Jason Belmonte Wins Back-to-Back Best Bowler ESPY Awards

Australian two-hander earns third overall award during ceremonies in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES — Jason Belmonte of Australia earned his second consecutive and third overall Best Bowler ESPY Award Wednesday evening during the 2016 ESPY Awards ceremonies at the Microsoft Theater.

Belmonte, who won his first ESPY Award in 2011, was among winners in a variety of sports and special moment categories that were determined by fan voting. The winners were announced during ABC-TV's live ESPY Awards telecast.

In 2015, Belmonte became the first international player to win three consecutive Chris Schenkel PBA Player of the Year awards. The two-handed star also became the first player to win the USBC Masters in three consecutive years and he won his second consecutive Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions title, becoming the first player to win both the Masters and TOC in back-to-back seasons.

"I'm absolutely thrilled to win the ESPY again this year," Belmonte said. "This award means so much to me because it's voted by the people who I believe matter most in bowling, the fans. My fans are a huge motivation in my game. I want to always give them my absolute best because it's what they deserve. I'd like to thank everyone who voted, but more importantly, thanks to all the fans for loving the sport of bowling."

Also nominated in the Best Bowler category were PBA Player of the Year contender Ryan Ciminelli of Cheektowaga, N.Y.; Swedish two-handed star Jesper Svensson and Texan Anthony Simonsen, also a two-handed player.

Ciminelli won three titles in 2015 including the U.S. Open and finished third in the PBA World Championship. Early in 2016 he won the bowlingball.com Maine Shootout for his sixth career PBA Tour title.

Svensson won two titles in 2015 on his way to earning PBA Rookie of the Year honors and in 2016 won the FireLake PBA Tournament of Champions to become the tournament's youngest champion at age 21.

Simonsen became the youngest player ever to win a major when he won the 2016 USBC Masters at age 19. He won his first title with partner Connor Pickford in the Mark Roth/Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship.

"Californian" JOE GOLDSTEIN Is Making Waves on the PBA 50 Tour

by Frank and Therese Weiler

LAS VEGAS — Joe Goldstein loves SAM'S TOWN. Sam's Town Lanes is where he gave notice that he has "arrived" as a bowler to contend with on the PBA 50 Tour. It was at Sam's Town Lanes that Joe "made waves" at this season's USBC Senior Masters. It was at Sam's Town Lanes that Joe finished sixth at the Senior Masters outperforming super stars such as Parker Bohn III, Norm Duke, Brian Voss and Walter Ray Williams Jr.

First it was everyone in Northern California who knew that Joe Goldstein was a great bowler. Then everyone throughout California learned of his lane skills because of his successes on the PBA Western Regional Tour. Now the whole country is learning about Joe.

A couple of weeks ago

at the USBC Senior Masters Goldstein made big waves. After three days and fifteen games of qualifying he stood in twenty-first place with 3,292 pins (+292) based on a 219.5 average. He made the cut and joined 63 other qualifiers for Match Play.

Joe was outstanding during Match Play. He won five of six matches, beating Hall of Famers Walter Ray Williams Jr. and Brian Voss in two of those six matches. He just missed the X-tra Frame "TV" step ladder finals after a four man roll off with Paul McCordic, Ron Mohr and Andy Neuer.

Great bowling Joe. Congratulations on your Senior Masters performance. We in CALIFORNIA are proud and impressed.

Taft's Zack Long is selected JBT "Scratch Rookie of the Year"

by Bette Addington, California Bowling Writers

TAFT — How time flies! Flashback to last year we were thrilled to hear Zack won not one but three JBT (Junior Bowlers Tour) honors—Bowler of the Year (All Conference); Handicap All Star (Mojave Conference); and Handicap Bowler of the Year (Southern CA Conference).

This year the JBT Banquet was held at The Terrace in Las Vegas on Sun., July 10 and since Zack was already in Vegas to compete in the TPC (Touring Players Championships), he attended. Zack, who just turned 17, said he “got an unexpected and very appreciated award” as he was selected the Scratch Rookie of the Year for the Mojave Conference! This JBT season Long won one title and that was at the Tournament of Non-Champions at Let it Roll Lanes in Phoenix, AZ on June 19th. But, add to that, Zack rolled a 300 game at Antelope Lanes in Prescott, AZ, competing in a JBT tournament on March 27th. So even though he didn’t collect a lot of titles this season, he was making a good showing and obviously noticed! He averaged 195 this season in JBT which has their bowlers bowl on different patterns every weekend in competition. In contrast, here locally bowling in his Youth league, he booked 213.

Zack ended with “What an amazing season this has been. Man, I can’t wait for the next one!! Huge thank you to Jeff Hemer and Jerod Florez for all of your hard work throughout every season of JBT. This wouldn’t be possible without you guys!” Congratulations, Zack!

PBA Bowling Challenge Unveils New Bowling Venue, "UFO" Ball, New Tournaments

Already established as one of the world’s most popular games for mobile devices, Concrete Software’s PBA Bowling Challenge will unveil a new bowling venue (Lane 51), a new bowling ball (UFO) and new tournaments on Thursday...with additional enhancements on the drawing board for a to-be-announced debut later in the summer.

For newcomers to the PBA Bowling Challenge Mobile Game, mobile device users can sign up to play the game at no cost and, as Concrete Software notes, “Rise through the ranks of the PBA as you travel from state to state facing the top bowlers in the county. Starting in a local alley with a scuffed up 12 pound ball, you’ll hone your skills against bowling legends on your way to competing in the Tournament of Champions!” PBA Bowling Challenge provides mobile device users an opportunity to choose the opponents they want to play against, including 21 PBA stars such as hall of famers Walter Ray Williams Jr. and Pete Weber, among others; track your own stats, pick your location, decide your style of play, selected from a wide variety of bowling balls, and much more. Special trick balls are optional and add to the fun. If you are not already a PBA Bowling Challenge participant, visit Google Play (Android), the App Store (Apple), Nook or the Amazon Appstore to get started.

Debbie Stelle and Richard Melendrez Shine Brightest in Winning No-Tap Event

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – “I was shocked,” Debbie Stelle said. “I was very surprised,” Richard Melendrez said. To be sure, the two bowlers from Canoga Park were unlikely champions of a no-tap doubles tournament July 9 at Winnetka Bowl. They certainly weren’t the most feared pair of bowlers in this event that featured a large assortment of some of the elite players in the San Fernando Valley area. The 80-year-old Melendrez entered the tournament with a 138 average. The 69-year-old Stelle carried a 135 average. Yet, they were nothing short of spectacular in this three-game handicap tournament. Melendrez crushed a 616 series (210, 230, 186) and Stelle chipped in with a stellar 537 series (145, 154, 238). With their sizable handicap, Melendrez and Stelle rolled up a huge total of 1,584 that proved too much for the 200-average-plus bowlers to match. The dynamic duo won $446 for its first-place effort, outdistancing teams that boasted such elite bowlers as Tim Tripp, Johnnie Englehart, Charles Kenny and Matt Jones.

Melendrez said he had bowled previous 600 series but it was a “long time ago. I had bypass [surgery] three, four years ago. I used to have a 15-pound ball and now I use a nine-pounder.” Altogether, Melendrez took home more than $350 because of his additional winnings during the day. This marked the second of three no-tap doubles tournaments scheduled for Winnetka Bowl during the summer. A whopping 106 bowlers took part, exceeding last month’s event that drew 76 players. This month’s participants included a large turnout of top-caliber Valley bowlers on the challenging Professional Bowlers Assn. Viper oil pattern.

Finishing 26 points behind the champs at 1,558 was the team of Bob Englehart and Mark Levine, who won $360 for placing second. Englehart, a Valley legend with his towering left-handed backswing, was at his enthusiastic best during the event, spurred on by his opening 297 game. He finished with an 812 scratch, adding scores of 276 and 239.

Susan Cortez and Joannie Petiya finished third at 1,513 and won $200. Brad Graeff Jr. and Jim Gibbons took fourth at 1,508 and won $100. Dino Reyes and Jackie Herndon scored 1,505 to claim fourth, winning $60. Jeff Monzella and Matt Jones were the lone bowlers to rack up perfect games. Jones also recorded a 254 en route to a 752 series. Johnnie Englehart turned in a solid effort with scores of 250, 210 and 278 for a 738 series. On the heels of that strong performance, Englehart went on to blister an 818 series (259, 300, 259) during league play at Winnetka Bowl. At one point, Englehart posted 22 strikes in a row. Tripp recorded one of the top scores of the no-tap tournament with a 274 en route to a 735 series (244, 274, 217). Kenny had a 690 series, but his big highlight came a day later when he smashed back-to-back perfect games in another no-tap tournament. Winnetka Bowl will host its third no-tap doubles tournament of the summer on Aug. 13.

Here's a Los Angeles Bowling Quiz

by Fred Eisenhammer

Los Angeles may not be the capital of the bowling world, but for many, it's the center of their bowling universe. So in keeping with that L.A.-doesn't-get-the-respect-it-deserves theme, we're dedicating a bowling quiz to Los Angeles and its many talented bowlers.

To get in the mood of taking the Los Angeles Bowling Quiz, here's some bowling humor.

Q: Why are football players not allowed in bowling centers?
A: After getting a strike, they spike the ball.
And:
Q: What is the difference between Barry Zito and Walter Ray Williams Jr.?
A: Walter Ray knows how to throw a strike.

Now that you're ready (hopefully), here goes the Los Angeles Bowling Quiz:

1 – In February, Charles Kenny blasted an 876 series with games of 300, 277 and 299 in league play. The series is believed to be the second-highest in San Fernando Valley history – surpassed only by the 888 that Anthony Sharperson recorded in 2011 at now-defunct Mission Hills Bowl. At which bowling center did Kenny roll his series?

- a) Bowlero Woodland Hills
- b) Corbin Bowl in Tarzana
- c) Jewel City Bowl in Glendale

2 – What is the name of Mike Weekley's band that qualified to perform in the prestigious Rockfest on May 14 at Liberty Memorial in downtown Kansas City?

- a) Dirty Machine
- b) Dirt Hogs
- c) Dirty Jokes

3 – Tim Tripp nailed his first PBA Regional title in March by defeating Justin Spurrier in a one-game championship match. Tripp outscored Spurrier by how many pins?

- a) 70 (245-175)
- b) 40 (211-171)
- c) 20 (188-168)

4 – The eclectic and electric "Girls With Balls" four-women bowling team has attracted local headlines for its creative name and fun-filled action. What league has that team competed in for more than a decade?

- a) Superstars
- b) Bill Mossontte Majors
- c) Guys and Dolls

5 – At 20 years old, Justin Pluchino scorched a stunning 900 no-tap series (three perfect games) in May at Winnetka Bowl. How many of the 36 strikes were legitimate?

- a) 11
- b) 13
- c) 29

6 – Blake McBride, Keith Nahan, Charles Kenny and Tim Tripp did something special on the same night in the Bill Mossontte Majors league at Corbin Bowl? What was it?

- a) They each bowled a perfect game.
- b) They each registered an all-spare game.
- c) They each bowled a 299.

Charles Kenny blistered an 876 series with games of 300, 277 and 299.

Tim Tripp recorded his first PBA Regional title by outclassing Justin Spurrier in the title game.

At 20 years old, Justin Pluchino crushed a stunning 900 no-tap series.

7– Which former Los Angeles Laker center will forever be linked to bowling because he sustained a serious knee injury bowling while he was rehabilitating an injury to his other knee?

- a) Andrew Bynum
- b) Vlade Divac
- c) Elden Campbell

8 – What did Shirley Radamaker do on her 90th birthday in May?

- a) She knocked down the 7-10 split.
- b) She converted the 1-10 spare.
- c) She rolled a strike with her eyes closed.

9 – What stunning announcement did 61-year-old charismatic bowler Russ Gothrick make?

- a) He was retiring from the game because of an injury.
- b) He was joining the PBA50 circuit.
- c) He was buying a string of bowling centers.

10 – What does rising star Greg Kolski consider as the possible turning point of his career?

- a) Bowling a whirlwind 100 games in one day in a practice session that lasted 13 hours 10 minutes.
- b) Scoring a 182 game that was marked by all spares.
- c) Rolling a 300 no-tap game

Answers:
1c 2a 3a 4c 5c 6a 7a 8b 9a 10a

Scoring:
8-10 correct: A kingpin.
6-7: An expert.
4-5: Still learning the game.
0-3: Needs to enroll in a college bowling course.

NORWALK—A light turnout, but lots of fun at Keystone Lanes. Jaimee Pantuan stepped up and won her first ABTA Title taking a sweet $2,500 home to Cerritos by downing top seed Raul Aldaz in the Title game. She won 5 straight matches in the single elimination roll-offs, not an easy task.

Cut scores were on lower side but fair to all with Men +60 and Ladies +10! Super Seniors added were, two men and one woman, Ed Palma +61, Eric Will +59 and Veronica Boone -3. Top Qualifiers were Tomas Chavez +122 men and Gina Verlarde +88 led the ladies. They receive paid entries to any regular event for the fine bowling.

Tomas and Gina drew for the Match Series worth $485 & drew 692. No Winner! The Mystery Doubles 474 also no winner worth $490. They carryover to Action Lanes.

The 3-6-9 Pot carried over as Edmund Del Mundo missed on Shot t# 2 going for $1,000! Edmund got a $100 Consolation so we go for $1,100 Saturday.

The semis began and we saw Raul Aldaz lead the field +113 and in 2nd was Bert Pamintun +99. So Raul will sit out and bowl for the title with Bert entering the top 16 single elms in round two! Aldaz drew a 107 for the Match Game worth $665 and UN matched. We estimate the Match Game at $1,450 Saturday at West Covina Lanes.

It took only a +29 to make the Single Elim Finals which included 3 ladies. Glen Tse and his good friend Annie Liao tied at +29. Annie wins the 9-10 frame roll off to advance to Finals. Glen in 17th place.

Finalists losing in the first round in 10-16th places were Sierrie Herradura, Tomas Chavez, Danny Eguilos, Mike Moore, Jing Lebaquin, Michael Zhang and the “Pride of Bakersfield” Chris Gregory. They got checks of $100.

6-9th places were Conrad Amado, Chris Abing Annie Liao and Ferdinand Alarcio! Round 3, being eliminated were Bert Pamintuan and Carlos Umana who finished in 4th and 5th.

Now down to top 3! Du Quach vs Jaimee Pamintuan for the right to bowl Raul Aldaz for the title!

What a close game. It went to the final ball/pin. DU had some bad Luck as Jaimee advanced in a big way. A late strike fell for Jaimee and she wins a thriller 247-239 with hcp. to advance to the title game. Mr. Quach was 3rd with nice bowling and $200.

The title game was also higher scoring and close. Jaimee led but Raul stayed with her until he chopped a spare and then split. Jaimee with only one open wins her first ever ABTA Title via 238-212. All scores including handicap and it can't go to a finer lady. She beat one of the Good Guys. Good things happen to Good People. Congrats Jaimee, title #2 is next.

Jaimee is from Cerritos, used her 900 Global/Respect drilled by Ben Mach. $100 BONUS and wants to thank Ed Palma for giving her the ball. She's single and usually bowls with her Dad, Bert. Her Mom Virgie was on hand to see her win her first championship. By the way dad finished 4th at Keystone!

Raul Aldan, a past champion, aka Raz Mataz is from Whittier, used an Alpha/Crux Storm drilled by Roger at Beverly Bowl and he is single. He is a true Premiere Lanes bowler of the past and one of the Good Guys.

Du “Andy” Quach is from Rosemead, used his Storm drilled by Gerard at Action Lanes and wants to thank his bowling buddies for their support. He is a barber, haircutter by trade and a damn good one in San Gabriel. A long time faithful ABTA Member many years and is also One of the Good guys.

Thank YOU to the fine staff at Keystone and to Randy and Reggie for a tough but very fair shot!! One of the Best, and we return there for sure!

It was good to see our friends from Bakersfield at Keystone. The Curtis' John and “Iron Mike” along with Chris Gregory and Bob Long! Great People here! Lots of good men in B Field :-)

CHRIS PAUL NAMED ESPN’S SPORTS HUMANITARIAN OF THE YEAR

Los Angeles Clippers all-star point guard Chris Paul has been named ESPN’s second annual Sports Humanitarian of the Year for using the power of sports to make a positive impact on society, ESPN announced Wednesday.

Paul and his family have dedicated themselves to helping children through the Chris Paul Family Foundation. The Chris Paul PBA Celebrity Bowling Invitational, which airs annually on ESPN, is one of the events that contributes to the foundation.

After opening a newly-refurbished Boys & Girls Club in Watts, Paul said, ““It hit me that it’s not fair...that a kid on this side of town doesn’t have the same opportunities as a kid on the other side of town.”

For his work with the Boys & Girls Club and his dedication to helping the community, Paul received the April 2015 NBA Cares Community Assist Award in recognition of his outstanding charitable contributions and philanthropy, one of three community assist awards he received in his career. Paul and his family foundation have made a $1 million commitment to Boys & Girls Clubs across the country, from Los Angeles to his hometown of Winston-Salem, N.C., where he established the Nathaniel Jones Scholarship Fund at Wake Forest, providing one athletic and one academic full-ride scholarship to the school.

With charitable efforts such as his annual Chris Paul PBA Celebrity Bowling Invitational and his TopSpin Celebrity Ping Pong Tournament in Las Vegas, he’s also found ways to raise money in exciting and fun ways, often bringing in other celebrities to help the cause.

“As a lot of people know, we really focus on putting technology and computer labs in underprivileged schools,” Paul said during his 2016 bowling event. “Events like this, while they’re fun and give people the opportunity to entertain and have a good time, it’s all going to a great cause. It’s always a lot of fun, and it’s good to have some new faces.”

PBA champions Jason Belmonte, Ryan Ciminelli and Anthony Simonsen – three of the four nominees for the “Best Bowler” ESPY award – attended the event (visit the Photo Gallery on pba.com for photos: <http://www.pba.com/PhotoGalleries/Details/348>). The fourth nominee – Sweden’s Jesper Svensson – was unable to attend. Belmonte won the ESPY for the second year in a row and the third time overall.

Letters To The Editor

From The Desk of Chris Pilios

I just love it when you have articles about the old days... I graduated from high school in 1959, so all of this info about bowling at that time brings back so many great memories.

You mentioned EASY LANES in Signal Hill, but you never heard of it. If you don't mind, I can pass along a little of what I remember...I do know that the main principal of this little 8-lane house was Billy Maglione, and if memory serves me right, he had a partner by the name of Norm Fesler.

Both were in their prime as top SoCal bowlers in 1959, so in an effort to kick-start their new house, they convinced a good number of the big L.A. shooters to come down and bowl a summer open league there as part of their grand opening.

Since I lived over by Cal Bowl, it was only a two or three mile drive south to go watch our great SoCal bowlers without having to drive all the way to Vermont Bowl. My memory is foggy as to whether they were still employing pin boys that summer or not, but it was a real treat having the big boys visit my town.

Keep up the good work...I just love trivia like this.

Thank you for endorsing Steven Felege's "The Essentials of Bowling:Approaching the Perfect Game:2nd Edition".

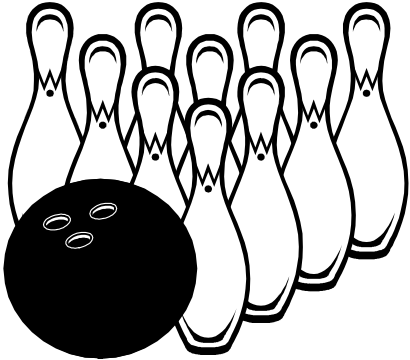

This book is a must have for every bowler looking for a well illustrated guide to learn, teach, and understand the technique to bowl effectively. Not since the 70' have I seen such a well-written guide which empowers bowlers to seek out the preferred method of Bowling.

Throughout the 70 page book the author breaks down the basic fundamentals of Bowling into five well written and concise chapters. Each area is well illustrated which facilitates the learning process by demonstrating how each of the five areas ought to be utilized. I simply cannot thank you enough.

Sincerely, Farhod Azarbaydjani

MONTCLAIR — Anne Clifford had been running our Friday Stokers League for over 25 years. It is a designated league for those who have had strokes, heart attacks, debilitating accidents or sicknesses that have limited their ability to bowl or function as they used to. The league consists of a wonderful group of dedicated bowlers who love to bowl. Some of them have been using special constructed ramps for their use. We have dedicated people and bowlers who move the ramps where they are to be placed at the foul line. And help by placing the bowling balls on the ramps for those that need them. This is a happy league and a very fun loving league. They were previously bowling at Covina Bowl but now have moved it to Bowlium Lanes in Montclair. They are extending an invitation to anyone who would like to bowl with us and have a wonderful time doing so.

BURBANK — I think I can safely say the heat is drag-ging almost all of us down. It's brutal out there!

The bowling center is usually a “cool” place to hang out in this weather and many take advantage of the AC. However, here's a word of warning. Most centers do not have air conditioning but have swamp cooling instead. This makes for a humid atmosphere on the lanes and when it's turned up, the humidity gets even higher. You sweat, your ball sweats, the lane surface sweats. So to speak anyway.

The warning is to watch for lane conditions being differ-ent and the approaches to be a bit damp. Your fingers and thumb may swell and become sticky in the ball.

Be prepared. Be sure to have all the things you like to use to combat humid conditions with you, even if you're not in Louisiana.
