BRUNSWICK INVITATIONAL COMES DOWN TO FINAL GAME TEAM DV8 PREVAILS TO WIN THE $16,000

DOWNEY — The annual playoffs for the Brunswick Invitational have been a staple during June at Del Rio Lanes for so many years, but rarely does the championship pack the suspense, game in and game out, that this one did tonight. The match was between DV8 and the Professional Approach, who had both outlasted 18 other teams over the long winter season to make it to this far. And when all was said and done, the DV8 squad had won the championship.

The match was a best of five, using all of the patterns that had been bowled on during the course of the season. First team to win three games would win the title, and the cash. With four patterns in play during the year, should the match go to game five, the Professional Approach would pick the pattern for the final game, a right they earned by being the top seed. Before the match began, the Professional Approach had decided they would choose the first pattern, the house shot, if the match went that long.

Game #1 was bowled on the second round pattern, the short oil. The game was tight throughout and within a mark heading into the 10th frame. With both teams trading an open and a couple marks, the game came down to the anchors. Billy Myers Jr. was on a strike, and proceeded to get the first in the 10th. That put the pressure on the anchor for DV8, Sam Hitchcock. He calmly responded with a double, to ice game one and put DV8 in front, 1-0. Myers led the pair with 202, but very steady scoring from DV8 was enough to win, 716-699.

Game #2 was bowled on the fourth round pattern, the USBC El Paso team event shot. This game belonged to the Professional Approach. They didn't get off to a great start, with four opens in the first two frames, but DV8 kept giving the momentum back, until the Pro Approach team started to find their lines and put some doubles together. Scott Poddig put together a five bagger for DV8 to try and spark a rally, but he didn't have enough help, while the Professional Approach kept filling frames. Art Jones Jr. finished with 208 and Sonny Dew had 206, to lead the Pro Approach in this game to a 757-672 victory, evening the match at one game apiece.

The third game used the house shot, the first round pattern, and the strikes began to come, as expected. Strikes, and strings of them throughout the game for both teams. The lefties struggled a bit, one for each team, as Jeff Carr of DV8 and Billy Myers of Professional Approach couldn't quite find the line, or carry, or breaks. Jeff struck a bit early, while Billy uncharacteristically struggled throughout. For the Professional Approach, Ramiro Garcia (260), Sonny Dew (253) and Art Jones (236) did all they could to help continued on page 8

Monacelli Wins PBA50 Fountain Valley Open For Sixth Career PBA50 Tour Title

In hall of fame match up, Monacelli beat Parker Bohn III 266-247 for first PBA50 Tour win of the season

FOUNTAIN VALLEY — Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Famer Amleto Monacelli of Venezuela won four consecutive matches in the stepladder finals Wednesday to win the PBA50 Fountain Valley Open presented by Track at Fountain Bowl. Monacelli, who qualified fourth for the finals, beat top qualifier hall of famer Parker Bohn III of Jackson, N.J., 266-247, in the title match to win his first PBA50 Tour title of the season and the sixth of his career. Monacelli benefited from a bad break for Bohn, who was trying for his fourth career PBA50 Tour title, when Bohn left a pocket 7-10 split in the second frame.

"All the matches were very close," said the 54-year-old Monacelli. "It was important to stay focused and low key, not get too excited if I'm leading or too low if I'm losing. If I stay calm I'll have a clear mind to make the adjustments and the good shots that I need to make."

In the semifinal match, Monacelli defeated hall of famer Walter Ray Williams Jr., of Oxford, Fla., trying for his 11th career PBA50 Tour title and second of the season, 249-245. Monacelli needed two strikes and a seven count in the 10th frame but threw three strikes to win the match.

"That was an example of a good test for my mental game," Monacelli said. "I basically needed to have three strikes in the 10th to win and if I wasn't calm so that I could make good shots I would have lost the match."

Monacelli opened the stepladder finals by beat- continued on page 8

Paired by Chance, Partners Mario McKenzie and Mike Cohen Win Sport-Tap Doubles Tournament

by Amy Lew

WINNETKA — Mario McKenzie, 46, and Mike Cohen, 53, both pre-registered as single entrants needing partners for the first Sport-Tap Doubles tournament June 4 at Winnetka Bowl.

In a previously bowled doubles event, the two finished a forgettable 14th place as a team. Then crossing paths a second time, when paired together again by chance, McKenzie, who averages 195 and Cohen a 175, outbowled 37 other teams to finish in first place.

This was no easy feat considering their competition consisted of some of the Valley’s most prominent bowlers: Charles Kenny, who’s currently averaging a staggering 242 and Johnnie Englehart, who has booked 63 perfect games and 67 800 series.

When asked about bowling the Montreal (oil) pattern, Cohen admits to having a slight edge as he has been bowling a sport-shot league at Corbin Bowl in Tarzana; however, it was McKenzie, with zero sport-shot experience who turned out to be the big winner of the day. Taking home more than $400 in winnings, McKenzie credits, “Proper preparation prevents poor performance. I was just trying to focus on my bowling and carry over all the things I’ve been practicing.”

Cohen chimes in with advice: “Don’t get angry; whatever happens, happens and let the pins fall where they may.” Positive, and also confident, “Of course I expected to win though,” Cohen half-jokes.

Looking to defend their title, McKenzie and Cohen have already pre-registered as a team for next month’s sport-tap tournament July 9 at Winnetka Bowl.

The optional 300 game side pot totaling nearly $300 will be carried over to July’s event as none of the 76 participants bowled a perfect no-tap game.

Cohen finished with a 620 series (193, 230, 197) and McKenzie recorded a stunning 762 series (288, 243, 231). The two won $386 for their first-place finish, scoring a handicap-aided 1,598.

Dave Quintero and Dave Quintero Jr. took second at 1,526 and won $260; Cari Hansen and Roger Paskell finished third at 1,474 and claimed $130; and Ida Farber and Veronica Boone placed fourth at 1,466 and earned $60.

Mike Willis, longtime Winnetka Bowl general manager thought, “It was a wonderful tournament and looking forward to the next event.” Speaking to me, Mike says, “You and Carl (Comrie) did a great job!”

Co-Tournament director, Carl Comrie, laughs and states, “The tournament turned out so good because Amy promoted it very well, BUT I would like ALL bowlers to pre-register and if you can’t come, call somebody!!” In his friendly Jamaican accent, Comrie warns, “I want this entire quote published, you hear? Bowlers need to pre-register.”

For results and pictures from the June 4 tournament as well as news and pre-registration for all upcoming events can be done on www.sportshotbowling.com

I’d like to extend BIG thanks to everyone who came out to support the first tournament of the Winnetka Summer Series. Bowlers came from several local (Valley) alleys to compete, and others even drove from as far as Riverside, Ventura and Valencia. I’d like to make a special mention to Mike Fahey, who traveled over 600 miles from Eureka, Calif., to bowl a 703 series (with handicap). We hope to see Mike and the rest of the participants July 9.

Pre-register on www.sportshotbowling.com or call/text Amy at (714) 293-7031.

EJ TACKETT TAKES LEAD IN XTRA FRAME PBA TOUR POINTS RACE

With his fifth-place finish in the Downums Waste Services PBA Jonesboro Open presented by Xtra Frame, EJ Tackett of Huntington, Ind., has taken the lead in the Xtra Frame PBA Tour points race, a season-long contest that will reward the winner of the 10-event series with a $10,000 bonus.

Tackett now has 53 points and a nine-point lead over Ryan Ciminelli and Jonesboro Open winner Tommy Jones, who are tied for second with 44 points.

Sean Rash is fourth with 31 points followed by Jonesboro Open runner-up Kyle Troup (23). Steven Taylor, Tim Mack and Francois Lavoie are tied for seventh with 18 points. Five players are tied for ninth with 17 points each: Patrick Allen, Shawn Maldonado, Tim Gillick, Anthony Simonsen and Connor Pickford.

The Xtra Frame PBA Tour points race is designed for a close, hotly-contested battle. In each XF Tour event, the winner earns 25 points. Second place earns 19 points, third 18 points, etc., with points awarded on a one-point declining basis through 20 places.

Tackett earned his 53 points by finishing ninth in the bowlingball.com PBA Maine Shootout (12 points), first in the Xtra Frame PBA Storm Open in Carpentersville, Ill. (25 points) and fifth in Jonesboro (16 points). Ciminelli was first in Maine (25), second in Carpentersville (19) and 33rd in Jonesboro, earning no points. Jones was second in Maine (19), first in Jonesboro (25) and didn't bowl in Carpentersville.

The fourth event in the Xtra Frame PBA Tour series will be the Xtra Frame PBA Lubbock Sports Open from Lubbock, Texas, June 24-26. # SUNCOAST SENIOR U.S. OPEN WAS ONE FOR THE BOOKS

LAS VEGAS — Pete Weber's record-setting victory in the Suncoast PBA Senior U.S. Open included a fourth consecutive PBA50 Tour title, but that was just one in a series of highlights from the PBA50 Tour's first major championship of the 2016 season:

- In his third Suncoast Senior U.S. Open Tournament appearance, Weber joined Tom Baker (2005-06), Wayne Webb (2008-09) and Amleto Monacelli (2012-13) as the fourth player to win back-to-back titles in the event. Weber also had a runner-up finish in 2014 when he lost to Norm Duke, 214-174, in the title match.

- Weber's win was his third PBA50 major title (he also won the 2013 USBC Senior Masters). Tom Baker has won the most PBA50 majors with four, including two Senior U.S. Opens (2005-2006) and two Senior Masters (2006-2007).

- Weber is tied with the late Earl Anthony for the most majors won in PBA Tour competition (10), but with his three PBA50 Tour majors, Weber has set himself apart with 13 overall majors. Anthony never won a major title in his limited PBA50 Tour career.

- Harry Sullins needs a win in the Suncoast Senior U.S. Open to hit for the cycle. With his second place finish this year he now has a second, a third (2011), a fourth (2009) and a fifth-place finish (2010).

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

by Connie Marchione

PACIFIC COAST DEAF BOWLING ASSOCIATION SET TO CELEBRATE IT'S 75TH ANNIVERSARY JUNE 27-30 AT SUNSET STATION HOTEL BOWLING CENTER

HENDERSON — In the June 2nd issue of Bowling News' National Deaf Bowling News column, this writer wrote about having Pacific Coast Deaf Bowling Association's operating rules changed to like that of Great Lakes Deaf Bowling Association. It was not a simple task but it was hastily done in time to present for a vote in the captains and host clubs' 1961 meeting. This writer was fortunate to have help of two late friends Frank Bush and Paul Fest. Charles Hart and host Valley Silent Club appointed me as the secretary treasurer and gave me the power to select the PCDBA President and Vice-President. Bush and Fest were selected to fill the offices respectively.

Perfectly as Frank Bush, prior to moving to California from Chicago, served two years (1940-41) as member of the GLDBA Law Committee and in Los Angeles was PCDBA secretary and director of 1948 tournament. Paul Fest as mentioned before was the first secretary in PCDBA's founding helped when we three worked on the progress of changing the rules. Three before tournament date we completed and mailed the new rules out to deaf clubs in PCDBA region requesting their captains and delegates to attend the important meeting during the tournament. Then Bush regretfully resigned as president because his daughter in Seattle was getting and the ceremony was on same date as the tournament.

Both Hart and Fest did not want replace Bush, so the club's President Bennie Maucere was asked to take over the job of running the meeting and help Fest on each rules. During the tournament the two days meeting went well with most of the rules approved with some to be ratified in the next year's event at Spokane. We are grateful to Hart, Maucere, Fest and Bush for their help in this change.

The first Pacific Coast Deaf Masters event with 19 entries was given a trial run and also to be voted at Spokane for approval to be part of PCDBA event.

75TH ANNIVERSARY PCDBA DRAWS 26 TEAMS

HENDERSON — Twenty six foursome men teams will be present at Sunset Station Hotel Bowling Center June 27-30 for the 75th anniversary Pacific Coast Deaf Bowling Association tournament with Hawaii Silent Bowlers hosting the event. Hawaii Silent Bowlers also hosts Pacific Coast Deaf Women's Bowling Association's 69th tournament at the same venue. This writer regrets not having the number of women's team entries.

Of the 106 men entries there are twenty bowlers with 200 plus averages making this event thrilling to watch. The 106 men will be split into two squads A and B. The tournament starts on Tuesday morning at 8 AM with A squad bowling the 3 games singles event with doubles 3 games following, The B squad starts afternoon at 1 PM bowling 3 games singles and then 3 games doubles event following. At the end there will be a meeting.

The men teams start on Wednesday morning at 8 AM and after lunch break the 53 brave men entered in the 55th annual Connie Marchione Deaf Masters will bowl the 4 games qualifying round at 12:30 PM. The top 32 bowlers will enter in Thursday morning's match play doubles elimination bracket with one winner left at finish for the championship. The senior men also have their own Senior Masters with 27 entered with the top 16 all events 9 games scores going in match play. In Thursday evening there will be the 75th anniversary banquet with dinner buffet only for bowlers and those who paid for this banquet.

West Coast Senior Tour Cancels Tournament at Winnetka

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – One thing is clear. Some bowling tournaments are making a splash in the San Fernando Valley and others are struggling to find their footing.

One week after a sport-tap doubles tournament lured 38 teams to Winnetka Bowl, the West Coast Senior Tour was forced to cancel its June 11 event at the same site.

The WCST was hoping to generate some excitement with its plans to return to the Valley – which would have marked the tour's 402nd event in its 24-year history.

The senior tour hadn't made a stop in the Valley since May 2012 when now-defunct Mission Hills Bowl served as the tournament host.

But a lack of entries forced Dick Sanders, the WCST's owner and director, to cancel the event at Winnetka Bowl. “You can't run a tour with 14, 15 people,” Sanders lamented. Interestingly, the tour has found strength in entries virtually everywhere but the Valley. Thirty-six bowlers have already signed up to compete in the WCST's next event – a two-day tournament July 9-10 in Laughlin, Nev.

Half of the WCST's 12 events this year are in Nevada where the tour regularly gets at least 30 bowlers for each tournament. The tour, open to eligible players 60 and older, has undergone numerous changes through its existence. For three straight years (1994-96), the WCST averaged more than 100 bowlers a tournament. The tour attracted a staggering 233 players to Ventura for one tournament in 1995, Sanders said.

The tournaments were two-day affairs in those years, unlike the primarily one-day events now. The tournaments attracted bowlers from Northern and Southern California and Nevada those years. Now, the tour basically gets its players from the Southland and Nevada. Winnetka Bowl, formerly called Canoga Park Bowl, used to be a mainstay in the WCST lineup. It served as a WCST tournament site 10 times between the tour's debut year in 1993 and 2004. When Winnetka Bowl stopped drawing enough competitors, the bowling house was dropped from the WCST schedule.

At one time, the Valley served as a cornerstone for WCST events.

The WCST had a 13-event schedule in its rookie year with three of those sites located in the Valley. They included Winnetka Bowl, Brunswick Matador Bowl in Northridge and now-defunct AMF Rocket Bowl in Chatsworth. All the WCST events that year took place at bowling centers in Southern California. Sanders cited a number of factors that were now hindering senior tournament entries in the Valley.

Traffic was a key reason, Sanders said. “Nobody wants to drive out to the San Fernando Valley for a one-day tournament and then come home on Saturday,” he said. “Who wants to drive in San Fernando Valley traffic at 5 o'clock?” And he added: “You don't have any more scratch leagues in the Valley. Where do you think tournament bowlers come from? It's not the 180 [dollar entry fee].

“Whatever the situation, it's just a tough go [in the Valley].”

Last Call

Applications for the $1,000 2016 PBA Billy Welu Scholarship Award which recognizes exemplary qualities in male or female college students who compete in the sport of bowling are due by the June 15 postmark deadline.

Steve Brode Wins Fifth ABTA Title at Action Lanes

Henry Narciso 2nd $500 – Jonathan Barraca 3rd $200

Match Game Winner – Stan Por - $3,800 • Big Pots Again at Bowlum

Mystery Doubles est $4,800 • Match Series est. $1,350 • 3-6-9 $800

El Monte – Long time ABTA member, Steve Brode won his fifth championship at Action Lanes worth $1,900. He worked thru his matches in the eliminations and caught a few breaks to send him to the championship match.

The qualifying cut scores were Men +57 and Women +25. Top qualifiers to receive a paid entry to any regular tournament were Anthony Marquez +137 and Veronica Boone +143.

Super Seniors added, two men and one woman, Victor Paolucci and Alan Aguilar +53 and Cyndi Kelley +8.

The first game in the semis, both Men and Women tied at +15 with the top at +105. Second game, Men +31 and Women +9 and top was +137 with two bowlers inching their way to the top. Third game, Men +34 and Women -5 while Henry Narciso with a big +181 kept his lead to be the top qualifier. Close behind for second was Andrew Lung with a +145. Henry receive to right to bowl for the title.

The matches in the single elims were all close and a couple won by one or two pins to advance. Placing 10-16th Kenny Kwan, John Dizon, Danny Guevarra, Chris Marquez, Jimmie Saucedo, Cyndi Kelley and Regina Chung $100 each. In 6-9th Andrew Lung, Jo Jo Barcelona, Veronica Boone and Danny Reece, Jr. $105 each. Finishing in 4th and 5th Alex Castillo and Mamerto Jablan $110 each.

After a hard fought match against Mamerto Jablan, Jonathan Barraca advanced to meet Steve Brode who also had a seesaw match against Alex Castillo. Alex and Mamerto were 4th and 5th and bowled very well.

Steve and Jonathan to meet for right to bowl in the title game. The stage was set who will face the top qualifier, Henry Narciso. Both bowlers were picking up their spares and striking. Few pins were separating them until the 10th frame, with luck on Steve's side, as he struck out and won by one pin. Jonathan came in third place for $200. The Horse, Steve paid $119 and advanced to the championship game.

The championship game started with Steve striking the first four frames, opened in the 5th but still ahead by few pins. Henry started with a strike, spared from 2nd frame to 8th frame and a strike in the 9th. Steve answered with a spare in the 6th frame, but caught a wash out in the 7th making it very close, opened again in the 8th, struck in th 9th and 10th with a spare to finish with a 225 game with handicap. Since Henry had a strike in the 9th, he needed the first strike in the 10th to lock out Steve. He threw a good ball but did not carry, spared and needed a 9 count to win by one pin. But luck was not on his side. He had managed an 8 count to tie Steve's 225 game forcing a ONE GAME ROLLOFF.

The championship roll off started with both bowlers marking, Henry started strong with a spare and a four bagger but still held a comfortable lead. He opened in th 6th and 8th frames while Steve found his stride, struck in the 8th, 9th, and 10th finishing with a spare for 236 game. Due to his open frames, Henry was 10 pins behind and needed to match Steve but he was not able to strike. He spared 9th to 10th with a 235 game to lose by one scant pin. Steve took home $1,700 for the win, and

PORTLAND'S BAYSIDE BOWL BREAKS GROUND FOR EXPANSION

PORTLAND — Bayside Bowl in Portland, Maine, current home to the PBA Maine Experience, including PBA League Elias Cup competition and the Xtra Frame PBA Maine Shootout, has begun its multi-million-dollar expansion project that will add eight lanes to its existing facility along with a rooftop deck, mezzanine level and more.

“We’re excited to be here because we think over the next 10 to 15 years, Bayside is going to be a place where there is a lot more housing, a lot more retail, a lot more people living, working and eating,” said co-owner and state Senator Justin Alfond. “I think we will be at the center of it.”

The expansion project is expected to create 30-40 summer construction jobs and 15-20 new full-time jobs when the project is completed in November.

Fab 5 Tournament Still On Tap Bowlm Lanes to Host Finals

by Fred Eisenhammer

MONTCLAIR — Here’s some good news if you thought you missed this year’s Fab 5 state bowling tournament. The event hasn’t been held; it just changed seasons.

The tournament finals will be held Dec. 4 at Bowlm Lanes in the San Bernardino County city of Montclair.

Last year the tournament finals were held May 17 at Keystone Lanes in Norwalk. Many Southland bowling centers will hold mini-tournaments before the finals to determine which five-man teams will advance to Montclair. Last year 16 teams took part in the finals.

The Fab 5 is a handicap tournament and will feature a Team Baker format. Under this format, each of the team’s five players will bowl two frames. The team’s anchor, for instance, will bowl in frames five and 10.

Last year the Forest Donkeys team nailed down the state title after advancing out of Forest Lanes in the Orange County city of Lake Forest. The five members were Jessica Diso, Virgil Dunziellas, Robert Leahy, Brent Ilagan and Jon Diso.

The Donkeys dominated from the outset. Averaging 191 entering the event, the Donkeys averaged over 200 in the preliminary round to secure the No. 1 seeding in the five-team stepladder finals.

The Donkeys then breezed to a 207-146 victory in the championship game, earning the $1,000 top prize.

The second-place team received $700 and the third-place team claimed $400.

Further details will be announced about which Southern California bowling centers will hold the qualifying round and on which day.

their teammate. But, even with those scores, it came down to the last bowlers, with Hitchcock and Myers facing off for the game. Hitchcock went first, and struck. Myers got the ball left, and left a washout. If he picked it up, Hitchcock would need to strike again. Billy only managed to get three, and when Sam carried his second shot (for an 8 bagger), the game was essentially over. Sam struck again on the fill, for 264, and a 929-919 win, putting DV8 one game away from the championship.

The fourth game moved to the third round pattern, the long oil. Early doubles from Ramiro Garcia and Billy Myers got the Pro Approach off to a good start. On the other hand, they had five opens in the first five frames, while DV8 stayed relatively clean. Two more opens in the ninth, and another two in the tenth evened the match, again heading into the final bowlers. With Billy Myers entering the 10th on a double, the advantage was his. Sam Hitchcock started with a strike. Again, Myers leaked a shot left, which doesn't recover on the third round. For a minute, he had the 1-5, with the five falling late for a lone head pin. Sam had an opportunity to double for the win, but pulled the ball badly, getting a 7 count off the left side. Myers converted the spare and got 9 on the fill to win the game, setting up a fifth and deciding round, 690-680.

As mentioned earlier, the Professional Approach got to choose the pattern for game #5, and had opted for the round one shot, bowling on the house pattern again. This game was all DV8 for the beginning. Jeff Carr started with the front eight. Dave Kovach had four of the first five. Ashkan Tahvildaran did as well. With the lead growing every frame, DV8 just got looser and put more and more pressure on the Professional Approach team, which just made things worse. A match that had been so close throughout ended with a dull thud, as DV8 won by 168 pins to seal the match and the championship.

Congratulations to Jeff Carr, Scott Poddig, Ashkan Tahvildaran, Dave Kovach and Sam Hitchcock. They are our newest champions, and had an amazing season. All five are first time winners of the league, and we'll look forward to seeing them all back in the future on any team they're on.

Also congratulations to the Professional Approach team. Billy Myers Jr., Sonny Dew, Ramiro Garcia and Art Jones Jr. had a great season, leading the league throughout, and coming up only one game short. Still, $10000 for second place isn't too bad.

We've come to terms on our entering average rules for our 31st season, which will start in September. Keep your eye out for our ad as the season gets closer. And, in closing, I'd like to give very special thanks to all of the bowlers that help make this league so great, and all of the sponsors that add the money into our prize fund to help bring out the best players and competition. Have a great summer!

JACOB CAMACHO is Heading to Grand Canyon University

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA — I was down south the other day and ran into Jacob Camacho. Jacob has been home for a few months and bowling in Cal Oaks’ 640 Scratch Trio League. League Secretary SCOTT FILIPI tells me Jacob has the potential to be one of the best bowlers in the area because of his smooth consistent game and his maturity. Time will tell.

Jacob is a great example of the type of young person bowling today. He and many of his contemporaries today are college bound, college educated and college trained bowlers. These youngsters are intelligent, poised and preparing for a career beyond bowling. I personally know of two young bowlers who plan to become doctors and several who are pursuing engineering degrees.

Jacob Camacho is one of those studying to become an engineer. This fall he plans to study at Grand Canyon University in Glendale, Arizona. It will be his junior year on a path to a Biomedical Engineering Degree.

Camacho’s first two college years were spent at Indiana Tech in Fort Wayne, Indiana. He enjoyed his time there and bowled on the Tech bowling team for one season.

He led Tech in average the year he competed with a 191.6 per game pace for 49 games in eleven events. One of Jacob’s teammates at Tech was Kyle Koss of Las Vegas. Koss was rated the twenty-third top college player in the nation this season.

Jacob’s parents, Gerardo and Cecilia Camacho, have a lot to be proud of. Jacob is a great bowler and an even better person. He is mature beyond his years and a fun guy to be around if you enjoy dry humor. Thanks to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting California youth bowlers.

BURBANK — By the time this goes to print, I will have returned from the CUSBC Convention. Otherwise known as the State Convention. One of the proposals on the agenda is to raise the state portion of our sanction dues by $1.00. This is truly needed by the CUSBC. Before you fly off the handle about dues, let me explain this.

Currently in our local Association (NLAC), we pay $19 per year. Of that $19, National (USBC) takes $10, State (CUSBC) takes $1 and Local (NLAC) gets $8. While State plays a smaller role in our bowling lives daily, it does play a part and you can see how the balance is a bit out of whack.

I would also like to remind all of you in the NLAC that our Association has the lowest priced sanction fees around. All surrounding counties and their associations are higher, some by a little, some by a lot.

This proposal was on the agenda last year and was defeated. I am anxious to see what the outcome will be this year and I will definitely report back to you all.

In the meantime, happy rolling!
