Historic bowling industry partnership begins with GEICO PBA Worll Series of Bowling IV

NASHVILLE, Tenn. In a landmark partnership between bowling organizations, the Professional Bowlers Association and Bowling Proprietors' Association of America have announced that GoBowling. com will be the umbrella sponsor of the Go Bowling! PBA Tour between December 2017 and July 2018, with an option to renew for an additional year.

The partnership was announced by BPAA Executive Director Frank DeSocio, BPAA President Nancy Schenk and PBA CEO and Commissioner Tom Clark during International Bowl

Expo in Nashville, Tenn. As part of the partnership agreement, The Go Bowling! PBA Tour will be showcased on 18 ESPN telecasts, beginning with programming from the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling IV in Reno in December, and extending through July 2018 to include five CBS Sports Network telecasts. Additionally, The Go Bowling! PBA Tour will have a significant presence on at least eight PBA Xtra Frame Tour events in 2018, all of which will be live-streamed ex clusively via PBA's online

IIIJOHISON WIINS 2017 CO BOWIING PWBAP PLIVERS CHAMPOOSSHIP

GREEN BAY, Wis. United States Bowling Congress Hall of Famer Liz Johnson of Deerfield, Illinois, once again confirmed her dominance on the Professional Women's Bowling Association Tour by climbing the stepladder to win the 2017 Go Bowling PWBA Players Championship.
The 43 -year-old righthander opened the championship match Sunday at The Ashwaubenon Bowling Alley with six consecutive spares before striking on five of her last six shots to outdistance top seed Kelly Kulick of Union, New Jersey, 228-205.

The $$ 20,000$ win mark ed the ninth major victory of Johnson's career and fourth since the return of the PWBA Tour in 2015. It also was the second time she's hoisted the trophy at the PWBA Players Championship (2001) and her second major win at The Ashwaubenon Bowling Alley, where she won the USBC Queens in 2015.

PBA International-World Bowling Tour points lists at the end of the PBA World Championship in Reno, will be held following the PBA World Championship stepladder finals at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno on Sunday, Nov. 19. WBT points events yet to be contested include next week's PBA Oklahoma Open, the Sweden WBT in Malmo, Sweden, Aug. 1428, and the Thailand WBT in Bangkok, Sept.30-Oct.

Construction of a new Kuwait Bowling Center in Kuwait City has been delayed, forcing World Bowling to move its Men's World Championship to the South Point Bowling Plaza in Las Vegas, Nov. 24-Dec. 4, following PBA's WSOB IX in Reno. The Kuwait issue also led to the cancellation of WBT events in Bahrain and Saudi Arabia. World Bowling has awarded the 2021 World Championships to Kuwait.

Tackett, Belmonte to Meet in Main Event PBA Tour Finals Title Match

PBA's leading money winners, Players of the Year to hattle for inaugural title

ORLANDO, Fla. - EJ Tackett of Huntington, Ind., dominated the Group Two finals match against Tommy Jones of Simpsonville, S.C., setting up a showdown with Australia's Jason Belmonte to decide the title in the inaugural Main Event PBA Tour Finals at Main Event Entertainment.

Tackett, PBA's reigning Player of the Year and a seven-time PBA Tour title winner at age 24, soundly defeated Jones in a two-game, total pinfall match, 470-396, to advance to the championship match along with Belmonte, who eliminated Sweden's 22 -year-old Jesper Svensson, 482-479, in the Group One final match.

The Main Event PBA Tour Finals is a new event featuring the top eight PBA members in total earnings over the past 30 months, divided into two pods of four players for a combination of round-robin match play and stepladder matches. Belmonte earned his place in the elite field of eight by leading all PBA players in total earnings over the past two-and-a-half years with $$ 352,967$ while Tackett was second with $$ 319,690$.

While Belmonte had to dispatch three opponents, including Svensson, to win the Group One berth in the finals, Tackett only had to beat one player, but Jones appeared poised to pull off the same kind of upset Belmonte accomplished. After struggling through the four-game match play portion of the event, Jones came into the Group Two stepladder round as the no. 4 qualifier. In the opening match, Jones nipped no. 3 Dom Barrett of England, 214-212, when Barrett left the 4-7-10 split in the 10th frame for his only mistake in the match.

Fueled by his good fortune in match one, Jones was nearly perfect in the semifinal match against no. 2 qualifier Ryan Ciminelli of Cheektowaga, N.Y., winning, 290-248. Jones' only flaw was leaving a 10 pin in the first frame, which he converted.

It looked like Jones was going to continue his torrid pace against Tackett in the two-game final match, striking on four of his first five shots to take a 31 -pin lead after five frames. But then he missed a 10 pin in the sixth frame and failed to convert the 3-4-6-7 split in the sixth. Tackett missed a 4 pin in his fourth frame, but then threw six consecutive strikes to erase his deficit and take a 26 -pin lead after game one, 236-210.

Tackett then blew the match open, starting game two with four strikes while Jones couldn't solve the changing lane conditions. Two big splits resulted in open frames for Jones and Tackett rolled to a 234-186 win to lock up his berth in the Main Event PBA Tour Finals championship match, where he'll face an adversary he has yet to beat in a national-ly-televised title match.
"I bowled a good game against Ryan (Ciminelli) and then EJ broke the lanes down a little different," Jones said. "His rev rate is so high and I moved right into his traffic, and from there I didn't make very good choices."
"We both had our struggles but I was able to figure it out a little better than Tommy. That's the way it is sometimes," Tackett said. "I wound up playing a little deeper than him - maybe just a board or two - but it was enough to make him start guessing a little bit. A couple of shots got a little high, but at that point it was just a matter of making better shots."

Belmonte, a nine-year PBA Tour veteran at age 33, was PBA Player of the Year three straight years before Tackett ended his streak in 2016. The Australian two-handed star owns 14 PBA Tour titles including eight majors. One of the majors was the 2014 USBC Masters when he defeated the top-seeded Tackett in the title match. Belmonte also defeated Tackett, the no. 1 qualifier, in the 2014 Oklahoma Open title match.Going into the Main Event title match, Belmonte and Tackett have each won two titles in 2017. In addition to a $$ 30,000$ first prize, one of the two will become the PBA Tour's first three-title winner in 2017 and take an early edge in the PBA Player of the Year race heading into the second half of season.

Belmonte, Australia's two-handed star, is hoping for his third consecutive ESPY Award and fourth overall. After a strong season without winning a title in 2016, Belmonte reasserted his dominance in PBA Tour major championships early in 2017, winning a record fourth USBC Masters title and the Barbasol PBA Players Championship to bring his total to eight career majors. His 2016 season included five top-five finishes in the second half of 2016 including a fourth-place finish in the PBA World Championship.

Tackett was the dominant player in the second half of 2016, highlighted by his first major in the PBA World Championship. He continued his hot streak into 2017, winning his second major title in the 2017 FireLake PBA Tournament of Champions after capturing the DHC Japan Invitational title.
In 2016 Lavoie became the first Canadian to earn Rookie of the Year honors and the second Canadian to win a PBA Tour title. The Quebec City native not only won Bowling's U.S. Open, but became the first player in the tournament's history to bowl a nationally-televised 300 on his way to the win. He captured his second title in the 2016 PBA Shark Open, and his third early in 2017 in the PBA Xtra Frame Greater Jonesboro Open. # Harlevs'salaley Bow Bining Home the Winner in Tournament of Champions

SIMI VALLEY - It's called the Tournament of Champions and there's a reason for that. Each team that competed in the second annual event had won a league title at one of four bowling centers: Harley's Camarillo Bowl, Harley's Simi Bowl, Harley's Valley Bowl in Simi Valley and Corbin Bowl in Tarzana

Prize money totaling more than $$ 23,000$ lured 200 bowlers (or 40 teams) from the four centers to the tournament championships June 10 at Harley's Valley Bowl.

Each team bowled three games with the high handicap score determining the winner
Tony Jaraski, Floyd Jaraski, Jennifer Jaraski, Jim Gibbons and Jimmy Jaraski, representing Harley's Valley Bowl, took advantage of their home lanes by winning the title, which wasn't decided until the final frame of the final game.
"We were honored to be able to bowl in the Tournament of Champions against 40 of the top teams in the area," Jennifer Jaraski said. "The whole tournament was an amazing experience for us, from the way the tournament was run, the fun Strike-It-Rich side pots and the new friends we made on the other teams.
"We never imagined we would win the tournament, but are so honored to have won it on our home bowling center and cannot wait to be back again next year

The four Jaraskis and Gibbons, who bowled in the Miller Western Funtime league, finished with a score of 3,922 and won $$ 1,000$

That edged the second-place team of Larry Roveti, Margaret Knuth, Eldon Knuth, Paul Alderette, and John Fritch, which finished with a score of 3,877 and won $$ 800$. The foursome was

JOE GOLDSTEIN- CALIFORNIIS Ton Bowler at Senior US OPEN

by Frank Weiler
LAS VEGAS - Joe Goldstein (from San Bruno) was the top finisher from California at last week's PBA Senior US OPEN.
After so-so results at the Senior Masters the week before, Joe amped up his game last week at the Sun Coast while competing in the Senior US OPEN.
Goldstein started slow and after the first day of qualifying he was in seventy-seventh place, BUT was only about thirty pins below the cut line.
After the second day of qualifying (12 games) Joe moved up to thirty-fifth place on the strength of a six game block averaging 216. Then on the third and final day of qualifying he had one of the best bowling days of his life.
On day three Joe rolled a six game set of 1,421 (236 average) It was one of the highest scoring blocks of the tournament and vaulted him into 7 th place. The field of 167 bowlers was then cut to the Top 40 for the first round of Match Play.
After twelve games of Match Play the field was cut again, the Top 20 advancing to the second round of Match Play. Joe missed the second cut by just seventy-three pins (including Match Play bonus pins) after thirty games. That is just a tad over two pins per game! Joe finished in 25th place and earned $$ 1,350$. His twenty-fifth place finish was tops by a CALIFORNIA bowler Congratulations Joe, you make your fellow Californians proud.
representing the Jet Set Seniors league at Harley's Simi Bowl.
"It was great to have all the champions from each of our centers come to compete under one roof," said Ronald Plander, the owner of the four bowling centers and the tournament brainchild.
"I heard nothing but compliments about how much fun everyone had."

Tyler Baker, representing Corbin Bowl, won the men's singles title by firing a 747 scratch ( 825 with handicap). He earned $$ 160$.
Robin Loehr, representing Harley's Simi Bowl, captured the women's singles championship with a final score of 836 (521 scratch). She won $$ 160$. The tournament was free for all participants, all of whom cashed. By virtue of winning the tournament title, the Jaraskis-Gibbons team also will be paid its league fees for next season. The prize money was raised through fund-raisers and raffles plus a $$ 2,500$ donation from the four bowling centers. Complete results are at www.harleysbowl.com.

Two hundred bowlers from 40 teams competed in the Tournament of Champions on June 10 at Harley's Valley Bowl in Simi Valley. Teams came from four bowling houses: Harley's Camarillo Bowl, Harley's Simi Bowl, Harley's Valley Bowl in Simi Valley and Corbin Bowl in Tarzana.

Sam Levine Flowers for the Living

$55^{\text {th }}$ Flowers Award Winner is Pat Ciniello

Pat Ciniello, Bonita Springs Florida is the winner of one of Bowling's most prestigious honors, the Sam Levine Flowers for the Living Award, sponsored by International Bowling Industry Magazine. The award has been given to outstanding people in bowling since 1961.

Ciniello and his wife Lisa own and operate one of the most successful bowling center companies in the world Bowland Centers of Southwest Florida, but Pat has taken his career in bowling to even greater heights by serving as Chairman of the Board of QubicaAMF, by leading the International Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum for many years during which he was instrumental in moving the facility from St. Louis to Texas to become a part of the International Bowling Campus, and by serving on numerous BPAA committees, and state and local boards and projects for decades.
"I cannot think of anyone in bowling with more integrity than Pat Ciniello," said Flowers Award committee member Cathy DeSocio. "Pat may be the busiest man in bowling, but his calm demeanor makes it all look easy. He has a long history of doing things the right way and making friends across the globe. His honest and cheerful approach to business and life is what makes us proud to present him with this honor."

Ciniello seems to have endless energy, and his love and enthusiasm for the bowling business and the sport of bowling is second to none. As IBMHF Chairman, he not only helped build the new museum, but he also established a committee to create the Hall of Fame Xtravaganza, a fund raising event that has sold out every year since its inception in 2012, raising significant money for the museum and hall of fame.

In 2014 and 2015, Ciniello got into the Family Entertainment Center side of the business by re-building a center in Cape Coral and building an all new state-of-the-art center in Fort Myers. The two FEC's are named Headpinz. In Fort Myers, Ciniello incorporate his love for bowling history by putting in four old time bowling alleys - called Pinboyz Bowling Alleys. This section of the center transports guests back in time to 1908 when bowling was a much simpler game, with wood lanes, no automatic pinsetters, above ground ball returns. Employees working the special parties in this area wear 1908 costumes and provide old fashioned hospitality to guests who bowl and get a history lesson at the same time.

For many years, Ciniello has provided hands on support for the QubicaAMF World Cup Tournament, for the International Family Tournament, and the new Hall of Fame Xtravaganza Event, giving his time, and often providing his own financial support to make them as successful as possible.

Ciniello bowled in college at Monmouth University, and in 2014, donated a four lane bowling center to his alma mater. Many send checks to support their former schools; but Ciniello took it a step beyond by providing a facility that will be enjoyed by Monmouth's bowling teams and thousands of students for years to come.

The Sam Levine Flowers for the Living Award is perhaps bowling's most unique honor in that it does not belong to any particular organization. It is operated by an independent group of industry veterans from all corners of the business. It was started in 1961 by Levine and a group of his fellow newspapermen who thought that good people deserve recognition not for spectacular accomplishments, but just for having integrity, honesty, and doing things the right way for the right reasons. They were struck by the thought that great things are said after a person is gone, but why not while they are still living? The award was inspired by a poem called Flowers for the Living written by original committee member Fritz Howell. Howell was a writer and editor for the Associated Press of Ohio.

Flowers for the Living

By Frity Howell
It seems that when a fellow dies, no matter what he's been, A saintly chap or one whose life was darkly steeped in sin That folks forget the bitter words they spoke but yesterday And seem to find a multitude of pretty things to say.
And mamybe when I go to rest, someone will bring to light Some kindly word or goodly act, long buried out of sight, But if it's all the same to you, just give to me instead, The bouquets while I'm living, and the knocking when l'm dead.
Don 't save your kisses to imprint upon my noble brow,
While countless maledictions are hurled upon me now. Just say a kindly word to me, as I mourn here alone, And don 't save all your eulogy to carve upon a stone.
What do I care if, when I'm gone, the whole newspaper world Gives me a glowing write-up and the nation's flags are furled? Why, it won 't flatter me a bit, no matter what is said, So kindly throw your flowers now, and knock me when I'm dead.

It may be fine, when one is gone, to have folks talk so, And have the flowers come in loads from all the guys you know. It must be nice to have these things for those you leave behind But, so far as I'm concerned, I really will not mind.
I'm quite alive and well today, and while I linger here, Give me a helping hand at times, give me a word of cheer. Let's change the game a bit, just sorta swab the decks, For I will be no judge of flowers, when I cash in my checks.

181-178. This week's event was only the third tournament of the year for Boomershine, who had her first child, Aiden, in February and has been plagued by a knee injury

The 31-year-old right-hander, who had a runner-up finsh on the PWBA Tour in 2016, led by 10 pins at the halfway point Sunday against Johnson but opened twice in the back half of the game to give the two-time reigning PWBA Player of the Year the chance to steal the win.

Johnson started the day with five consecutive strikes before a 10 pin ended her run at perfection, but the string was enough to pull away from Malaysia's Siti Rahman on he way to a 227-212 victory.

Rahman, a 26 -year-old right-hander who was looking to become the first player from the talented Malaysian contingent to claim a PWBA Tour title this season, struck on three of her last four shots to keep the pressure on Johnon, but the hall of famer started her final frame with a trike to lock up the match.
"Just getting to the show this week meant a lot because it was so tough, and the shot took me out of my comfor zone," Johnson said. "Once I got comfortable, it was about making the shots, staying down and not over-throwing it Some shots weren't pretty, but they fell, and that's all that matters." After finishing 13th in the season-opening QubiaAMF PWBA Sonoma County Open, Johnson went on oo qualify for the championship round in six of the next seven events, including five in a row, which is one shy of he PWBA Tour record.

Johnson's run includes a win at the 2017 PWBA Storm Sacramento Open and a runner-up finish at the 2017 USBC Queens. Two of her championship-round appearances will come in the three TV shows being taped for delayed broadcast Sunday at The Ashwaubenon Bowling Alley.
The trio of tapings will include the finals of the PWBA Wichita Open, Pepsi PWBA Lincoln Open and PWBA Greater Detroit Open, scheduled to air on July 4, 11 and 18 , respectively.

Johnson qualified for the finals of the Wichita Open and incoln Open, where she'll meet Kulick in the opening match. Rahman also qualified for the Wichita Open as the second seed.

All 67 competitors at the 2017 Go Bowling PWBA Players Championship this week bowled 18 games of qualifying over two days to determine the 18 bowlers who dvanced to round-robin match play.
Total pinfall for 36 games, including 30 bonus pins for each win in match play, determined the four finalists for he live TV finals.

All rounds of competition leading up to the stepladder finals of the 2017 Go Bowling PWBA Players Champion ship were broadcast on Xtra Frame, the exclusive online bowling channel for the Professional Bowlers Association o subscribe to watch the action on Xtra Frame, visit Xtrarame.TV

Rookie Mat Sanders Wins PBA Xtra Frame Billy Haritwich Memorial Open Ior First PBA Title

New York veeteran Brian LeClairfalls shoortin hidifor ifist PBA Tour tille

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - Matt Sanders, a 23 -year-old rookie from Evansville, Ind., bowling in his third national tournament as a member, defeated Brian LeClair of Delmar, N.Y., 243-237, to win the Professional Bowlers Association's Xtra Frame Billy Hardwick Memorial Open presented by Chris Hardwick at Billy Hardwick's All Star Lanes

Sanders, who had his best PBA finish a week ago when he lost to Craig Nidiffer of Trenton, Mich., 279-268, in the PBA Greater Marion Central Open title match in Marion, Ohio. The former two-time All-American with Marion University-Indiana earned $$ 10,000$ - enough to finance his tour activities for the rest of the 2017 season - along with his first title
"That was my first plastic ball tournament so, so far so good," he said with a smile. "I had an okay day in qualifying, but I think I figured the lanes out going into today and today I got locked in.
"I was extremely nervous before we started the title match, but I told myself I've done this a few times before, so after we got started, there was no reason to be nervous. I wanted to win.'

The loss was another disappointment for LeClair, a 33-year PBA member who has not won a PBA Tour title in 434 events. The 52 -year-old has won three times since joining the PBA50 Tour in 2015, but it hurt to have this one slip through his fingers.
"This may have been my last shot at a 'junior tour' title," LeClair said. "Bowling on the senior tour is the same in a lot of ways as it was earlier in my career. My life is a lot more stable, which helps, but it would be nice to have that one missing title."
Sanders earned his trip to the title match with a 253-223 victory over fellow rookie Francois Louw of South Africa. In his previous three-game total pinfall matches, Sanders eliminated top qualifier Kris Prather of Plainfield, Ill., 707-679; rookie Zulmazran Zulkifli of Malaysia, 632-602, and Trevor Roberts of Crystal River, Fla., 683-675

LeClair advanced to the title match with a 237-236 victory over Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, when Barnes' rally ended with a 4 pin on his first shot in the 10th frame. In his two preliminary matches, LeClair defeated Cody Shoemaker of Hanover, Pa., 656-584, and amateur Wesley Low Jr. of Palmdale, Calif., 641-624.

The PBA Xtra Frame Tour's next event will be the XF Striking Against Breast Cancer Mixed Doubles from Copperfield Bowl in Houston, Texas, July 28-30, which will award PBA and PWBA Tour titles. For Xtra Frame subscriptions, visit xtraframe.tv
PBA XTRA FRAME BILLY HARDWICK MEMORIAL OPEN presented by Chris Hardwick
Billy Hardwick's All Star Lanes, Memphis, Tenn., Sunday
Championship: Matt Sanders, Evansville, Ind. $($ 10,000)$ def. Brian LeClair, Delmar, N.Y. $($ 5,500)$, 243-237 Semifinal Round (losers earned $2,500):
Sanders def. Francois Louw, South Africa, 253-223. LeClair def. Chris Barnes, Double Oak, Texas, 237-236.

Kelly Kulich Victorious in PWBA Fountain Valley Open

BATON ROUGE, La. Kelly Kulick of Union, N.J., captured her first Professional Women's Bowling Association title since the relaunch of the PWBA Tour by winning the 2017 PWBA Fountain Valley Open.

Kulick, a six-time major champion and the event's top seed, defeated rookie of the year candidate Verity Crawley of England, 224218 , in the title match.

The moment was almost more of the same for Ku-lick as she traded strings of strikes with Crawley late in the championship match, and had a chance to shut out Crawley in the final frame. But Kulick spared in the 10th, followed with a strike on the final offering, to leave Crawley with the opportunity to win her first career title. Needing a double in the 10th frame to secure a victory, Crawley left a 3-6-10 on the first shot to give Kulick her first title in 11 championship-round appearances of PWBA events since 2015.

Amidst personal and physical trials during the last two seasons, Kulick still was able to put herself in position for a title but had been unable to find the winner's circle. She battled an ankle injury during the second half of last season, and endured the death of her mother, too. Words simply couldn't describe the feeling for Kulick after climbing a mountain to what was such an elusive victory.
"I'm speechless," Kulick said. "Words can't describe it because she (Crawley) had a chance to shut me out and I caught some really good breaks. It's not a hump I got over, it was a mountain. I give myself credit for making so many shows and being one of the consistent players out here on tour. Everyone looks at wins, and even though I didn't win, I still considered myself a winner because I

I grinded out today, didn’t make quality shots but I left makeable spares. It was a win for myself and it was a win for my family because of the emotional things we've been going through and having to deal with life itself. So, it was win for the Kulick family today.
Crawley, the No. 2 seed, advanced to the title match when she struck seven consecutive times en route to defeating No. 3 seed and reigning back-to-back PWBA Player of the Year Liz Johnson of Deerfield, Illinois, 241-211. Johnson was looking for consecutive titles after winning the PWBA Storm Sacramento Open last week.

Johnson opened the broadcast by defeating Singapore's Cherie Tan, 275-258. The high-scoring affair featured a combined total of 19 strikes.

All qualifying and match-play rounds of the PWBA Fountain Valley Open were held at Fountain Bowl in Fountain Valley, California, on May 12-13. The stepladder finals were held May 23 at the Raising Cane's River Center in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, in conjunction with the USBC County Open and PWBA Storm Sacramento Open.

Go Bowling PBA Tour

bowling channel

"This partnership gives GoBowling.com a full-year marketing platform to talk to bowlers and non-bowlers through the PBA Tour," DeSocio said. "The more people who go bowling, the more we all benefit," Schenk added. "That's what we're looking to achieve."
GoBowling.com, created by BPAA as the go-to website for millions of Americans looking for a place to go bowling, has been recently revamped to provide an even stronger connection between bowlers young and old, novice or professional, worldwide, providing news, tips, videos, contests and promotional offers as well as the sport's most comprehensive guide to help people find information about more than 1,800 BPAA-member bowling centers across America.
"Working together with GoBowling.com, Strike Ten Entertainment and BPAA bowling centers to promote the PBA is great for the game and illustrates positive bowling industry unity," Clark said. "We appreciate BPAA Executive Director Frank DeSocio, BPAA President Nancy Schenk and the entire board's shared vision that investing in the PBA and promoting the sport together will make for a spectacular year.
"The PBA is experiencing an electrifying surge of young talent while the greats of the game continue to contend from event to event, making for interesting events and historic accomplishments on the lanes, Clark added. "We can't wait to get started."
As part of the partnership, the Go Bowling! message will receive a wide variety of additional benefits, including:

- Commercial spots, billboards and signage during PBA telecasts and on all Xtra Frame events;
- Title sponsorship for two PBA Tour events to be determined, plus presenting sponsorship of the 2018 Chris Paul CP3 Celebrity Invitational;
- Sponsorship of a PBA League team;
- Logo identification on six top PBA Tour players
- Introduction of a new Go Bowling! fan engagement segment during each telecast;
- Extensive exposure to mainstream news media and PBA's global social media audience through all aspects of the PBA Network
Another special benefit will be subscriptions to PBA's Xtra Frame online video subscription service to any BPAA-member bowling center that requests a subscription, courtesy of Strike Ten Entertainment. The pre-paid subscriptions will allow participating bowling centers to provide their customers with hundreds of hours of exclusive programming, including preliminary rounds of all PBA and PWBA Tour events, start-to-finish coverage of the PBA50 Tour and PBA Xtra Frame Tour tournaments, and much more. At BPAA's option, the Go Bowling! PBA Tour program may be renewed for an additional year.
