Cystic Fibrosis Challenged 10 Year Old Shoots Perfect Game

LAKE FOREST — November 29th, 2001 Sam Grayston was born. We all pray that our children are born healthy, but this not always the case. Sam was born with Cystic Fibrosis. His family was not aware of this right away, they only knew that he had a life threatening bowel obstruction that required immediate life saving surgery. After two and a half month stay in the hospital, Sam was able to come home for the first time. There were many other medical challenges ahead of Sam and his family, but they realized early on that Sam was a special boy. Sam is a gentle spirit with an amazing sense of humor.

Growing up playing in the backyard with dad it was obvious that Sam had an amazing talent with his hand-eye coordination. The little lefty could hit the baseball and golf ball with the skill and ease rarely seen from someone his age. His dad was an athlete, who played professional baseball and is a scratch golfer. His mom excelled as a tennis player so apparently he had good genes to start with. Sam was introduced to bowling at the young age of five. He enjoyed it so much that he would ask for bowling parties for his birthdays.

Over the years, he has developed many special friendships at Forest Lanes. The wonderful staff at Forest Lanes has adopted him as their own and many of the regular bowlers have taken him under their wings and given him tremendous support. Sam is also a wonderful baseball player. Last year he was the only 9 year old to make the all-star team that included 10 and 11 year olds. Although he excelled at baseball, he wanted to take the year off and concentrate on bowling. You can imagine how "excited" his dad was with that decision, nevertheless, he gave him his support.

Sam would bowl seven days a week if given the chance and sometimes does. He has progressed from bowling his first 200 game at the age of 8 to now, over 100 games of 200 or better at the age of 10. We all knew that it was a matter of time before it happened, but no one expected it to come so soon, you see, Sam bowled a perfect 300 game on July 6th of this year. Fearless, with poise and determination he lined up that last ball and let it go right down the left side and hooked perfectly into the pocket knocking down all ten pins. Perfect game for a perfect young man. I think the staff and friends were more excited for him than he was, you see, Sam has a very magnetic personality. He is a true gentleman who cares about others.

This year Sam in entering the fifth grade at Lomarena Elementary School and according to mom, he will continue to maintain getting "A"s and

Sam Grayston

"B"s if he want to continue bowling. Everyone has their own motivations, right?

Sam has not let having Cystic Fibrosis get in the way of doing the things he loves. He knows that it will be something he will always have to deal with, but he has the focus and determination that should inspire others to do their best regardless of their own struggles. He is an inspiration to us all. Sam's favorite question, "Do you think we can go bowling today? He is a tough one to say no to.

Storm Takes Early Lead in GEICO PBA Summer Shootout

Pete Weber's perfect performance overtakes Ebonite, DV8 in Manufacturers Cup battle

CHICAGO—Reigning U.S. Open champ Pete Weber of St. Ann, Mo., put 12 points on the board in Round 4 of the GEICO PBA Summer Shootout at 10pin bowling lounge, helping his Storm team take the early lead in the annual Manufacturers Cup competition.

The first four rounds of one ball, low-man-out singles elimination matches aired Sunday on ESPN2. In each round, nine players representing nine different bowling ball brands competed in three groups of three players each. The survivor of the low-man-out preliminary matches advance to a final match where the winner earned 12 points, runner-up 8 points and third-place finisher 7 points. Those eliminated in the preliminary matches earned lesser points.

Weber, behind a flawless seven - strike performance (three in his preliminary match and four in a row in a Round 4 showdown with Roto Grip's Brian Kretzer of Dayton, Ohio), helped Storm take a three-point lead over Ebonite and DV8 in the bowling ball manufacturers' contest. Brunswick's Chris Loschetter finished third in Round 4 after an eight-count on his first shot in the three-player final match.

In the first round, Ryan Ciminelli of Cheektowaga, N.Y., threw four strikes in a row - two in his preliminary match and two more in the final showdown to eliminate Storm's Osku Palermaa of Finland and DV8's Ronnie Russell of Camby, Ind., staking Brunswick to an early lead in the team competition. Russell struck on his first shot in the final match, but had a nine-count on his second shot. Palermaa finished third after an eight-count on his first attempt.

Round 2 went to Columbia 300's Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, who struck on his first three shots to edge DV8's Mike Machuga of Erie, Pa. (double and nine-count). Ebo-nite's Tommy Jones of Simpsonville, S.C., was third after a nine-count on his first shot in the final match.

Newly-inducted PBA Hall of Famer Jason Couch, who announced his retirement from PBA Tour competition at the start of the Summer Shootout, temporarily put Ebonite into the team lead when he claimed 12 points in Round 3, ousting 900 Global's Robert Smith of Las Vegas, who left three pins standing on his second shot. Hammer's Bill O'Neill of Southampton, Pa., was knocked out with a seven-count on his first ball.

Five more rounds of singles and doubles low-man-out elimination rounds will determine the winner.

California USBC Inducts Three to Their Hall

by Mary Lynly

SACRAMENTO—California USBC inducted three women into their Hall of Fame who were ardent supporters of bowling in California. Nancy Arvanitis was inducted for Meritorious Service but having been exposed to bowling at a young age and tutored by her mother she has also made her mark as a bowler.

She became a WIBC member at the age of eleven and later on while living on Long island in New York she had the thrill of having the famous Andy Veripapa offer to give her some pointers. She said it really helped her game. Nancy's higher education came from the State University of New York where she received a degree in Education and Mathematics in 1967.

She married and continued teaching for several years until her son's Christopher and Matthew were born - just a year apart - and she decided she would be a stay at home mom.

Nancy was diligent about not missing her league night and, in fact, she bowled Friday night and Matthew was born on Sunday and she bowled the next Friday! In 1976 the family moved to California and settled in Vista. In short order she went to the local bowling center and signed up for a league - The George Murphy scratch/match play league where she became a good friend of National Hall of Famer Olga Gloor.

The stage was set when Phyllis Bourque invited her to attend a meeting for youth bowlers. Since both of her boys bowled she was interested but didn't count on becoming the new Youth Association Secretary! She helped spearhead hosting the 1992 State Youth Championships.

She became active in the Avocado WBA and although she had a passion for bowling game she chose not to follow a Semi-Pro Bowling career and get into the administrative end of things.

She cherishes the memories of traveling the country with her fellow bowlers - 30 State Tournaments and 25 National. She served as Secretary of the Youth Association for many years and also with the California USBC.

She says working the tournaments and giving up weekends took a lot of time but she wouldn't change anything about her association with the sport she loves. The last word was, "Now that I am retired I am going to get back to writing!"

Karen Smith was the inductee for Superior Performance. This gracious lady hailed from Godfrey, Illinois. As she grew up it was apparent that she was going to be a "Lefty" to her father's dismay since he thought left handed people were at a disadvantage. This so disturbed him he even tried tying her arm behind her back to get her to change hands - to no avail. Strong

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege (inspired by the brilliant Carol Mancini)

Carol: Welcome back readers. This week I have a special treat for you. Last week, a young man who called himself Jimbojet7for7 asked the coach why we bowl. That made me think, “Why do people bowl?” So this week I’m sending Steve out to ask you that exact question. Go get ‘em, coach.

Steve: Great idea, Carol. Where should I start?

Carol: Here’s the deal. Just outside that door is a ladies league. Some of them have been around this game for quite a while and you can bet they’ve got some real stories to tell. See if you can’t get a couple of good ones.

Steve: Got it. See you in a bit.

Dean: Did you just send him out into that snake pit to talk to those vipers?

Carol: Yeah, this ought to be fun to watch. Those gals hate men so much it’s a wonder they don’t call it The Thursday Morning Male-Haters League.

Dean: Why did you do that? Poor guy, I’m gonna miss him.

Carol: We have that office pool....Remember?

Dean: Oh yeah!

Steve: Excuse me, miss...

Bowler #1: Git lost, Bozo! Cain’t ya see ahm bizzy?

Steve: Sorry miss. I didn’t mean to, uh, you really don’t need that pepper spray, miss....I’ll...just...leave... now.

Bowler #1: Dang raght you weell!

Dean: Did you see that, Carol?!

Carol: Did I ever! I just love little Amy, she has spunk! Hey Lillian! Come on over and watch this!

Steve: Whoa! I sure didn’t expect that! Maybe I’ll try that lady over there. She looks a little more friendly. Excuse me miss, I’m working on an article for The Bowling News. Would you mind if I asked you a few questions about...

Bowler #2: Are you hitting on me?!!!

Steve: No, not at all. I was just wondering if...

Bowler #2: Yeah, you were just wondering if you could hit on me!!! Well, unless you have a million dollars in your pocket and drive a Ferrari, I’ll be doing the only hitting around here!!! I swear, you men are all alike! Hey, Amy! Throw me that pepper spray!

Dean: This is great! Carol, you... are... a...genius!

Carol: This is going to be one our best columns ever. Make sure you get all of it!

Dean: No problem.....

Lillian: Why do you keep doing this to Steve? He’s a nice man.

Carol: Office pool! Remember?

Lillian: Oh, that’s right.

Dean: Look! He’s going over to interview Bertha.

Carol: Uh-oh! Lillian, be ready to call the paramedics.

Lillian: Again?

Steve: Oh, man. What have I gotten myself into?

Bertha: Hiya handsome. What seems to be the problem?

Steve: Uh, hello.....miss....?

Bertha: My name’s Bertha, and you look like you were just handed a death sentence.

Steve: I think I was. I’m with The Bowling News and I’m supposed to interview somebody, but so far, everybody I talk to wants to kill me.

Bertha: Ask away, honey.

Steve: Everybody has a story to tell and I want to hear yours. Why do you bowl?

Bertha: To pick up guys.

Dean: That’s a fact. She picked me up once.

Lillian: Really?

Dean : Oh yeah! Threw me halfway down the lane.... oh, look! She’s got Steve by the scruff of the neck! She picks him up by the seat of his pants! She uses the classic two handed shovel-pass, and..... he’s off-kicking and screaming! Sorry folks, it’s a disappointing performance for our dear Bertha tonight! She was barely able to slide Steve past the arrows. But wait, this match isn’t over yet! Steve struggles to his feet. He’s up! Dripping with oil he turns to face Big Bertha. You can see the determination in his eyes. There’s still a lot of fight left in this old coach! But wait! Professional wrestler, “Mayhem” Marcy steps in front of him, she spins him around and applies her world famous hammer- lock hold! She may be new to bowling, but she brings the competitive spirit to a whole new level!

Carol: I think Marcy has just invented a new format! We could call it, “Tag-Team Coach Bowling”.

Dean: Carol, you’re grinning again.....

Bertha: Hey Marcy, don’t be too hard on him! Do you know who that is?

Marcy: Don’t know! Don’t care!

Bertha: That’s the guy who writes that new column for The Bowling News!

Marcy: You’re kidding! This guy’s Carol Mancini?!

Road to 15th Teen Masters Grand Championships

Freeway Lanes hosts qualifying, match play rounds in High School Boys and Girls, Under-14 Divisions

WICKLIFFE, OH – The road to New York City’s Grand Central Terminal and the Grand Championships in the 15th annual Teen Masters gets underway at Freeway Lanes in suburban Cleveland.

After qualifying and match play rounds that continue through Thursday, the top four boys and top four girls in the High School Boys and Girls divisions will advance to the unique championship rounds on a specially-installed lane in Vanderbilt Hall inside New York’s busy transit hub Aug. 5-8.

Boys and girls in Under-14 divisions also will compete at Freeway Lanes. The Professional Bowlers Association will provide live scoring on pba.com for the Teen Masters qualifying rounds in all four divisions through Wednesday.

The Teen Masters, originated by Killer “B” Promotions founder Gary Beck, is a unique youth tournament, testing player skills on a combination of long- and short-oiled lane conditions as well as bowling equipment limitations which require players to make adjustments in their techniques rather than relying on ball technology. Each competitor will be allowed to use two bowling balls – an Ebonite Pursuit (or Pursuit S) and an Ebonite Cyclone. More than 170 youth bowlers will compete for more than $100,000 in scholarship money.

Qualifying begins with six games on a 42-foot oiling pattern for all players. High school boys will bowl at 9 a.m. with high school girls and both under-14 groups bowling at 2 p.m. (all times are Eastern). All groups return at the same times Tuesday for another six games on a shorter 35-foot pattern. All qualifying scores will be posted as they happen on pba.com under its Live Scoring tab. After 12 games, the top one-third of the high school boys’ field, top 16 high school girls, top five U14 boys and top four U14 girls will move on.

Wednesday’s challenge for the survivors will be a final six-game “mixed pattern” round at 9 a.m., where one lane will use the long-oil pattern and the other lane will use the short-oil pattern. Eight-game round-robin match play rounds in both high school divisions will follow at 7 p.m. Wednesday and 2 p.m. Thursday. Total pinfall after 34 games will determine the four high school boys and four girls who will bowl in New York City

The U14 Boys and Girls Championships will be held Thursday at 1 p.m.

PBA.com’s Xtra Frame, a subscription-based on-line video streaming service, is providing live coverage of the final three days of match play eliminations from Grand Central Terminal Aug. 6-8. To enroll as an Xtra Frame subscriber, visit pba.com and click on the Xtra Frame logo.

IDLE BOWLING THOUGHTS

...It is amazing that people find it difficult to understand why the merger that created the United States Bowling Congress has run into some sharp pebbles in smoothing the road. You can't take more than 100 years of habits and experiences, millions of bowlers, hundreds of paid workers, hundreds of thousands of volunteer workers, a changing sport and business, and expect all the pieces to fit together as quickly as a first grader's puzzle. Patience not only is needed, it is a must from all involved.

...Bowling balls are expensive, but they always were. Back in 1907 the newest rubber bowling balls sold for $15. For many, that was more than a week's pay. And those good looking high top bowling shoes set you back anywhere from two to five bucks, but they lasted for years and years.

...An old newspaper clipping, dated Oct. 25, 1897, reported that Detroit had four bowling leagues that year. In three of them "palm" balls were used, and in a newly formed six team circuit the new "finger" balls were used. And here we are, 110 years later, and the rage in some areas is two handed palm bowling.

...Watch the great instructors in action. They not only teach, they inspire.

...A very little boy told me about the match he had against one of his friends. It was close all the way until he knocked down a pin in the seventh frame to win, 1-0.

...Good guys never finish last, not if they are good enough.

...A true handicap system works only when those given handicaps are handicapped on their true ability, and not on their often fiction averages. There always should be a minimum unless the bowler is handicapped in some way. If a bowler is not interested enough in the sport to at least attain the average of all league bowlers then they should accept minimum average requirements or not be allowed to win anything more than praise. Sometimes, in the quest for as many entries as possible, too much consideration in the area of free pins is the easy way out.

....Almost every bowler throws away at least one point in average each year by not fully concentrating on the fill ball in the final frame.

...If another bowler does it you call it an error or a mistake. If you do it, it is called practical experimentation that failed.

...My nomination for the most articulate person in the world remains the bowling instructor who can give expert advice---without taking his or her hands out of the pocket.

...The fact that the USBC team tournaments, formerly ABC and WIBC, draw more than 10,000 five player teams each year, no matter where they are contested, speaks volumes about the sport, because no sport can match the long history of such dedicated participation. Try them if you haven't already, and you'll discover the lure of the tournament lanes.

...W.C. Fields once said, "Start each day off with a smile and get it over with." Do the same with every game you bowl.

Bowling Writers Association

is Going International

Romeo elected 68th President

TEXAS — Members attending the Bowling Writers Association of America Convention held in conjunction with International Bowl Expo, voted unanimously June 26 that the time has come for the organization, founded in 1934, to go global.

The historic decision was made following strategic planning meetings with the Bowling Proprietors Association of America and the United States Bowling Congress in October 2011 in Arlington, Texas. During those meetings, and in the weeks that followed, it became clear that the BWAA needed to expand its horizons and take steps to embrace all aspects of media in a global marketplace where media and communications has become virtually instant.

In the coming weeks, after input from all members, BWAA will announce a new name, along with a new slogan, vision and mission statements; and a tentative agreement has been reached to encompass the World Bowling Writers group, founded by Mort Luby Jr. in 1977, into the new international media organization.

“We could not be happier that our members have understood the reasons, and have had the vision and courage to take this bold step into the future,” said BWAA President Jim Goodwin. “Change is not always easy in our industry, and we are very excited about where this decision can take the bowling media, business, and the sport in the years to come.”

Elected to become the 68th President of BWAA and the first of the new International group is industry Public Relations expert Joan Romeo, Van Nuys, California. Romeo, who is the mother of professional bowlers Robin and Tori Romeo, was the Director of Client Services for the Pearlman Group of Los Angeles before starting her own marketing company, The Marketing Team. She serves on numerous industry committees, and recently chaired the BWAA Pezzano Youth Scholarship and Expo committees. She is a member of the BPAA International Relations Committee, and serves on the Event Committee for the International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame.

Chris Beard, Gardnerville, Nevada was elected Vice President, along with five more directors – Mark Miller Flower Mound, Texas; Elaine Hagin Castro Valley, California; Brandy Padilla Winter Haven, Florida; Jackie Wyckoff Campbell, California; and Frank Weiler San Bernadino, California.

BWAA’s 78th convention kicked off June 24 with its annual Hall of Fame Dinner. More than 100 guests attended the gala, which honored over 30 Hall of Famers, including this year’s BWAA and BPAA inductees, R.F. Corderman and Jeff Boje. The finale of the evening was a one hour stage show by sensational young singer Mitch Franco.

Mort Luby Jr. was honored with two awards at the dinner – The BWAA Crowe Award for Meritorious Service, and the Remo Pichietti Humanitarian Award, presented by Ebonite’s Columbia brand. Former BPAA president John LaSpina was chosen to receive the BWAA Hennessy Award of Merit.

Other highlights of BWAA Convention week included exclusive press conferences with the Professional Bowlers Association about the new World Bowlers Tour, and interviews with the top five finalists from Bowling’s U.S. Women’s Open before the finals, and with winner Kelly Kulick after the exciting outdoor arena finals in downtown Reno.

The third annual BWAA Radio Stage was a part of the Expo Trade Show June 27-28. BWAA Radio hosts Len Nicholson, Jim Dressel, Ken Van Baber, and Bill Zuben interviewed 38 industry guests over the two day show. Videos of the interviews will be ready for viewing on several industry websites the week of July 9.

BWAA, under its new international name, will join many other industry groups at the Paris Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas for its 79th convention in 2013.
