Belmonte, Duke, Butturff and Simonsen Nominated for 2019 ESPY Best Bowler Award

by Jerry Schneider

CHICAGO – Four-time PBA Player of the Year Jason Belmonte, PBA Hall of Famer Norm Duke, and rising stars Jakob Butturff and Anthony Simonsen – four players who have already put together milestone seasons on the GoBowling! PBA Tour season in 2019 – have been selected by ESPN as nominees for the 2019 ESPY Best Bowler Award.

Fans have the opportunity to select the winners by voting online at ESPN.com/ESPYS and social media platforms. Click here to vote.

Hosted by actor/comedian Tracy Morgan, the awards will be announced Wednesday, July 10 during the ESPYs telecast from the Microsoft Theatre in Los Angeles beginning at 5

Team USA Wins Weber Cup XX Evens All-Time Series

LAS VEGAS – The Weber Cup was conducted over a span of four days on a single lane in a stadium-style setting at Mandalay Bay in Las Vegas. Team USA took advantage of the Weber Cup being contested on its home turf for the first time in history as it defeated Europe 18-14 to win bowling's version of the Ryder Cup.

The Americans entered the fourth and final day of competition with a 14-9 lead and was able to secure the victory in seven matches Friday. The U.S. victory evened the all-time series at 10-10.

Team USA's roster included Chris Barnes, Kyle

Troup, Jakob Butturff and Anthony Simonsen, while Europe was represented by Dom Barrett, Stu Williams, Jesper Svensson and Osku Palermaa. Simonsen helped clinch the victory for the USA with a 287-278 win over Williams in Match 32 overall at Mandalay Bay in Las Vegas. The win over Williams helped Simonsen secure MVP honors for the event.

On the first day of competition on Tuesday, the Europeans rallied from down 4-2 to close out the session even at 4-4. For a recap of those eight matches, click here.

Team USA really made its move on the event's second day when it won six of eight matches to move ahead 10-6. That day was capped off by the first Baker 300 game in the history of the Weber Cup as the U.S. beat Europe 300-257. For a recap of the second day's matches, click here.

The Americans found themselves on the winning side of things on the third day as well, going 4-3 and pushing their lead to 14-9 overall. Barrett was able to salvage the last match of the day with a 241-229 win over Butturff. For a recap of the third day's matches, click here.

Europe held its own on the final day, but it wasn't enough to overcome the deficit. Europe managed to hold off defeat by winning three matches in a row after the U.S. got within a point of victory but it was too little too late. For a recap of the final day's matches, click here.

Danielle McEwan Wins Second Major at 2019 U.S. Women's Open

LAS VEGAS – Needing a double in the 10th frame for the chance to win the 2019 U.S. Women's Open, Danielle McEwan of Stony Point, New York, delivered a pair of strikes and toppled nine pins to win her second career major championship.

McEwan defeated top seed Tannya Roumimper of Indonesia in the title match, 201-199, to claim the coveted green jacket and $20,000 top prize for her fifth career Professional Women's Bowling Association Tour title.

The 2019 event was held at Texas Star Lanes, and the stepladder finals was broadcast live on CBS Sports Network.

"This was one of my top goals - to win the U.S. Women's Open," said McEwan, who also won the 2015 PWBA Tour Championship. "When you look at the people who have won this event, they're the best in our sport. To add my name along theirs is amazing."

The tightly contested finale saw both players open toward the end of the match, helping create the dramatic finish.

Roumimper left the 4-6-7-10 split in the eighth frame, while McEwan faltered in the ninth frame as she was unable to convert the 2-4-10 split.

Stepping up first in the 10th frame, Roumimper had the chance to double for the opportunity to shut out McEwan to claim her first career PWBA Tour title but was unable to connect for the second strike, leaving a high-flush 7 pin.

McEwan, who was making her fourth championship-round appearance at the U.S. Women's Open, needed to fill 28 pins to secure the win and delivered in arguably the biggest moment of her career.

"I've been in that moment so many times in the past and haven't come through," said McEwan, an eight-time Team USA member. "I've spent many, many hours talking with my coaches and ball reps trying to figure out what caused it and how I could do better the next time in that situation. I just tried to build on all I've learned."

Roumimper, who earned the top seed by defeating McEwan in the position round Saturday at Texas Star Lanes, rolled two of her best shots when she needed them and knows she has what it takes to put herself in position to win.

"I was just so numb on that shot because I was so focused inside my own bubble," said Roumimper, who finished fourth last

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – Perseverance. Those players who know how to exhibit that trait have a huge edge, but it’s not an easy task. Simply put, bowlers get frustrated, irritated and sore when pins don’t fall a certain way. And that often leads to more frustration, irritation and soreness. On the other hand, if bowlers can shake off those inevitable tough times, they accept the fact that adversity comes and goes. Those perseverance peeps know that one bad break doesn’t make for a bad game or a bad series. Same with two bad breaks. Or three bad breaks. How about four bad breaks? Mary Basore knows the answer to that. She started her recent league series with nasty splits in her first four frames at Winnetka Bowl. Mary’s game, though, didn’t come to a screeching halt after those four open frames. “That was a typical night,” laughed Mary, who carries a 124 average. “I wasn’t surprised I got the splits. I’m very inconsistent. But I wasn’t depressed.” It showed. When husband Mark, a lights-out 200 bowler, came over to comfort her and make a suggestion, Mary didn’t turn him away. She listened to her teammate. “In the past, I wouldn’t allow him to give me criticism. It’s the husband-wife thing,” said Mary, who’s been bowling with Mark for 30 years. This time Mary followed Mark’s advice to roll the ball over the arrows instead of the dots. It worked. Mary rallied to come out of nowhere and register an

Not even four straight splits could sidetrack Mary Basore during league play. With a positive attitude, she turned things around. Mary also got some help from a friend, namely husband Mark. Photo by Fred Eisenhammer impressive 455 series (123-178-154) – far above her average. “I was excited,” said Mary, who helped her team win all three games of the series. Mary didn’t stop there. The following week, she bowled a career-best 190 game, rolling a strike or spare on her first eight shots. That wasn’t even the highlight of her night. Her crowning moment came when she knocked down the scary 3-6-7-10 split – sliding the 3 pin across the lane to upend the 7. “I’m on a roll,” said Mary with a big smile, “and I’m not going back.”

Belmonte, a four-time winner in 2019, has won four previous ESPYs. During the 2019 Go Bowling! PBA Tour season, he has won the PBA Tournament of Champions and a second consecutive PBA World Championship for his 10th and 11th PBA Tour major titles, surpassing Earl Anthony and Pete Weber for first on the all-time majors titles list.

Just shy of his 55th birthday, Duke, a four-time ESPY winner, won the Go Bowling! PBA Indianapolis Open and the Go Bowling! PBA Jonesboro Open for his 39th and 40th tour titles, becoming the oldest player to win back-to-back tour titles. He joins all-time PBA Tour titles record-holder Walter Ray Williams Jr. (47) and Earl Anthony (43) as the third player ever to win 40 PBA Tour titles.

Butturff, a two-time winner so far in 2019, is looking for his first ESPY. He won the USBC Masters for his first PBA Tour major. He also was runner-up to Belmonte in the PBA World Championship.

Simonsen, who became the youngest player ever to win a major when he won the 2016 USBC Masters at age 19, became the youngest to win two majors when he captured the 2019 PBA Players Championship at age 22. He also is hoping for his first ESPY.

The ESPYS and related events benefit the V Foundation for Cancer Research in memory of the late Jim Valvano. You can help raise awareness of Jimmy V’s dream by sharing/retweeting his powerful speech, which will be shared by @ESPN (Facebook, Instagram and Twitter) as well as @ESPYS (Twitter) on July 10th.

JAKOB BUTTURFF, LIZ JOHNSON TOP 2019 WORLD BOWLING TOUR POINTS LISTS

Jakob Butturff of Tempe, Ariz., and Liz Johnson of Palatine, Ill., are the early men’s and women’s leaders in World Bowling Tour points in the races for three berths in the 2019 World Bowling Tour Men’s and Women’s Finals. The finals will take place for the first time in Kuwait at the conclusion of the World Bowling-PBA International Tour’s Kuwait Open, Oct. 31-Nov. 6.

Points are earned in designated World Bowling Tour events held around the world. Seven additional events are on the men’s schedule in 2019 while women have eight more events, including this week’s U.S. Women’s Open.

Butturff heads the men’s qualifying list with 1,080 points, followed by PBA Tour rookie Mykel Holliman of Collierville, Tenn. (636 points); defending WBT Men’s Finals winner Jason Belmonte of Australia (600); Mitch Hupé of Canada (468) and AJ Chapman of Manchester, Iowa (444).

The women’s top five are Johnson (1,224); Danielle McEwan of Stony Point, N.Y. (928); Tannya Roumimper of Indonesia (720); and Clara Guerrero of Colombia (696). Missy Parkin of Laguna Hills, Calif., and Dasha Kovalova of Ukraine are tied for fifth with 600 points each. month at the United States Bowling Congress Queens. "I tried to just be happy and smile and control what I could control because my heart (was pounding). There was so much going on in my mind, and I needed to get it all out.

"She threw two really good shots in the 10th, so she deserved it. I just need to believe that everything happens for a reason, and my day will come. It will. I just need to keep believing in that and one day, it will be mine."

McEwan's 229-225 semifinal win against Shannon O'Keefe of Shiloh, Illinois, shared the same excitement as the title tilt, with McEwan rolling three strikes in the final frame to advance.

O'Keefe, who was looking for her first win at the U.S. Women's Open after a pair of runner-up finishes, finished the semifinal with two strikes in the 10th frame, which forced McEwan to fill 27 pins to move to the title match.

O'Keefe won her first match Sunday, defeating defending U.S. Women's Open champion Liz Kuhlkin of Schenectady, New York, 233-192.

Kuhlkin, who defeated Shannon Sellens of Long Beach, New York, in the opening match of the stepladder, 213-183, was looking to become the fourth player to successfully defend a title at the event and 12th bowler to win the tournament multiple times.

All competitors bowled 24 qualifying games over three days to determine the 36 players advancing to a cashers' round. After eight additional games, the field was cut to the top 24 bowlers for round-robin match play.

The five finalists were determined by total pinfall, including bonus pins, for 56 games.

Each round of the 2019 U.S. Women's Open leading up to the stepladder finals was broadcast live at BowlTV.com.

PBA REGIONAL UPDATE: UMBRELLA ROLLS CLUTCH DOUBLE FOR FIRST PBA TITLE

• Corey Umbrello of Westminster, Mass. rolled a clutch double in the 10th frame to defeat Ryan Graywacz of Canastota, N.Y., 227-224, to win the PBA Homefield Bowl Eastern Open presented by MOTIV in Yonkers, N.Y., Sunday. Umbrello, who qualified first for the stepladder finals by 65 pins over Graywacz, opened in the ninth frame to give Graywacz an opportunity to close him out. But after throwing strikes in the ninth and 10th frames, Graywacz failed to throw the clinching third strike in a row and Umbrello then doubled to secure his first PBA title and the $3,000 first place prize.

Graywacz almost missed the stepladder finals, but defeated Michael Markis of Scranton, Pa., in a one-game roll-off, 206-176, to make it into the four-man finals. Graywacz, who also was looking for his first PBA title, then defeated Jonathan Van Hees of Charlestown, R.I., 213-190, and defending champion Anthony Pepe of Elmhurst, N.Y., 201-189, to advance to the championship match.

• John Janawicz of Winter Haven, Fla., defeated Kristijonas Sergejevas of Lithuania, 235-196, Sunday to win the fourth annual PBA Timmy See Memorial South Open presented by MOTIV at BreakPoint Alley in Tavares, Fla. Janawicz, a 2018 USBC Hall of Fame inductee, qualified in the top position for the stepladder finals with a 17-game pinfall total of 4,238, and easily won the championship match after starting with four strikes while Sergejevas opened in the third frame and failed to throw consecutive strikes until the eighth and ninth frames.

In the opening match Anthony DeStasio of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., defeated Shawn Naumann of Orlando, Fla., 248-235. Sergejevas then defeated DeStasio, 257-224, to advance to the final match.

Janawicz earned $2,300 for the win but doesn't get credit for a PBA title because he is not a PBA member.

• Heading into the 4th of July weekend, Bowl 10 Fairborn will host the PBA50 Fairborn Central Classic presented by Roto Grip Monday-Wednesday, July 1-3, in Fairborn, Ohio. Closing the extended holiday weekend July 5-7 will be the PBA50 Greater Freeport Midwest/Central Open at 4 Seasons Bowl in Freeport, Ill.; the Grand Casino Hotel & Resort Southwest Doubles presented by DV8 at FireLake Bowling Center in Shawnee, Okla., and the PBA/PBA50 Vanessa Brown Homes West Open doubleheader presented by Track at Yosemite Lanes in Modesto, Calif.

• For complete PBA Regional schedules, rules and entry information, visit pba.com, open the "schedules" tab and click on PBA Regional Tours to find the event(s) in your area...and remember, you can follow "live scoring" for all PBA Regional events on pba.com (easily accessible for Apple and Android device users using the PBA app).

QUICK NOTES

- How did PBA Hall of Famer Nelson Burton Jr. spend his 77th birthday on June 6? He bowled as a sub in the Wednesday Handicap Singles league at Stuart Bowl in Stuart, Fla., and rolled games of 279, 290 and 269 for an 838 series. He then added a 248 for a four-game series of 1,086 for a 271.5 average.

The Perfect Game: Albert (Allie) Brandt

by Steve Felege

On October 25, 1939, Allen’s Alleys in Lockport, NY became the center of the Bowling Universe as Albert “Allie” Brandt set a new world record for the highest score ever recorded in an ABC sanctioned event. Pummeling pins for scores of 297-289-300, his 886 series would stand as the epitome of bowling excellence until July 1, 1982.

Who was Allie Brandt? Born on December 14, 1902, he became “the man to beat” just shy of his 37th birthday. His record lasted for almost forty-three years. Was he just some guy who got lucky one night? Hardly. That series foreshadowed what the future held for this man. He would become a highly successful professional bowler with many accolades to his credit. Nicknamed, the “King of Bowling” by the locals, this 5’ 4” family man lived and loved this sport. The following is a brief resume of his bowling career.

- In 1946 & 47 he was named to the First Team All-American Bowling Team.
- In 1953, he built and operated “Allie Brandt Bowling Lanes”.
- In 1958, Brandt became a charter member of the PBA and served as the first treasurer on the Board of Governors until his death in 1982.
- In 1960, he was inducted into the ABC Hall of Fame.
- From 1975 - 77 he served as president of the ABC Hall of Fame.
- In 1976, he became a charter member of the Hall of Fame of both Lockport and Buffalo Bowling Associations.
- In 1980, he sold the center he built, but it still bears his name.
- In 1982, he became a charter member of the New York State Bowling Association Hall of Fame.
- Allie Brandt bowled in 49 ABC National Tournaments, his final one in Baltimore, at the age of 70. (He would have bowled in three more, but WW II got in the way.)
- On April 17, 1982, the world of bowling lost a giant when Allie Brandt passed away at the age of 79.

On the lanes, Allie was known as a “feisty” battler driven by a fierce determination to succeed. In 1946, his talent and stamina carried him to the final match of the 100-game ABC All Star Tournament. He finished second to another bowling legend, Andy Varipapa.

Away from the lanes, Allie was well known, well liked, and highly respected. He and his wife, Nina, were married for over 50 years and had two children, Albert Jr. and Anne; both still reside in Lockport. When I contacted Anne, she was gracious enough to share some of the memories she has of her father. Here’s a sample of our conversation:

Steve: Anne, when your father rolled his epic series, you were five years old and your brother was eight. What was it like to know that your dad had just done something so special?

Anne: To us, it wasn’t really a big deal. Dad didn’t talk about it. It was just something that happened and life went on. He was a humble man. He wasn’t conceited about it and he never bragged about it.

Steve: What was your father like? Was he friendly? Demanding? Stern?

Anne: I wouldn’t say he was stern; he was fair-minded. He was also a gentleman. He was the type of man who felt that if you wanted something, you had to earn it; he worked every day. He didn’t talk much because he didn’t have to. He had icy blue eyes and whenever my brother or I got into trouble, we’d just get “the look.” That look said, “Come on! Toe the line!”

Steve: Did he ever talk about his friendships with any of the ABC officials or Board members?

Anne: No. Dad just wasn’t a talker. He was a very private man. He didn’t gossip or talk about his bowling. He was a “mans man,” whatever that means.

Steve: I think it means he had a certain set of principles that he lived by, and he didn’t much care what anyone else thought.

Anne: Yes, that pretty well describes my father.

Steve: Are you familiar with a man named Glenn Allison?

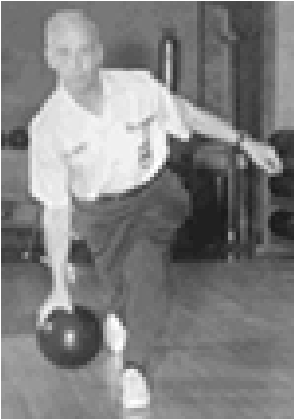

Anne: Yes, I’ve heard of him.

Steve: He was the man who beat your father’s record.

Anne: Yes, I know.

Steve: How do you think your father would have reacted to that?

Anne: My father was a real sportsman; a TRUE sportsman! He would have been the first to congratulate that man if he had been there!

One Final Note

On October 25, 1939, Allie Brandt made one bad shot. The twelfth ball he delivered in his first game resulted in a seven-count. He must have been furious with himself and probably wished he could take that one shot over.

The same thing almost took place for Glenn Allison. In the tenth frame of the last game, his first ball went too high on the headpin and almost left him with a 4-9 split. Had that happened, he would have regretted that delivery for the rest of his life; even a spare followed by a strike would have left him shy of the record. A few years ago, Glenn told me, “That 4-pin shouldn’t have fallen, but somehow it did.”

Why did that pin fall? Why did it fall so perfectly that it wobbled the 9-pin just enough to make it drop as well? Anne Litz said her father, “would have been the first to congratulate that man, if he had been there.” Who’s to say he wasn’t?

Albert Brandt and Glenn Allison had a lot in common. Brandt was a humble gentleman, Allison still is. Both possessed incredible talent and dedicated much of their lives to this sport. Both were fierce competitors, became champions, and attained Hall of Fame status.

Allie Brandt knew the day would come when his record would be broken. My bet is this: He would have been elated it was Glenn Allison who broke it.

Joseph DeLaTorre’s 849 is New Empire Bowl Standard

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS – EMPIRE BOWL had new lanes installed last fall and “everything is new again”. There wasn’t a “Grand Opening” but bowlers are experiencing what it’s like bowling on virgin lanes. It’s been 60 years in the coming for Redland’s bowlers to have that experience. Many bowlers never experience virgin lanes.

During the last five months of bowling on the new lanes, there have been a few honor scores but nothing spectacular, until now. A few league sessions ago Joseph DeLaTorre set a new house standard for three games on the new lanes, when he shot 849 (300 - 268 – 279). He had 31 strikes in 35 shots.

It is no surprise when Joseph scores big. He has been coaching for years and knows Bowling. His coaching experience has allowed him to develop a smooth simplified style, which is conducive to scoring.

Joseph is known as “Mr. MOTIV”. He always wears a MOTIV shirt, uses a MOTIV bowling bag and prefers MOTIV bowling balls. He used a MOTIV Golden Jackal ball to bowl his 849. MOTIV balls work for him because of there smooth, steady motion moving down lane. MOTIV bowling balls are made for Joseph’s bowling style.

“MR. MOTIV” is grateful to lady friend BRIDGETTE WHALEY for her continuous support and MARV SARGENT for drilling his bowling balls perfectly. He also appreciates the support of the bowlers from the Tuesday Golden Agers League. They applaud his high games and congratulate him whenever he wins a tournament.

Congratulations to Joseph. He is another example of why “CALIFORNIA BOWLERS ARE THE BEST BOWLERS IN THE WORLD”.

PBA World Series of Bowling XI Returns to Las Vegas in 2020

Fan-friendly South Point Bowling Plaza to host world's best bowlers for multi-event series March 6-18

LAS VEGAS – The Professional Bowlers Association’s World Series of Bowling XI will return to the South Point Bowling Plaza in 2020 for its traditional multi-event championship series, capped by the PBA World Championship.

The 11th anniversary World Series of Bowling, featuring the world’s best bowlers, will include the PBA Cheetah, Chameleon and Scorpion Championships as well as the PBA World Championship and the USA vs. The World team event to conclude five consecutive days of television coverage by FOX Sports.

All of the competition will be contested in the South Point Hotel Casino & Spa’s state-of-the-art 60-lane Bowling Plaza where FOX Sports will again televise the finals of each animal pattern championship and the PBA World Championship live on consecutive days, followed by the annual team event. PBA’s livestreaming partner, FloBowling, will provide live coverage of all preliminary rounds.

The 10th anniversary World Series was highlighted by Jason Belmonte’s second straight PBA World Championship victory and record 11th PBA major title. WSOB X, which returned to Thunderbowl Lanes in Allen Park, Michigan – the home of the inaugural World Series in 2009 – was watched by a cumulative audience of more than three million viewers on FOX Sports’ network of television and media outlets,.

South Point previously hosted the WSOB from 2010 through 2014. The WSOB VI finals were the first official competitions conducted in South Point’s new $30 million Bowling Plaza, a facility that is specifically designed for world-class tournaments in a fan-friendly environment.

WSOB XI will get underway on Saturday, March 6, with a Pre-Tournament Qualifier (PTQ) open to PBA members who have not earned exemptions into the tournament. Competition begins in earnest with qualifying rounds for the Cheetah, Chameleon and Scorpion Championships on March 8, 9 and 10, respectively. The Cheetah finals will air live on Sunday, March 15; the Chameleon finals live on Monday, March 16; the Scorpion finals live on Tuesday, March 17, and the PBA World Championship finals live on Wednesday.

FOX Sports’ coverage of the World Series program will conclude with the USA Vs. The World team match on Thursday, March 19, as the fifth consecutive day of coverage. Additional tournament scheduling information for WSOB XI and the 2020 Go Bowling! PBA Tour season will be announced soon.

1990 – PART 5

by Carol Mancini

Bowling in 1990 was huge! Every center was full with leagues from 9 a.m. to midnight, Junior leagues on Saturday and plenty of tournament action. Why and how? Because WOMEN were the league coordinators, Junior leaders, deskpersons, secretaries and hustlers! Sorry guys, BUT...tournament clubs were successful because of the men who owned them. What a force of male and female power! I think we will see a big change in coming months 1980-1990. Especially after the W.I.B.C/A.B.C merger. But more on that later on...you can count on it!

- A local rock band called, "Queen City Steal" had 4 members, and between them they had five 300 games and one 800. The drummer Paul Le Blanc was deskman at Sports Center Bowl.
- Bowl Incline was in need of a mechanic. Their ad ran a long time. Guess no one wanted to move to Lake Tahoe!
- The L.A.B.C. added six to their Hall of Fame. Mike Bonto, Milt Jenkins, Hobo Boothe, Ken Lowman, Connie Marchione and Roy Rogers. Yes! Roy Rodgers! He was an avid bowler, sponsor, and was very generous with his time and money!
- Earl Anthony produced a couple of videos. "Bowl to Win" and "Going For 300". If anyone still has a cassette player, I have the videos!
- Mission Hills Bowl had so many league bowlers that their house column took up 1/2 page...small type too!
- August 3...Front page smiles snapped; Garden Square Bowl manager Joe Roussin, David Perron, Sponsor Rep, and Jack Frost, winner of PBA Regional.
- John Handegard won back to back Senior Opens; Hammond and Battle Creek. He used to give "Handegard" t-shirts to all the pretty gals.
- Terry Winger was installed as L.A.B.A. President in 1980.
- Jim Brewer broke the 800 barrier; 250-276-278/804 at Sports Center.
- Hollywood Star Lanes had a 720 Scratch league. It was 30 years old.
- The B.P.A.A. has sponsored the National Family Bowling Tournament since 1975. $34,500 was paid out in 1980 in scholarship money.
- Ken Brown won back to back AST tourneys. A good thing? The bad thing! His average went over the AST max and he was OUT!
- Johnnie Englehart, as a LABA Director presented a lot of 300 rings to his fellow bowlers. (I think Johnnie got more than he gave away.)
- Betty Goulding had to stand on a chair to present Duane Brewster his winning Donkee Tour prize at Clark Center. She was a Mighty Manager!
- California's Elaine Hagin was elected WIBC Second V.P. There were more than 3,000 delegates at the convention.
- The Pacific Coast Pro Shop inside Canoga Park Bowl was operated by Ed Starzec and John Andolina.
- Billy Myers Jr won his first Scratch CJTC Crown. Lots of Junior action on the lanes and on the road.
- Vic Gasser was proprietor of San Marcos Lanes in Santa Barbara.
- A Senior "go-getter" Polly Fleisher organized "The Groupies" at Palm Springs Lanes. The idea was for handicapped people to get exercise and competition and meet others.
- Stacy Rider had a rough road at Rocky Mountain Bowl but came on late to pass the other WWPB gals and grabbed the trophy. Laurie Soto came in second. Other cashers Janine Ditch, Wendy Macpherson, and Kathy Susany.
- Cheryl and Jay Robinson were doing promotions and giving lessons at Hemet Bowl.
- Eric Forkel (Harry Grant's nephew) was a Champion (long lasting career) on a lot of stages. This time it was the PBA Regional. Do lefties have an advantage???
- Bullhead City Bowl opened....across the river from Laughlin, Nevada.
- Mark Baker finished fourth in Western Pro Open...traveled to Anaheim, bagged $520 and the victory in the 6 gamer at Linbrook. Not quite what "The Tour" pays!
- Young Pete Weber won his 13th title in Green Bay, banking $20,000.
- Jesus Joven won the NBAC at Granada. How could he lose? Nobody wants to beat Jesus!
- Lila Bornhausen- NBAC founder- ran a tight ship. She was tough, tight, honest and fair. Very successful.
- Maple Lanes in Garden Grove made the Channel 7 news when it burned down. The lanes were down the street from Champion Lanes. Never rebuilt.
- So Calif locals scored GOOD in Cal-State Masters. Remember? Jeff Carr, Richard Roy, Mick Prulhiere, Eddie Katz, Dell Donoho, Tom Zuber...Scores? Only they remember!
- Paula Vidad rolled the high series of the Women's State Tournament in Stockton-778. 2817 ladies rolled a 200+ game. 19 All spare games and 2 Dutch 200's were awarded pins. Remember the chicken feed cans? Small change added up to $4,301 for charity.
- Dick Stoeffler's "Mountain Time" column was always filled with provoking thoughts, timely subjects and intriguing interviews. He and Bill Taylor could fill a volume!!
- Pinky's was the newest center in Moreno Valley. Formerly opened as Cadillac Bowl, Pinky kept the FRONT END OF A PINK CADILLAC in the bar! Looked like it crashed through the wall.
- Bill Stempke's Pro Shop was inside Mission Hills Bowl. Cobra balls were the fad in 1990. What came next?
- More about Maple Lanes. It was the last of the all-maple lanes- all 8 of them. It burned totally to the ground! End of a historical landmark.
- Twenty-two centers reported the results of their week-end tournaments. That's not including Juniors, Blue Chip, etc. (What action does YOUR center offer in 2019???) A birthday party?
- Randy Cornmesser won his first A.B.T. at Leatherneck Lanes in San Diego. Bet that's one bowl you never heard of.
- Mary Lynly was elected President of Cal. Womens Bowling Ass'n. She held all offices on her way to the top. Name a job or position...she's done it all! A smiling tornado! She knew how to "get'er done!" Thanks Mary, you are STILL an inspiration to us in 2019.
- The "Showboat" got more slots, more rooms, more parking...but couldn't accomodate more lanes. Wouldn't be long before the ShowBoat would sail away.

We made it through August! Summer leagues over and the Winter season starts. We will tip-toe through the pages, pick out some fun stuff and peak into the past. Come along!

CAL BOWL BOWLING REPORT

by Heather Dawson

2500 E. Carson St., Lakewood, CA 90712 • (562) 421-8448

LAKEWOOD — Bowling is like dating...a smooth approach and a great follow through produce great rewards. Just a random thought for the day...

Pin Heads: The Browns (Bruce and Ashley) are on top of the leader board this week. Bruce toting a 576 to the top, and Ashley right behind with her 558. Alan Salg 214/497, Damon Flewelen 210-197/553, Bruce Brown 202-191/576, Chuck Appleberry 191-188/557, Ashley Brown 223-211/558, Diane Robles 194/489, Linda Maldonado 191/473, Stacy Kelly 190-189/533.

Funsters: Rollin'-Rollin'-Rollin'- They keep the balls a Rollin'- Rey Santos 622, Vic Santos 620, Randy Antazo 611, Leona Belletti 522, Odette Dalton 521, Beth Austria 510, Chris Abing 266, Dan Monzon 226, Jim Plante 216, Roland Sanchez 216, Lanore Knudson 203, Divina Buhay 190, Tua Sula 189.

Sierra Bugs: These "Lady Bugs" always light up the lanes on Wednesday; some with their bowling, some with their smiles. Chrstine Ewaskey 201-192/543, Connie Wood 190/504, Janet Reece 185-169/496, Linda Maldonado 185-168/480, Ginny Lindsay 180, Donna Yeske 179/492, Becky Salcedo 172/475, Rose Belton 171, Kay Lockhart 169/455.

Recycled Teens: This Senior league has bowlers from 123 average to 223. Amazing! The subs out-scored the regulars this week...oops!!! Willie Burkhalter 235/583, Chris Abing 233-225/659, Jorge Fernandez 224/610, Boylee Inocente 218/569, Rick Seneris 218-214/583, Joe DeJesus 212/550, Adela Santos 245/600, Joanne Burke 206/506, Lu Anthony 203-200/583, Vancie Keith 193/479, Dorothy Ruggiero 184/499.

Grandmas/Grandpas: The best part of this league?? The bowlers!!! No Complaining. Just fun to be here...or ANY where. Stan Murren 256-222/647, Paul Morrison Jr 212/523, Chris VanDeven 211-177/546, Willie Burkhalter 210-187/560, Walter Milsap 203/549, Larry Cosgrove 192/501, Al Romero 186, Rinze Dykstra 174-172/506, Roycie Murren 184-178/511, Betty Green 182-174/492, Joanne Burke 177-174/520, Elena VanDeven 172, Dorothy Ruggiero 171/466, JoAnne Mount 169/478, Donna May 167/468.

Young at Heart: Heart is what these bowlers have. And the love of the game. Some have been league bowlers for over 50 years. A couple are even "Hall of Famers." "Winning never grows old." (Who always said that??) Walter Milsap 228-209/581, Bob Sneed 211/565, Jimmy Hamilton 205/557, Clarence Williams 203/521, Ron McClain Sr 202/555, Rich Sharp 201/567, Eillis Houston 195/511, Josh Hudson 194/558, Carla Dean 194/485, Dee Phipps 184-176/509, Wilma Johnson 181/455, Myra Kremen 168-168/502, Daisy McGhee 168/460.

Cal Bowleros: Team #1 needs a name! Come on Nene, Jessica, Carolyn, Put on your thinking caps! Renee Johnson Scott 661, Bheth Alcayde 536, Carolyn Rousseau 491, Carol Hovis 212, Carole Fischer 191, Janet Majick 183, Susan Garcia 183.

C.A.U.L: Blayke Miller rolled an even 700 chalking up a 266 and 230 on the way. Virginia Hall topped the "gals" column 200-174/495. The "BOWLBARAINS" is an unusual team name. Catchy, and would look good on the winners' trophy. Blayke Miller 266-230/700, David Regul 247/610, Darrel Linderman 235-223/627, Nori Ito 228/630, Derek Spann 223/589, Virginia Hall 200-174/495, Susan Dorwin 177/457, Lori Gilmore 169/468, Teri Friend 166-165/470.

DIAMOND BAR — We have started a monthly business card drawing. This month all you have to do is drop your business card in the fishbowl at the desk. At the end of each month, we will draw a card for a FREE 2 lane party.

We want to THANK all those that came out on Saturday and helped our Youth Bowlers by donating items or purchasing items at their rummage sale. They raised $232.52. You can always purchase gift cards from them. They have some on hand and others that can be ordered. This is an ongoing fundraiser they do year-round.

This Sunday June 30, 2019 at Oak Tree Lanes there will be a USA Coaching Class Level 1 from 10 am to 1 pm being put on by the USBC and Annette Anderson will be teaching it for all those that want to help your local Youth Bowling Programs as volunteer coach this is a great start and it's free.
