOOKED ME UP and my new PYRO ball will be on fire tomorrow night.

I also want to thank my two new friends (and teammates), child stars Alyson Stoner (“Cheaper by the Dozen 1 & 2” and Robbie Bruce (“Stuart Little”); Carolyn and Diandra, and all the other wonderful child stars, and Joan Romeo for getting me involved.

We are blessed, my friends, and this is yet another event I was proud to be part of. God bless. Shawn.

Corbin Bowl could well be called “Robin Romeo’s Corbin Bowl.” Yes, I mean THE Robin Romeo. The one who won 17 titles on the PWBA (Professional Women’s Bowling Assn.) Tour and was later elected to the WIBC (now USBC) Hall of Fame.

When Corbin Bowl changed hands a couple of years ago, Robin and two of her business partners bought the center. She says, “Business has been good, especially on the weekends.”

Strangely enough, Robin does not participate in leagues at Corbin. The only league she bowls in is the “Mission Majors” at Mission Hills Bowl. Asked why, Robin replied, “I like the league, and besides, it’s closer to my home (in Newhall).”

During the staging of “Bowling With the Stars,” Robin served as the official hostess, representing the Corbin Bowl management. As a matter of fact, BWS was virtually a Romeo family production.

Joan Romeo, Robin’s mother, had been hired by the USBC to help publicize the BWS event. Joan, of course, has many years of experience in the field of public relations and advertising, for she is the owner of The Marketing Team of Van Nuys, Calif.

Tori (Romeo) Carter and husband Jeff collected tickets at the gate, while Joan’s youngest son, David, helped move tables and chairs where needed. And Joan’s eldest son, Bill, who works in the entertainment world, was there to offer his help. Even Billy Jr., Joan’s grandson, was in attendance.

Tom Clark, the USBC Director of Communications, was running around and making sure that everything went right. It was his first visit to Southern California. Clark said he liked the beaches—a photo shoot was conducted at Santa Monica and Venice—but he wasn’t too crazy about the freeways.

“I kept wondering what it’d be like if my car broke down and I was stuck in all that traffic,” he said.

Tennelle Milligan, the defending USBC Queens champion, made the long drive from Orange County to Corbin Bowl because she wanted to show her support for the charity event.

Ditto for Kathy (McNaughton) Solowitz. Kathy, a member of the San Fernando Valley Women’s Hall of Fame, had another reason to be at Corbin. Her stepson, Alex Solowitz, a 26-year-old actor, was one of the nine BWS celebrities.

Alex, when introduced to the audience, proudly proclaimed, “My mother’s a professional bowler. Alex is a former star of MTV’s “2Gether” and can be seen in the upcoming Bruce Willis movie, “Alpha Dog.”

Here’s a trivia question: What do Robin Romeo, Tori Carter, Carolyn Dorin-Ballard, Kim Terrell, Diandra Asbaty, Tennelle

Milligan and Kathy Solowitz have in common?

Answer: They’re all entered in the 2006 USBC Queens (June 17-21) in Reno. More than 300 other distaff hopefuls are expected to be competing for the $30,000 that goes to the winner. It’s the richest prize in women’s bowling—and the only major tournament remaining for the ladies to bowl in.

As a final note on BWS, the event was more than a charity fundraiser and a TV pilot. BWS presented a raised image of bowling in general and women’s bowling in particular. It also presented a positive image for youth bowling, for seven of the nine BWS celebrities were teen-agers, all of whom enjoyed their experience at Corbin Bowl.

In a way, BWS also helped to promote the ’06 USBC Queens, so it would seem that the USBC was more than justified in spending “a ton of money” to sponsor “Bowling With the Stars.”

MEDICAL REPORT: Las Vegas’ Dick Stoeffler, the widely-read columnist (“Mountain Time”), is recuperating at home after—finally—having major surgery. The life-threatening medical procedure had been postponed no less than four times.

Following the surgery, Ol’ Steff was in ICU for six days. After that, he spent several days in the hospital and then in a rehab center before being discharged. He is happy to be home, where he is being nursed back to health by his ever-loving Susie (yes, that’s his wife).

Also on the mend is Ray Rosenbaum, who resides in West Hills, a Los Angeles suburb. Rosenbaum, a past president of the Bowling Writers Assn. of America, suffered a burst appendix, which is often fatal.

He hopes to get a clean bill of health from his doctor in time to attend the annual BWAA Convention (June 25-30) in Vegas. The longtime owner of Headlines Ink, a p.r. firm, Rosenbaum will return to work after the convention. That is, if his doctor says everything is okay.

The BWAA Convention is being held in conjunction with International Bowl Expo, the very popular trade show conducted by the Bowling Proprietors’ Assn. of America.

The Challenger: Every Ball Is A $$$ Winner?

LAKEFOREST— Yes, every ball rolled down a lane is a possible winner. Oh, it could be a loser. Bowlers know the certified playing field (lane) is on the level, the ball is round. Through our system of handicapping, we all have a chance to win!

It doesn’t make much difference how old you are, how strong you are, possibly how savvy you are?

At Forest Lanes, bowlers young or old, have an opportunity to win. For the classic 180-200 average, or the seniors over 55 years, they have the 9:00 P.M. Thursday 610 Classic Trios or the Monday/ Friday Senior Jackpot Bowling.

The Thursday night action is a bit more challenging, 17 weeks of team play and optional nightly doubles and singles.

The Senior Jackpot is open to men and women; really a fun handicap deal, regular singles and optional “big money” singles.

Center Manager Allan Mac Duffee says, “Come on down to South Orange County and watch or join our 610 Classic Trios. We have a few 300 shooters, lots of 200 average men and plenty of action”.

If the 610 is too “rich”, try the Monday and Friday Jackpot Senior action. Deskman Greg Carnahan will steer seniors to the on-site hosts explaining the format.

For more information, call Greg or Allan 949-770-0055.

Bautista Wins 1st ABTA Title at Bowling Square

Three Bowlers Share $3,500 Match Game

3-6-9 is $2,500, Match Game est $2,500 Match Series est $500

1-Day Early Event at Forest Lanes 12:30-2 & 3:30 with 5 PM Semis/Finals to Follow

Las Vegas Rooms Are Due Saturday @ Forest Lanes

ARCADIA—Anthony Bautista stepped up big time and won the latest ABTA Event at Bowling Square. He won from the top position, downing Erik Grider who had won four straight matches to get to the title game. He took home a sweet $2,300 for the win.

Anthony wasn't the only bowler hitting the cash line at Bowling Square as "El Presidente" Danny Guevarra, Big Ben Hurtado and Koo Hwang shared a sweet $3,500 Match Game pot and got $1,167 each for their fine 149 games!

Long time member Steven Hower smacked a Perfect Game in the 2:00PM Squad and will receive a Ring and Special Awards for his fine feat. He is a fine bowler and Great Guy. Congrats Steven!

Anthony topped a decent turnout of 178 entrants which produced cut scores of +98 (men) and +34 Ladies. Added Super Seniors were Manny Loria, Javier Avila, and Dodie Sajonas. Making a total of 44 semifinalists in the cash line at Bowling Square.

Bautista held the hot hand in the semis. He topped the field with a big +121, bowled in the title game, besting Eric Grider +114. Erik would receive a first round bye in the single elims and enter in round two. It took a +43 for the men and +34 women to make the Sweet 16 Single Elim Finals which included three guaranteed ladies.

The bowlers took to the lanes. In the first round single elims, losing their matches were Greg Reed, David Jones Jr., Shawn Morgan, Guy Clear, Vic Garcia, Dodie Sajona, and Mitzi Martinez. They got checks of $100 in 10-16th places. In round two, being eliminated were Vic Arteaga, Mark Fisser, Demetrius Cash and Irene Kang. They cashed in 6-9th places and $105 each.

Round three saw Patrick Snyder bring his strike ball, to down a game Brian Dominguez. Grider took out Rey Josef at in a close one. Rey and Brian were 4th and 5th and checks of $115 with Patrick and Erik to meet for the right to bowl Bautista for the title. This game was also a good one, but Grider tossed a bg turkey in a 222-209 win with Patrick who bowled so well was 3rd and $200 with Erik off to the title game.

The title game was on and Anthony elected to lead off. He did with a double. Erik split in the first and after split by Anthony it was a match. In frames 7-8, Grider doubled to tie the game and it was tight. In frame nine Erik left the 2-7-8 and chopped it, and it did him in. Anthony stayed clean winning out 180/211 to Grider's 177/196. His first title is in the books. Anthony pocketed $2,300 with the bonuses. Great bowling by one of the nicer young men in the club! Anthony is Deserving! Congrats!

Fine bowling again by one of our faithful members for some time now, Erik Grider who could have won it all. A little luck, and he could have been the winner! He is one of the "Good Guys" nice to all. Great showing Erik! Fine bowling in third, was a fine bowler Patrick Snyder who also could have won it all at the Square!

ABTA Notes: Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Demetrius Cash +201 men. Jo Ann Courtney led the gals at +75. They will get paid entries to our next regular event.

The 3-6-9 worth a big $2,400 saw Rich Warner out-do the field and go for the Big Bucks but he missed on shot #3. We will go for $2,500 this week at Forest Lanes.

The Match Series was UNMatched as "Cash" drew a 685 worth $230. It will carry over to Forest Lanes Saturday, estimating a $500 Match Series there, for only a $2.00 entry fee.

The Match Game worth $3,500 WAS Matched and three of the best shared a nice $3,500. They now like that 140 game :) The Match Game goes for $2,500 estimated this week at Forest! BIG Money $$ again this week!

The optional doubles were taken by Demetrius Cash, and Paul Dixon. Their big 1470 paying $90. We paid 8 places in the doubles.

The Columbia "300" ball of the week went to a deserving regular Alejandro Vela who will receive the ball of the week, a fine AMF 300!

Champion Anthony Bautista is from Temple City and used an Xfactor drilled by Harry Wong Jr. He is single and thanks Mom Maria, Grandma Betty and Grandma Erica and Father Tony for support. Also Art, Nathan, Debbie, James, Zack, Bob Mills and Ed Williamson for support at The Bowling Center.

Erik Grider is from Bakersfield and used a Manhattan Rubber?? Wow! drilled at Rob's Pro Shop by Rob White. He has two children Jimmy and Eloise who he misses a lot. He thanks mother and dad for all the support and Bob for a great tournament and Bowling Square for hosting it.

Patrick Snyder is from San Dimas. He used a Vapor Zone that he drilled for himself. He thanks Dad Duke, Jennifer Smith, Sister Andrea and his family for support. The ABTA for a great event, and Chris, Bedel, David Jones and everyone who believed in him.

Saturday we return to Forest Lanes and EARLY EVENT. Early Squad times there are 12:30-2:00 & 3:30 with Semis at 5:00 PM. 3:30 PM is the final Squad, taking 1 in 5 to the Semis at 5:00PM.

National Deaf Bowling News

Bill Hayse’s 859 Has Games

Close To Prefection 3 Times

KNOXVILLE—Last week William “Bill” Hayse if Knoxville reported that he had rolled games of 286-284-289 for a 859 series in his Knoxville league. His 859 is a BIG series, right but the oddity is the husky righthander had started with 10 strikes in row in all three games. That was so close to hitting a 300 three times.

Hayse said last September he hit a 824 from games of 257-267-300. So far he has 19 perfect games and six 800 series in his lifetime. Hayse’s record is not surprising because he is a two time (1986 & 1989) National Deaf Masters Champion and was the runner-up in the 1996 National Deaf Masters.

Anyway for keeping up the deaf Bowling record on 800 series, Hayse’s 859 is the 3rd highest. Tony Passarelli, Denver’s 888 is the top among deaf bowlers. Mark Fisser’s 867made last December does not count because it was bowled in a unsanctioned league and Ken DeGross’s 865 remains as 2nd highest. DeGross is the leader with most 800 series.

5TH ANNUAL NDMBA TOURNAMENT SLATED IN LAS VEGAS AT THE ORLEANS THIS FALL

ANAHEIM—William “Bill” Cozad, the head Honcho of National Deaf Master Bowlers Association mailed out to more than 400 deaf bowlers the flyers, entry forms and information for his 5th annual NDMBA tournament. To celebrate its 5th anniversary the event will be held in glittering Las Vegas at The Orleans Hotel and Bowling Center on September 30 and October 1, 2006.

Cozad said, there is a change from the last 4 years’ scratch format to a handicap format. It is necessitated because his scratch format did not work out in drawing the bowlers while the other deaf tournaments’ handicap Masters drew over 100 bowlers.

The tournament, Cozad continued, is limited to 170 and better average deaf and hearing-impaired male and female bowlers and 50% of 210 average will be given to all 170 and higher bowlers. Over 210 average bowlers and deaf and hearing-impaired PBA members get zero handicap.

The competition format, Cozad said, will be the same, almost similar to the PBA. Bowl 12 games (in two blocks of 6 games) Qualifying round on Saturday. After 12 games, depending on number of entries, top 16 or 32 qualifiers may bowl extra qualifying games before going in single elimination best of 5 games. Top 4 plus a wild card go in finals.

The advance entry fee is $195.00 on or before August 10. After August 10 the late and walk-in entry fee is $215.00. Cozad encourages paying the advance entry fee to get the bowlers’ names on the schedule in the program book for the bowlers and fans to follow.

Also with the advance entry fee out of the way, the bowler can bring more money to gamble or pay for some of the extra sidepots the tournament offers like brackets (3 games $5.00), 12 games $20.00, & “Pot of Gold” $60.00.

Important dress code: Entrant must wear a shirt with collar and first and last names on back. No shorts or blue jeans. There will be a fine per day if this code is not followed.

Readers Digest

Reports Bowling

In High School

On The Rise

NORWALK — In the May 2006 issue of the Readers Digest, there was a short article declaring that High School Bowling is the fastest raising participating sport in the nation.

U.S.B.C. has a special committee just for recruiting states to make bowling a letter sport. What other sport offers girls and boys (not athletically driven) an opportunity to “letter”, compete, travel and participate on teams representing their schools?

U.S.B.C. spends thousands on this program, and the average youth bowlers (and youth leaders) don’t get the message.

Maybe, with more articles in popular magazines, recognizing bowling as a growing sport — our state educators will realize the benefits. Schools don’t have to buy equipment, provide a playing field, purchase uniforms, or train the athletes. The bowling centers do it all. How can the State Board of Educations not recognize the total worth of such a program?

We don’t need a Proposition 82 for this one!

Varela and Norton Lead Their Teams Into Brunswick Roll-Offs!

by Randy Myers

DOWNEY—With their seasons on the line, Paul “The Valiant” Varela and Scott “Surfer Boy” Norton stepped up big time and led their respective teams into the roll-offs. What was expected to be a fury of a finish didn’t disappoint as each game between Bowlers Depot – West Covina and Overboost.com came down to the 10th frame. BDWC took game 1 by 20 as Paul rolled 232 to Scott’s 230. Game 2 was won by Overboost with Randy Myers (and his two good strikes) 235 and “Surfer Boy” Scott 232 leading the way. The deciding Game 3 was won by BDWC as Paul fired 212 to end the night with a league high 667. Scott was just behind with 662 followed by Randy with 574, while Leonard Ruiz Jr. also bowled 574 for the Depot crew. These two teams rolled the night’s two highest team series’ and after it was over, had to sweat it out as Pro Approach – Lakewood and MoneyNet Residential Loans battled it out next door with a possible tie and playoff pending. Pro Approach had taken the first two games, and only needed a win in Game 3 to force a playoff with BDWC for the round. However, as the game came to a close, the pressure seemed to mount, and spares became scarce. The game came down to the 10th frame and it was nearly tied. The first 3 bowlers on BOTH teams failed to mark, leaving it up to anchormen Greg “GQ” Jackson and Vernon Adams to decide the match with only 1 pin separating the two teams. With both bowlers on a spare, Greg rolled a 7 count and Vernon a strike to seal the deal and take away the hopes of the Pro Approach squad. David Fairow led MoneyNet with 578, while Emerson “Chocolate” Wafer topped Pro Approach with 557.

On the other side, Seeds #2 through #7 were to be determined and it was Tangeo.com coming out on top and finishing 2nd by taking down Ebonite 4 to 1. Ebonite won Game 1 by 125, but Tangeo came roaring back to win the next two, and took totals by a mere five pins. Arnold Cheesman led Tangeo with 579 and Paul Smith’s 570 paced Ebonite. The #4 seed went to Threadworks as they defeated Columbia 300 4-1. Larry “Spankin” Hanken and Alan Steinberg led the winners with 645 and 591 respectively, while Jeff “Spins” Garrison shot 556 to lead Columbia, who dropped to the 6th seed. Tri Star Vending overcame a close 4 pin loss in Game 1 to come back and defeat Freek Racing 4 to 1 and move into the 5th spot. Jon Brandon “IRON” 613, Larry Campbell “Soup” 574, and David “D Y” Yamauchi 559 provided the power for Tri Star, as Freek Racing settled for the #7 spot. The final match amongst Round Winners had #1 seed Linder Insurance up against Prudential Real Estate and Linder came out on top 4 to 1 in a very tight match. Each game was decided by less than ten pins and the totals were separated by just 14. Frank “The Tank” Barefoot Jr. blasted his way to a 643 for Linders while Maury Griffith led Prudential with 614.

The rest of the action went as follows: Family Amusement 4, G.H.C. 1 as Frank Bellinder stroked a 609 series. Reback’s Plumbing took 4 of 5 from J.C. Spas; Boulevard Brakes 4, Western Pacific 1; Clyde Lumpford rolled 589 to lead Clyde’s Video Games to 4 of 5 points over Forest Lanes; Pro Approach – Downey downed Roto Grip 4-1 as David Saenz 634 & Gary Gladstone 569 bowled well for Pro Approach, while Brian Main 609 & Gary Duran 567 countered for Roto Grip. Vayle Floria’s 625 delivered a 3-2 victory for Erickson’s Food over Al’s Bar Supply, and “Mr. Smooth” ChauneY Merritt led Team Storm to 1.5 wins in the final match with a fine 626.

The side pots were won by Paul Varela in Game 1 with 232 followed by Scott Norton’s 230. Game 2 went to Frank Barefoot Jr. with 254 while Randy Myers took 2nd with 235. Game 3 and Super Pot went to ChauneY Merritt’s 246, Gary Duran finished 2nd with 233, and Scott Norton took home the Series Pot with 662. Congratulations to all the Side Pot winners!

The bracket is now set and the roll-offs start this Saturday at 1:30 pm with a rematch between 4-time defending champ Bowlers Depot – West Covina and upstart Overboost.com on the “sport shot” condition. The winner of the best 2 of 3 match will take on Prudential Real Estate at 3:30 pm. There will be two more matches on Sunday, then Sweeps Night on Monday night. The roll-offs continue the following weekend until the Final on Saturday July 1st. Be sure to come down to Del Rio Lanes in Downey this weekend to check out the action, and again on Monday for our Sweeps Night festivities. Thanks again for checking in!

ATTENTION HIGHER AVERAGE BOWLERS

MORENO VALLEY—190 TO 230 PLUS AVERAGE BOWLERS—Here is a tournament designed just for you. This tournament is a one day event, to be held on Sunday mornings that will have a prize fund worth shooting for and a format to make it interesting.

The BETTER BOWLERS TOURNAMENT #1 will feature a prize fund that guarantees 1st Place $1,000 or more, with 2nd Place also guaranteed to be at least $500. This tournament will be sanctioned by USBC and we will pay 1 place for every 4 entries. If when dividing the number of entries by 4, we have a small fraction left over, we will add one additional place.

The format of this tournament is to bowl 5 games of qualifying and then have 4 man, 8 man or 16 man bracket finals with single elimination as shown below:

| Number of Entriesless than 31 bowlers | Number in Finals |
|---|------------------|
|   | 4                |
| 32 to 63 bowlers                          | 8                |
| 64 or more bowlers                        | 16               |

This will be a handicap event, however, the handicap is 50% of the difference between 190 and 230, with the maximum handicap being 20 pins per game. Thus, a 190 average bowler will receive 20 pins per game, a 210 average bowler will receive 10 pins a game, a 220 average bowler will receive 5 pins per game and so on. The averages will be taken from the last two book averages (2004-05 and 2003-04), this will change when the new book averages come out in August, 2006 to (2005-6 and 2004-05). However, if a bowler does not have a book average, he will have to produce a recent league sheet that shows an average over 21 games. If this average is less than 210, he may be re-rated after bowling in one BBT tournament at the discretion of the Tournament Directors (Jim Koenings and Norris Turner).

Bowlers who pay their entry fee of $100 before June 22, 2006 will become Charter Members and will have several privileges that those who pay at the tournament site will not have. Charter members will be able to enter future BETTER BOWLERS TOURNAMENTS with an entry fee of $90 if they pay at least 3 days before the next schedule event. The first 3 Charter Members that do not cash in the first BETTER BOWLERS TOURNAMENT, will each receive one entry into a future BETTER BOWLERS TOURNAMENT. Brunswick will give a $10 gift card to the first 10 Charter Members who didn't cash or receive a free entry. Charter Members will also receive a 20 % discount at BETTER BOWLER TOURNAMENT sponsor pro shops. Door prizes will be awarded to Charter Members only at the first tournament and to Charter Members and all that pre-pay in future tournaments.

For additional information, see the ad in this newspaper or phone Jim at (951) 242-1858 or Norris at (951) 359-0300.

BLANCHARD STRIKES GOLD AT AMERICAN ZONE YOUTH CHAMPIONSHIPS

Big games early and late seal boys gold medal in singles event

PUEBLA, Mexico—Junior Team USA’s Josh Blanchard knew he would experience nerves Sunday while representing his country in international competition for the first time. He just didn’t expect them to stay away for as long as they did.

“I didn’t have any nerves during the first five games, which is very surprising,” said Blanchard, 18, of Upland, Calif. “But that last game, some nerves started to creep in as I got closer to gold.”

Blanchard shot 1,323 over six games to take the gold medal in the boys singles event at the 2006 American Zone Youth Championships at Bol La Noria Pro -* and looked very comfortable in the process.

Blanchard averaged 220.5 with his only sub-200 score coming in the final game. He paced the field after opening his set with 216 and 256.

“The lanes really played to my advantage,” said the right-handed Blanchard, who was playing the 10 to 4 line with his Lane Masters Mirage. “I thought they were going to break down and work against me like they did in the practice session (Saturday). Instead, they ended up favoring me -* a little oil pushed out toward me and I had a good line all morning.”

Mexico’s Isi Eskenazi Yaakovsky cut Blanchard’s lead down to 10 after four games. However, Blanchard distanced himself by firing a 266 in Game 5. Only a stone 9 pin left standing in the sixth frame stood between Blanchard and 10 consecutive strikes to open the game.

“I just knew I had to keep striking to keep up with these guys,” Blanchard said. “I got great carry that game and ended up posting a great score.”

Yaakovsky took the silver medal with 1,285, while Canada’s Darren Klassen earned bronze with 1,248.

A late charge from Junior Team USA’s Dan Vick, Pittsford, N.Y., came up just short of resulting in a bronze medal. Vick shot 267 in Game 5 to move up from 10th place into fourth, where he finished with 1,211. Daniel Farish, Louisville, Ky., placed 14th with 1,129 and Matt O’Grady, South Amboy, N.J., was 16th with 1,108.

In the girls competition, Bryanna Caldwell, Tucson,

Ariz., was the high Junior Team USA finisher * placing fourth at 1,148 * just two pins short of the bronze. Canada’s Felicia Wong captured gold with 1,204, followed by Puerto Rico’s Jessica Santiago with 1,161 to claim silver and Venezuela’s Patrica De Faria at 1,150 for the bronze.

Emily Maier, Sparks, Nev., shot 1,116 and Kayla Bandy, Danville, Va., had 1,115 to place eighth and ninth, respectively. Rose Brown, Modesto, Calif., finished 22nd with 980.

Gable House Jr’s

by Chris Graves

TORRANCE—Looks like we are going to be Gable House Lite this week as only two leagues have scores to report. We should be back to a full slate next week. For the time being, let’s get to this week’s offerings.

The Family Entertainment League makes it debut with Kevin Shaw leading all bowlers with a fine 159-293 two-game set. He was joined on the honor roll by Brendan Viloría 155-248, Chris Sager 115-203, Chris Garcia 106-202, Kathleen Dung 117-200, Philip Wahba 99-189, and Lauren Viloría 94-181.

What I have dubbed in the past as Gable House’s answer to the Hatfields and McCoys have also restarted for the Summer season—it’s the Family Feud. Juniors were led by Scott Santos 233-583, followed by Evan Fradkin 202-570, Andrew Fontenot 231-564, Mick Rualo 211-562, Talia Asato 201-525, and Amanda McInerney 172-505. Gary McInerney makes his return to the Feud by leading the adults with a nice little 213-258-201/672 series. Richie Driver follows with 247-221/667, along with James Berry 247-587, Ron Range 204-536, Pat Coyne 229-531, and Kyle Masuyama 211-507.

Have a great week everyone. Take care of yourselves, and we’ll see you next time around.

Fukumizu Takes Forest Bidwell Blasts 814/300 Jones & Harris Perfect

by David Yamauchi
LAKE FOREST—The JAT traveled south to Lake Forest and Forest Lanes. The shot was generous and the scores soared as the JAT Open Division bowlers struck at will. With the new points format rewarding qualifying position as well as finishing position the bowlers were battling for every stick.

Devin Bidwell lapped the field shooting a whopping 279-235-300-814 series en route to the tournament lead after qualifying at +298. Close on his heels was Brian Leseberg with an impressive 246-254-261-258 in his last four games to get to +247. In his return to JAT after 2 years off from bowling, Ken McElvaney wowed the crowd with a 268-232-247 final three to breeze into the cut. Low to quality was Matt Cormack at +39. Congratulations also go out to Matt Jones and Matt Harris who both lit up the shot with perfect 300 games.

In the round of 16, four of the six higher seeds fell quickly out of the tournament. Top-seed Devin Bidwell cruised over Cormack 2-0 and 2nd seed Brian Leseberg d. Matt Harris 2-1, Preston Fukumizu d. Matt Jones 2-1, Ken McElvaney d. Jonathan Mamakos 2-1, JR Montieth d. Jeremy Glover 2-1, Ryan Aguilar d. Samantha Jimenez 2-1, Caycee Landers d. Shelby Shirlock 2-1 and Will Jackson d. Jared Lawrence 2-1.

In the quarterfinals, Bidwell d. Jackson 2-0, McElvaney d. Montieth 2-0, Leseberg d. Landers 2-1 and Fukumizu d. Aguilar 2-0

In the semifinals, McElvaney d. Bidwell 2-1 and Fukumizu d. Leseberg 2-0. Brian Leseberg earned a $35 scholarship and Devin Bidwell earned a free JAT entry.

In the finals, it was 13th seed Ken McElvaney vs. 14th seed Preston Fukumizu for the title. Fukumizu squeaked out a close one 225-222 in the first game then McElvaney's comeback ran out of gas as Fukumizu posted a 269-157 win for the title. Ken McElvaney earned $90 scholarship for second place and Preston Fukumizu earned a nice $160 scholarship for the title. Congratulations Preston!

JAT Farm Club

by David Gordon
LAKE FOREST—Last Sunday morning, the JAT Farm Club got together once again for the second tournament of the young season. The welcoming site was Forest Lanes where some pretty good scoring greeted the small turnout. The qualifying round saw Sadia Ward post up the tournament high game with a 254. Nice! We also had high scores from Kevin Jones 224-247-242, Vince McIntyre 244-232-235, Charlie Hair 243, Darren Pascual 237, Max Slevcove 226, and Steven Sensabaugh 223.

Jones led the group after five games at plus 114, while we took 8 into match play with a low of minus 52.

More scoring from the match play round was from McIntyre 236-235, Hair 220-235, Jones 234-234, A.J. Garcia 233, Pascual 222, Ward 220, and Dee Dee Ho 220.

The final round started off with 5th seed Pascual (+41) taking on 4th seed Ward (+79). Ward prevailed in a tight match 173-170, to move on to meet 3rd seed McIntyre (+152). Here the veteran Ward cranked it up a notch to a tune of 204-141. However, now Ward faced 2nd seed Hair (+159) who was ready and waiting for her. Hair put together a string of strikes in the front of the match, then gave Ward a touch of life and then shut her down with a string on the end of a 253-181 win. So for Hair it was on to the title match(es), the new last pairing format of Best 2 Out of 3, against top seed Jones (+268) who looked unstoppable throughout the tournament. In the first match, Jones showed why he was the leader, going 197-133. In the second match, both bowlers struggle a bit, but Hair started to find the spot for 196-176 win. In the tie-breaker, Hair now dialed in, continue on for his first title 209-188. Congrat lations Charlie - and Kevin, it won't be long.

Before we close, I want to also congratulate some open bowlers on their outstanding accomplishments. Matt Jones and Matt Harris both with perfect games. And Devin Bidwell also a perfect 300 towards an 814 three-game series. Way to go gentlemen.

Farm Club bowlers and readers, we're not letting up. Our next tournament is this Sunday at Canoga Park Bowl. Check-in starts at 8:15 and the action near 9:00. Remember bowlers that this is a new season, which means new membership. The Farm club stays at $25 tournament fee and $10 membership fee. Bring in your average verification, your sanction card and proper dress code.

The JAT Farm Club is alive and well. Check out the stats on the new JAT web site, www.bowljat.org. There is plenty of opportunity as many of the high average bowlers from last season are now with the Open division. The cut line between the two divisions is 190. Come on out and join the fun, I hope to see you Sunday.

Junior Elims At Canoga Weeks 3 & 4

by Matt Jones
CANOGA PARK—The Junior Elims took the lanes the past two weeks at Canoga Park with some high scoring it has been pretty fun. Leading week 3 was Matt "Big M-Dizzle" Jones posting up scores of 279-233-299-227 for an 811 and 1038 series. Other high scores were Matt C-Mack 918 and Aaron "Weak Sauce" Steinberg putting up and 899 set with a 145 game. In week 4 we only had 2 bowlers over the 800 mark. First was Big M-Dizzle with a 994 followed by C-Mack with an 829.

I would like to send out a special thank you to Bob and Carolyn at Pacific Coast Pro Shop at Canoga for drilling me all my great equipment, thanks guys. On an ending note there will be a JAT at Canoga Park this Sunday at 9AM. The open division looks very promising this year since we have taken the top 16 both tournaments. So come out and bowl it or check us out at least. Have a good week see everyone this Saturday and Sunday.

CERRITOS WEEKLY Summer Sign-ups a Boom

by Tom Ferry
CERRITOS—Normally summer leagues are sparsely attended while some take a break for traveling vacations and such. Not so this year. Sign-ups topped 130 putting our Saturday morning program very near capacity.

Once the smoke cleared and the youngsters got down to bowling, high scores abounded. With the opening this week of the remake of the movie "The Omen", Jaime Ferry shot a 666 scratch series. Right next door, another lefty, Ashley brown slammed a cool 203. Senior boys looked up to T.J. Heath's 233 scratch game and Mark Newberry's 221/ 600. The Navarro boys came through with a team effort, Josh 215 and Andrew 203.

Steve Bojorquez was, once again, the big dog in the Striking Force, 218/ 560. JJ Robeniol fired a nice 195/ 528. Karen Dimayuga had girls high game at 172, but Alexis Adinolfi, with very consistent play, got high series with 156/ 451.

Identical scratch scores of 116 were shot by co-Rookies of the week, both newcomers, Kyli Selley and Jacob Hardin. Lil Raider veterans, Nathaniel Jacobowitz and Cyril Bustos shared top honors each shooting games of 98 and Kaitie Johnston only one pin off the pace with 97.

Congratulations to all!!
No-Tap Fun at YMTC
Following league, Cerritos Youth Bowling Program conducted our 10th annual, Youth Meets the Community Tournament. We would like to thank all who came to play and contribute to the scholarship fund of our youth bowlers. Participants included teams from "Aaron Thomas Co.", "Atnip Co.", "Go for IT Bowler's", Dantas' "De Ja Vu", "Lads & Lasses", "Computing Solutions", "Heath Family & Friends", "Big Bear League" and many of our youth bowlers and their parents. Thanks also to Randy Johnson and the Cerritos Lanes staff for their assistance in putting on this event each year. We look forward to seeing you all again in 2007.

West Coast Jr. Elims at Keystone Lanes

by David Gordon
NORWALK - Well readers, let's give this one a try. A quick update for the West Coast Jr. Elims out of Keystone Lanes. Last Saturday was the 5th and 6th session of the qualifying round of 9 sessions. That's right - a double session, meaning double fun.

Just to note, that the following listing of scores is not only to praise and applaud a bowler's outstanding accomplish, but to also notify supporters that their high average favorite, may have had a bad day by their standards and could probably use a kind word.

Here we go, in the first session - Preston Fukumizu 228-280-278/976 and Samantha Jimenez 231-213-204-268/916 are members of the 900 club. Grand shooting, regardless of any average. Way to go you two.

With 800s, we have Natalie Jimenez 211-227-209-235/882 leading off, followed by Dayton Crossley 222-257-219/874, Jeremy Glover 239-234/861, Bryan Osborne 209-211-227/842, and James Hawkins 214-238/802. Nice bowling.

And lastly for the 1st set, Joey Marino 214/796, Eddie Sayles 236/795, Matt Harris 201-210/792, Brian Gonzales 246/783, Eric Milne 207-205/753, Ryan Aguilar 205-201/729, Kevin Jones 251/728, Darren

Hawkins 237/718, Chrisgen Whitfield 717, John Lawson 202/710, Michael Gaylor 237, Shayne Huntley 216, and Gabriel Martinez 206-206. Good going, you did make the papers.

Our 2nd session met a number of groans as we moved a couple of hundred feet to the "high" side of Keystone Lanes. But after typing up this list I don't see why, not as high but plenty of reportable scores.

We start with Sayles 217-246-223/880 showing us he likes this side. Then the deadly sister team, S. Jimenez 235-207-221/855, N. Jimenez 247-201-236/842. And joining the fun was Glover 269-212/830, and Jones 220-221-203/815. Great bowling gals and guys.

And more scores from Sadia Ward 205-243/789, Fukumizu 258/787, J.D. Pelow 202-204/786, Lawson 212-214/785, Marino 221/781, Milne 255/780, J. Hawkins 225-213/779, Aguilar 268-201/757, Crossley 238/745, Martinez 214/734, D. Hawkins 218/730, Gaylor 201/708, Brent Stern 244/701, Gonzales 207, and Osborne 200,

Next week, I'll update you on the individual standings. This Saturday, we'll be back to normal start time of 2:00 and a single session. With only three sessions to go for qualifying, things may start to heat up.

Everyone have a good week and I'll see you Saturday.

Green, Bellinder & Chaco Are The Cream Of The Crop In Rocky Marsh Doubles

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM—Mean Joe, er “Larry” Green was a machine as he punished the pins over and over, racking up consistent games of 246-234-235 (715) and added 242, capturing “Top Dawg” title with a fine 957 set. Friday morning was Larry’s last day to bowl before undergoing knee replacement surgery on Monday, June 12th. One can only imagine how well he will bowl this winter with his “bionic” limb; good luck, Larry, we will all be wishing you a very speedy recovery!!

Super sub Ms. Missy Bellinder, focusing on her own game plan, came out of the gate stroking 279 and 248, had a little trouble in the third game but then regained her “groove”and tossed 269 to register a fine 947.

Tony Chaco rounded out the 900 shooters as he chalked up some strikes of his own, winning all of his points on games of 225-207-194 and 279 to tally 905. Not bad, Tony!
