53rd Flowers for the Living Award Goes to John Sommer

ROCKFORD — The 2013 winner of the Sam Levine Flowers for the Living Award, funded by The Bowling Foundation, is John R. Sommer of Rockford, Illinois.

Bowling proprietor John Sommer is living proof that nice guys do not finish last. Sommer has built a career in the bowling business as owner of several centers that has put him at the top of the industry as a member of the elite BPAA Hall of Fame, and now he is the winner of another of Bowling's most prestigious and coveted awards.

Getting to the top is one thing; getting there while earning the respect of virtually everyone in the industry is an enormous accomplishment. More than anything else, The "Flowers" award is about integrity; about not just accomplishment and giving back, but about how a person conducts themselves and treats others along the way.

Sommer is a shining example of having high standards while following the golden rule. He often shares his philosophy of life and business, learned from his late father:

"Do the right thing, and don't worry about who gets the credit."

Running a bowling center, or several as John does, is difficult work, yet Sommer still makes time to volunteer and share his experience with others on numerous committees, events, and projects. As a member of the BPAA tournament committee, he has worked on numerous events over the years, most recently the Hall of Fame Xtravaganza and Bowling's Women's U.S. Open Tournament.

He has also been an en-

thusiastic supporter of the In School Bowling program and High School Bowling. He was instrumental in the development of a curriculum for High School Bowling as a letter sport in his home state of Illinois, and that program continues to be an example for others to follow today.

The Bowlers to Veterans Link is another of John's favorite charities. His tireless work for the BVL stems from his experience as a U.S. Army lieutenant and company commander while serving in Viet Nam.

No doubt one of John's proudest achievements was the operation of a women's professional bowling tour for 22 years from 1981-2003. Sommer's PWBA gave the top women bowlers in the world a chance to make a living as professional bowlers for more than two decades. During that time, his tour paid out more than $30 million in prize money and produced television shows that were consistently the highest rated women's sports programming on ESPN. The tour also generated billions of print impressions that kept bowling top of mind in household across America, benefitting the entire global industry.

DOWNDY — For 35 weeks (5 Rounds), the great bowlers of this year's Ebonite League were challenged to pick the right equipment for the oil pattern and execute. Knowing that only six teams would be in the final roll-off, ALL teams fought for every win.

The teams that didn't make the roll-off have already started to change their line-up, trading players and checking the rules for the 2013-14 season. Half of the league has already paid their sponsor fees and are locked in.

But let's get to the grand finale. I have cheered the champs for 23 years, but Monday was special.

Perfect Finish Helps Belmonte Win Lucas Oil PBA Bear Open for Seventh Title

Australian Two-Handed Star Throws Final Seven Strikes to Defeat Barnes

MILWAUKEE — Australia's Jason Belmonte finished with a string of seven strikes to rally past Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, 235-211, and capture his seventh Professional Bowlers Association Tour title in the Lucas Oil PBA Bear Open at AMF Bowlero.

The third of five GEICO PBA Summer Swing presented by Lucas Oil telecasts aired Tuesday on CBS Sports Network.

Belmonte, who failed to convert the 2-4 in the second frame, trailed Barnes by nine pins in the fifth frame, but reeled off seven straight strikes to overtake Barnes for the title and a berth in the GEICO Summer King of the Swing special event that will conclude the Milwaukee summer series.

"I just needed to calm down," the 29-year-old two-handed power player said. "I think I came out of the gate pressing a little, trying to get an early lead. (Barnes) opened a couple of times, and I thought that would be my chance to jump on him, but I threw the ball a little too quick.

"After he started to strike, I could see his ball motion was much slower than mine, so I said, you know what — he's moved left and slowed down a little bit, and that's exactly what I'm going to do, too. Once I let the ball do its thing, it looked amazing going through the pins. It looked like if there were 20 pins down there, it would have struck."

It was the second time Belmonte has met Barnes in a title match, and his second win. He also defeated Barnes for the 2011 Shark Open title during the PBA World Series of Bowling III in Las Vegas, 243-213.

"Chris Barnes, in my opinion, is one of the greatest bowlers on the planet for the last five years," Belmonte said. "It makes the win just a little more important for me."

"I enjoy playing against guys like Chris," Belmonte added. "You want to walk off the lanes feeling like you've beaten the ultimate. It's very rewarding."

The Bear Open was contested on a flat 40-foot lane conditioning pattern, a scoring environment similar to the

THREE DEAF BOWLERS STRUGGLED IN USBC SENIOR MASTERS AT LAS VEGAS

LAS VEGAS — Last June 10-12 three deaf bowlers, Frank Gallo, Jacksonville, FL, James Theyken, San Diego, CA and Thomas Penna, Bethpage, NY were among the 266 entrants in the prestigious USBC Senior Masters bowling three days of 5 games each at South Point Bowling Center in Las Vegas. The stake was to score a total of 15 games high enough to make the 64th cut for the additional days of match play elimination to win the title.

On the first day of 5 games Gallo, the most experienced of the three, started off good with 211, 210 then lost his line in 3rd game, regained with a 199 in 4th game but lost his line again to finish his day with 5 games total 898 in 209th place. That is way below the cut score of 1012 in 64th place.

Theyken, a left-hander didn't start good in first 3 games but closed with 190 and 192 for 909 to finish ahead of Gallo in 195th place. Penna started with 190, then dropped down next two games, came back with 197 but dropped down again to finish with 870 in 232nd place.

On the second day of 5 games, Gallo again started off good with a 214 but the next 3 games were below the 5th game of 189 for the day's total of 944 and two days total of 1842 in 190th place. That is still below the 64th cut of 2015.

Theyken also started well with 192 and 214 but stalled in next three for 913 total and 1822 to place in 200th. Penna could not get other 4 games better than his 180 in his 4th game of the day and his total of 827 and 1697 dropped him down to 251th place.

On the third day of qualifying finds all three too low and hopelessly out of making the match play, but all three in their fighting mode. Surprise, Gallo recovered his form and rolled five 200s, (223-204-236-214-209) for 1086. That gave him 2928 total for 15 games (195 average) and jumped him up to 117th place.

Likewise, Theyken and Penna did their best too in this round. Theyken started off with 191, hit a 209 in 3rd game and closed with a 199 for 949 and 15 games total of 2771 moved him to 193rd place. Penna started poorly but in his 4th game hit a barrage of strikes for a 255 and ended up with 887 and 15 games total of 2584 for 243rd place.

In closing, Pete Weber won this USBC Senior Masters. Frank Gallo could have easily qualified if he bowled consistently like he did on the 3rd day. On the first two days Gallo started with 200s but lost his form after that. Jim Theyken and Tom Penna had take it as good experience for bowling in this senior Masters.

Instead of going home to Jacksonville Fla., Gallo entered as one to 88 senior bowlers in PBA50 Northern California Classic Presented by Track at Harvest Park Bowl in Brentwood, CA. The tournament turned out to be a high scoring one but Gallo could not catch up with the leaders on the first day June 17 eight games with 1568, placing 67th.

On the June 18 Qualifying Round of 8 games, Gallo improved with 1777 (222+ average) but his 16 games total of 3345 placed in 53rd. That was too far from cut-off top 24 places for the match play round. At the June 19 end, Walter Ray Williams won this high scoring event.

Feeling better with his improvement in his last 8 games, Gallo returned home to Florida and promptly entered in the June 21-23 PBA50 South Regional event. In this PBA50 Reality Check Classic Series Ichiban Cleaning South Open presented by DV8 at Brunswick Harbour Lanes in Melbourne, FL with 41 entries, Gallo did his best with 1610 for 8 games (201+ average). That placed him in 17th, 60 pins short of the 12th place cut-off for the match plays. He cashed $250 as one of the two high super seniors out of the prize money. Again, Walter Ray Williams, Ocala, Fla won this tournament.

Reno, From a Bowlers Eyes

By Todd Pfifer

RENO — With the USBC Open at the National Bowling Stadium coming to close in a couple weeks (July 6th), and months of planning and anticipation, I headed to Reno, Nevada to bowl in this year’s event. As being a part of four teams consisting of fellow staff members, friends, and other bowlers I have only met and spoke to via Facebook, I traveled eight hours through Nevada’s long and deserted highways to meet up with the others coming from the likes of Chicago, Ohio, New Jersey, and even had a gentlemen fly in from Singapore to bowl in this exciting tournament.

Once I arrived and headed to the hotel registration, you can’t help but notice the bowling lane in the middle of the casino. After a closer look, the casino tries to draw the abundance of bowlers in by giving away money for a strike if your name is drawn (Fri & Sat only, and you have to qualify by earning some points gambling) as well as having scantily clothed girls parade the lane and bowl themselves. Ok probably geared towards the men, but this is just one of many little things the Hotels/Casinos do to cater to the plethora of hurlers that arrive in this town.

After a couple hours of relaxation, I headed to the Stadium to watch a couple of the guys who were part of the four teams we brought to bowl, take part in Bowlers Journal side event. One reason many decided to bowl this side event is that the lane pattern was the same as that of the Doubles/Singles portion of the Open. What they don’t say is if you want this to be true you must only bowl the fresh oil squads. If you bowl others times, you will see the lane immediately effected by the burn and carry down. This event takes place on the last ten lanes of the stadium floor, only separated by a small wall. What I thought was odd was I heard no other pin fall coming from the stadium. Decided to take a walk, I noticed (what was supposed to be the 11 am squad) that everyone had stopped in the middle of the first game. The problem was it was past 1 pm and everyone was a little upset. The report was the scoring system had malfunctioned. The bowling would eventually resume but not until after a four hour delay, many angry bowlers, as well as the rest of the days squads being delayed long into the night. The days events normally done by around 1 am, didn’t finish until much later.

Anyway, even though I was a little tired due to the long drive, I decided to take part in the “Who’s Got the Look Baker Bonanza” tournament downstairs in the new Showcase lanes portion of the NBS. Three man teams, five games, Baker format where each member must bowl the tenth frame at least once. The vibe in here was a lot more relaxed, and this newest portion of the NBS was a nice touch to the stadium and the whole experience.

The following day, since we didn’t bowl the team event until 7 PM, many of the group of bowlers I was with took part in the towns other side events such as the Jet Mulligan, BTM, 123, and Forty Framer to continue doing what we love on this getaway, Knock down the pins! Now it was time to go back to the stadium. Just by walking around, you never know who you will run into. I’ve seen ex and current pros (Jason Sterner), run into guys whom I have bowled with in the past and present, as well as guys I have only talked to thru face book all by sure luck and coincidence. Small world the bowling community is, might live hundred of miles apart, seldom speak, but can run into one another where you a surrounded by hundreds, sometimes thousands of people. This even happened the following day at a large outdoor BBQ, Beer, and Blues festival I was walking around. Well packed with people, I decided to enjoy some BBQ Brisket and Ribs, and looked for a shaded area to sit and ran into a teammate I haven’t spoken to since the winter season ended and found them on the next table over enjoying the BBQ as well. Small World.

Got on the lanes finally and even though this was not my first time here and knew what to expect, I just loved the pomp and circumstance when everyone marched out from the back thru the middle of the concourse to their assigned lanes. After the National Anthem, it was time to take out the bowling balls, towels, and accessories and bowl!

After the night was done, heading back to the hotel and wind-ed down the days events by meeting fellow teammates to discuss the positive and negative events of the day, and the plan of attack for Day two.

For those who haven’t bowled yet or didn’t participate this year, the D/S portion is different this year. First they have their own lane pattern separate from team event, and every squad is fresh oil. In the past, after Doubles, you would switch lanes. Not this year. The advantage is, as the lanes break down you can adjust like you normally would and not spend a couple frames guessing because you got no practice before the singles portion. I did bowl better than the day before but still not up to the potential I know I have as a bowler. Still enjoyed myself immensely. The sad thing was most of the twenty bowlers that all came down to bowl alongside each other in my group all were leaving early in the morning (including myself). All had to say goodbye. The good news is we have already started planning on next years trip to Reno to bowl and represent the young company we are proud to bowl for.

During the long drive back (and an unfortunate delayed stop by a Highway Patrol) I had time to come to the conclusion that even though I left some pins on the lane and I will do whatever it takes to make adjustments to my game, I had a good time enjoying good friends (some new ones as well), good food (tried deep fried Reese’s Peanut Butter Cups at the festival-awesome), and the fact that a bad day on the lanes is better than a good day doing other of life’s daily tasks.

ROBERT SNYDER Dominates Citrus Belt Open

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS — HEADLINE: “SNYDER WINS CITRUS BELT OPEN WITH 250 AVERAGE.”

The results of the Citrus Belt Open Tournament are “OFFICIAL.” Our scratch All Events Champion is Robert Snyder of Moreno Valley. Robert dominated the field on his way to the title with a 2249 nine game total. He averaged 249.8888, just one pin shy of 250. While Major League Baseball rounds batting averages up, bowling rounds averages down! Nonetheless, I say Bob averaged 250.

You might say BIG DEAL, the kids today all average 250 and drive golf balls 300 yards. I say BULL. I worked this tournament as a Citrus Belt volunteer and the dry backends made things difficult for most. However, as in any league or tournament, no matter the shot, someone will always find a way to score. Usually the better bowlers find a way to score and Robert Snyder is a 220 average bowler.

Again, this time the good bowler who solved the lane pattern best was Mr. Snyder. Back home in Moreno Valley Robert is known for scoring and scoring big, so I wasn’t surprised to see him score big in the Open Tournament.

As this years All Events Champion Snyder will be seeded into next years Citrus Belt Masters Tournament. I look forward to seeing him compete against our best bowlers.

Saturday Eve Finals • $14,000 1st with Bonuses

EL MONTE — On our return to Super Action Lanes we had a nice turnout of 210 Entrants. We had a very exciting time there to say the least. Lanes on the tough side but Fair to all. Cut Scores men+42 and the Ladies at +32 making a field of 56 bowlers making the Beat the Board Finals. The Super Seniors added to the board were men Vic Paolucci +35 and Bob Ricketts +32 and one woman Bobbie Mc Collum +15. Super Seniors are men 63 and over, and for the women you need to be a young 55. . Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Benny Hurtado +174 and Women Marife Catalasan +81. They will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Our top seed Mr. Hurtado drew the Match Series and he drew a Perfect Match for one of our Dedicated Members as Jimmy Wong fired a nice 435 Scratch in the 6:00PM Squad. Guess what it got him, a Max Pot of $5,000. YES FIVE GRAND!!! to the CEO of Nu Tech Auto Repair in Walnut. He was a Happy guy as was his Wife Ada and Jimmy was buying the Beer :=)) The Match Series still goes for an est Pot of $3,600 Saturday at West Covina. Glad For You Jimmy, you are truly one of the Good Guys!!!

Last bowler in the roll-off for the $1,700 3-6-9 pot this week was Matt Garcia and to my disbelief missed on the first shot. He got consolation of $50 for Beer Money :=). It will be $1,800 Saturday with a Reserve pot in store also at $700.00.

In the optional doubles, finishing in first were Lord Ferguson and Ben Hurtado at 1399 good for $140. 2nd place was Deb Sanders and Bryan Moore 1387 $120 and still paid 28 places and $1,690.

It is Beat the Board Finals now and where you finish is where you will end. 56 Finalists took to the lanes for the 3 game Finals. After game one, low for the top 10 was a +19. The top five bowlers were Joseph Lung in 5th+32 in 4th Du Quach+36, 3rd Ted Villaroman also +36 with Manny Natividad 2nd +51, and William Garrett leader at +59. (ALL Scores include Hcp.)

Game #2 Anthony Dancel got hot and took the lead at +84, with Dave Dittlinger 2nd tied with Joseph Lung at +69, 4th Louis Evans +64, Manny Natividad 5th +59 and hanging around close are Mien Barcelona, at +54. As many as a dozen are close enough with a big game to win the event, as anything can happen now!! ??.

We now enter the final game and there would be changes in the top 10 bowlers. Finishing in 10th thru 16th place for $100 were So Kwon, Mary Huynh, Mien Barcelona, William Garrett, Dino Cantoria, Sun Sundara and Mark Fisser. In 6-9th places and $105 were Louis Evans, Ted Villaroman, Benny Hurtado, and Bedell Vasquez. 4th and 5th Manny Natividad and Joseph Lung $105. Third went to Darrow "Straight Arrow" Tiongco +120 $200 and Runner-up Andy Du Quach +122 $500 with Anthony Dancel breaking through for his first ABTA Championship +143 and $1,000 1st plus a $850 bonus for a nice $1,850, for the Likeable gentleman. He deserved this one, as his final two games put him to the top! Congrats Anthony on his first ABTA Championship.

RYAN COLE Opens Summer Season With 976

by Frank Weiler
MURRIETA — I stepped into Cal Oaks Thursday night to say hello to old friends and watch the 430 Scratch Doubles League kick off. It is always fun to watch great bowlers perform on the lanes.

While many of Cal Oak's best are taking the summer off, there is still plenty of talent challenging the hardwood. TONY BOWMAN, JERRY DeYAGER, DAVE GULLEY, BRANDON JENKINS, KELLY JONES, BOB SNOW, SENG TONG, and RAY WINKOWSKI are just some of talented kegglers plying the lanes at 9 PM.

It was an interesting night because every match was a BLOWOUT! Every point total ended up 24 -1, 21 -4 or somewhere in between. Tough night for some of my friends. League co-secretary SCOTT FILIPI said he has never seen so many one sided matches in one night.

Ryan Cole topped the nights scoring with a 976 (227 - 265 - 247 - 237). He was followed by Kelly Jones (918), Brandon Jenkins (909), and Tony Bowman (905).

By the way, a few weeks ago I wrote about MARK DYER bowling a four game series of 1098. I have since learned that JIM THURMOND bowled an 1158 four game set in 1986 followed by a 1120 by MARV SARGENT in 2000. Do you know of any higher four game series bowled in the Citrus Belt? Let me know by email: "fjw300@aol.com." My thanks to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting Citrus Belt bowlers.

Bowling News is proud to bring you....
Chuck Pezzano
Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

The word courage is tossed about very loosely when it comes to sports, and you can hardly equate the courage of athletes in the same way you apply it to heroes in battle and at such sites as those of the terrorist attacks.

But there certainly is an element of courage in athletic competition and that includes bowling.

I've seen all types of courageous performances in bowling, physical and mental, bowlers rolling with thumbs that looked more like raw hamburger and needed pain killer and numbing drugs to continue, and I've seen bowlers so stricken with ailments that they were forced to throw up between frames and others that limped to the line and still others bowling with the death of loved ones on their minds.

But if I had to pick the most courageous it would have to be the late Dick Battista.

In 1976 he was named the most courageous athlete in the nation because he came back from near death, and his story after that inspired all bowlers, and hundreds of thousands who had almost given up hope.

It was after rolling 85 gruelling games in the 1975 Newsday Open, long considered the All-Star of the East, that Battista was felled by a heart so weakened that it was operating at less than 20 percent of his normal capacity. For 40 minutes or so he was clinically dead.

"I had no pain, just a feeling of peace and I recall the doctors running around and trying to save and wondering why they just didn't leave me alone," Battista recalled later.

But save him they did and some two months later he received a change of heart; a brand new pulsating organ of power from an 18-year-old accident victim was transplanted into his rugged body.

Battista always had been known for his great physical strength. An impressive 6-2 and 195 pounds, his long arms reached out on any lane and his strong hand and fingers produced a ball that hooked so effectively that it seemed to tear up the lanes as it rolled down the left side. He had racked up a national and a regional pro title, three Newsday Opens and dozens of other titles.

But we're talking about a heart transplant more than 35 years ago when it appeared to be a miracle to just survive. Battista not only survived but went on to cash in five of 12 pro tournaments and at that time was the only heart transplant athlete competing in any pro sport.

He took about 40 pills a day, watched his diet carefully and bowled or played golf for four hours almost every day. He continued for years after, into his late forties.

As you might expect, as the most successful heart transplant patient ever at that time, Battista was in great demand as a speaker and guest at all types of functions.

As the honored guest at a sportswriter's dinner where he was praised as the comeback athlete of the year, Battista had the crowd in tears and in awe of his return.

Battista often said he enjoyed talking to older groups and to people who because of heart attacks or other ailments were down on themselves and life in general.

"Most people don't realize that bowling is a great hearler, a fine exercise for those recuperating from any kind of medical or mental problems, from a heart attack to a knee operation to an ulcer attack, so long as you follow your doctor's advice."

Now what was that you were saying about the irritation to your thumb that had you thinking of quitting? Just think of the Battista saga and the hope and courage he instilled in so many, and be happy you bowl.

ABS CBN Foundation International BOWLING Club

CERRITOS — Hello Bowlers and members of the ABS-CBN Bowling Club! The results are in and here’s the good news we are all waiting for. The concept for the added single bonus prize at 8:00-AM did not work well with the other bowlers because of the confusion and different interpretation on the rulings in the singles competition. Also, we found out that bowlers are not early risers even these players are bowling lovers!

Nevertheless, with the hard work of all the team members/committees; Mikko Miller, Gigi Castro, Tony Manalac, al and Norma Mortola, Kmel Cunanan, Goldie Castro and our newest member Faye Josafat did very well in their invitation and promotion of the Tournament that made the second year’s ABS-CBN Foundation International Bowling Tournament a success. The big applause and most regarded appreciation goes to San Diego Fil-AM team members who generated the most participants in this year’s tournament. Their unselfish support made the second years success in this tournament. FIL-AM bowlers in San Diego, invited their relatives and friends and drove to Los Angeles in their desire to help raised funds for a good cause. My gratitude to San Diego committee’s Sam Reyes, Johnny Lopez, Homer Bautista and Edwin Diaz Jr., for their endless promotion of the ABS-CBN second years bowling tournament. You are a big part of this years’ success in raising funds for the unfortunate children and families in the Philippines. My salute to all of you!

This year’s scoring of the tournament was kind of different from last years (2012). Two big prizes were added for high singles at 8:00-AM and overall individual series at the team squads event. Good news was, all players did not go home empty handed as promised, it’s either through raffle and/or as a gift from ABS-CBN, solicited/provided by different sponsors with their participation to raise funds for a good cause.

The tournament was created in fairness to every bowler in town, a handicapping system, either by the average book, league sheets, or the minimum for non-established handicap bowlers. The lucky winners with teamwork efforts of their skills goes to Fred Go of West Covina, Ronnie Cordero of Long Beach, Ashley Brown of Whittier and Ronald Sanchez of Cerritos. They won One Thousand Dollars each and a ABS-CBN Foundation International special trophies, with handicap score of 2772. The second place, with a score of 2747, a twenty five pin difference from the first place, goes to Sonny Castillo, Marilyn Bautista, Joe Bilog and Nicanor Biduya. Third place goes to Marilyn Barcelona, Fred Go, Ronnie Cordero and Jojo Barcelona with a score of 2564. Special and bonus prizes goes to Highest singles, Willie Del Mundo and High Series individual on squads time is Barnesia Hull. They decided to exercise their option to choose the award; trip to the Philippines for $1,000.00 each. Winner for the lady bowler in the singles 8:00-AM squad went to Amy Lubag.

The awards night were presented in joy from everyone with food in celebration of the Philippine Independence Day and with full support of the Cerritos officials, Mayor Carol Chen, Mayor Pro-Temp Mark Pullido, ABS-CBN Associate Director Joannie Feliciano, Fil-Am Press Club of California and Famegate President Thelma Calabio and our co-sponsor, Home Specialist of US and Canada for Shoemart Development Corp. (SMDC) Mark Sison.

Our special thank you to all our supporters in their unselfish help and contribution goes to the following; Mr. & Mrs. Pagunsan, Mr. & Mrs. Joya, Mr. & Mrs. Delorito, Divine Libunao, Rene and Alice Ramos, Nestor and Dei Pangilinan, Ms. Cecille Ramos, Rosalie Caratao, Sammy Lorenzana, Ms. Evelyn Andamo, Mr. Marte Tobias, Mr. & Mrs. Joe and Doris Iglesias, Mr. Ed Bulos of Cristina’s Uniforms, The Fil-Am Club of San Diego, Mary Feliciano, Stephen Gottlieb, Marissa de Luna and Faye Josafat. For the food and kind donation, goes to Manila Sunset, Goldilocks, Dr. and Mrs. Valerio, Linny AGatep from Carson City for the delicious rice cake and to all volunteered staff that day. My special thank you to California Bowling news in helping us advertises our event.

KUDOS TO ALL THE BOWLERS IN LOS ANGELES, ORANGE AND SAN DIEGO COUNTY. On behalf of ABS-CBN Foundation International, Famegate Foundation, it’s officers and Directors and all the committees; My sincerest thank you to all for your endless support! 2014 will be different in format and events. Watch for the news and coming soon!!!!

The Final Event Mixed Doubles Tournament at Midtown Lanes Official Standings

LOS ANGELES — The Final Event Mixed Doubles three week long tournament came to an end on Sunday and it was deemed quite a success. There was a total of 144 entries in the event and will pay a top prize of $2,000 and a total of 18 places and distribute $6,912 in total prize money. I want to personally thank all that came out, on and off, the lanes to make this such a grand send off for one of the last urban bowling centers in Los Angeles. All the results are included with this issue as well as available online at various web sites, and on FaceBook groups as well as my personal FaceBook page. The highlight of the tournament clearly had to be the Junior Bowlers Alumni Squad, where former Junior bowlers over the decades came back and bowled in an exclusive squad just for them. It was like a major high school reunion in many cases. People were hugging, posing for photos and just reminiscing all the old times and memories. An uplifting speech was given by former Junior bowler. Ryan Small and a huge group photo session were done prior to the squad. This was appropriate and very touching for a bowling center that produced many youth bowlers that became prominent bowlers throughout the southland.

On Sunday, June 23, 2013, shortly after midnight, Dante Davis, had the privilege of rolling the last strike ever at AMF Midtown Lanes, as it officially closed its doors. With the trend that has occurred in the bowling industry, especially in urban communities, many bowlers have experience the phenomena of witnessing their local bowling center shut its doors. The closing of Midtown hit this veteran in the bowling industry quite personally. I Grew up some eight blocks away in a fairly descent middle class neighborhood in Los Angeles which consisted of mostly two story single family homes and probably a higher percentage than most areas having two parents in many of the homes. At the age of 12, I quickly adopted Midtown Bowling Center as my second home. I learned to bowl and got hooked on the game there, I learned how to earn money keeping score in my early teens (significantly sharpening my math skills in the process). But the most important thing of all, it provided me an avenue to focus away from the horrible options that many of my of neighborhood peer teens latched onto simply because they weren’t actively doing anything else! Midtown Bowl undoubtedly altered my life by taking me off the streets and putting me on the lanes. I became a decent bowler in my youth, I was hired to work their as soon as I turned 18 and eventually became an aerospace engineer undoubtably due to the full athletic scholarship I received by being a member of the CSULA bowling team. In, 1984 I co-founded a computer software firm with a fellow bowler, Delana Thompson, centered around the custom software for the bowling industry which over the years has pumped more than $1 million in payroll alone, mostly back into the community. None of these things would have ever been possible if Midtown Bowl had not been there to cross my path in life. I was a “saved soul” that can be fully documented as a beneficiary of this facility in our community. Now there will many unknown lost souls that will never have the opportunity I had of being saved or having their life and destiny changed because of its existence. As the old cliché that is often spoken “All good things must come to an end.” With that being said, I can only say and express how grateful that for Midtown Bowling Center being there and being such a big part of my life as well as so many countless others. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

With his second title of the 2012-13 season, Belmonte has established himself as a leading contender in the PBA Player of the Year race. He won the United States Bowling Congress Masters earlier in the season, and also finished second in two other major championships, the PBA World Championship and Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions.

“Player of the Year is on my radar, but it’s a little dot that is very faint and very far away at this point,” he said. “There’s still a lot of bowling left, including the U.S. Open and the entire World Series of Bowling this fall. Anything can happen. After being so close last year (Belmonte finished second in Player of the Year voting to Sean Rash), I’m certainly not going to count my chickens before they hatch. If I win the U.S. Open and a couple of times at the World Series, I’ll put it beyond doubt and relax a little.”

Canada’s Dan MacLelland, bidding for his first PBA Tour title, started the Bear Open finals with a 197-169 victory over 2011 USBC Masters winner Tom Hess of Urbandale, Iowa, and eliminated newly-crowned Wolf Open champ Chris Loschetter of Avon, Ohio, 223-200, in the second match. Barnes ended MacLelland’s bid to become the third consecutive first-time titlist – and first Canadian ever to win a PBA Tour title – in the semi-final match, 214-187.

The finals of the Lucas Oil Milwaukee Open, the fourth event in the GEICO PBA Summer Swing series, will air next Tuesday, July 2, at 7 p.m. ET. The qualifying rounds of the Badger, Wolf and Bear Opens determined the players who advanced to the match play finals of the Milwaukee Open at AMF Bowlero. Match play rounds were contested on the Bear, Wolf and Badger lane conditions. Advancing to the stepladder finals after a total of 59 games were top qualifier Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas; Pete Weber of St. Ann, Mo.; Norm Duke of Clermont, Okla.; Mike Fagan of Fort Worth, Texas, and Jason Stern-er of McDonough, Ga.

“Encore” presentations of the Bear Open will air on CBS Sports Network Saturday at 2 p.m. ET and Saturday, July 6, at 3 p.m. ET.

Invitational

$16,000 1st PLACE

$12,000 2nd PLACE

CLYDES VIDEO GAMES—the sixth place wild card team had climbed their way over PRO APPROACH, KEGEL, SYSCO and BOWLIUM and finally faced the waiting THREADWORKS.

Game One was contested on the “long oil” pattern. Mikey Villarreal, anchor for THREADWORKS played TIC, TAC, TOE with 4 O’s and 5 X’s for 162. Ryan Cunningham was wondering in the wasteland, but put together three strikes to post 168. Paul Varela, started with a double and ended with a quad for 210. Eric Snow was clean all the way to a 222. Added up to 762 for the team.

CLYDES (we’ll call ‘em) guys looked like a “dream team”. Ailing with knee problems all season, Chaune Meritt rolled a magical 195 with 2 splits. (I think someone was re-mote controlling his ball!)

Joe Jimenez—the only left hander—let loose a couple of turkeys and a lot of first ball 9’s. He would have had a no-tap 300! Instead he contributed a 216.

Anchor Leonard Ruiz was his ole steady self. A couple spares and one open in the middle, kept his game to a 225. I think his heart beat got back to normal about the 9th frame. It was a long day Monday!

Ramon Torres started off slow with a couple of head shakers but a couple of quick changes produced seven strikes for 233. Results 869 for CLYDES—762 for THREADWORKS.

The action—and the spectators—moved to lanes 25-26. The “House Shot” proved much more playable. For THREADWORKS—Paul 237, Ryan 201, Eric 257, Mikey 238/933.

CLYDES and the crowd were cheering each shot of Ramon Torres. He ran the first 10 plus a spare for 289. What a spark plug! Everybody had strings!! The pros could not have been in the pocket more! Their 971 over THREADWORKS 933, put them in the 2-0 column.

Game three was tested on lanes 27-28, where “Cheetah” was the villain. ‘Twas THREADWORKS last change to continue the race for the $16,000 top prize. Second place of $12,000 was NOT their goal.

Scorewise, this year was the closest and most exciting. The teams were never more than 21 pins apart. In the sixth frame only 6 pins separated the pair. The crowd was hushed as Leonard added another X to his other three. Chaune broke the spell by saying to Leonard “I wish I was short like you” (...a backhanded compliment). Game three went to THREADWORKS 796 to 784. Now it’s 2 to1 CLYDES!! And 10:47 P.M. Time to move to the “U.S. OPEN” pattern.

I think “OPEN” leads to opens! Ramon Torres 198 was high on the pair. Shot of the night was the 2-4-8-10 that Eric converted to a spare.

The game was over before the 10th frame. CLYDES VIDEO GAMES claimed the 2012-2013 title.

There were handshakes and fist pumps all around plus a few—(Wait til next year buddies!)

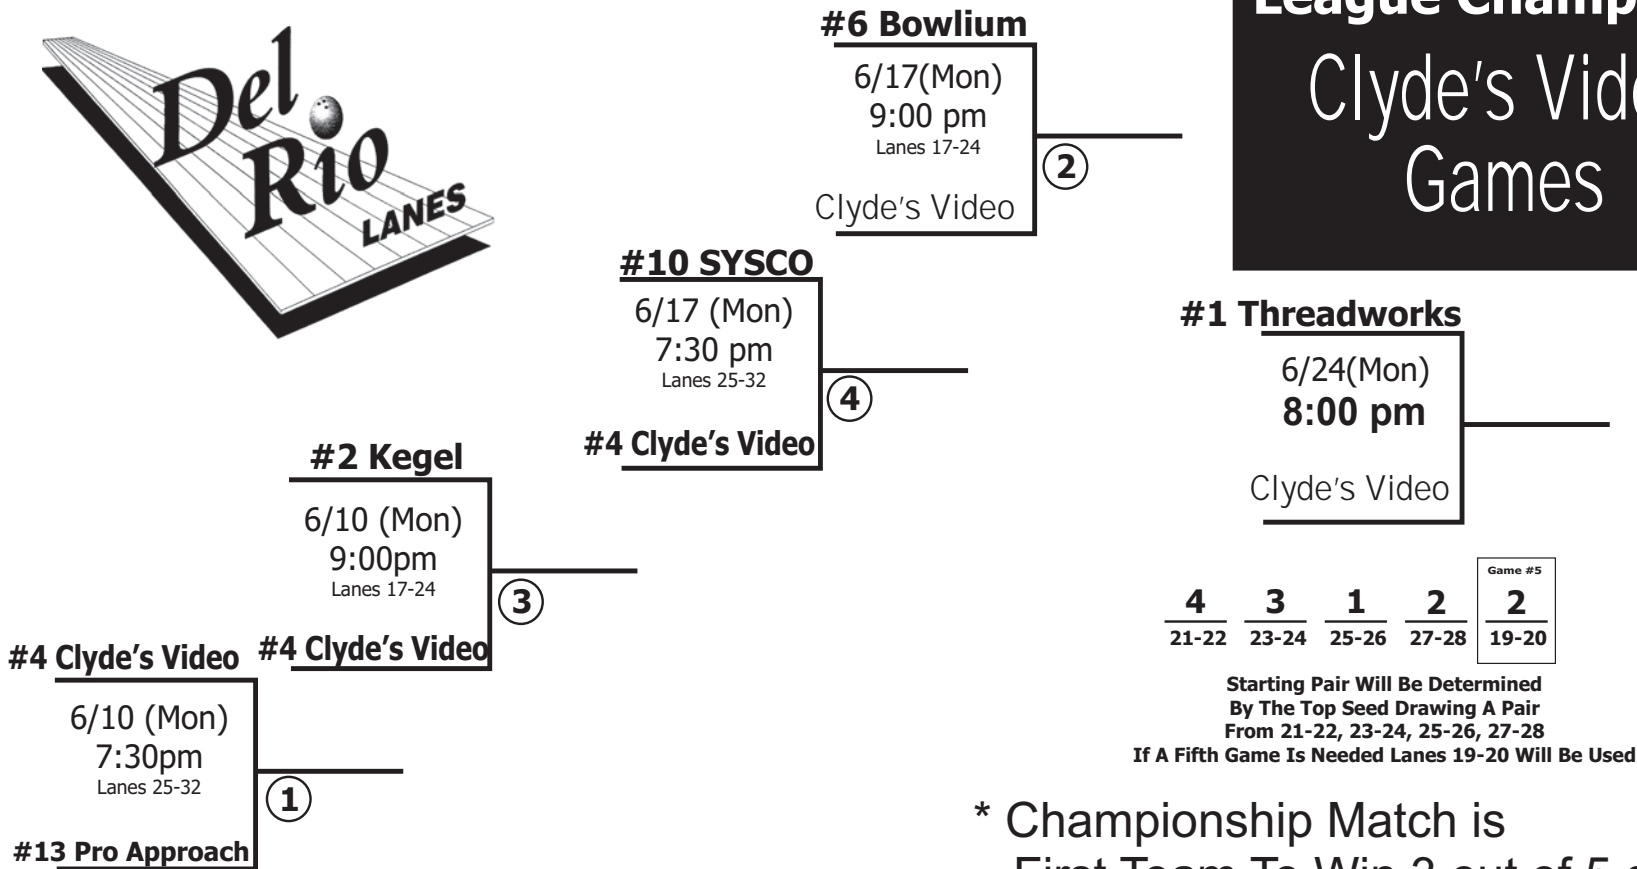

From Del Rio Lanes Staff—Thanks to all the sponsors and bowlers. Clyde Lumpford, long time sponsor (CLYDES VIDEO GAMES) was all smiles and proud of his champions! The Ebonite showcases the Southlands best bowlers. All shirts were provided with Budweiser logos.

Any teams or singles wanting the challenge next year—Call Mike at Del Rio. He can fill you in on the rules, averages to be used or SIGN YOU UP!! — Carol M.
