Bill O'Neill Caps Oklahoma's Grand Casino Hotel & Resort PBA Summer Swing With King of the Swing Victory

O'Neill successfully defends King of the Swing title with 191-164 win over Tommy Jones in championship match

SHAWNEE, OK – In what could be considered the all-star event of the 2015 Oklahoma's Grand Casino Hotel & Resort PBA Summer Swing, Bill O'Neill of Langhorne, Pa., beat Tommy Jones of Simpsonville, S.C., 191-164, to successfully defend his Oklahoma's Grand Casino Resort King of the Swing title at the Grand Event Center.

The concluding event of the Summer Swing, which aired Tuesday on the CBS Sports Network, provided a unique challenge, requiring the finalists to compete on a dramatically different lane condition on each lane. The special two-lane arena installation in the Grand Event Center featured the 32-foot Wolf lane condition on the left lane and the 52-foot Badger lane condition on the right lane, putting a premium on adjustments, shot-making and equipment selections for the players.

"I enjoy dueling lane conditions," said O'Neill, who won the Oklahoma Open to earn his spot in the special event, a non-PBA title finale to the Summer Swing. "You have to use all the tricks in the bag,

In this case it turned out to be a grind out, but I enjoyed the test."

In winning last year's King of the Swing, O'Neill defeated Sean Rash, 254-181, for the title.

"The trophies will make good bookends," said O'Neill, who also finished third in the Bear and Wolf Opens earlier in the Summer Swing. "I might have let a couple opportunities get away from me this year but in the end I can go to sleep happy after winning the Oklahoma Open and the King of the Swing."

Leading up to the title match, two-time defending PBA Player of the Year Jason Belmonte of Australia defeated Wolf Open winner Kyle Troup of Taylorsville, N.C., 201-182, in a battle between a pair of two-handers to start the finals. Belmonte, who earned the wild card spot in the King of the Swing as the top point-getter in the Summer Swing without a title, then lost to Badger Open winner Ronnie Russell of Marion, Ind., in the second match, 233-211. Jones, the Bear Open winner, then defeated Russell, 208-178, to meet O'Neill in the title match.

Xtra Frame, the PBA's on-line video subscription service, features a preview and post-game show for all CBS Sports Network telecasts of Summer Swing events. PBA fans can find additional coverage of Summer Swing action through the PBA Network which includes archived coverage of all preliminary rounds on Xtra Frame, player interactions through Facebook and Twitter, mobile gaming, original programming, archived events and immediate news updates 24/7 on varying communications devices anywhere in the world. For additional PBA Network information, visit <http://www.pba.com/PBANetwork>.

CBS Sports Network is available across the country through local cable, video and telco providers and via satellite on DirecTV Channel 221 and Dish Network Channel 158. For more information, including a full programming schedule and how to get CBS Sports Network, go to www.cbssportsnetwork.com.

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege

Editor’s note: Six weeks ago, Steve misplaced an email from “Gene”. It was important for three reasons; it brought to light the facts that bowling is worldwide, that it faces problems in other countries as well as ours, and that, in at least one of those countries, action is being taken. My apologies to Gene for the delay in responding. Here is the content of that email:

‘Have you and Steve heard of P-league. It’s a Japanese TV show. I’ve thought something similar could be created that might become a popular TV show and create interest in bowling. I’m sure a lot of young girls who watch P-league are inspired to be participants. Let me know what you think.’

Well, you asked for my thoughts and here they are:

Prior to your inquiry I had never heard of P-League and assume many of our readers hadn’t either. Research revealed some interesting data. Bowling in Japan mimics our own experience; wildly popular in the 70’s with popularity declining since the 90’s. P-League is a TV show introduced in 2006 to restore that popularity. It’s a series of tournaments featuring professional-level female Japanese bowlers who are some of the best in the world. The concept has worked, but to what extent I cannot say.

The televised show is reminiscent of the programming from ABC’s “Wide World of Sports”. In my humble opinion, it is extremely well done. The bowlers are classy; the format entertaining to the point of being inspirational. Those ladies are good, but would such a show be popular here?

I honestly believe it would be, after all, we are in an era of recycling everything including ideas. Remakes of movies and TV series have been in vogue for years and the professional bowlers have always been a big audience draw.

But our culture is different from Japan’s and has morphed considerably since the 70’s. Understanding that would be the key to developing a popular/successful program today. With the creative talent available in California, I’m certain a winner is more than just possible. I have a few suggestions:

- Keep the show clean and classy.
- Keep the action moving. Today’s youth aren’t known for their attention spans; nor am I! Shots of bowlers wiping off their shoes or bowling balls are a boring waste of time. When onebowler is finished, the other should be ready to go.
- People who don’t bowl, don’t watch bowling. Success might require a format that would attract non-bowlers without alienating those who do participate (“reality” genre comes to mind).
- Inject some levity. Humor is always a big draw as is the drama bowling provides. Too much of either eventually wears viewers down.
- No matter what format you have in mind or which demographic you aim for, if it promotes bowling in a positive light, it will inspire others to participate. Count on the California Bowling News to support your efforts.

Thank you for taking the time and effort to bring P-League to our attention.

One-Year Anniversary of a Memorable Bowling Duel

by Fred Eisenhammer

One year ago, one of the most spellbinding duels in bowling was staged. Bowling fans who tuned into CBS Sports Network to watch the championship match of the Professional Bowlers Assn. Tour’s Badger Open in Shawnee, Okla., were handsomely rewarded. Bill O’Neill and Brian Valenta staged a spirited battle that wasn’t settled until the final frame. O’Neill, then 32, entered the match with four PBA Tour titles. Valenta, then 29, had none. It was difficult not to root for Valenta, the decided underdog who looked the part with a heavysset appearance and an unconventional and somewhat ragged delivery. This was Valenta’s first PBA Tour television appearance and he had personality, sparkle and freshness. Valenta, a two-handed bowler, lofted each of his strike balls at least 10 feet down the lane. He went with a straightforward, straight-line approach with his spare ball. Valenta was enthusiastic throughout the match, gesturing freely when the pin action was especially kind to him – which seemed most of the time. Valenta’s style was in marked contrast to the smooth delivery of O’Neill, whose hooks were slight but laser-guided to the pocket. And yet, the right-handed Valenta played O’Neill virtually even the entire way. Valenta “willed” two straight strikes and a nine count in the top of the 10th frame to force O’Neill to roll a double in the 10th to win the match. Undaunted, O’Neill calmly collected two straight strikes en route to claiming the $10,000 first-place prize (winning 243-235). But Valenta’s first foray into television was a huge hit. Said Valenta afterwards to PBA reporter Bill Vint: “My ‘A’ game is lofting, and I did pretty well today . . . I had a great time. I got a little intense, but I didn’t go crazy.” Valenta’s effort offered a lesson to league bowlers. And it’s this: It’s not always necessary to use textbook form and a sharp-breaking hook to produce great results. Just be comfortable in your approach – whatever that may be – and bowl well. Then go home and be happy. Postscript: Valenta is still searching for his first PBA Tour title. He’s won more than $55,000 in his career. O’Neill has now won seven PBA Tour titles. His career earnings exceed $740,000.

BOWL EXPO News:

Peters and Staton Top Citrus Belt Competitors at IBPSIA Tournament

by Frank Weiler

LAS VEGAS — Top BOWLERS JOURNAL executives joined PBA legends and stars and dozens of fans to watch the BPAA (Bowling Proprietors Association of America) and IBPSIA (International Bowling Pro Shop and Instructors Association) scratch tournament as part of BOWL EXPO. The tournament was held at South Point’s Bowling Plaza for IBPSIA members and guests.

The tournament featured bowlers from all parts of the country which made it seem like an IBPSIA National Championship Tournament. The field of 113 entries featured several PBA Champions including Eric Forkel and Robert Smith.

The bowlers rolled four games of qualifying with the top thirty-two earning checks and the top sixteen moving on to single elimination match play. After the first four games our own DARRON PETERS was the top seed entering match play with JOE STATON third and ALAN MOJADO in thirteenth place. Peters averaged 261 (1047 for four games) while Staton averaged 259 and Mojado 239.

While Mojado lost his first match to David Haynes of Las Vegas and finished tied for ninth place Peters and Staton won their first matches. Staton, who rolled a perfect 300 game during qualifying, rolled a big 267 to eliminate Eric Forkel by twenty pins. Both of our guys lost their next match and finished tied for fifth place.

The tournament produced three perfect games and numerous games over 280. The field was packed with great amateur bowlers including Dan Nadeau (High Roller champion) and son Chase (future Arizona State bowler), Jackie Wyckoff (former BWAA President), and multi amateur champions DeeRonn Booker, Brian Brazeau and Joel Ricketts.

The bleachers were filled with numerous PBA legends and stars including Parker Bohn III, Josh Blanchard, Jason Couch, Tommy Jones, Bill O’Neill, Johnny Petraglia and Dave Wodka. BOWLERS JOURNAL senior executives on hand included Keith Hamilton (President), Bob Johnson (Senior Editor) and Gianmarc Manzione (Editor).

The evening affair was hosted by South Point’s Mike Monyak and was another example of why BPAA’S BOWL EXPO is our sports premier event.

Russell Booth Still Firing Away at 68

by Fred Eisenhammer

Russell Booth of Van Nuys won’t say he’s bowling the best of his career. But he won’t say he’s not.

What is absolutely certain is that Booth is having the time of his life with his bowling game – and having considerable success.

And he’s doing it at age 68 – nine years after he underwent spinal surgery that put a metal plate in the back of his neck and still causes distress in his legs.

“I’m just happy I can still bowl,” Booth said. “It’s important to be able to bowl and have some enjoyment from it. I’ve been bowling since I was a little kid.”

Booth is coming off his first appearance in a Professional Bowlers Assn. regional senior tournament, competing a few weeks ago at Bowlm Lanes in the San Bernardino County city of Montclair, Calif.

It wasn’t his strongest effort, but he still managed to finish in the top half. He even blasted a 238 during a low-scoring day among participants. “It was fun, but it took a long time to bowl,” Booth said. “It took six hours for eight games.” Why did Booth choose to bowl his first PBA regional? “Cause I’ve never done it,” said Booth simply.

A week earlier, Booth helped lead his team to a third-place finish in the ultra-competitive Mission Majors league roll-off at Mission Hills Bowl. The bowling house closed for good later that day after being open for nearly 41 years. Mission Hills Bowl was Booth’s home bowling center, but he’s now moved on to Winnetka Bowl, formerly Canoga Park Bowl. He’s quite familiar with Winnetka Bowl – he bowled in that center back in 1959.

Booth’s crowning achievement this year no doubt came in April when he outclassed a field of 23 entrants to win the West Coast Senior Tour title at La Habra “300” Bowl in La Habra, Calif. It marked the first WCST championship for Booth and he did it in impressive style. He nailed strikes in his final four shots to eke out a 238-237 victory over Jim Murtishaw of Menifee, Calif., in the championship match. That gave Booth four victories without a loss in the double-elimination finals.

He also rolled a perfect game during the qualifying portion, his third 300 this season. “I’ve been on a roll. That’s for sure,” said Booth, adding that he has rolled “six or seven” 300s in his career. His WCST victory showed that he had come a long way from his spinal surgery – a procedure that he was told would require four months for him to recover. “I couldn’t bowl for eight months,” Booth said. “It was a long recovery.”

So what were Booth’s thoughts in April when he sealed his first WCST title with his last-ball strike?

“I just said, ‘Hallelujah,’ ” answered Booth with a big smile.

Kelly Manuel Puts on a Show to Claim Top Seed in ‘Win a Honda’ Stepladder Finals

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – Kelly Manuel is one match away from driving off with a new Honda Civic. Manuel, a petite 25-year-old from Azusa, turned in a blistering effort to highlight the semifinals of the “Win a Honda” tournament Sunday at Winnetka Bowl.

She shined brightest among the 84-player field to nail down the top seed in the July 26 stepladder finals, which also will take place at Winnetka Bowl.

Manuel, who averages 171, blasted scores of 226, 200 and 235 for a 663 series, five pins above her personal best. With handicap, her score rose to 849. That was a sizable 39 pins ahead of the second-place bowler.

“I bowled out of my mind,” gushed Manuel, a right-hander whose home bowling center is Brunswick West Covina Lanes.

The five top scorers, which included handicap, advanced to the stepladder finals.

Mark Alvarino, 32, grabbed the second seed with a total score of 810 (678 plus 132 handicap); Patrick Manalo, 58, claimed the third seed with an 806 (692 plus 114 handicap); Tyler Baker, 27, took the fourth seed with an 801 (696 plus 105 handicap); and Shoji Takeshima, 48, eked out the fifth and final seed with an 800 (656 plus 144 handicap). Ramon Buhain finished sixth, one pin behind Takeshima with a 799 (568 plus 231 handicap).

In the stepladder format, the lowest-ranked bowler meets the second-lowest ranked bowler in the first match. That would pit fifth-seeded Takeshima against fourth-seeded Baker.

The winner of that match takes on the third-lowest-ranked bowler, meaning third-seeded Manalo. And the winner of that match will meet up with second-seeded Alvarino. The winner of that match takes on the No. 1 seed, meaning Manuel, for the tournament title. So Manuel needs to win only one match to claim the championship and earn the 2015 Honda Civic, which is the tournament’s top prize.

By contrast, Baker and Takeshima each need to win four matches in the stepladder finals to finish first. But Baker insisted that he liked his position.

“I’d rather climb the ladder,” said Baker, whose home bowling center is Corbin Bowl in Tazana. “I’d rather bowl four games than one game so I know the lanes.”

The “Win a Honda” event started June 1, 2014, and picked up qualifiers through its monthly tournaments. Top-scoring individuals from Winnetka Bowl’s various leagues also earned their way to the semifinals.

Ninety-nine bowlers qualified for the semifinals, but many of them failed to participate Sunday because of injury, vacation or work commitments.

Baker held the lead after the first game, opening with 10 strikes en route to a 289 (the highest score of the day), or a whopping 324 with handicap. Baker relinquished the lead to Manalo after the second game.

But Manuel saved her best for last, jumping from second to first in the standings after smoking a 235 in her finale, 64 pins above her average. Her lifetime best is a 263. She said she was completely surprised by her dynamic effort, considering she tuned up for the event with a 416 series that she bowled the previous day during a Sport Shot tournament.

“I just let loose,” said Manuel, explaining her torrid bowling. “I didn’t think about making it [finals], because I didn’t think I would.”

Interestingly, Manuel disclosed that she purchased a hybrid 2014 Honda Civic in November. “And I love my car,” said Manuel, unsure what she would do if she won the 2015 Civic, which is valued at about $20,000.

Of the five qualifiers, Baker entered the competition with the highest average at 201. Manalo averages 197, Alvarino 191, Takeshima 186 and Manuel 171.

Johnnie Englehart sported the highest average at 238. He finished with a sterling 748 series (266-246-236), the highest in the tournament. With only three pins in handicap, Englehart finished 15th with a 751.

Stephen Sayward was the only other 700-series bowler, finishing with a 709. He placed 20th with an overall score of 742 (226-247-236).

Celebrity bowler Rick Auerbach, a former major league baseball player, finished 25th with scores of 243, 183 and 191, or an overall score of 725.

Other prominent Valley-area bowlers included Bill Plummer (19th, 222-194-258), Bob Englehart (22nd, 243-222-225), Elizabeth Fonvergne (24th, 237-223-213) and Frank Martinez Jr. (30th, 216-246-167).

More than 100 fans came out to watch the “Win a Honda” semifinals and another strong turnout is expected for the five-player stepladder finals.

BOWLING MAKES “SHORT LIST” AS CANDIDATE FOR 2020 TOKYO OLYMPICS

Bowling, baseball and softball, karate, squash, roller sports, climbing, surfing and wushu are the eight sports nominated for the next stage of the application process to be added to the Olympic program for Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games, it was announced Monday by Tokyo’s 2020 Additional Events Programme Panel and confirmed by World Bowling.

The decision was made following a meeting of the Tokyo events panel, according to a report by insidethegames.biz writer Nick Butler. The short list includes survivors from a list of 26 sports that had submitted applications to the Tokyo panel.

All eight sports federations will now progress to a second stage of the application process, which will include the submission of further details by July 22. Briefings to Tokyo organizers will take place Aug. 7-8. An unspecified number will then be proposed to the International Olympic Committee in September, before a final decision is due to made by the IOC in Rio de Janeiro in August 2016.

A key part of bowling’s presentation will be the new Round1 World Open which will take place in Tokyo July 9-12, featuring men and women from 70 different countries and televised finals which will be held in a specially-constructed arena setting in Tokyo. Several PBA players from the U.S. and around the world will participate in the event. The PBA will award a PBA Tour title to the men’s winner if he is a PBA member.

According to Butler, new sports must be a “driving force to promote the Olympic Movement and its values, with a focus on youth appeal,” it has been explained, while they must also “engage the Japanese population and new audiences worldwide, reflecting the Tokyo 2020 Games vision.”

Wall Street Journal-Japan is conducting a world-wide poll to ask which sport you would like to see added to the Tokyo Olympic Games program. If you would like to vote for bowling, go to: <http://wedgi.es/1eE9qNE> & right click on “bowling” to cast a vote.
