San Diego County Bowling Centers Give Back to Local Schools

SAN DIEGO—Each year, Junior Achievement of San Diego and Imperial Counties hosts its annual Bowl-A-Thon. Throughout March and April thousands of participants swarm San Diego bowling centers and this year was no different!!

Mira Mesa Bowl, Kearny Mesa Bowl, Parkway Bowl, AMF Eagle Lanes and Brunswick Premier Lanes graciously opened their doors to host Junior Achievement's 22nd Annual Bowl-A-Thon.

This year's theme was "Hollywood Bowl" and local centers gave participants the star treatment! Fifty companies from industries ranging from banking to construction put together teams of five for a combined total of 2,780 bowlers!! Each center manager helped Junior Achievement coordinate a schedule for everyone to come in and bowl two games. The Bowl-A-Thon is a great team building opportunity for companies and a fun, unique way to give back to the community!

Junior Achievement brings volunteers into classrooms to teach kids about financial literacy, entrepreneurship and educates them of their role in the economy. As the organization's largest fundraiser, Bowl-A-Thon provides funding for volunteer training and curriculum. "This extraordinary event was sponsored by Wells Fargo, Sony, JC Penney and Time Warner Cable and raised over $320,000 to ensure that more than 31,000 students kindergarten through twelfth grade are able to receive JA's invaluable curriculum," said event coordinator Arlene Freeman. "Without the support of local bowling center managers, we would not be able to do what we do!"

Update on Juanita Blocker

by Phyl Knoll

LOS ANGELES—Juanita has continued to struggle to regain her health since having emergency major surgery last year for a blockage in her intestinal track. Given Juanita's age, 88 at the time of surgery, her recovery was remarkable.

Unfortunately, her legs just don't work well right now and she is unable to be as self-sufficient as she was. And, as you all know, Juanita has always had a sharp mind and still does, but it bothers her that she is bedridden so much and not able to do for herself.

She misses being in touch with all her friends and is always concerned about everyone else's welfare. She loves to receive mail so put a note on your fridge to send her a note and let her know what's going on in your bowling world. She loves to hear about all that too. Her telephone number is 323-782-8663 between 9 am and 6 pm. All correspondence should be sent to her % Country Villa Terrace, Room 215, 6050 W Pico Blvd., Los Angeles 90035.

And..... God Bless Her..... let's not forget Juanita's 89th birthday JULY 15th.

Village Cafe Flourishes At Canoga Park Bowl

by Ray Rosenbaum

WEST HILLS — More than a generation ago when the bowling center construction business was booming, every new tenpin palace featured a restaurant-night club. Comet Lanes, now Rocket Bowl, opened with a dining showplace in Chatsworth and Western star Jimmy Wakely cut the first-night ribbon and proceeded to play to a packed crowd.

Today, most centers provide modest snack bars. Not Canoga Park Bowl, where the Village Cafe serves breakfast, lunch and dinner daily in comfortable surroundings, supervised by creative owner-chef George Papadopoulos.

Genial George, Greek by heritage, features some of the dishes of his native country, but also serves up choice steaks, fresh seafood, abundant salads, soups and home-made desserts.

With a capacity of 100, Village Cafe opens at 6:00 a.m. and usually has a line of bowlers and local people waiting to enter.

It's the same for lunch and dinner, attracting such organizations as the Encino Shrine Club, which meets there regularly.

George caters for various groups with some of the events spilling over into the adjacent Winnetka Convention Center.

Bowling breakfasts, birthday parties and sweepers also fill the smartly-decorated restaurant.

"It's very popular with all our people, including the staff", said Canoga Park Bowl proprietor Gene Giegoldt, who also owns Best Western Inn.

"There's always plenty of variety at very reasonable prices," he pointed out.

Reservations for the restaurant are invited at 818-610-7477. The 32-lane bowling center, open 24 hours, is usually available for open play and is now organizing summer leagues.

There is a mammoth parking lot surrounding the center and restaurant located at Vanowen Street and Winnetka Avenue.

Seniors Share Memory Lane

by Betty L. Derry

ARCADIA—As a slightly-gullible and innocent growing up in the corn belt state of Iowa during the Depression Days, I heard often a phrase from adult lips that held admonishment and fervor of a quality that grabbed my short adolescent attention span, mostly because the words bespoke of a “forbidden fruit” existence that would, one day, entice post-puberty persons and that was.... “Nice people do not frequent pool halls, beer joints, gambling houses and, lastly, bowling alleys!”

And so it wasn't until I was the co-titular head of my own household that I took up one of the four named above - bowling - and discovered that “some of my best friends are bowlers!” Sixty years later (and I am counting!) bowling with some 120 Seniors every Tuesday and Thursday at Action Lanes in El Monte, is a full-blown adventure the minute I hit the front door of this beautifully remodeled Alley. Truly, I am delighted when the key to my locker works the first time and the smell of coffee permeates the designated area which has become my comfort zone two days a week. Perfection would be served if homestyle buttermilk donuts frames replaced the traditional “beer” frames, but that isn't going to happen anytime soon, now is it?

Seniors who have traveled every journeyed path congregate on a daily basis at Alleys across the nation; and there is no doubt the bowler in Des Moines suffers the same conflation as the bowler who obsesses on properly knotted shoestrings on properly powdered bowling shoes two thousand miles away in sunny Southern California. It is not “misery” that loves company as we have been led to believe for lo these many years. It is the “bowler” who knows deep down that the next game will be The 300 Game, and loves/needs the company of a League of Bowlers to witness this definite possibility. This expectation is not to be underestimated.... it could happen! Most days, the final scores of these seniors who come for exercise, fellowship, constructive criticism and kudos, of which there are plenty to go around, reflect an attitude of “nothing to it!”

Knocking down 300 pins in No Tap play can be child's play for some of the more experienced bowlers while neophytes are applauded and appreciated for their handsome handicaps. It's the pin action as the most modest of all bowlers would say.

Senior bowling has enhanced the lives and the health of these “young at heart” that ignore, for the most part, the aches and pains that are alleviated by an early-morning full-body rub-down with Aspercreme or Blue Emu. Magnetic wraps are good, too, but have been known to wipe out credit cards which could prove to be embarrassing when treating the gang at the nearest Krispy Kreme hang-out. Revered, along with the day's high game, is the socializing that goes on amongst the citizenry. Latest remedies, including the highly popular VicksVapoRub treatment for most every condition except labor pains and the newest, Castiva, made out of castor oil and other by-products purchased at better drugstores everywhere, are discretely discussed.

Still experiencing a deeply ingrained sense of post-adolescent curiosity, I recently conducted a spontaneous survey pertaining to the “earning quarters” years of my fellow guy-and-doll bowlers. Small talk is permitted when bowling, of course, but “What did you do before you retired?” hooked the interest of some who eagerly responded. Impressive, outstanding, you're kidding! Wow! ... all descriptive of vocations held during those pre-Social Security years by some of my new best friends.” I did not know until I asked that two bowlers celebrate their 90th birthday this year and improving with age which gives me hope. One of these two is a former orchestra leader (in the manner of Woody Herman) and a member of Los Angeles symphony orchestra in his salad days. Ballroom dancing, preceded by a career with Pacific Bell, still scores big for the other, the widow of a major league baseball player out of Chicago who played against the likes of Babe Ruth and Joe DiMaggio as centerfielder for the Cleveland Indians and the Milwaukee Brewers in the early 1930's. Even President Dwight Eisenhower did not know that his cousin, two times removed, personally installed the hand sewn carpet fit for a president in Ike's personal cabin space on Air Force One; and as his cousin was telling me... “When one looked at the carpet at floor level, it appeared that the carpet “actually moved.” Still taking pride in his craftsmanship, my bowling buddy spoke the names of Gene Kelly, Dorothy Dandridge, Anne Francis, and Dolly Parton and “The Rifleman” - Chuck Connors as carpet clients, promising stories of sometimes contrary celebrities as league season progressed.

Smiles broadened as tidbits were shared around the anchored tables. Past achievements were met with “ooohs” and “ahhhhs”. The willowy grandmother told of her employment as a matron/guard at the famous Taycheedah, Wisconsin Women's State Prison from which the infamous “Bambi” escaped some years ago... but not on her watch! The Explorer was sent into orbit via JPL and the General Dynamics' Red Eye Project completed under the watchful eye of yet another of our “Grams,” a research engineer. The Industrial Arts school teacher and cosmetologist each an owner of a local restaurant, the secretary to a concert pianist, the insurance salesman, the used car dealer, the military veterans, the gateman at Santa Anita Race Track, financial consultants and business CEO'S are but a few of the many who comprise compatible groups of three or four, determined to cross off the day's little annoyances but not cross over the foul line at any of the 32 lanes at Action Lane.

Culled from those designing and installing carpets to exploring outer space, from those driving big rigs, Greyhounds and school buses to typing church bulletins, from those milking cows to composing advertising to sell the milk, from those heading up port security to professional boxing, from those pioneering in the computer/geek category to medical technicians, from those shepherding actors and actresses during performances at the San Gabriel Community Playhouse to rounding up bowlers for the semi-annual Vegas jaunts, from those in the news media to beer brewers, the most-senior population at Action Lanes has regenerated a zest and enthusiasm for a once-dwindling participatory sport. The unparalleled joy of seeing a string of strikes on the animated electronic scoreboard lives on long after the dinner dishes are done, the garbage can lids re-settled, and the lights turned off at the end of one fine day, and that same unrelenting joy remains strong harboring the unspoken thought that the next time the 7-10 split happens hey, anything's possible.. And as we are pointedly admonished to do so by that young whipper-snapper 60-ish Dennis Hopper on television, this truly-experienced generation takes unbridled delight in agreeing that one is never too old to dream... can even make it happen!

Memories...

by Joy McGregor

Many of you bowlers out there know Hall of Famer Chuck Tuma. Chuck's dear wife Marian contacted me a few weeks ago to let me know that he, unfortunately, is in the first stages of Alzheimer's disease and can no longer compete in his beloved sport of bowling.

She thought his many, many friends would like to know and that it would please him to no end if they could send a card.

Just a few tidbits of Chuck's life....His family settled in Orange County when he was only 7 years of age. His father was City Treasurer until his untimely death at age 45 then he lived with his mother, aunt and sister. Chuck attended Anaheim High and graduated in 1929.

His illustrious bowling career began shortly after graduation when he joined a league at Santa Ana Recreation Center and bowled with Johnny Johnson. He also bowled at Kona Lanes with the late, great Dick Stoeffler. Chuck knew ALL the “stars” and bowled with them too: Glenn Allison, Rocky Marsh, Fred Riccilli and even the “Greatest”, Earl “The Pearl” Anthony. He truly enjoyed those years and learned much about the sport of bowling; not only technique but also etiquette on the lanes which, he felt, was SO very important. He never forgot the “simple” rules of the game and lived by them throughout his bowling career. As the 1946 season got into full swing, so did Chuck. He scored the very first 300 game to be bowled in league play at the Santa Ana Recreation Center and holds the distinction of being the 3rd bowler to roll a 300 ever recorded in Orange County history at that time. He was also a member of the championship team of the very first Orange County Bowling Association Tournament.

When the 1950's rolled around, we saw Chuck continue his competition in Orange County, Long Beach and Los Angeles classic leagues where he was beginning to be known as "That tough shooter from Orange County". In 1956 Chuck won the singles and all events division of the OCBA Tournament, and also took second place in the prestigious Examiner Classic.

Chuck met and married his one true love Marian, in 1956 and they just celebrated 51 years of wedded bliss this past April 1st. She never indicated that they met in a bowling center but, chances are...They have three fine children and are a close knit family.

The 1960's continued to see Chuck carry the Orange County banner to the lanes and Fashion Lanes in Santa Ana was the setting of his 297 game in 1967. Starting into his sixth decade of his association with the game of bowling, Chuck still hadn't shown any signs of slowing down and saw him capture numerous other awards.

Even after retiring in 1972, Chuck still stayed active in his game of bowling. The records show he has been active in starting things for bowling all of his life. 1981 was no exception as he became a charter member of the first Senior Scratch Travel League in the United States. Then bowling in league at Carter Bowl in 1982 at age 72, Chuck showed them all that he could still “string ‘em when it counts” by rolling a 737 series. He was a proud member of the Orange Empire Travel League which he loved and where he met many, many friends and formed lasting friendships.

Not only has Chuck been a devoted participating bowler over the years, he has also worked behind the scenes too. Starting from 1948, when he worked as a lane maintenance man in Santa Ana, he also held various positions behind the approaches. He was Bowling Commissioner for Northrop Aviation Anaheim (1950-52); a deskman, league coordinator and a manager at Futurama Lanes (1956-60) and a pro-shop owner. Both he and Marian bowled together and held office in the Regal Lanes Bowling Club, traveling to many centers away from Orange County. Chuck was also a director on the OCBA board for several years. He also bowled in eight ABC national tournaments and was active in the National 700 Club of America.

I first met Chuck at College Bowl. Do you all remember that really neat bowling center on State College Blvd.?? Well, that was my first league experience and Chuck owned and operated the Pro Shop. He was such a personable man and very informative. He sure helped my bowling! He would very often come out and watch us and could tell at a glance, what we were doing wrong. Thanks for that, Chuck; you were a great teacher!

Many years after College Bowl closed, I remember seeing him when my Orange County Travel Trio league would cross with his league at good ol' Orange Bowl (also now closed.) One day he was just coming in the door (thank goodness they were automatic) pulling his bowling equipment with one hand and balancing a very large box of donuts in the other. I jokingly asked if I could relieve his load by taking a donut; know what he replied? "Sure, but you could help more if you'd just pull my bowling equipment!" What a guy and, oh yes, I DID get a yummy donut. That was Chuck!!

Chuck was installed into the Orange County Hall of Fame in 1991 in the Superior Performance category and Marian says it was one of the most memorable days of his life, knowing the purpose is to honor, pay tribute to, and to perpetuate the names of those bowlers who have contributed to the growth and welfare of the great sport of bowling by their ability and/or through meritorious service. For his eight decades of bowling prowess we feel Chuck certainly deserves his place and his smiling face adds grace to the wonderful Hall of Fame wall. I hope everyone has been able to view this "wall" of Fame featuring the best of the best in the Orange County bowling world, located inside La Habra "300" Bowl; if not, you'd better toddle on down and take a look – you won't be disappointed!

Marian asks if y'all would be so kind to send cards in care of: Marian Tuma, Tuscany Village, 525 West La Palma Ave., Anaheim, 92801. She says she knows he would really, really enjoy hearing from anyone. His eyes and ears are still good. She faithfully reads his mail to him EVERY single day; he still has that twinkle in his eyes and still smiles and, remembers.....for now!

MAIL BAG

To Whom It May Concern:

My age is 85 and I bowl three days a week in league bowling at Matador Bowl in Northridge.

I had a strange experience the other morning in practice that may have been the first time it has ever happened in the history of bowling.

I am right handed and where many people have trouble with the 10-pin in spares, I don't. What gives me heart aches is the left side of the lane. My nemesis are the 4 and 7-pins. I was practicing one game prior to league play and half way through my game I went for the 4/7 corner. I hit it flush and for some miracle they all fell for a strike. I couldn't believe it and neither did the persons watching me.

Sincerely,
Bill Fleishman

Eddie Jones is ABTA Champion at Arrowhead

*Keystone Lanes This Weekend 2 Day Sat - Sun
Special Squad Times 12:00-1:30-3:00 & 4:45 Saturday
One Big Squad Sunday 10:00 AM Semis 11:45 AM
Las Vegas Rooms Due This Week at Keystone*

SAN BERNARDINO— Eddie Jones, a long time ABTA member, and friend, really did it good, finally winning his first ABTA title at hospitable Arrowhead Lanes. Eddie did it the hard way winning five straight matches in the single elim finals to win the Title. He downedi the top seed Mark Mauna in the title game for the win, taking a nice $1,400 top prize home to Rialto.

The Arrowhead Event had a decent 131 entrants and on a great shot. We had nice cut scores of men +69 and the ladies at a nice +43 to to make it to the semis of 43 bowlers. Also added were Super Seniors Walter White, Eddie Shipley and Esther Tambio.

Leading the Semis was a white-hot Mark Mauna who had a strikefest at +214. He would sit out and bowl for the title. In second was Francisco Trejo at +176. He would enter in round two of the single elims (top 16). It took a +53 including the three guaranteed ladies to make the sweet 16 single elims.

The bowlers took to the lanes. In the first round single elims losing were Marc Montelongo, David Mathisen, Ed Shipley, Debra Sanders, Ken Johnson, John Hafer, and Michele Tucker, and they got checks of $100 in 10-16th place.

In round two being eliminated were Rick Hornback, Francisco Trejo, Jim Meloon, and Terry Hodgson. They got checks of $107.50 in 6-9th place.

Round three had Eddie Jones down Steve Domon 225-187, Sarah Magno edged Greg Biewer in a good one 228-216. Greg and Steve were 4th and 5th and $112.50 each with Sarah and Eddie to meet for the right to bowl Mark Mauna for the title. In this match Eddie finished strong in a hard fought win over the pretty upstart Ms. Magno, who bowled by far her best in this one. She finished 3rd in her highest finish thus far and $200 with a great showing in her very first finals action. Eddie was now off to the title game vs Mark Mauna.

The title game was set and the horses were paid! Eddie Jones returned a nice $74 for a $5 horse bet, shared by 8 people.

In the title game, Eddie led off with a double and then a split. Mark was clean til an open in frame 4. It was tight. Eddie then began his title run with strikes in frames 4-8 for a big 5 bagger and took a lead but not by far as Mark had a big turkey staying very close until he chopped a spare in frame 8. Eddie finished cleanly in a 230/253-180/198 margin and the coveted title was at last his. Eddie has been an avid ABTA supporter for many years. It is heartwarming to see him finally get his first title. Eddie is one of the Good Guys. Congrats again!

Super bowling also by Mark Mauna who did everything but win the event this week. He was the Hottest bowler for sure and bowled so well. Great Bowling Mark! Vivacious Sarah Magno really bowled well in 3rd and it is great to see her do so well. Nice bowling by a sweet lady!.

Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Romy Cajucom, one Hot Pinoy for sure at +211 for the men and Gina Velarde Borci led the ladies at +13. They will get paid entries. Greg and Gina Velarde were high in the doubles with a 1417 for $110 edging Ken Sr. and Jr Seiple 1415 and $90. We paid 8 places in the doubles.

Patrick Ambrose was last up in the 3-6-9 rolloff. He got to the final shot needing a 9 count but came up a bit high for 8. We will go for $1,900 this week at Keystone. He got a $50 consolation for beer money:-).

The Match Game was drawn by Mauna and there was One Match as Carlos Mascorro hit it with a 174 for $705. We now estimate the Match Game to be $1,200 this weekend.

Match Series worth $192, was drawn by Cajucom. He drew 591 with Greg Velarde happily accepting the cash

PINZ SENIORS

Keeping with the spirit of cooling down the lanes, we just want to keep all of you refrigerated like seniors in Florida, while you bowl these games. Just like shuffleboard we'll wait till you are done. Now scratch up these scores:

Bowler of the Week: Sip a glass of wine and relax with the smooth sounds of bowler of the week, it's potent like java, it is Tony Viacava. With his unique kindness and good will toward humanity he is whole heartedly our bowler of the week. Not only does Big Tone grace us with his presence during the week; he occasionally bowls. And this time it was miraculous, a 284. With the sweat on his brow, he waited for that 11th strike...

This time it wasn't in the cards, but we are eagerly awaiting that time soon when he throws all 12 strikes. Great bowling Tony and we appreciate your patronage.

Sweetness quote of the week: In June, as many as a dozen species may burst their buds on a single day. No man can heed all of these anniversaries; no man can ignore all of them. Aldo Leopold

West Coast Jr. Elims

by David Gordon

NORWALK—Hello everyone and welcome to West Coast Jr. Elims – Part I at Keystone Lanes. This past Saturday marked our last qualifying session of part I with some tight races across the board.

The 900 club had Kevin Jones as this week’s only member. Kevin posted up 247-290-220-227/984. Very nice shooting. For 800s we have Mark Curtis 213-236/842 and Joey Marino 215-225-236/834. Very good gentlemen. Additional high scores were reported by Brandyn Roque 225-235/797, Michael Gaylor 209-200-214/780, Eddie Sayles 230/771, Eric Milne 200/725, Kim Ferdnance 717, Justin LaMere 219/714, and Jasmine Morales 202/708.

The nine sessions (36 games) of qualifying is now over giving us our Qualifying Champions, Cocky – What a Pair (Curtis/Jones) with 149 points won. They held off the second place team, LookOut Team (Ferdnance/Preston Fukumizu) who had 123 wins. The team high awards also went to these two teams, with High Game to LookOut Team with a 501 game and High Series to Cocky – What a Pair with an 1826 series.

Individually, the girls High Game goes to Jasmine Morales with a 234, while High Series was captured by Ferdnance with a 919 series. For the boys, Jones took the High Game honor on the last session with his 290, and Milne kept the High Series with a 1033. The Girls Match Point High was claimed by Ferdnance with 20 points and Curtis took it over for the boys with 28 points.

The important news from these nine sessions is those advancing to the Match Play round in August. For the girls, we have Ferdnance (6637 pins), Morales (6426), and Amanda Neil (6064). The boys top eight are; Jones (7947), Fukumizu (7796), Milne (7515), Curtis (7386), Marino (7184), Sayles (6999), Andy Betancourt (6619), and Gaylor (6547).

So that sums up Part I. And since there is plenty of summer left, we’re going to do it again. PART II starts this coming Saturday at 2:00 at Keystone Lanes (see advertisement). Nine sessions done in 7 weeks and a whole new set of bowlers will advance to the Match Play round to bowl against those above from Part I. At the completion of Match Play, we will have a finals roll-off shooting for a lot of scholarship money.

Please contact me for additional information at 310-665-9536 or David\_Gordon@sonyusa.com. Now is your chance to come out without the pressure of the “super” high average bowlers. Come learn and increase your skills in preparation for the winter season. Now is the time. I’ll see you soon.

Thompson Turns Up The Heat and Tops The Leader Board in Rocky Marsh Doubles

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM—The heat is definitely on as evidenced by the following HOT scores:

Ronny Thompson had the hottest “Left” hand and came oh-so-close to the coveted “800” as he tossed games of 247-258 and 279 for a great 784 and added a 235 to tally a fantastic, ‘sizzling hot’ 1019 set. With his outstanding performance, Ronny captured season high series. Super bowling, Ronny - that’s going to be hard to beat!!

Dapper and, yes, a lefty, Terry Brent had his thermostat set on high as he stroked 224-248 and 229 for 701 and a grand finale 277 game to record a smok’n 978. Great bowling, Terry!

The third member to join the elite 900 Club this awesome Fridy morning was Ron Corona, jr. Ron is a “righty” and can sure shoot the BIG games. Ron powered his ball (like a rocket) to the pocket to score 226-214 and 267 for 707 and added a 255 game to post a 962. Great set, Ron!

Last week’s high game shooter Ron Douglass, showed us all that he wasn’t just a flash in the pan as this powerful “lefty” fired 267-226 and 226 for 719 and added a 232 game to become the fourth member to enter the prestigious 900 Club at 951. Do you give lessons, Ron?

Awesome display of bowling, fellas!!!

Janine Ditch stepped up to the plate for the ladies and burned a little wood on games of 226-180-249-206 to record a fine 861 series. Thanks for keeping the ladies in the loop, Janine!

More HOT scores: Carl Adinolfi 259-894, Tony Chaco 246-880, Hong Kha 255-862, Frank Bellinder 237-851, Ed Mote 237-844, Janet Anderson 231-842, Bob Gosnell 236-821, Rose Williams 224-819, E.J.
