“Beast” Battiest Makes JAT “Grand Exit”

by David Yamauchi

WESTMINSTER- Our JAT members have been traveling the country from Las Vegas to Indianapolis to compete in great scratch junior bowling events all over the country. For the first time in a month JAT tournament action was alive and well at Westminster Lanes. Though some of the bowlers were recuperating from their jet lag, a strong field of 32 bowlers took the lanes in Open Division competition.

Walking up to the check-in table bowlers shared stories about their trips for team tournaments in Las Vegas and tough lane conditions in Indianapolis. Long-time JAT member Marcus Battiest announced that it was his last tournament in his junior career as he is “aged-out” at 22 years old. He noted on his recap that today was the last stop on the “Marcus Farewell Tour ’05”. Little did we know then what a day it would be for him!

After 5 games of qualifying, Chris Fritsch led the field by almost 100 pins at +211. Cut for the top-14 bowlers was Sam Hitchcock at +25, while qualifying high game went to lefty Jeff Spiesman at 268. Battiest bowled well enough to sit in 8th after qualifying but was ready to roll for match play.

Going into match-play the lanes started to open up and scoring started to rise. Chris Fritsch led most of the way swapping spots with Brian Leseberg after Leseberg’s 729 out of the gate. After starting with a 209, Marcus Battiest took over the tournament lead on games of 256-229-229-256 with a 5-0 match-play record landing him at +392. Close on his heels was Brian Leseberg at +360, third-seed Chris Fritsch at +302 and fourth-seed Jeff Spiesman who snapped off alternate Kevin Valmonte by just 4 sticks at +267. In his many years of bowling JAT, here in his last event it was the first time that Marcus Battiest was top-seed going into the finals!

In the finals, lefty Jeff Spiesman took on the recently red-hot Chris Fritsch. Fritsch and Spiesman duked it out and Fritsch forced Spiesman to strike in the 10th to win the match. Jeff made a decent shot that came up high but the 6-7 tripped forward and carried him to a 231-221 win. Jeff then moved on to meet second-seed Brian Leseberg. In a battle of 9-counts, Spiesman looked to be set to advance, then a flagged 7-pin in the 10th frame opened up the door for Leseberg. Brian took advantage, flushing the first two strikes and taking a 195-193 win. This set up a final between Leseberg and Marcus Battiest. The match started slow but Marcus seemed determined to go out with a bang. In the 10th frame following a string, Leseberg went 9-count-spare and gave Marcus a chance to mark for his first title. Marcus stepped up like a seasoned veteran and buried the first two in the tenth for a 233-213 victory. It was Marcus’ first JAT title after several years of JAT participation and a great way for him to finish off his JAT career. Congratulations Marcus “Beast” Battiest!

To all of you who may be teetering on the line between staying junior or turning adult at the end of the summer, as I spoke on at the awards banquet I strongly encourage you to fully enjoy your junior eligibility. In our game, which allows you to build fantastic camaraderie and also earn college scholarships funds, it is truly an once-in-a-lifetime experience to participate in scratch junior bowling in Southern California. Many alumni who I speak to tell me that their JAT and All-Stars years were the best years of bowling in their lives and several regret giving up their final few years with their friends on the lanes. Through our game can you have all made friends from all over Southern California who you will have a great time with and share stories about your JAT days for the rest of your lives! We hope to have you all back in the fall for both JAT and Greater L.A. Junior All-Star action!

The JAT is back in action this Sunday at AMF Rocket Lanes in Chatsworth. Due to $2.50 lineage, this tournament will be $35 entry fee so bring that extra Lincoln to the tournament! We will also be trying out a new “double-cut” format in the Open Division also so you better bring your “A” game! See you all on Sunday!

National Deaf Bowling News

by Connie Marchione

INDIANAPOLIS...USBC sent me the day to day results of its recently held 2005 Junior Gold Bowling Championships in Indianapolis from July 11 to 15. This is the 7th annual tournament in which youth bowlers (from 10 to 21 years old) compete for scholarship prizes and places on the Junior Team USA. USBC sends its Junior Team USA to International Youth Bowling Tournaments,

There were a record 1,476 teenagers and adult kids (1,026 males and 450 females) entered in this Junior Gold tournament vying for $55,000 in scholarship prizes. Most are from their state youth tournaments and Pepsi Youth tournaments.

With that many bowlers, USBC used three large bowling centers in Indianapolis and each bowler had to bowl on challenging Sport Bowling lane conditions in each center. The 3 days first qualifying round consisted of 18 games, 6 games per day in each center. Then in the semi-finals the field was cut top 146 males and 64 females for additional 12 qualifying games in one center, Woodland Bowl. After that top 16 boys and 16 girls with 30 games total pinfall went in 16 one game round robin match play with 10 points going to the winner of the matches. At the end, the top six boys and six girls are on the 2006 Junior Team USA and two additional bowlers were selected from each match play to fill the teams.

Hearing impaired Lindsey Coulles, Centerville, OH had bowled in the 2003 and 2004 Junior Gold tournaments and made the girls 2004 and 2005 Junior Team USA. She entered in this one but found the lanes too tough and failed to repeat for 2006 Junior Team USA.

For her first 6 games Coulles, 21 and a Junior at Morehead University had a good 1153 for 20th place but faltered to 1050 and 1091 in her next two 6 games for 3294 to qualify in 53rd place for the semi-finals additional 12 games. In the semi-finals first 6 games she moved up to 45th with 1097 for 4391 but finished with 5386, way out of qualifying for match play.

Looking for a familiar name in the 1026 male bowlers and wishing that the 16 years old Deaf Team USA member from Rhode Island, Rai Doblmeier had entered, found his name resting in 183rd place with 1123 for first 6 games. Like Coulles, Doblmeier, Warwick, RI found the Sport Bowling conditions tough as he trailed down to 1096 and 986 in his next two 6 games and finished in 323rd place with 3206. Also looking for the hearing impaired PWBA’s Laura Lee Daniel’s two deaf sons Larry and Bryan’s names among the male entries and disappointed to find them not there. They and other deaf young bowlers should have try to bowl in the Junior Gold tournaments to get the tournament experience before they bowl in any deaf tournaments. Look at Coulles, as a member of Junior Team USA for two years she had bowled for USA in International Youth tournaments. The last one being in Miami where she won two gold and a silver medals. While Coulles may be over age for next year’s Junior Gold tournament, she might enter in the National Amateur Championships like she did last year to try for the Team USA. For young Doblmeier, he should keep on trying to qualify through his state Junior Gold tournament or in another state’s. Some of the older youths in this Junior Gold tournament are experienced because they had bowled in six or seven of them.

The eventual girls winner, Stephanie Nation, 21, FL who won her third straight title, had competed for 7th time. The boys winner, Chris Bolasan, 20, VA struck gold for first time after 5 tries. Both like the others who made the Junior Team USA bowled like they were experienced this kind of competition with that many games. I honestly do not know what happened to Lindsey.

They Keep Roll’n At County Fair

COSTA MESA — Captain Billy, president of the Orange County Bowling Association, knows hot to keep 2005 County Fair kids happy. Just “Keep ’em Roll’n” that big heavy ball at those monster pins.

Captain Billy keeps the 60-foot genuine bowling lane operating, and volunteers like Allan MacDuffee shows the kids how to hold that adult size ball. Allan said, ““I am surprised how well they do, even get strikes earning free games at their favorite Orange County bowling center.”

Captain Billy says we need volunteers. It’s a fun experience. The current fair is running at a record pace. Eleven days, including two weekends, to go. Any bowler wanting to get in the act can call 714-554-1880 or 714-554-0111.

OCWBA News

by Alice Meglemre

The OCWBA final Board Meeting was held Monday night and it was bittersweet. The Pot Luck party was super and there were smiles on faces that concealed the sad fact that soon the OCWBA will no longer exist.

As of July 31, the USBC replaces local, state and national bowling organizations but the memory of a lot of happy years will linger on. Officers are are upbeat and hopefully will do whatever is required to make the merger successful through the transition. The postponed July 17 USBC Orange County meeting has not yet been slated but it will be announced as soon as local officials get the news. For now, according the secretary Cheryl Huntington, it will be “business as usual” as winter leagues prepare for the new season and the July 23-24 Senior Singles tournament is held at Forest Lanes. Entry forms are available at the office and local centers. Also, walk-in entry will be accepted if squads are not filled. For more information, call the office at (714) 554-0111.

President Cindy Miles and secretary Cheryl Huntington were honored when the Board approved Life Membership for them, and Hall of Fame elections, along with Emeritae membership, added several names to it’s rosters.

Since this will be my last column as OCWBA Publicity Chairman, I want to thank Cindy for the appointment and to say I enjoyed reporting news and event of the OCWBA this past year.

TENPIN SLANTS

By Joe Lyou

You could've fooled me. I didn't realize the Mini Eliminator megabuck tournament could be so exciting. The 2005 edition of the annual July 4th Mini Eliminator, which was staged from July 2-10 at The Orleans Bowling Center in Las Vegas, had just about everything.

There was enough excitement—and surprises—to please everyone, including the many relatives, friends and spectators who crowded the concourse. More than 1,000 entrants took their best shots for a piece of the rich Mini Eliminator prize fund. Counting the many re-entries that were permitted, the estimated total number of bowlers was about 2,500.

The biggest surprise was the winner of the Mini Eliminator itself, Ted Staikoff, the Senior Division's top qualifier from Black Hawk, S.D. Staikoff pocketed $30,000 after shooting a 214 game in the four-man finals. He was the only bowler to roll a clean game, and that was enough to edge his three rivals in a close finals shootout.

Staikoff's victory, it turned out, was not such a big surprise, after all, since he was the third consecutive senior to capture the Mini Eliminator and the fifth in the last 12 years.

The Mini Eliminator was like a three-ring circus, with the MoRich Match Play Championship, a new $100,000 event, and the Dynarooz Mini Eliminator Mixed Doubles, another new attraction, also highlighting the virtually nonstop action.

The MoRich Match Play Championship was the opening act of the tenpin circus on the weekend of July 2-3, and taking the $20,000 first-place prize was Minnesota's Chad Nelson. Nelson easily defeated Michigan's Tom Smallwood, 235-191, in the final match. Smallwood was consoled by his $10,000 runner-up check.

The Dynarooz Mixed Doubles was held on the night of Monday, July 4th—and there were plenty of fireworks. The hottest couple were Jen Petrick of Minnesota and Alex Cavagnaro of New York, who combined for a six-game doubles score of 1386 and divided $3,000.

Forty-five teams entered the Dynarooz Mixed Doubles and nine of them collected checks. Low to cash was 1310, worth $600. Dynarooz also awarded 12 pairs of their $200 top-of-the-line bowling shoes to the individual high-game shooters.

The crowd favorites in the Mixed Doubles were Southern Californians Missy Bellinder and Scott Norton, but they failed to cash.

Don't feel sorry for Norton, though, as the talented 23-year-old lefthander from Cypress earned more than $5,000 for the week. Norton won the Wednesday night Turbo 2-N-1 Sweeper, good for $2,400, and he got $2,500 after qualifying for the Mini Eliminator's match-play segment. He also collected several checks in other nightly sweepers and the brackets.

In winning the Wednesday night sweeper, Norton fired games of 278 and 268 for a spiffy 546 total. Perhaps he bowled so well because his mother, WIBC Hall of Famer Virginia Norton, was present all week and offered her support and encouragement on every shot.

There was still another big-money event, the $100,000 Brunswick Shootout. Bagging the $10,000 top prize was Las Vegas' own John Cocchi, a Super Senior Division entrant. Brunswick staffer and Hall of Famer Johnny Petraglia was on hand to reward Cocchi with his check and championship trophy.

The 12th annual Mini Eliminator was a typical Steve Sanders' promotion—lots of bowlers and plenty of guaranteed prizes paid out. Sanders, president of Pinnacle Events, distributed well over $1 million to the deserving bowlers at The Orleans.

Eyeball these staggering payout figures: In addition to the $30,000 won by Ted Staikoff (Mini Eliminator) and the $20,000 won by Chad Nelson (MoRich Match Play Championship), at least 10 other bowlers received $10,000 checks, a total of 16 bowlers earned $5,000 checks, and at least 80 bowlers cashed for a minimum of $2,000—all in guaranteed payoffs by Pinnacle Events. Positively amazing!

MINI NOTES: Bowlers from 15 foreign countries took part in the 2005 Mini Eliminator. The reason? The tournament is now a North American Zone Ranking Event for the World Tenpin Bowling Assn. That means bowlers in North America can earn points toward the prestigious WTBA Ranking Masters Tournament, to be held in Kuwait next year...

International megabuck star Tim Mack used the July 4th holiday weekend to marry his longtime steady, PWBA champion Brenda Norman...It was reported that Hall of Famer Barry Asher was one of those who were invited to attend the ceremony. Asher was a guest on a houseboat at Lake Mead when he decided to take an impromptu dip. The only problem was that Asher had forgotten he had a wad of loose bills in his pocket. The bills floated out of his pocket when he hit the water, and he retrieved what he could but still lost a couple of hundred dollars. It was just another way to lose money in Las Vegas...As a footnote, Asher observed his 59th birthday on July 14. Coincidentally, that's the same natal day for Hall of Famers Mort Luby Jr. and Pam Buckner. It's also Bastille Day, or France's Fourth of July...

Kim Bolleby, an amazing 13-year-old southpaw from Sweden, made it all the way to the Mini Eliminator's Round of 16. He lost to a 65-year-old senior, Randolph Salmon, 219-204. Bolleby, who resembles a lefthanded George Howard, received a check for $5,000. According to his proud father, Ulf Bolleby, 41, his son's goal is to join the PBA Tour, but he has to wait five years before he is eligible. That's a lifetime for him, said the senior Bolleby, who once tried the PBA Tour "for about 12 tournaments. He competed in the 1985 SoCal Open that was won by his good friend, Mats Karlsson, at the Bowling Center of Riverside...

For the record, it was George Lambert who eliminated Scott Norton, 217=206, in the first round of match play in the Mini Eliminator. Norton had the match well in hand until he left the Greek Church (4-6-7-8-10) in the ninth frame. I don't think I deserved to get the Greek Church on that shot, said a dejected Norton...

Las Vegas senior Terry Leong paired with Sharon Aronson of Turlock, Calif., also a senior, in the Dynarooz Mixed Doubles. I think we ought to get some handicap, Leong joked, "as our combine age is over 100 years". Someone pointed out that the total age of Missy Bellinder and Scott Norton, both 23-year-olds who were bowling on an adjacent pair, was just 46, or less than half that of Aronson and Leong. Aronson, by the way, is a So Cal Hall of Famer, having lived in Chino Hills before moving to Turlock, in central California...

FINAL ITEM: Mike Taylor, a former touring pro, bowled with Char Hammel in the Dynarooz Mixed Doubles. They placed fourth with 1328 for $1,200. Hammel, who once lived in Whittier, now makes her home in Henderson, Nev. When she wasn't bowling at The Orleans, Hammel was working as a dealer at the World Series of Poker at the Rio Hotel and Casino. Taylor, of course, is the son of So Cal Hall of Famer Lee Taylor...

Editor's note: Great coverage Joe. Thanks.

ARCADIA—Affable Jeff Garrison was truly the star at last Saturday night’s ABTA event at popular Bowling Square as he won his first ABTA title downing James Abilar 237-260 to take home a nice $2,200 top prize to Redondo Beach.

Jeff not only won the event, but fired a perfect game in the semifinal match vs Lea Viernes to propel him to the title game. The crowd appreciated his perfect with many cheers. He did it the hard way winning five straight matches to win the event. He was also the men’s cut +76 to barely make the semifinals board.

Jeff topped a decent turnout of 182 entrants at AMF Bowling Square, the popular center located in Arcadia. The bowlers produced cut scores of +76 for the men, and +28 for our lady bowlers. We had 43 bowlers advance to the semis which also added Super Seniors Frank Menchaca, Javier Avila, and Emma Trinidad.

Leading the Semis was the pride of San Gabriel, James Abilar with his nice +128 set with John Gonzales in second place at +114. James would sit out and bowl for the title with John receiving a first round bye in the top 16 single elims. It took a +40 to make the top 16 Single Elim Finals which included three women. The top sixteen took to the lanes, and losing in round one of the single elims finals were Je Je Gabriel, Alvin Reyes, Romy Cajucom, Stan Por, Emma Trinidad, Nick Smith and Chris Ragunton. They got $100 finishing in 10-16th places.

Round two had Gonzales enter the field and lose to Lea Viernes 214-187. Jeff Garrison got to Alejandro Vela 231-203. J. T. Jackson downed Jesse Cortez in a good one 241-236. Gil Potempo took out his super senior counterpart Bobbie McCollum 201-182. The losers of round two got checks of $110 each in places 6-9th.

Round three saw two portsiders meet with Garrison edging Potempo 218-216. Lea Viernes took it to J. T. 257-203. J. T. and Gil were 4th and 5th with Lea and Jeff to meet for the right to advance to the title game vs Abilar.

This match was a classic and although Lea bowled well, Jeff was Super, and Perfect with a 300 game. The crowd cheered his fine game. All balls were in the hole for an ABTA Award score. The final result Jeff 300/304, Lea 194/216. Jeff was on to the title game vs Abilar, with the pretty lady 3rd with fine bowling, and $200.

The Match was set with bowlers performing so well, we expected a good one. James elected to start, and did so with a spare strike. But the problem was that Jeff started with a double and after James opened in frame 4, Jeff then had a four bagger to take the lead. James tried and got a big strike in the 6th but Jeff answered with another double to take a big lead. James just couldn’t find his shot in the semis. Jeff coasted at the end to a 237/241-160/198 win and his first a ABTA Title in a stylish way, and the nice $2,200 top prize. Great bowling by Jeff who I have know for many years. He is a great bowler and also a great guy and as we know, perfect at times:_) . As my staff says, he is one of the nicest guys while checking in to bowl and what more can you say except that he is respected, and well-liked by all. Great Bowling Jeff!

ABTA Notes: Tourney Hi Qualifiers were J. T. Jackson +187 for the men, and K. C. Wolfe led the ladies +73. They will receive paid entries.

The optional doubles were taken by Michael Kong, and Angel Chau, whose 1433 returned them $130. We paid 7 places in the doubles.

Speedy Bryant was last standing in the 3-6-9 going for $900 this week. He missed on shot #3, so we will have a sweet $1,000 in the 3-6-9 pot this Saturday in our One Day Event at Arrowhead Lanes in San Bernardino.

The Match Game worth $2,690 drawn by Abilar was an unmatched 277. We will have an estimated $3,500 in the Match Game at Arrowhead Lanes Saturday. Well worth the trip I’d say!

The Match Series was Matched by one of the Nice Guys Christopher Lee and his 472 series netted him a sweet $2,198 Pot. That is the best 472 that he has ever bowled says Chris!

The Columbia “300” ball of the week went to ABTA regular, and Super Senior Lonzell Burnett who opts for the Back Yard Bully. Lonzell thanks Columbia 300 our Sponsor for the fine gift and to pretty Rowie Jucal for drawing his name.

Champion Jeff Garrison hails from Redondo Beach, and used a Storm drilled by Ed Enlow. He is single Ladies! He thanks Pat Danforth , Ed Enlow, Bowling Square, the ABTA Staff and all who stayed to root him on.

Riccilli News Good

LAKEWOOD—Jim Burke called The Bowling News to report that Fred Riccilli made his first public appearance at Cal Bowl last week.

Fred has been recovering from the diabetic coma that hospitalized him the first of May. Fred came wheeling in to meet his league cronies. (I think the familiar smell of rental shoes is good for a legendary bowling center properietor!)

The 84 year old Fred was greeted warmly, kidded a lot, and promised to sign up for a winter league. Way to go Riccilli!

Congratulations

From the Staff and Management of Buena Lanes

Firecracker Shootout at Buena Lanes

Results By Diane

VENTURA — The 2005 Firecracker Shootout at Buena Lanes drew bowlers from California, Arizona, Washington, Nevada and Hawaii. We awarded $14,000 in scholarships this year. Another increase! Scholarships awarded in 2004 was $10,047.50 and in 2003 it was $5,757 bringing the grand total in just three years to $29,804.50.

Scholarship money was earned by the sweeper winners, high game winners, bracket winners and the top 18 in Division 1, top 10 in Division 2 and top 10 in Division 3. The majority of scholarship money collected was from a huge opportunity drawing, silent auction and business advertisements. Thank you once again to all our sponsors, coaches and volunteers for helping to make this year's event another success.

Congratulations to the champions in each division. Division 3, Cory Koyanagi of Torrance, CA winning $700; Division 2, Alyse McGinnes of La Crescenta, CA winning $720 and Division 1, Nathan Panaligan of Las Vegas, NV winning $2,000. These bowlers also received a championship plaque.

After 12 games of qualifying in Division 3, the top went onto 10 games of match play and then top five stepladder. Fifth seed, Matt Cormack of Woodland Hills, CA went up against fourth seed Cory Koyanagi. Matt bowled 209 to Cory's 221. Cory proceeded to bowl third seed, Andrey Tyrell Buie of Elk Grove, CA and continued to win 213-191. Cory moved on to challenge second seed Ryan Halpert of Moorpark, CA. Cory bowled 234 to Ryan's 202, allowing him to now challenge the top seed Foster Phardanouvong of San Diego, CA. Foster's 204 made it close, but couldn't stop Cory's winning streak. Cory's 210 declared him the Division 3 champion. There were 20 boys and girls in this division. They ranged in age from 11 to 14 and hold lots of promising bowlers in the future.

Division 2 saw 13 girls participants and cut to the top 10 after 18 games of qualifying. The girls then bowled 18 games of match play followed by the top five stepladder. Fifth seed Kacy Bonifacini of San Diego, CA met fourth seed Bryanna Caldwell of Tucson, AZ. This close match had Kacy prevailing over Bryanna 235 to 233. Kacy then moved bowled the third seed Danielle Schilling of Littlerock, CA. Another close match 173-171, and Kacy moved on

Steve Says So

SEATTLE, WA — Steve Miller, PBA prexy, said, “I think bowling did die. I think the reality is that bowling went out the way of the buffalo. The truth is it didn’t market itself. It didn’t promote itself.”

Steve also said, “Bowling now on cable TV ratings have jumped 15 percent in just the last year. The kids and young people are catching the fever.”

EYE ON ENTERTAINMENT

By Ken Del Conte

“BATMAN BEGINS” — The Dark Knight has a purpose. A bit over-the-top on action but a wonderfully written and well-acted movie. Christian Bale and Katie Holmes are the young ones; Michael Caine, Morgan Freeman are the old pros. Christopher Nolan was the perfect choice as Director (remember “Memento”?).

“LAYER CAKE” — English Mafia with a twist at the end. Thick accents. We often need subtitles but you’ll have a good, raunchy time watching this one.

Oh, if you love whacky, see “KUNG FU HUSTLE”. It’s a Marx Brothers times two. Or see a new Zombie flick from Australia titled “UNDEAD”. Twin brothers directed and it is a gory-bonkers funny film. All for now.

This Saturday the 24 bowlers will meet up once again to complete the center level of the Elims tournament. A reminder to the bowlers that we begin at 11:00 with the first four games. The second session should begin about 1:00 and the top five finals in both divisions will start about 3:00. That is a lot of bowling for some of you, so please get your rest and heal those injuries.

In between the two match play sessions, we will have our Qualifying Round award presentation. Remember, the top five girls and top five boys will be advancing to the State Level tournament at Canoga Park Bowl. The center Champion and runner-up will receive their scholarship award at the end of day. I hope to see you all there.

JAT Farm Club

by David Gordon
WESTMINSTER - After a long break the JAT Farm Club came back to the wood at Westminster Lanes this past Sunday. A small field of 25 still led to some good competition.

In the qualifying round Felicia Mara gave us the tournament high game with a 259. Felicia also added a 224 to her round. Way to bowl Felicia. Other highs came in from Jenifer Wainner 253-233, Eric Milne 245, Robert Hugo 244, Dee Dee Ho 236, Dean Nishijima 224, Justin Eubanks 223-223 and Richard Brown 222. Wainner led the group after five games at plus 20 and the cut of 12 for match play came in at minus 59.

In the next round we had high games from Chris Waddle 245, Brown 237-224, Nishijima 225-235, Hugo and Milne with 224 each. Nishijima made a 6 position jump to get into the finals, but it was Waddle that most took advantage going from 9th to leader after ten games.

The finals started off with 5th seed Mara (+47) taking on 4th seed Nishijima (+78). Nishijima had no mercy on the young lady and sent her home 185-155. Next up was 3rd seed Hugo (+96) and again Nishijima took the match 218-180. Then came 2nd seed Brown (+160) and he fared no better 205-155. In the final match of the day Nishijima took on the tournament leader Waddle (+160). Dean started off strong with a turkey and never looked back, claiming his second title 234-152. Congratulations Dean.

Our next tournament will be this coming Sunday (July 24th) at AMF Rocket Lanes in Chatsworth. There will be a slight increase for this tournament of $5.00. Therefore, the Farm Club will pay $30.00 for the tournament and the Open Div. will pay $35.00. Start time is the same summer schedule, check-in 8:15 and bowl at 9:00.

We haven't been to this center in quite awhile or to the valley for that matter. It's time to come on out and show your stuff. Spread the word and I'll see you there.

SANTA FE SPRING'S- Bud's last win was almost ten years ago at Colima Lanes against Teddy Nguyen in a shoot-out.. Teddy has been away from bowling for several years but is back. Bellinder Boarders

On Perfection

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM—Missy Bellinder is certainly an outstanding stand-in for Stacy Rider and put on quite a show Friday morning in the Rocky Marsh Doubles at Linbrook. She wowed the crowd by blasting the pins, shooting 262-279-224 for a 765 and added a 214 game to win the "Blue Ribbon Award" with a fantastic 979 set. Awesome bowling, Missy!

Tony "The Tiger" Chaco was also on a roll and experienced a very rewarding morning, stroking 215-237-278 for 730 and added 205 to tally a fine 935.

Al Lara was in "the zone" and not to be outdone, rolled 209-247-200 and a 277 finale to record a nice 933.

Carl Adinolfi was having his own party (didn't invite me), fired consistent games of 201-244-236 and 247 to post 928.

Last, but certainly not least, rounding out the 900's was E.J. Rogers who cranked 245-236-214 and 225 to score 920.

What a great display of bowling, people!!

LAKEWOOD—The Las Vegas Travel league met Monday at Cal Bowl to set rules and schedule for the 48th season. The 16-team Four-some is filled and ready to start on Monday, August 8. As usual, we had great attendance (42 out of 64 members) and, as usual, only a few changes were made. The league will drop from 675 to 660 Classified due to lower league averages.

We still have plenty of 170 to 180 bowlers but more of our senior members are in the 120 to 130 bracket. Speaking of seniors, Pat Willmore will soon celebrate her 86th birthday and hopes her Cal Bowl team will repeat it's 2005 championship performance.

The 33 week league will be traveling to Cal, Cerritos, Del Rio, Linbrook, Keystone, Premiere, Rossmoor, and West-minster. Many subs are needed for bowlers ending summer leagues so nearby Cal Bowl will be hosting the first three weeks, August 8-15-22, to accomodate the super subs that are so appreciated during the season.

We regret to report Erma Palmer will be taking a bye this season due to slow recovery from her ailments. Penny Hirsch is hospitalized from a heart attack and sent Jae Etchevery to represent her Monday at the meeting. Lu Colussi was at the meeting and reports her condition improving daily from recent heart problems.

The meeting concluded with Roberta McNaught being surprised with a yummy sheet cake to celebrate her Monday, July 18th birthday. While she was cutting the cake, league members sang happy birthday and Cal Bowl provided coffee.
