Charlie Kinstler Named California U.S.B.C. Proprietor of the Year

NORWALK — Meet Charles Kinstler, the California Bowling Ass'n. Proprietor of the Year, better known as "Charlie".

Born into a bowling family, he learned the game early. Started bowling at age 6 and keeping score for his parents — Charlie Sr. and Shirley — at age 10. He liked the way numbers added up as well as his bank account!

After graduation from U.S.C. in the early 1980's, it was time to get a real job.

A chance conversation revealed that Del Rio Lanes in Downey was available. So in 1984 Charlie became a proprietor of 32 lanes. Automatic scoring was just becoming reliable — and since Charlie loves tech-no innovations, Del Rio leaped into the electronic age. Soon to follow was a complete renovation from roof to artificial lanes. The bowlers loved it — the senior scorekeepers were retired, and Downey had a new bowling home, meeting place and "Tax Payer"! He loved the challenge.

In 1994, Keystone Lanes in nearly Norwalk, was sinking fast. Charlie rescued the 48 lane center and once again dragged a dying center back to life.

2004 was the year A.M.F. decided to close Forest Lanes. A midnight agreement added another link to a growing chain.

Only 4 years passed before he made the next "REALLY BIG" decision. Cal Bowl in Lakewood and Bowlum in Montclair were added to the chain. Both needing complete over-hauls! In all cases, the employees kept their jobs, and the bowlers received a safe, clean, honest, bowling home to be proud of.

He has contributed his time to the industry, such as President of the Southern California

Storm to Victorious in GEICO PBA Summer Shootout

Pete Weber, Jason Belmonte outlast Brunswick duo to claim Manufacturers Cup

CHICAGO (July 15, 2012) — Reigning U.S. Open champ Pete Weber and teammate Jason Belmonte started the championship match with six strikes and held on to edge Brunswick's Chris Loschetter and Sean Rash, 244-233, to win the Professional Bowlers Association Manufacturers Cup to conclude the GEICO PBA Summer Shootout at 10pin bowling lounge.

The Baker doubles finals of the sixth annual PBA summer series aired Sunday on ESPN. Weber, Belmonte and teammate Osku Palermaa shared a $45,000 first prize.

Despite their perfect start in the title match, Weber and Belmonte couldn't break away from the Brunswick duo. Rash and Loschetter followed Rash's first-frame spare with their own string of five strikes to stay within 10 pins. After both teams converted single-pin spares in the seventh frame, Loschetter and Rash took the lead with back-to-back strikes while Weber and Belmonte posted back-to-back single-pin spares.

Weber's seven-count spare in the 10th frame left the door open for Brunswick to lock up the title, but Loschetter left the 3-4-6-7 split on his first shot in the final frame and failed to convert the spare.

"As soon as I let it go, I knew it was bad," Weber said of his shot in the 10th frame. "The main thing I had to do was forget about it, concentrate on making the spare and then fill the frame with a strike. As I'm getting older, I'm getting better at putting bad shots behind me and not dwelling on them as much as I used to."

"I had to keep in the back of my mind that anything can happen, that it wasn't over," Weber added. "(Loschetter) threw a bad shot but it was a split he could have picked up. Sometimes you'd rather be lucky than good, and this was one of those days."

"The cruel but beautiful thing about being the top qualifier is that it can be a curse or a blessing because it's only one game that determines your fate," Belmonte said. "You don't have the benefit of experiencing competition on the TV pair. Our strategy throughout the tournament was to pick the lane that we felt comfortable with and stick with it, and that's what helped us match up our equipment with this surface."

Loschetter was understandably distraught over his 10th frame misfortune, but Rash refused to let his teammate take the blame.

"We made one bad shot as a group and it wasn't Chris that did it," Rash said. "It was a team effort. We bowled great. We had a chance to win, but we were one shot short."

After qualifying third for the finals, Rash and Loschetter defeated Track's Mika Koivuniemi and Mike Fagan, 256-235, and 900 Global's Missy Parkin and Brian Voss, 235-184, to advance to the championship match. Koivuniemi and Fagan eliminated Columbia 300's Dan MacLelland and Chris Barnes, 236-222, in the opening match after the Columbia 300 players won the Eliminator Doubles Shootout round to claim the fifth spot in the stepladder finals.

All GEICO PBA Summer Shootout shows will re-air on ESPN2 (Saturday, July 21, at 4 p.m.; Saturday, July 28 at 3 p.m.; Saturday, Aug. 4 at 12:30 p.m., and Sunday, Aug. 5 at 3 p.m.). All times are Eastern.

DEAF TRAVEL LEAGUE MEETS AT NOON AUG. 26 AT KEYSTONE

by Connie Marchione

NORWALK — Got this notification from So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League Secretary treasurer Bob Taylor about the date, time and place of the deaf traveling league’s 53rd season kick-off meeting. For all present and past members and also deaf newcomers interested to bowl in a scratch traveling league, get ready to mark your calendar.

Taylor and Traveling league President Ed Abakumoff had agreed on the date of the 53rd season meeting to be Sunday August 26 and the time to be at Noon. The place is the same as past meetings, Keystone Lanes in Norwalk. Traveling League Vice President Sharon Caldwell is proceeding to contact all members about this meeting by emails and mailing. So watch for that.

Also Taylor and Abakumoff said, the number of bowlers present at this August 26 meeting will determine the number of teams to start the 53rd season at noon Sunday September 9 at Keystone Lanes. The league had 8 teams of trios in its 52nd year. It is hopeful that more than 24 bowlers will show up at the meeting to make up 8 teams.

So it is important if any of the members for any reason, could not make the all-important August 26th meeting and still want to bowl in this Traveling league, must let any of the three officers, Abakumoff, Caldwell or Taylor know in advance before Aug. 26 to assure you of a spot on a team. This also applies to newcomers and returnees too.

So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League had a long history as being the first ever in ABC history as all deaf bowlers traveling League established and the oldest deaf league out in West Coast still running for its 53rd year. The league had in entirely 52 past years bowling scratch (no handicap except in sweepstakes) unique match points format. Also it is tougher bowling in different bowling houses than weekly in one bowling house.

The future of this traveling league depends on you members coming to the August 26th meeting. Try to bring your friends too.

Fans Select Sean Rash as “Best Bowler” ESPY Award Winner

LOS ANGELES – Sean Rash followed up his 2011-12 Chris Schenkel PBA Player of the Year crown by receiving the 2012 “Best Bowler” ESPY Award during the 20th Annual ESPY Awards ceremony at the Nokia Theatre Wednesday evening.

Rash became the fans’ choice in the bowling category thanks to a 2011-12 Tour season in which the 29-year-old right-hander won the season-ending PBA Tournament of Champions for his only title, but had six championship round finishes, including third place in the PBA World Championship. Qualifying for a record five consecutive TV finals during the World Series of Bowling helped the Alaska native dominate PBA Tour stats where he finished first in average, points and earnings. His Tournament of Champions win was the fifth Tour title of his career.

“This is very special because it’s an award voted on by the fans—bowling fans and sports fans,” said Rash, who now makes his home in the Chicago suburb of Montgomery, Ill. “The fans are why we do what we do—they’re why I get up in the morning.

“Winning the Tournament of Champions, Player of the Year, getting married (to wife Sara) and winning the ESPY has made it just an unbelievable year,” Rash added. “Even though I had a frustrating start to the season, I had a lot of support from my family, fans, friends and Brunswick and without them I couldn’t have done it.”

Joining Rash at the ceremonies were fellow ESPY candidates Jason Belmonte and Mike Fagan who also were finalists for the PBA Player of the Year crown which was announced on pba.com’s Xtra Frame online bowling channel in May.

During the 2011-12 season Belmonte, who won the ESPY in 2011, won three titles and had seven top five finishes. Fagan qualified for TV shows in all four majors winning the USBC Masters, finished second in the U.S. Open, fourth in the Tournament of Champions and 12th in the PBA World Championship. He also won an international PBA Tour title.

ESPY Award candidates are selected by ESPN staff for a variety of sports categories and special moments in athletic competition. Winners are determined by fan voting through espn.com.

Victor Fabian Wins $13,800 at South Point

Match Game at $3,500 • Match Series est $2,000 • 3-6-9 $2,200 at Bowling Square

ABTA at the "NEW" Chaparral 300 on July 28th • Hcp Bonus and Chance to Win 32" LCD TV

LAS VEGAS — We returned to the South Point Hotel & Casino where we had a great turnout. We saw 697 entries across the 4 days of qualifying to try and win the $14,000 possible with Bonuses. The shot was "medium to tuff" with cuts of +93 for the Men and +64 Women on Wednesday. Thursday the Men +85 and the Women was +80. Friday Men +83 and Women +55. Then on Saturday the men were +77 and Women +46. In the Re-Entry squad the Men were +75 and the Women +61. That would give us 131 bowlers in the semi's on Saturday night. The Super Seniors added to the board (6 men and 2 female) were Doll Ligon+43, Carla Sanchez +41, Norris Montague+79, Tom Dahl+74, Jack Trongale, Javier Avila, Pablo Castro, and Mike Bousquet all at +69. Super Seniors are men 63 and over, and for the women you just need to be a young 55.

Our top Qualifiers were Men, Reno Pignotti +177 and for the Ladies it was Chonthida Athiprayoon with a +109. They will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed draws the Match Series, and this time it was worth $1,554. Reno drew a 392. We had no bowlers that bowled this score during the qualifying squads. The pot will carry over and we will estimate the Match Series at $2,000 at Bowling Square event. The last bowler for the 3-6-9 roll-off was John Samson, he would miss on his first shot and take home a $100 consolation. We will increase the pot to $2,200 at Bowling Square.

In our optional doubles, finishing in first were Vuong Do and Carlos Umana with a 1464 for $200. Finishing in second was Je Je Gabriel and Fred Go with a 1441 for $180. There was a total of $2,390 paid out in doubles and 28 paid spots with low to cash of 1379.

Now, the three game semifinal. After having a big 3rd game Matt Garcia topped the field at +153. Finishing close behind was Cezar Marcella at a +144 to sit out the first round. Our top seed in semifinals had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $3,500. Matt drew a 297. We had no bowlers who shot that score. We will have a pot of $3,500 at our next event at Bowling Square, with a Reserve pot of $3,500 and a 3rd pot now started.

This would bring us to our top 32 Match Play finals. In the first round, the 15 losers were Javier Avila, Dennis Kelsey, Doll Ligon, Bob Alvarado, Mike Bousquet, Manny Loria, Galdino Chavez, Errol Geralde, Reno Pignotti, Luccee Masangcay, Nona Castro, Rithy Ath, Thomas Licauco, Randy Lund, and Christopher Eguilos. They received checks of $245 each. In the second round, eliminated were Marife Catalasan, Danny Eguilos, Otabek Umarov, Cezar Marcella, Amy Galsim, Art Windsor, Chontida Athiprayon, and Lucia Collier. They received checks of $270 each. In the 3rd round of match play eliminated were Vuong Do, Fred Go, Gerry Manalo, and Cary Fishman. They received checks of $400 each. This would get us down to the final five bowlers. The weekly horses are paying a low of $50 (Victor Fabian) to a high of $194 (Jamecart Alarcio). In this round we saw Victor Fabian (20th seed) bowling Don Quitangon (13th seed). We would see another match where it was close to the end as both bowlers bowled decent but it was Victor who held on to win with a 225 to 218 and advance another round. In the other match we saw Ted Villaroman (8th seed) bowling Jamecart Alarcio (9th seed). In this match it was another battle but Ted would win 222 to James 191 and advance to the next round. Jamecart and Don finished in 4th and 5th getting checks for $800 each.

Our semi-final match was set, and would pit the 20 and 8 seeds against each other. In the weekly "horses" we would see Teddy paying $91 and Victor paying $50 if they would win their match. This was another close match during the semis. Each bowler started out with opens to begin the match. It was Victor who got the first double in the 2nd and 3rd frames but Teddy came back with his double in the 5th and 6th frames. Neither bowler was able to jump out to a big lead. It was Teddy who would finish first and he would finish the 10th frame with a solid 10 pin costing him a double. He got a spare and strike to finish with a 240. Up came Victor, and he was up by 5 pins going into the 10th frame and only needed good count and a spare, but he start out with a 6 count, and thus needed the spare and a strike to win the match. He got his spare and came up needing a strike and that he did to finish with a 188/241 to 196/240 and advance to the championship match. Finishing in third place was Ted Villaroman this week for $2,000. For those lucky "investors" that had Victor as a horse, he paid $50. Ted surely could have won that exciting match. Great Bowling!

The title game is set and it would be Victor Fabian against the top qualifier Matt Garcia. Matt elected to have Victor start the match first. Victor would start out with a spare, while Matt started out with an open and then got a double. While Victor would continue to get marks, it was Matt who had back-to-back opens in the 4th and 5th frames and thus Victor was up by 50 pins at that point. An open by Victor in the 6th and a 4 bagger by Matt in the 6th thru 9th frames brought us to a close match entering the 10th frame. Matt came up in the 10th frame needing the first strike to force Victor into getting a strike on his first ball. But he left the 10 pin and that meant all Victor would need was a mark in the 10th frame. Matt finished out with a spare and nine count in the 10th. Victor came up and left the 5 pin on his first ball, which meant if he picked it up he would take home the title. He got the spare and 8 count to finish with a 182/235 to 203/229 and take home $8,000 for first place, $4,400 for Cash and Carry, $100 for wearing an ABTA shirt, $400 in pre-pay, and $900 in squad bonus for a total of $13,800. Finishing in 2nd place for $4,000 was Matt Garcia, who bowled so well

The Release

by Robert Ellison

SAN DIEGO — This weeks tip is one of the most crucial aspects of the bowling game. It’s important to have the right re-lease of the ball for successful and high scores. The ball should be released consistently - shot after shot.

A release point is a technique that a bowler needs to incorporate into their shot. What is a “release point”? This is when the thumb comes out of the ball, followed by the fingers- onto the lanes. There are many “thumbless” bowlers such as Belomante and Suski, the top two PBA bowlers who use this technique.

Top bowlers can control balls by changing the position of the hand, ie. maximum hook, medium hook, or less hook. By utilizing the hand position on various lane patterns- this will increase your versitility on the lanes. PBA bowlers use speed (walking slow or fast), spin (amount of hook generated on ball), and change of hand position (to get the ball to react when and how they want it.

One of the top PBA bowlers who utilizes hand position control is Norm Duke. He can create maximum hook, or roll “end-over-end” which creates a straighter shot.

What is an “ideal” release? The release of the ball is delivered when the bowling ball is under the hand, and fingers are in 6 to 7 o’clock position. The thumb immediately comes out of the ball, and the fingers “hold” the ball until it is released. The fingers upon holding the ball remain in 6 to 7 o’clock and turns to 3 o’clock position (at same time thumb is at the 12 o’clock position). If the fingers go beyond the 3 o’clock and turn into the noon or eleven position- this creates more “spin” than “roll” on the ball.

One of the techniques John Jowdy uses is the “ring-finger lead drill”. This is a method where one stays under the ball and still maintains free armswing. John states “all movement is initiated from the hand during the lowest and heaviest part of the swing, thus requiring no muscle tension”. Once you get your ball on the top of the armswing- then the ring finger will precede the middle finger on the down swing (until the release point). Once the ball reaches the release point - ring finger is at the 9 or 10 o’clock position. The thumb immediately comes out of the ball, and the weight of ball is onto the fingers. The fingers then rotate from bottom to 3 o’clock position.

Its important to focus and practice the release of the ball. Practice is key to consistency in the game; and once you work on making your bowling release as smooth as can be, your scores will improve. Until next time- high scoring and good bowling!

This is a very popular venue and we are hoping to make this year a whopping success.... Look for the green entry forms in ALL Orange County centers. The cost is $25 and the event is handicapped - 90% of 220. We have a super senior division: 75 and over and accommodates the "newly" seniors..55-59 (Class D)...so no excuses! Irvine Lanes is awaiting v' all.....

Citrus Belt President Mike Raddeman, Association Secretary Elise Hamner, and Hall of Famer Paula Vidad made special presentations. Proprietor of the Year is ALEX MANN and Director of the Year is SID GOLDING. I hope to provide more details in the near future. Thank you BOWLING NEWS for recognizing our Citrus Belt honorees.

Rare Bowling Memorabilia Collection to be Auctioned on EBay August 7-11

DALLAS — Sports Memorabilia Auctions are common; but one featuring exclusively Bowling items is rare. August 7-11, 2012, one of the best collections in the world will go up for bid on EBay. Former pro bowler, bowling proprietor, and Dallas Entrepreneur Chuck Lande is the organizer of this historical event. The user ID on EBay will be: BowlingCollection. More than 100 items will be sold to the highest bidders.

The auction items come from a variety of sources, and include several vintage, one of a kind pieces that are owned by Mr. Lande. The energetic Lande has been collecting vintage bowling memorabilia as a hobby for over 20 years; and for the first time, he has decided to sell part of his extensive collection that includes some of the rarest items in the sport’s storied history.

“Several of the rare pieces were on display in my office at the Bowlarama, but now that I no longer own a bowling center, I just thought it was time to put the key pieces up for bid so that other collectors can add to their private collections. But I also wanted to do something nice for the bowl-ing industry, so I have decided to donate 10% of the proceeds from the auction to the International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame in Arlington, Texas,” said Lande.

Among the collection are items dating back more than 100 years. Some are one-of-a-kind mu-seum quality; like a circa 1890 wooden bowling ball and Brunswick leather Carry Case; a very rare 10k gold ABC 300 game award given to Hall of Famer Frank Caruana for his back-to-back 300 games in 1924; one of only 12 issued that year by the American Bowling Congress; and an auto-graphed bowling pin and souvenir program from the 1949 BPAA All Star Tournament.

Another item that may pique interest from baseball collectors is a one-of-a-kind autographed photo of Bowling Legend Don Carter with Baseball Hall of Famers Mickey Mantle, Yogi Berra, and Stan Musial – what did they have in common? They all owned bowling centers when the photo was taken in 1960.

Auctions of other sports items are quite common; but bowling memorabilia is more difficult to acquire compared to sports items in Football or Baseball, making them a great long term invest-ment and a tremendous value. Similar auctions in those sports with equal items would easily net six figures. This auction has rare items that may bring big bucks, but it also contains items anyone can afford; like bowling magazines dating from 1930’s to the 1960’s.

There are no minimum opening bids or reserved prices in the Bowling Auction; some items may go for a few dollars, and others for thousands; but ALL items will go to the respective high bidders regardless of the selling price.

Anyone interested in consigning additional vintage bowling items to this auction; or if you would like an emailed Auction Catalog containing descriptions and high resolution photos, please contact chucklande300@hotmail.com.

REGIONAL ROUNDUP: PAGE WINS BACK-TO-BACK SOUTH REGION TITLES

GASTONIA — Rhino Page of Dade City, Fla., defeated Scott Newell of Deland, Fla., 300-213, 269-201, in their best-of-three-game title match to win his fifth PBA South Region title in the Gastonia (N.C.) Chameleon Championship presented by Columbia 300 at Liberty Lanes Sunday. Page earned $2,500 for his second straight PBA South Regional victory.

The Gastonia tournament also was the second of the PBA South Region’s four “animal pattern” championship events. Newell swept Lee Vanderhoef, Greenville, S.C., 255-251, 199-172, in a semifinal round battle for the paid PBA World Series of Bowling entry, awarded to the highest-finishing player who entered the optional program.

In the PBA West Region, Allen Blansette of Napa, Calif., posted a 10-6 match play record and knocked down a total of 6,070 pins Sunday to win his second PBA Regional title in the Vanessa Brown Homes Viper Open at Yosemite Lanes in Modesto, Calif. Blansette, who earned $2,000, defeated Ross Packard of San Jose, Calif., by 100 pins for the title and he also claimed the World Series entry in the third of the West Region’s four “animal pattern” championship events.

In Johnsbury, Ill., Dave Beres of Waukesha, Wis. and Lennie Boresch of Kenosha, Wis. defeated top qualifiers Derek Eoff of Madison, Wis., and Wayne Webb of Columbus, Ohio, 459-439, to win the PBA Midwest Region Miller Lite Regular/Senior Doubles sponsored by Allstate Insurance at Raymond’s Bowl & Entertainment Sunday.

The win gave Beres four and Boresch 26 career PBA Regional titles. Each earned $2,500. Eoff, who finished second for the third week in a row, and Webb, a PBA Hall of Famer, won $1,400 each for second while Pete Weber of St. Ann, Mo., and Tom Baker of King, N.C. – both PBA Hall of Famers – won $1,100 each for third.

In Liverpool, N.Y., top qualifier Brian LeClair of Athens, N.Y. defeated Darryl Bower of Middletown, Pa., 247-223, to win the PBA East Region Bethmann-Russell Syracuse Open at Flamingo Bowl Sunday. LeClair earned $2,500 along with his 14th career PBA Regional title.

A busy July of PBA Regional competitions continues over the July 13-15 weekend with the East Region’s Mil-Ray Foods Senior Open presented by Roto Grip at Playdrome in Cherry Hill, N.J., the PBA Southwest Region Lubbock (Texas) Cheetah Open at South Plains Lanes, and a joint PBA Midwest/Central Region Wood Dale Senior Open sponsored by Allstate Insurance at Wood Dale (Ill.) Bowl.

“Animal pattern” action picks up July 20-22 with the PBA South Region Spring Hill (Fla.) Cheetah Open at Spring Hill Lanes; the PBA East Region Cap Card Scorpion Open presented by Columbia 300 at Cedar Lanes in Lebanon, Pa; the PBA Central Region Dan Kondas Memorial Scorpion Open presented by DV8, and the PBA Midwest Region Illinois Valley Viper Classic presented by Storm at Illinois Valley Super Bowl in Peru, Ill. The July 20-22 schedule also includes the PBA Southwest Region’s Luci Bonneau Memorial Striking Against Breast Cancer Mixed Doubles at Palace Lanes in Houston and a joint PBA West/Northwest Region Sands Regency Regular/Senior Doubles event, presented by Ebonite, at High Sierra Lanes in Reno, Nev.

Rounding out the July schedule over the July 26-29 weekend will be the PBA East Region Appletree Classic hosted by Mid County Lanes in Middletown, Del.; a joint PBA Midwest/Central Region Laraway Lanes Senior Open presented by Allstate Insurance in New Lenox, Ill.; a joint Midwest/Central Region Dragon Palace Open presented by Ebonite at Orland Bowl in Orland Park, Ill.; the PBA South Region’s Anderson (S.C.) Senior Open at Boulevard Lanes, and the PBA West Region’s Ebonite/South Point Mixed Doubles at South Point Bowling Center in Las Vegas.

In all PBA regional animal pattern championships, players can pay an optional animal pattern entry fee for the right to win a paid entry into the PBA World Series of Bowling, Nov. 2-11 at South Point Bowling Center in Las Vegas. In all seven PBA Regions, the player who accumulates the highest number of competition points in the region’s four animal pattern events (Cheetah, Scorpion, Chameleon and Viper) will earn a World Series entry, whether or not he participates in the “optional” entry program.

Chuck Pezzano

Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

All sports have long seasons. Bowling has had almost endless schedules, and for more than a hundred years league players rolled 36 weeks or more, then usually followed up with short circuits of 10 to 12 weeks.

That is a long time to tie up a person’s time and the responsibility for participation fees whether you roll or not.

A larger problem was to keep competitive interest for such a long stretch. What started as standard, five persons to a team, three games, wins or losses to determine the standings. But sometimes the leagues were runaways, and needed some spicing.

Bowling met the challenges, establishing two, three and four player teams, split schedules with two half schedule winners meeting for the title, and dozens of point systems, with various bonus awards for team game and team series totals and all sorts of points for individual against individual and also bonus scores.

They all helped change the game but the most innovative change came with the adoption of position round competition, also known as bumper rounds.

Adopted more than 50 years ago the format became a standard part of bowling and most major tournaments. Position rounds are simple, instead of a set schedule with predetermined opponents, the teams or individuals are going against each other based on standings. First place team meets second, third faces fourth and so on down the line. The bumper meetings can be scheduled as many times as desired and some leagues run their entire schedules based on position pairings.

It keeps many leagues and tournaments as competitive as possible. Every match means something most of the time and since each higher position receives a larger prize, there usually is something at stake.

Every sport would benefit from position rounds whether it is a battle for a title or a clash for a playoff spot. There wouldn’t be scoreboard watching because your nearest opponent would be your opponent.

Sure, there would be some hasty scheduling at times as the standings change and there also would have to be awards as the lower teams have extra incentive to play well for their pride, their fans and a little bonus cash.

Position rounds have helped speed up the game and properly applied could enhance the competitive conclusion of any sport. Just apply the position round to two of the world’s greatest sports, baseball and football in the past five years, and it is easy to see the benefits.

TV has caused great changes in bowling. For instance, in a major tourney in Steve Nagy and Graz Castellano tied for the 16th and last finalist spot. They rolled a six game rolloff. Now, because of TV that rolloff would be a mere two frames or even a single ball.

All sports seem to be making the long slates longer and longer. In order to maintain as much interest as possible as long as possible, position rounds should be studied.

They helped make bowling a year round sport.

match in the Boys 14-Under division. Adel Wahner of Las Cruces, N.Y., won the Girls 14-Under title, defeating Bailey Palmer of Ottumwa, Iowa, 193-158, 220-159.

The Teen Masters, originated by Killer “B” Promotions founder Gary Beck, is a unique youth tournament, testing player skills on a combination of long- and short-oiled lane conditions as well as bowling equipment limitations which require players to make adjustments in their techniques rather than relying on ball technology. Each competitor will be allowed to use two Ebonite bowling balls. More than 170 youth bowlers will compete for more than $100,000 in scholarship money.

Phone Cards for the Troops Reminder

There is a lot of hype about the Wounded Warriors and the tremendous support they are getting here at home - and this is a good thing but our Phone Cards for the Troops benefit the warriors who are still fighting to preserve our freedom and that of people in countries dominated by tyrants and terrorists.

The California Bowling Writers will embark on their 8th year of raising funds for phone cards that are sent to the men and women in the military in Afghanistan and Iraq. We have raised nearly $50,000 to provide this luxury for our troops who endure tremendous heat, none of the comforts of home and a shower only now and then – if they’re lucky. They spend each day wondering if it will be their last, keeping an eye out for a snipers or roadside bombs, and enduring the loss of friends they have bonded with in their home away from home.

Once again, we ask for your support. Help us take care of those men and women who are still in harms way. You can donate in honor of, or in memory of someone and you can also send us the address of someone you know overseas and we will send a care package with phone card directly to them. This last year we received wonderful letters from the wives of men serving and they told us how important it was to be able to call and talk to their wives and children and how the kids looked forward to talking to mom or dad.

ANAHEIM—Terry Brent's bailiwick IS Bowling and, he proves it time after time! This Friday morning was no exception as evidenced by his games of 214-196-278 and a 220 finale to boast a fine 908. Challenging lane conditions keep Terry on his toes and in the "zone". He was the ONLY bowler to break a 900 which is a testament to his maple moxy. Nice bowling, Master!
