BWAA Past President Dick Evans Dies at Age 78

DAYTONA BEACH — Dick Evans, Past President and Life Member of the Bowling Writers Association of America, died Sunday, July 4 at the age of 78.

Evans had the distinction of being the first daily newspaper reporter inducted into the PBA Hall of Fame (1986) and the American Bowling Congress' Hall of Fame (1992). Among his many awards, Evans received the Billiards' and Bowling Industry Service award in 1986. He was also awarded the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America V.A. "Chief" Wapensky award in 2007, which recognizes an individual who has made a major contribution to the advancement of the bowling industry.

He was named the official bowling writer for the Knight-

Ridder News Wire in the early 1980s and in 1972 was sent to St. Louis to receive the bowling industry's media award on behalf of the Knight-Ridder chain at the Salute Dinner. His weekly bowling stories were sent out over the Knight-Ridder news wire and went to 144 daily newspapers with a daily circulation of over 10 million.

At time of death, Evans was the leading award winner in the Bowling Magazine Writing Contest for stories that appeared in both The Miami Herald and Daytona Beach News-Journal. He was the top winner in the Professional Bowlers' Association's writing contest, which was discontinued in 2001. Evans was named the top tennis writer in Florida in 2002 and at the USA Tennis Florida Convention in Daytona Beach.

Evans, born on September 20, 1931, began his 60 year journalism career at the age of 12, delivering the Miami News. The youngest of three Evans brothers to write for The Miami Herald, at age 14 he was hired to take greyhound racing results and write headlines for short stories. At age 17, he officially joined the Miami Herald staff when he was hired as a copy-boy. At age 20, he was added to the Miami Herald's sports department staff.

News and Notes From the 2010 International Bowl Expo

LAS VEGAS — Former Alaska Gov. Sarah Palin, this year's International Bowl Expo keynote speaker, was more articulate than I expected and quite enthusiastic about the connection that bowling has to American culture. After speaking for 45 minutes to the surprisingly packed ballroom (at 8 am in Vegas?!?), she stayed onstage for the big announcement about the US Women's Open and was nothing but gracious, greeting the female bowlers who came onstage for the presentation.

In a surprise announcement at this year's International Bowl Expo, the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America (BPAA) revealed that the US Women's Open will be held in the Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, TX on June 30, 2011 (during next year's Int'l. Bowl Expo in Arlington). Through the strong sponsorship of The Brands of Ebonite International, brokering this deal happened in a blazing two-week time span. Television schedule details will be forthcoming.

The most jam-packed seminars witnessed by yours truly were the sessions on reaching out to customers through social media (like Facebook, Twitter) and developing new league models to keep YOU league bowlers "in the game." A LOT of interest was expressed in short-season leagues (8-weeks); weekly "tournament" leagues where payouts happen weekly, not at the end of a season; no-travel sweeper leagues; and more pro-sports themed leagues that ramp up the value to bowlers (stadium tickets, fan jerseys, pro-team bowling balls, bags, etc.). We hope local centers explore those options!

Products coming out this season to your local pro shop include: lots of neon and bright graphics on single carry bags and polyester (plastic) balls; Brunswick has two new "Hello Kitty" poly bowling balls; many new styles of bowling shoes (including several women's styles in black); and more entry-level ball-bag-shoe combos. Storm Products has a "Think Pink" product line where a portion of sales goes toward the fight against breast cancer; also has an expanded line of pro-style shirts available, ("two-hander" Jason Belmonte (Belmo) is featured on several products). Ebonite has a different-looking core design in their "Vital Sign" high-mid performance ball; Robby's accessory line has a new wrist positioner, the "Restrictor," touted to keep your wrist from over-rotating. Looks like a lot of bowlers will be making a trip to the stores to see what's new for themselves!

Krischna Howard - Hawthorne - Wins USBC Singles Title

EL PASO — Krischna Howard of Hawthorne, Calif., rolled the 12th perfect game in the 91-year history of the United States Bowling Congress Women's Championships.

The 31-year-old right-hander started singles with a pair of 246 games before rolling 12 consecutive strikes to finish with a 792 scratch series. She received an additional 22 pins of handicap per game, which gave her a final score of 858. Team USA member Tennelle Milligan of Arlington, Texas, previously held the scratch lead with 779, while Shauna Shannon of Albuquerque, N.M., led Diamond Singles with 797.

Howard became the third competitor to shoot 300 at this year's USBC Women's Championships. On April 22, Karen Boyd of Plantation, Fla., and Alisha Hill of Riverside, Calif., rolled perfect games during the same team squad.

Howard's 300 game at the El Paso Convention and Performing Arts Center was the first of her bowling career, and her 792 series also is a career-best.

"I'm just so excited, I'm still shaking," said Howard, who made her second Women's Championships appearance. "I

Saddleback Lanes to Host PBA Regional Event and Pro-Am this Weekend Event Marks First PBA Regional at Saddleback Lanes since the 1970's

MISSION VIEJO — Saddleback Lanes will host the Professional Bowlers Association (PBA) West Region Saddleback Lanes Open starting Friday, July 9 through Sunday, July 11. The event will also feature a pro-am on Saturday, July 10 at 7pm.

The PBA West Region Saddleback Lanes Open marks the first PBA tournament to be held in the Mission Viejo-based Saddleback Lanes center since the 1970s.

Bowling's biggest names will be on-hand for the event. Two-time PBA National titlist, including the prestigious 2008 H&R Block Tournament of Champions, Michael Haugen Jr. will be competing, as will two-time PBA National titlist and nine-time PBA regional titlist Mike DeVaney. Joining them will be Missy Bellinder, the first woman to join the PBA and first woman to win two PBA Regional Tour titles, as well as Wayne Garber, who made waves this past season on the Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour making two telecasts, one of which defeating PBA all-time titles leader, Walter Ray Williams Jr. in an exciting roll-off finish. Young PBA exempt star and three-time PBA Regional titlist P.J. Haggerty will also compete, as well as newly exempt Scott Norton, recent champion of the Regional Players Invitational.

Activities for the PBA Saddleback Lanes Open get underway on Friday, July 9 with the official practice session from 1-3 p.m., where fans can collect autographs and take photos with their favorite PBA

Regional Tour bowlers.

Competition begins Saturday, July 10 with eight games of qualifying. Bowlers will be separated into two squads competing at 8 a.m. and 2 p.m. After the completion of the eight-game qualifying block, the top third of the field will advance to the 5-game semifinal block on Sunday morning, July 11 at 8 a.m.

Sunday's competition will continue with the top 16 finishers advancing to single elimination best 3 of 5 matchplay starting at 11:30 a.m. Matches will continue, eliminating half of the field each round, until a champion is crowned.

The official PBA Pro-Am will be held on Saturday, July 10 at 7 p.m. The pro-am is a great opportunity for fans to bowl alongside PBA Regional Tour stars, obtain autographs and take photos. The pro-am is three games of 9-pin no-tap, with pro-am entries starting at $79 for adults and $59 for junior and senior bowlers. Optional bowling ball pro-am packages are also available for $179 which includes a 900 Global Bounty Hunter Pearl or $139 for a 900 Global Link $30. Each pro-am participant will get the opportunity to bowl with six different PBA Regional Tour stars. For more information, contact Saddleback Lanes at (949) 586-5300.

Admission is free all weekend to attend and watch some of the best bowlers in the world compete for a PBA Regional Tour title. So come on out and cheer on your favorite professional bowler.

PBA World Series of Bowling Coming to Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS— In a magical local opportunity for California & Nevada PBA member-bowlers, the PBA World Series of Bowling is slated for the South Point Bowling Center in Las Vegas, 24 October to 6 November 2010. Six PBA titles are in contention, with over $635,000 in prize money slated for distribution. This isn't a trip to "house-shot" bowling: there are FIVE CONSECUTIVE DAYS of 12-game qualifying on the various PBA lane patterns (Cheetah, Viper, Chameleon, Scorpion, and Shark). Those five title matches will be taped for ESPN, along with the USA v. The World TV match (top 6 US v. top 6 Int'l. bowlers). Each animal pattern winner will earn $15,000 and a PBA Tour title.

The combined pinfall for those 60 qualifying games will determine the standings for the PBA World Championship (the first live PBA broadcast of the 2010-11 season). Top 8 advance to a three-day telecast finale. The winner earns $50,000 and a PBA major title.

South Point Hotel & Casino is offering promo hotel rates to those who enter. For Full PBA members, a one-time $750 entry fee gets you entered into all six events... Not a full member? Go to pba.com and click on "Join PBA" on the right side of the page (Full membership was listed as a $99 initiation fee plus $300 annually or $25 per month at the time of this story). For more info about the WSOB or entry info, call (206) 332-9688 or email info@pba.com .

You can't have had this many national PBA titles available in your backyard before!

National Deaf Bowling News

by Connie Marchione
Joey Harris Hits 300 In Las Vegas National Deaf Mixed Tournament

HENDERSON — This writer did not get complete results of the 10th National Deaf Mixed Bowling Association Tournament held last June 22-24 at Strike Zone Bowling Center in Sunset Station Hotel and Casino. But thanks to Carl Malucci who reported that the only honor score bowled there was a 300 by Las Vegas’ Joey Harris.

Malucci wrote that Joey rolled the Mixed Doubles event high game of 290 on the day before and in the next day’s Galaxy event’s semi-finals, without benefit of warming up or shadow bowling started off with 12 consecutive strikes in his first game for his 4th career 300. However, at the end of the Galaxy event Harris finished in 4th place.

As proof of his latest 300, Harris did not have a copy of the recap but insted took a photo of the telescore on his Iphone and transmitted to this writer’s computer. This writer hopes to get the complete result as to who won this event as well as other NDMBA events and also more importantly the scores and numbers of entries.

Malucci Rolls His 47th 300, Talamantes 299 At Red Rock Bowl

LAS VEGAS — Carl Malucci reported that the two deaf teams in the Red Rock’s Tuesday (29th) Rocks II League had an exciting night with Abel Talamantes hitting a 299 in his 2nd game and finished with a 668 series. Then later a few lanes away Malucci himself, after games of 237-256, rolled a 300 in his third game for a 793 series.

Joey Harris took a photo of the team’s scores on his Iphone and sent it to this writer as proof of the team scored 931 with the 300.

The perfecto is Malucci’ career 47th, the most ever by deaf and/ of hearing-impaired bowler and his 6th 300 of this 2009-10 season. That was the most Malucci has ever done in one season and tying what this writer was told earlier that DJ Powell, Indianapolis had already accomplished six perfectos this season.

Deaf Bowler Weldon Westmoreland Passed Away At 82

GLENDALE — Sad news was received that long time deaf bowler Weldon Westmoreland passed away last June 27 in his home three months short of his 83rd birthday. Weldon, a Texas native who moved to California, got married and settled in Glendale, was an avid bowler. He bowled in deaf bowling leagues like So. Calif. Deaf Traveling, Golden State Deaf, and Intercity Deaf until his back ailment made him stop 12 or 15 years ago.

Memorial service was held July 6 in GLAD auditorium. Weldon’s wife Jenny preceded him in death. Our condolences go to his surviving two daughters and son, nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

National Deaf Bowling Hall Of Fame Nancy Buckmaster Passes Last June 23

SOUTH DAKOTA — Another sad news was received from Deaf Senior Bowlers of America secretary-treasurer Carol Moers, Denver that Nancy Buckmaster, one of the founders and secretary-treasurer of National Deaf Women’s Bowling Association, passed away last June 23. The cause of her death was not known but she had not been well for a long time.

More will be written about her later when this writer finds more details.

Bethany Mendoza is Female "Co-Bowler of the Year" as she won an Added Money Event at Bowlum.

LAS VEGAS — What an exciting week of megabuck bowling at The Orleans in Las Vegas, NV! Our 2010 TAT Amateur Champion is Curt Guinn from Greenwood, SC for $20,000. 2nd Place was Brent Bowers for $10,000, 3rd was Tony Knuth for $7,500, 4th was Paul Carter our 189 & Under Handicap bowler for $6,000 and finishing 5th was our 205 & Under bowler Chris Martin for $5,000. All TAT competitors received at least 1 Brunswick High Performance Ball free with their entry with the first 300 entrants receiving a second Brunswick ball paid for by the TAT. All of the Brunswick High Performance balls that were given out are brand new balls that will not be released until July 12th!

This year’s 2010 TAT Amateur Classic had over 2000 entries with almost 400 bowlers. The Brunswick staff was on hand for the week and gave out 750 Brunswick bowling balls to TAT competitors in just 5 days! Although the entries were slightly below last year, the TAT still paid out all of its prize funds but was unable to raise any prize funds like we usually do.

The thrilling Brunswick Challenge was held on Saturday and had 91 competitors which paid down 15 cash spots. 3 out of the Top 4 qualified for the $5,000 first prize and bowled a sudden death 1 ball roll-off to decide the winner. In the end Joe Lopez was the only one who could come up with a strike to take the trophy. Debbie Ayers from Cajhon, CA, Eric Acon from Plano, TX, and Brent Bowers from Mulvane, KS all received $1,000 for making The Brunswick Challenge Top 4.

Our two free Chance Tournaments each paid out $6,000 in Cash & Prizes and TAT competitors got up to 4 free squads just for entering along with up to 3 Brunswick Balls for free. Our First Chance winner was Kenny Calkins who bowled a 300 with the brand new Brunswick Revolver. Our Second Chance winner was Chris Klerk with a 290 and they both received $500 for their terrific efforts. We also gave out 16 KR Strikeforce Double Tote Bags and 8 KR Strikeforce Triple Ball Rollers and 14 of those were given to non-cashers by random drawings. All together the Brunswick staff gave out almost 100 KR Strikeforce bags all paid for by the TAT.

We would like to thank all of our amazing sponsors, Brunswick, The Orleans, KR Strikeforce, and OnTheBallBowling.com for making the TAT Amateur bowling events possible. Our TAT bowlers were thrilled with the help and expertise that were given by the Brunswick staff and even PBA Hall of Famer Johnny Petraglia and PBA Champion Tom Smallwood were on hand helping out our megabuck bowlers on the Brunswick Practice Range! On behalf of the entire TAT staff, I would like to thank all our bowlers and supporters for making this the greatest Amateur bowling tournament in the world! KRISCHNA never thought it would happen at a tournament like this. I’ve had the front 10 before, but that’s it. I just really wanted it, and I’ve been waiting a long time for this moment.”

After watching her teammate, Dana Blake of Hawthorne, Calif., strike on her first nine shots Wednesday during their team event, Howard did her best to compose herself on each shot in the 10th frame.

She struck soundly on her first two deliveries, but experienced some added suspense on the final ball as the 7 pin was the last to fall.

“I was nervous as heck,” said Howard, who bowls league at AMF Midtown Lanes in Los Angeles. “I just wanted to keep the ball on line and not totally screw it up. I had been leaving a lot of 7 pins throughout the tournament, so the last shot was a little scary.”

Howard returned to the lanes in January after taking nearly a year off as she welcomed her daughter, Kaylyn, into the world. After working herself back into the sport, she also prepared some new equipment for the event.

With her new equipment working well and a chance at the top spot possible, adding her name to the leaderboard was the least of Howard’s concerns going into the final game. Her main goal was to bowl a 700 series.

“I just wanted to get to 700,” Howard said. “I’ve started off strong like that before, but tend to finish with a weak game, so I didn’t want to screw it up. I didn’t even think about taking the lead at all. But I’ll be on BOWL.com checking every day.”

Howard won’t have to spend too much time at the computer, however. The 2010 Women’s Championships is scheduled to conclude its 100-day run on July 4.

“I’m happy, very, very happy,” Howard said. “I came out here to have fun with my family and friends. I never expected any of this. I can now say I have one major bowling accomplishment and that it’s a pretty big one. We’ll wait and see what happens over the next few days.”

NORWALK — Now that the 2009-2010 Winter Season is over and the league champions have been crowned — the Bowling News would like to give your team a spot in recorded history.

Submit your winning teams picture by e-mail. Give us the following information:

1. Names of players, left to right.
2. Name of the league.
3. Name of the bowling center.

And if you have something else special to say — you may add a couple of lines.

Take those pictures and submit them before July 31.

CAL BOWL BOWLING REPORT

2500 E. Carson St., Lakewood, CA 90712 • (562) 421-8448

LAKEWOOD — I hope everyone had a great 4th of July holiday. I checked the calendar to see when is our next holiday and it looks like it's not until September when we celebrate Labor Day. So I guess we're back to our normal schedule that keeps everyone so busy and going in all directions. Now that the kids are out of school, why not come over to Cal Bowl and have a family fun date of bowling. Call the center for available lanes for open play.

For the Miami Herald, Evans wrote about all high school sports, college football, boxing, bowling, golf, tennis, water skiing, wrestling, horse/dog/harness races, jai-alai and also spent 14 months serving as interim religious editor.

He once organized and ran a Dade County High school baseball tournament that featured North Miami High's Steve Carlton (a Hall of Famer) and Fred Norman, a future star with the Chicago Cubs, in a taut pitchers duel at Miami Stadium before 3,000 spectators. During the Baltimore Orioles spring training season in Miami he organized a practice session with the O's for all of Dade County's high school baseball prospects.

His most successful promotion came when he teamed with Joe Tanenbaum of Gulfstream Race Track, drawing 56,000 entries from South Floridians to pick the best horse ever to run at Gulfstream. But his forte was bowling, a sport that he started covering for The Miami Herald in 1957.

Evans retired from The Miami Herald Dec. 31, 1989. However, the native Miamian continued to cover the bowling beat for The Herald until he decided to end his Miami Herald career 20 years later.

Two of his brothers, the late Luther Evans and Lee Evans, founder of the Tournament of the Americas, also wrote sports stories for The Miami Herald. Thus stories under the byline of an Evans brother appeared in The Miami Herald from 1937 until 2009 except for two years during World War II (1943-44).

Evans was hired by the Professional Bowlers Association in 1990 as its media director for the PBA Senior tour. He worked 77 tournaments over the next seven years before stepping down.

In 1999, The Daytona Beach News-Journal asked Evans to write local bowling stories - one of these stories won the feature story division in The Bowling Magazine's national writing contest.

He continued to write tennis and bowling articles and stories for the Daytona Beach News-Journal until his death. His bowling stories have appeared in every national bowling magazine published plus many local bowling publications. His stories have appeared on www.Bowlingdigital.com for more than a decade which resulted in email comments from readers in Europe, Israel, Canada and Asia.

Dick Evans is survived by his wife Joan Gano Evans, son, Richard V. Evans, an attorney in Louisville, Ky. and three grandchildren - Peyton, Carter and Walker.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be sent to the University of Miami, where Dick Evans attended on a scholarship while working full time at The Miami Herald. Funeral arrangements are pending.

Men & Women's Bowling Alliance Tournament Cancelled

NORWALK—Since 1986 our dedicated group of volunteers have continued to provide you with a wholesome and organized Annual Championship Tournament. This year, in anticipation of our 25th Anniversary, we were once again well prepared and looking forward to our Celebration.

Unfortunately, with our entire country in a crisis of financial burden, it is apparent that many of our bowlers have been impacted with having to reassess their financial priorities, and have been unable to participate in this year's tournament. Since the entries received were so few, we are unable to offer a substantial Prize Fund. Therefore, it is with the deepest regret that we advise you, we have CANCELLED the tournament scheduled for July 17,18,24,25, 2010. All Entry Fees received will be refunded to the respective Team Captains.

In keeping with our plans for the future, we will be examining some new ideas brought to our attention; i.e. "Would the Month of August be better for your team?" We invite your input either by mail, phone, Fax or Website.

We urge you to keep us on your list of "Things to Do" for 2011.

Heid Has The Hot Hand & Throws Some Heat in Rocky Marsh Doubles

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM—Rich Heid heads up the leader board and once again, his “hobby” earns him headlines which he handles extremely well. His road to victory was paved with games of 231-205-266 and a 274 to garner a great 976 league-leading set. Awesome performance Dude!!

Smooth-strokin’ Terry Brent put on his own sparkling brand of fire-works as he lit up the lanes firing games of 215-246-201 and a great, sizzlin’ 279 finale to display a fine 941. Fab bowling Mr. Hall of Famer!

More Smokin’ Scores: Don Gardner 256-893, Frank Bellinder 266-891, Ron Marcus 247-872, Juan Sandoval 236-860, Alan Bloom 257-858, Tony Chaco 246-854, James Blythe IV 246-847, Ron Douglass 267-845, Anderson Alcaraz 231-839, Larry Green 225-832, Dick McKenzie 233-831, Janine Ditch 218-826, Rose Williams 230-817, Jerry Knight 269-816, Marie Barbush 225-815, Janet Anderson 235-813, Hong Kha 233-809, Gino Vassallo 245, Jim Moore 238, Aaron Wilson 232, Gavin Huff 226, Mike Caballero 224, Carl Adinolfi 222, Shawn St. Andre 216, Fred Voysey 214, Rey Ortiz 214, Jerry Roddam 204, E.J. BY NICE AND SWEET

STUDIO CITY — THE TRUTH BE BOWLED! A motto couldn’t be truer than this and it can be heard echoing down the lanes as the summer heats up! Keep this in mind when figuring out what to do during your staycation or finding a way to spend some quality time with the kids while school is out for summer! Be it time with the kids, a night out with friends or your significant other, PINZ is the answer — THE TRUTH BE BOWLED!

ADULTS

The summer leagues have started and are heating up! Mr. Nice even commented on how much fun the leagues are having and what a pleasure it is to see some new faces joining the fun! We would like to remind those who have started, that the good scores come from practice, practice, practice! This can be done at anytime and inquire on the times for a special league rate we offer our leagues! And someday maybe you can throw a score like these:

Tavern Guild: David Quam 288/738, Tony Annibale 235/627, Darrell Tucci 223/616, Curt Zellers 236.

Twilighters: Dan Coffelt 247/646, Allan Hammond 246/612, Dane Price 603, Radi Cohanin 244/603, Robert Lerman 227.

Kings and Queens: Will Pisnieski 276/700, Tom Wigmore 225/632.

Funseekers: Zoran Jacimovic 279/770, Keane Murakami 257/679, Ed Dusseau 237/635, Chuck Alexander 231/621, Bob Emery 619, Mark Mason 235.

JUNIORS

As the State Tournament for our juniors quickly approaches, we at Pinz couldn’t be more proud as we are now! To see these kids work hard, bowl well and show amazing sportsmanship it’s a testament to our juniors as well as Pinz’s Junior League Coordinator: Barbara Lee! No one is more dedicated or caring as she.

SENIORS

I overheard Bob Blumkin (Rose Blumkin’s husband) state the other day, “Man those seniors can bowl and look at them drop those pins! How Do they do it?” Well Bob, it isn’t just from sitting but for doing! Coming in every week, not to mention many years of practice! And there you go, the answer to Blumkin’s question and if you doubt me check out this past week’s scores:

Happy Timers: Russ Romo 199/472, Ruth Swick 154/447, Sam Marion 419, Vicky Minceff 113/302, Joel Margolis 197.

Coffee and Donuts: Donna Hickox 190/530, Christine Stark 178/510, Elayne Klein 179/496, Joan Karchem 174/479, Annie Block 477, Charlene Gaffney 188.

Senior Social: Charlene Gaffney 214/469, Art Michener 443, Arthur Harris 173/429, Joel Margolis 160/423, Russ Romo 181/420, Teri Bonato 157.

Breakfast Club Singles: Charlene Gaffney 167/468, Christine Stark 163/419, Donna Klein 158/379, Pam Vaughan 122/356, Doris Lazner 150/351.

Joslyn Seniors: Russ Romo 226/532, Betty Dushkin 427, Joyce Rabinowitz 167/418, Gary Olsen 199/528, Lillian Kleinman 153.

Builder of the Week: The quam before the store is over because David Quam shot a 288 and a 738 series during Tavern Guild. What a great week for a great league president. Keep it up, the 300 is right around the corner.
