Name One Thing About Bowling You Assume No One Else Knows

by Carol Mancini

Pro Shop Operators Reply

Sherman Joseph – Del Rio Lanes – “The first 2 seconds of your approach are the most important”. “How you get your fingers out of the ball impacts the result at the point of ball/pin connection”

Shorty Ramos – Cal Bowl & Del Rio Pro Shops – “Short people can see the oil pattern better than tall people and catch the change as the game goes on”

Al Macabuhay – Bowlum – “It’s easy to be mediocre but hard to be great. You can’t inherit ability, you can only try, try, try. And then, you might succeed”.

MONTICELLO, Minn. – The 2018 PBA50 Tour started the season in the East, then ventured to the West, and now heads down the homestretch in the Midwest beginning with the PBA50 River City Extreme Open presented by Ebonite at River City Extreme July 17-20 in Monticello, Minn.

With five PBA50 events remaining on the 2018 schedule, 2017 PBA Rookie of the Year and Suncoast Senior U.S. Open winner Michael Haugen Jr. of Phoenix leads the PBA50

Player of the Year points race with a commanding 2,400 point lead over PBA Hall of Famer Walter Ray Williams Jr. of Oxford, Fla., in second. Hall of Famer Ron Mohr of Las Vegas, who has virtually wrapped up his third consecutive PBA60 Player of the Year honor, is in third place nearly 2,800 points behind.

Beauties vs. Beasts Special Event to Kick Off Mixed Doubles Event

HOUSTON – A new “Beauties vs. Beasts” five-game Baker format team match will kick off the annual PBA-PWBA Striking Against Breast Cancer Mixed Doubles Tournament presented by Storm on Thursday, July 26, at 4 p.m. CDT at Copperfield Bowl in Houston, Texas. The special event will be covered live by PBA Xtra Frame on FloBowling.

Tournament founder Donna Conners, who is always looking to add bigger-and-better features to the event, will pit last year’s top male qualifiers against last year’s leading female qualifiers in a Baker format team competition. At stake will be $5,000 in bonus prize money for the winning team, with $1,000 to the losing team.

Bowling on the female side will be Germany’s Birgit Popplar (who won the 2017 mixed doubles title with partner Jason Sterner); Stefanie Johnson of McKinney, Texas; Holly Harris of Wichita, Kan.; Josie Earnest-Barnes of Nashville, Tenn., and Natalie Cortese of Hoffman Estates, Ill. (Cortese replaces Sweden’s Jenny Wegner, who is not entered this year). The male side will feature Kyle Troup of Taylorsville, N.C.; Tommy Jones of Simpsonville, S.C.; Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas; Brad Miller of Raytown, Mo., and Clint Land of Houston.

The 19th annual mixed doubles tournament, the largest event of its kind in professional bowling, will feature a world-class field of 160 teams including players from around the world. It will be covered from start to finish by PBA Xtra Frame on FloBowling, beginning with the first of four eight-game qualifying squads at 8 a.m. CDT on Friday, July 27.

Kindred Spirits from Different Generations

by Dave Williams

When you look up kindred spirits in the Webster’s Dictionary of the 21st century, Google Search, you find the following definition: “a person whose interests or attitudes are similar to one’s own interests.”

Although I have never met Jef Goodger, I often find myself referring to his “The One Board” column that appears each month in Bowlers Journal International. This month was no different, as Goodger’s latest diatribe focused on bowling balls.

“(Don’t) Blame the Ball” started out innocently enough by commenting on a bowling ball that had been left in the trash at the USBC Championships in Syracuse.

“A ball in the trash is relatively tame,” quotes young Goodger, as he goes on to talk about balls being chucked in large bodies of water, heaved off of buildings, and kicked into oblivion with a particular disdain.

This reminded me of an incident that occurred early in my adult bowling career, when our local group of youth bowling graduates had ventured to Sports Center Bowl in South San Francisco to bowl in the famous Washington’s Birthday Singles event, hosted each year by proprietor Dan O’Glove. Ironically, the shot at Sports Center Bowl was off the one board, the title of Mr. Goodger’s monthly column. It was virtually impossible to throw a gutter ball, and if you hit the number three board, it resulted in a bucket (2-4-5-8 spare shot).

One of my friends, who we will call Mr. Anon, did not bowl very well on the one board shot at Sports Center Bowl. He was

SAVING CLOVERLEAF FAMILY BOWL

THE LATEST ON A BOWLING FAMILY OF FRIENDS' EFFORT

by Bette Addington, California Bowling Writers • Photographs courtesy of Kimberly Power/Kimberly Power Photography

FREMONT, CA -- The word spread quickly the first part of June that another California bowling center was in line of being scooped up by a land developer so that the land the center was located on could be used for housing units. It was all over Facebook that the independently-owned Cloverleaf Family Bowl was the target and it drew the attention of bowlers throughout the state. This center has been run by the Hillman family since it opened its door back on March 23, 1963, and centers like this are disappearing. You can't beat bowling in a center that is owned and operated by bowlers!

So, the fight started to keep Cloverleaf Family Bowl by circulating a petition online through Facebook where people could express their support to keep the center. Mike Hillman has been involved in every aspect of this campaign and he just keeps drawing in more and more support from bowlers in the Fremont area as well as bowlers statewide.

But it didn't stop with the petition as these supporters organized and got an entry into the Fremont 4th of July Parade to help promote their message to keep Cloverleaf Family Bowl open and it was a tremendous success.

Mike Hillman addresses City Council

Then, just this past week, the Fremont City Council added Cloverleaf Family Bowl to their agenda and Mike Hillman got the word out and not only asked for bowlers to come to this meeting which took place on Tues., Jul. 10, but also arranged for a march to the City Council from Cloverleaf that night prior to the meeting. The City Council was filled with bowlers that packed the room full and the Council heard from (30) bowlers and friends from the community that asked to keep Cloverleaf Family Bowl open. Many in attendance were drawn to tears.

So, now, since this meeting, Hillman said, "Update as to our future? Nothing since the last Council meeting we attended. I, of course, am already working towards the next step. As soon as I know more or have more that I can share, then I will. But the message to the bowling community should be that as a family, the community has come together in force. We have come together as one. We will not go down without a fight. A Council member told me that we had the largest group ever at a meeting. And the most impressive part was that we didn't find out until Friday. We basically only had a few days to bring the community to the meeting. We had close to 150 walk the march. And standing room only in 3+ rooms plus more in the lobby to support bowling in Fremont and what we do for the community. It's not every day a community stands up to fight for their bowling center!"

Third Annual Tony Martin Memorial Bowling Tournament

August 10-12th, Harbor Lanes/Eureka, CA

EUREKA – Once again, this year Harbor Lanes (2136 Broadway) in Eureka will be holding the Tony Martin Memorial Tourney, with both scratch and handicapped divisions. Not only will the prize fund payout be 1:4 but also 50% will go towards the Tony Martin scholarship fund. Up to the day he passed in 2016, he spent countless time and devotion to help the sport, by helping youth of today really understand the game and enjoy the spirit of competition.

Not only did Tony support youth programs but he would always be out and about at local tournaments if not bowling them, but just helping to promote and support the sport. That’s outside of his many hours he spent with California Bowling, located in Stockton, The Company had three brands at the time Lane Master, Legends, and Lord Field (has added a fourth since in the Swag Line). For those who had the pleasure of meeting Tony, he would always greet you with a smile. Today his son, Ben, carries on what his dad started, not only on the lanes, but also at the California Bowling brands.

The tournament happening at Harbor Lanes begins Friday night (August 10th) with a practice session. By the way, for those interested, the tournament pattern being used is Kegel Stone Street, which pretty much is a 42ft THS (typical house shot) pattern.

On Saturday, 11am, both divisions (Handicap & Scratch) begin their eight games qualifying round. The cut to top 16 (based on 63 entries) will happen, and match play begins the next day at 11 am. Upon first round of match play, the winners will move on until there is a final one game championship game to determine the champions.

This year’s tourney will have raffles for additional prizes, provided by the sponsors such as Lane Masters bowling, Solstice Sports Gear (custom bowling jersey’s), Eureka Golf Course, Marcellies Pizza, and Toy Box (very cool locally owned toy store) to name a few. In addition, Solstice is throwing in a second custom bowling jersey to be awarded to the scratch division champion.

Not only will the bowlers have a great time bowling in a fun environment, meet some great people, win some great prizes, but with today’s real bowling alleys going by the waist side for corporate party centers that just happens to have bowling, lets continue to support the places that love the sport, and Harbor lanes is definitely one of them.

Any questions or to reserve your spot early, contact Kent Ames at Harbor Lanes Pro Shop at (707) 443-4533.

"Californian" TONY RODRIGUEZ JR. Joins STORM Staff

by Frank Weiler

BRIGHAM CITY, UT – As I write, Tony Rodriguez Jr. is at Storm Headquarters as part of his latest assignment as a Social Media Correspondent for the company. Of course everything Tony does is a "Family Affair". Traveling with him is wife Lisa and son Tony III.

In addition to competing on the PBA 50 Tour as a bowler, Tony will now be posting Tour news and interviews on his Facebook website (RoadtrippinwithPBA50TonyRodriguezJr@PBA50TonyRodriguezJr).

For anyone wanting to get an insiders look at what's happening on the PBA 50 Tour visit Tony's Facebook website. Recent interviews with Champions Mike Diaz and Chris Warren are posted there.

Tony Rodriguez Jr. is another example of a CALIFORNIA BOWLER doing well. Tony will be competing at the PBA 50 Tour Stop in Monticello, Minnesota on July 17 to 20. Watch for his Facebook Website posts from there. For more information on Storm's social media activities contact their Social Media Manager Blair Blumenscheid.

Center, so on the way back to Sebastopol, in Northern California, our caravan of cars stopped on the majestic Golden Gate Bridge at about 3AM.

Everyone was wondering what was going on. Apparently, Mr. Anon was so disgusted with his performance on the one board shot, that he jumped out of the car and threw his bowling ball over the side of the bridge!

It was very foggy that evening, so I can neither deny or admit to the claim, although I never again saw that particular bowling ball in the hands of Mr. Anon.

Goodger goes on to comment about bowling balls being heaved off of buildings, and while this is a practice you would not want to make common in your neighborhood, it did serve David Letterman quite well over the years.

Letterman's use of Dick Weber bowling outside of the Ed Sullivan Theater in Manhattan on a lane provided by AMF was a stroke of genius for the promoters at the former Fortune 500 company. Weber rolled bowling balls at everything from television sets to eggs in an aquarium.

But when it came to throwing bowling balls off of a building, nothing could compare to "Bob Borden's Bowling Ball Demolition," in which members of David Letterman's audience destroyed a used automobile by dropping balls from a 5-story building. In another episode, Letterman had contestants drop bowling balls from the top of a building into a bathtub full of chocolate pudding.

And what about kicking a bowling ball into oblivion with disdain? This brought back memories of Eagle Rock Lanes in West Orange, New Jersey, the site of one of my perfectos way back in 1984. The locals and regional professionals called it "Easy Rock," because the lanes were meticulously cared for by general manager Tony Cerrato.

But in the rare event that you did not perform well at Eagle Rock, you could find redemption on the other side of the parking lot, where you can still kick your ball into oblivion at Crystal Lake. During the winter months it's fun to count the number of balls on the frozen lake and find out just how far some individuals can kick (or roll) their once trusted bowling ball!

Another reference to kindred spirits found in the annals of Google Search was a quote from Mimi Novic, a new age musical artist. She writes, "Throughout this journey of life we meet many people along the way. Each one has a purpose in our life. No one we meet is ever a coincidence."

Perhaps one day Mr. Goodger and I will meet in person, but until that time I already feel that I know him through his most entertaining and thought-provoking journalism. His unique style reminds me of all the meaningful (and useless) moments during my 58-year involvement with this crazy game we call bowling.

'Finally, Finally' – Geoff Gast Blows Past 200

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – "You just didn't go over 200. You destroyed it."

So said elite bowler Joe Curry after Geoff Gast reached his long-held goal of rolling a 200 game.

Gast, who averages 119, smoked a 211 in the final game of his three-game series last week during his weekly "Guys and Dolls" league competition at Winnetka Bowl.

Gast has been bowling in the league for eight years and has been laser-focused on bowling a 200, coming close a couple of times.

"Finally, finally!" exclaimed top bowler Greg Kolski, who has been bowling alongside Gast since the latter joined the league.

The right-handed Gast is one of the most popular and charismatic bowlers in the area. So, it was no surprise that Gast was engulfed by a mob of congratulatory bowlers after his sizzling performance.

With 99 pins of handicap, Gast's score was elevated to a stratospheric 310 – the best handicap score in the league.

The 211 seemingly came out of nowhere; Gast had scored a 104 and 114 in his previous two games. His high this season had been a 151.

Nor did it seem anything extraordinary was in the making in the early going of the third game. But after two spares and an open in the first three frames, Gast went on a breathtaking roll.

Finding his rhythm and with his unshakable determination etched on his face, Gast put together a five-bagger from frames 4 through 8.

He opened in the ninth frame, leaving him with a score of 192 when he toed the line for the 10th frame. Needing eight pins for his 200, Gast extinguished any doubts by delivering his sixth strike of the game. He added nine pins on his next two shots. Ever gracious, Gast credited long-time teammate and anchorman Jamie Beeler for his success.

"He's taught me everything I know," said Gast, adding that teammate Robert Uzan also provided valuable tips. With his 211, Gast showed he learned his lessons well.

1984 – PART 2

by Carol Mancini

Balls, bags and bowlers. Scores and more. That’s what we’ll be looking for in part II. Come on along!

- The ACTIVE WEST chain had 25 centers. Only five or six are still open in 2018 and they have new names.
- RAY SVELA was owner of GAGE BOWL. He was active in local, state and national ABC activities. He and TERRY BRUTOCAO (ANAHEIM BOWL owner) made the front page many weeks for their contributions to the sport.
- Young BOB McINTYRE was on the LABA Board as a Director. His job was to give out awards all over town and have his picture taken with the award winner.
- Imagine the “Wheelchair Bowling League”. What an awesome sight! They doubled up quite often for various “Up and Down” tournaments to raise money for a worthy cause.
- MARK ROTH and MARSHALL HOLMAN captured the PBA Doubles at the SHOW-BOAT LANES. Talk about REVS. Who could match that pair?
- TOKAY BOWL in Lodi hosted the WWPB Miller Open. California gals topped the list. TISH JOHNSON Champ, SANDY ELLEDGE, ROBIN ROMEO, ANNIE MARIE PIKE and PAM BUCKNER (Reno). They moved down to CANOGA PARK for their next event. These gals were grabbing the headlines from the PBA.
- In 1984 the BPAA had a “long range” plan. It was "Develop New Bowlers!" How long did that plan last? When was the last time your center developd a new bowler?
- I wish there was someone around that could explain why the So. Division of the A.B.T. had a court order against them not to run tournaments. Lot of finger pointing and $ $ $ checking was going on.
- SHARIE LANGFORD was crowned CWBA Queen.
- TISH JOHNSON won her 4th WWPB crown in 6 outings.
- GLENN ALLISON and NORM BELT put on a “trick shot” exhibition at CANOGA PARK BOWL before the W.W.P.B. touring pro-am.
- SAN DIEGO B.A. inducted 3 into their Hall of Fame. MANNY DI GIULIO, JIM POTEET and JOHN RUSSELL Jr.
- The National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum opened in St. Louis, right across the street from Busch Stadium and a few blocks from the arch.
- AMF sold off its VOIT subsidiary in Buena Park. They went from 800 employees to 100. They manufactured inflatable balls!
- Norway had 24 bowling centers.
- ETC., ETC., ETC. TISH JOHNSON won again, at CANOGA PARK. “Others” included ROBIN ROMEO, VIRGINIA NORTON, ANNE MARIE PIKE and BETTY MORRIS. It became “who’s going to come in second this time?”
- The Olympics were scheduled in L.A. But still no bowling events. Phoohey!
- RICHARD DARLING converted the 7-10 split at HEMET BOWL. Big deal? He collected 300,000 Blue Chip Stamps and the 2 center managers had ‘No Comment’ for the news.
- AOKI BOWL in Sapporo, Japan was an A.M.F. Center with 126 lanes.
- According to bowling writer BOB JOHNSON, RODNEY DANGERFIELD and bowling had one thing in common “they get no respect.”
- Brunswick Corp. was raising funds to get bowling into the OLYMPICS.
- Some guy named SONNY EUBANKS started on his voyage to be a top bowler with a 300 game at TROPICANA LANES.
- Wil Betteridge ordered personalized car plates that read WIL BOWL.
- J.A.T. FARM CLUB champs pictured August 3, 1984 were JEFF GABLE and STACY RIDER.
- San Gabriel Valley WBA Awards winners: MARY ALPINE, Bowler of the Year; SHERYL POOLE, High Average (197); Patti Bocanfuso, High Game 289; and Jamie Sebenius High Series 734.
- BUTCH SOPER was inducted into the Orange County Hall of Fame.
- Over 300 attended the San Diego Awards dinner in August. Bowlers of the Year? Billie Lee and Marv Sargent . Billie for the 3rd time.
- What happened to the “National Family Tournament”? A great competition for young bowlers and a chance at $500 in scholarship money.
- Memory lane re-visited. JOE NORRIS was pictured with his gold medal (engraved with a German Swastika) he won in the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin. Joe did it all. His record could fill a volumn “Bowling’s All Time Greats.” Joe was 76 in 1984 and still carried a 200+ average in SAN DIEGO. His 53 year ABC tournament average was 194. And. . . he knocked own more pins than any other competitor in the ABC.
- MAR-LIN-DO LANES sold everything and closed the doors.
- CANOGA PARK BOWL had a wall filled with oil paintings of 12 great competitors. The local artist unidentified. Pictured were DICK WEBER, VIRGINIA NORTON, DON CARTER, NICKI GIANULIAS, ROBIN ROMEO, BETTY MORRIS GLENN ALLISON, CHERY ROBINSON, BOBBE NORTH and BETTY MIVELAZ. (We are trying to find out if they stil exist!)
- When the men’s state tournament was awarded to Fresno, the jokes came out. JOHN-NY CARSON spouted “the only thing worse then one night in Fresno is two nights in Fresno. Out of 277 cities ranked by desire, Fresno was ranked 277th.
- ANDY VARIPAPA died at age 93 of natural causes.
- COVE LANES must have loved high scores. The Travel League came to town and went away with a bunch of strikes. DAN ROCHE 264, 268, 268/806, GLENN ALLISON 275, 267, 254. JOHN SMITH 274, 217, 269. PETE UJVARI 296. The teams were stacked with some great shooters. PAUL STAFF, JIM THURMOND, TOM UNDERWOOD, JOE TORRES, CHARLES GLEASON, WILLY BORDENAVE, and RICH LA CHANCE.
- The Roll’N DonKee Rolling Ball Carrier made its debut. It held 3 balls, shoes, and accessories. It rolled or could be carried. KEITH KENWORTHY was WAY TOO GENEROUS for his own good! The Carrier was only $60.00.
- The A.B.C. certified 8,720 centers in 1984. A decrease of 47 over 1983. But - - - the number of actual lanes increased!
- Quite a number of “experts” began to believe what BILL TAYLOR had been preaching. Technology was killing the sport. Only hard work, practice and good instruction could produce a champion — good enough for Olympic competition. The fight continued! ! !
- DEBBIE MOORE was the first woman to roll a 300 at CAL BOWL and only the second in the 39 year history of the Long Beach W.B.A.
- LILA BORNHAUSEN bought a NBA-21 Tournament Club franchise. She ran the events, wrote the stories, checked the averages and ran a clean (very clean) tournament.
- KEN LOWMAN (Bowling News Editor) wrote in his coumn — “Open play won’t keep any center’s doors open.” “Leagues pay the bills.” (Wish we could hear his theory today.)
- Brunswick UPLAND BOWL was under construction and scheduled to open in February of 1985, 40 lanes and all the latest equipment.
- MILTON BERLE was the host of the weekly T.V. show “Jackpot Bowling”.
- MYRLE NORTH retired after 33 years as the Secretary Treasurer of the Citrus Belt W.B.A. They had 537,708 women members.
- CHRISTMAS CLUB Leagues were the new fad. Start in January and end the first of December in time for Christmas shopping. BARBARA McLAUGHLIN took credit for starting a tradition.
- Latest week-end craze was the “Pot Shot” at DEL RIO LANES. It was a “re-named” version of the “Hot Pot” that ran at Grand Central. It grew to fill the 32 lanes with No-Tappers.
- TISH JOHNSON won her 5th W.W.P.B. crown.
- VERDUGO HILLS BOWL rounded up 60 different Cabbage Patch Dolls and ran a tournament! 1st place got first choice of a doll. Each doll had a birth certificate. They were all made in England. That fad came and went as fast as a tornado thru Kansas! Yep! Men could enter too.
- WONDERBOWL DOWNEY offered a First Place Prize you could drive away in— a 1985 Laser. Who made it ? ? ? Guess!

Carol Sez: The end of the year was filled with good cheer — and so were the bowlers. 1984 was the year to score. 1985 will be coming with names, numbers and more.

CAL BOWL BOWLING REPORT

by Lil'

2500 E. Carson St., Lakewood, CA 90712 • (562) 421-8448

LAKEWOOD — Last week was "Bowler Appreciation Week". The lanes were loaded from open to close. Every league bowler could have 3 free games every day, Monday thru Friday. This yearly event brings in old faces, new bowlers and faithful league members. BIG THANK YOU for BOWLING AT CAL BOWL.

Now for a look at the scores from this week's league sheets:

Senior Men's Trio: Curt Soares flew high this week. How about 274, 268/770? Team "Oh Yeah" has got plenty of attitude sitting in first. Other scores from this league: Paul Johnson 278/706, Emmerson Wafer 681, Jerry Cant 681, Paul Staff 679, John Woods 257, Chris Abing 249.

C.A.U.L.: Allan Lee was in a groove with 213, 213/ 597. Lori Gilmore was a 3-time winner on the sheet this week 205, 153, 148/506. Names might not be in lights, but sure feels good to see them in print. Other names and scores: Alan Nyberg 589, Steve Gearhart 583, Blayke Miller 573, David Regul 570, Tri Nguyen 565, Rich Dahmen 563, Lori Gilmore 205/506.

Sierra Bugs: The only thing "bugging" the "Sierra Bugs" is 10 pins! (And which fans should be on.) Pamela Johnson 490, Connie Wood 202/481, Darlene Waken 204/461. Side-pot winners—Game One: Cheryl Hilton/Shinako Saner 202; Game Two: Darlene Waken 204; Game Three: Connie Wood 221.

Cal Bowleros: The "Bowling Brats" went from worse to first this week. One week is better than NEVER - RIGHT ?? Winners from the Side-pot games: 1st game: Barbara Weeks 230; 2nd game: Karen Robbins 194; 3rd game: Anna Von Muegge 210. High scores that made the honor roll: Becky Carroll 528, Carolyn Rousseau 515, Yvonne Clark 496.

Recycled Teens: How many times do teenagers get "Recycled" before they can join a Senior League? Just wondering. Scores from this week: Chris Abing 247/638, Rey Santos 600, Jojo Jasmin 598, Rod Nicas 592, Joe DeJesus 578, Adela Santos 524.

10 For 10 Monday: Looks like the winning team is all gals! Congrats: No one catch you this week. Great job. Yolanda Smith, Renita Harris, Shannon Woods and Anita Williams. Some scores: Marshall Lineberger 704, Anthony Cartwright 626, Don Matthews 542, Toni Hixon 497, James Matthews 258, Daniel Albino 238.

Pin Heads: Tom Komadina was the top pin thumper for the guys this week, 189/506. BUT, Stacy Kelly stacked 'em higher! 199, 174, 173/546!

Fil-Am: Paul Staff topped the sheet — Big 683. Ask him about bowling with So. Calif. greats in 1983-84! He was one too! But, - - - Curt Soares hopped over the seven line with his 717. "Annie" Yonemura used her big gun to blast the pins and pile up 535 logs.

Laughlin Bowler Bears: The great secretary Elaine Harmon made all the "high scores column this week. 179-200//524. The other great "tall" scorer was Jonathan Gale. (You can't miss him!) And he couldn't miss the headpin. How about 254-210-203/667??? All teams have names! Only leagues at Cal with a sense of humor!

Gobs and Gals: Even though team "Cervceros" doesn't have the highest team average, they have the "right stuff" to win games. Maybe it's the beer! Scores: Rick Barbaria Grandma/Grandpa's: What a great week. Everyone was here! No subs. Billy Williams did the two-step with the 10 pin to rack up 194, 194, 185/573. Joanne Burke waltzed her way to a 511 on a couple of goodys — 182 and 178.

Funsters: Randy Antazo—way to go. Big 663. Yvonne Clarke reached for the bars, and had a sweet 546. Side-pot winners—MEN: Game one: Fale Sula 250, Game two: Randy Antazo 265; Game three: Josh Hudson 241. WOMEN: Game One: Cecilia De Jesus 229; Game two: Odette Dalton 186; Game three: Adela Santos 267.

Some of you may be on summer vacations so here's a note to remind you to use sun screen where the sun is extra strong. Always face the ocean and check with the life guards on the tide and other safety measures. Have fun but be careful.
